STARTING FIVE

» For the first time in school history, Oregon State opened a women's basketball season with a home loss, falling to WAC Champion Cal Baptist 79-77 on Wednesday
» The Beavers had several bright spots even with the result, namely getting 22 points from freshman Taylor Young on 10-of-18 shooting from the floor
» An underrated moment from the game came in the fourth quarter when fellow freshman Ashley Uusitalo buried her first college basket, a clutch three-pointer that put the Beavers up four points with 4:46 remaining in the contest
» Jenna Villa contributed scoring for the Beavers with 21 points and Kennedie Shuler had yet another game with at least 10p-5a-5r-1b-1s
» The Beavs had several uncharacteristic moments in the game as well, allowing 15 offensive rebounds and 18 turnovers to give CBU a 22-shot advantage

Evelini Smith was as-advertised vs. CBU making all three of her field goals and scoring 8 off the bench

NUMBERS TO KNOW

TEAM NOTES

OREGON STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 101

These are the five most important things to know about the way OSU plays basketball:

- Elite position defense is normally the team's calling card. Under Scott Rueck the Beavs rank fifth in the nation in FG% defense, holding foes to 35.8% shooting since 2010-11
- That FG% defense is no accident. Typically, OSU looks to force opponents into their lowest-percentage looks rather than risk their position for steals or turnovers
- Holding opponents to one shot is crucial for defensive success: OSU ranks 13th nationally in rebound margin over the last 10 seasons (+7.3)
- Offensively, Oregon State teams traditionally opt to surround posts with excellent shooters, forcing defenses to pick their poison between guarding the arc and the rim
- Scott Rueck has coached 14 all-league posts at OSU and his teams have shot an average of 34.5 percent from downtown (17th nationally since his arrival in Corvallis)

(MISSED) SHOTS! SHOTS! SHOTS SHOTS SHOTS SHOTS! EVERYBODY!

Oregon State's defensive ideology is simple: Make other teams take shots they don't like taking. In a survey of anonymous coaches done by The Athletic, one coach said of Rueck's defense: "Whatever you're really good at, they're gonna take away. If you're good at ABC, you better come with DEF because they're not gonna give you ABC." Since Rueck got to Corvallis, the Beavs rank fifth in the country in opponent field goal percentage (35.8%), effective field goal percentage (40.1%) and true shooting percentage (43.8%).

NO LAYUPS

The Beavers thrive on creating low-percentage looks inside the arc. In Rueck's 16 seasons at the helm, OSU ranked in the top-10 of opponent two-point percentage eight times and in the top-25 14 times. Last season, the Beavs were exactly 25th (40.8%). Combine that with a low free-throw rate - OSU consistently ranks among the teams with the fewest fouls nationally - and it's easy to understand why teams struggle to find easy points against Oregon State.

CLEAN DEFENSE

One of the tenants of a Scott Rueck-coached team is defending without fouling. Over the last 10 seasons, the Beavers are the most whistle-averse team in the nation.

Team	Fouls/Game (Last 10 Seasons)
1. Oregon State	12.9
2. UConn	13.0
3. NC State	13.5
Colorado State	13.5
5. Wyoming	13.6

NO CHARITY

As in year's past, Oregon State's clean defense meant opposing teams rarely made it to the charity stripe in 2025-26. The Beavers allowed the fewest opponent free throw attempts per game in the WCC and 4th-fewest in the nation last season at 10.5. Over the last 10 years, the Beavers allowed opponents to take just 12.1 free throws per game, which ranks third nationally behind NC State (11.6) and UConn (10.9).

TOP OF THE PAC

Oregon State was one of the top teams in the Pac-12 after 2014-15 with a 113-57 record in league play. Beaver players earned 14 All-Pac-12 First-Team nods over the final seven seasons and head coach Scott Rueck is one of five coaches in Pac-12 history to win the Coach of the Year Award multiple times, including the final media award of the old Pac-12 in 2023-24

OWNING THE BOARDS

Oregon State has been one of the top rebounding teams in the country over the last ten seasons. The Beavs put an emphasis on holding opponents to one possession and their defensive rebounding rate of 74.9% ranks 10th nationally over the last 10 years. In four of those seasons, OSU ranked top-10 in the country in rebounding margin while finishing in the top-25 twice more.

