ORUAthletics.com is the official online home of all 16 of ORU's NCAA Division I teams. Designed by Presto Sports, the responsive site allows fans and media to have all of the necessary information about the Golden Eagles, whether viewing on a computer, tablet or other mobile device. The website contains news, schedules, rosters and other biographical information about ORU coaches and student-athletes. Links for live stats and live video are easily accessible.

ORU also offers a pair of mobile apps to make following the Golden Eagles even easier. The ORU Front Row app provides stats, news alerts and live audio and video streams for every single home and road game. The ORU Golden Eagles Live app provides an enhanced gameday experience, with live stats, maps of each venue, concession stand menus and the ability to purchase ORU merchandise. Both apps are available for free in the Google Play store and iTunes.

ORUAthletics.com is also the home of the ORU Sports Network, which features live video broadcasts of all home baseball, women's basketball, men's and women's soccer and volleyball games, as well as select men's basketball games which are not broadcast on ESPN3.

SummitLeague.org is another online resource to find information about the Golden Eagles as the site includes league statistics and standings, as well as a weekly release with all the news and information surrounding one of the top mid-major conferences in the nation.

J.L. Johnson

Since the first game on March 6, 1978, Johnson Stadium has been recognized as one the finest baseball facilities in the Midwest. In recent years, the stadium has been refurbished and expanded, making J.L. Johnson Stadium one of the top facilities in the nation and since 2017, features a fully turfed infield made by AstroTurf.

Fans that entered the stadium in 2019 noticed a new LED video board located in right-center field measuring 33 feet high and 19 feet wide totaling roughly 625 square feet, while 2020 brought a new high-efficiency lighting system to the ballpark. The continued renovations help upgrade the fan experience making game day at J.L. Johnson Stadium even more memorable.

J.L. Johnson Stadium received a new outfield fence, new padding on the cinder block wall between the dugouts and behind home plate, a new bullpen in right field, new railings in the grandstand area and an updated entry way. The stadium also received an exterior facelift in the summer of 2009.

In 2008, a 20,000-square-foot facility was added, which includes coaches offices, a state-of-the-art weight room and the Grand Slam Room in which boosters and fans can watch ORU games in a climate-controlled environment. The facility is located down the right-field line.

J.L. Johnson Stadium has been host to three NCAA Regionals (1978, 1980, 1981), 17 conference tournaments and countless All-Americans. Dozens of Major Leaguers have played at J.L Johnson Stadium, including notables such as Roger Clemens, Joe Carter, Kirk Gibson, Tony Gwynn, Keith Lockhart, Pete Incavigilia, Kevin McReynolds, Mike Moore and Robin Ventura.

J.L. Johnson Stadium has been the home of Golden Eagle baseball since 1978 with seating for 2,418.

H.A. Chapman Indoor

The H.A. Chapman Indoor Practice Facility opened in the Fall of 2009. The 35,00-square foot facility, located just north of J.L. Johnson Stadium, features indoor practices areas for both the baseball and track & field programs.

Built at a cost of $1.2 million, the facility was funded exclusively through private donations, including a generous lead gift from the H.A. and Mary K. Chapman Charitable Trust.

The facility features a regulation-sized infield, three pitching areas and three netted batting cages. It also has a state-of-the-art HitTrax system featuring advanced metrics and assessment reports. Hitters can view exit velocity, launch angles and total distance in real time, while pitchers see velocity, location and late-break measurements.

Installed in 2019, the ORU pitching staff continues to take advantage of a Rhapsodo Pitching Unit added to the H.A. Chapman Indoor facility. Rapsodo measures the impact of spin on every ball and shows the actual flight of a pitched baseball, calculating the corresponding trajectory of the same pitch without spin.

RYAN FOLMAR

Head Coach
11th Season
Oklahoma State, '97
Career Record: 319-210 (.603)

Ryan Folmar begins year 11 as the head baseball coach at Oral Roberts University in 2023 with a career record of 319-210 (.603) and five Summit League Coach of the Year honors (2015, 16', 17', 18') to his name. Prior to being tabbed the head coach in 2013, Folmar served on the ORU coaching staff as an assistant for nine seasons.

In 2022, the Golden Eagles returned to an NCAA Regional for the first time since 2018 after capturing their 20th Summit League Championship. Folmar guided ORU to a 38-20 overall record and coached nine All-Summit League players, including the 2022 Pitcher of the Year Ledgend Smith. The Golden Eagles finished the season as the only program with road wins over multiple top 3 opponents and one of only two teams to have recorded victories over the two College World Series finalists (Ole Miss and OU).

