NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

1944 East Region • New York, N.Y.
Ohio State 57, Temple 47
Temple 55, Catholic 35

Head coach Josh Cody led the Owls to their first ever NCAA appearances with a record of 13-8. Temple dropped its opener in the tournament by a 57-47 score to Ohio State before rebounding to defeat Catholic, 55-35.

FINAL FOUR

1956 East Region
New York, N.Y.
Temple 74, Holy Cross 72
Philadelphia, Pa.
Temple 65, Connecticut 59
Temple 60, Canisius 58
Evanston, Ill. – Final Four
Iowa 83, Temple 76
Temple 90, Southern Methodist 81

Temple returned to the NCAA Tournament in 1956 behind the top backcourt in Philadelphia history, Hal Lear and Guy Rodgers, and Hall of Fame head coach Harry Litwack. The duo led the Owls to a 23-3 regular season record and first round match-up with Holy Cross at Madison Square Garden. After a 74-72 nailbiter, play resumed at The Palestra. With Fred Cohen pulling down a NCAA Tournament record 34 rebounds, Temple beat Connecticut, 65-59.

The Owls dispatched of Canisius, 60-58, for a trip to their first Final Four in Evanston, IL. A loss to Iowa ended hopes of a National Championship, but Lear poured in 48 points in a third-place victory over SMU to earn Final Four MVP honors.

FINAL FOUR

1958 East Region
Charlotte, N.C.
Temple 71, Maryland 67
Temple 69, Dartmouth 50
Louisville, Ky. – Final Four
Kentucky 61, Temple 60
Temple 67, Kansas State 57

Two years later, Rodgers teamed with sophomore Bill "Pickles" Kennedy to lead TU back to the Final Four in Louisville, KY. Rodgers would be named to the All-Final Four team, but Temple fell to Kentucky, 61-60 and wrapped up third-place with a 67-57 victory over Kansas State.

1964 East Region • Philadelphia, Pa.
Connecticut 53, Temple 48

The Cherry and White led 26-24 at the half but Connecticut stormed back to win, 53-48, in the East Region first round. Jim Williams pulled down 20 rebounds and scored 11 points, while Bill Kelley had a game-high 16 points for TU.

1967 East Region • Blacksburg, Va.
St. John's 57, Temple 53

Temple fell to St. John's, 57-53, in a first round East Region game at Blacksburg, VA. Clarence Brookins had a game-high 21 points, as did St. John's Sonny Dove.

1970 East Region
Philadelphia, Pa.
Villanova 77, Temple 69

An East Region first round matchup pitted a pair of Big 5 rivals with Villanova coming up on top, 77-69. All five Wildcats scored in double figures, led by Howard Porter's 18 points and 14 rebounds. John Richardson led Temple with 22 points, while Lee Tress had 20 points and 21 rebounds.

1972 East Region • Williamsburg, Va.
South Carolina 53, Temple 51

Ollie Johnson had 16 points and eight rebounds but Temple fell to South Carolina, 53-51, in the East Region first round. Johnson was the only Owl in double-figures, while South Carolina was led by Tom Riker (23 points).

1979 East Region • Raleigh, N.C.
(10) St. John's 75, (7) Temple 70

Making its first NCAA appearance in seven years, the Owls dropped a 75-70 decision to St. John's in Raleigh, NC. Walt Montford led Temple with 22 points and nine rebounds, while Bruce Harrold added 18. St. John's duo of Wayne McKoy (22 points) and Reggie Carter (20) combined to shoot 19-for-28 from the floor.

1984 – East Region
Charlotte, N.C.
(8) Temple 65, (9) St. John's 63
(1) N. Carolina 77, (8) Temple 66

Temple shot 56% from the field and received 20 points from Granger Hall to defeat St. John's, 65-63, in Charlotte, NC. Terence Stansbury and Jim McLoughlin added 14 for the Owls to offset a game-high 21 points from Chris Mullen.

Michael Jordan poured in 27 points on 11-for-15 shooting for North Carolina to beat Temple, 77-66, in the second round of the East Region. Stansbury tried to match the future NBA legend, scoring 26 points on 12-for-24 shooting, in 39 minutes. Granger Hall had 13 points and 12 rebounds against the Tar Heels, who started four future NBA players.

