HEADLINES

- Temple has won four of its last five games, and is coming off a 62-49 Philadelphia Big 5 win against La Salle at the historic Palestra on Jan. 20. Senior Quenton DeCosey and junior Josh Brown led the Owls with 12 points apiece.
- The Owls' most recent American win was a thrilling, double-overtime victory against Cincinnati, 67-65 on Jan. 16. DeCosey scored a game-high 22 points, while senior Devin Coleman came off the bench for 15 points.
- Sunday's game gives Temple its second chance in 2015-16 to defeat a Top 10 team. The Owls achieved that feat for five straight seasons through 2012-13, and did so again in 2014-15 against #10 Kansas. Temple already has two wins over Top 25 teams this year, and has now had at least one win over a ranked opponent for nine straight seasons.
- Temple's only loss since Jan. 2 was a narrow, 67-65 defeat at Memphis in the final seconds. The Owls tied the game on a Brown layup with two seconds left, but a foul on the next possession sent the Tigers to the free throw line.
- This season marks the first since 1998 that the Owls have beaten two Top 25 opponents on the road (#22/23 Cincinnati on Dec. 29, #23/24 UConn on Jan. 5).
- DeCosey is Temple's leading scorer this season with 15.6 points per game, ranking fifth in the American Athletic Conference, and has scored in double figures in 15 of 17 contests. He has scored 1,252 points to rank 38th all-time in program history.
- Senior Jaylen Bond recorded his fifth double-double of the season with 14 points and a season-high 14 rebounds at Memphis, while Brown led the Owls with a season-high 15 points along with seven assists.
- The Owls' 55-53 win at #23/24 UConn on Jan. 5 was the 200th win for head coach Fran Dunphy in his 10 seasons at Temple. He is now one of just five Division I coaches with 200 or more wins at two different schools, while also taking each school to six or more NCAA Tournaments.
- With 513 wins, Dunphy is just four wins away from surpassing former Owl coach John Chaney and becoming the all-time winningest coach in Philadelphia Big 5 history.
- As a team, the Owls are ranked second in the nation in fewest turnovers per game at 9.2. They have recorded single digit turnovers in 10 of 17 games, tallying as few as five (vs. Delaware on 11/29).
- Hall of Fame coach Larry Brown returns to Philadelphia for a third time with the Mustangs. Brown, who served as the Philadelphia 76ers head coach from 1997-03, led the city's NBA team to the 2001 NBA Finals with current Temple assistant coach Aaron McKie earning NBA Sixth Man of the Year that season.
- SMU is the only undefeated team in Division I, and its 18-0 start is the best in program history. Despite the success and a #8 ranking in the AP Poll, the Mustangs are not eligible for any postseason play due to NCAA sanctions.
- Senior guard Nic Moore, the 2015 American Player of the Year, leads SMU with 15.6 ppg and 4.9 apg.

TEMPLE VS. SMU

- Temple and SMU are meeting for the eighth time with SMU holding a slim, 4-3 lead in the all-time series.
- SMU took three meetings from Temple in 2014-15, winning both in the regular season and taking the Owls out of the American Athletic Conference Tournament in the semifinals. The Mustangs won 60-55 at Temple on Jan. 14 and 67-58 at home on Feb. 19, before winning 69-56 in the tournament. Temple let double-digit leads slip away in all three contests.
- The teams split meetings in 2013-14, with SMU winning 75-52 at home on Feb. 6, but the Owls coming back for a 71-64 home win over the #23 Mustangs just 10 days later on Feb. 16.
- Prior to meeting as American opponents in 2013-14, the most recent meeting was in 1955-56 when the Owls beat the Mustangs 90-81 in the NCAA Final Four third-place game.
- Both coaches have played eight games vs. the other team, but only the most recent five with their current school.
- The first meeting between the teams was in 1937-38, with Temple earning a 53-41 win at the Philadelphia Arena.
- SMU head coach Larry Brown is 7-1 all-time against Temple, with two of those wins coming as head coach of Kansas (1985-86 and 1986-87) and a third being with UCLA (1980-81).
- Fran Dunphy faced SMU three times while at Penn, winning in 1989-90 and 1990-91 and losing once in 1995-96.

LAST MEETING: #20/21 SMU 69, TEMPLE 56 (MARCH 14, 2015)

- For the third time in as many meetings in 2014-15, Temple built a double-digit lead on #20/21 SMU but could not hold it, this time falling 69-56 to the Mustangs in the semifinals of the American Athletic Conference Championship.
- Junior Quenton DeCosey led Temple with 14 points and five rebounds, while senior Jesse Morgan also finished in double figures with 10 points.
- Markus Kennedy led SMU with 17 points including 9-of-12 free throws, while also pulling down a nine rebounds. The Mustangs had a huge advantage on the glass, out-rebounding Temple 45-32.
- SMU missed its first six attempts from the field while Temple jumped out to an 11-3 early lead that included five points for Morgan. The Owls' lead increased to double-digits at 11:17 when Will Cummings converted a three-point play for a 17-7 advantage, but it was as much separation as Temple would get.
- With a 7-0 run, the Mustangs pulled within three as the Owls suffered a four-minute scoring drought. Down the stretch, Temple's free throw shooting kept the Owls in the lead as Obi Enechionya hit four in a row, and a pair by Josh Brown made it 26-18 Temple with 3:13 left in the half.
- SMU went 4-for-5 from the field to close the half, and the Mustangs tied the game at 26-26 with under a minute left. Enechionya was able to give Temple a two-point lead before the break on a jumper with 28 seconds remaining, putting the Owls up 28-26 at the break.
- Temple increased its lead to four points on two occasions early in the second half, but SMU kept up its strong shooting and hit four of its first five. The Mustangs took their first lead of the game at 16:40, while Bond picked up his fourth foul and was forced to take a seat on the bench.
- The lead switched hands twice more before SMU took it for good and the Owls really began to struggle on offense. Temple had held American Player of the Year Nic Moore to just two points in the first half, but he came alive in a 9-0 SMU run that put the Mustangs up by 11, 49-38 at 11:52.
- After SMU led by as many as 12, the Owls cut it to seven three times but could get no closer. Devin Coleman scored back-to-back buckets, with the second putting Temple down seven for the final time, 63-56 at 2:43. The Owls were not able to score again as SMU closed the game on a 6-0 run, with the final four points coming at the free throw line.