ORU got hot in the final month of the season going 12-4 in May en route to the 26th conference tournament championship in program history. On May 2, 2022, Folmar led the Golden Eagles to a 7-3 road win at Air Force, marking the 2,000th victory in program history.

On April 15, 2022, Folmar picked up his 300th career victory with a 6-4 win at Western Illinois, becoming the fourth head coach in program history to reach the milestone.

In 2021, the Golden Eagles returned to the top of the Summit League standings to claim the league's regular season championship. After posting a 31-23 overall record and 19-7 Summit League mark, Folmar claimed his fifth Coach of the Year accolade as voted on by his league peers. The Golden Eagles got hot in the month of March after taking two of three at No. 8 LSU and at Dallas Baptist in back-to-back weekends. ORU closed out the regular season with wins in eight of their last 10 games to claim the Summit League title.

Folmar led the Golden Eagles to their 18th-consecutive regular season title and the program's 19th-straight tournament title as members of The Summit League in 2018 posting a 38-20 overall record on his way to being named Summit League Coach of the Year. ORU advanced to the NCAA Regionals for the 28th time in its history. Coach Folmar picked up his first-ever NCAA victory in 2017, a 14-6 win over in-state rival Oklahoma State in an elimination game.

The Golden Eagles swept The Summit League's postseason awards again in 2018 as Noah Cummings (Player of the Year) and Miguel Ausua (Pitcher of the Year) landed the awards for the second-straight year. Riley Keizor joined the group being named Newcomer of the Year by the conference.

Dylan Snypes (Newcomer of the Year) was honored with Cummings and Ausua by The Summit League in winning postseason awards in 2017. Ausua and Cummings went on to be named to the 2017 NCBWA All-America Team becoming the first ORU players since 2015 to earn the distinction, while Matt Whatley was tabbed as the Johnny Bench Award winner as the nation's best collegiate catcher.

Folmar collected the 200th win of his ORU tenure April 21, 2018, with an 8-1 decision against South Dakota State becoming the fifth coach in program history to reach the milestone. He won game No. 100 against Little Rock March 4, 2016, getting a 14-5 win over the Trojans.

In 2016, ORU went 38-21 on its way to Summit League regular season and tournament championships before an appearance in the NCAA Regionals. The Golden Eagles finished the regular season with a 4-1 record against teams from the Big 12 with wins over Oklahoma, Kansas State and a home-and-home sweep of Oklahoma State, and added road wins over SEC members Auburn and Mississippi State.

The 2015 season served as a defining year for Folmar, leading the Golden Eagles to their first postseason appearance in three seasons finishing with a 41-16 record overall while dominating The Summit

Coach Folmar Career Highlights

In nine seasons leading the Golden Eagles, Coach Folmar has not shied away from facing the toughest competition continually putting together some of the most challenging regular season schedules. ORU has posted a 19-6 record against teams from Power Five conferences at home and tallied a record of 24-21 in all games against the Big 12 Conference. 1 Coach Folmar is interviewed by the local media after the Golden Eagles' win over South Dakota State, 11-3, in the 2018 Summit League Championship game to earn the league's automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament. 2 Folmar poses for a picture holding the award for being named the 2018 Summit League Coach of the Year, his fourth-straight time picking up the honor. 3 Coach Folmar earned his 200th career victory in an 8-1 win over South Dakota State April 21, 2018.

League with a 25-5 record. The Golden Eagles fared especially well against the Big 12, finishing the year 5-1 against the conference after defeating Oklahoma, No. 12 Texas Tech and No. 10 Oklahoma State on the road, and downing the Cowboys and Red Raiders at J.L. Johnson Stadium.

Anthony Sequeria and Matt Whatley led the charge in 2015 as Sequeria was named a finalist for the prestigious John Olerud Award, given to the nation's top two-way player, while Whatley was selected as a Freshman All-America from four publications, including Perfect Game USA, Collegiate Baseball, D1Baseball.com and Baseball America.

In 2014, Folmar led the Golden Eagles to a 30-26 overall record, with a 15-15 mark in Southland Conference play, including a home victory over No. 8 Oklahoma State and a two-game season sweep against No. 28 Oklahoma.

In his first season as the skipper, the Golden Eagles finished two wins shy of a Southland Conference Tournament championship, completing the season with a 25-32 overall record. ORU finished third in the league with a 16-11 record, including the program's first-ever, three-game sweep of a ranked opponent when the Golden Eagles took three against No. 23 Central Arkansas.

