Five Things to Look For...

- With a win, head coach Matt Rhule will move to 4-0 on homecoming and would move up to 9th on the all-time list of wins by a Temple coach with 20.
- Temple would remain a perfect 2-0 all-time against Charlotte with a win.
- Temple's DL Sharif Finch is the active leader in punt blocks in the NCAA with five.
- Temple's DL Praise Martin-Oguike is currently first among active NCAA players in forced fumbles (9) and tied for third among active players in forced fumbles per game (.25).
- One touchdown from RB Jahad Thomas would tie him for 4th on Temple's all-time individual touchdown list and a pair will tie him for 3rd. He currently has 22.

THIS WEEK

Temple will host its annual homecoming game against the Charlotte 49ers. The game is scheduled for Saturday, September 24th, at 12:00 p.m. and will air on the American Sports Network (Comcast Network in Philadelphia) and 97.5 The Fanatic, Temple football's flagship radio station. In its last 10 years, Temple has sustained a 9-1 homecoming record and current head coach Matt Rhule has a perfect 3-0 record during homecoming games. Both teams are coming off of tough losses the week before as Temple fell in a close game to in-state rival Penn State 34-27, while Charlotte lost to Eastern Michigan 37-19. The game against Penn State last week saw the return of Owls' all-conference running back Jahad Thomas, who scored two touchdowns in his debut after being sidelined with a hand injury the first two games. Quarterback Phillip Walker also flourished as he threw for 286 yards and ran in a score. They will lead a Temple offense that now averages 292.0 yards per game against a Charlotte defense that has allowed 479.9 yards per-game. The Owls' defense currently ranks 23rd in the nation and fourth in the conference in total defense through its first three games. The Owls' passing defense has allowed 128.7 yards per game, which is sixth in the nation and first in the conference. Temple's defense is highlighted by safety Sean Chandler and linebacker Avery Williams who are tied for the team lead in tackles. Stellar play has also come from safety Delvon Randall, who is tied for seventh in the nation with two picks, and defensive lineman Haason Reddick who leads the defense in TFL (3.5). They will go up against a Charlotte offense that averages 353.3 yards per game. Charlotte is led by head coach Brad Lambert who is now in his sixth season with the team.

LAST WEEK

Temple suffered a tough loss last week at the hands of Penn State 34-27. The Owls, who battled from behind throughout the entire match up, closed the score to within a single possession on their final drive, but an inopportune turnover snuffed out the possibility for the comeback. Jahad Thomas scored two touchdowns in his season debut after missing the first two games. Quarterback Phillip Walker also had a solid outing as he threw for 286 yards and ran in for a score. Defensive performances were highlighted by Sean Chandler, who led the team with eight tackles, Haason Reddick, who had a career high 3.0 TFL, and Delvon Randall, who recorded two takeaways that led to touchdowns.

LAST TIME

Last year's game between Temple and Charlotte was the first time these two programs had met. The Owls came out victorious, 37-3, as the win helped them move to 3-0 on the season. Current Owls who had stellar performances in that game included Jahad Thomas who rushed for two touchdowns and 109 yards, Phillip Walker who threw for two touchdowns, and Nate L. Smith who had a blocked punt returned for a score and an interception return for 74 yards.

UP NEXT

The Owls open up conference play against SMU (10/1) before hitting the road to play Memphis (10/6).

TEMPLE'S TUFF GUYS

Wearing a single-digit jersey is considered to be one of the highest honors an Owl can earn. These are awarded to the student-athletes deemed by their teammates to be the toughest members of the team. Five players have carried over the honor from last season. Avery Williams, Sean Chandler, and Stephoun Marshall have donned their numbers since 2014. Four vacancies were filled at the start of the 2016 season - Ventell Bryant, Jacob Martin, Haason Reddick, and Phillip Walker. Here is a list of Temple's TUFF Guys:

HOMECOMING PARANOIA

Since taking over as a head coach for Temple, Matt Rhule is 3-0 in Homecoming games, winning by an average margin of 23 points. Going back further than that, Temple has won seven consecutive Homecoming and is 9-1 over the last 10 years. Last year was Temple's best Homecoming victory on record as the Owls defeated Tulane 49-10. Special performances from last year's Homecoming game were turned in by Phillip Walker with two throwing touchdowns, Jahad Thomas who had two total scores, Ryquell Armstead who had two rushing scores, and Sean Chandler who had the first pick six of his career.

STELLA ATTENDANCE FOR HOMECOMING

Last year's Homecoming win vs. Tulane on October 10, 2015 was the largest attended Homecoming game for the Owls since they moved to Lincoln Financial Field in 2002.

SWEET CAROLINA ROOTS

The last college Matt Rhule coached at before Temple was West Carolina University from 2002-2005. He had a number of different roles with the team including Assistant Coach, Offensive Line Coach, Run Game Coordinator, Linebacking Coach and Special Teams Coordinator. Current defensive back coach Francis Brown played there under Rhule. During his senior season with the Catamounts, Brown was a first-team All-So Con selection at cornerback.

HOT FOR TEACHERS

Extra Yard for Teachers Week, an initiative of the College Football Playoff Foundation, is an eight-day period dedicated to celebrating teachers across the country. This year, the event is scheduled for the week of September 17-24th. To support the cause, the Temple football team will be wearing (EFYT) helmet decals during it's Homecoming game vs. Charlotte.

BLOCK PARTY

On the strength of an FBS high 5 blocked punts in 2015, Temple has been among the best in blocking kicks during the Matt Rhule era. Thanks to Sharif Finch's block in the season opener against Army, Temple is now tied for 2nd most blocked kicks since 2015. For Finch, that was his fifth career blocked punt which leads the nation among active players.

GOLDEN/RHULE

In the early 2000's, Temple's football program was in a state of despair. Coach Bobby Wallace (1998-2005) had a 19-71 overall record and was coming off three consecutive seasons with two wins or less (0-11 in 2005). The culture and effectiveness of the program started to change once Al Golden took the reins. After a shaky 1-11 start in his first season, Golden led the team to a 26-23 record in the next four seasons. During that time, the team had its first season above .500 since 1990, and went to its first bowl game since 1979. The wealth of success continued with Steve Addazio, as the Owls got a win in the Gildan, New Mexico Bowl during the 2011 season. From there, the reins were handed over to current head coach Matt Rhule in 2013. After finishing 2-10 in his first season, Rhule has improved the team's win total each year by four games, highlighted by the 2015 season when Temple finished 10-4 and won the AAC East Championship. Other accomplishments include the Owls getting off to their first 7-0 start (2015), having the program's first defensive player of the year (Tyler Matakevich, 2015), and their first win over Penn State in 73 years. After continuing to have great recruiting classes, the Owls have high hopes of success for many years to come.

CAUGHT IN THE WEBB

With the Charlotte game approaching, there is an Owl that has seen a lot of the state of Carolina during his football career. Redshirt sophomore defensive lineman Greg Webb currently plays for Temple and is part of a 10 man rotation that the Wild Boyz display every Saturday. Before joining Temple, Webb played for North Carolina back in 2013 where he redshirted his first year in Chapel Hill. In 2014, Webb left UNC for Hutchinson Community College in Wichita, Kan., where he was teammates with current Charlotte senior RB Braden Smith. Both freshmen helped Hutchinson to an undefeated 7-0 conference record, 11-1 overall. Webb was a first-team all-Kansas Jayhawk Community College Conference selection with 48 tackles (4 TFL), 1.5 sacks, and a forced fumble. Smith rushed for 529 yards and four touchdowns on 91 carries, including a 50-yard touchdown run in Hutchinson's win in the Salt City Bowl as the No. 4 team in the country over No. 19 Hudson Valley, NY (52-7). In 2015, while Smith departed Hutchinson for Charlotte, Webb stayed for his sophomore year, making 37 tackles (12 TFL), 3.5 sacks, one force fumble and a pass breakup.