1985 – East Region • Hartford, Conn.
(8) Temple 60, (9) Va. Tech 57
(1) Georgetown 63, (8) Temple 46

Granger Hall scored 22 points and grabbed 13 rebounds as Temple squeaked past Virginia Tech, 60-57, in Hartford, CT. Charles Rayne also had a double-double with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

The defending NCAA Champion Georgetown Hoyas dispatched of Temple, 63-46, to move on to the Sweet Sixteen. Nate Blackwell led all scorers with 15 points as Granger Hall was held to seven points in 21 minutes.

1986 – Midwest Region • Dayton, Ohio
(9) Temple 61, (8) Jacksonville 50 (OT)
(1) Kansas 65, (9) Temple 43

The Owls received balanced scoring, placing three players in double figures, but needed overtime to beat Jacksonville, 61-50, at Dayton. Ed Coe led the team with 16 points and eight boards, while Tim Perry had 11 points and 18 rebounds.

Temple was not as fortunate in the second round, dropping a 65-43 decision to top-seeded Kansas and eventual Midwest Regional MVP Danny Manning. Nate Blackwell was the only Owl to score double figures (14 points).

1987 – Midwest Region • Chicago, Ill.
(2) Temple 75, (15) Southern 56
(10) LSU 72, (2) Temple 62

Second-seeded Temple rode the back of senior Nate Blackwell and junior Tim Perry in a 75-56 first-round victory over Southern. Blackwell scored 24 points while Perry added 21 points, 17 rebounds and seven blocks. Temple held Southern to 27% shooting from the floor.

Despite 26 points from Mike Vreeswyk, #10-seed LSU upset the Owls, 72-62, at the Rosemont Horizon. Blackwell scored 16 points in his final game and finished his career second on the program's assist list and third on the scoring list.

(1) Temple 69, (13) Richmond 47
(2) Duke 63, (1) Temple 53

The top-seeded Owls won their 16th straight game by dispatching of #16 Lehigh, 87-73, at the Hartford Civic Center. Tim Perry had 27 points, 12 rebounds and eight blocks, while freshman Mark Macon added 24 points and nine rebounds.

Two days later, Temple made easy-work of #8 seed, Georgetown, in a 74-53 victory. Mike Vreeswyk and Macon each had 21 points to lead four Owls in double-figures.

The Cherry and White next traveled up the New Jersey Turnpike to the Meadowlands to face #13 seed Richmond. Temple ended the Spiders' Cinderella story with a 69-47 victory and improved to 32-1. Macon had 24 points, while Vreeswyk added 19. Perry pulled down a double-double (11 points, 13 rebounds) and blocked four shots.

Future Philadelphia 76ers GM Billy King kept Macon under wraps on 6-for-29 shooting (13 points) to help Duke escape with a 63-53 win to advance to the Final Four. Temple shot 29% from the field. Macon won various All-America honors and John Chaney was named the National Coach of the Year for the second straight year.

1990 – East Region • Atlanta, Ga.
(6) St. John's 81, (11) Temple 65

Mark Macon scored a game-high 32 points but Temple could not overcome 60% shooting by St. John's in an 81-65 loss in the MidEast regional first round. Macon made 6-of-9 shots from long-distance and the Owls received 13 points and eight boards from Donald Hodge. St. John's took a 35-17 lead at the half and never looked back.

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Temple opened up play in the East Region with an 80-63 win over Purdue at the Cole Fieldhouse behind 25 points from Mik Kilgore. Mark Macon scored 19 points and Vic Carstarphen added 18.

The Owls had a surprise opponent in the second round, as #15-seed Richmond upset #2-seed Syracuse, 73-69, in the first round. The Spiders could not post another upset, as Temple advanced to the Sweet Sixteen with a 77-64 victory. Macon scored 20 points, while Kilgore added 18.

Macon poured in 26 points to lead Temple to a 72-63 overtime victory over Oklahoma State in the Regional Semifinal at the Meadowlands, but the senior saved his best for his last collegiate game. He scored 31 points and grabbed nine rebounds but could not lift the Owls past North Carolina in the East Region final. The Tar Heels edged Temple, 75-72, in the contest as Macon ended his career as the program's all-time leading scorer.