In Folmar's first season, Alex Gonzalez finished second in the NCAA in strikeouts with 126, helping him to Second Team All-America honors by Perfect Game. Gonzalez went on to be drafted No. 23 overall by the Texas Rangers in the 2013 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

Before taking the reins as head coach at ORU, Folmar spent the previous nine seasons developing a reputation as one of the finest hitting instructors in all of college baseball. The Golden Eagles won the Summit League Championship in each of Folmar's nine seasons on the staff, advancing to NCAA Regional play each season.

The Golden Eagles advanced to the Super Regional round of the NCAA Tournament in 2006, finishing the season ranked in the top 25 in every major college baseball poll. Folmar's offense was the backbone of the squad, finishing in the top 20 nationally in batting average, runs scored and slugging percentage.

Folmar tutored freshman third baseman Trevino into one of the finest young players in college baseball, as the rookie earned Summit League Newcomer of the Year honors and two freshman All-America nods in 2012.

Folmar joined the Golden Eagles after spending five seasons (1999-2003) as Director of Baseball Operations at Oklahoma State. At OSU, Folmar handled various administrative duties, including the Cowboy baseball camps and served as the color voice on OSU radio broadcasts for three years.

A four-year letter winner at Oklahoma State from 1994-97, Folmar earned honorable mention All-Big 8 honors as a sophomore in 1995 and helped lead the Cowboys to the 1996 College World Series. Following his playing days with the Cowboys, the Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, native spent two seasons in the Colorado Rockies organization.

Folmar and his wife Kay Lynn have three children; Kade, Reese and Luke.

COACHING CAREER

2004-Pres.	Assistant Coach, Oral Roberts

A member of the ORU Athletic Hall of Fame, Ryan Neill enters his 20th season on the ORU coaching staff and the 14th season that the former All-American has served in a full-time role. Neill has been a part of 16 conference championships as a player and a coach with the Golden Eagles.

Since becoming a full-time assistant in the summer of 2006, Neill has taken on the role of recruiting coordinator, while also serving as ORU's bench coach, coaching the infielders and at third base on game day.

During Neill's tenure overseeing ORU's infielders, 21 infielders have earned All-Summit League and All-Southland Conference honors, and 10 have been selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

ORU's Spencer Henson was selected in the ninth round of the 2019 MLB Draft by the New York Yankees after winning back-to-back Summit League Triple Crown titles, while Cal Hernandez was a 26th-round selection in the 2018 MLB Draft. Shortstop Dylan Snypes earned Summit League Newcomer of the Year honors in 2017 before being selected in the 15th round of the MLB Draft. That came after Brent Williams picked up the same conference honor in 2016.

Jose Trevino, a three-time all-conference selection at ORU, was named to the USA Collegiate National Team as an infielder in 2011 under Neill's guidance, while being honored by four publications as a Freshman All-American. Trevino was drafted in the 6th round of the 2014 MLB First-Year Player Draft and selected as the Minor League Player of the Year for the Texas Rangers in 2016, while tallying a coveted Rawlings Gold Glove two-consecutive years (2016-17).

Following the 2013 season, shortstop Nate Goro was selected in the MLB Draft by the Los Angeles Angels. In 2012, Neill guided senior Jared Schlehuber to a Summit League Player of the Year honor, while fellow senior Cam Schiller was an 8th-round draft pick of the Texas Rangers.

In 2010, shortstop Tyler Saladino was named Summit League Newcomer & Player of the Year after batting .376 with 18 home runs and 76 RBI. Saladino was picked in the 7th round of the MLB Draft by the Chicago White Sox, where he's currently the starting shortshop.

ORU's career home run (48) leader, Neill lettered four seasons at ORU (1997-2000) as a first baseman/outfielder, twice earning First-Team All-Mid-Continent Conference honors (1999, 2000) and also capturing Mid-Con Tournament MVP honors in 1999.

His best statistical season came in 1999 when he registered a .423 batting average with 18 home runs and 71 RBI, earning Third Team All-America honors from Collegiate Baseball.

An Okmulgee, Oklahoma, native, he was a key member of three NCAA Tournament and Mid-Continent Championship squads (1998-2000). The Golden Eagles were a combined 166-80 (.675) during his four seasons on the field for ORU.

Drafted in the 22nd round by the Detroit Tigers in 2000, Neill spent three seasons in Detroit's minor league system before retiring after the 2002 campaign.

