Things to Look For This Week...

Temple celebrates 20 seniors for the annual Senior Day.

With a 12 p.m. kickoff this week, the Owls will play in their earliest start time of the season.

Temple is looking to close the 2024 season with its most wins in a single season since 2019 when the Owls finished 8-5.

The Owls are 7-3 in their last 10 final regular season games, excluding the canceled finale against Cincinnati in 2020.

Tyquan King is tied for first in the AAC with 102 total tackles and D.J. Woodbury Sr. is third with 98 total tackles.

Dante Wright leads the American with 6.78 receptions per game and 88.0 receiving yards per game.

Game 12: Temple (3-8, 2-5) vs. North Texas (5-6, 2-5) Lincoln Financial Field | Philadelphia, PA November 30, 2024 | 12 p.m. ET

THIS WEEK

Temple concludes its 2024 season at Lincoln Financial Field against the North Texas Mean Green on Saturday, November 30. Kickoff is set for 12:00pm and will air on ESPN+.

SENIOR CITIZENS

Temple will honor the following 20 players on Senior Day: WR John Adams, WR Ashton Allen, SAF A.J. Anderson, DE Diwun Black, TE James Della Pesca, SAF Elijah Deravil, OL James Faminu, DT Latrell Jean, WR Shekuna Kamara, SAF Andreas Keaton, LB Tyquan King, LS Andrew McIlquham, CB Ben Osueke, OL Wisdom Quarshie, CB Torey Richardson, WR Cole Sprague, DE Tra Thomas, K Maddux Trujillo, LB D.J. Woodbury, WR Dante Wright. Faminu, King, Osueke, Sprague, and Thomas have remaining eligibility and can possibly return.

LAST WEEK

The Owls fell to UTSA in San Antonio last week, 51-27. Roadrunners RB Robert Henry rushed for 178 yards and found the end zone twice. QB Owen McCown completed 20-27 passes for 220 yards and two touchdowns passing and a rushing touchdown of his own.

Temple WR Dante Wright hauled in five passes for 128 yards and two touchdowns. Wright now has 100 receptions in his two years with the Owls, which puts him 16th on the Temple all-time receptions list. RB Antwain Littleton led Temple on the ground, finishing the game with 64 yards and a touchdown.

Temple LB D.J. Woodbury Sr. had himself a day, as he notched his first career interception midway through the second quarter. The senior caught the deflected pass and returned the ball 42 yards. Woodbury also recorded a sack and 13 total tackles, three of which went for a loss.

LAST TIME VS. NORTH TEXAS

Temple fell to North Texas last season in Denton in what was the two teams' first-ever meeting. Mean Green WR Jay Maclin had an impressive day, catching two touchdowns and totaling 163 receiving yards on six receptions. Additionally, QB Chandler Rogers went 25-39 for 307 passing yards and four touchdowns.

Owls' QB Quincy Patterson used his legs throughout the game, rushing for 113 yards and finding the end zone on the ground. Defensively, CB Dominick Hill led the game in total tackles with 15, 10 of which were solo tackles.

UP NEXT

This week's game against North Texas will conclude the 2024 Temple Football season.

All interview requests for players, coaches or staff members should be directed to the Football Communications staff.

Weekly Football Release

To access Temple's weekly football release, please visit www.OwlSports.com. The weekly release will include updated game notes, schedule, depth chart, and game-by-game wrap-ups. Team and individual statistics will be posted to the website as well.

Weekly Press Conference

Interim Head Coach Everett Withers' weekly media press conference will take place on Mondays at noon. Please contact the football communications office if you plan on attending.

Credentials

There will be limited media access inside Lincoln Financial Field, both on the field and in the press box.

All credential requests for home games must be made through Football Communications. Game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to the game. Local media requesting credentials for a road game must have that request into Football Communications two weeks prior to the contest (preceding Monday).

Media Parking

Media parking at Lincoln Financial Field is available on a limited basis. Please contact Rich Burg in Football Communications at (215) 204-0876 for availability.

Taxi Cabs

For transportation to and from Lincoln Financial Field, it is suggested that you call either Checker Cab Co. at (215) 744-8294 or Olde City Taxi at (215) 338-0838.

Media Will-Call / Entrance

Media attending games at Lincoln Financial Field must enter on the west side of the stadium (facing 11th St.) across from the Wells Fargo Center. Credentials left at will-call must be picked up at that entrance only.

TEMPLE TUFF

Wearing a single-digit jersey is considered to be one of the highest honors an Owl can earn and it is voted upon by the players on the team. Ian Stewart is the only returning single-digit player from 2023. He is joined by eight new single-digit Owls this season: Although the NCAA prohibits offensive linemen from wearing numbers outside of 50-79 in a game, they are eligible as well but only wear their awarded numbers at practice. Here is a list of Temple's TUFF Guys:

THIS WEEK

IF I TOLD YOUR ONCE, I TOLD YOU 100 TIMES

Any time something happens 100 times it's a pretty big deal. Last week Dante Wright passed the 100-reception plateau in his career at Temple. The wide receiver has 100-career catches as an Owl giving him 221 for his career (he came to Temple with another 121 catches in four seasons at Colorado State).

Tyquan King, in only eight starts at MLB, eclipsed the 100-tackle mark with his 102nd tackle of the season at UTSA. D.J. Woodbury, is expected to join him this week, entering the North Texas game with 98 tackles in the first 11 games.

REWRITING THE RECORD BOOKS

Speaking of Wright, he has been a massive addition to the Temple family since transferring from Colorado State to North Broad Street. Last week's two-touchdown performance marked a career-high for touchdowns in a single game and marked his first multi-touchdown game as an Owl. He eclipsed the 100 receiving-yard threshold for the fourth time this season last week, tallying 128 yards against the Roadrunners. His 6.78 receptions and 88.0 receiving yards per game lead the American Athletic Conference.

Wright has caught nine touchdown passes in just two seasons as an Owl. One more touchdown pass would be the first time an Owl scored double-digit touchdown passes in a career since Branden Mack's 15 career touchdowns from 2017-2020, which took four seasons to accomplish. Before Mack, Robbie Anderson caught 16 touchdown passes in four seasons.

THE 1-2 COMBO

Tyquan King has proven himself as a top linebacker in the AAC. The redshirt junior took massive strides since transferring to Temple after only playing one game last season at East Carolina (vs. eventual National Champion Michigan). Since making it to Temple, he's now tied for first in the American with 102 total tackles and ranks third in solo tackles. Alongside King, D.J. Woodbury Sr. sits atop the AAC in the tackles category. The senior is third in the conference with 98 total tackles and leads the American with 62 solo tackles.

