JOE HARASYMIAK - HEAD COACH

» Alma Mater:	Springfield College '08
» Hometown:	Waldwick, N.J.
» Record at UMass:	0-0 (First Season)
» Overall Record:	20-15 (at Maine/FCS)

Joe Harasymiak was named the 32nd head coach of the University of Massachusetts football program, as announced by Director of Athletics Ryan Bamford on December 4, 2024.

Harasymiak brings 17 years of coaching experience to the Minutemen, including seven seasons as the defensive coordinator at two FBS institutions: Minnesota (2018-21) and Rutgers (2022-24).

Harasymiak (pronounced hare-uh-SIM-ee-ack) has served as the Scarlet Knights' defensive coordinator for each of the past three seasons while also coaching the linebackers in 2024. He was a 2022 and 2023 Broyles Award nominee for the Scarlet Knights, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

Harasymiak and Rutgers finished the 2024 regular season with a 7-5 mark and the Scarlet Knights are poised to make second consecutive bowl appearance. In 2023, he helped Rutgers post its first winning season since 2014, including a win over Miami in the Bad Boy Mowers Pinstripe Bowl.

Prior to Rutgers, Harasymiak was at Minnesota, where he served as the defensive backs/safeties coach (2018-19) and as the co-defensive coordinator (2020-21). In 2021, Minnesota ranked third in the nation in total defense, and he helped the Golden Gophers to a 9-4 record, including a victory in the Guaranteed Rate Bowl. In 2019, Harasymiak's defensive unit included safety Antoine Winfield Jr., who was named a unanimous All-American and who went on to be drafted by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft. Harasymiak originally joined the Minnesota staff ahead of the 2018 Quick Lane Bowl.

Harasymiak advanced up the coaching ranks at Maine, starting as a defensive assistant/defensive backs coach in 2011 and working his way to serving as head coach from 2016-18. He led the Black Bears to the 2018 CAA Championship with a 7-1 conference record. Maine then advanced to the first Football Championship Subdivision national semifinal game in program history and finished the year with a 10-4 overall record. He was then named the 2018 FCS Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

A native of Waldwick, New Jersey, Harasymiak graduated from Springfield College in 2008 after playing defensive back for the Pride from 2004-07, setting the program record for career interceptions (17).