Neill married the former Audrey Ramirez in 2004 in San Antonio. The couple resides in Tulsa and has two daughters; Dahlia and Marigold.

2010-2017	Dir. of Operations, Oral Roberts
2018-Pres.	Assistant Coach, Oral Roberts

Wes Davis enters his 14th season with the ORU coaching staff in 2020 and fourth year as an assistant coach after taking over the role of pitching coach prior to the start of 2018. He previously spent seven years as the Golden Eagles' Director of Operations after working his first two years as volunteer assistant.

In his first two seasons leading the pitching staff, Davis has coached six players that have had their names called in the MLB Draft. Five pitchers were taken in the 2018 draft, including two-time Summit League Pitcher of the Year Miguel Ausua and ORU's all-time saves leader Kyler Stout. ORU was one of only 12 college programs in the nation to have five or more pitchers drafted in 2018. The Golden Eagles had a team earned run average of 3.89, ranking 64th in the nation and combined for a strikeout total of 516, third-most in single-season history.

A former two-way player in junior college and at the NAIA level, he begins his 14th season of coaching collegiate baseball where he has worked with more than 80 players that have gone on to be drafted or sign professional contracts.

Davis took the reins of one of the nation's top pitching staffs as the Golden Eagles ranked sixth in all of NCAA Division I baseball with a 3.06 earned run average after the 2017 campaign, which was the eighth-lowest in a single season in program history.

In his role as the Director of Operations, Davis supervised all student managers, coordinated the bullpen, organized all baseball fundraising and team community service, as well as serving as the director of Ballpark Baseball Academy.

Davis came to ORU prior to the 2009 season after working for four years as an assistant coach at the University of Texas at Tyler.

At UT Tyler, Davis' duties included strength and conditioning, defense, base running and assisting with hitting. Under his guidance, the Patriots posted the conference's best fielding percentage three-straight seasons and also topped the league in hitting all four years. In his four seasons with the Patriots, the team compiled a 131-28 record (.824) and won three conference championships.

He also has been involved with various summer baseball teams spending two years as the head coach of the Florence Red Wolves of the Coastal Plain League, where he led the team to a first-half division crown and a playoff appearance in 2008.

The previous summer, Davis served as the hitting coach of the Wilson Tobs of the CPL, who also advanced to the playoffs. In 2005, he acted as the hitting coach for the Kenai Peninsula Oilers of the Alaskan Baseball League, and had 12 of its players end up playing professionally.

Davis played collegiate baseball for two years at Seward County Community College in Liberal, Kansas, and then wrapped up his playing career at Oklahoma Baptist, where he helped lead the squad to a NAIA regional appearance in 2004. Davis played prep baseball at Owasso High School and guided the Rams to two Oklahoma Class 6A state championships and two runner-up finishes.

Davis and his wife, Kara, have three children; Major, Makinley and Molly.

Jimmy Turk

Volunteer Assistant
3rd Season
CSU-Pueblo '18

Turk comes from South Mountain Community College in Phoenix, Arizona where he was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for the past five years. In addition to coaching, Turk served as the SID at South Mountain. The 2018 season was the most successful during Turk's time in Phoenix, winning the ACCAC Conference Championship with a 46-15 record and ranking as high as No. 3 nationally. During his tenure, 50 student-athletes went on to the NCAA Division I level.

Turk has a history of success coaching collegiate summer baseball throughout the country. Previously, Turk has led the Macon Bacon (Coastal Plain League) and Western Nebraska Pioneers (Expedition League) and served as the hitting coach for the Waterloo Bucks (Northwoods League). As the manager, Turk has appeared in three summer ball championships, winning a title in both the Coastal Plain League and Expedition League. In addition, Turk was named the 2018 Expedition League Coach of the Year, leading the Pioneers to a 49-17 record. In summer ball, Turk has worked with two Collegeiate Summer All-Americans, 38 MLB Draft picks, and 34 summer league all-stars.

Before heading to South Mountain Community College, Turk coached for seven seasons with Slammers Baseball during the fall and summer. In addition, he coached two seasons at Ponderosa High School and three years at Cherry Creek High School, where he won a state championship in 2012. During his time with Slammers, Ponderosa, and Cherry Creek, Turk worked with 148 future collegiate student-athletes and 23 MLB Draft picks. In addition to his coaching career, Turk served as an associate scout for the Tampa Bay Rays from 2015-2016.

Turk graduated from CSU-Pueblo in 2006 with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with an emphasis in Management and a minor in Marketing. He currently resides in Jenks, Oklahoma.

