TEAM NOTES

OREGON STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 101

If this is your first time covering Oregon State Women's Basketball, these are the five most important things to know about the way we play basketball:

- Elite position defense is normally the team's calling card. Under Scott Rueck the Beavs rank fifth in the nation in FG% defense, holding foes to 35.7% shooting since 2010-11
- That FG% defense is no accident. Typically, OSU looks to force opponents into their lowest-percentage looks rather than risk their position for steals or turnovers.
- Holding opponents to one shot is crucial for defensive success: OSU ranks 10th nationally in rebound margin over the last 10 seasons (+8.1)
- Offensively, Oregon State teams traditionally opt to surround posts with open shooters, forcing defenses to pick their poison between guarding the arc and the rim
- Scott Rueck has coached 14 all-league posts at OSU and his teams have shot an average of 34.6 percent from downtown (14th nationally since his arrival in Corvallis)

HEADED BACK TO THE PAC (12)

The Beavs are grateful to be affiliate members of the WCC for the 2024-25 and 2025-26 seasons. Next year, Oregon State and fellow original league member, Washington State will resume Pac-12 play with the new members on the conference: Boise State, Colorado State, Fresno State, Gonzaga, San Diego State, Texas State and Utah State. New members will officially join on July 1, 2026.

VIVA VILLA!

After her career high of 27 points, Jenna Villa reached 517 career points against Oregon. In her first two seasons, she averaged 5.6 points per game and 53 points over her first nine games of the season. This year, Villa has more than doubled her performance, averaging 13.1 points per game with 118 points overall.

FILLING IT UP

Tiara Bolden is one of 19 players in the country to be averaging 15 points on 50% or better shooting from the field and 44.7% or better from three-point range. Bolden leads the team, averaging 15.3 points per game. With 20+ points against Illinois, Air Force and Utah State Bolden became the first Beav to have 20+ point games in a row since Raegan Beers in 2024. The last to score 20+ points in four straight games was Marie Gulich in 2018.

HOW CAN SHE ASSIST YOU

Kennedie Shuler ranks among the nation's most consistent distributors. The Oregon product is one of just 10 players nationally to hand out five-or-more assists in eight or more games this season. Shuler is tied for 17th nationally and leads the WCC with 6.0 assists per game.

SHOOTIN' SCHIMEL

Ally Schimel joined Oregon State as a walk-on after dominating 3A Oregon high schools for four years at Corbett on the way to two state runner-ups and a title as a senior. The freshman quickly proved herself as a Beav, leading the team in season plus-minus, and earned a scholarship at the team's holiday party. This year, the sharpshooting sophomore is already a major threat from downtown, making 51.5% of her triples.

MS. MAKE IT HAPPEN

Kennedie Shuler's growth is on full display. After struggling at points last season, she is emerging as one of the top table-setters in the WCC. Shuler sits fourth in the WCC with an assist/turnover ratio of 1.80. Averaging 6 assists per game, the playmaker leads the WCC after posting a career high of 14 assists against Long Beach State. Dating back to last season, Shuler dished out at least five assists in five of her last six games including the last five in a row.

BOLDEN'S BIG SUMMER

Scott Rueck challenged Tiara Bolden to take 10,000 three-pointers this summer. She doubled that, and the results are plain to see. It's early, but Bolden is shooting more than 10% better from three (44.7% vs. 31.5% in 2024-25) this season on two more attempts per game. The work with Rueck over the summer helped refine the senior's jumper and she's averaged 15.3 points per game through the Beavs opening nine games.

BOLD(EN) ON THE BOARDS

In addition to elite speed and work ethic, Tiara Bolden makes an extra impact on the boards with 5.4 per game to open the season. The senior averaged 3.9 rebounds per game in 2024-25, which ranks third among returning conference guards. Bolden pulled down 5+ rebounds 13 times last season.

NOTES

NEW ELEMENTS IN THE LAB

Lara Alonso-Basurto made history just two games into her collegiate career by becoming the first Oregon State player to record back-to-back double-doubles in her first two college games. In the same weekend, LAB led the Beavs against Corban with 14 points and 11 rebounds and posted 12 rebounds and 11 points against Air Force.

HELP WANTED FOUND: SHOOTING

Adding shooting - internally and externally - was a priority during Oregon State's offseason. So far, so good. The Beavs shot better than 50% from the floor in back-to-back games against Air Force and Illinois. OSU shot over 50% four times in 2024-25 and just once in back-to-back games. Among internal improvements Kennedie Shuler and Tiara Bolden are each shooting at least 7% better and the additions of Lizzy Williamson and Lara Alonso-Basurto each aided the team's offense as well.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

Tiara Bolden and Nene Sow each earned their first career double-doubles against Utah State. Bolden finished with 23 points and 11 rebounds for her third 20+ point game. Sow posted 15 rebounds and 11 points, blowing her previous season high of 2 out of the water.