IT'S A SMALL WORLD AFTER ALL

When Temple kicks off against North Texas this week, it will mark the second time the Owls play a team from Texas this season.

The Owls fell 51-27 to UTSA last week, making it back-to-back weeks playing a team from Texas. In fact, this is the second time Temple will play multiple teams from the same state this season. The Owls opened their season at Oklahoma and later defeated Tulsa 20-10 on homecoming.

Last season, the Owls faced three teams from Texas in three consecutive weeks. Temple hosted UTSA on Oct. 7, traveled to North Texas on Oct. 14 and returned home to play SMU under the Friday night lights on Oct. 20. Temple also played two teams from Florida last season, falling to #20 Miami and USF.

TEAM

TEMPLE TUFF

The phrase "Temple Tuff" is synonymous with the fight and grit of Temple's football team. However, it was coined by legendary Temple basketball coach John Chaney whose teams also were noted for their hard-nosed, lunch-pail passion by which they played. An ever-present figure on Temple's campus, Chaney passed away on January 29, 2021.

POWER 5 PIECES

All three of Temple's coordinators this season have coaching experience at the Power 5 level. OC Danny Langsdorf has coached at Oregon State, Nebraska, Oregon, and Colorado. DC Everett Withers has coached at Texas, North Carolina, Minnesota, and Ohio State. STC Adam Scheier has coached at Wake Forest, Ohio State, Texas Tech, Mississippi, and Rutgers. Temple is the only school in the AAC to have its three coordinators all previously hold their coordinator position at the Power 5 level. In addition to the coordinators, 14 players on Temple's 2024 roster have played at Power 5 schools (DE Diwun Black, DT Allan Haye, WR Kajiya Hollawayne, CB Jaylen Lewis, RB Antwain Littleton, OL Grayson Mains, LS Andrew McIlquham, DT K.J. Miles, TE Landon Morris, SAF Javier Morton, QB Evan Simon, DE Cam'Ron Stewart, WR Ian Stewart, and LB T.K. Wright).

JUCO JAM

Temple features 14 former junior college players on its 2024 roster, with many expected to receive significant playing time: OL Diego Barajas, DE Diwun Black, QB Forrest Brock, SAF Elijah Deravil, WR Kajiya Hollawayne, DE Sekou Kromah, OL Linus Lindberg, OL Mause Palu, DT Khalil Poteat, LB Eric Stuart, LB Katin Surprenant, CB Ben Osueke, OL Chris Smith, and DE Tra Thomas.

UNITED NATIONS

Temple has eight countries represented on this year's roster, the most for foreign countries represented by any school in the FBS. Australia (P Dante Atton), Canada (OLs Melvin Siani and Davray Venu), England (TE Peter Clarke and OL James Faminu), Germany (TE Daniel Evert), Nigeria (CB Ben Osueke), Sweden (OL Linus Lindberg), Tonga (OL Mause Palu), and the United States.

WHO'S YOUR DADDY

Temple has two players whose fathers have played in the NFL. DT K.J. Miles is the son of Keith Miles, who played professionally for the Seattle Seahawks. Freshman LB Tyree Alualu's father Tyson is recently retired after playing for the Jaguars, Steelers and Lions.

BROTHERLY LOVE

SAF Ihsim Smith-Marssette's brother, Ihmir, was a fifth round pick for the Minnesota Vikings in the 2021 NFL Draft and won a Super Bowl with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2023. He currently plays for the New York Giants.

PICK-SIX

Just six student-athletes remain on the roster from the time Stan Drayton took over as head coach in December 2021 - WRs John Adams and Zae Baines, TE James Della Pesca, DL Demerick Morris, OL Wisdom Quarshie, and LB D.J. Woodbury.

DO I KNOW YOU FROM SOMEWHERE?

With the progress of the transfer portal in college football, it has become more prevalent that players will matchup against their former team. This season, however, Temple signed players from within the American Athletic Conference. LB Tyquan King previously played for East Carolina, and DT Latrell Jean played at Florida Atlantic.

EVERETT WITHERS

RIGHT HAND MAN

Withers originally joined Temple Football in January 2022 where he supported Stan Drayton in all aspects of the program as the Chief of Staff. Withers, who was an offensive analyst with the Texas Longhorns in 2020, reunited with Drayton and Arthur Johnson, Temple's vice president and director of athletics. Withers came to Temple after serving the 2021 season as assistant head coach for FIU football under Butch Davis.

NOT HIS FIRST RODEO

Withers is familiar with being placed into a head coaching position during the middle of the season. As Chief of Staff with Temple, Withers took over gameday responsibilities at Navy in 2022 when Drayton was sidelined with a viral infection. The Owls fell in a dramatic 27-20 overtime loss at Navy-Marine Corps Stadium in Annapolis, Md.

In 2011, Withers took over as interim head coach at UNC and led the Tar Heels to an Independence Bowl appearance.

HEAD OF THE TABLE

Alongside his experience as an interim head coach at UNC and filling in for Drayton in 2022, Withers has served as a head coach at Texas State (2016-18) and former FCS powerhouse James Madison (2014-15).

During his time at Texas State, Withers headed a cultural transformation of the football program that featured renovations and upgrades in the team's End Zone Complex, new uniforms and helmets, and new lockers in the locker room. Texas State's football players improved on the field, succeeded in the classroom at a record-setting pace, and performed community service in San Marcos and Hays County.

At James Madison, he guided the Dukes to an 18-7 record, including a 12-4 record in the Colonial Athletic Association and a pair of NCAA FCS playoff appearances. JMU won a share of a CAA championship in 2015, the school's first conference title since 2008.

For his efforts with the Dukes in 2014, Withers was also named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson FCS Coach of the Year Award.

OWL SCHOLARS

In an effort to recognize the outstanding academic accomplishments of Temple University's student-athletes, Temple Athletics introduced the Owl Scholars Program in the Fall of 2016. Through team apparel, student-athletes on all of Temple's 19 sports regularly have the opportunity to wear items that represent their athletic lives while on campus or in the classroom; the Owl Scholars Program aims to accomplish the reverse - provide an easily identifiable symbol of academic success for student-athletes to wear on their respective field or court of competition.