1992 – Southeast Region • Atlanta, Ga.
(6) Michigan 73, (11) Temple 66

Michigan's Fab Five proved to be too much for the Owls in a first round game at the Omin in a 73-66 victory over Temple. TU took a 59-57 lead late in the second half but was outscored 16-7 the rest of the way. Aaron McKie and Vic Carstarphen led four Owls in double-figures with 17 points each. Jalen Rose, who broke a 59-59 tie with 4:51 remaining, led all scorers with 19 points.

Future NBA stars Eddie Jones and Aaron McKie had identical stat lines of 24 points, eight rebounds and three steals in 40 minutes to lead Temple past tenth-seeded Missouri at the Jon Huntsman Center. The Owls forced 22 turnovers and improved to 7-2 in opening round games under John Chaney.

The Cherry and White advanced to its third Sweet Sixteen by beating Santa Clara, 68-57. McKie (25 points), Rick Brunson (20) and Jones (17) combined for 62 of Temple's 68 points. The Owls held future NBA MVP Steve Nash to three points on 1-for-9 shooting.

Trailing by six points at the half, Temple went on a 15-3 run and would not fall behind again in a 67-59 victory over third-seeded Vanderbilt at the Kingdome. Jones scored a game-high 26 points on 13-for-23 shooting. The Owls held the Commodores to a season-low 59 points.

The Fab Five foiled the Owls for the second straight year with a 77-72 win over Temple in the West Regional Final. TU led by 10 points soon after halftime but the Wolverines went inside to Chris Webber and Juwan Howard, who combined for 16 points and 14 rebounds in the second half alone. All five members of the Fab Five scored in double-digits for Michigan. Rick Brunson had 21 points, nine assists and seven rebounds. Jones and McKie each earned All-West Region honors.

(4) Temple 61, (13) Drexel 39

(5) Indiana 67, (4) Temple 58

Temple defeated city-rival Drexel, 61-39, in the East Region first round at the USAir Arena behind 21 second-half points from Aaron McKie, who was held scoreless in the first half for the first time in 48 games. He added 10 rebounds. The Owls forced the Dragons into just 29% shooting and held Malik Rose to four points and five rebounds.

The second round pitted a pair of Hall of Fame coaches in John Chaney and Bobby Knight. Temple shut down Damon Bailey (eight points) but Indiana received clutch three point shooting from Brian Evans (18 points) and Todd Leary (15) to beat the Owls, 67-58. Eddie Jones had 24 points and seven boards, while McKie had 18 points and nine rebounds in his collegiate farewell.

(7) Cincinnati 77, (10) Temple 71

Cincinnati shot 61 percent and held off a late Temple rally to win, 77-71, at the Jon Huntsman Center in the West Region first round. Johnny Miller, playing on a sore ankle, scored 30 points and shot 9-for-17 from 3-point range. Rick Brunson scored 16 points in his final collegiate game.

1996 – Southeast Region • Orlando, Fla.

(7) Temple 61, (10) Oklahoma 43

(2) Cincinnati 78, (7) Temple 65

John Chaney's famous match-up zone defense foiled another opponent, holding Oklahoma to 32% from the field and its second lowest postseason point total in program history in a 61-43 Temple win. Four Owls hit double figures, led by Marc Jackson and Levan Alston, who each had 14.

For the second straight year in the NCAA Tournament, Cincinnati eliminated the Owls from postseason play with a 78-65 victory. Temple was chilly from long-range, shooting just 26%, and made just one three in the second half. The #2-seeded Bearcats made all 10 free throws down the stretch to put the game away. Jackson had 13 points for TU.

1997 – Midwest Region • Kansas City, Mo.

(9) Temple 62, (8) Mississippi 40

(1) Minnesota 76, (9) Temple 57

Temple bounced back from a heartbreaking OT loss to Rhode Island, 69-66, in the A10 Championship to score a 62-40 victory over #8 seed Mississippi at Kemper Arena. Marc Jackson had a double-double with 24 points and 10 rebounds, while Rasheed Brokenborough added 20.

The top-seeded Minnesota Golden Gophers were too much for Temple in a 76-57 second round victory. Brokenborough did not start due to a shoulder injury suffered against Ole Miss, but led the team with 12 points off the bench. The Owls drew within six points with 17:11 left but would get no closer the rest of the way.

After falling in the Atlantic 10 Championship on Rhode Island's Lamar Odom buzzer-beating three-pointer, Temple welcomed back Quincy Wadley from a hand-injury in a 61-54 victory over Kent State in the First Round at the Fleet Center. Pepe Sanchez had 15 points and nine assists and Rasheed Brokenborough added 15 in the win.