Nolan Fanning

Director of Operations
1st Season
Southeastern Oklahoma State '16

Nolan Fanning enters his first season as the Director of Baseball Operations in 2023.

Prior to joining the staff at ORU, Fanning served as an assistant coach at Midland College, where he coached the catchers and the offense. During his tenure with the Chaps, Fanning helped the team to a 69-36 record and coached Tyler Wulfert to First Team All-American honors and Luke Young to an 11th round pick in the MLB draft.

Before working at Midland, Fanning spent time as an assistant at NOC-Enid and helped guide the team to an NJCAA Division II National Championship in 2019.

A native of Coalgate, Oklahoma, Fanning earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Recreation from Southeastern Oklahoma State in 2016. Fanning and his wife Macee reside in Tulsa along with their son Kessler.

Evan Rochat

Athletic Trainer
1st Season
Oklahoma State '17

Evan Rochat, MAT, LAT, ATC, joined the Oral Roberts Athletic Department as an assistant athletic trainer in August of 2022. Rochat is responsible for the coverage of the Golden Eagle Baseball team.

Prior to coming to ORU, Rochat served as an assistant athletic trainer at Northeastern State University. While with the Riverhawks, Rochat worked with the baseball and golf programs, while assisting with the football program. Rochat was responsible for directing the day-to-day care as well as post-operative rehabilitation and injury prevention for his teams. He also supervised and was a preceptor for NSU's graduate athletic trainer and MAT students.

Before joining the staff at NSU, Rochat spent a year working as a certified intern athletic trainer with the Auburn University baseball program. With the Tigers, Rochat assisted with the daily operation of the training room as well as directed pitchers through pre and post-throw arm care routines. He also collaborated with both baseball and medical staff members to implement COVID-19 policies and procedures.

Rochat also spent one season as an athletic training intern with the Kansas City Royals AA affiliate, Northwest Arkansas Naturals, where he assisted with daily treatment and rehab, player evaluations and was responsible for management of sports medicine inventory.

Rochat graduated from Oklahoma State University in 2017 with a Bachelor of Science in Health Education and Promotion and continued his education at the University of Arkansas, where he received a Masters in Athletic Training in 2020. Rochat and his wife Ashleigh reside in Broken Arrow.

Andrew Nilo

Texas Tech '17

Kyle Stafford joined the Oral Roberts Athletic Communications department in February of 2022 as the Director of Athletic Communications. Stafford serves as the primary media contact for baseball, women's basketball, volleyball, cross country and indoor track and field.

Prior to joining ORU, Stafford served as the Assistant Sports Information Director at Keiser University. At Keiser, Stafford helped oversee the coverage and promotion of 26 sports, while serving as the primary contact for football, men's and women's golf, flag football and women's lacrosse. Stafford also handled all video content for the department while assisting with graphic design.

In addition to his experience at Keiser, Stafford served as the Sports Information Assistant at Milligan University from August 2018 to February 2019.

A native of Navasota, Texas, Stafford obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Management from Texas Tech University in 2017.

Athletic Director Tim Johnson

2nd Season
Arkansas, 2005

Tim Johnson became Athletic Director on August 1, 2021, and joined the ORU staff prior to the 2015-16 school year after spending five years at Clemson University. In his role, Johnson oversees all ORU Athletic external departments and directs capital fundraising, major gifts, and other sources of revenue generation and strategic initiatives for the Golden Eagles athletic department. Johnson also oversees the baseball program, program evaluation, coaching professional development, and serves on ORU's executive staff.

In his time at ORU, the Golden Eagle Club has increased its membership by 215 percent, achieved its highest fundraising totals, and premium seating sales. He has guided campaigns to renovate the baseball stadium, men's basketball locker room, men's and women's soccer locker rooms, volleyball locker room, install infield baseball turf and construct ORU's first track and tennis complex on campus.

Johnson negotiated a department-wide Nike contract in 2018 that more than tripled the value received by the department and also led the charge to update ORU's athletic logo and brand in association with Hampton Creative. In 2016, ORU's athletics donor guidebook won the "Grand Award" for best sport publication in Oklahoma and also took home the "Achievement Award" for "Before and After."