The Owl Scholars Patch has been designed to pay homage to the rich history of the Temple

Owls, while invoking images of the infamous speech of Temple University's founder Russell Conwell, Acres of Diamonds. The three stars above the regal owl symbolize the three different ways a student-athlete can earn the honor of having the patch included on their uniform/game warm-up:

- 1) 3.0 semester GPA in previous term
- 2) 3.0 cumulative GPA prior to beginning of semester
- 3) Successfully completed his/her undergraduate degree at Temple

Fifty-one football players will wear the patch this season.

Offense

LANGS LOVES OFFENSE

Danny Langsdorf was named offensive coordinator and quarterback coach for Temple Football in January 2022. He came to Temple after serving two seasons as pass game coordinator and quarterback coach at Colorado. In 2022, Langsdorf oversaw true freshman starting quarterback, E.J. Warner who registered one of the best campaigns in Temple history. Langsdorf has 27 years of experience on the collegiate and professional levels, all on the offensive side of the ball augmented by some extensive special teams coaching. He has 16 years of Power 5 conference experience, including 12 as an offensive coordinator.

OSCILLATING O-LINE

In 2022, Temple started a different offensive line combination from the previous week in all 12 games. In 2023, the Owls were only able to start the same five twice. In the 24 games over those two seasons, 14 players earned at least one start and each position had no less than three starters - RT (3), RG (4), C (4), LG (9), LT (5). In all, Temple started 19 different combinations.

NEW FACE IN THE HUDDLE

For the first time since 2017, Temple does not have a returning quarterback with at least one start in a Temple uniform. In 2016, P.J. Walker, a four-year starter at QB for the Owls, started every game en route to the AAC Championship. Temple has had a revolving door at the position since, with E.J. Warner's 20 starts leading the pack since that time. Redshirt junior Forrest Brock is the only QB on the roster who has seen game action for Temple (one game at Temple, 10 JUCO games) and Evan Simon's two FBS starts for Rutgers (16 games overall) headline the QB room's experience.

HARD WORK PAYS OFF

Being a walk-on is no easy task. It's a selfless position, often requiring players to do whatever they can to help the team win. However, as a walk-on, there is always the possibility that hard work can lead to an eventual scholarship. On August 19, this became a reality for wide receiver John Adams. Adams has faced many challenges in his three seasons at Temple. A coaching change, limited playing time, and most significantly, a devastating leg injury sustained last November. Despite the adversity, Adams never gave up. He worked hard each day to improve, even through the injury. Now fully healthy, Adams is poised to make an impact on the offense this year, and he'll be doing so as a scholarship player.

YOU CAN'T BUY SPEED

Graduate wide receiver Ashton Allen comes to Temple from the University of Southern California, where he was a member of the track and field team. The Maryland native won a national championship as part of USC's 4x100 relay team but wanted to take on a new challenge for his final year of NCAA eligibility. Despite not having played football competitively since high school, Allen has seamlessly fit in on the gridiron. He has shown the team glimpses of what he brings to the table, using his speed to beat defenders and haul in long gains numerous times throughout fall camp. While nothing compares to the intensity of a game, Allen appears ready for the challenge.

BIG PLAY OFFENSE

When Evan Simon connected with Dante Wright for a 91-yard touchdown vs. Utah State it was more than just the longest pass and reception in each of their careers. The play was the second longest pass play and third longest play from scrimmage in Temple history exceeded only by a 96-yard pass from Lee Saltz to Keith Gloster (at Cincinnati, 1985) and a 94-yard run by Jager Gardner (at SMU, 2015).

Defense

EVERETT'S ELITE D

Everett Withers enters his second season as Temple's defensive coordinator. In 2022, he served as chief of staff during Stan Drayton's first year at Temple. He briefly left for an on-field position at FAU in January 2023, but returned to replace D.J. Eliot when he took a job with the Philadelphia Eagles. Withers brings 35 years of coaching experience and his pedigree includes coaching stops at Texas, North Carolina, Ohio State, Minnesota and Louisville, as well as time with multiple NFL teams. Additionally, Withers has experience as a head coach, holding that position at Texas State, James Madison, and North Carolina.

D-BOW WITH THE DBS

Dominique Bowman joined the Temple coaching staff in 2022 when he coached the cornerbacks. Following that season, Stan Drayton made the decision to have Bowman coach all the defensive backs, including the safeties as well. (The subsequent move was to hire an additional defensive line coach.)

NEW LOOK SECONDARY

Speaking of the secondary, Temple's defensive backs will look much different this season. Although a few key players are returning, including cornerback Ben Osueke and safety Elijah Deravil, much of the defensive back room is new to Temple. Transfer safety Andreas Keaton earned a single-digit and is expected to start at safety, while transfer cornerbacks Torey Richardson and Jamel Johnson are breaking camp as the Owls' top two corners.

There's a common saying in sports that if you look good, you play good. DL Demerick Morris has done his part in helping his teammates achieve this by becoming the Owls' unofficial team barber. The redshirt junior learned how to cut hair just one year ago. Morris has honed the craft so well that he even cuts his own hair now.

Special Teams

ISN'T THAT SPECIAL

Adam Scheier joined the Temple Football staff in January, 2022, as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. A native of Bronx, N.Y., Scheier brought 26 years of collegiate coaching experience to Temple, including the previous 22 working with special teams. In 2023, Scheier had standouts in each of his rooms. TEs David Martin-Robinson and Jordan Smith emerged as dangerous targets and developed into pro players, Martin-Robinson was a UDFA with the Titans and Smith earned a tryout with his hometown Dolphins. On special teams, Sam Martin returned a kickoff for a touchdown and earned All-AAC recognition.

AUTOMADDUX

Senior kicker Maddux Trujillo set multiple records with a 64-yard FG in Temple's Week 4 win against Utah State. Not only did Trujillo break the school record of 56 yards set by Don Bitterlich in 1975 at Akron, but it also became the longest FG made in the history of Lincoln Financial Field, surpassing Philadelphia Eagles kicker Jake Elliott's two 61-yard FGs. The senior kicker is now tied for the eighth longest FG in NCAA history and holds the longest made try since 2009.

ANIMAL HOUSE

National Lampoon's Animal House movie was based on writer Chris Miller's fraternity experiences at Adam Scheier's alma mater Dartmouth College. It's title can also describe Scheier's residence. Due in part to his wife, Erica, being a veterinarian and his family's love of animals, the Scheier compound has nearly 20 animals. This menagerie includes dogs, cats, pigs, hedgehogs, lizards, turtles, hamsters, rabbits, and birds. Most of the aforementioned critters have been named after players along Scheier's coaching journey. Edward Saydee became the first Temple player to have an animal named after him, as the Scheier family adopted a dog named Saydee after a win over USF in 2022.