MARTIN LEADS CONFERENCE IN SAAC

Junior DL Jacob Martin was elected coordinator of alumni relations for the American Athletic Conference Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). Martin is a two-year letterwinner for the football team, playing in all but one game on the defensive line rotation and on special teams as a sophomore in 2015. During his time with the Owls he has totaled 22 tackles with 1.5 sacks in two seasons. The mission of SAAC is to improve communication for all student-athletes at each member school as well as enhance communication between the institutions. SAAC takes an active role in understanding and providing feedback regarding NCAA and Conference legislations, and promotes student-athlete well-being, academic achievement, personal development and community service.

SNOW PATROL

Phil Snow has proven he is one of the most formidable defensive coordinators in the country. Entering his fourth season with the Owls, the team has steadily improved its defense each season under Snow's guidance, especially last season. In 2014, he led the Owls to a #1 rank in almost every single defensive category in the AAC, fourth nationally in scoring defense, and tied for first nationally in fumble recoveries (19). Snow looks to lead the defense to becoming the best in the conference again for the 2016 season.

COACH TO CURE MD

Coach to Cure MD, the charity project of the American Football Coaches Association, seeks to raise awareness and money to fund research for Duchenne muscular dystrophy. During this Saturday's game, both Temple's and Charlotte's coaching staffs will be wearing the Coach to Cure MD patch in order to support the cause.

CAROLINA BLUES FOR JAGER

Jager Gardner made a name for himself in Black Mountain, N.C., playing football at Charles D. Owens High for coach Jim Lewis. During his career he rushed for 5,354 yards and added 460 yards receiving for 6,316 total yards and 75 TDs. He also played defense where he made 119 tackles, 12 TFLS, and a sack.

SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl 50 saw the Denver Broncos defeat the Carolina Panthers 24-10 in a low scoring battle. A huge key to the success of the Broncos that day was the kicking of Brandon McManus, who went 3/3 on field goals and tacked on one extra point. He also happens to be a proud Temple grad. Like McManus, Temple has a number of alumni who have experienced success on the NFL's biggest stage. Out of the 21 times that an alum from Temple has played in the Super Bowl, 16 of them happen to be on the winning team. Notable names include former Ravens' RB Bernard Pierce (2011), former Patriots' DL Dan Klecko (2004, 2005) and former Redskins' DB Todd Bowles (1983), who is now a head coach for the New York Jets. Former Owls head coach Bruce Arians was also an offensive coordinator for the Steelers in 2009, helping head coach Mike Tomlin win his first Super Bowl that year.

UNDISPUTED CHAMP

The nickname "Champ" belongs to the second team all-conference safety Sean Chandler. One of three Owls to start in every game last year, he has quickly become one of the most important players on Temple's roster. In fact, he was moved from corner to safety this offseason to take advantage of his play-making skills. During the 2015 season, he was third in the conference and 32nd nationally in pass breakups. He's also earned the respect of his teammates as being the first freshman ever to be given one of the prestigious single digit numbers, awarded to Temple's nine toughest players each season.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

In the team's third year being in the American Athletic Conference, the Owls won the Eastern Division but fell just short of the conference championship. Their only two conference losses came on the road against South Florida, 44-23, and in the conference championship game to Houston, 24-13.

GETTING BETTER ALL THE TIME

After a disappointing 2013 season with a 2-10 record for the Owls during Matt Rhule's first year as a head coach, the theme going into the 2014 season was learning how to finish. The talent was there as the Owls lost seven games by 10 or fewer points in 2013. In 2014, Rhule led the Owls to four more wins, and beat their first SEC team (Vanderbilt). With the program back on the map, the 2015 Owls continued to improve as they finished with a 10-4 season and won the AAC East crown after only being in the conference for three years. Although losing seven players to the NFL was a huge loss, the team has a lot of returning starters coming back to the squad for the 2016 season. Four-year starting QB Phillip Walker and all-conference RB Jahad Thomas are expected to be the leaders of a very talented offense. The defense will be led by safety Sean Chandler and DL Haason Reddick. Phil Snow has also proven the past three years that he is one of the best defensive coordinators in the country.

WILD BOYZ

Third year defensive line coach Elijah Robinson looks to have another loaded group for the 2016 season. The unit will be led by DE Haason Reddick who received all-conference honors last year. Praise Martin-Oguike and Sharif Finch are experienced play-makers, and Jacob Martin and Avery Ellis will add some much needed depth to rush the quarterback. In the past two years, Martin-Oguike recorded the most sacks out of anyone on the team (11.5). Finch has 4.5 TFL along with 5.0 sacks over the past three seasons. Senior Avere Robinson looks to anchor the middle of the defensive line with help from Freddie Booth-Lloyd, Michael Dogbe and Julian Taylor.

GRADUATES

In a recent poll that surveyed how many graduates each division one school had on its roster, Temple finished tied for third with five other schools having 11 graduates on the team. The list of graduates include TE Romond Deloatch, TE Jake O'Donnell, DB Nate Hairston, OL Adrian Sullivan, LB Avery Williams, DL Avery Ellis, DB Khiry Lucas, LB Stephau Marshall, OL Brendan McGowan, DL Praise Martin-Oguike and TE Colin Thompson. The university is very proud of these individuals for achieving academic success.

KEEPING IT FRESH

While the 2016 Temple football team is stocked with experienced upperclassmen, the Owls have been infused with freshmen talent. Last season just four true freshmen saw game action through the 14-game season. By week two this year, 27 freshmen have game experience, including nine true freshmen.

OWL SCHOLARS

In an effort to recognize the outstanding academic accomplishments of Temple University's student-athletes, Temple Athletics introduced the Owl Scholars Program in the Fall of 2016. Through team apparel, student-athletes on all of Temple's 19 sports regularly have the opportunity to wear items that represent their athletic lives while on campus or in the classroom; the Owl Scholars Program aims to accomplish the reverse - provide an easily identifiable symbol of academic success for student-athletes to wear on their respective field or court of competition.

The Owl Scholars Patch has been designed to pay homage to the rich history of the Temple Owls, while invoking images of the infamous speech of Temple University's founder Russell Conwell, Acres of Diamonds. The three stars above the regal owl symbolize the three different ways a student-athlete can earn the honor of having the patch included on their uniform/game warm-up:

- completion of a Temple University degree prior to the beginning of the start of the season
- earning a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 prior to the beginning of the start of the season
- earning a 3.0 semester grade point average in the previous semester

42 Football players will wear the patch this season.

SUPER FREAK

Redshirt senior Haason Reddick is arguably one of the most athletic players in the country. This year he was ranked #6 on FOX Sports' Bruce Feldman's annual "Freak" list. Standing at 6'1 and 235 lbs., Reddick played as a running back and safety in high school. When he got to Temple, Rhule and Snow had the presence of mind to switch him to strong side linebacker and then to defensive end last year, which he excelled at. During his redshirt junior year, he led the team in QB hurries (5), and was 9th in the conference in tackles for losses (12.5). Reddick will be counted on as a key versatile defensive end for Snow's defense during the 2016 season.

AUSTIN POWERS

In 2015, Temple received so many team and individual awards that most overlook the record breaking season kicker Austin Jones had. Last year, Jones broke the record for most field goals made in a season (23), most points by a kicker (113), and best field goal percentage for anyone with over 20 attempts (82.1%). The junior is now third all-time in field goals made and sixth all-time in points scored for Temple (197). He is three for three on field goal attempts so far this season.

NFL IRONMAN

A recent survey was taken among all of the FBS College Football SIDs, about current employees in FBS college football right now with 20+ years of NFL non-playing experience. Tied for first with UCLA head coach Jim Mora was Temple's head athletic trainer Al Bellamy, with 25 years of NFL experience. Bellamy, who is going into his fourth season here at Temple, started off in 1988 as an athletic training assistant with the Washington Redskins and was part of the staff that won Super Bowl XXVI. After his time in Washington, he moved to get a head athletic training position with the Detroit Lions, where he stayed with the team for 12 years.

BOYS TO MEN

After the practice on Friday, August 19th, head coach Matt Rhule made a comment after practice about how pleased he was with grades, on the field success, and the players growing as men. "My number one job is to tell our kids the reason why we're at Temple is to make something great, but the first thing is building great people, great men, and that's who they are in the classroom, that's who they are as football players, and that's who they are as people. Whether that's community service or the way they interact with people...And if you have guys who are interested in school and care about football, then you'll have a great team. Some people don't look at it that way, they believe that it's just their job to win. But at Temple, we believe it's our job to take care of the kids first."