Prior to ORU, as both an Assistant A.D. and Development Officer at Clemson, Johnson was responsible for development/stewardship, annual giving, letterwinner interaction, and development and fundraising. He served on Athletic Director Terry Don Phillips' senior staff and acted as a sport supervisor – where he was heavily involved in building Clemson Football under Coach Dabo Swinney. The Clemson Football program won its first ACC Title in 20 years in 2011 and went on to win a National Championship in 2017. Johnson assisted in bowl preparation for multiple bowl games, including the Meineke Car Care Bowl, Orange Bowl, and Chick-fil-a Bowl.

He also supervised aspects of compliance, marketing, and all departmental contracts for the Tigers. Johnson helped develop the Clemson Athletics strategic plan and developed Safety and Security plans for Clemson Athletic Venues as part of Clemson's Risk Management Committee. In addition, he aided in Clemson's Billion Dollar Campaign "Will to Lead/Will to Win" in association with Clemson's Vice President for Development and Alumni Relations, Brian O'Rourke. Through his involvement with IPTAY, Johnson promoted membership, helped with fundraising strategies, and was active on capital campaign committees.

Prior to Clemson, Johnson graduated from the University of Arkansas with both a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (2005) and a Juris Doctor (2008) and practiced law in Fayetteville. During his time at Arkansas, Johnson worked on Coach Houston Nutt's football staff from 2002 to 2007. He received his MBA from Clemson University in 2014.

Johnson is a member of the Arkansas Bar, Arkansas Bar Association, American Bar Association, and The University of Arkansas Letterwinners Association (A Club). He is also a member of NACDA, NAADD, and is a College Athletics Leadership Symposium (CALS) alum.

Johnson married the former Brittany Arnold of Fayetteville, Arkansas. They live in Tulsa and have two daughters, Emelia and Eleanor.

GOLDEN EAGLES MAKE FIRST APPEARANCE IN THE CWS

The 1978 Oral Roberts University baseball team will forever be etched in ORU athletic history as the only team to in school history to advance to the pinnacle of college baseball, the College World Series in Omaha, Nebraska.

Under the direction of legendary coach Larry Cochell, the ORU Titans easily advanced through the Midwest Regional, played at recently opened J.L. Johnson Stadium, with a 10-3 victory over Oklahoma State, and back-to-back wins over Southern Illinois, 8-5 and 7-2.

In their first contest in Omaha June 3, the Titans got an outstanding pitching performance by ORU hall of famer Ron Meridith. An All-American in 1978, Meridith pitched a complete game shutout over North Carolina as the Titans rolled to a 11-0 victory. Meridith struck out eight Tar Heels and allowed just four hits in the victory.

Junior Vincent Bienek went 3-5 at the plate with a triple to lead the Titans, driving in four and scoring two times. George Bjorkman, also an All-American in the 1978 season, scored three times in the victory, and Wayne Stone and Buddy Slemp each crossed the plate twice.

The next day, the Titans battled with a powerful Arizona State team that featured future Major League stars Bob Horner, Hubie Brooks and Chris Bando. ORU jumped out to a quick 5-0 lead after the first inning of play, highlighted by a grand slam by first team All-American Bill Springman. However, the Sun Devils cut into the Titan lead in the bottom of the third as Horner matched Springman with a grand slam of his own to make it a 5-4 game.

ASU took the lead in the next inning, plating three runs on a bases load walk, a fielder's choice and a sacrifice fly to go ahead 7-5. The contest remained 7-5 until the Titans rallied in the top of the ninth inning. Springman and Gary D'Onofrio hit back-to-back doubles to start the inning to cut the lead to 7-6, but Sun Devil reliever Ken Jones sat down the next three Titans in order to close the game.

The Sun Devils reached the championship game, falling to USC 10-3.

On June 5, ORU met Miami in an elimination game. The Hurricanes jumped out to 3-0 lead with three runs in the top of the second inning. In the home half of the fourth inning, Aurdie Culbert launched a two-run home run to cut the lead to 3-2.

Miami added runs in the fifth and sixth innings to extend its lead to 5-2. In the bottom of the eighth, Bjorkman hit an RBI triple to cut the lead 5-3, but the Titans were unable to get anything going in the ninth and were eliminated from the tournament.

The 1978 Titans finished the season 45-12 and ranked No. 5 by Collegiate Baseball newspaper. Meridith and Bjorkman went on to play in the Major Leagues.

GOLDEN EAGLES BATTLE IN CLEMSON SUPER REGIONAL

The 2006 Oral Roberts University baseball team made history as the only team to advance past regionals in the current NCAA Division I baseball postseason format.