WHAT'S THIS

Sophomore punter Dante Atton came to Temple from Australia. The unique part of Atton's story is that prior to 2023, he had never played a snap of organized football in his life. When he took the field for the Owls as a freshman, it was the first time he had ever punted in a football game.

GIVING BACK

Embracing the Temple TUFF mentality is an important aspect. Each letter represents a part of being Temple TUFF, with the "U" standing for unselfish. There may be no one who has embodied this characteristic more than LS Andrew McIlquham. McIlquham was recently named to the watchlist for the AFCA Good Works Team, which recognizes 22 student-athletes and a head coach for community service each season. Additionally, McIlquham has been named to the Wuerffel Trophy Watchlist, given to the FBS player who best exemplifies community service as well as leadership, both on and off the playing field. The award winners will be announced in September and December, respectively.

Miscellaneous

BUILDING THE WHOLE MAN

Stan Drayton preaches the importance of building the whole man. This includes work on and off the football field. Four Owls took that message to heart, working over the summer prior to the season. OL Wisdom Quarshie worked for the Philadelphia 76ers as a Ticket Sales Intern. TE James Della Pesca worked for Slight Edge as an Account Manager. LS Andrew McIlquham worked for Temple Sports Properties as a Client Activation Intern. OL Jackson Pruitt worked for Adobe as a Student Ambassador.

GOLD JACKET

For the third consecutive year, Temple University had an alumnus earn his place in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. In 2022, Art McNally became the first-ever official to earn a spot. In 2023, Joe Klecko became the first former player to be inducted. Klecko was a star defensive lineman for the Owls from 1973 to 1976, leading the team in tackles for his last three seasons and earning various collegiate honors. During his 12 seasons in the NFL with the New York Jets and Indianapolis Colts, Klecko earned four Pro Bowl selections, All-Pro selections in 1981 and 1985, and 1981 NFL Defensive Player of the Year. Now in 2024, Merrill Reese, who worked at WRTI as a student cutting his teeth in the broadcast industry, has earned his Gold Jacket. Reese worked at Temple's student radio station before a 40+ year career as "the Voice of the Philadelphia Eagles."

A NEW ERA

On July 31, 2023, Temple University officially unveiled its new athletics logo, signaling a reinvigorated era in North Philadelphia. The cherry and white logo incorporates Temple's traditional "T" above a new Owl mark, encased in a diamond outline. The new athletics logo is Temple made, originating from designs conceived by students and professors at the Tyler School of Art and Architecture.

JUST DO IT.

In the summer of 2020, Temple Athletics signed a three-year deal with Nike which makes it the official outfitter of Temple Athletics. The agreement, which was extended in 2023, makes Nike the exclusive athletics footwear, apparel and accessories provider for the football team as well as the other 18 varsity sports.

YOU CAN'T RECOGNIZE US WITHOUT CAMOUFLAGE

The American Athletic Conference is changing once again in 2024. In 2023, following the departure of Cincinnati, Central Florida, and Houston, the conference shifted from 11 total teams to 14, with the addition of Charlotte, Florida Atlantic, North Texas, Rice, UAB, and UTSA. With SMU's departure this year, the conference added Army as a football only member.

HEAD COACH U

NFL head coach Todd Bowles (Tampa Bay) used Temple as a stepping stone on his path to the NFL. Bowles played for the Owls from 1981-1985. From 2010-2018, Temple placed five straight head coaches into higher paying jobs: Al Golden, Steve Addazio, Matt Rhule, Geoff Collins, and Manny Diaz. Ohio State's Ryan Day, one of the top FBS head coaches, was part of the Owls staff for the 2006 and 2012 seasons. Matt Rhule, who spent two-and-a-half seasons as the head coach of the Carolina Panthers, was hired by Nebraska in 2023.

DID YOU KNOW...

Temple holds an 87-year-old NCAA college football record? In 1937, Temple played in an NCAA-record four scoreless tie games in one season. No school has matched that since.

Media Hub

The American Athletic Conference maintains a comprehensive online hub designed to assist members of the media in their coverage of The American and its member football programs.

The media hub will be updated daily and will contain links to the most recent media sessions of coaches and student-athletes as they are made available. The hub will also list the weekly media schedule for each American team and will link to media guides and weekly game notes.

Weekly Release & Statistics

Media members may access PDF versions of the complete weekly release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, on TheAmerican.org. Regular updates of the weekly release will be distributed via e-mail from the conference office. To be included on the distribution list, send an e-mail request to Chuck Sullivan.

Conference Championship Game

The date of the American Athletic Conference Championship is set for December 6, 2024. With the removal of the East and West divisions, the top two overall team from the conference will play against each other in the Conference Championship Game.

TEMPLE AT A GLANCE...

Temple is in the 4th largest media market in the country, with over 2.9 million TV homes according to Nielsen. The designated market area (DMA) is 7.6 million.

Temple is located in a region of 6.25 million people, and is only 95 miles from NYC and 120 miles from Washington, D.C. In fact, more than 40% of the US population is within a day's drive from Philadelphia.

Founded in 1884, Temple is among the top 50 largest public universities in the country with over 30,000 students. Temple has more than 600 academic programs including five professional schools of law, medicine, dentistry, pharmacy, and podiatry.

For nearly a decade, Temple has been recognized as an R1 research institution by the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education. The classification is given out only to institutions that demonstrate the "highest research activity" which is roughly the top 4% of colleges and universities in the United States.

Temple University placed No. 89 in the 2023 "Best Colleges" U.S. News and World Report ranking of National Universities. This marks the highest ranking ever for the university and the first time Temple has been included in the Top 100. The university has an overall graduation rate of 75%, and has a full time retention rate for undergraduate students at 84%.

Temple is one of 13 FBS institutions in the country with an average APR of 990 or greater since 2015-16.

Temple's GSR (Graduation Success Rate) is 94 which is tied for 20th among all FBS institutions. That score is tied for second in the American Athletic Conference and one of just eight outside of the Power 5 with a GSR of 94-or-better.

Temple has over 370,000 alumni around the world including just under 200,000 alumni that live in the Philadelphia DMA.

Temple's athletic department has 19 sports and 500 student-athletes.

Temple has been bowl eligible six out of the last 11 years. The Owls finished 10-4, won the AAC Eastern Division and were ranked in the Top 25 twice in the past decade. They won the AAC Championship in 2016 and the Gasparilla Bowl in 2017.

Temple posted the largest attendance gain during the 2015 season, playing in front of an average home crowd of 44,159, an increase of 20,789 per game. This excitement led ESPN to bring their popular pregame show, College Gameday, to Philadelphia.