IN ELITE COMPANY

1,859 TEMPLE VICTORIES RANKS 5TH ALL-TIME

Temple's 75-57 victory over Bowling Green on Dec. 31, 2012 put the Owls in elite company. They joined Kentucky, North Carolina, Kansas, Duke and Syracuse with 1,800 wins. Temple Basketball owns a 116-year won-loss record of 1,859-1,031. The Owls' history also includes:

- 49 postseason appearances (31 NCAA's, 18 NITs)
- 2 Final Four appearances (1956 and 1958) under Harry "The Chief" Litwack
- 5 regional finals in the last 27 years under John Chaney (1988, 1991, 1993, 1999 and 2001)
- 2 NIT Championships (1938 and 1969)
- 2 Naismith Basketball Association Hall of Fame Coaches in Litwack and Chaney.

TEMPLE MEN'S BASKETBALL

LAST TIME OUT: TEMPLE 62, LA SALLE 49 (JAN. 20, 2016)

- In the front end of a Philadelphia Big 5 doubleheader at the historic Palestra, Temple defeated city rival La Salle 62-49. The Owls' 10th win of the season was rarely in doubt, and was earned with 50 percent shooting from the field to tie their season best.
- Josh Brown and Quenton DeCosey scored 12 points apiece to lead the Owls, shooting 5-of-8 and 4-of-8 from the field, respectively. Temple had nine scorers in the game, while the Explorers used only one player off the bench in the entire contest.
- Leading 14-12 six minutes into the first half, Temple used an 11-2 run to take its first double-digit lead, 25-14 on a Brown jumper at 8:20. The Explorers then got a single bucket before the Owls held them scoreless for nearly another four minutes, taking their largest lead of 15 points, 31-16 just past the five-minute mark.
- During that stretch, Temple forced five turnovers by La Salle (seven overall in the half), while the Owls committed just three and shot close to 54 percent from the field in the first period.
- Temple's 15-point lead was whittled to eight at the half by the Explorers, who scored nine of the final 11 points, and Temple took only a 33-25 lead into halftime.
- Making just his second career start, freshman Trey Lowe hit 3-of-6 field goals and led Temple with eight points at the break.
- The second half was a game of runs early on, first for La Salle as they kept the momentum going with a 7-0 run to start the period. The Owls' lead was down to just a point, 33-32, before they used an 8-0 run of their own to bring it back to nine. The run later turned into a 15-3 spurt, giving Temple a 13-point, 48-35 lead near the midway point.
- La Salle again cut into Temple's advantage, getting within as few as seven on a three-pointer with just under four minutes remaining, but the Owls closed the game on an 8-2 run with four points apiece from Brown and Devin Coleman.
- Temple forced 12 turnovers overall while committing just six, and held the Explorers to 34 percent shooting. La Salle's Jordan Price, who came into the game ranked 13th in the nation with 21.9 points per game, was held to just 11 points on 4-of-21 shooting by the Owls' defense.

In Elite Company

With Temple's seventh win of the season at #23/24 UConn on Jan. 5, head coach Fran Dunphy joined Roy Williams, Eddie Sutton, Lou Henson and Rick Pitino as the only coaches in NCAA Division I history to win 200 games at two different schools while also reaching the NCAA Tournament six times with each program.

Dunphy's Cathedral

No coach in Philadelphia basketball history has more wins at the Palestra than Temple's Fran Dunphy. He now owns an all-time record of 174-56 (.757) in the historic arena, which includes a 14-4 record since arriving at Temple in 2006. In his 17 years coaching at Penn (1989-2006), Dunphy amassed a record of 160-52 at the Palestra. Temple's own Harry Litwack (1952-73) coached more games at the Palestra than any other coach- a total of 237 games with a record of 161-76 (.679). Dunphy is close behind in total games at 230. Second to Dunphy, the Penn coach with the most games coached at the Palestra is Lon Jourdet (1914-43) with 189, and his overall record in the building was 127-62.

Temple vs. the Polls

For the first time since the 1997-98 season, Temple has now won two road games against opponents ranked in the Top 25. The two wins alone are the most against ranked opponents since 2012-13. Last season, the Owls faced Top 25 teams just four times. This season, they have already faced five ranked opponents and are likely to face at least two more (SMU and Villanova).

Loaded Schedule

Temple faced Top 25 teams in three of its first four games for the first time in program history. Twice before, in 1990-91 and 1993-94, the Owls faced ranked teams in three of their first five games. The Owls now have two wins over Top 25 teams, both on the road. On Dec. 29, Temple won 77-70 at #22/23 Cincinnati, and on Jan. 5 the Owls edged out #23/24 UConn, 55-53. This season now marks the ninth in a row in which Temple has a win over a Top 25 team.

Three of Temple's seven losses have come to teams that were ranked in the Top 25 at the time of the game (#1/1 North Carolina, #22/20 Butler and #16/16 Utah) with another coming on the road against 2015 NCAA finalist Wisconsin. The combined won-loss record of all seven teams the Owls have lost to is 93-34 (.732).

Current Records of Opponents to Defeat Temple in 2015-16 (as of Jan. 21)

North Carolina, 17-2
Saint Joseph's, 15-3
Houston, 13-5
Butler, 13-5
Utah, 13-5
Memphis, 12-5
Wisconsin, 10-9

500th Win for Dunphy

Temple head coach Fran Dunphy became the 24th active Division I men's basketball head coach to reach the 500-win mark with the Owls' 80-75 win over Memphis on March 13, 2015. He joined Hall of Fame Owl legend John Chaney as the only two coaches in Philadelphia Big 5 history to record 500 wins. Chaney compiled 516 in his 24 years patrolling the Temple sidelines (1982-2006).

Four Wins To History

Temple head coach Fran Dunphy is four wins away from surpassing former Owl coach John Chaney and becoming the all-time winningest coach in Philadelphia Big 5 history. Dunphy, who became the fifth coach to win 200 games at two schools while taking each to six NCAA Tournaments, is the one of eight coaches to have won 200 or more games at a Big 5 school since the city league was formed in 1955. Below is the list of 200-win coaches in city-series history.