WE'RE MOVIN' ON UP

The Owls saw seven players go to the pros after a very successful 2015 season. Three of those players (CB Tavon Young, DL Matt Ioannidis, and LB Tyler Matakevich) were drafted in rounds 4-7. Young (Ravens) and Matakevich (Steelers) made the opening day rosters while Ioannidis (Redskins) is on the practice squad. Other free agent pickups in the NFL from the 2015 squad include OLBs Kyle Friend and Shahbaz Ahmed, and WRs Robby Anderson and Brandon Shippen. Anderson made the Jets opening day roster.

NO DOUBTING THOMAS

The Owls know they have a special player in RB Jahad Thomas. In his two seasons as a starting RB, Thomas is 10th all-time in rushing yards for the Owls (1,646) and 7th in all-purpose yards (3,232). He was awarded first team all-conference honors last year as he had 1,262 yards on the ground while scoring 17 touchdowns.

Head coach Matt Rhule had some strong words to say about one of his star players, "I think Jahad is just trying to be great. He's just 100 percent all-in. Sometimes seniors are either thinking about their future - their friends, family, everyone is talking the future, the future, the future - and they forget about the present, they forget about their senior year, and it actually hurts, or they're 1,000 percent bought into the team in their senior year and having fun with their teammates. And Jahad appears to be, based upon his actions, to be 1,000 percent bought into having a great senior year with the way he has practiced, everything that he's doing."

NO FAULT IN OUR STARZYK

The special team's unit looks to have a big year as they return punter Alex Starzyk. He joined the Owls as a freshman walk-on in 2014 and has held the #1 punter role ever since. During the 2015 season, the junior was fourth in the conference for punting average and 5th in the conference for punts inside the 20. The season helped him rank 6th all-time for Temple in terms of punt average (40.3).

TOTE THE RYQ

To keep star RB Jahad Thomas fresh this season, head coach Matt Rhule plans to have more of a steady rotation which will include help from RB Ryquell Armstead. He and Jager Gardner were the only freshmen to see action for the Owls' offense last year. In Armstead's first start against Tulane in 2015, he scored two touchdowns. He got the 2016 opening day start and was 16-77-1TD rushing.

FROM DOYLESTOWN BY WAY OF FLORIDA

Two of Temple's tight ends - Colin Thompson and Jake O'Donnell - have quite a few things in common. Both are graduate students, and are natives of Doylestown, Pa. Another similarity that the two have is that they both first chose to play college football in Florida (O'Donnell at Miami and Thompson at Florida). Not even playing in the sunshine state could keep these two great football players from returning to their home state and to one of college football's fastest rising programs. Thompson transferred to Temple in 2014 and is entering his third season here. O'Donnell joins the Owls this season with one year of eligibility remaining.

STELLA

Making her debut as the mascot for the Temple Owls' football team in 2013 and continuing this season is Stella, a three-pound, seven-year old, great horned owl from the Elmwood Park Zoo. After her first season as Temple's mascot, Stella was named one of the top five feathered mascots by the NCAA. Weekdays, she works as an educational animal, teaching the virtues of wildlife conservation. Having been raised as a pet illegally in Utah, she is accustomed to humans and, in fact, views herself as one. She shares an enclosure with her boyfriend, Sherlock, who gets jealous when Stella basks in the limelight, but there's always a price to pay for being a celebrity.

LOST OUR BEST FRIEND

Kyle Friend was one of the undisputed leaders for the Owls' offensive line and team for the past few seasons. Temple's 2016 squad will look for fresh faces to lead the offensive line. The unit will lean on the experience of senior Dion Dawkins, who had 26 starts at left tackle entering the season and earned 4th team All-American honors. Other players with experience that look to be key for the Owls in the 2016 season include redshirt senior Brandon McGowan, and redshirt juniors Brian Carter and Leon Johnson.

ALL THE WRIGHT STUFF

Head coach Matt Rhule made a promise to play running back Isaiah Wright. The true freshman rushed for 42 yards on seven carries against Stony Brook. Rhule had nothing but great things to say about him after the game. "[Former Temple RB] Joe Jones. Wright kind of reminds me of Joe. The key thing to me is Isaiah Wright is a true freshman. He's learned everything. He hasn't learned everything great. He has a ways to go in the protections and all of that, but he's a good football guy."

QUARTERBACKS

The unit is headed once again by Glenn Thomas, who came to the Owls after a successful seven-year run with the Atlanta Falcons. This season, he adds the responsibility of offensive coordinator after the departure of Marcus Satterfield to become head coach at Tennessee Tech.

Thomas is credited with the continued development of senior QB Phillip Walker. The unquestioned team leader burst on the scene with 20 touchdowns and over 2,000 passing yards in just seven starts as a true freshman in 2013 before leveling off in 2014. Under Thomas' guidance, he continued to mature into a certified field general. He has already set the Temple career marks for attempts (1,147), completions (626), touchdowns (55), yards (7,952) and wins by a starting quarterback).

Last season's #2 quarterback was redshirt-sophomore Frank Nutile. After spending his freshman year recovering from a torn ACL, he appeared in four games in limited mop-up duty. He was 3-for-3 for 40 yards and a touchdown in the homecoming win against Tulane.

Logan Marchi spent his freshman year redshirting and is now poised to compete for the backup role. He saw his first action against Stony Brook.

The 2016 recruiting class sees the addition of Anthony Russo (Philadelphia/Archbishop Wood).

RUNNING BACKS

Leading the running backs this season will be Chris Wiesehan, who coached Temple's offensive line for the previous two seasons.

Jahad Thomas, a first-team all-conference player a year ago, returns for his senior season. In 2015, he scored at least one rushing touchdown in the first ten games and finished the year with 19 scores and 1,262 rushing yards. Along the way, he topped the century mark five times, including a career-high 199 yards and three touchdowns on 31 carries against UCF. The former defensive back is the established starter but should get help carrying the load from a talented group of young runners.

Thomas

Last season, two true freshmen had limited opportunities to run the ball but showed they had what it takes to succeed. Ryquell Armstead emerged from the start of camp to earn a role spotting Thomas. He averaged five carries for 20 yards in the first five games, but was hampered by an injury for most of the remainder of the season. He finished with 166 yards and two scores on 43 carries. Jager Gardner was given the responsibility of kickoff returner by game seven and eventually earned snaps on offense. Nearly all of his 32 carries for the season were collected in the season's final four games. He set the school record with a 94-yard run from scrimmage at SMU, scoring his lone touchdown of the year on his way to his first career 100-yard game.

After redshirting in 2014, David Hood became a trusted part of the offense last year. By midseason, he was inserted into the third down packages and was the leading ball carrier (14-61-1TD) when Temple defeated #21 Memphis.

The 2016 recruiting class sees the addition of Tylik Raynor (Philadelphia, Pa. / Imhotep). Jonny Forrest (New Rochelle (N.Y.) High) has been added as a walk-on.

The fullback position is manned by two converted linebackers who each walked on to the squad in 2014. Redshirt junior Nick Sharga was the only Temple player to see action on both sides of the ball in 2015. He earned the respect of his peers, being given a single-digit jersey (#4) for his toughness. Redshirt freshman Rob Ritrovato was converted to fullback after contributing on special teams as a true freshman in 2014. He suffered an injury in the season opener and was forced to redshirt.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Frisman Jackson will coach the wide receivers for the second straight year. He is the first to hold that position for two consecutive seasons since 2007-09 (Kevin Gilbride Jr.).

Gone from a year ago are three of the top four receivers: Robby Anderson (70-939-7TDs), John Christopher (20-208), and Brandon Shippen (20-288-1). All three were seniors.

Redshirt sophomore Ventell Bryant (39-579-3TDs), an emerging star, returns. Last season, Bryant shattered the freshman record in receptions (22 – Sean Szarka, 2012) and receiving yards (378 – Carlos Johnson, 1998). He has caught at least one pass in every game he has played.

