NEWS AND NOTES

OPENING TIP

The Temple men's basketball team will play its second game of the Hall of Fame Tip-Off Tournament as TU will face off against longtime rival Massachusetts. The action from Uncasville, Conn. is scheduled to begin at 5:00 p.m.

LAST TIME OUT - MASHBURN JR. REGISTERS FIFTH STRAIGHT 20-POINT GAME IN LOSS TO FLORIDA STATE

The Temple University men's basketball team fought to the finish but fell to Florida State, 78-69, on the opening day of the Basketball Hall of Fame Tip-Off event on Friday.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- The Owls got off to a hot start, scoring nine straight points after the Seminoles opened the scoring with a putback layup.
- Jamal Mashburn Jr. connected on a pair of buckets over the stretch, putting Temple in front 9-2 with 16:25 left in the first half.
- Temple led for the majority of the first half, before FSU pulled back in front on a three-pointer by Jerry Deng.
- The Seminoles entered the locker room with a 39-33 advantage, and pushed the lead to double figures at the 18:07 mark on a free throw by Jamir Watkins.
- Florida State pushed the margin to 14 but Temple continued to fight throughout, pulling to within six on a driving bucket from Steve Settle III with 8:26 on the clock.
- That is as close as it would get, however, as the Seminoles improved to 5-1 with the win.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS

- Mashburn Jr. closed with 20 points on 6-of-15

shooting and connected on seven of his 12 free-throw attempts.

- Both teams struggled from the free throw line, with both teams shooting 62.5% (Temple - 20-32; Florida State - 15-24).
- Joining Mashburn Jr. in double figures were Zion Stanford with 15 points and Steve Settle III with 14 on 5-of-9 shooting.
- Florida State had 15 fast-break points to Temple's 6.
- Jamir Watkins led FSU with 19 points, including a 10-of-13 performance from the charity stripe.

BRINGING THE BURN

Jamal Mashburn Jr. has registered 20 or more points in each of the first five games of the season. It is the second time in his career he has scored 20+ in five straight and the first time a Temple player has done it since January 25-February 12, 2023.

DIALING IT IN FROM DEEP

Temple has showcased its sharpshooting ability early this season, ranking 23rd in the nation in three-point shooting percentage through four games. Jamal Mashburn Jr., Steve Settle III and Jameel Brown have been leading the charge from deep, each with at least seven made three-pointers.

1990s MEET THE 2020s

Saturday will only be the third matchup between Temple and UMass since each program left the Atlantic-10 Conference following the 2012-13 season. This historic rivalry was highlighted by many hard-fought matchups between John Chaney's Owls and John Calipari's Minutemen throughout the 1990's.

ZION IN THE ZONE

Zion Stanford has been productive all season, but he truly shined in a breakout game against Drexel, scoring a career-high 23 points. He next carried that momentum against Florida State, delivering another strong performance with 15 points, including six made free throws.

LIGHTS, CAM-ERA, ACTION!

The early Signing Day brought two members of the Class of 2025 to the Owls in Cam Wallace and Cam Miles. Wallace is a 4-star recruit from The Westtown School where he was Second Team All-State last season and is closing in on 2,000 career points. Miles is averaging 26.0 PPG for the post-grad team at IMG Academy. The pair has Temple ranked as the top recruiting class in the AAC (Rivals.com and 247Sports) and as high as the No. 48 class in the nation (Rivals.com).

SCOUTING REPORT

UMass enters Saturday evening with a 1-3 record, previously falling to Hofstra by a score of 75-71. Sophomore guard Jaylen Curry led the Minutemen in scoring with 22 points while senior guard Rahsool Diggins was close behind him with 16.

The Minutemen finished the 2023-24 season with a 20-11 record, ranking ninth in the Atlantic-10 Preseason Poll. Massachusetts showcased its dominance in the post, leading the NCAA with an average of 9.0 points per game in this area. UMass surged over the second half of last season, leading the A-10 in points per game over conference play.

The team welcomes ten newcomers, adding four transfers and six freshmen. The Minutemen begin the season with the A-10's fourth-highest-ranked incoming recruiting class. The group is highlighted by transfers Shahid Muhammad and Daniel Rivera, who combined for 179 blocks and 434 rebounds during the 2023-24 campaign.

The duo of Rahsool Diggins and Jaylen Curry highlights returners for the Minutemen. Diggins is coming off last season as the reigning A-10 Co-Most Improved Player, progressing in nearly every statistical category from the previous season. The Philadelphia native started all 30 games for the Minutemen last season, averaging a team-high 30.5 minutes played. Curry returns to Amherst after receiving A-10 All-Rookie honors last season. The second-year guard will look to build off his 7.6 points and 2.1 assists per game stat line from a season ago.