John Chaney (Temple)	516-253 (1982-06)
Fran Dunphy (Penn/Temple)	513-278 (1989-present)

TEMPLE MEN'S BASKETBALL

Home Sweet Home

The Liacouras Center has proven to be a tremendous home court advantage. Since the arena opened its doors in 1997, the Owls have posted a 191-59 (.764) all-time record, and set the record for wins in a single season with 16 in 2014-15. That marked the seventh 10-win season in the last eight campaigns for the Owls at home and Temple is 97-23 (.808) at home since the start of the 2007-08 campaign. To the right is a list of 10-win seasons in the building (bold under Dunphy).

Cincinnati Season Sweep

Just six games into its American Athletic Conference schedule, Temple completed a regular season sweep of Cincinnati, a team that was ranked in the Top 25 in the first meeting. The Owls won 77-70 at #22/23 Cincinnati in the conference opener on Dec. 29, and earned a 67-65 double overtime win at home against the Bearcats on Jan. 16. Temple's seven shots from long range made the difference in the game. Cincinnati came in as the conference's leader in three-pointers made per game at 7.9, and ranked third with a .366 three-point field-goal percentage. The Owls held them to just a single trey, as the Bearcats finished at 1-of-18 (5.6 percent). Cincinnati has appeared in five straight NCAA Tournaments, advancing to the third round in 2015.

Clutch Shooter

Junior point guard Josh Brown hit a jumper in the lane with 2.6 seconds remaining at #23/24 UConn on Jan. 5, lifting the Owls to a 55-53 win. It was the second such game-winning shot for Brown in his career, as he also hit a shot with two seconds left that gave the Owls a 61-60 win at Memphis on Feb. 7, 2015.

Starting Lineup Remix

After the first two games of the season, head coach Fran Dunphy used the same starting lineup for 10 games in a row. That group included sophomore Obi Enechionya (out for season opener due to injury), junior Josh Brown, senior Jaylen Bond, senior Devin Coleman and senior Quenton DeCosey. Dunphy has now mixed up his lineup for five straight games, replacing Coleman and Enechionya with a combination of freshmen Ernest Aflakpui, Levan Shawn Alston, Jr. and Trey Lowe, redshirt junior Daniel Dingle and junior Mark Williams. Aflakpui has now started in three straight games, the most of anyone outside the five who started in 10 straight. The Owls have gone 4-1 since switching up the lineup each game, after going 5-5 while it remained constant.

DeCosey Hits 1,000

Temple senior guard Quenton DeCosey had scored 998 points heading into the Puerto Rico Tip-Off, and a three-pointer early in the Owls' opening-game win vs. Minnesota made him the 51st player in program history to reach the 1,000-point plateau. DeCosey, who was honored for his milestone prior to the FDU game on Dec. 2, led Temple with 22 points that night and has now scored 1,252 career points (34th all-time).

Handle With Care

Temple proved adept at taking care of the ball last season, and the Owls led the conference and ranked eighth among all Division I teams in fewest turnovers at 9.5 per game. This year Temple has protected the ball even better. The Owls are currently ranked second nationally in fewest turnovers overall with 156, and also second nationally in fewest turnovers per game with a 9.2 average. Temple led the nation in fewest turnovers 11 times under Hall of Fame head coach John Chaney. (n.b. - NCAA records only date back to the 1993 season).

Big 5 History

The Owls earned a share of their 27th Big 5 title in 2012-13, with that total (21 shared, six outright) leading the Big 5. Temple's 134-93 record in city series games ranks second, and the Owls have won four Big 5 titles in head coach Fran Dunphy's eight seasons. Temple finished 2-2 in Big 5 play last season with wins over Penn and La Salle, a narrow, 58-56 loss to Saint Joseph's and finally a loss to #7/7 Villanova. The Wildcats earned the Big 5 title in 2014-15 with a perfect 4-0 record. With a 2-1 Big 5 record so far in 2015-16, Temple can earn a share of the title with a win over Villanova on Feb. 17.

Alums Return to Fran Dunphy's Staff

Two Temple alums joined head coach Fran Dunphy's staff in the offseason, while a third was promoted within the staff. Chris Clark ('08), who helped lead the Owls to the first of six straight NCAA Tournaments under Dunphy, now serves as video coordinator for the team. Luis Guzman ('10), who played a significant role in three Atlantic 10 Champion teams and made four NCAA Tournament appearances with the Owls, joined the program as a graduate manager. Former basketball manager Raheem Mapp ('09), who has worked with the team in various capacities since 2006, was promoted to director of basketball operations after serving five years as the administrative/video coordinator for the team.

Assistance From Brown

Junior point guard Josh Brown has reset his career high in assists twice this season. In the Owls' win at Penn on Dec. 9, he dished a career-high nine assists while recording just a single turnover. Brown currently ranks third in The American in assists per game (4.6) and is ranked first in assist/turnover ratio (3.2).

TEMPLE MEN'S BASKETBALL

Mascot Double Trouble: Hooter and Stella

Temple Athletics has both a traditional and a live mascot cheering on its teams, as Hooter the Owl and Stella can both often be found on the sidelines. To honor Temple's beginning as a night school for ambitious young people, the nocturnal owl was adopted as its mascot. The owl represents wisdom and knowledge and is known for being perceptive, resourceful and courageous. Hooter the Owl is a part of Temple's Spirit Squad, making appearances games, alumni events and more. Each February, mascots from all over the city of Philadelphia come to Temple to celebrate Hooter's birthday at a home basketball game, which will take place this season on Saturday, Feb. 27 against UCF.

Stella, a great horned owl, began her career as Temple's live mascot in 2013. Though she's small—just 2 feet tall and only 3 pounds—Stella is a mighty predator, with an impressive 60-inch wingspan and talons capable of crushing prey with 28 pounds of force per square inch. She currently resides in the Elmwood Park Zoo in Norristown, Pa., where she also is a wildlife conservation teacher. Stella originally hails from Washington state. Her favorite foods include rodents, rabbits and snakes.