Bryant

Kirkwood

Adonis Jennings transferred to Temple in 2015 after his freshman campaign at Pitt. The Sicklerville, N.J., native and Timber Creek product enjoyed his return home and contributed with 14 catches for 146 yards and two touchdowns.

Two receivers who redshirted last season are expected to make big contributions in 2016. Redshirt sophomore Brodrick Yancy was proving to be a tough slot receiver and valiantly fought to return from an injury in game two, but was forced to the sidelines for the remainder of the season. Redshirt junior Keith Kirkwood, who transferred from Hawaii in 2014, has shown flashes of brilliance but needs to be more consistent.

Redshirt sophomore Marshall Ellick continues to improve. He played in five games a year ago, mostly on special teams and earned the 2016 most improved offensive player in the spring.

The Owls are expecting redshirt freshman Cortelle Simpson to make an impact as a receiver and as a return specialist. Simpson impressed the coaches last season while on the scout team – he was the only player to be named scout team player of the week multiple times.

Redshirt sophomore Willie Smith, along with redshirt freshman Travon Williams, are former walk-ons who add depth.

The 2016 recruiting class sees the additions of Fred-die Johnson (North Fort Myers (Fla.) High), Randle Jones (North Miami Beach (Fla.) High), Brandon Mack (Wyncote, Pa. / Cheltenham), and Isaiah Wright (West Hartford, Conn. / Kingswood-Oxford). Justin Bishop (Somers Point, NJ / Mainland) was added as a walk-on.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The offensive line is under new leadership both on and off the field. George DeLeone, a 46-year coaching veteran, returns for his second tour of duty coaching Temple's offensive line. He was the teams' offensive coordinator in 2006-07 and tutored the offensive line in 2007. On the field, the unit will be without the leadership of center Kyle Friend, who graduated. Friend, a three-time captain, was the cornerstone of the offensive line for the past three seasons.

Inheriting the baton will be senior left tackle Dion Dawkins. Dawkins has started 28 games over the past four seasons and earned fourth team All-America honors from Phil Steele following the 2015 campaign.

Temple has three other linemen with starting experience from a year ago. Redshirt senior Brendan McGowan has started 19 games over the past four seasons. He started four games at center for Friend in 2015 and was the starting guard for most of the 2014 season. Brian Carter clocked ten games at right guard last season and continues to improve. The redshirt junior is in just his second full season on the O-line after converting from a defensive tackle in 2013. Redshirt junior Leon Johnson started seven games at tackle last year and played in 12 as the Owls employed a six-man group.

In the past few seasons under head coach Matt Rhule, Temple has looked to develop offensive linemen in one of two ways – convert from defense to offense or recruit-redshirt-develop. Redshirt-junior Cole Boozer has made the transition from tight end to defensive line to offensive line. Redshirt juniors Semaj Reed and Adrian Sullivan, redshirt sophomores James McHale, Jaelin Robinson and Aaron Ruff, and redshirt freshmen Jovahn Fair and Benson Israel have all been recruited to play offensive line for Temple. With the graduation of Friend, Shahbaz Ahmed and Eric Lofton, the opportunity is there for them to get on the field.

Two walk-ons continue to develop. Nick Apostolu and Gordon Thomas were added in 2014. Thomas saw action in three games last season.

The 2016 recruiting class sees the additions of Darian Bryant (Philadelphia, Pa. / Chestnut Hill Academy) and Matt Hennessy (Bardonia, N.Y. / Don Bosco Prep). Dan Drewes [Dunmore (Pa.) High], Brendan Clark (Father Judge / Philadelphia, Pa.), and Vincent Picozzi (Collegeville, Pa. / Lansdale Catholic) have been added as a walk-ons.

TIGHT ENDS & FULLBACKS

Ed Foley begins his fourth season as Temple's tight ends coach and his second as the special teams coordinator.

Redshirt senior Colin Thompson is finally fully recovered from foot injuries that hampered him at Florida and brought the Doylestown, Pa., native back home. Entering his third and final season for Temple, Thompson has been a major force in the improved run game and has made contributions in the passing attack.

Chris Myarick is a redshirt sophomore and former walk-on. He has seen limited action, mostly on special teams.

Like Thompson, Jake O'Donnell is a graduate student from Doylestown who has transferred from a Florida school. O'Donnell has spent the past four years at Miami and joined the Owls in 2016 for his final year of eligibility.

Redshirt senior Romond Deloatch continues to improve as a receiver, evident by his performance down the stretch in 2015. While he ended the year with 20 receptions for 155 yards and three scores, 13 of those catches came in the final four games.

The 2015 recruiting class brought in Patrick Anderson and Jake Robinson who spent the season redshirting. Joining the squad as walk-ons last year was Domenic Nigrelli.

The 2016 recruiting class sees the additions of Steve Petrick (North Huntingdon, Pa. / Norwin), Taiyir Wilson (Schwenksville, Pa. / Perkiomen Valley / Fork Union), and Kenny Yeboah (Allentown, Pa. / Parkland Senior).

DEFENSIVE LINE

Once again, Elijah Robinson leads the "Wild Boyz," the nickname for Temple's defensive line. Despite the losses of Matt Ioannidis, Hershey Walton and Nate D. Smith, the defensive line remains deep and talented.

The end position has three players who each spent at least one season as a starter. Redshirt senior Haason Reddick started opposite Smith last season and was the unit's most productive player. He registered career highs in tackles (45), TFLs (12.5) and sacks (5.0) en route to all-conference honors. Praise Martin-Oguike, also a redshirt senior, emerged as a playmaker in 2014. In the past two years he has 67 tackles, 19.0 TFLs, and a team-leading 11.5 sacks and eight forced fumbles. Senior Sharif Finch has been hampered by knee injuries, but has played through them to contribute 78 tackles, 4.5 TFLs, 5.0 sacks, and 2 interceptions over the past three seasons.

Joining them on the outside are redshirt senior Avery Ellis and junior Jacob Martin. Both have played in 25 games over the past two seasons and have provided quality snaps on defense while being core special teams players.

The anchor on the inside is expected to be senior Averee Robinson. Robinson shared a starting spot with Walton last season and finished with career-highs in tackles and TFLs.

Redshirt sophomores Fredie Booth-Lloyd and Michael Dogbe and redshirt junior Julian Taylor provide some experience. Booth-Lloyd combines size and quickness making him difficult to block. Dogbe had three tackles in the bowl game against Toledo and flashed brilliance at times throughout the season. Taylor was impressive in camp but suffered an injury in the opener last year and missed the remainder of the season.

The Owls redshirted three defensive linemen last season. Two recruits - DeAndre Kelly, and Dana Levine - and walk-on Jeromy Reichner. All spent the year getting bigger and stronger under the eye of the strength and conditioning coaches.

Added to the mix is redshirt sophomore transfer Hez Trahan. A Philadelphia native, Trahan redshirted at Pitt in 2014 after a stellar career at Roman Catholic. He sat out in 2015 before enrolling at Temple.

The 2016 recruiting class sees the additions of Dan Archibong (Springfield (Pa.) High], Karamo Dioubate (Philadelphia / Prep Charter), Quincy Roche (Randallstown, Md. / New Town), Chris Tucker (Jackson, Tenn. / Trinity Christian Academy), and Greg Webb (Sicklerville, N.J. / Timber Creek / Hutchinson (Kan.) CC).

LINEBACKERS

At the linebacker position, Mike Siravo will be responsible for finding a replacement for Temple's all-time leading tackler Tyler Matakevich. The starters all have experience, but the depth is still unproven.

Manning the middle is senior Jarred Alwan. He served as a spot starter as an underclassman but secured the starting MLB role last season. Alwan responded with 74 tackles (second only to Matakevich), including 7.0 TFLs, and a career-high 1.5 sacks. He also ranked among the conference leaders with 4 forced fumbles.

Redshirt seniors Stephaun Marshall (14 starts) and Avery Williams (12 starts) shared the WLB duties for the past two seasons. Marshall is coming off a career-high in tackles, interceptions and forced fumbles. Williams had his best season as a tackler and added his first career interception in 2015.

