HEADLINES

- Temple remains atop the American Athletic Conference standings with a record of 11-4, but had its six-game conference win streak snapped at Tulsa on Feb. 23 in a 74-55 loss.
- Overall, the Owls have won nine of their last 12 games and have a 6-1 record against the next four teams in the conference standings.
- Temple is celebrating Hooter the Owl's birthday on Saturday, and has a perfect 10-0 record since the first time the Owls celebrated their mascot's birthday in the 2005-06 season.
- Sophomore Obi Enechionya has come on strong of late, and is averaging 15.6 ppg over the last nine contests. Enechionya hit 6-of-9 from long range en route to a career-high 26 points in a win at Houston on Feb. 21, and was also the Owls' leading scorer at Tulsa with 17 points.
- The Owls trailed by 10 in the second half at Houston before closing the game with an 8-2 run, capped by two free throws from Josh Brown to get the win and avenge a home loss to the Cougars on Jan. 2.
- Temple had won five straight before a home loss to #1/1 Villanova in a Philadelphia Big 5 game on Feb. 17. The Owls narrowed a 23-point gap in the second half to 11 points in the 83-67 loss, but could come no closer.
- Freshman Trey Lowe had a breakout game against Villanova, coming off the bench for a career and team-high 21 points and hitting 5-of-8 shots from long range.
- For the first time this season, Temple had five players reach double figures in scoring in a 77-65 win vs. USF on Feb. 14. Enechionya and senior Jaylen Bond led the way with 18 points apiece, while Bond made it his seventh double-double of the season with 14 rebounds (tying his season high).
- With 8.0 rebounds per game, Bond leads the team and ranks eighth in the American Athletic Conference.
- When Temple edged UCF on the road on Feb. 6, 62-60, the Owls gave 10th-year head coach Fran Dunphy his 517th career victory to make him the all-time winningest coach in Philadelphia Big 5 history.
- Senior Quenton DeCosey is Temple's leading scorer this season with 15.9 points per game, ranking third in the conference, and has scored in double figures in 24 of 27 contests. He has scored 1,415 points to rank 27th all-time in program history. When he scores at least 20 points, the Owls are 8-1 this season.
- With a win vs. #8 SMU on Jan. 24, Temple has now taken down a Top 10 team in seven of the last eight seasons.
- With 8.0 made three-pointers per game, Temple leads all teams in the American Athletic Conference.
- As a team, the Owls rank third in the nation in fewest turnovers per game at 9.3. They have recorded single digit turnovers in 16 of 27 games, tallying as few as five (vs. Delaware on Nov. 29 and at USF on Jan. 31).
- The Owls have three regular-season wins over Top 25 teams, the most since 1999-00. This season also marks the first since 1998 that the Owls have beaten two Top 25 opponents on the road. Temple has beaten at least one ranked opponent for nine straight seasons.
- UCF has lost six straight and nine of its last 10, winning only at Tulane by a score of 70-62 on Feb. 4. Redshirt sophomore guard A.J. Davis leads the Knights with 12.2 points per game and 6.1 rebounds per game.

TEMPLE VS. UCF

- Temple and UCF are meeting for the seventh time, with the Owls holding a 4-2 lead in the series.
- The Owls have won three straight against the Knights, including a 62-60 win on the road on Feb. 6.
- Both meetings in 2014-15 went to Temple. The Owls won 84-78 at home on Jan. 4 before getting an 86-62 win on the road on Jan. 28.
- The teams met three times in the 2013-14 season, with two of those contests going to overtime. Each won at home before the Knights got a narrow, 94-90 win in double overtime in the American Athletic Conference Tournament first round.

LAST MEETING: TEMPLE 62, UCF 60 (FEB. 6, 2016 @ UCF)

- It came down to the wire, but Temple picked up its third straight win on February 6, edging UCF 62-60 on the road. The win was the 517th of head coach Fran Dunphy's career, making him the all-time winningest coach in Philadelphia Big 5 basketball history.
- Junior Mark Williams was the x-factor for Temple in the win, surpassing his previous season high by seven points and leading the Owls with 16. Williams hit 7-of-10 from the field including 2-of-3 from long range. Also in double figures for Temple were senior Quenton DeCosey with 15 points and sophomore Obi Enechionya with 14.
- Senior Devin Coleman scored nine points, while junior Josh Brown added four assists and a team-best seven rebounds to six points.
- Both teams shot well early in the first half, but the Owls stayed more consistent down the stretch. After four early ties, the last at 18-18, UCF briefly took its largest lead of three points with a 6-0 run.
- Down 24-21 at 8:29, Temple used an 11-0 run, capped by a Williams three-pointer, to lead 32-24 with 4:18 left in the half. The Owls kept the Knights scoreless for over five minutes en route to taking their largest lead of the period.
- UCF eventually answered with six straight points to come within two, but Temple had it back to a four-point lead by halftime, 36-32.
- The Owls increased their lead to six early in the second half, but UCF quickly cut the margin to a point. From there, the largest lead for either team was five the rest of the way in a second half that saw three more ties and four lead changes.
- UCF's last lead was 56-55 at 3:28 before a 6-2 run gave Temple the lead for good. DeCosey converted a three-point play with 1:46 left for a 61-58 lead, but the Knights' Tanksley Efiyanayi hit a pair of free throws at the other end.
- With 36 seconds remaining, UCF had a chance to take the lead but the Owls came up with the stop, and Coleman hit 1-of-2 at the line for a two-point lead that would stand as the final tally. On the Knights' final possession, two three-pointers missed the mark. They got a layup to go, but upon official review it was made after the final buzzer.