Arguably one of the best teams to take the field in program history, the Golden Eagles (41-16) swept the Mid-Continent Tournament at J.L. Johnson Stadium before rolling past powerhouse programs Arkansas and Oklahoma State in the Fayetteville Regional.

Chad Rothford led ORU in regionals as he blasted two home runs, hit three doubles, drove in nine and scored five times in the three contests. Brendan Duffy and Andy Bouchie also had big weekends, hitting .462 and .417, respectively.

Advancing to the super regionals meant a matchup with No. 3 Clemson. In game one of the three-game series, the Golden Eagles trailed the Tigers 7-5 after eight innings.

With their backs against the wall, ORU rallied for three runs in the top of the ninth to take a 8-7 lead. However, the Tigers responded with four in the final half inning with a walk-off grand slam for a 11-8 win.

In the second game, ORU led Clemson 5-3 in the bottom of the seventh after Carter McQuigg singled and scored on a sacrifice fly off the bat of Pat Warfle. But the Tigers struck again with three in the eighth for a 6-5 comeback victory.

On April 23, 1996, the Oral Roberts University baseball program held a special ceremony before its game versus Oklahoma to honor and pay tribute to former head coach Larry Cochell.

Larry Cochell is the all-time winningest coach in ORU history, compiling a career record of 428-172-1. In his 10 years, he took ORU to seven NCAA Regional Championships, including four straight from 1980 to 1983. In 1978, he guided ORU to its first and only appearance in the College World Series and was named as the NCAA District 5 Coach of the Year. Cochell coached 15 All-Americans at ORU, including seven who earned first-team honors.

He also guided ORU to 51 wins in 1983, the most in the school's Division I history. ORU never had a losing season under Cochell, and his .712 winning percentage is tops among all ORU baseball coaches.

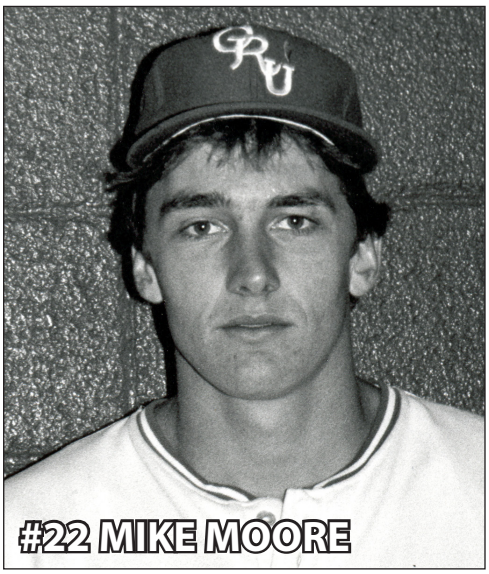

Cochell has been a success at nearly every stop during his lengthy career. He is one of only three head coaches (Ron Polk and Andy Lopez are the others) to take three different schools (ORU, Cal State Fullerton, Oklahoma) to the College World Series.

Jim Brewer served as an assistant coach at Oral Roberts from 1979 to 1986. Before coming to ORU, Brewer spent 19 seasons as a pitcher in the major leagues with the Chicago Cubs (1960-63), the Los Angeles Dodgers (1964-75) and the California Angels (1975). Brewer, who helped the Dodgers to three National League pennants and the 1965 World Series title, was selected to the 1973 NL All-Star team and retired in 1975 with 127 career saves.

Brewer first began working with the ORU staff on a part-time basis in 1979 and joined the staff as a full-time assistant in 1981. Under Brewer's leadership, ORU quickly developed a tradition of producing great pitchers, which included major leaguers Mike Moore, Mike Mason, Jeff Heathcock and Todd Burns. During his tenure, the pitching staff ranked among the national leaders in ERA, leading the nation three different seasons.

Brewer's number was retired shortly after a tragic car accident that claimed his life on Nov. 16, 1987, and his number was given a formal ceremony to honor his services on April 5, 1997.

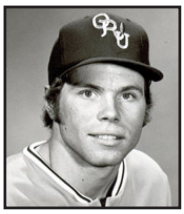

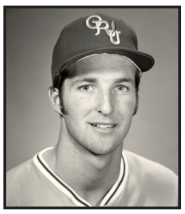

Former ORU standout and 14-year Major League veteran Mike Moore had his number 22 jersey retired on April 22, 2003.

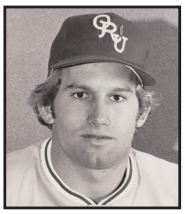

Moore, who pitched at ORU from 1979-81, was the number one overall draft selection by the Seattle Mariners in the 1981 June Amateur Draft. He went on to spend 14 seasons in the big leagues with Seattle, Oakland and Detroit, compiling a 161-176 career record.