THE SCHEDULE GAME

The Beavers' 2026-27 non-conference schedule is full of winning programs. Five 2025-26 conference champions are on this season's slate to go with four power-conference foes including two (Oregon & BYU) at home. OSU also makes a trip east ahead of league play to take on two Ivy League schools (Princeton, Columbia) who have earned NCAA Tournament at-large and auto-bids. Only three of 15 teams on the non-conference schedule had losing records last season (Arizona, UCR, EWU) while six (Princeton, CBU, Southern, Oregon, Vandy & Fairfield) made the NCAA Tournament.

NOTES

SCORERS EVERYWHERE
Oregon State's guards are a headache for opposing defenses. All-WCC first-team selections Jenna Villa and Kennedie Shuler each averaged 12+ points per game last season and both can erupt at any time. Shuler (31 at Pacific) and Villa (32 v. Pacific, 31 v. Gonzaga) are the first pair of Beaver teammates to each score 30+ points at least once since Marie Gulich (36 on 2/25/18 v. Arizona State) and Kat Tudor (34 on 1/19/18 v. Oregon).

WHAT CAN'T SHE DO?
Opponents and teammates felt Kennedie Shuler's impact all over the court last season. Shuler was one of seven players in the country to record at least 10 points, 5 assists, 5 rebounds, 1 steal and 1 block in six games. Only USC's Jazzy Davidson and Florida's Liv McGill had more than the Gresham-native.

HOW CAN SHE ASSIST YOU
Shuler is among the nation's most consistent distributors. The Gresham, Oregon product was one of just 14 players nationally to hand out five-or-more assists in 23 or more games last season. Her 34 games with 5+ assists over the last two years ranks 24th nationally. She was one dime shy of the school record with 14 against Long Beach State and was one of just 10 players nationally with at least 14 assists in a game last season.

BETTER AND BETTER
Initially a star soccer player at Sam Barlow High School, Shuler committed fully to basketball as a junior before joining Oregon State. In her third season with the Beavers and second as starting point guard, Shuler showed off the development the Oregon State program is known for.

Season	Points	FG%	Assists	Steals	Rebounds	Blocks
1st	1.6	39.3	1.6	0.1	1	0.0
2nd	7.9	42.4	3.7	1.3	3.8	0.1
3rd	12.5	47.3	5.3	2.0	4.7	0.8

VIVA VILLA!
Jenna Villa enjoyed a career year after transferring from Washington State to OSU. The junior is one of the most improved players in the country with increases in scoring (+9.3), rebounding (+2.6), assists (+0.4) and steals per game (+0.2). It's not just volume either. Villa shot 7.1% better from the field and 3.7% better from three. Her 32-point career-high against Pacific tied for the second-highest-scoring single game by a WCC player in 2025-26 (Jess Lawson, LMU).

CERTIFIED BUCKET
Villa ranked fifth in the league with 16.1 points/game in WCC games and led the conference with two 30-point games. She is the 11th Beaver all-time with multiple 30-pieces, the first since Talia von Oelhoffen (2022-24), and the second Beav to score 30+ twice under Scott Rueck.

AT HER BEST : AT OUR BEST
Floor spacing is a key component to the Oregon State offense. In wins last season, Villa shot 44.1 percent from deep compared to 27.4 percent in losses. Her best stretch of the season came in January. Villa averaged 19 points and shot 46.8 percent from three while the Beavs went 7-1.

GET HER TO THE LINE
Villa emerged as Scott Rueck's go-to free-throw shooter in crunch time last season at the Maui Classic. Rueck drew up several plays to get Villa the ball in obvious fouling situations and she converted 7-of-8 free throws to seal the wins. On the year, Villa made 88.1 percent of her freebies, the fourth-best mark all-time.