TEMPLE MEN'S BASKETBALL

LAST TIME OUT: TULSA 74, TEMPLE 55 (FEB. 23, 2016)

- With a big second half, Tulsa put the game out of reach for Temple and snapped the Owls' six-game American Athletic Conference winning streak. The Owls had a big lead in the first half but could come no closer than nine points in the final 10 minutes against the Golden Hurricane.
- For a second game in a row, sophomore Obi Enechionya was Temple's leading scorer with 17 points. He hit 4-of-6 from long range and also tied his season high with three blocks. The only other scorer in double figures for the Owls was senior Quenton DeCosey with 10 points and a team-best nine rebounds.
- The game featured three big runs, but only one for Temple that occurred early on. Tulsa's final run of 13-2 gave the Golden Hurricane a 14-point lead with 7:12 remaining, and they went on to lead by as many as 21 before the end of the contest.
- Pat Birt led all players with 20 points for Tulsa, while James Woodard added 15 points and dished a game-high eight assists.
- Temple trailed 9-5 in the first half before turning on the offense in a big way, using an 18-4 run over a six and a half minute stretch to take its largest lead of 12, 25-13 at the eight-minute mark. The Owls hit five of their first eight attempts from long range, with Enechionya hitting two of those in the big run.
- Unfortunately, the scoring slowed as suddenly as it had begun, and the Owls then went six and a half minutes without hitting a single field goal. Tulsa's run in that stretch was even better than the Owls' previous run, with the Golden Hurricane outscoring Temple 18-2 to take a 30-27 lead.
- The last two minutes were slow for both teams, and Tulsa took a two-point, 31-29 lead into halftime.
- Both teams started hot in the second half, but Tulsa slightly more so, hitting six of its first 10 shots while the Owls hit four of their first eight. Tulsa never trailed in the second half, and led early on by seven, 47-40 at 13:24.
- Enechionya continued to light it up for Temple in the early going of the second period, hitting both of his attempts from behind the arc to keep the Owls within one or two possessions. DeCosey scored four straight points near the 12-minute mark to pull Temple within three, 47-44, but it was all Tulsa from there as the Golden Hurricane outscored the Owls 27-11 the rest of the way.

The Force is With Obi

Sophomore forward Obi Enechionya has come on strong in the Owls' last nine games. After averaging just 8.5 ppg in his first 17 games played this season, Enechionya has put up 15.6 ppg over his last nine contests to rank second on the team. He has scored in double figures in all but one of those games, including a career-high 26-point performance in a win at Houston on Feb. 21. From long range, Enechionya has been outstanding in this stretch, hitting 26-of-54 (48.1 percent). He has led or tied for the team lead in scoring in four of the nine games, including the last two straight (26 points at Houston and 17 points at Tulsa).

Comeback Kids

Three times this season, Temple has been down by 10 or more points in the second half and come back to win the game. All three games have occurred in the month of February, starting with the Owls' first meeting against Tulsa at home on Feb. 4. They trailed by 12 with 10 minutes remaining before coming back to win 83-79 in overtime. One week later, Temple again trailed by 12 at home against UConn before coming back to win 63-58 on Feb. 11. The third time the Owls achieved a big comeback was at Houston on Feb. 21. They were down by 10 at 11:05 of the second half and used a late push to win 69-66.

All-Time Winningest Coach in Big 5 History

With Temple's win at UCF on Feb. 6, head coach Fran Dunphy surpassed former Owl coach John Chaney to become the all-time winningest coach in Philadelphia Big 5 history. Dunphy, who became the fifth coach to win 200 games at two schools while taking each to six NCAA Tournaments, is the one of eight coaches to have won 200 or more games at a Big 5 school since the city league was formed in 1955. Below is the list of 200-win coaches in city-series history.

Fran Dunphy (Penn/Temple)	520-281 (1989-present)
John Chaney (Temple)	516-253 (1982-06)

Jack Ramsay (Saint Joseph's)	234-72 (1955-66)

Loaded Schedule

Temple faced Top 25 teams in three of its first four games for the first time in program history. Twice before, in 1990-91 and 1993-94, the Owls faced ranked teams in three of their first five games. The Owls now have three regular-season wins over Top 25 teams, the most since 1999-00. On Dec. 29, Temple won 77-70 at #22/23 Cincinnati, and on Jan. 5 the Owls edged out #23/24 UConn, 55-53. Temple got its first home win of the season over a ranked team when the Owls beat #8 SMU 89-80 on Jan. 24.

Four of Temple's 10 losses have come to teams that were ranked in the Top 25 at the time of the game (#1/1 Villanova, #1/1 North Carolina, #22/20 Butler and #16/16 Utah) with another coming on the road against 2015 NCAA finalist Wisconsin. The combined won-loss record of all nine teams the Owls have lost to is 191-85 (.692).

Home Sweet Home

The Liacouras Center has proven to be a tremendous home court advantage. Since the arena opened its doors in 1997, the Owls have posted a 195-60 (.765) all-time record, and set the record for wins in a single season with 16 in 2014-15. That marked the seventh 10-win season in the last eight campaigns for the Owls at home and Temple is 101-24 (.808) at home since the start of the 2007-08 campaign. To the right is a list of 10-win seasons in the building (bold under Dunphy).

Hooter the Owl's Birthday

The annual celebration of Temple mascot Hooter the Owl's birthday is set for Saturday when the Owls host UCF. Mascots from all around the area will be on hand to help Hooter celebrate his special day. Temple has a strong tradition of success on Hooter's birthday, going 10-0 all-time since the first celebration during the 2005-06 season.

Balanced Attack

For the first time in two seasons, five Temple Owls topped double figures in scoring in the team's 77-65 win over USF on Feb. 14. Jaylen Bond and Obi Enechionya led the way with 18 points each. Quenton DeCosey scored 12 points while Josh Brown added 11 and Devin Coleman chipped in with 10. The last time prior to this game Temple had five players reach double digits in the scoring column was on Feb. 9, 2014, when Dalton Pepper (17), DeCosey (14), Anthony Lee (14), Will Cummings (12) and Devontae Watson (11) topped the mark in an 88-74 loss at Houston.

DeCosey Hits 1,000

Temple senior guard Quenton DeCosey had scored 998 points heading into the Puerto Rico Tip-Off, and a three-pointer early in the Owls' opening-game win vs. Minnesota made him the 51st player in program history to reach the 1,000-point plateau. DeCosey, who was honored for his milestone prior to the FDU game on Dec. 2, led Temple with 22 points that night and has now scored 1,415 career points (27th all-time).

Big 5 History

The Owls earned a share of their 27th Big 5 title in 2012-13, with that total (21 shared, six outright) leading the Big 5. Temple's 134-94 record in city series games ranks second, and the Owls have won four Big 5 titles in head coach Fran Dunphy's nine seasons. Temple has now finished Big 5 play this season with a record of 2-2, as the Owls did in 2014-15 as well. They got a 77-73 win over Penn and a 62-49 victory against La Salle, but lost by a point in overtime to Saint Joseph's and then closed out the city series schedule with a home loss to #1/1 Villanova on Feb. 17.

Temple Defeats Tulsa in a Thriller

Down 12 points in the second half and never leading for a single moment of the entire period, Temple forced overtime and earned an 83-79 win against visiting Tulsa on Feb. 4. Senior Quenton DeCosey scored a team-high 21 points, all in the second half and overtime, and had the assist on a Devin Coleman three-pointer with two seconds remaining in regulation to force the extra period.