Wadley came off the bench to hit four three's to beat third-seeded Cincinnati, 64-54, to advance to the Sweet Sixteen. Temple continued to receive balanced scoring, as Lamont Barnes scored 15 points and Wadley and Sanchez added 14.

The Owls opened up a 15-point halftime lead on Purdue and cruised to a 75-55 victory over the #10-seeded Boilermakers. Karcher had 21 to lead all scorers, while Sanchez filled up the stat-sheet with 17 points, nine assists and six rebounds.

Temple came up short to top-seeded Duke, 85-64, at the Meadowlands in the East Region final. The Blue Devils shot 60% from the field and 59% from long range. Karcher and Barnes each had 19 points for the Cherry and White. Karcher and Sanchez were named to the All-South Region team.

(10) Seton Hall 67, (2) Temple 65 (OT)

Second-seeded Temple rolled to an easy 73-47 victory over Patriot League champion Lafayette in the East Region First Round at Marine Midland Arena. Quincy Wadley scored a game-high 17 points, while Pepe Sanchez dished a career-high 15 assists, setting a new arena record and tying the second most in an East Regional game.

Tenth-seeded Seton Hall and reserve guard Ty Shine ended Temple's season with a 67-65 OT victory. Shine came off the bench to replace injured leading scorer Shaheen Holloway and scored a career-high 26 points, including a late three that put the Pirates ahead for good. Mark Karcher netted a game-high 27 points.

Quincy Wadley scored 20 of his 26 points in the first half and Lynn Greer added 19 as one of five Owls in double-figures to lead TU past the #6 Longhorns.

Two days later, it was Wadley and Greer again who vaulted the Owls to their fifth Sweet 16 under

NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

John Chaney. Wadley scored 24 and Greer added 20 as Temple frustrated the Gators with its renowned matchup zone defense, taking a 20-point halftime lead and coasting to a 75-54 victory over the third-seeded Gators.

Chaney improved to 5-0 in Regional Semifinals with an 84-72 victory over #7 seed Penn State at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. Greer paced Temple with 21 points, while Greg Jefferson scored 15 points off the bench, the first bench points scored by the Owls in the Tournament.

The Owls' dream season came to an end to the top-seeded Michigan State Spartans, 69-62, keeping Chaney out of the Final Four. The Cherry and White never led in the contest against the defending NCAA Champions. Greer scored a game-high 22 points, while Kevin Lyde netted a tournament career-high 21 points. Both players were named to the All-South Region team.

2008 – South Region • Denver, Colo. (5) Michigan State 72, (12) Temple 61

Fifth-seeded Michigan State clamped down defensively on 12th-seeded Temple, especially junior Dionte Christmas, and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament by beating the Owls, 72-61, at the Pepsi Center. Senior Mark Tyndale scored 14 of his game-high 16 points in the second half to pace Temple. The Atlantic 10 Champions finish their season with a 21-13 record, the most victories since the 2000-01 team won 24 games.

2009 - South Region • Tampa, Fla. (6) Arizona State 66, (11) Temple 57

Temple's Dionte Christmas won the battle of superstar guards, but Arizona State held off the Owls, 66-57, in the first round of the NCAA Tournament at American Airlines Arena. Christmas did all he could in his final collegiate game, scoring 29 points and breaking the school's single season three-point field goal record. James Harden, ASU's All-American, was guarded relentlessly by junior Ryan Brooks, and was held to nine points.

2010 - East Region • Jacksonville, Fla. (12) Cornell 78, (5) Temple 65

The #12/13 Temple Owls' magical season came to an untimely end in the first round of the NCAA Tournament with a 78-65 loss to Cornell. The fifth-seeded Owls had their 10-game win streak snapped and ended the year at 29-6. Cornell, coached by Fran Dunphy's former 10-year assistant at Penn, Steve Donahue, blistered the nets in the first half. The Big Red shot 13-of-19 from the floor (68.4%) in the opening 20 minutes, taking a 37-29 lead at intermission. Temple, which held the nation's top three-point shooting team to just 2-of-7 in the first half, connected on 11-of-22 from the field to stay close.