NOTES

SHOOTIN' SCHIMEL

Ally Schimel joined Oregon State as a walk-on after dominating 3A Oregon high schools at Corbett on the way to two state runner-ups and a title as a senior. She quickly proved herself as a Beav, leading the team in season plus-minus, and earned a scholarship. Schimel is a legitimate floor-spacer, making 42.7% of her triples which ranks 21st nationally.

- Schimel hit at least one three in 15 consecutive games last year, the longest streak on the team (11/18 v. Utah State - 1/10 v. Seattle U). She shot 50% from three (26/52) over those 15 games.
- Among high-volume shooters (50+ 3PA in a season), Schimel's 15.3-percentage point increase in three-point percentage is the best by an Oregon State player since 2002-03 (the earliest point to pull that data)

SOPHS STEPPING UP

After seeing the floor for limited minutes last year, the Oregon State sophomore class has an opportunity to step up and replace some of the production vacated by the 2025-26 senior class. Lara Alonso-Basurto and Katelyn Field each earned starts in Sunday's exhibition game with Keira Lindemans getting 12 minutes off the bench. The three showed flashes of what they were capable of last season as well:

- Alonso opened the season with double-doubles before settling into a bench role. She was especially good at home, averaging 6 points and 5.7 rebounds in 17.5 minutes
- Field was a shooter on the wing, making 34.3% from three and a perfect 8-for-8 from the free throw line. She had 8 points and 7 rebounds in 27 minutes at Portland
- Lindemans was an impact player in the Maui Classic, playing more than 37 minutes off the bench while the Beavs held Montana State and Liberty to under 60 points in wins

AUSSIE! AUSSIE! AUSSIE!

After successfully developing Aussies like Kelsey Rees and Jasmine Simmons into key contributors, the Beavs added two players from Down Under last season in Lindemans and Field. The duo made an impression on OSU staff in the Phoenix Nike Tournament of Champions together with ATC Academy and each contributed off the bench in their freshman campaigns.

THE FUTURE IS BRIGHT

Oregon State's future is looking up on the court as the Beavs welcome a talented freshman class this season. Three were all-state selections in Oregon, Washington and New York. The Oregon 5A Player of the Year and the state's top prospect per Prep Girls Hoops and ESPN (#83 nationally) Taylor Young and New York Class B Player of the Year Maggie Warpus highlight the class' honors. Ashley Uusitalo led Lake Washington HS to the state title game while earning all-state honors. Evelini Smith was a conference MVP in Northern California and the key to a stifling St. Mary's HS defense.

THE ST. MARY'S PIPELINE

Between Ali Gibson (2011-15) and Kat Tudor (2016-20), Scott Rueck's teams have benefitted from St. Mary's High School graduates over eight years of his tenure. Evelini Smith is the latest St. Mary's (Stockton, Calif.) grad to make the trip to Corvallis. The freshman post is a physical presence in the post and played seven years of tackle football growing up.

NOTES

STAYING YOUNG

Despite a loss, Taylor Young's debut was one of the better individual performances in Oregon State history. The freshman totaled 22 points on 10-of-18 shooting, two points away from Alyssa Martin's school record for points in a debut set in 2010. The Central Point, Oregon native scored 14 points in the third quarter which is the second-most by a freshman in a single quarter in OSU history (Raegan Beers, 18 pts - 12/27/22 v. NC Central) and the most by a guard.

BEST IN STATE

Maggie Warpus and Taylor Young each came to Corvallis with a case full of hardware after winning back-to-back state player of the year honors. Young, the Oregon 5A POTY, is a four-time conference and two-time state champion at Medford and Crater High Schools. She also owns the 5A state tournament record for points in a game and in a tournament. Warpus was the back-to-back New York Class B State POTY. She led her team to unprecedented heights, including its first state tournament appearance and a trip to the state championship game while setting the school record (girls and boys) with 1,886 career points.