Handle With Care

Temple has proven adept at handling the ball in each of the last two seasons, ranking in the top 10 nationally in fewest turnovers. This year Temple is second in the nation in fewest turnovers overall at 250, and is third in the nation with just 9.3 turnovers per game. Last season the Owls led the league and ranked eighth among all Division I teams at the end of the season with 9.5 turnovers per game. Temple led the nation in fewest turnovers 11 times under Hall of Fame head coach John Chaney. (n.b. - NCAA records only date back to the 1993 season).

Starting Lineup Remix

After the first two games of the season, head coach Fran Dunphy used the same starting lineup for 10 games in a row. That group included sophomore Obi Enechionya (out for season opener due to injury), junior Josh Brown, senior Jaylen Bond, senior Devin Coleman and senior Quenton DeCosey.

Dunphy then mixed up his lineup for five straight games, replacing Coleman and Enechionya with a combination of freshmen Ernest Aflakpui, Levan Shawn Alston, Jr. and Trey Lowe, redshirt junior Daniel Dingle and junior Mark Williams. Aflakpui started in six straight games, the most of anyone outside the five who started in 10 straight. The Owls went 5-1 while switching up the lineup each game.

They then kept the same lineup three games, going 2-1 including a win over #8 SMU. The starters switched yet again for the Tulsa game on Feb. 4, a lineup that was used in four straight games and six of the last seven, all but one of them wins for the Owls (Brown, Bond, DeCosey, Dingle, Enechionya).

Bond Doubling Up

Senior forward Jaylen Bond notched five double-doubles for Temple last season, and has surpassed that total with seven in 2015-16. Bond put up back-to-back double-doubles earlier in the season, scoring 12 points and grabbing 10 rebounds at both Wisconsin and Penn. In the Owls' win at #23/24 UConn on Jan. 5, he added a game-high 10 rebounds to 11 points and hit 5-of-7 from the field. Bond notched his fifth double-double at Memphis on Jan. 13, adding a season-high 14 rebounds to 14 points, and got double-double number six in a win vs. Tulsa on Feb. 4 with 13 points and a game-high 13 rebounds. On Feb. 14, Bond made it seven double-doubles with 18 points and 14 rebounds (tying his season high) in a win vs. USF.

TEMPLE MEN'S BASKETBALL

Mascot Double Trouble: Hooter and Stella

Temple Athletics has both a traditional and a live mascot cheering on its teams, as Hooter the Owl and Stella can both often be found on the sidelines. To honor Temple's beginning as a night school for ambitious young people, the nocturnal owl was adopted as its mascot. The owl represents wisdom and knowledge and is known for being perceptive, resourceful and courageous. Hooter the Owl is a part of Temple's Spirit Squad, making appearances games, alumni events and more. Each February, mascots from all over the city of Philadelphia come to Temple to celebrate Hooter's birthday at a home basketball game, which will take place this season on Saturday, Feb. 27 against UCF.

Stella, a great horned owl, began her career as Temple's live mascot in 2013. Though she's small—just 2 feet tall and only 3 pounds—Stella is a mighty predator, with an impressive 60-inch wingspan and talons capable of crushing prey with 28 pounds of force per square inch. She currently resides in the Elmwood Park Zoo in Norristown, Pa., where she also is a wildlife conservation teacher. Stella originally hails from Washington state. Her favorite foods include rodents, rabbits and snakes.

Perfect Game

Perfection is a rarity in basketball or in any sport, but senior guard Devin Coleman couldn't miss in a recent big win for the Owls. Hitting 8-of-8 from the field including 7-of-7 from beyond the arc, Coleman scored a career and game-high 23 points in leading Temple to an 89-80 upset of #8 SMU on Jan. 24.

Coleman's performance from long range tied the school record for three-point percentage in a game, matching Pepe Sanchez's 100% (7-7) game against Rhode Island on February 16, 1997.

In the Owls' five biggest conference games so far (SMU, two against UConn, two against Cincinnati), Coleman is a combined 21-of-34 (.618) from three-point range.

Assistance From Brown

Junior point guard Josh Brown has reset his career high in assists twice this season before tying it a third time. In the Owls' win at Penn on Dec. 9, he dished a career-high nine assists while recording just a single turnover. He matched his nine assists in a win vs. USF on Feb. 14. Brown currently ranks fourth in The American in assists per game (4.7) and is ranked first in assist/turnover ratio (3.3).

Double-Digit Debut

With his 12 points against #1/1 North Carolina, Levan Shawn Alston, Jr., became the first true freshman to score in double figures in his Temple debut since Mark Tyndale tallied 19 points in an 80-78 home loss to Auburn on Nov. 19, 2004. Redshirt freshman Ramone Moore also scored in double figures with 11 points in 20 minutes in a 79-65 win over East Tennessee State at Charleston Classic on Nov. 14, 2008. Alston's father, Levan Alston, scored six points in 34 minutes off the bench in his first game as an Owl, a 65-54 win over USC at the Martin Luther King Classic in Memphis on November 27, 1994. A transfer from New Orleans, Alston was a junior at the time.

500th Win for Dunphy

Temple head coach Fran Dunphy became the 24th active Division I men's basketball head coach to reach the 500-win mark with the Owls' 80-75 win over Memphis on March 13, 2015. He joined Hall of Fame Owl legend John Chaney as the only two coaches in Philadelphia Big 5 history to record 500 wins. Chaney compiled 516 in his 24 years patrolling the Temple sidelines (1982-2006).

The Battle of Broadcasters

While Temple was playing at USF, there was an historic event going on simultaneously on the University's main campus. "The Battle of Broadcasters," a contest to pick two Chinese students to be Mandarin-language broadcasters for Owls' men's basketball games, came to a conclusion. The idea originated from Temple President Neil Theobald in an effort to engage the University's nearly 1,300 Chinese students. The contest involved the five finalists each getting a shot at providing play-by-play and analysis of the Temple-USF game in Mandarin. The winners, listed below, did their first audio broadcast in Mandarin for the Tulsa game on Feb. 4, and will continue to do broadcasts and highlight videos for future Temple games.

Meet the Battle of the Broadcasters winners:

James Yuan, Fox School of Business '19, went to high school in California and Connecticut. Played varsity basketball in high school—was only Chinese player in league. Lived with high-school coach who taught him ins-and-outs of NCAA sports. Emcees Chinese Student Scholars Association events. Wanted to win the contest to help other Chinese students understand sport's rules.