The Temple game played against Notre Dame in 2015 had a 3.9 national rating and an 18.1 local rating. It was ABC's highest ranking game ever in the Philadelphia area, which is impactful given the market is the fourth largest in the country.

Temple's athletic facilities are among the finest in the country. The football team plays its games in the NFL stadium operated by Super Bowl LII Champion Philadelphia Eagles. The basketball arena is a state-of-the-art facility with a capacity crowd of 10,000. Over the last five years Temple has spent over $50 million for athletics multipurpose facilities with all the athletic facilities being state-of-the-art.

The University itself has over $400 million planned for capital projects over the next five years including a $170 million state of the art library that opened in 2020.

Temple had a school record four players get drafted into the NFL in 2020: Matt Hennessy (Falcons), Harrison Hand (Vikings), Shaun Bradley (Eagles), and Chapelle Russell (Buccaneers) - with four more players getting signed as undrafted free agents. Temple is the only team outside of the Power 5 conferences to have multiple players drafted to the NFL from 2016-20. In all, Temple has 14 current players in the NFL, the most of any school outside of the Power 5. Thirteen of the league's 32 teams will sport some Cherry and White this season. Furthermore, when adding coaches and team personnel into the equation, there are over 50 people in the NFL with ties to Owl Nation.

2024 was the ninth straight year that Temple sent at least one player to the NFL. That marks the second longest streak in school history – Temple sent players to the NFL in every year from 1979-89.

The 2019 Temple Linebacker room had seven NFL players on its unit. The starters were Shaun Bradley, Sam Franklin and Chapelle Russell. Backups included Isaiah Graham Mobley (Panthers), William Kwenkeu (Vikings), and freshmen Jordan Magee (Commanders) and Yvandy Rigby (Ravens). Bradley (Eagles), Magee, and Russell (Buccaneers) were drafted and the others signed as undrafted free agents.

QUARTERBACKS

Quarterbacks coach and offensive coordinator Danny Langsdorf oversees the unit in his third season with the Owls. He came to Temple by way of Colorado, where he served as the pass game coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and has NFL experience with the Giants and Saints. The unit will look different from Langsdorf's first two seasons when E.J. Warner started 20 of the 24 games..

Evan Simon has the most FBS experience of the group. He made two starts and played in 16 games overall from 2020-23 for Rutgers. The Mount Joy, Pa., native made his first collegiate start at Lincoln Financial Field against Temple. Simon started in three straight games for the Owls, throwing for six touchdowns against Utah State. He reclaimed the starting duties in Week 8 against Tulsa.

The only man in the room with game experience for Temple prior to this season is Forrest Brock. He played in one game for the Owls in 2023 while Warner was injured. The Topanga, Calif., was a JUCO transfer who racked up over 2,000 yards and 16 TDs for Santa Monica CC in 2022. He opened the season as the starter but missed the next three games due to injury.

Redshirt freshmen Tyler Douglas and Patrick Keller joined the team in the 2023. Douglas was part of the 2023 recruiting class and was a mid-year enrollee who participated in spring practice. Keller was a walk-on.

Chris Dietrich [Sparta, NJ / Pope John XXIII] was part of the 2024 recruiting class.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Tyron Carrier begins his first season as wide receivers coach at Temple. The Houston native and University of Houston product, has spent his nine-year coaching career at Baylor, West Virginia, Texas A&M, Grambling State and his alma mater.

Dante Wright, a 2023 transfer from Colorado State, earned a single-digit during this year's fall camp. Wright was the Owls leading receiver a year ago with 39 receptions for 507 yards and four touchdowns. A Freshman All-American in 2019 when he had 57 catches for 805 yards and four touchdowns, Wright added additional national recognition in 2024 with preseason All-AAC accolades.

Temple added three transfers in 2024 with two of them having played for Carrier at Grambling State. Antonio Jones played in 11 games in 2023 and registered a career-high 43 catches for 595 yards. Kajiya Hollawayne was a former quarterback recruit for UCLA in 2021 but has since moved on to wide receiver at Grambling State and Riverside CC. Ashton Allen was a sprinter at USC for the past four years and chose to transfer to Temple and return to football in his final year of eligibility.

Zae Baines, a redshirt junior, gained valuable experience over the past two seasons earning 10 starts in 2023. He finished with 36 catches for 442 yards and one score.

Graduate Ian Stewart came to Temple from Michigan State in 2022 but missed most of his first two seasons due to injury. Stewart has impressed on and off the field, earning a single-digit for the 2023 season. Unfortunately, the snake-bitten Stewart suffered a season-ending injury on the final day of summer practices.

John Adams, a former walk-on, earned a scholarship during fall camp. The redshirt junior fought through great adversity after suffering a devastating leg injury last season. Adams adds size to the receiving room, and plays a large role for the offense.

Reese Clark was the first commitment for the 2022 class. After redshirting in 2022, he saw limited action at a crowded position in 2023 managing 18-145-1TD. Clark, originally a tight end, moved to the wide receiver room during the 2024 season.

Two valuable walk-ons - Shekuna Kamara and Elias Collins (2022), add depth to the position.

The Owls invested heavily in the position adding much needed speed during the 2023 recruiting cycle. Preston Everhart, Xavier Irvin and Kian Johnson all redshirted a year ago but only Irvin saw game action.

Xavier Bryan-Boothe, JoJo Huntley, Kyle Madden and Cole Sprague joined the Owls as walk-ons during 2023.

Bryson Goodwin [Tampa, FL / Jesuit], Tyler Stewart [Gray, GA / Jones County] and Jamar Taylor Jr. [Lakeland, Fla. / Lakeland] were all part of the 2024 recruiting class. Stewart assumed the role of returning punts after Dante Wright left the game in Week 8 against Tulsa.

RUNNING BACKS

Running backs coach Tyree Foreman returned to Temple in 2023 after stops at Tennessee Tech and Towson. Foreman spent the 2007-14 seasons at Temple helping Bernard Pierce re-write the Temple rushing record book.

The running back group received a makeover this offseason. Gone are the top two rushers - Edward Saydee and Darvon Hubbard - and just two pieces remain.

Jquez Smith joined the Owls in the 2023 recruiting class and saw his first game action against Rutgers in Week 2, leading to his first start the following week against Norfolk State. That was his coming out party, rushing for 142 yards and adding a 15-yard TD reception.