Temple Picked Sixth in American Preseason Poll

Temple was picked to finish sixth in the 2015-16 American Athletic Conference men's basketball poll in voting by the league's head coaches. The Owls were also picked to finish sixth in 2014-15, but bettered that pick by three spots to tie for third in the league.

SMU is the overall preseason favorite in 2015-16 for the first time in league history, tallying 98 points and eight of 11 first-place votes. The Mustangs entered the season returning seven letterwinners and three starters from last year's squad that went 27-7 and posted a 15-3 mark in league play.

UConn garnered two first-place votes and was picked to finish second with 87 points. The Huskies return eight from last season's squad and welcome four newcomers in 2015-16.

Cincinnati had one first place-vote and was picked third with 84 points. The Bearcats return nine student-athletes, including all five starters, from last year's 23-win team.

Tulsa was chosen fourth in the preseason standings with 76 points. The Hurricane returns five starters and nine letterwinners from last season's 23-win squad.

Memphis (59 pts.), Temple (54 pts.) and Houston (48 pts.) were picked fifth, sixth and seventh in the preseason poll, respectively. East Carolina (31 pts.), UCF (30 pts.), USF (20 pts.) and Tulane (11 pts.) were tabbed eighth, ninth, 10th and 11th to round out the tallies.

Road Warriors

Like Mad Max, Temple has proven to be a true "Road Warrior" in 2015-16. The Owls sport a 3-2 record on opponents' home floors and have two road wins over ranked foes (#22/21 Cincinnati, #23/24 UConn) for the first time in a season since 1997-98.

Double-Digit Debut

With his 12 points against #1/1 North Carolina, Levan Shawn Alston, Jr., became the first true freshman to score in double figures in his Temple debut since Mark Tyndale tallied 19 points in an 80-78 home loss to Auburn on Nov. 19, 2004. Redshirt freshman Ramone Moore also scored in double figures with 11 points in 20 minutes in a 79-65 win over East Tennessee State at Charleston Classic on Nov. 14, 2008. Alston's father, Levan Alston, scored six points in 34 minutes off the bench in his first game as an Owl, a 65-54 win over USC at the Martin Luther King Classic in Memphis on November 27, 1994. A transfer from New Orleans, Alston was a junior at the time.

Giant Killers

When Temple defeated #3/3 Syracuse on Dec. 12, 2012 (83-79), it marked the fifth straight season in which the unranked Owls had taken down a Top 10 opponent. That feat did not occur during the 2013-14 season, but Temple has now achieved it in six of the last eight seasons after a 77-52 defeat of #10/10 Kansas on Dec. 22. The win vs. the Jayhawks came two years to the day after the Syracuse win.

The Kansas win gave the Owls a victory over a Top 25 team for an eighth season in a row, and was the sixth win over a Top 10 team for head coach Fran Dunphy. With the Owls' 77-70 win at #22/23 Cincinnati on Dec. 29 and their 55-53 win at #23/24 UConn on Jan. 5, they have now beaten a Top 25 opponent for nine straight seasons.

On Dec. 13, 2008, Dionte Christmas scored 35 points to lead the Owls to an 88-72 win over #8/8 Tennessee. On Dec. 13, 2009, Juan Fernandez delivered a career-high 33 points in a 75-65 win over #3/3 Villanova. On Dec. 9, 2010, Ramone Moore exploded for a career-high 30 points in a 68-65 win over #9/10 Georgetown. On Jan. 4, 2012, it was Khalif Wyatt scoring 22 points to propel the Owls to a 78-73 win over #3/5 Duke. Wyatt did it again with a career-high 33 points in the win over the Orange in 2012.

1987-88 Team to be Inducted into Big 5 Hall of Fame

The 1987-88 Temple men's basketball team that finished as the AP's #1 ranked team and advanced to the NCAA Elite 8 with a 32-2 overall record, will be one of five teams inducted into the Philadelphia Big 5 Hall of Fame on April 11, 2016 at the league's annual awards banquet.

This marks the first time the Big 5 has inducted teams into its prestigious Hall of Fame. The other teams are: the 1968-69 La Salle Explorers (23-1, #2 national ranking); the 1970-71 Penn Quakers (28-1, #3 national ranking); 2003-04 Saint Joseph's Hawks (30-2, #1 national ranking) and 1984-85 Villanova Wildcats (25-10, NCAA Champions).

John Chaney earned his second straight USBWA National Coach of the Year award following the season while freshman guard Mark Macon was named to the Associated Press All-America Second Team. Macon was joined on the all-Atlantic 10 First Team by his backcourt mate, senior Howard Evans, and fellow senior forward Tim Perry, who earned A10 Player of the Year accolades. Junior forward Mike Vreeswyk earned second team all-conference honors.

Summer Session

Freshman guards Levan Shawn Alston, Jr., and Trey Lowe are playing their first season at Temple together, but it is not the first time they have been teammates. The Owl duo played together on the AAU squad Team Final Basketball in the summer of 2014.

Six Owls To Represent Temple at Big 5 60th Anniversary

The Philadelphia Big 5 turns 60 this year and there was no better way to celebrate than with the Big 5 doubleheader at the Palestra on Jan. 20. Six all-decade teams were honored, with Temple being represented by the following six star players:

1950s: Jay Norman (1955-58): Jay Norman was a starter on the Owls' two NCAA Final Four teams, scoring 1,024 points (11.5 ppg) and grabbing 1,006 career rebounds (11.4 rpg). The Big 5 Hall of Famer starred in the Eastern League before serving as an assistant coach at Temple from 1968-89 under Harry Litwack, Don Casey and John Chaney.

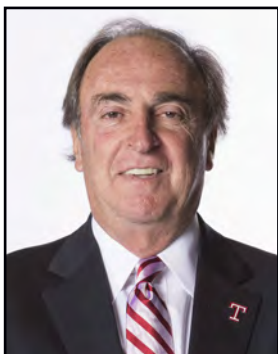

1960s: John Baum (1966-69): John Baum was a three-year starter for the Owls and captained the 1968-69 team to the NIT Championship. The Big 5 Hall of Famer scored 1,544 points (17.9 ppg) and grabbed 1,042 rebounds (12.1 rpg) in his three-year career. He was selected in the second round of the 1969 NBA Draft by the Chicago Bulls and played two seasons with the team and three more in the ABA.