Head coach Frank Martin is entering his third season as the head coach of UMass. Martin has recorded a 36-30 record over his tenure, as the team recorded an 11-7 record in conference play last season. Before he arrived in Amherst, Martin was the head man for South Carolina. Under his watch, the Gamecocks set a program-record 26 wins in 2016-17, earning their first NCAA Tournament win since 1973 and advancing to their first Sweet 16, Elite Eight, and Final Four.

ALL-TIME SERIES AGAINST MASSACHUSETTS

Temple holds a 45-23 all-time series advantage over the Minutemen. The two former Atlantic 10 rivals have faced each other only twice since leaving the conference.

LAST TIME AGAINST THE MINUTEMEN

Shizz Alston Jr. scored a career-high 31 points, including 11 of Temple's 17 free throws, to lead the Owls to a 65-63 come-from-behind win over UMass on Dec. 12, 2018. Temple erased a 13-point second-half deficit with a 12-0 run and sealed the game with Alston's late free throws and a clutch steal in the final seconds.

GETTING IT STARTED RIGHT

With the win against Sacred Heart, Temple is now 101-28 all-time in season openers. The Owls are also 21-7 in their first game of the year at the Liacouras Center, starting with the building's opening game on December 9, 1997, a 76-61 victory against No. 18 Fresno State.

UP NEXT

The Owls will next head back to Philadelphia to play in their second Big 5 matchup of the season at La Salle on Saturday, November 30. Game time is set for 4:00 p.m.

HEAD COACH

ADAM FISHER

2nd Year
Penn State '06

Adam Fisher, who helped lead Penn State to 23 wins and the second round of the 2023 NCAA Tournament as the program's Associate Head Coach, was named the 19th head men's basketball coach in Temple University history on March 29, 2023.

In his first season with Temple, the Owls won 16 games and advanced to the AAC Championship game for the first time, making an impressive run winning four games in four days. Included in the stretch were victories against third-seeded Charlotte and second-seeded Florida Atlantic. The Owls valued the ball, finishing 31st nationally at just 9.9 turnovers per game. Temple had 22 games with 10 giveaways or less with a season low of two against UTSA on March 10, the third fewest at any level of NCAA competition this season. TU also did a better job of taking the ball off its opponents, coming away with 7.4 steals per game, more than two per game higher than the previous year and its most since 2018-19. Team 128 was second in program history, connecting on 296 threes.

Multiple players were honored throughout the season. Steve Settle III was one of two Owls named to the AAC All-Tournament Team and Temple set a tournament record for most three-pointers made with 37. Zion Stanford was named to the AAC All-Freshman Team and was named Freshman of the Week twice. Jordan Riley and Matteo Picarelli were recognized for their work in the classroom as well as on the court as the duo was selected as CSC Academic All-District, the first such honorees for the Owls since 2012-13.

A 2006 Penn State alumnus, Fisher was instrumental in helping the Nittany Lions win five straight games before falling to No.5 Purdue, 67-65, in the finals of the Big Ten tournament. Penn State would earn an at-large bid to the 2023 NCAA Tournament and, as the No.10-seed, defeated seven-seed Texas A&M (76-59) before ending its season against second-seed Texas (71-66).

In 2021-22, his first year under then coach Micah Shrewsberry, he helped guide the Nittany Lions to a number of statement wins and a thrilling postseason run in the Big Ten Tournament. Penn State owned the best scoring defense in the Big Ten, as the Nittany Lions allowed just 65.0 points per game – Penn State's best defensive mark in 11 years.

A Jamison, Pa. native, he was integral in signing the highest ranked recruiting class in Penn State men's basketball history in November 2021, less than eight months into Shrewsberry's tenure in Happy Valley. The 2022 signing class ranked as a consensus top-30 class in the nation by all major recruiting services.

Fisher was also invited to participate in TopConnect 2021, the national networking program for the nation's top assistant coaches.

Prior to his return to Penn State, Fisher served as an assistant coach at the University of Miami where he was key to one of the most successful spans in Hurricane basketball history. The Hurricanes recorded four-straight 20-win seasons and four-straight postseason appearances from 2014-15 through 2017-18 with NBA Draft selections in three consecutive years and numerous All-Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) accolades during Fisher's tenure.