The Owls opened the second half on fire, scoring on eight of their first nine possessions, but the hot shooting of Ivy League Player of the Year Ryan Wittman (20 points), kept the Cornell lead at seven, 51-44, with 14:28 to play. Wittman drained three of his four treys in that stretch, all from well behind the arc. Cornell then went on a 16-4 run led by senior playmaker Louis Dale, who scored eight of his game-high 21 points during the game-breaking six-minute stretch. It was Dale's three-pointer that ended the run, making it 66-48 with 8:53 remaining. The Owls never got closer than 14 the remainder of the contest as the senior-laden three-time Ivy Champs advanced over the three-time A-10 Champs.

2011 - West Region • Tucson, Ariz. (7) Temple 66, (2) Penn State 64 (2) San Diego St. 71 (7) Temple 64 (2OT)

Juan Fernandez, who drained the game-winning jumper with 0.4 seconds remaining, and Ramone Moore led Temple with 23 points each as the Owls defeated Penn State in a classic NCAA game. There were eight ties and 20 lead changes in the tightly contested game. In the final six minutes, there were just three missed shots and two empty possessions. After Penn State's 2000-point scorer Talor Battle drained a 25-footer with 16 seconds left to tie the game, the Owls called timeout. It was then that Khalif Wyatt urged Coach Dunphy to put the ball in Juan Fernandez's hands, and he delivered one shining moment for Temple, connecting on a leaning 12-footer to lift the Owls to their first NCAA win since 2001.

Fifth-ranked and second-seed San Diego State was up next. The Aztecs looked like they were going to pull away at times, but the Owls would keep the game within striking distance. Trailing by five with two minutes to play, Wyatt drained a three and Lavoy Allen followed with a basket to tie the game. In the first overtime, Fernandez made a three to give the Owls the lead, which they would hold until Malcolm Thomas tied it at 61 on a three-point play. In the second overtime, the Aztecs finally pulled away.

2012 - Midwest Region • Nashville, Tenn. (12) South Florida 58, (5) Temple 44

Khalif Wyatt scored a game-high 19 points, but 12th-seeded South Florida posted a 58-44 win over fifth-seeded Temple at Bridgestone Arena in the final game of the 2012 NCAA Tournament Second Round.

It was a tale of two halves, as the Owls stymied the Bulls over the opening 20 minutes, holding USF to 3-27 from the field (11.1%), including a stretch of nearly 16 minutes with zero field goals. Temple, however, could only muster a 19-15 lead at the break.

The second half saw USF blister the nets at the start, hitting seven of their first nine shots, to take a 30-23 lead over the first five-plus minutes. After Wyatt converted two throws, the Bulls drained three straight three-pointers to make it 39-25.

Trailing 41-27, the Owls scored nine straight points over a five-minute stretch to cut the deficit to three. The Owls' defense then forced Victor Rudd, Jr. (17 points) into a long three-pointer with the shot clock winding down, but he banked it in to push the margin to six, 44-38.

South Florida was able to close out the game at the foul line, making all eight of its attempts over the final two minutes and change.

2013 - East Region • Dayton, Ohio (9) Temple 76, (8) NC State 72 (1) Indiana 58, (9) Temple 52

Senior Khalif Wyatt scored 31 points to lead Temple to a 76-72 win over NC State in the second round of the NCAA East Regional.

Temple opened a 17-point lead before Wyatt hurt his left thumb and left the game briefly. He made 6 of 6 from the line in the final 32 seconds to keep Temple around for more than one game. He hit his last two with 2.2 seconds to go.

NC State trailed most of the game, but cut it to 74-72 on Lorenzo Brown's jumper with 2 seconds left. Wyatt was fouled on the inbounds play and finished it off.

Jake O'Brien played a leading role in Temple's fast start, and finished with 18 points.

After Wyatt hurt his hand in the second half, NC State started its best spurt of the game, getting the ball inside four times for baskets - two each by Richard Howell and Brown - that cut it to 47-39 with 13:08 to go.

The Owls managed to keep their distance until the closing minutes. Scott Wood, the ACC's top three-point shooter, missed his first four shots, but hit back-to-back threes that cut it to 63-60 with 3:08 left. He missed another three with 1:11 to go, and Wyatt finished it off with his free throws.

Two days later, the Owls were dealt a heartbreaking 58-52 loss to the East Region's top seed Indiana. Wyatt shot 50 percent (12-of-24) for the game and once again finished with a game-high 31 points.