Javi Yuan, School of Media and Communication '19, Wants to be a sportscaster—calls it his dream. Provides commentary on Chinese game-streaming website; has 2,000 followers. Played high-school basketball.

Alums Return to Fran Dunphy's Staff

Two Temple alums joined head coach Fran Dunphy's staff in the offseason, while a third was promoted within the staff. Chris Clark ('08), who helped lead the Owls to the first of six straight NCAA Tournaments under Dunphy, now serves as video coordinator for the team. Luis Guzman ('10), who played a significant role in three Atlantic 10 Champion teams and made four NCAA Tournament appearances with the Owls, joined the program as a graduate manager. Former basketball manager Raheem Mapp ('09), who has worked with the team in various capacities since 2006, was promoted to director of basketball operations after serving five years as the administrative/video coordinator for the team.

Temple vs. the Polls

For the first time since the 1997-98 season, Temple has won two road games against opponents ranked in the Top 25. Last season, the Owls faced Top 25 teams just four times. This season, they have already faced seven ranked opponents.

In Elite Company

With Temple's seventh win of the season at #23/24 UConn on Jan. 5, head coach Fran Dunphy joined Roy Williams, Eddie Sutton, Lou Henson and Rick Pitino as the only coaches in NCAA Division I history to win 200 games at two different schools while also reaching the NCAA Tournament six times with each program.

Temple's Sixth Man

Senior Devin Coleman started in the first 12 games of the season, but has since come off the bench for 14 games and has thrived in that role. Coleman has scored 245 points this season, surpassing his 207 points combined over the previous three seasons (two at Clemson). A candidate for The American's Sixth Man of the Year, he leads the Owls with 52 three-pointers and is fourth in scoring at 9.1 ppg.

Magic Number

The magic number for Temple's offense over the past two seasons has proven to be 70. When the Owls have scored 70 or more points, they are a perfect 26-0 since the start of the 2014-15 season. Temple went 16-0 when scoring 70+ points last year, and has gone 10-0 when doing the same so far in the 2015-16 season.

Winning Percentage

When Temple has shot 40 percent from the field or better in games so far this season, the Owls have gone 12-1. Eight of those performances have come in Temple's last 11 games, including a 46.6 field goal percentage in the win over #8 SMU. When the Owls shoot less than 40 percent from the field, they are 5-9 so far.

Giant Killers

Temple's 89-80 upset of #8 SMU on Jan. 24 was the program's seventh win over a Top-10 team in the last eight seasons. The Owls achieved the feat for five straight years from 2018-09 to 2012-13, and began a new streak in 2014-15 with a 77-52 defeat of #10/10 Kansas on Dec. 22.

On Dec. 13, 2008, Dionte Christmas scored 35 points to lead the Owls to an 88-72 win over #8/8 Tennessee. On Dec. 13, 2009, Juan Fernandez delivered a career-high 33 points in a 75-65 win over #3/3 Villanova. On Dec. 9, 2010, Ramone Moore exploded for a career-high 30 points in a 68-65 win over #9/10 Georgetown. On Jan. 4, 2012, it was Khalif Wyatt with 22 points to propel the Owls to a 78-73 win over #3/5 Duke. He did it again with a career-high 33 points in an 83-79 win over #3/3 Syracuse on Dec. 12, 2012.

After a season without a Top 10 win, Temple made 18 of its final 23 shots for a dominant win against #10/10 Kansas at the Wells Fargo Center in 2014-15. Senior Devin Coleman sparked the recent upset vs. #8 SMU, hitting 8-of-8 field goals including 7-of-7 from long range for a career and game-high 23 points.

In addition to beating a Top 10 team in seven of eight seasons, the Owls have beaten at least one Top 25 team for nine straight seasons. Their three victories over ranked opponents this year are the most in the regular season since 1999-00.

Devin Coleman Named American Player of the Week

After his career and record-setting performance in leading Temple to an 89-80 upset of previously undefeated and eighth-ranked SMU, senior guard Devin Coleman was named the American Athletic Conference Player of the Week on Jan. 25. The honor is the first-ever for Coleman, who was named to the conference's weekly honor roll earlier this season.

In the SMU win, Coleman shot a perfect 8-of-8 including 7-of-7 from beyond the arc, finishing with a career and game-high 23 points. His three-point shooting effort tied the school record for 3-point percentage in a game set by Pepe Sanchez on Feb. 16, 1997. In the Owls' other game of the week, a 62-49 win at La Salle, Coleman scored six points and tied his season high with six rebounds.

Macon was joined on the all-Atlantic 10 First Team by his backcourt mate, senior Howard Evans, and fellow senior forward Tim Perry, who earned A10 Player of the Year accolades. 1991 Elite Eight Team Honored on Feb. 14

On Valentine's Day, Temple celebrated by bestowing love on its 1991 men's basketball Elite Eight team. At the Owls' Feb. 14th game against USF, Temple honored the players, coaches and managers on the 25th Anniversary year of this special team.

Hall of Fame coach John Chaney's 1990-91 Owls, led by the program's all-time leading scorer in senior guard Mark Macon (2,609 points) entered the NCAA Tournament as the 10th-seed in the East Region. They opened the tournament, held at College Park, Md., by knocking off 7th-seed Purdue, 80-63, with Mik Kilgore scoring a game-high 25 points. Macon led the way in the second round with 20 points while Kilgore added 18 in a 77-64 decision over #15-seed Richmond, who had upset #2-seed Syracuse in its first round game.

Macon treated the crowd at the Meadowlands to a show in a 72-63 overtime win against #3-seed Oklahoma State, scoring 26 points to lift the Owls to their second of five Elite Eight appearances under Chaney. Mark Strickland rejected eight Cowboy shots to tie former Owl Tim Perry for third on the NCAA Tournament single-game blocked shots list.

Despite one of the best performances in Macon's brilliant career, a 31-point, 9-rebound effort, Temple fell to #1-seed North Carolina, 75-72. It was the closest the Owls would come to the Final Four under their legendary coach.

Macon, who led the team with a 22.0 scoring average, was named the Most Outstanding Performer of the East Region for his efforts while Kilgore (14.6 ppg) earned a spot on the all-Region team. Donald Hodge (11.6 ppg) and Vic Carstarphen (10.4 ppg) also averaged double figures while Strickland (7.7 ppg) rounded out the starting five.