The four consecutive postseason berths included Miami's trip to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 2015-16, a season that witnessed victories over five ranked teams and 13 conference wins to tie for second in the ACC. The 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons added to the Hurricanes' successful run with NCAA Tournament appearances, a 10-0 mark to start the 2017-18 season and then a top-three finish in the 2018 ACC standings.

Fisher was part of a Miami coaching staff that was one of only two ACC programs (Duke) to produce NBA Draft picks in consecutive years in 2017, 2018 and 2019. Two Hurricanes, Lonnie Walker IV, a first-round selection, and Bruce Brown Jr., a second-round pick, heard their names called in 2018. Dewan Hernandez was a 2019 NBA draftee.

Those results followed the Hurricanes' efforts in bringing in top-15 recruiting classes in back-to-back seasons in 2016-17 and 2017-18. Walker was one of three ESPN Top 100 players to ink with Miami in 2017-18. Walker IV (ESPN No. 13), a McDonald's All-American and Jordan Brand Classic All-America guard, joined guard Chris Lykes (No. 48), forward Deng Gak (No. 94) and New Zealander Sam Waardenburg in the class, ranked top 10 by 247Sports, ESPN and Scout.

In 2016-17, the staff signed High School All-Americans Hernandez (McDonald's), Brown Jr. (Jordan Brand Classic), Australian standout Dejan Vasiljevic and Rodney Miller Jr. from national powerhouse Oak Hill Academy (Va.). Both Hernandez and Brown were consensus five-star, top-30 recruits.

During Fisher's time in Coral Gables, the Hurricanes earned 20 all-conference laurels, including honors for sophomore guard Isaiah Wong as a member of the 2020-21 All-ACC third team and 2021 ACC All-Tournament Team. Davon Reed, earned third-team All-ACC and All-Defensive Team accolades, and was recognized for excellence on and off the court as the winner of the 2017 Skip Prosser Award. The Prosser Award is presented annually to the top scholar-athlete in ACC men's basketball. Reed went on to be selected 32nd overall in the 2017 NBA Draft by the Phoenix Suns.

Other highlights included the Hurricanes' appearances in the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches polls with rankings in the top 10 and among the top 25, sell-out crowds at the Watsco Center, and the second triple-double in program history by Brown Jr. (11 points, 11 rebounds, 10 assists).

Miami's 22 wins during the 2017-18 season included 11 conference victories and a third-place finish in ACC play. In 2016-17, Miami defeated three ranked teams, downing No. 9/6 North Carolina and No. 10/11 Duke in Coral Gables, as well as No. 18/19 Virginia on the road.

Miami recorded 27 overall wins in 2015-16, its second-highest total in school history. Fisher and the basketball staff celebrated 2016 ACC Coach of the Year Jim Larrañaga as the Hurricanes ended the 2015-16 season ranked No. 10 by the Associated Press and No. 8 in the USA Today Coaches Poll after a school-record 18-straight weeks in the top 25 and 14 weeks in the top 15. The win total included five over ranked teams: No. 3 Virginia, No. 11 Louisville, No. 16 Utah, No. 22/20 Butler and No. 24/20 Duke.

The Canes posted, at the time, the second-most wins in program history with 25 in 2014-15. The win column included an impressive 16-point victory over fourth-ranked and eventual national champion Duke at Cameron Indoor Stadium as Miami was the only team to defeat the Blue Devils at home that year. Miami also defeated both No. 8/7 Florida and Syracuse on their home courts, two of Canes' 10 regular-season wins away from home. Postseason play added to the win total as Miami advanced to the NIT Championship game in Madison Square Garden.

Fisher joined the Hurricane program after gaining experience on the basketball staffs at Boston University and Penn State. As the director of basketball operations for Boston University for the 2009-10 and 2010-11 seasons, he helped the Terriers to back-to-back 21-win seasons and postseason appearances. BU won the 2011 America East Conference Championship and advanced to its first NCAA Tournament berth in nearly a decade. The previous year, the Terriers reached the semifinals of the 2010 CBI Tournament.

In 2011, Fisher returned to his alma mater as the Nittany Lions' video coordinator and was promoted to the director of player development position in 2012.

Fisher earned his master's degree in education leadership in 2009 while working as a graduate manager for Villanova under Jay Wright from 2007-09. During that time, the Wildcats reached the Sweet 16 in 2008 and won the East Regional in 2009 to advance to the Final Four with a then-school-record 30 wins.

Fisher graduated from Penn State with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology in 2006. While there, he worked for three seasons as head student manager and one season as a graduate manager. Fisher assisted with player workouts, handled administrative duties and helped with team travel.

Fisher and his wife, Rebecca, have a daughter, Alivia.