Trailing Indiana by nine early on, the Owls worked their way back and played with the lead for more than 20 minutes. Anthony Lee capped a 15-4 TU run and the Owls led 29-26 at halftime.

After IU cut the advantage to a single point twice, Wyatt hit back-to-back runners inside the paint to put the Owls up six points, which was their largest lead with under 10 minutes to go.

IU's Will Sheehey closed an 8-2 run for the Hoosiers to tie the game at 43. Refusing to go away, Wyatt quickly netted a three-pointer of his own to keep the Owls ahead for a little longer. Temple would go back up by as many as four (52-48) after Wyatt swished a pair of free throws.

The Hoosiers soon tied the game at 52. Wyatt tried to complete his heroic act on the ensuing possession, but missed a three-pointer and was called for a foul, which sent IU to the line. Indiana then closed the game out on a 10-0 run to put Temple away and end the Owls' hopes of advancing to the Sweet 16.

2016 - South Region • Brooklyn, N.Y. (7) Iowa 72, (10) Temple 70

After a thrilling ending to regulation gave Temple new life in overtime of the NCAA First Round, Iowa handed the Owls a heartbreaking loss with a putback at the buzzer. Temple got a game-high 26 points from Quenton DeCosey in his final appearance for the Owls, with DeCosey hitting 3-of-3 at the free throw line to tie the game with two seconds left in regulation.

Iowa hit a flurry of three-pointers early in the game, forcing Temple to come back from a 12-point deficit in the first half. The Owls again trailed by double digits seven minutes into the second half, and never held a lead in that period. The first tie of the game came with two seconds left when DeCosey made his clutch performance at the stripe.

Iowa hit a pair of free throws at 1:09 to give the Hawkeyes a three-point lead late in the first half, but they were almost the only points scored by either team in the final four minutes. Josh Brown broke the drought for Temple with three seconds left, hitting a jumper to send the Owls into halftime down by just a point, 38-37.

Iowa's last field goal of the second half came with 5:08 remaining to give the Hawkeyes an eight-point, 61-53 lead, but Temple still trailed by four with 18 seconds left. DeCosey made a layup at 11 seconds, and Iowa's Jok missed 1-of-2 free throws to put Temple down just three with eight seconds left. DeCosey was fouled on his long three-point attempt, and made all three including the third after an Iowa timeout.

Temple trailed by three early in overtime before taking a two-point lead on a three-point play by DeCosey at 2:40. The Hawkeyes scored just one field goal in a 10-minute stretch from the second half into the end of overtime, with that shot tying the game 68-68 with 1:52 remaining.

Brown answered two Iowa free throws with a jumper at 51 seconds, tying the game for a final time at 70-70. Daniel Dingle had a chance to give Temple a lead at the line with 22 seconds left, but missed the front end of a 1-and-1. Iowa ran down the clock and missed its first attempt, but Adam Woodbury put it back for the win.

2019 - East Region • Dayton, Ohio (11) Belmont 81, (11) Temple 70

Senior Shizz Alston, Jr. scored 21 points and sophomore Nate Pierre-Louis recorded a double-double of 13 points and 11 rebounds, but 11th-seeded Temple went cold from the field over too many stretches and ultimately lost 81-70 to 11th-seeded Belmont in the NCAA First Four.

Down 15-8, Temple went on a 14-2 run to take a 22-17 lead at 11:27, hitting a perfect 6-of-6 from the field during the run. The Owls then suffered a 2:18 scoring drought which allowed Belmont to take back the lead before the under-four media timeout and go into halftime with a 37-31 lead on Temple.

Temple used a 19-4 run over a nearly six-minute stretch to erase an 11-point deficit and take a 50-46 lead, with Alston scoring 11 of his 14 second-half points in that run. The Owls made nine of their first 15 shots in the period but only one of the next eight after that. Temple's last lead was 52-51 at 10:17. The Owls were within a point at the eight-minute mark, but struggled the rest of the way while Belmont was solid at the free throw line.

2023 AMERICAN CHAMPIONSHIP

American Athletic Conference 2023 Men's Basketball Championship Bracket

Temple faced Cincinnati in the quarterfinals of the tournament and fell 84-54.

PHILADELPHIA BIG 5

The Philadelphia Big 5 is not a formal, traditional conference, but rather an agreement between five major Philadelphia Universities to play a round-robin series of games as part of their regular season men's basketball schedule.