1970s: Ollie Johnson (1969-72): Ollie Johnson led Temple in scoring and rebounding his junior and senior years, finishing his career with 1,063 points (12.8 ppg) and 839 rebounds (10.1 rpg). The Big 5 Hall of Famer was selected in the second round of the 1972 NBA Draft and spent nine seasons in the league.

1980s: Mark Macon (1987-91): Mark Macon was a four-year starter and one of only four players to have his number (#12) retired. The Big 5 Hall of Famer scored a school record 2,609 points (20.7 ppg), pulled down 700 rebounds (5.6 rpg) and made a then-record 281 steals (2.2 spg). The All-American led Temple to its only #1 national ranking and two NCAA Elite Eight Appearances. The 1991 first round NBA draft pick played six seasons in the league.

1990s: Aaron McKie (1991-94): Aaron McKie finished his three-year career ranked sixth on the Temple all-time scoring list with 1,650 points (17.9 ppg) while starting all 92 games. The honorable mention All-American helped lead the Owls to the 1993 Elite Eight. The Big 5 Hall of Famer was selected in the first round of the 1994 NBA Draft by Portland and played 13 seasons in the league, earning NBA Sixth Man of the Year honors with the 76ers in 2001. He is currently in his second season as an assistant coach at Temple.

2000s: Lynn Greer (1997-02): Lynn Greer is one of only four Temple players to score over 2000 career points, ranking second at the school with 2,099 (15.3 ppg). An incredible shooter, he ranks second all-time with 305 three-pointers made while owning the school free-throw percentage record (85.2%). The 2002 Big 5 MVP led Temple to two Elite Eight appearances. He played more than a decade overseas while spending one season with the NBA's Milwaukee Bucks (2006-07).

10TH SEASON • LA SALLE '70

513-278 Overall • 203-115 at Temple

One of 25 active NCAA Division I coaches with 500 victories, Fran Dunphy is in his 10th season at the helm of the Temple men's basketball program. One of the all-time winningest coaches in Philadelphia Big 5 history, Dunphy is also just the fifth coach to win 200 games at two different Division I programs while also taking both schools to six or more NCAA Tournaments. He has joined Lou Henson (New Mexico, Illinois), Rick Pitino (Kentucky, Louisville), Eddie Sutton (Arkansas, Oklahoma State) and Roy Williams (Kansas, North Carolina) in this elite club.

A part of Big 5 Basketball for the last six decades, Dunphy starred at La Salle as a player (1967-70) and served on the Explorer staff as an assistant coach before embarking on a 17-year stint as the head coach of the Penn Quakers (1989-06). He became the first person to serve as the head men's basketball coach at two Philadelphia Big 5 institutions when he took over the reins of the Temple program from Hall of Fame coach John Chaney on April 10, 2006.

All he has done at Temple is win. He ranks fourth on the school's all-time coaching win list with a 203-115 record while guiding the Owls to six NCAA Tournaments, three conference titles and a trip to the 2015 NIT Semifinals in his nine years at the helm. His Temple teams have defeated six Top 10 teams in his tenure and have appeared in the Top 25 during 24 weeks.

Dunphy recorded his historic 500th coaching win in impeccable fashion last season by knocking off Memphis, 80-75, in the American Athletic Conference Quarterfinal round on March 13. His overall record stands at 513-278 which includes 16 20-win seasons, 15 NCAA Tournament appearances, 13 conference championships, eight Big 5 titles and one NIT trip.

Named Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year in four of his nine seasons at Temple, Dunphy led his second Owl squad on a late-season run to the Atlantic 10 Championship. He guided the Cherry and White to a 21-13 overall mark in 2007-08, including a second place A-10 regular season finish with an 11-5 conference record. He followed that by directing his charges in 2008-09 to a 22-12 record, 11-5 in league play, and another conference championship.

The 2009-10 season is one that will go down as one of the best in Temple lore. Picked tied for fifth in the A-10 preseason poll, Dunphy motivated his charges to their first A-10 regular season title (9th overall) since 2002 with a 14-2 record. The 2010 A-10 and NABC District Coach of the Year brought the Owls back into the national spotlight with the program's first national ranking since 2001, with the team staying in the polls for 13 consecutive weeks. His Owls would go on to become just the second A-10 team to win three consecutive conference championships while also posting just the fifth perfect Philadelphia Big 5 season in the program's history.

The number one accomplishment achieved by the 2009-10 Temple team, that finished the season with a #12 ranking in the Associated Press poll, was its 29 victories (against six defeats), which ranks third in the school's history.

In 2010-11, Dunphy led the Owls to a 26-8 record, including another 14-2 mark in A-10 play, and a fourth straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. This time the Owls, the 7-seed in West Region, defeated 10th-seeded Penn State, 66-64, in the second round for the program's first NCAA win since 2001. The Cherry and White game second-seeded San Diego State all they could handle in the next game before falling to the #5/6-ranked Aztecs, 71-64, in double-overtime.

It was a great season for Temple as the Owls were ranked among the nation's Top 25 for eight weeks during the season, climbing as high as #19 in the January 10 Associated Press poll. The Owls also overcame mid-February injuries to two starters, closing the season with seven wins in their final 10 games. The only losses in that stretch came to NCAA Sweet 16 participants Duke, Richmond and San Diego State.

In 2011-12, despite losing projected starter Scootie Randall for the season and center Micheal Eric for 13 games, Dunphy guided his charges to a 24-8 mark and the program's first outright A10 regular season title since 1989-90. The Owls finished 13-3 in league play and Dunphy earned his second A10 Coach of the Year honor for his efforts. Temple defeated #3/3 Duke to mark its fourth straight season with a win over a Top 10 opponent, and later cracked the national polls for the third straight year.

Temple, which also shared the Big 5 title, earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season, and was the fifth-seed in the NCAA Midwest Region.