BUILT BETTER

Scott Rueck's next act as an elite post coach might take on a new look with players who received limited touches before OSU developing into difference-makers as Beavers. The veteran coach may have his next two all-conference bigs on the team in Néné Sow and Lizzy Williamson. The duo will look to become his 13th and 14th posts to earn all-league honors in Year 16. Previous portal posts to thrive under Rueck include:

- Before playing under Rueck, Kelsey Rees averaged 3.3 points per game and 16.3% from three. Last season, Rees averaged 12.9 points per game and 32.1% three-point shooting en route to All-WCC First Team and All-WCC Tournament honors.
- Sela Heide's 2.4 points per game grew to 7.3, and she improved her field goal percentage from 53.7% to 71.3%.

AGE IS JUST A NUMBER

Due to a mix of injuries, redshirts, covid years and Pavia waivers, three Beavers will be in at least their sixth season of college basketball this year: Catarina Ferreira (6th), Néné Sow (6th) and Lizzy Williamson (7th).

CLEAN DEFENSE

One of the tenants of a Scott Rueck-coached team is defending without fouling. Over the last 10 seasons, the Beavers are the second-most whistle-averse team in the nation. Only UConn does a better job at defending without fouling.

Washington State transfer Jenna Villa brings the versatility to play in Oregon State's system both on the wing and at the four. The junior impacts the game as a smart secondary playmaker and deadeye shooter,

NOTES

NO CHARITY
As in year's past, Oregon State's clean defense meant opposing teams rarely make it to the charity stripe. The Beavers allowed the fewest opponent free throw attempts per game in the WCC and fifth-fewest in the nation last season at 11.3. OSU's opponents shot at least one fewer free throw per game than their next closest conference foe.

NOTHING IN LIFE IS FREE
As in year's past, Oregon State's clean defense meant opposing teams rarely make it to the charity stripe. The Beavers allowed the fewest opponent free throw attempts per game in the WCC and fifth-fewest in the nation last season at 11.3. OSU's opponents shot at least one fewer free throw per game than their next closest conference foe.

Team	Opp. FTA/Game	Fouls/Game
1. Richmond	8.9	12
2. UConn	9.9	12.9
3. FDU	10.9	12.9
4. St. Bonaventure	11.3	13.4
5. Oregon State	11.3	13.7

OWNING THE BOARDS
Oregon State has been one of the top rebounding teams in the country over the last ten seasons. The Beavs have a rebounding margin of +8.1 during that time, which ranks ninth nationally. In five of those seasons, OSU ranked top-10 in the country in rebounding margin while finishing in the top-25 twice more (#23 last season at +7.1)

FLOOR GENERAL
Kennedie Shuler had a steep learning curve to open the 2024-25 season, taking on the starting point guard role after playing just 9.8 minutes per game as a freshman. There were some early bumps in the road, but Shuler came into her own over the last half of the season, averaging 9.5 points, 4.5 assists, 3.5 rebounds and a 2.68 A/TO ratio in the regular season's final 13 games. Shuler also grew from 3 assists per game and an assist/turnover ratio of .91 in her first 17 games to 4.4 assists per game and an assist/turnover ratio of 1.93 in last 18 games of the regular season.

A MILE IN HER SHOES
It's going to take the whole squad to fill Catarina Ferreira's shoes after she suffered a season-ending injury. Her direct minutes are likely to be absorbed by Jenna Villa and Lara Alonso at the 4, but only a team effort can account for her impact. The senior had eight double-doubles last season to lead returning conference players, shot 79.2 percent from the free throw line and recorded 64 offensive rebounds (4th in the WCC last season).

STAYING IN THE PAC
Intra-Pac-12 transfer Jenna Villa adds shooting depth and versatility to the Beavers' lineup, showing potential to make an immediate difference on both ends of the floor. The junior from Arlington, Wash. shot better than 33 percent from three in both of the last two seasons at Washington State.

Tiara Bolden (Eugene, Ore. | Churchill HS) is one of three Beaver State products on this year's OSU team. She's joined by two Portland-area guards in Kennedie Shuler (Gresham, Ore. | Sam Barlow HS) and Ally Schimel (Corbett, Ore. | Corbett HS). All three project for major roles in 2025-26.

NOTES

AUSSIE! AUSSIE! AUSSIE!

After successfully developing Aussies like Kelsey Rees and Jasmine Simmons into key contributors, the Beavs added three players from Down Under to this year's roster. Super senior Lizzy Williamson transferred in from NC State while Keira Lindemans and Katie Field joined Oregon State as freshmen. Lindemans and Field made an impression on OSU staff while beating strong American AAU competition in the Phoenix Nike Tournament of Champions together with ATC Academy.

¡VAMOS ESPAÑA!

Lara Alonso, Cloe Vecina and Lucia Navarro make up the Spanish trio on Oregon State's roster. The latter duo were the first Spanish players at OSU under Scott Rueck. Navarro and Alonso played together during tryouts for the U20 Spanish EuroBasket team this summer.