The competition between those five schools, La Salle University, The University of Pennsylvania, Saint Joseph's University, Temple University and Villanova University, results in an annual "City Series" champion.

Even though there is such great diversity between the institutions, each has had a history of success on the basketball court. All five teams have competed in the NCAA Basketball Championships.

The first Philadelphia Big 5 doubleheader took place on December 3, 1955, as Muhlenberg downed La Salle, 69-58, and Saint Joseph's beat Rhode Island, 84-72. The first-ever Big 5 game was 11 nights later as Saint Joseph's defeated Villanova, 83-70. The games were played at the historic Pal-estra, the exclusive home of the Big 5 from 1955-86. The Pal-estra is recognized by many as the most storied gymnasium in the history of college basketball.

TEMPLE BASKETBALL HALL OF FAME

The careers and accomplishments of 47 distinguished Temple players and coaches have been recognized by their induction into the Hall of Fame.

JOHN BAUM
(1966-69)

Inducted February 16, 1979

The leading rebounder (1,042) and 11th highest scorer (1,544) in Temple history, he also starred in the pro ranks. Captain of Temple's 1969 NIT Championship team. Named to Big 5 Hall of Fame.

NATE BLACKWELL
(1984-87)

Inducted February 17, 1998

John Chaney's first Temple recruit, earned numerous honors, including All-American. Finished career as Owls' all-time leader in games played. Unanimous choice as the Atlantic 10 Player of the Year in 1987.

MIKE BLOOM
(1936, 38)

Inducted February 16, 1981

Starred for the 1938 Temple team that captured the first NIT. Earned All-American honors as a junior and senior when he led the Owls in scoring. Became an outstanding professional player and also did some coaching.

NELSON BOBB
(1943, 47-49)

Inducted February 16, 1981

Led the Owls in scoring during the 1942-43, 1947-48 and 1948-49 seasons in a career interrupted by the service. Scored 984 points and set several Temple records that were eventually erased as the sport changed.

CLARENCE BROOKINS
(1965-68)

Inducted February 16, 1984

Scored 1,386 points in three seasons and earned numerous honors. He was the MVP in the 1967 Quaker City Tournament won by the Owls. Named to the Big 5 Hall of Fame. Played several seasons of pro basketball.

JIMMY BROWN
(1933-35)

Inducted January 28, 1977

Winner of six letters, he starred in basketball and baseball. Led the Owls in scoring two seasons. Made the Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball Conference all star team twice. Earned basketball All-American honorable mention.

RICK BRUNSON
(1991-95)

Inducted February 19, 2011

Two-time team captain who averaged 16.7 points per game in his senior year, when he was named first-team All-Atlantic 10. Scored 1,493 points, dished 470 assists and made 253 steals. His assists and steals ranked third at Temple upon the completion of his career.

DON CASEY
(1973-82)

Inducted October 19, 2018

Guided the Owls to a record of 151-94 in nine years as head coach, with three seasons of 20 or more wins. Temple made NIT appearances under Casey in 1978, 1981 and 1982, and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1979, finishing at 25-4 overall and winning an ECC title with a 10-0 record.

JOHN CHANEY
(1982-2006)

Inducted January 24, 2009

Inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame (2001). Led Temple to 23 postseason appearances in 24 seasons, including 17 trips to the NCAA Tournament. Five of his teams reached the NCAA Elite Eight. Named National Coach of the Year twice, and his 1987-88 team ended regular season ranked #1. Compiled most coaching wins (516) in Temple history.

TIM CLAXTON
(1974-78)

Inducted October 21, 1994

Scored 1,418 points. Led the Owls in scoring during 1977-78 season. Inducted into Big 5 Hall of Fame (1987). Winner of Gallagher Award as Big 5's Most Improved Player. Drafted by the Washington Bullets.

MARDY COLLINS
(2002-06)

Inducted October 6, 2023

Ranks fifth in program history for total points (1,919), and second in both steals (290) and field goals (718). Two-time First Team NABC, A10 First Team, and A10 All-Defensive Team selection. Three-time All-Big 5 honoree. Drafted by the NY Knicks in 2006.

JOEY CROMER
(1966-69)

Inducted February 28, 1985

Played an important role as Temple won the 1969 NIT championship. Scored 19 points as Temple defeated Boston College for the title. Had 1,118 points in three seasons (career high of 35 points vs. Penn).