The 2024 transfer portal additions are: Antwain Littleton and Terrez Worthy. Littleton enters 2024 with the most experience. He played in 26 games for Maryland rushing for 708 yards and nine TDs. While Littleton is thunder, Worthy is lightening. Last season at Lakawanna, he eclipsed 100-yards in eight games, including a 342-yard, three-TD game against Nassau CC.

Darius Morant (Hempstead, N.Y. / Milford Academy) was added as a walk-on in the 2024 summer.

TIGHT ENDS

The tight end group is coached by special teams coordinator Adam Scheier. He came from Rutgers in 2022 where he was their special teams coordinator from 2020-21. The room lost Temple's all-time leading receiver at tight end, David Martin-Robinson, to the Tennessee Titans, as well as Jordan Smith.

Senior James Della Pesca has been a solid contributor at tight end and on special teams since his arrival in 2020. One of the leaders on the offense, Della Pesca earned a single-digit this season. He also enters 2024 having played in more games as an Owl (39) than anyone on the roster.

Peter Clarke was part of the 2023 recruiting class. He received the 2023 Efe Obada Community Impact Award which is the NFL Academy equivalent of the NFL's Walter

POSITION-BY-POSITION

Payton Man of the Year. As a freshman, he played in 11 games, mostly as a blocking tight end.

Landon Morris is a two-time transfer having spent the 2021 season with Indiana and 2022 at Utah. The redshirt junior sat out during the 2023 season but has now has three years remaining to play at Temple.

Daniel Evert (Regensburg, Germany / Albrecht-Altendorfer Gym.) was part of the 2024 recruiting class and participated in spring practices.

Kendell Gordon joined the team as a walk-on in 2023, and David Wise (Philadelphia, Pa. / Neumann-Goretti) walked-on in 2024.

OFFENSIVE LINE

For the third consecutive season and seventh of the last 11 years, the offensive line unit is mentored by Chris Wiesehan. He coached at Temple under Matt Rhule and Geoff Collins for five seasons before following Collins to Georgia Tech.

Since returning, Wiesehan has tried to mix-and-match a group and believes that he finally has the pieces to field a top-notch unit.

The literal centerpiece of that is Grayson Mains, a red-shirt-sophomore transfer portal pickup from South Carolina. He is expected to play center.

The future of Temple's o-line is tied to a core of young players recruited in 2023 and who cut their teeth in different ways as freshmen. Luke Watson started 10 games as a freshman at either left tackle or guard. Melvin Siani played in four games, including two starts at left tackle. Kevin Terry showed promise on the scout team and earned playing time midway through the season but was quickly injured. Eric King is the only one of the four who did not see game action as a freshman, but started at LG twice this season due to injury.

Wisdom Quarshie is an experienced lineman who started 24 games the past three seasons. He was originally recruited as a defensive tackle.

Temple added James Faminu via the transfer portal in 2022. He had five starts in 2022 at three different line positions (LT, LG, RG). He was ineligible in 2023.

Redshirt junior Jackson Pruitt and redshirt sophomore Kevin Smithwick each joined the team in 2022 and continue to add depth.

Temple signed Diego Barajas out of Laney CC in the early 2023 signing period and he made an impression during spring practices often lining up with the first unit. Following spring practice the Owls went right back to Laney and signed Barajas' linemate Chris Smith who has experience at all five line positions. Each played a bit in 2023 for Temple.

Temple did a similar thing in 2024 adding experienced JUCO transfers Linus Lindberg and Mausa Palu from the College of the Canyons.

The 2024 freshman class includes: Evan Dailey (Gahanna, Ohio / Gahanna Lincoln), Giakoby Hills (Morristown (N.J.) High), and Davray Venu (Montreal, Canada / John Abbott College).

Lucas Possenti (Aston, Pa./ Garnet Valley), Carter Sheehan (Duncansville, Pa. / Bishop Guilfoyle), and Shane Toolan (Philadelphia, Pa. / St. Joe's Prep) all joined the program as walk-ons in the 2024 summer.

DEFENSIVE TACKLES

Kevon Beckwith was added to the coaching staff in 2024 as the defensive tackles coach. The move coincided with the Owls converting to a 4-3 base defense. As such, Temple beefed up the interior of the defensive line in the offseason.

Demerick Morris was part of the 2020 recruiting class and is the elder statesman of the unit. He saw plenty of action in 2021-22 but suffered an injury late in the 2023 fall camp and was limited to just two games. Morris has been a vocal leader for the defensive line, earning a single-digit during fall camp.

The Owls added a pair of transfer portal additions in 2023 who battled through injuries in their first year in Cherry & White. Redshirt junior Allan Haye (Miami) was becoming a force inside when he suffered a season-ending injury. Red-shirt sophomore K.J. Miles (Georgia Tech) came to Temple with limited on-field experience and missed the entirety of 2023.

Those injuries allowed 2023 freshmen Conlan Greene and Tyrese Whitaker to get some early experience. Greene, in fact, started eight games as a freshman while Whitaker played in four.

Redshirt junior transfer Latrell Jean (FAU) has made an immediate impact for the Owls, earning a single-digit after joining the program only a few months ago. Entering the season, Jean has more college playing experience than anyone on the Owls roster (46 college games).

2024 portal additions also include redshirt sophomore Joseph Auzenne (Kilgore CC). Auzenne played in 11 JUCO games throughout his career. Junior Sekou Kromah started 11 games a year ago for Monroe College and tallied 15.5 TFLs.

Hugo Gil was added as a walk-on in 2023.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

Leading the defensive line again in 2024 is Larry Knight who returned to Temple in 2023 after coaching at Georgia Tech. Knight first came to Temple under Geoff Collins in 2017-18 and followed Collins to GT in 2019.

The playmakers on the defense come from this group. Both redshirt junior and single-digit Tra Thomas and redshirt-senior Diwon Black have a history of disruptive play. Thomas transferred from Independence CC in 2022 where he made 58 tackles, 10.0 TFLs, 3.0 sacks, in 17 games in 2021. After missing most of 2022 at Temple due to injury, he bounced back with nine starts in 2023 after being converted from line-backer to defensive end. Thomas was voted a single-digit during fall camp. Black starred at Mississippi Gulf Coast in 2019 leading them to a NJCAA championship. After a year at Florida, he came to Temple in 2023 and recorded 9.5 TFLs, 3.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in limited playing time.

Temple added two experienced members to the unit through the transfer portal. Junior Khalil Poteat arrives from Dodge City CC. Redshirt junior Cam'Ron Stewart played three seasons at Rutgers.