In 2012-13, Dunphy again guided the Owls to another 20-plus win campaign with the Cherry and White becoming one of eight teams to compete in the last six straight NCAA Tournaments. Temple also knocked off a Top 10 team, this time #3/3 Syracuse, 83-79, at Madison Square Garden (12/22/12) to extend its current nation's best record to five straight seasons of defeating a Top 10 foe while being unranked at the time.

Temple would finish the campaign with a 24-10 record, advancing to the third round of the NCAA Tournament before narrowly falling to top-ranked Indiana, 58-52. The Owls capped their final season in the Atlantic 10 Conference with a thrilling 84-76 win over #19/21 VCU on CBS to finish tied for third in the league with an 11-5 record.

The program struggled in 2013-14, its first season in the American Athletic Conference. In a classic rebuilding year, the Owls posted a 9-22 record. The Cherry and White did continue its streak of wins over a nationally-ranked program to seven with a 71-64 upset over #23 SMU.

In 2014-15, Dunphy led his team to the best turnaround among all Division I teams, posting 17 more wins than the previous season to finish at 26-11 overall and 13-5 in the conference. A signature win over #10 Kansas was among the total as the Owls posted a 77-52 victory over the Jayhawks at the Wells Fargo Center (12/22).

The Owls finished the regular season 23-10, but were surprisingly left out of the NCAA Tournament. As the #1 overall seed in the NIT, Dunphy, in his time coaching in the tournament, guided Temple to wins over Bucknell, George Washington and Louisiana Tech to reach the semifinals, before falling to Miami at Madison Square Garden.

Dunphy was named American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, marking his third conference coach of the year honor (A-10: 2010, 2012). He also joined Chaney (516) as one of only two coaches to win 500 or more games at Big 5 schools.

One of the most respected coaches in the nation, Dunphy has coached eight Conference Players of the Year, three Conference Rookies of the Year, five perfect Conference seasons and 53 All-Conference honorees.

Prior to joining Penn's coaching staff, Dunphy served as an assistant under Speedy Morris at his alma mater, La Salle University (1985-86 through 1987-88). The Philadelphia native's coaching career began at the United States Military Academy (1971-72), where he served as an assistant under head coach Dan Dougherty. In 1975, he became head coach of his high school alma mater, Malvern Prep. He remained there until becoming Lefty Ervin's assistant at La Salle University (1979-80).

The following year, Dunphy joined current Maryland head coach Gary Williams' staff at American University. He served as an assistant two seasons under Williams, and the final three years under Ed Tapscott, the former head coach of the NBA's Washington Wizards (2008-09). He returned to La Salle in 1985, serving one more season under Ervin and assisting Morris for two seasons. He left La Salle to become Tom Schneider's assistant at Penn in 1988.

In 1989, Dunphy was named the 16th head coach at Penn. He would compile a 310-163 overall record in his 17-year career. His Quaker teams won an unprecedented 48 straight Ivy League games and four league titles from 1992 through 1996. His 1993-94 team posted a 25-3 record and earned a Number 25 ranking in the CNN/USA Today Coaches' Poll, the program's first such ranking since the 1978-79 campaign. That year also included a 90-80 first round upset of sixth-seed Nebraska in the NCAA Tournament.

In his last eight seasons at Penn, Dunphy guided the Quakers to six Ivy League titles and a 93-19 league record. From 1999-2001, he led Penn to 25 straight league wins, including a perfect 14-0 mark in 1999-2000. In 2001-02, Dunphy's Quakers posted a 25-7 record and won the school's first outright city-series title with a perfect 4-0 mark since 1973-74.

A full-time educator on and off the court, Dunphy is in his eighth year teaching in Temple's prestigious Fox School of Business. He is team-teaching an honors course with Dr. Lynne Anderson, entitled, Management, Theory & Practice: From the Locker Room to the Board Room. He previously had served as a lecturer in the Wharton Executive Education program and in the management department of the Wharton School.

Dunphy is one of the leaders in the local Coaches vs. Cancer campaign and was named to the National Council of Coaches vs. Cancer. He was also honored as the 2002 National Coaches vs. Cancer Coach of the Year for his service and tireless dedication to those in need. On September 23, 2008, he joined four other coaches to speak to legislators on Capitol Hill on the need for more funding for cancer research.

The Owl mentor also devotes time to Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Greater Philadelphia's Board of Directors, and his Penn and Temple teams have participated in the Big Brothers/Big Sisters program each year. He is also a member of the Philadelphia CYO Hall of Fame.

A 1970 La Salle graduate with a degree in marketing, Dunphy was an outstanding player under Explorers' head coach Tom Gola. As a junior, he helped the Explorers to a 23-1 record. He served as a co-captain his senior year when he averaged 18.6 ppg and led the team in assists, while also being named the MVP of the annual Quaker City Basketball Tournament. In 1979, he earned a Master's degree in counseling and human relations from Villanova University.

Dunphy and his wife, Ree, reside in Villanova, Pa., with their son, J.P.

Mr. Big Five

Temple head coach Fran Dunphy is synonymous with the Philadelphia Big 5. Dunphy, who lived his first 10 years in Southwest Philadelphia before moving to nearby Drexel Hill, Pa., starred at La Salle from 1967 through 1970. He would later serve as an assistant at his alma mater (1979-80; 1985-88) before taking the assistant coaching job at Penn for the 1988-89 season. After one season he would take over as the Quakers head coach, compiling a 310-163 record in 17 seasons. He is now in his 10th season at Temple. He received a master's degree in counseling from Villanova, and currently resides in Villanova, Pa.

A Man For All Causes

Dunphy has been a major contributor of his time and energy to the American Cancer Society through Coaches vs. Cancer. He has spearheaded the local efforts of the six Division I coaches that have led to raising over $1 million to benefit the American Cancer Society. Named the Coaches vs. Cancer National Coach of the Year for his efforts, Dunphy has helped to steer events in the area such as the Coaches vs. Cancer Golf Outing; the Coaches vs. Cancer Basketball; coordinated open practices with the six area teams and holding a March Madness Breakfast to raise awareness for the cause. He was honored in 2008 as a local hero by Bank of America for his role with Coaches vs. Cancer.