Cincinnati and UConn Season Sweeps

Just six games into its American Athletic Conference schedule, Temple completed a regular season sweep of Cincinnati, a team that was ranked in the Top 25 in the first meeting. The Owls won 77-70 at #22/23 Cincinnati in the conference opener on Dec. 29, and earned a 67-65 double overtime win at home against the Bearcats on Jan. 16. Temple's seven shots from long range made the difference in the game. Cincinnati came in as the conference's leader in three-pointers made per game at 7.9, and ranked third with a .366 three-point field-goal percentage. The Owls held them to just a single trey, as the Bearcats finished at 1-of-18 (5.6 percent). Cincinnati has appeared in five straight NCAA Tournaments, advancing to the third round in 2015.

On Feb. 11, the Owls completed a regular season sweep of UConn after the Huskies were also nationally ranked in the first meeting (#23/24 on Jan. 5). Josh Brown hit the game-winning jumper with two seconds remaining for a 55-53 road win in that first meeting, and Quenton DeCosey scored a team-high 15 points. In the second meeting at home on Feb. 11, the Owls trailed by as many as 12 in the second half before coming back to win 63-58. DeCosey led the Owls with 23 points, and Daniel Dingle's second-half heroics included four 3-pointers as he finished with a career-high 15 points.

Alums Will Cummings and Micheal Eric Selected to NBA D-League All-Star Game

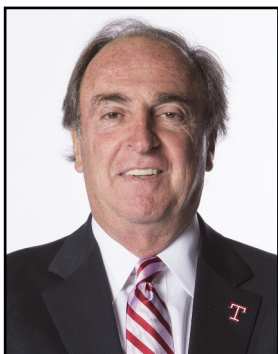

Temple alums Will Cummings and Micheal Eric were among the 24 players selected to play in the 2016 NBA D-League All-Star Game presented by Kumho Tire. The two former Owl standouts represented the East squad in the 10th annual game at Toronto's Ricoh Coliseum on Saturday, Feb. 13.

Cummings, who is a rookie with the Rio Grande Valley Vipers, has had an incredible start to his professional career. The 2015 First Team All-American Conference honoree ranks seventh in the league in scoring (20.1 ppg), fourth in steals (2.0 spg), seventh in minutes played (37.7 mpg) and 14th in assists (5.3 apg).

Eric, who played at Temple from 2008-12, is in his second full season in the D-League, earning All-Rookie Second Team honors while playing for the Canton Charge in 2012-13. Now with the Texas Legends, he is averaging 12.4 points per game and ranks third in the league in blocks (2.0 bpg) and seventh in rebounding (8.7 rpg). His season high of 22 points came on January 2 while playing against Cummings' Rio Grande Valley squad.

Three's For Hunger

Temple Men's Basketball, Learfield Sports' Temple Sports Properties and The Fresh Grocer of Progress Plaza are working together to give back to Philabundance, Philadelphia's largest food bank. For every three-point basket made during the 2015-16 men's basketball season, The Fresh Grocer of Progress Plaza will donate one case of non-perishable food and goods to Philabundance.

10TH SEASON • LA SALLE '70

520-281 Overall • 210-118 at Temple

One of 25 active NCAA Division I coaches with 500 victories, Fran Dunphy is in his 10th season at the helm of the Temple men's basketball program. One of the all-time winningest coaches in Philadelphia Big 5 history, Dunphy is also just the fifth coach to win 200 games at two different Division I programs while also taking both schools to six or more NCAA Tournaments. He has joined Lou Henson (New Mexico, Illinois), Rick Pitino (Kentucky, Louisville), Eddie Sutton (Arkansas, Oklahoma State) and Roy Williams (Kansas, North Carolina) in this elite club.

A part of Big 5 Basketball for the last six decades, Dunphy starred at La Salle as a player (1967-70) and served on the Explorer staff as an assistant coach before embarking on a 17-year stint as the head coach of the Penn Quakers (1989-06). He became the first person to serve as the head men's basketball coach at two Philadelphia Big 5 institutions when he took over the reins of the Temple program from Hall of Fame coach John Chaney on April 10, 2006.

All he has done at Temple is win. He ranks fourth on the school's all-time coaching win list with a 210-118 record while guiding the Owls to six NCAA Tournaments, three conference titles and a trip to the 2015 NIT Semifinals in his nine years at the helm. His Temple teams have defeated six Top 10 teams in his tenure and have appeared in the Top 25 during 24 weeks.

Dunphy recorded his historic 500th coaching win in impeccable fashion last season by knocking off Memphis, 80-75, in the American Athletic Conference Quarterfinal round on March 13. His overall record stands at 520-281 which includes 16 20-win seasons, 15 NCAA Tournament appearances, 13 conference championships, eight Big 5 titles and one NIT trip.

Named Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year in four of his nine seasons at Temple, Dunphy led his second Owl squad on a late-season run to the Atlantic 10 Championship. He guided the Cherry and White to a 21-13 overall mark in 2007-08, including a second place A-10 regular season finish with an 11-5 conference record. He followed that by directing his charges in 2008-09 to a 22-12 record, 11-5 in league play, and another conference championship.

The 2009-10 season is one that will go down as one of the best in Temple lore. Picked tied for fifth in the A-10 preseason poll, Dunphy motivated his charges to their first A-10 regular season title (9th overall) since 2002 with a 14-2 record. The 2010 A-10 and NABC District Coach of the Year brought the Owls back into the national spotlight with the program's first national ranking since 2001, with the team staying in the polls for 13 consecutive weeks. His Owls would go on to become just the second A-10 team to win three consecutive conference championships while also posting just the fifth perfect Philadelphia Big 5 season in the program's history.

The number one accomplishment achieved by the 2009-10 Temple team, that finished the season with a #12 ranking in the Associated Press poll, was its 29 victories (against six defeats), which ranks third in the school's history.

In 2010-11, Dunphy led the Owls to a 26-8 record, including another 14-2 mark in A-10 play, and a fourth straight trip to the NCAA Tournament. This time the Owls, the 7-seed in West Region, defeated 10th-seeded Penn State, 66-64, in the second round for the program's first NCAA win since 2001. The Cherry and White game second-seeded San Diego State all they could handle in the next game before falling to the #5/6-ranked Aztecs, 71-64, in double-overtime.

It was a great season for Temple as the Owls were ranked among the nation's Top 25 for eight weeks during the season, climbing as high as #19 in the January 10 Associated Press poll. The Owls also overcame mid-February injuries to two starters, closing the season with seven wins in their final 10 games. The only losses in that stretch came to NCAA Sweet 16 participants Duke, Richmond and San Diego State.