Over the past two seasons, the Owls have recruited a few players who have redshirted while learning their craft and building their strength. Jared Folks (2014 recruit) and Jeremiah Atoki, Daishaun Grimes, and Chapelle Russell (2015 class) are primed to make significant contributions in 2016.

Todd Jones and Chris Smith are talented walk-ons who have earned playing time on special teams. Zach Mesday walked on in 2014 and has spent the better part of the past two seasons rehabbing an injury. Kevin DeCaesar and Mike DiFrancesco joined the team as walk-ons in 2015 and continue to develop.

The 2016 recruiting class sees the additions of Shaun Bradley (Mt. Holly, N.J. / Rancocas Valley) and William Kwenkeu (Waldorf, Md. / St. Charles). Julian Mahan (Sicklerville, N.J. / Timber Creek) was added as a walk-on.

CORNERBACKS

Fran Brown will once again tutor the defensive backs. Like the other levels of the defense, Brown is tasked with replacing a player (Tavon Young) headed to the NFL. He is also without all-conference talent Sean Chandler who has been moved to safety.

Redshirt senior Nate Hairston and redshirt junior Artrel Foster gave the Owls valuable snaps in the secondary last season, whether spotting Young (who nursed an injury) or adding nickel coverage. Hairston was in just his first full season on defense after being converted from wide receiver. Both are among Temple's best special teams performers.

The Owls are expecting big things from Kareem Ali. A four-star recruit, Ali redshirted in 2015.

Junior Cequan Jefferson is a talented athlete who has contributed on special teams while improving in the secondary.

Redshirt sophomore Derrek Thomas is making the conversion from wide receiver.

The 2016 recruiting class sees the additions of Kimere Brown [Penns Grove (N.J.) High], Linwood Crump (South Amboy, N.J. / Piscataway / Sayreville), and Kareem

SAFETIES

Leading the safeties is defensive coordinator Phil Snow, a 40-year coaching veteran. The position group lost three players to graduation - Alex Wells, Will Hayes and Boye Aromire.

Junior Sean Chandler has started virtually every game of his college career. Last season, he led all Owl defensive backs with 65 tackles, 5.5 TFLs, 1.0 sacks, a team-high four interceptions and 10 pass break ups. Chandler returned two interceptions for touchdowns and finished the year as a second team All-American Athletic Conference choice. His playmaking ability has spurred the switch from corner to safety this season.

Chandler

Randall

One returner with starting experience is redshirt senior

Nate L. Smith. Smith saw action in each of the past two seasons, but was pressed into a starting role in 2015 and did not disappoint. In seven starts, he contributed 54 tackles (fourth on the team) and his first career interception.

Delvon Randall was the only true freshman to earn playing time on defense. He played in all 14 games on defense and special teams.

Redshirt sophomore Jyquis Thomas was among the Owls top special teams players last season and will be given an opportunity to play in the secondary in 2016.

Redshirt senior Khiry Lucas was hurt during the 2014 season and spent 2015 rehabilitating. He earned his degree but has a year of eligibility remaining.

The 2016 recruiting class sees the additions of Keyvone Bruton (Norfolk, Va. / Lake Taylor), Sam Franklin (Crystal River, Fla. / Citrus / East Coast Prep), Isaiah Graham-Mobley (King of Prussia, Pa. / Upper Merion), Amir Tyler [Lakewood (N.J.) High], and Benny Walls (Cinnaminson, N.J. / St. Joe's Prep).

SPECIAL TEAMS

For the first time since the departure of Broncos Super Bowl 50 winner Brandon McManus, Temple has a kicker worthy of consideration for the Lou Groza Award. Junior Austin Jones set the school record last season in field goals made (23) and points by a kicker (113). In fact, he had the same number of field goals and FG percentage as Memphis' Jake Elliott, who was the unanimous all-conference selection.

Jones benefits from a steady combination of long snapper Corey Lerch and holder Tom Bradway. Lerch has held down that spot since joining the team as a walk-on in 2014. Bradway redshirted in 2014.

Jones

Starzyk

A third specialist who earned a spot as a walk-on in 2014 is punter Alex Starzyk. The strong-legged junior improved his punting average by four yards from 2014 with a 42.4-yard average in 2015.

Redshirt junior LS Josh Lang and redshirt freshman K Jake Geiger continue to push the incumbents.

Dan McDonald (Warrington, Pa. / Archbishop Wood) and Aaron Bomerhi (Philipsburg, Pa. / Philipsburg-Osceola) were added as walk-ons this spring.

school history). Despite never surrendered and the fourth quarter in the second half 2014 offseason was to learn how

They did just that, allowing only points in all of 2014. That adjustment, overall improved play of the defense, helped the Owls to a 6-6 record.

On June 25, 2015, Rhule was rewarded with a four-year contract extension that will keep him on the Temple sidelines through the 2021 season. Temple's Director of Athletics Dr. Patrick Kraft announced, "Matt Rhule is one of the best young coaches in college football and we are excited that he will be at the helm of Temple Football through at least 2021. Matt has the program heading in the right direction, especially as we enter a very promising season on the gridiron, and we are confident that he is the right person to take the program to even greater heights."

And take the program to greater heights he did. In 2015, Rhule has led his team to a 10-win regular season and an American Athletic Conference East division trophy. For the first time in 73 years, the Owls beat Penn State, started the season a program-best 7-0, and were ranked in the Top 25 for the first time in 36 seasons. Ten of his players earned all-conference honors and senior linebacker Tyler Matakevich won the Bednarik and Nagurski Awards while also being named a finalist for the Lott IMPACT and Senior CLASS Awards.

That success prompted another commitment from Temple University following the season. Said then-University President Dr. Neil Theobald, "Matt's commitment to our student-athletes on and off the field, as well as the program's substantial improvement each season, has more than justified my confidence in him. He works tirelessly for the betterment of our players, our football program, and our university."

Added Kraft, "Matt is one of the top coaches in college football and has been responsible for making Temple a national program. He is an even better person off the field; a true leader who instills character and values in the men under his charge."

The State College, PA, native and a former player at Penn State has 18 years of collegiate coaching experience, including nine seasons at Temple, and seven bowl game appearances -- three with the Owls -- on his resume.

Rhule joined the Giants in the spring of 2012. He worked closely with Pat Flaherty, who has been the offensive line coach since 2004. They finished the 2012 campaign at 9-7, second in the NFC East, and averaged 355 yards of offense per game. Four New York players, including guard Chris Snee, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

During his previous tenure at Temple, Rhule's role changed several times. In spring 2012, he was promoted to co-offensive coordinator after serving as the assistant offensive coordinator and tight ends coach as well as the recruiting coordinator under Steve Addazio in 2011. Temple's 2012 recruiting class was ranked #1 in the Mid-American Conference and helped lay the foundation for the program's transition to the Big East Conference.

Under Al Golden, Rhule was promoted to offensive coordinator in the spring of 2008. He also coached the TU quarterbacks. He coached the defensive line in 2006 and served as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator during the 2006 and 2007 seasons. For three consecutive years, Temple's recruiting class was ranked #1 in the MAC [2006, 2007, 2008].

In 2011, the Owls went 9-4 and played in the fourth bowl game in school history, the

On December 17, 2012, Matt Rhule (pronounced RULE) returned to North Broad Street to take the helm as head coach of the Temple Owls. Following six seasons as one of Al Golden's top assistants, he joined the New York Giants as the assistant offensive line coach in 2012. He is now in his fourth year as the 26th Owls head coach and 10th on the Temple campus.

Prior to the start of his first season in charge, he offered that his squad would produce an exciting brand of football and they would improve as the season progressed. Rhule delivered on those promises as the 2013 Owls produced nearly 400 yards per game of offense (the second best total in an 0-6 start to the season, the troops team never trailed at the start of the of the season. Gildan New Mexico Bowl, where they crushed Wyoming, 37-15 -- Temple's first postseason victory since the 1979 Garden State Bowl. Rhule mentored two-time first-team All-MAC selection TE Evan Rodriguez. For the second time in Rhule's tenure, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record and rushing touchdowns records behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC junior running backs Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown.