Another cause that Dunphy champions is Big Brothers/Big Sisters. The Owl coach devotes his time to Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Greater Philadelphia by serving on the organization's Board of Trustees. His Penn teams participated in Big Brothers/Big Sisters programs each year during his tenure at the school. His Temple teams have been actively participating in the program the past three seasons.

Dunphy is also a member of the Philadelphia CYO Hall of Fame.

Moving Up

With a win vs. La Salle on Feb. 21, 2013, Fran Dunphy moved past Don Casey (151, '73-82) and into fourth place on the all-time Temple coaching win list. Hall of Fame coach John Chaney (516, '82-06) tops the list followed by fellow Hall of Famer Harry Litwack (373, '52-73) and James Usilton, Sr. (205, '26-39). Dunphy is now 203-115 ('06-present).

A-10 Success

Under Dunphy, the Owls won the outright A-10 regular season title in 2011-12 for the first time since 1989-90. During Temple's years in the A-10 under Dunphy, the Owls went 80-32 in A-10 play and won three A-10 Championships (2008, 2009, 2010).

Professor Dunphy

For the eighth straight year, Dunphy taught an honors course in the University's prestigious Fox School of Business with Dr. Lynne Andersson. The course, titled Management, Theory and Practice: From the Locker Room to the Board Room, is offered in the fall semester.

Top 25 Coach

Temple coach Fran Dunphy entered last season ranked 25th among active NCAA Division I coaches in wins with 477, needing just 23 victories to join an elite group (88 all-time, now 25 active) of coaches with 500 wins while coaching at least a decade at the Division I level. Dunphy reached the 500-win mark when the Owls beat Memphis in the American Tournament quarterfinals, and is now one of 25 active Division I coaches to record 500 career wins.

Quenton DeCosey Named American Athletic Conference Player of the Week on Jan. 11

Senior Quenton DeCosey was named the American Athletic Conference Men's Basketball Player of the Week after leading the Owls to a pair of conference wins. Temple won 55-53 on the road at #23 UConn on Jan. 5, and followed it up with a 78-60 home win over East Carolina on Jan. 9.

DeCosey averaged 19.5 points per game, 3.5 rebounds per game and 3.0 assists per game in the two victories. He shot 51.9 percent from field and improved that to 72.7 percent from three-point range (8-of-11). In the UConn win, DeCosey led the team with 15 points. He was the game-high scorer against ECU, tying his season high with 24 points while hitting 5-of-8 from long range.

Bond Doubling Up

Senior forward Jaylen Bond notched five double-doubles for Temple last season, and has matched that with five in just the first 17 games of 2015. Bond put up back-to-back double-doubles earlier in the season, scoring 12 points and grabbing 10 rebounds at both Wisconsin and Penn. In the Owls' win at #23/24 UConn on Jan. 5, he added a game-high 10 rebounds to 11 points and hit 5-of-7 from the field. Bond notched his fifth double-double at Memphis on Jan. 13, adding a season-high 14 rebounds to 14 points.

Alani Moore, Damion Moore and Quinton Rose Sign National Letters of Intent

Temple head basketball coach Fran Dunphy has announced the signing of three highly-touted recruits, Alani Moore, Damion Moore and Quinton Rose, to National Letters of Intent.

"We are excited to welcome these three to the Temple Basketball family," said Dunphy. "These are not only talented young men on the court, but outstanding citizens who will be a great fit as teammates. They will play a big part in helping the program continue its storied history of success."

Alani Moore, a 5-10, 150-pound point guard, will play at Friendship Collegiate Academy (Washington, D.C.) this season after starring at Montrose Christian in 2014-15. The Hyattsville, Md., native averaged 17.4 points per game for Montrose as junior to earn first team All-Met honors.

Damion Moore, a 6-10 center from Callaway (Miss.) High School, is a three-star prospect who averaged 3.9 points, 4.6 rebounds and 1.1 blocks per game on Callaway's state championship squad as a junior. He showed his enormous potential in Callaway's 2015-16 season opener when he led the Chargers with 25 points and 10 rebounds.

Rose, a 6-6, 175-pound guard out of Bishop Kearney in Rochester, N.Y., averaged 15.4 points, seven rebounds and seven assists during the 2014-15 season. The three-year varsity performer earned a spot on the 15-player Democrat and Chronicle All-Greater Rochester Team in 2015.

Jaylen Bond Named 2015-16 Temple Men's Basketball Team Captain

Senior forward Jaylen Bond, the leading returning rebounder in the American Athletic Conference, has been named the Temple men's basketball team captain for the 2015-16 season. Bond becomes the first solo team captain at Temple in Fran Dunphy's 10 seasons at the helm. The last Owl to be a solo captain was David Hawkins during his senior season in 2003-04.

"Jaylen was the consensus choice by a vote of his teammates," said Dunphy, the 2015 American Athletic Conference Coach of Year. "He is everything a coach wants in a captain. He is a hard worker, who leads by example, and most importantly he has earned the respect of his teammates."

Bond, a Philadelphia native (Plymouth-Whitemarsh HS), transferred to Temple prior to the 2013-14 season after playing his first two seasons at the University of Texas. After sitting out his first year at Temple, he averaged 7.6 points and 7.9 rebounds per game while starting 29 of 35 games played. The 6-8 forward was named second team all-Philadelphia Big 5 and honorable mention all-conference. He was second on the team and sixth in conference in steals (1.4 spg).

20/20 Vision

Temple recorded its 35th 20-win season in 2014-15. It marked the seventh time (in nine seasons) that head coach Fran Dunphy led the Owls to a 20-win campaign. From 2007-13 Temple recorded six straight 20-win seasons, tying the program record for consecutive 20-win seasons, set under Hall of Fame head coach John Chaney (1995-01). Chaney posted 15 20-win seasons (24 seasons) while fellow Hall of Fame coach Harry Litwick compiled eight (21 seasons).

For Three

Temple has made at least one three-pointer in 657 consecutive games. The last time the Owls did not make a three-pointer in a game was February 1, 1996. Temple missed all 16 three-point attempts that day in dropping a 59-35 decision to #1 UMass at McGonigle Hall.