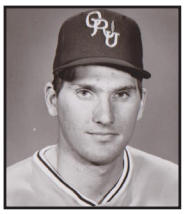

Moore was selected to the American League All-Star team while pitching for Oakland in 1989 as he went 19-11 with a 2.61 ERA for the World Champion A's. Moore helped lead Oakland to consecutive American League pennants (1989-90), serving as a key member of one of baseball's most feared starting rotations, alongside Dave Stewart and Bob Welch.

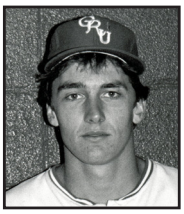

While at ORU, Moore won 28 games in three seasons playing for Larry Cochell, leaving as the school's all-time wins leader. He was named a First Team All-American by The Sporting News in 1981.

NO-HITTERS AT ORU

Nick Jones
vs. Chicago State, May 7, 2006
Jones went 7.0 innings with no hits, nine strikeouts and only one walk in a 9-0 victory.

Tim McCoy, Joe Klancnik and Larry Gryskevich
vs. SW Oklahoma State, Feb. 15, 1986
A combined no-hitter in the home and season opener, a 6-0 victory for ORU.

Taylor McIntye
at Chicago State, May 20, 2005
McIntyre tossed the sixth no-hitter in ORU history and the first 9-inning accomplishment in school history. The junior lefty struck out 10, walked one batter and hit a batter in the 6-0 victory.

Roger Lewis and Steve Selberg
vs. Notre Dame, March 14, 1983
Lewis went 7.0 innings with 11 strikeouts and Selburg went 2.0 innings. Selberg gave up the only ball to leave the infield, a fly out to left in the ninth. An error on the second baseman with two outs in the ninth also prevented a perfect game. ORU came away with the 8-0 win.

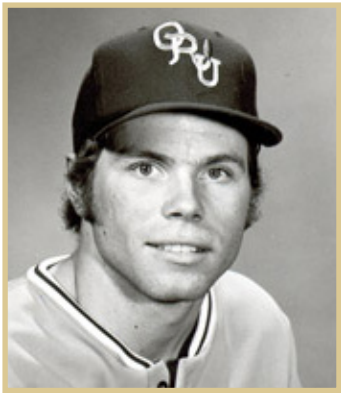

Dennis Bigley
vs. Chicago State, April 3, 2004
After hitting a pair of home runs in the opening game of a Mid-Continent Conference doubleheader, junior right-hander Dennis Bigley twirled the fifth no-hitter in ORU history in the Golden Eagles' 8-0 win over Chicago State in a 7-inning game. Bigley struck out 12 -- including the side in the seventh -- and hit a batter in the sixth for his only base runner, but the baserunner was later erased on a double play.

Warren Hollier vs. Oklahoma Baptist, March 5, 1977
Holllier went 7.0 innings with no hits, 11 strikeouts and four walks in a 10-1 victory.

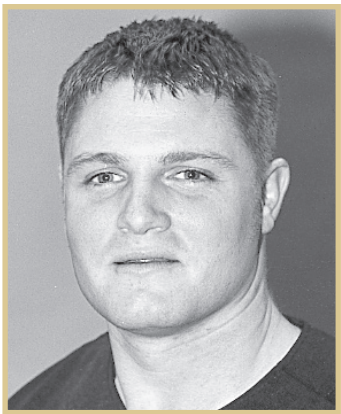

Steve Cain
vs. Southwest Baptist, April 27, 1973
Cain went five innings in a shortened game, with nine ground-outs and one strikeout in the 14-0 victory.

HIT FOR THE CYCLE

Bob Volk
at UC-Riverside, March 31, 1977
Bob Volk was the first player to hit for the cycle in program history on March 31, 1977, at UC-Riverside. He got all of his four hits in consecutive at bats, singling in the first and doubling in the second. He then got a triple in the fourth inning, rounding out the feat when he belted a home run in the sixthing inning.

Eric Vandeventer
at Centenary, May 5, 1997
Freshman Eric Vandeventer became the second Golden Eagle to hit for the cycle on May 5, 1997, at Centenary. Vandeventer started off with a double in the second inning, followed by a solo shot in the fourth. In the next inning, he added a triple to the right field corner, sliding into third in celebration, knowing he just completed one of baseball's ultimate accomplishments.
