SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

• The Golden Eagles are 9-16 all-time against the Jackrabbits having lost 13 of the previous 14 meetings with their only win January 2017 in that stretch coming at home.

• SDSU has had two league series canceled this season, but remains 5-1 and in second place due to its winning percentage. The Jacks are coming off a split at home against in-state rival South Dakota.

• The Jacks have four players scoring in double figures per game led by Noah Freidel's 17.1 a game, while Baylor Scheierman is top 10 nationally in double-doubles posting 14.2 ppg and 9.6 rpg.

QUICK HITS

• ORU battled to a series split in hostile territory at North Dakota State last weekend falling 61-54 in game one posting its lowest offensive output of the season. The Golden Eagles fought back and led wire-to-wire taking game two 80-74. Kevin Obanor led ORU with 24.5 points and 14.0 rebounds a game earning his third Summit League Player of the Week honor of the year, while Max Abmas also scored 20-plus points in both games as the pair combined to average 47 points per game leading the team to its first win at NDSU since Feb. 4, 2012.

• The Golden Eagles rank second in the NCAA, behind only Citadel, hitting 11.1 3-pointers per contest, led by Abmas, who jumped to third in the country making 3.5 per game. ORU also is the only NCAA team with two players in the top 35 in individual scoring per game.

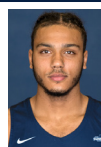

• Abmas ranks seventh nationally in scoring averaging 21.7 points per game and needs 183 to reach 1,000 for his career. He also sits second in the league with a 2.0 assist to turnover ratio.

• Obanor has pulled down a league-leading 17.0 rebounds this season to rank 21st in total boards, while his nine double-doubles are seventh in the country. The redshirt junior also climbed to 35th in the NCAA scoring 19.8 ppg after his eighth game of 20 or more points this year at NDSU Saturday.

• ORU remains one of the best free-throw shooting teams in the nation hitting 79.7 percent of its attempts to rank seventh overall and the top of The Summit League this season.

ABOUT ORU

Founded in 1963 by evangelist Oral Roberts, ORU is a 400-acre campus located in South Tulsa. ORU boasts a total enrollment of over 4,000 students from all 50 states and more than 30 foreign countries. Some famous ORU alums include entertainer Kathy Lee Gifford, Pulitzer-prize nominated author Clifton Taulbert and two-time NCAA track & field national champion and 2008 Olympic silver medalist Andreotti Bain, 2012 NCAA outdoor national champion Jack Whitt and 2012 Olympians Prince Mumba (Track) and Dominique Allen (Women's Basketball). "The Simpsons" creator Matt Groening briefly attended ORU, and subsequently, many of the characters on the show are modeled after former ORU students and staff members. In fact, if you look closely over Ned Flanders' fireplace, his college diploma reads "Oral Roberts University".

ABOUT THE SUMMIT LEAGUE

Through 38 years of Division I athletics, The Summit League offers 19 championship sports and has a combined enrollment of around 98,000 at nine institutions, including four located in top 60 U.S. metropolitan populations and two land-grant universities. Member institutions include: the University of Denver, University of Missouri-Kansas City, University of North Dakota, North Dakota State University, University of Nebraska Omaha, Oral Roberts University, University of South Dakota, South Dakota State University and Western Illinois University.

The Summit League was previously known as the Mid-Continent Conference before undergoing a rebrand in 2007. The Summit League has produced 15 NCAA National Champions with over 125 All-Americans and 100 Academic All-Americans including numerous student-athletes competing at the highest professional level.

Each year, approximately 3,000 student-athletes continue to raise the bar and help The Summit League reach exceptional success and development. Within the past seven years alone, The Summit League has produced a national postseason team tournament championship, an NCAA semifinal appearance, and eight NCAA Champions. That level of success also carries into the classroom. The Summit League ranked first for NCAA Graduation Success Rate in women's basketball from 2014-16. A total of 21 Summit League teams achieved perfect NCAA Academic Progress Rate scores in the most recently released figures, while 23 other teams garnered NCAA Public Recognition Awards for top academic progress rates.