In 2011-12, despite losing projected starter Scootie Randall for the season and center Micheal Eric for 13 games, Dunphy guided his charges to a 24-8 mark and the program's first outright A10 regular season title since 1989-90. The Owls finished 13-3 in league play and Dunphy earned his second A10 Coach of the Year honor for his efforts. Temple defeated #3/3 Duke to mark its fourth straight season with a win over a Top 10 opponent, and later cracked the national polls for the third straight year.

Temple, which also shared the Big 5 title, earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season, and was the fifth-seed in the NCAA Midwest Region.

In 2012-13, Dunphy again guided the Owls to another 20-plus win campaign with the Cherry and White becoming one of eight teams to compete in the last six straight NCAA Tournaments. Temple also knocked off a Top 10 team, this time #3/3 Syracuse, 83-79, at Madison Square Garden (12/22/12) to extend its current nation's best record to five straight seasons of defeating a Top 10 foe while being unranked at the time.

Temple would finish the campaign with a 24-10 record, advancing to the third round of the NCAA Tournament before narrowly falling to top-ranked Indiana, 58-52. The Owls capped their final season in the Atlantic 10 Conference with a thrilling 84-76 win over #19/21 VCU on CBS to finish tied for third in the league with an 11-5 record.

The program struggled in 2013-14, its first season in the American Athletic Conference. In a classic rebuilding year, the Owls posted a 9-22 record. The Cherry and White did continue its streak of wins over a nationally-ranked program to seven with a 71-64 upset over #23 SMU.

In 2014-15, Dunphy led his team to the best turnaround among all Division I teams, posting 17 more wins than the previous season to finish at 26-11 overall and 13-5 in the conference. A signature win over #10 Kansas was among the total as the Owls posted a 77-52 victory over the Jayhawks at the Wells Fargo Center (12/22).

The Owls finished the regular season 23-10, but were surprisingly left out of the NCAA Tournament. As the #1 overall seed in the NIT, Dunphy, in his time coaching in the tournament, guided Temple to wins over Bucknell, George Washington and Louisiana Tech to reach the semifinals, before falling to Miami at Madison Square Garden.

Dunphy was named American Athletic Conference Coach of the Year, marking his third conference coach of the year honor (A-10: 2010, 2012). He also joined Chaney (516) as one of only two coaches to win 500 or more games at Big 5 schools.

One of the most respected coaches in the nation, Dunphy has coached eight Conference Players of the Year, three Conference Rookies of the Year, five perfect Conference seasons and 53 All-Conference honorees.

Prior to joining Penn's coaching staff, Dunphy served as an assistant under Speedy Morris at his alma mater, La Salle University (1985-86 through 1987-88). The Philadelphia native's coaching career began at the United States Military Academy (1971-72), where he served as an assistant under head coach Dan Dougherty. In 1975, he became head coach of his high school alma mater, Malvern Prep. He remained there until becoming Lefty Ervin's assistant at La Salle University (1979-80).

The following year, Dunphy joined current Maryland head coach Gary Williams' staff at American University. He served as an assistant two seasons under Williams, and the final three years under Ed Tapscott, the former head coach of the NBA's Washington Wizards (2008-09). He returned to La Salle in 1985, serving one more season under Ervin and assisting Morris for two seasons. He left La Salle to become Tom Schneider's assistant at Penn in 1988.

In 1989, Dunphy was named the 16th head coach at Penn. He would compile a 310-163 overall record in his 17-year career. His Quaker teams won an unprecedented 48 straight Ivy League games and four league titles from 1992 through 1996. His 1993-94 team posted a 25-3 record and earned a Number 25 ranking in the CNN/USA Today Coaches' Poll, the program's first such ranking since the 1978-79 campaign. That year also included a 90-80 first round upset of sixth-seed Nebraska in the NCAA Tournament.

In his last eight seasons at Penn, Dunphy guided the Quakers to six Ivy League titles and a 93-19 league record. From 1999-2001, he led Penn to 25 straight league wins, including a perfect 14-0 mark in 1999-2000. In 2001-02, Dunphy's Quakers posted a 25-7 record and won the school's first outright city-series title with a perfect 4-0 mark since 1973-74.

A full-time educator on and off the court, Dunphy is in his eighth year teaching in Temple's prestigious Fox School of Business. He is team-teaching an honors course with Dr. Lynne Anderson, entitled, Management, Theory & Practice: From the Locker Room to the Board Room. He previously had served as a lecturer in the Wharton Executive Education program and in the management department of the Wharton School.

Dunphy is one of the leaders in the local Coaches vs. Cancer campaign and was named to the National Council of Coaches vs. Cancer. He was also honored as the 2002 National Coaches vs. Cancer Coach of the Year for his service and tireless dedication to those in need. On September 23, 2008, he joined four other coaches to speak to legislators on Capitol Hill on the need for more funding for cancer research.

The Owl mentor also devotes time to Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Greater Philadelphia's Board of Directors, and his Penn and Temple teams have participated in the Big Brothers/Big Sisters program each year. He is also a member of the Philadelphia CYO Hall of Fame.

A 1970 La Salle graduate with a degree in marketing, Dunphy was an outstanding player under Explorers' head coach Tom Gola. As a junior, he helped the Explorers to a 23-1 record. He served as a co-captain his senior year when he averaged 18.6 ppg and led the team in assists, while also being named the MVP of the annual Quaker City Basketball Tournament. In 1979, he earned a Master's degree in counseling and human relations from Villanova University.

Dunphy and his wife, Ree, reside in Villanova, Pa., with their son, J.P.

Mr. Big Five

Temple head coach Fran Dunphy is synonymous with the Philadelphia Big 5. Dunphy, who lived his first 10 years in Southwest Philadelphia before moving to nearby Drexel Hill, Pa., starred at La Salle from 1967 through 1970. He would later serve as an assistant at his alma mater (1979-80; 1985-88) before taking the assistant coaching job at Penn for the 1988-89 season. After one season he would take over as the Quakers head coach, compiling a 310-163 record in 17 seasons. He is now in his 10th season at Temple. He received a master's degree in counseling from Villanova, and currently resides in Villanova, Pa.

A Man For All Causes

Dunphy has been a major contributor of his time and energy to the American Cancer Society through Coaches vs. Cancer. He has spearheaded the local efforts of the six Division I coaches that have led to raising over $1 million to benefit the American Cancer Society. Named the Coaches vs. Cancer National Coach of the Year for his efforts, Dunphy has helped to steer events in the area such as the Coaches vs. Cancer Golf Outing; the Coaches vs. Cancer Basketball; coordinated open practices with the six area teams and holding a March Madness Breakfast to raise awareness for the cause. He was honored in 2008 as a local hero by Bank of America for his role with Coaches vs. Cancer.