DREAM SCHOOL

Young grew up dreaming of becoming an Oregon State Beaver. Her mom and aunt (Cherrith and Chassie Wiersma) played two years at OSU and her mom and dad (Keith Young) met while attending Oregon State. Young grew up in southern Oregon, attending South Medford and Crater High Schools and winning state titles at both. She twice named the 5A State Player of the Year before making the trip north to play for her dream school.

NEW LEAGUE, FAMILIAR FACES

Five players in the Pac-12 will bring the experience of playing in the league's former era into the new one, including two Oregon State players. Kennedie Shuler was on Oregon State's 2023-24 Elite 8 team that finished fourth in the Old Pac while Jenna Villa is in her second year in Corvallis after transferring from Washington State.

Player	Current Pac-12 Team	Old Pac-12 Team
Kennedie Shuler	Oregon State	Oregon State
Jenna Villa	Oregon State	Washington State
Alex Covill	Washington State	Washington State
Eleonora Villa	Washington State	Washington State
Aaliyah Gayles	Utah State	USC

MISSING CAT

Oregon State expected to get Catarina Ferreira back on the court this season after she missed the 2026-27 season with a knee injury. Ferreira, the 2025 WCC Tournament Most Outstanding Player, would have played 2025-26 on a Pavia Waiver before getting hurt. The NCAA denied Ferreira's attempt to get a medical redshirt and denied her appeal. Without Cat on the court, the Beavs will be missing a tenacious rebounder and clutch free throw shooter in addition to a calm and steady leader.

Scott Rueck's experience with a family culture started at George Fox before he brought the same approach to Oregon State: "I did it for a long time, nearly half my career at a Division III school with no scholarships. I had to build a culture that people would pay and go into debt to be a part of."

NOTES

ONE WOMAN WRECKING CREW

Kennedie Shuler's game against Gonzaga in January of 2026, wasn't just a good single-game performance, it was one of the nation's best all-around games. Shuler was an assist (which rimmed out in overtime) away from a triple-double with steals and even without that her 17-point, 10-steal, 9-assist, 5-rebound, 3-block day made history in several ways.

- Tied the Oregon State school record, set in 1983 by Juli Coleman vs. BYU
- One of four 10-steal, 3-block performances in the nation since 1999-00 (as far back as searchable stats go for women's basketball)
- One of four points-steals double-doubles in the WCC since 1999-00
- One of 17 points-steals double-doubles in the nation that season and one of two with 9-or-more assists (Hannah Hidalgo vs. Bellermine)
- One of three Oregon State players to have 7+ steals in a game in 16 seasons under Coach Rueck (Earlysia Marchbanks, 8 in 2012 & Janessa Thropay, 8 in 2018) and the only one to do so twice (vs. Seattle, 1/10/26)

HOME SWEET HOME

It's no secret that Oregon State maintains a loyal and devoted fanbase, and it helps the Beavs on the court. OSU is 191-62 in Gill Coliseum since Scott Rueck took over as the head coach ahead of the 2010-11 season. The Beavers have a .500-or-better record in Gill against every multi-game opponent except Stanford and Notre Dame. OSU owns eight or more home wins against former Pac-12 foes Oregon, Colorado, UCLA, Utah and Washington during Rueck's tenure.

PRO BEAVS

Development in the Oregon State program helped several former players earn spots on pro teams all over the world. Numbers fluctuate as seasons start and end, but OSU has nine alumni playing professionally. That includes three players from the 2025-26 team in Lizzy Williamson, Nene Sow and Tiara Bolden. Marie Gulich (Germany) and Ali Gibson (Puerto Rico) each represented their countries at the most-recent Olympics.

VOICE OF THE BEAVS

Voice of the Beavers Ron Callan has called 586 Oregon State women's basketball games since joining the program in the 2007-08 season, holding a record of 361-225 during that span.Ron called his 500th game of OSU women's basketball against Utah in 2024, a 91-66 victory, and should reach 600 games with the program this season. Callan's impact goes beyond the airwaves, he also sings the national anthems for internationally-born seniors on senior day as a tribute to their time at Oregon State.