In 2010, Rhule helped guide the team to an 8-4 regular-season record, and the Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79, including their first win over a BCS team. The Owls recorded the largest margin of victory (42 points against Buffalo) in a MAC game. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC honors, including repeat first-team honorees OL Colin Madison, OL Darius Morris, and RB Bernard Pierce as well as first-time honoree TE Evan Rodriguez.

In 2009, Rhule's offense helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and first-place tie in the MAC East. Under Rhule's guidance, the Owls set the Temple single-season rushing yardage record. A school record five offensive players were named All-MAC, including three on the team. All-American Bernard Pierce rushed his way into the Temple record book, re-writing all records for a rookie en route to 2009 MAC Freshman of the Year honors.

In 2008, Rhule took the reins as offensive coordinator, helping the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls outscored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Rhule coached All-MAC honorees C Alex Derenthal and school record holder WR Bruce Francis, while QB Adam DiMichele set the school record for passing touchdowns with six in the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan. Francis set the school records for career receiving touchdowns (23) and consecutive games with a reception (38).

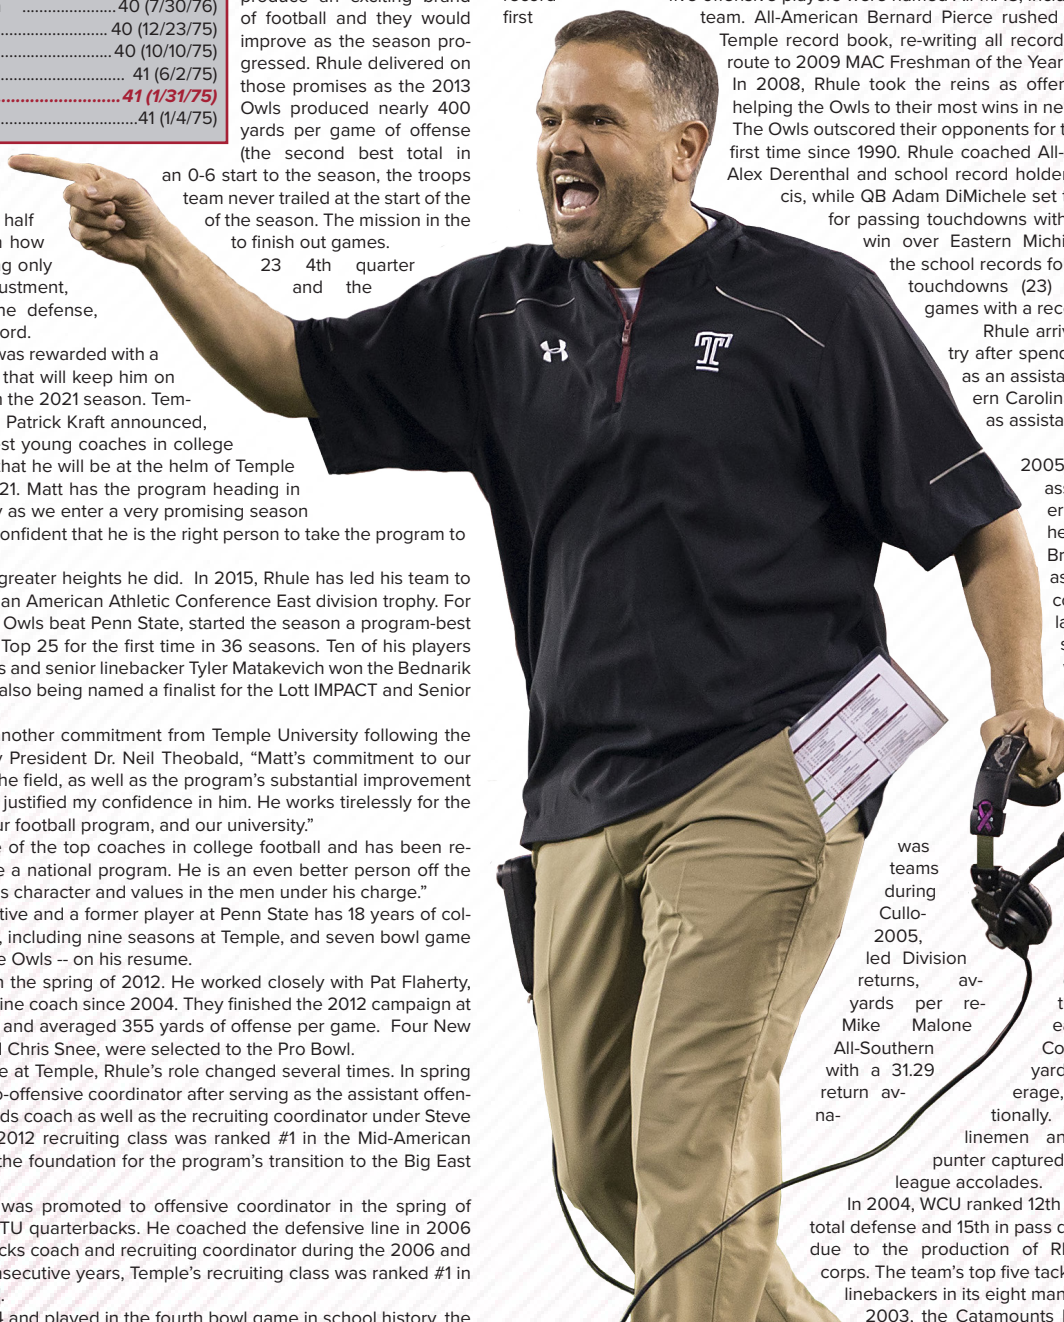

Rhule arrived in Owl Country after spending four seasons as an assistant coach at Western Carolina, including three as assistant head coach.

From 2002 to 2005, Rhule was an assistant at Western Carolina under head coach Kent Briggs, serving as assistant head coach during his last three seasons. In 2005, he was offensive line coach and run game coordinator after directing the linebackers his first three years. Rhule special coordinator his tenure in whee (NC). In the Catamounts I-AA in kickoff eraging 27.44 turn. Sophomore earned first team Conference honors yards per kickoff erage, ranking second tionally. Two offensive linemen and the team's punter captured second team all-league accolades.

In 2004, WCU ranked 12th nationally in total defense and 15th in pass defense, largely due to the production of Rhule's linebacker corps. The team's top five tacklers were linebackers in its eight man front scheme. In 2003, the Catamounts led the SoCon in Rhule arrived at Western Carolina after serving as assistant defensive line coach at UCLA in 2001. He assisted in coaching five Bruins that earned All PAC-10 honors as the team posted a 7-4 record under head coach Bob Toledo.

From 1999 to 2000, Rhule served as an assistant coach at Mid-American Conference member Buffalo, directing the Bulls defensive line in 2000 and working as assistant defensive line coach in 1999. In 2000, the team's sack total increased from 12 to 27 utilizing a 3-4 alignment. Buffalo also earned its first two Division I-A victories that season.

Rhule began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Penn State in the spring of 1998 before working at Albright College in Reading, Pa., for the 1998 season. At Albright, he coached the linebackers in a 4-3 scheme and recruited western and central Pennsylvania.

Rhule played four seasons at linebacker with the Nittany Lions under Joe Paterno. A three-time Penn State Scholar-Athlete, he earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in 1997. He received his undergraduate degree in political science before earning his master's degree in educational psychology from Buffalo in 2003.

Born January 31, 1975, he spent his childhood in New York City before moving to State College, Pa. as a teenager.

He is married to the former Julie Nibert. The couple has a son, Bryant (11), and daughters, Vivienne (3) and Leona (1).

TEMPLE AT A GLANCE...

Temple is in the 4th largest media market in the country, with over 2.9 million TV homes according to Nielsen ratings. The designated market area (DMA) is 7.6 million.

Temple is located in a region of 6.53 million people, and is only 95 miles from NYC and 120 miles from Washington DC. In fact, more than 40% of the US population is within a days drive from Philadelphia.

Temple is the 26th largest public University in the country with over 38,000 students founded in 1884 and has 404 academic programs including 5 professional schools of law, medicine, dentistry, pharmacy and podiatry.