Another cause that Dunphy champions is Big Brothers/Big Sisters. The Owl coach devotes his time to Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Greater Philadelphia by serving on the organization's Board of Trustees. His Penn teams participated in Big Brothers/Big Sisters programs each year during his tenure at the school. His Temple teams have been actively participating in the program the past three seasons.

Dunphy is also a member of the Philadelphia CYO Hall of Fame.

Under Dunphy, the Owls won the outright A-10 regular season title in 2011-12 for the first time since 1989-90. During Temple's years in the A-10 under Dunphy, the Owls went 80-32 in A-10 play and won three A-10 Championships (2008, 2009, 2010).

Professor Dunphy

For the eighth straight year, Dunphy taught an honors course in the University's prestigious Fox School of Business with Dr. Lynne Andersson. The course, titled Management, Theory and Practice: From the Locker Room to the Board Room, is offered in the fall semester.

Top 25 Coach

Temple coach Fran Dunphy entered last season ranked 25th among active NCAA Division I coaches in wins with 477, needing just 23 victories to join an elite group (88 all-time, now 25 active) of coaches with 500 wins while coaching at least a decade at the Division I level. Dunphy reached the 500-win mark when the Owls beat Memphis in the American Tournament quarterfinals, and is now one of 25 active Division I coaches to record 500 career wins.

Clutch Shooter

Junior Josh Brown hit a jumper in the lane with 2.6 seconds remaining at #23/24 UConn on Jan. 5, lifting the Owls to a 55-53 win. It was the second such game-winning shot for Brown in his career, as he also hit a shot with two seconds left that gave the Owls a 61-60 win at Memphis on Feb. 7, 2015.

Summer Session

Freshman guards Levan Shawn Alston, Jr., and Trey Lowe are playing their first season at Temple together, but it is not the first time they have been teammates. The Owl duo played together on the AAU squad Team Final Basketball in the summer of 2014.

Quenton DeCosey Named American Athletic Conference Player of the Week on Jan. 11

Senior Quenton DeCosey was named the American Athletic Conference Men's Basketball Player of the Week after leading the Owls to a pair of conference wins. Temple won 55-53 on the road at #23 UConn on Jan. 5, and followed it up with a 78-60 home win over East Carolina on Jan. 9.

DeCosey averaged 19.5 points per game, 3.5 rebounds per game and 3.0 assists per game in the two victories. He shot 51.9 percent from field and improved that to 72.7 percent from three-point range (8-of-11). In the UConn win, DeCosey led the team with 15 points. He was the game-high scorer against ECU, tying his season high with 24 points while hitting 5-of-8 from long range.

Temple Picked Sixth in American Preseason Poll

Temple was picked to finish sixth in the 2015-16 American Athletic Conference men's basketball poll in voting by the league's head coaches. The Owls were also picked to finish sixth in 2014-15, but bettered that pick by three spots to tie for third in the league.

SMU is the overall preseason favorite in 2015-16 for the first time in league history, tallying 98 points and eight of 11 first-place votes. The Mustangs entered the season returning seven letterwinners and three starters from last year's squad that went 27-7 and posted a 15-3 mark in league play.

UConn garnered two first-place votes and was picked to finish second with 87 points. The Huskies return eight from last season's squad and welcome four newcomers in 2015-16. Cincinnati had one first place-vote and was picked third with 84 points. The Bearcats return nine student-athletes, including all five starters, from last year's 23-win team.

Tulsa was chosen fourth in the preseason standings with 76 points. The Hurricane returns five starters and nine letterwinners from last season's 23-win squad. Memphis (59 pts.), Temple (54 pts.) and Houston (48 pts.) were picked fifth, sixth and seventh in the preseason poll, respectively. East Carolina (31 pts.), UCF (30 pts.), USF (20 pts.) and Tulane (11 pts.) were tabbed eighth, ninth, 10th and 11th to round out the tallies.

Alani Moore, Damion Moore and Quinton Rose Sign National Letters of Intent

Temple head basketball coach Fran Dunphy has announced the signing of three highly-touted recruits, Alani Moore, Damion Moore and Quinton Rose, to National Letters of Intent.

"We are excited to welcome these three to the Temple Basketball family," said Dunphy. "These are not only talented young men on the court, but outstanding citizens who will be a great fit as teammates. They will play a big part in helping the program continue its storied history of success."

Alani Moore, a 5-10, 150-pound point guard, will play at Friendship Collegiate Academy (Washington, D.C.) this season after starring at Montrose Christian in 2014-15. The Hyattsville, Md., native averaged 17.4 points per game for Montrose as junior to earn first team All-Met honors.

Damion Moore, a 6-10 center from Callaway (Miss.) High School, is a three-star prospect who averaged 3.9 points, 4.6 rebounds and 1.1 blocks per game on Callaway's state championship squad as a junior. He showed his enormous potential in Callaway's 2015-16 season opener when he led the Chargers with 25 points and 10 rebounds.

Rose, a 6-6, 175-pound guard out of Bishop Kearney in Rochester, N.Y., averaged 15.4 points, seven rebounds and seven assists during the 2014-15 season. The three-year varsity performer earned a spot on the 15-player Democrat and Chronicle All-Greater Rochester Team in 2015.

Jaylen Bond Named 2015-16 Temple Men's Basketball Team Captain

Senior forward Jaylen Bond, the leading returning rebounder in the American Athletic Conference, has been named the Temple men's basketball team captain for the 2015-16 season. Bond becomes the first solo team captain at Temple in Fran Dunphy's 10 seasons at the helm. The last Owl to be a solo captain was David Hawkins during his senior season in 2003-04.

"Jaylen was the consensus choice by a vote of his teammates," said Dunphy, the 2015 American Athletic Conference Coach of Year. "He is everything a coach wants in a captain. He is a hard worker, who leads by example, and most importantly he has earned the respect of his teammates."

Bond, a Philadelphia native (Plymouth-Whitemarsh HS), transferred to Temple prior to the 2013-14 season after playing his first two seasons at the University of Texas. After sitting out his first year at Temple, he averaged 7.6 points and 7.9 rebounds per game while starting 29 of 35 games played. The 6-8 forward was named second team all-Philadelphia Big 5 and honorable mention all-conference. He was second on the team and sixth in conference in steals (1.4 spg).