VOICE OF THE BEAVS

Voice of the Beavers Ron Callan has called 544 Oregon State women's basketball games since joining the program in the 2007-08 season, holding a record of 332-211 during that span. Ron called his 500th game of OSU women's basketball against Utah in 2024, a 91-66 victory. Callan will have his work cut out for him on senior day. As part of a ten-year tradition, he sings the national anthem for all international student-athletes on their senior day. This year, he has three to sing: Colombia (Susana Yepes), Australia (Lizzy Williamson), and Belgium (Néné Sow).

HOME SWEET HOME

Oregon State played just 12 home games last year, a result of needing to schedule a more challenging non-conference slate. With return trips from multiple power conference teams slated for this season, the Beavs will spend much more time at home. They play their 13th home game on January 31 vs. San Francisco.

PRO BEAVS

Development in the Oregon State program helped several former players earn spots on pro teams all over the world. Numbers fluctuate as seasons start and end, but OSU has 12 alumni playing professionally. Notable performances include Kat Tudor earning a spot on the WBBL Team of the Year and Mikayla Pivec earning NBL1 East First-Team honors. Tudor and Tea Adams also led the Caledonia Gladiators to their first Super League Basketball Final with a 68-62 win over the Sheffield Hatters. Marie Gulich (Germany) and Ali Gibson (Puerto Rico) each represented their countries at the most-recent Olympics. Gibson was OSU's first two-time Olympian in women's basketball.

BEAVER STAFF NOTES

» Assistant Coach Deven Hunter enters her fifth season on the Oregon State staff. Hunter worked at San Diego prior to joining the Beavers, and was part of OSU's 2016 Final Four squad as a player. She played a major role in developing All-American post Raegan Beers and All-WCC Forward Kelsey Rees

» Fellow assistant and 2016 Final Four team member Sydney Wiese returned to her second home last season after a lengthy professional career that included stints with the LA Sparks, Washington Mystics and several international teams.

» Director of Player Personnel and Assistant Coach Eric Ely is back on the bench for his 14th season with the Beavs. A post coach by trade, Ely played a major role in developing players like Pac-12 DPOYs Ruth Hamblin and Marie Gulich during his earlier coaching stint in Corvallis. Ely - whose wife is from Brazil and speaks Portuguese - was the primary recruiter for Catarina Ferreira.

» Assistant Coach/Video Coordinator Jared Vedus joined the staff two years ago as a GA after spending three years as a practice player for the Beavers. He joined the full-time staff this summer.

» Associate AD for Sport Performance Jeff Macy oversees all of Oregon State's strength and conditioning programs and is the strength coach for the Beaver women. He spent ten years in the NBA, five with the Chicago Bulls (2001-2006) and five with the Milwaukee Bucks (2008-2013). Macy is in his second stint with Oregon State.

» First-year Director of Ops Elizabeth Rudisill was a career diplomat with the US Department of State. She spent years working at embassies in South Korea, Mexico, Cuba, Australia, and Côte d'Ivoire.

» Athletic Trainer Jason Lieuw is the longest serving member of the Oregon State staff, currently in his 17th year and worked his 500th game with the program last year (at Pacific, 1/25/25).

HEAD COACH SCOTT RUECK (16TH SEASON)

It was a homecoming of sorts for OSU alumnus Scott Rueck, who was named the fifth head coach in the history of the Oregon State women's basketball program on June 30, 2010.

Rueck has been the architect of an accelerated turnaround of the women's basketball program at Oregon State, bringing the team onto the national stage.

Rueck has led the Beavers to nine NCAA Tournaments, including the 2024 event where he took a team picked 10th in the Pac-12 preseason poll to the Elite 8. OSU was also poised to earn a top-4 seed prior to the cancellation of the 2019-20 Tournament due to COVID-19. Oregon State won three-straight Pac-12 titles from 2015-17, and has made five Sweet-16's, three Elite Eight's and a Final Four.

The two-time OSU graduate entered the Oregon State Hall of Fame for the first time with his 2016 Final Four Team on November 10, 2023. Rueck led the Beavers to a sweep of the Pac-12 regular season and conference titles in addition to the Final Four

The now-15th-year coach has led the Beavers to 49 wins over AP Top 25 programs during his time at Oregon State, including 16 over top-10 teams. Squaring off against some of the best players in the nation, the Beavers have often at least held their own. OSU went 4-4 against Oregon during Sabrina Ionescu's time in Eugene and recorded an 7-1 mark against Washington while Pac-12 all-time leading scorer Kelsey Plum played for the Huskies.

Oregon State also developed its own superstars under Rueck. Five players earned All-America honors in six years between 2015-2020. Jamie Weisner and Ruth Hamblin won back-to-back Pac-12 Player of the Year honors in 2015-16 and Hamblin, Gabby Hansen and Marie Gulich won Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year in four straight seasons between 2015-18. Sydney Weise was another of the All-Americans and also won the Senior Class Award in 2017 after earning All-Pac-12 recognition for four straight seasons.