Temple is a Research I institution, a Carnegie Classification in 2015 as the highest level and ranked by US News and World Report at 115 (6th) with an overall graduation rate of 70%, and has a full time retention rate for undergraduate students at 89%.

Temple is one of 11 institutions in the country with multi-year APR scores of 970 or greater for all teams including a 2015 multi-years APR score of 971.

Temple has over 300,000 alumni around the world including over 170,000 alumni that live in the Philadelphia DMA.

Temple's athletic department has 19 sports and 500 student athletes.

Temple has been bowl eligible 5 out of the last 7 years and finished 10-4 last year, winning the AAC East Division and being ranked in the Top 25 for several weeks.

Temple posted the largest attendance gain during the 2015 season, playing in front of an average home crowd of 44,159, an increase of 20,789 per game. This excitement led ESPN to bring their popular pregame show, College Game Day, to Philadelphia.

The Temple game played against Notre Dame had a 3.9 national rating and an 18.1 local rating. It was ABC's highest ranking game ever in the Philadelphia area which is impactful given Philadelphia is the 4th largest media market in the country.

Out of the 10 football games televised on ABC/ESPN locally, Temple had over 14.8 million viewers in the Philadelphia market. (There is not data available for the remaining two games televised on CBSSN).

Temple's athletic facilities are among the finest in the country. The football team plays its games in the NFL stadium operated by the Philadelphia Eagles and there are ongoing discussions to build an on campus football stadium as well. The basketball area is a state-of-the-art facility with a capacity crowd of 10,000. Over the last four years Temple has spent over $50 million for athletics multi-purpose facilities with all the athletic facilities being state-of-the-art.

The University itself has over $400 million planned for capital projects over the next five years including a $170 million state-of-the-art library.

The men's basketball team is led by the AAC Coach of the Year, Fran Dunphy, and is the reigning AAC regular season basketball champions. The basketball program is the 5th winningest program in the history of college basketball.

Conference Championship Game

On Saturday, December 3, 2016, the American Athletic Conference will hold its second Conference Championship Game. Kickoff will be at 12:00 noon and will be televised nationally by ABC or ESPN. The game will pit the divisional champions from the East and West divisions.

The divisional champions will be the teams from each division with the highest winning percentage in all conference games — both divisional and non-divisional. In the event of a two-team tie within a division, the head-to-head result between the tied teams will determine the divisional champion. The site of the American Athletic Conference Football Championship will be the home venue of the divisional champion with the best record in conference games.

ARMY RUNS OVER TEMPLE FOR UPSET VICTORY

PHILADELPHIA - Army utilized its famed triple option running attack to march up and down the field to upset the Temple Owls, 28-13, in the season opener for both teams Friday night in front of 34,005 fans at Lincoln Financial Field. The Black Knights accumulated 329 rushing yards on 67 carries with fullback Andy Davidson leading the way with 121 yards and two TDs.

Temple struggled throughout the game to find any offensive rhythm, with the defense unable to slow down the Army ground game. The Army offense controlled the line-of-scrimmage and dominated the time-of-possession in both halves.

Head coach Matt Rhule reiterated the Owls mistakes following the loss, targeting turnovers, quarterback protection and red zone efficiency.

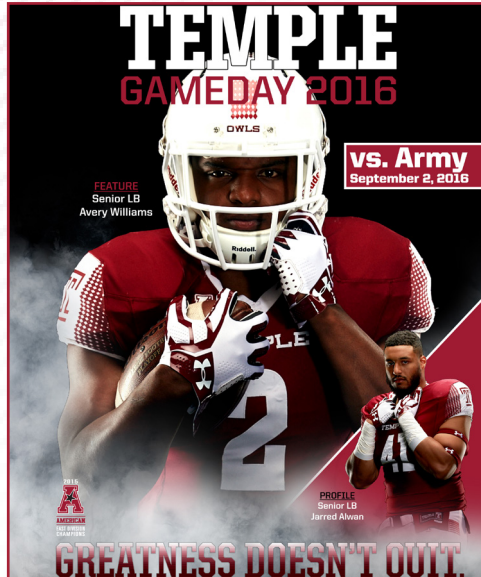

"We looked good early on at times, but when times got hard we couldn't react," Rhule said. "That is not the team that we want to have. I thought defensively, we couldn't stop Army. Offensively, we couldn't capitalize. We got the ball in the red zone three times and could not produce. We had three turnovers, Army had none. We could not protect the quarterback. That's on me. We have three losses in a row and we have to do something, quickly, to get ourselves back on track."

Senior QB Phillip Walker and the offense found no movement through the air or on the ground in the second half, scoring just a field goal. However, the four-year starter was able to break the school record for career passing yards in the contest.

On the day, Walker compiled a solid 168 yards on 12 completions through the air, throwing three costly interceptions with no scores. The senior snapped former QB Henry Burris' record of 7,495 passing yards on Temple's opening drive of the second half, finding Keith Kirkwood on a short checkdown pass in the right sideline for 14 yards. He now has 7,541 passing yards for his Owl career.

Meanwhile, RB Ryquell Armstead shouldered the load for the running back corps, racking up career-high 79 yards on 16 carries with one touchdown. The sophomore's strong performance gives the backfield some much-needed depth, as the Owls' usual starter Jahad Thomas sat out with a hand injury.

The scoring came slowly throughout, with Armstead's only touchdown starting things off early in the second quarter. Army quickly matched the following series behind the efforts of QB Ahmad Bradshaw, who snuck his way into the endzone utilizing the Black Knights' rarely seen triple option offense.

Despite the Temple offense consistently working its way up and down the field, the Owls struggled finishing drives, owing its slim 10-7 halftime lead to excellent field position granted by a senior DL Sharif Finch blocked punt, the fifth of his career.

The second half seemed to continue a similar story as the Owl defense surrendered an opening 77-yard drive and their lead to the Black Knights, capped by Davidson's surge passed the goal line.

Even with junior PK Austin Jones' field goal closing the gap, Army continued to manhandle the Owl defensive front, methodically converting positive gains for its third touchdown of the game. The Black Knight defense followed suit on the ensuing drive, shutting down Walker for a quick three-and-out.

The Owls had a chance in the final minutes as Army, leading 21-13, missed a field goal with 3:41. Temple took possession on its own 30-yard line, but Walker was picked off two plays later by Kenneth Brinson. The Black Knights then iced the game on a 17-yard TD run by Davidson with 2:28 on the clock. Walker tossed his final interception of the night on the final drive.

Defensively, impressive individual performances by senior linebackers Avery Williams (career-high 12 tackles) and Jarred Alwan (9 tackles), not to mention senior cornerback Sean Chandler (10 tackles), failed to slow the Army triple-option onslaught. For the Black Knights, Davidson and Bradshaw led the way, combining for 185 yards on 38 carries with three touchdowns.

TEMPLE GETS BACK TO WINNING WAYS WITH
38-0 SHUTOUT OVER STONY BROOK

PHILADELPHIA – Under a blazing mid-September heat with 22,296 fans packing the stands, the Temple Owls secured their initial win of the season over visiting FCS-member Stony Brook, 38-0, Saturday afternoon at Lincoln Financial Field.

Despite the high score-line, the Temple defense proved the most impressive component for the Owls, holding the Seawolves to just 133 yards with no scores. Throughout the first half, Stony Brook only saw the Temple side of the 50-yard line on one possession. That came after a tipped-pass interception at midfield.

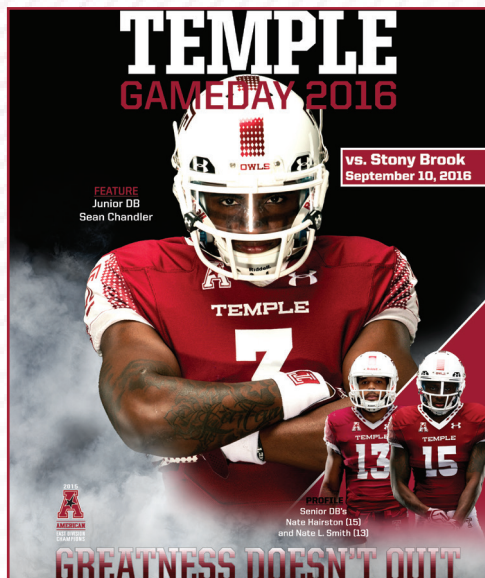

The early dominance by the defense helped the group reassert its identity, a self-proclaimed aggression and hyperactivity. The consistent pressure and blitz-prone front seven made Stony Brook visibly uncomfortable, forcing four turnovers, three sacks and nine tackles-for-loss. On the day, the Seawolves finished a dismal 0-for-13 on third down conversions.