For Three

Temple has made at least one three-pointer in 667 consecutive games. The last time the Owls did not make a three-pointer in a game was February 1, 1996. Temple missed all 16 three-point attempts that day in dropping a 59-35 decision to #1 UMass at McGonigle Hall. In 2015-16, Temple is currently leading the American Athletic Conference with 7.8 three-pointers made per game.

Temple to Compete in 2016 NIT Season Tip-Off

Temple will be among four teams headlining the NIT Season Tip-Off as it returns to Barclays Center in 2016. The Owls will be joined by Florida State, Illinois and West Virginia in the championship round.

The 2016 Preseason NIT marks the sixth time that Temple has participated in the prestigious tournament. The Owls placed third in the 1986 tournament and were runners up in the 2000 event. The Cherry and White also competed in 1990, 1995 and 2005.

In its second year under the ESPN Events umbrella, the 2016 NIT Season Tip-Off will maintain its format with Florida State, Illinois, Temple and West Virginia each hosting two games at home against designated campus-site teams prior to traveling to Brooklyn. The full schedule, remaining four teams, and campus-site games will be announced at a later date.

On the Radio

For the 15th straight year Temple men's basketball is being broadcast live on 1210 AM WPHT. All the Owls' games will be carried on the radio with Harry Donahue handling play-by-play and John Baum providing color commentary.

Chairman of the Boards

Junior forward Jaylen Bond made an immediate impact in his first season at Temple after transferring to the school from Texas. The Philadelphia native led the American Athletic Conference with a 7.9 average. Temple forward Anthony Lee led The American in 2013-14 in rebounding (8.6 rpg). Prior to that, the last Temple player to lead a conference in rebounding was Duane Causwell, who averaged 8.9 boards during the 1988-89 season to top the Atlantic 10 Conference. Tim Perry was the only other Owl to lead the A-10 in rebounding, doing it twice (8.6 rpg in 1986-87; 9.5 rpg in 1985-86).

Hometown Hero

Redshirt sophomore Daniel Dingle returned to his high school, St. Raymond's, Jan. 25 to have his Temple jersey hung in the gym. Dingle is one of 36 former St. Raymond's players to go on and play at NCAA Division I schools and his jersey joins his brother's, Dana Dingle, who starred at UMass from 1992-96.

Temple Advances to 2015 NIT Semifinals

The Owls are coming off a 26-11 season that marked the best turnaround in NCAA Division I, as they won 17 more games than in the previous season. After barely missing out on an at-large NCAA Tournament berth in 2014-15, the Owls made a run through the NIT all the way to the semifinals at Madison Square Garden, where they fell 60-57 to Miami (FL).

Training Techniques

Temple head coach Fran Dunphy employed some unique training methods this off-season to make sure his team was mentally and physically ready for the upcoming season. The Owls worked out at the Joe Hand Boxing Gym in Philadelphia for four sessions in July. The team even was counseled by World Champion Bernard Hopkins, who trains at the gym. The Owls then had cross-fit and spinning training workouts in the summer to improve their cardiovascular fitness before embarking on hour-long yoga sessions the last three weeks to work on their mental approach.

Six Owls Represent Temple at Big 5 60th Anniversary

The Philadelphia Big 5 turns 60 this year and there was no better way to celebrate than with the Big 5 doubleheader at the Palestra on Jan. 20.

Six all-decade teams were honored, with Temple being represented by the following six star players: 1950s: Jay Norman (1955-58); 1960s: John Baum (1966-69); 1970s: Ollie Johnson (1969-72); 1980s: Mark Macon (1987-91); 1990s: Aaron McKie (1991-94); 2000s: Lynn Greer (1997-02).

20/20 Vision

Temple recorded its 35th 20-win season in 2014-15. It marked the seventh time (in nine seasons) that head coach Fran Dunphy led the Owls to a 20-win campaign. From 2007-13 Temple recorded six straight 20-win seasons, tying the program record for consecutive 20-win seasons, set under Hall of Fame head coach John Chaney (1995-01). Chaney posted 15 20-win seasons (24 seasons) while fellow Hall of Fame coach Harry Litwack compiled eight (21 seasons).

Bright Lights

At least 29 national television games highlight Temple's 2015-16 schedule. Temple will appear on ESPN entities a total of at least 21 times during the course of the season.

Record-Setting Defense

Temple's stifling defense held Tulane to a Liacouras Center record-low eight points in the first half of a 55-37 win on Jan. 31, 2015. It was the lowest scoring total in a half for any team ever in the building. Tulane's 37 points matched the lowest total for an opponent in the Fran Dunphy era, with the Owls also achieving that feat against American in the 2014-15 season opener. For the program, it marked the first time since 1993-94 that Temple had held two opponents to under 40 points in the same season.

Going Overtime

Temple is 58-49 overall in overtime contests and has won 16 of its last 21 overtime tilts. Prior to the 2013-14 season's Dec. 7 OT loss vs. Texas, the Owls had won five straight OT games dating back to a double overtime loss to San Diego State (71-64) in the third round of the 2011 NCAA Tournament. TU had won 12 straight single OT games dating back to a 73-69 win over Marist (11/18/08).

The Owls won their only overtime game of the 2014-15 season, a 57-53 decision at defending NCAA champion UConn in the American Athletic Conference opener on Dec. 31.

Temple is 2-1 in overtime games in 2015-16. The Owls fell by just a single point to Big 5 foe Saint Joseph's, 66-65 at home on Dec. 13, but beat conference foe Cincinnati 67-65 in double overtime on Jan. 16. Most recently, the Owls won 83-79 in OT vs. Tulsa on Feb. 4 after not leading at any moment of the second half.

Practice Palace

Temple's $10 million basketball practice facility was completed in January, 2012, and the Donald and Nancy Resnick Court was officially dedicated on October 5. Part of the $48 million renovation to Pearson and McGonigle Halls, the new state-of-the-art facility, features separate courts for the Owls' men's and women's basketball teams.

A Dynamic Duo

Temple has two Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame coaches. The first inductee was Harry Litwack, who coached the Owls from 1952 to 1973 and registered 373 wins. Litwack was inducted on April 26, 1976. John Chaney, who retired March 12, 2006 after 24 seasons and 516 wins at Temple, was inducted on October 5, 2001. Temple is only one of nine universities who have two coaches in the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. The center jump circle at the Liacouras Center is jointly named in honor of these two coaching legends.