BEAVER STAFF NOTES

» Assistant Coach Deven Hunter enters her six season on the Oregon State staff. Hunter worked at San Diego prior to joining the Beavers, and was part of OSU's 2016 Final Four squad as a player. She played a major role in developing All-American post Raegan Beers and All-WCC forward Kelsey Rees

» Fellow assistant and 2016 Final Four team member Sydney Wiese returned to her second home two years ago after a lengthy professional career that included stints with the LA Sparks, Washington Mystics and several international teams.

» Director of Player Personnel and Assistant Coach Eric Ely is back on the bench for his 15th season with the Beavs. A post coach by trade, Ely played a major role in developing players like Pac-12 DPOYs Ruth Hamblin and Marie Gulich during his earlier coaching stint in Corvallis. Ely - whose wife is from Brazil and speaks Portuguese - was the primary recruiter for Catarina Ferreira.

» Assistant Coach/Video Coordinator Jared Vedus joined the staff three years ago as a GA after spending four years as a practice player for the Beavers. He joined the full-time staff this summer.

» Associate AD for Sport Performance Jeff Macy oversees all of Oregon State's strength and conditioning programs and is the strength coach for the Beaver women. He spent ten years in the NBA, five with the Chicago Bulls (2001-2006) and five with the Milwaukee Bucks (2008-2013). Macy is in his second stint with Oregon State.

» Second-year Director of Ops Elizabeth Rudisill was a career diplomat with the US Department of State. She spent years working at embassies in South Korea, Mexico, Cuba, Australia, and Côte d'Ivoire.

» Athletic Trainer Jason Lieuw is the longest serving member of the Oregon State staff, currently in his 17th year and worked his 500th game with the program last year (at Pacific, 1/25/25).

HEAD COACH SCOTT RUECK (17TH SEASON)

It was a homecoming of sorts for OSU alumnus Scott Rueck, who was named the fifth head coach in the history of the Oregon State women's basketball program on June 30, 2010.

A five-time Pac-12 Coach of the Year over 14 seasons in the conference, Rueck is well-known nationally as a coach who gets the most out of his teams.

Nowhere was that more apparent than in 2024-25. After losing the bulk of an Elite 8 team due to conference uncertainty prior to the rebuild of the Pac-12, Rueck led a group of overlooked players from a 1-5 start to a WCC Championship and the NCAA Tournament.

Rueck has led the Beavers to nine NCAA Tournaments, including the 202 event where he took a team picked 10th in the Pac-12 preseason poll to the Elite 8. OSU was also poised to earn a top-4 seed prior to the cancellation of the 2019-20 Tournament due to COVID-19. Oregon State won three-straight Pac-12 titles from 2015-17, and has made five Sweet-16's, three Elite Eight's and a Final Four.

The two-time OSU graduate entered the Oregon State Hall of Fame for the first time with his 2016 Final Four Team on November 10, 2023. Rueck led the Beavers to a sweep of the Pac-12 regular season and conference titles in addition to the Final Four

The now-15th-year coach has led the Beavers to 49 wins over AP Top 25 programs during his time at Oregon State, including 16 over top-10 teams. Squaring off against some of the best players in the nation, the Beavers have often at least held their own. OSU went 4-4 against Oregon during Sabrina Ionescu's time in Eugene and recorded an 7-1 mark against Washington while Pac-12 all-time leading scorer Kelsey Plum played for the Huskies.

Oregon State also developed its own superstars under Rueck. Five players earned All-America honors in six years between 2015-2020. Jamie Weisner and Ruth Hamblin won back-to-back Pac-12 Player of the Year honors in 2015-16 and Hamblin, Gabby Hansen and Marie Gulich won Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year in four straight seasons between 2015-18. Sydney Weise was another of the All-Americans and also won the Senior Class Award in 2017 after earning All-Pac-12 recognition for four straight seasons.