Head coach Matt Rhule discussed his pride regarding how Temple competed during the shutout, noting the “energy” and “juice” the Owls had against the Seawolves despite a full week of grueling practice and, not to forget, last Friday’s loss to Army still fresh in many players’ minds.

“I’m really proud of our team over the last eight days, some real key leadership,” Rhule said. “It was a really, really hard work. We were not a fresh team out there today. We worked this week. I thought you saw, hopefully, a team that played with a lot of energy, a lot of juice, and did enough to win the football game, and to get a shutout on defense is always special.”

Meanwhile, the defensive energy bled its way into the offensive huddle, as senior QB Phillip Walker guided his squad on multiple scoring drives throughout both halves. Walker, who snapped the school record for career passing yards last week against Army, completed a nearly flawless game, throwing 11-of-23 for three scores with the lone interception.

Under Walker’s direction, the offense either reached or began in the redzone five consecutive times after a stalled first possession, scoring touchdowns on four of those occasions. The third quarter proved similar as each of the first two drives saw the scoreboard change in Temple’s favor, including a 26-yard strike to junior WR Keith Kirkwood, all before the senior sat out the final period.

On the receiving end of the senior’s passes were a number of wideouts; none, however, posted a game near Kirkwood, who pulled in a career-high two touchdowns on four receptions for 54 yards. Kirkwood’s standout display was supplemented by a first for sophomore WR Broderick Yancy, who grabbed his initial career score on 15-yard pass in the back of the end zone late in the second quarter.

The Owl offensive engine hit on all cylinders from the get-go, pounding the Stony Brook front all while utilizing a slew of ball carriers for 177 yards on 39 carries for two touchdowns. Sophomore RB Ryquell Armstead saw the most action, generating consistent positive yardage with 48 yards on 14 carries.

A pair of freshmen each made an impact rushing for the Owls, as WR Isaiah Wright made his debut with seven notable touches (42 yards) at tailback while WR Cortelle Simpson notched two end-around sweeps for 40 yards.

The special teams saw a milestone crossed during the victory, as junior PK Austin Jones’ sole field goal midway through the second half jumped him into sixth all-time on Temple’s career scoring list, surpassing Cap Poklemba’s 190 points from the 1999-02 seasons. Further, P Alex Starzyk showcased his coffin corner skills on two of his four punts against Stony Brook, watching the ball downed at the one-yard line on both kicks.

As for Temple head coach Matt Rhule, the shutout of the Seawolves marks the second of his Owl career, the last of which came against fellow FCS-member Delaware State by a 59-0 mark in 2014.

PENN STATE OUTLASTS TEMPLE FOR 34-27 WIN

STATE COLLEGE – Despite a resilient defensive effort and a late offensive surge, Temple fell short in its first road challenge, suffering a close 34-27 loss at the hands of rival Penn State in front of a crowd of 100,420 at Beaver Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Owls, who battled from behind throughout the entire matchup, closed the score to within a single possession on their final drive, but an inopportune turnover snuffed out the possibility for the comeback.

Throughout the first few drives, quick strikes from both quarterbacks signaled a shootout between the Pennsylvania rivals was underway, but a combination of defensive pressure and constant penalties soon slowed down both offenses.

Senior QB Phillip Walker and his unit struggled in the first half, but managed to put together multiple scoring possessions in the second, compiling 286 passing yards on 25-of-34 with a rushing touchdown and interception.

The early Owls' spark came behind the efforts of red-shirt senior WR Romond Deloatch, who grabbed a career-long 67-yard reception on the initial play of the second drive. With the defense reeling, Temple set up RB Jahad Thomas with his first carry and touchdown of the season on an eight-yard sweep a play later.

The rushing score moved Thomas up to fifth all-time on Temple's career touchdown list, a boost for the senior after sitting out the first two games of the year with a hand injury. He finished the day with 14 carries for 52 yards with two touchdowns along with six receptions for 48 yards.

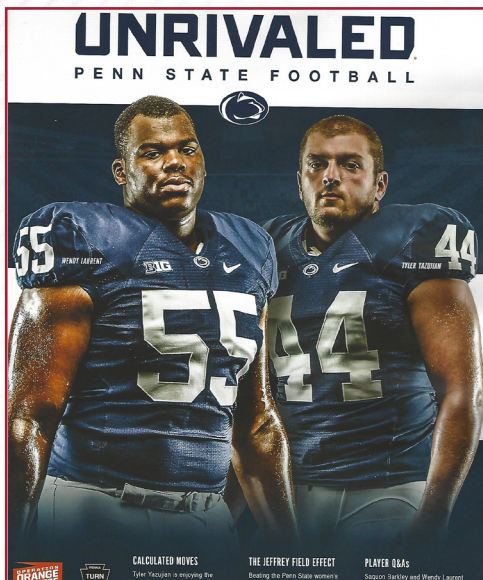

The Penn State offense similarly gave Temple early issues, finding the endzone on two of its first three possessions and jumping out to a quick seven-point lead. Nittany Lion QB Trace McSorley opened the scoring on Penn State's second drive, finding a wide-open WR Chris Godwin on a deep 52-yard bomb down midfield.

Even with a timely turnover deep in Owl territory to start the second quarter, the defense continued to struggle containing McSorley, watching the sophomore expand the Nittany Lion edge to 21-7 with his first rushing touchdown of the year. Redshirt senior Praise Martin-Oguike forced the Penn State fumble inside the Temple red zone.

Two consecutive unproductive Temple drives plagued the defensive stamina late during the first half, as Penn State's offense continued to dominate overall snaps (43-25) and time-of-possession (17:32-12:26). The Owls were held to a trio of three-and-outs versus Penn State's none in the initial two quarters, constantly forcing the defense to take the field with little to no rest.

With just 38 seconds remaining and the ball spotted on the Owl 20-yard line, though, Walker and the offense suddenly sprang to life. An up-tempo six-play, 52-yard possession allowed junior PK Austin Jones to close the half-time deficit, drilling a 45-yard field goal with relative ease.

Sophomore DB Delvon Randall snared an interception off McSorley inside the Nittany Lion red zone late in the third quarter, electrifying a period that had only seen a Penn State field goal thus far. The turnover spurred the Owls' offense, which capped the short scoring drive with Walker leaping into the endzone on a fourth-and-goal conversion.

The shift in momentum jumpstarted the exhausted defense, bending under another McSorley air raid, but again allowing only a field goal, giving Penn State a 27-17 advantage early in the fourth quarter. The stalled drive, one of many throughout the game, came due to the efforts of redshirt senior Haason Reddick, who concluded the match with seven total tackles and a career-high three tackles-for-loss.

A stalled drive on the ensuing Temple possession was quickly rectified on special teams, as punter Alex Staryzk's line drive ricocheted off a Nittany Lion blocker, bounced down to the Penn State one-yard line and was promptly recovered by the Owls.

Thomas, once again, came through on a sweep play in the red zone, striding in for a touchdown on a third-and-goal to cut the lead down to a field goal margin midway through the final period.

Penn State star RB Saquon Barkley, who had been relatively contained up until this point, responded in kind just three plays later, outpacing defenders on a 55-yard burst up the middle to restore the 10-point Nittany Lion edge. The Owls pushed back to within a possession courtesy of a second Jones field goal, this time from 34 yards out, sailed through the uprights with just 2:10 remaining.

After a failed onside kick and Penn State three-and-out, Temple managed to take over deep in their own territory. On the second play of the possession, though, Walker took a shot while in his throwing motion, resulting in a game-ending Nittany Lion interception.