On the Radio

For the 15th straight year Temple men's basketball is being broadcast live on 1210 AM WPHT. All the Owls' games will be carried on the radio with Harry Donahue handling play-by-play and John Baum providing color commentary.

Chairman of the Boards

Junior forward Jaylen Bond made an immediate impact in his first season at Temple after transferring to the school from Texas. The Philadelphia native led the American Athletic Conference with a 7.9 average. Temple forward Anthony Lee led The American in 2013-14 in rebounding (8.6 rpg). Prior to that, the last Temple player to lead a conference in rebounding was Duane Causwell, who averaged 8.9 boards during the 1988-89 season to top the Atlantic 10 Conference. Tim Pery was the only other Owl to lead the A-10 in rebounding, doing it twice (8.6 rpg in 1986-87; 9.5 rpg in 1985-86).

Hometown Hero

Redshirt sophomore Daniel Dingle returned to his high school, St. Raymond's, Jan. 25 to have his Temple jersey hung in the gym. Dingle is one of 36 former St. Raymond's players to go on and play at NCAA Division I schools and his jersey joins his brother's, Dana Dingle, who starred at UMass from 1992-96.

Three's For Hunger

Temple Men's Basketball, Learfield Sports' Temple Sports Properties and The Fresh Grocer of Progress Plaza are working together to give back to Philabundance, Philadelphia's largest food bank. For every three-point basket made during the 2015-16 men's basketball season, The Fresh Grocer of Progress Plaza will donate one case of non-perishable food and goods to Philabundance.

Temple to Compete in 2016 NIT Season Tip-Off

Temple will be among four teams headlining the NIT Season Tip-Off as it returns to Barclays Center in 2016. The Owls will be joined by Florida State, Illinois and West Virginia in the championship round.

The 2016 Preseason NIT marks the sixth time that Temple has participated in the prestigious tournament. The Owls placed third in the 1986 tournament and were runners up in the 2000 event. The Cherry and White also competed in 1990, 1995 and 2005.

In its second year under the ESPN Events umbrella, the 2016 NIT Season Tip-Off will maintain its format with Florida State, Illinois, Temple and West Virginia each hosting two games at home against designated campus-site teams prior to traveling to Brooklyn. The full schedule, remaining four teams, and campus-site games will be announced at a later date.

Temple Advances to 2015 NIT Semifinals

The Owls are coming off a 26-11 season that marked the best turnaround in NCAA Division I, as they won 17 more games than in the previous season. After barely missing out on an at-large NCAA Tournament berth in 2014-15, the Owls made a run through the NIT all the way to the semifinals at Madison Square Garden, where they fell 60-57 to Miami (FL).

Training Techniques

Temple head coach Fran Dunphy employed some unique training methods this off-season to make sure his team was mentally and physically ready for the upcoming season. The Owls worked out at the Joe Hand Boxing Gym in Philadelphia for four sessions in July. The team even was counseled by World Champion Bernard Hopkins, who trains at the gym. The Owls then had cross-fit and spinning training workouts in the summer to improve their cardiovascular fitness before embarking on hour-long yoga sessions the last three weeks to work on their mental approach.

Trio of Tens

Temple posted its 10th win before January 1 for a third time under head coach Fran Dunphy last season and just the fifth time in program history. Besides the 2014-15 season, Dunphy's 2012-13 Owls, which finished 24-10, and 2009-10 squad (29-6) also accomplished the feat. Both of those teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Hall of Fame coaches John Chaney (1986-87 team, 32-4, NCAA) and Harry Litwick (1965-66, 21-7, NIT) each accomplished the feat once.

Flipping the Stats

At the conclusion of the 2013-14 season, Temple was last in The American in scoring defense and field goal percentage defense, as well as eighth among 10 teams in three-point field goal percentage defense. The Owls' offseason work on the defensive end was obvious last season, as Temple ranked third, fourth or fifth among 11 teams in all three categories. Only seven of the Owls' 36 opponents scored over 70 points, with 19 others scoring 60 points or less.

Bright Lights

At least 29 national television games highlight Temple's 2015-16 schedule. Temple will appear on ESPN entities a total of at least 21 times during the course of the season.

Record-Setting Defense

Temple's stifling defense held Tulane to a Liacouras Center record-low eight points in the first half of a 55-37 win on Jan. 31, 2015. It was the lowest scoring total in a half for any team ever in the building. Tulane's 37 points matched the lowest total for an opponent in the Fran Dunphy era, with the Owls also achieving that feat against American in the 2014-15 season opener. For the program, it marked the first time since the 1993-94 season that Temple had held two opponents to under 40 points in the same season.

Going Overtime

Temple is 57-48 overall in overtime contests and has won 15 of its last 20 overtime tilts. Prior to the 2013-14 season's Dec. 7 OT loss vs. Texas, the Owls had won five straight OT games dating back to a double overtime loss to San Diego State (71-64) in the third round of the 2011 NCAA Tournament. TU had won 12 straight single OT games dating back to a 73-69 win over Marist (11/18/08).

The Owls won their only overtime game of the 2014-15 season, a 57-53 decision at defending NCAA champion UConn in the American Athletic Conference opener on Dec. 31.

Temple is 1-1 in overtime games in 2015-16. The Owls fell by just a single point to Big 5 foe Saint Joseph's, 66-65 at home on Dec. 13, but beat conference foe Cincinnati 67-65 in double overtime on Jan. 16.

Practice Palace

Temple's $10 million basketball practice facility was completed in January, 2012, and the Donald and Nancy Resnick Court was officially dedicated on October 5. Part of the $48 million renovation to Pearson and McGonigle Halls, the new state-of-the-art facility, features separate courts for the Owls' men's and women's basketball teams.

A Dynamic Duo

Temple has two Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame coaches. The first inductee was Harry Litwick, who coached the Owls from 1952 to 1973 and registered 373 wins. Litwick was inducted on April 26, 1976. John Chaney, who retired March 12, 2006 after 24 seasons and 516 wins at Temple, was inducted on October 5, 2001. Temple is only one of nine universities who have two coaches in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. The center jump circle at the Liacouras Center is jointly named in honor of these two coaching legends.