Jordan Montgomery was part of the 2023 recruiting class. He redshirted as a linebacker last season and is being converted into a defensive end.

Brandon Enarusai was added in 2023 as a walk-on.

SINCE 2015, TEMPLE FOOTBALL HAS...

- Been bowl eligible for six out of nine seasons.
- Participated in five consecutive bowl games [Boca Raton (2015), Military (2016), Gasparilla (2017), Independence (2018), Military (2019)].
- Played in two American Athletic Conference Championship Games, winning in 2016.
- Beaten ranked teams in three consecutive seasons (2014-16) and again in consecutive seasons (2018-19).

2022

- Had a player - QB E.J. Warner - win the AAC Rookie of the Year.
- Had two players - Warner and CB Jalen McMurray earn Freshman All-America Honors.

2021

- Won conference opener versus Memphis.

2020

- Was the last team in the FBS to start its season due to COVID-19 (October 10).
- Became the earliest team in the FBS to end its season (November 28).

- Beat two ranked teams (#21 Maryland and #23 Memphis).
- Played four ranked teams.
- Beat two non-conference Power Five schools.
- Broke the program record for most offensive yards in a game (695 - Bucknell).

2018

- Had a player earn first-team All-American honors (Isaiah Wright).
- Beaten a ranked team at home (#20 Cincinnati).
- Posted the largest margin of victory ever against an FBS opponent (57-7 at UConn).
- Had a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher, and 100-yard receiver all in one game (UCF).
- Wright duplicated the feat of scoring via rush, receiving, punt return and kickoff return, becoming the only FBS player to do that in consecutive seasons in over a decade.

2017

- Had a player (Isaiah Wright) return a kickoff and punt for a TD in the same season (has not happened for Temple dating back to 2000). He also rushed, caught, and threw for a score becoming just the sixth player in 10 years to score those five separate ways.

2016

- Won three consecutive games on the road for the first time in 45 years.
- Posted back-to-back road game shutouts for the first time since 1925.
- Had three shutouts in a season for the first time since 1945.
- Won 20 games in a two-year span for the first time ever.
- Posted 10 wins for only the second and third times in program history (1979, 2015, 2016).

2015

- Beat Penn State for the first time in 74 years and 40 tries.
- Started a season 7-0 for the first time ever.
- Participated in bowl games in back-to-back years.
- Became ranked in the Top 25 for the first time since 1979 (36 years).
- Had ESPN's College Gameday broadcast a Temple football game for the first time ever...from Philadelphia, no less.
- Played in Temple's first-ever ranked vs. ranked football games - vs. Notre Dame and at Houston.
- Ranked in the Top 25 for four consecutive weeks and for seven weeks total - both for the first time ever.
- Had a national award winner - Tyler Matakevich with the Bronko Nagurski and Chuck Bednarik Award for the first time since 1974 (when Steve Joachim won the Maxwell Award).
- Had a player earn first-team All-American honors for the first time since 1986 (Matakevich).
- Beat a ranked team at home (#21 Memphis).
- Beat Cincinnati in 2015 for the first time in 30 years and six tries.

Sultan Badmus (Bowie (Md.) High), is a member of the 2024 recruiting class. The true freshman has impressed the coaching staff early in his collegiate career, earning significant playing time throughout the early season.

Cameron Jones (Lenardtown, Md. / St. Mary's Ryken) and Russell Sykes (Rolesville (N.C.) High) were also a part of the 2024 recruiting class.

Kabba Kamara (Sharon Hill, Pa. / Academy Park High School) joined the team as a walk-on in the 2024 summer.

LINEBACKERS

The linebackers are led by Chris Woods for the third consecutive season. This position has gone through a major transition with its three most active players all graduating, including Jordan Magee (Washington Commanders) and Yvandy Rigby (Baltimore Ravens) who moved onto the NFL.

D.J. Woodbury enters the season with the only significant playing time in an Owls' uniform. The senior earned a single-digit during fall camp. He was part of the 2020 recruiting class and focused on outside linebacker before making the switch inside in 2023. He was limited to just five games last year due to injury.

The 2022 recruiting class featured London Hall and Antwone Santiago, Both have seen limited action, mostly on special teams.

The transfer postal additions begin with Tyquan King and T.K. Wright. King was a productive player at North Carolina A&T his first two college seasons before spending 2023 at East Carolina. Wright was limited to two games in his first two seasons at NC State before transferring to Temple.

Temple went the JUCO route to bring in much needed experience to the position. Eric Staurt (Foothill College), and Katin Surprenant (Mt. San Antonio CC) come from California with plenty of experience. Stuart played in 17 games with 82 tackles; and Surprenant played in 11 games averaging 4.0 tackles per game.

The 2024 recruiting class brings in Tyree Alualu (Wexford, Pa. / North Allegheny) and Wesley Brown (Decatur, Ga. / Cedar Grove).

Reggie Jones and David Kpeglo were added as freshman walk-ons in 2023. Aidan Britton (Scranton (Pa.) Prep) and Solomon Tripline (Philadelphia, Pa. / Edgewater) became freshmen walk-ons in 2024.

CORNERBACKS

Dominique Bowman enters his second year coaching the cornerbacks after leading Arkansas' unit in 2022. This season he adds the safeties to his responsibilities as defensive backs coach.

A pair of JUCO transfers - Elijah Deravil (Coffeyville), who earned a single-digit during fall camp, and Ben Osueke (Blinn CC) - were added in previous seasons and bring experience. Deravil is making the switch from safety and Osueke started five games for the Owls a year ago.

The Owls were very aggressive in the transfer portal adding three corners from other schools - Jamel Johnson (Charleston Southern), Jaylen Lewis (Arkansas), and Torey Richardson (UTEP). Johnson started 18 of 19 games in the past two seasons and posted four interceptions as a freshman in 2022. Richardson started all 12 games for UTEP in 2023.

Darrell Sweeting and Aaron Anderson were added in 2023 and redshirted.

The 2024 recruiting class provided Denzel Chavis [Union City (N.J.) High] and Adrian Laing (North Bergen, N.J. / Paramus Catholic).

Quaire Locks (Philadelphia, Pa. / Neumann & Goretti High School) was added on a walk-on in 2024.

SAFETIES

Three players with big time college experience were added to the safety unit through the transfer portal. Andreas Keaton had been a tackling machine at Western Carolina and quickly established himself as a defensive leader once arriving at Temple. So much so, that Keaton was the top vote-getter from his teammates during the single-digit voting process. He started 11 games in each of the last three seasons at WCU and averaged more than 60 tackles.

Javier Morton (Nebraska) and Louis Frye (Northern Illinois) each played nearly 20 college games and provide experience for a young unit.

The Owls added two freshmen to the position in 2023 - Zyil Powell and Ihsim Smith-Marsette. Both redshirted but are expected to play a bigger role in 2024.

Temple added freshman Brandon Taylor as a walk-on in 2023, and doubled down with James Praessler and Jack Praessler as walk-ons in 2024. The Praessler brothers played at Council Rock North in Newtown, Pa. James played at Ursinus as a freshman in 2023 and Jack is a true freshman.

Tyrell Jones (Florida Atlantic) was joined the roster as a walk-on in the 2024 summer.

SPECIALISTS

The unit is led by Adam Scheier who joined Temple in 2022 after coaching nationally ranked specialists at Rutgers.

Although he never played a down of American football till joining Temple as a freshman in 2023, Dante Atton showed nerves of steel during his first season. Scheier has always been a proponent of rugby-style punting and has employed Aussie punters throughout his career.

Maddux Trujillo was signed as a graduate transfer and is an established kicker averaging over 80 points in the last three seasons at Austin Peay.

Carl Hardin walked-on as a freshman provides depth at both kicker and punter, while earning the kickoff chores.

Andrew McIlquham joined Temple as a walk-on in 2022 after spending a season at TCU. McIlquham is the team's primary longsnapper and earned a scholarship entering 2024. Redshirt-junior Bryan Noonan joined the Owls in 2023 after two seasons at Wagner.

Lucas Glassburn [Windermere (Fla.) High] was added as a walk-on in 2024.

EVERETT

Everett Withers rejoined Temple Football in March 2023, this time as defensive coordinator/outside linebackers coach. He spent the 2022 season with the Owls as Stan Drayton's chief of staff before briefly taking an on-field role at FAU as assistant head coach.

Withers originally joined Temple Football in January 2022 where he support Drayton in all aspects of the program. Withers, who was an offensive analyst with the Texas Longhorns in 2020, reunited with Drayton and Arthur Johnson, Temple's vice president and director of athletics. Withers came to Temple after serving the 2021 season as assistant head coach for FIU football under Butch Davis. He also served as the defensive coordinator and oversaw the defensive secondary.

Withers has served as a head coach at Texas State (2016-18), FCS powerhouse James Madison (2014-15) and UNC (2011), while also making additional prominent stops as an assistant coach with Texas twice (1998-2000 and 2020), Louisville, Minnesota, and Ohio State in the college ranks. In the NFL, Withers has coached with the Saints, Titans and most recently in 2019 with the Giants.

During his time at Texas State, Withers headed a cultural transformation of the football program that featured renovations and upgrades in the team's End Zone Complex, new uniforms and helmets, and new lockers in the locker room. Texas State's football players improved on the field, succeeded in the classroom at a record-setting pace, and performed community service in the city of San Marcos and Hays County.

Prior to his tenure at Texas State, Withers was the head coach at James Madison in 2014-15. He guided the Dukes to an 18-7 record, including a 12-4 record in the Colonial Athletic Association, and a pair of NCAA FCS playoff appearances. JMU won a share of a CAA championship in 2015, the school's first conference title since 2008, and finished third in the CAA in 2014 after being predicted to finish eighth. James Madison also set a school record with a 14-game, regular-season winning streak after the Dukes won the final seven games of the 2014 season and began the 2015 campaign with a 7-0 record. JMU also tied a school record by winning 10 straight CAA games. Withers was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson FCS Coach of the Year Award for his efforts with the Dukes.

In 2011, Withers took over as interim head coach at UNC and led the Tar Heels to an Independence Bowl appearance.

In addition to his head coaching resume, Withers was a defensive coordinator at Ohio State (2012-13) – where he first worked with Drayton - UNC (2008-10), Minnesota (2007) and Louisville (1995-97), while also serving as an assistant coach at Southern Miss (1992-93), Tulane (1991) and at Austin Peay (1988-90). Withers was a two-time Broyles Award nominee while an assistant coach at UNC. The veteran coach has also made his rounds in the NFL, coaching with the Giants (2019), Titans (2001-06) and Saints (1994) over his long career.

A native of Charlotte, N.C., Withers was a four-year letterman as a defensive back at Appalachian State playing for Mack Brown in 1983 before being named captain in 1984. He and his wife, Kara, have a daughter, Tia, and a son, Pierce.

On Sunday, November 17, Temple Athletics released the following statement...

PHILADELPHIA – Temple University Vice President/Debbie and Stanley Lefkowitz '65 Director of Athletics Arthur Johnson and head football coach Stan Drayton have announced that Drayton will no longer lead the Owl football program.

"I would like to extend my appreciation to Coach Drayton for his commitment to Temple University, our student-athletes and the football program over the past three years," Johnson said. "Under his direction, our student-athletes have excelled in the classroom, been outstanding members of the community and Coach Drayton has represented the University with a tremendous amount of integrity and class. I wish him and his family well in their future endeavors."

"With the changing landscape of college football and the playoff format, the opportunity for Temple football has never been greater. Our expectation is to compete for American Athletic Conference titles, appear in bowl games consistently, and build a program that our fans, alumni, and students can be proud of in the classroom and on the field. I am confident that our fans will rally around our student-athletes and support them as they always have."

"I appreciate the opportunity that I was given to lead a great group of young men at Temple University," Drayton said. "I wish them nothing but the best in football and in life."

Defensive coordinator Everett Withers has been named interim head coach for the remainder of the season.

AMERICAN BOWL LINEUP

American Athletic Conference teams are guaranteed at least seven bowl appearances annually as part of the conference's new postseason lineup, which began with the 2020 season and is in place through 2025. The American sent its champion to a New Year's Six bowl eight times in the last 10 seasons of the previous postseason structure. With a 12-team format in place, the American Athletic Conference teams are also eligible for the College Football Playoff if they are among the top 12 teams in the final CFP rankings.

As part of the current bowl cycle, The American will annually send teams to the Military Bowl against an Atlantic Coast Conference opponent, the Fenway Bowl in Boston, also against an ACC team, and a third annual spot which will alternate between the Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl and the Hawaii Bowl.

In the 2024 season, The American will additionally fill four spots from a group of eight bowls: the Birmingham Bowl, the Boca Raton Bowl, the Cure Bowl, the Frisco Bowl, the the New Mexico Bowl, the Myrtle Beach Bowl, the ServPro First Responder Bowl, and Union Home Mortgage Gasparilla Bowl.
