Portland State opened up its running game in dramatic fashion, gaining 427 yards on the ground and averaging 11.2 yards per carry, in a rout of the Aggies. In a game delayed 36 minutes by lightning in the second quarter, the Vikings were lightning quick with six scoring drives that took only 26 plays and a cumulative 8:46 on the clock.

Running back DJ Adams led the Viking sprint, gaining 208 yards and two touchdowns on just 14 carries. Kieran McDonagh also rushed for two scores and threw two touchdown passes to Kasey Closs.

Portland State had 601 yards of total offense, and the defense was just as good, holding the Aggies to 258 yards of total offense and forcing 10 punts.

VIKINGS PLAN TO TURN IT AROUND IN BIG SKY OPENER

Heading into the Big Sky Conference opener this Saturday, the Portland State Vikings have yet to hit their stride. But, despite struggles both offensively and defensively, the next eight weeks are what matter the most for PSU.

The Vikings (1-3, 0-0) will host UC Davis (1-3, 0-1) in a 4:35 p.m. game Saturday at Providence Park. The game will be televised on Root Sports as the Big Sky Conference Game of the Week. It also airs on Rip City Radio 620 AM and www.ripcityradio.com. Live stats are available at www.vikslive.com and www.viksmobile.com.

This is the first of three games in which the Vikings appear on Root Sports (also Oct. 18 vs. Northern Arizona; Nov. 21 vs. Eastern Washington).

Portland State has shown flashes of brilliance through the first four games on both sides of the ball, but the consistency has yet to appear. And it has been an admittedly tough preseason schedule that featured two Pac-12 opponents. PSU's scoring (23.5) and total offense numbers (342.5) are well down from last year's averages (34.9, 540.5). The defense has also struggled against three strong passing teams (Oregon State, Western Oregon, Washington State) and a devastating triple-option running attack (Cal Poly). The result has been 42.0 points and 543.0 yards per game allowed.

UCD opened its Big Sky schedule last Saturday at home, facing second-ranked Eastern Washington. The Aggies kept it close early, trailing just 9-7 at halftime. But the Eagles pulled away in the second half for a 37-14 victory.

At 1-3, the Aggies have the same record and very similar statistical numbers to the Vikings in terms of yards gained and allowed, and points scored and allowed. UC Davis and Portland State rank 11th and 13th, respectively, in both points allowed and yardage allowed in the Big Sky Conference this season. Each team enters the game having lost two in a row. One of the two teams expects to get well and improve on offenses that rank in the lower half of the Big Sky statistical charts.

Although it has been a slow start for the Vikings, things are looking up in the coming weeks. PSU has beaten UC Davis in each of the last three meetings, including a 41-10 drubbing last year in Davis. The UCD game is the first of three out of five at home (PSU has played three of the first four on the road). PSU also comes off a bye week with extra rest and preparation.

Three of the upcoming five opponents finished behind the Vikings in last year's Big Sky standings (North Dakota, Idaho State, Weber State).

CAR GIVEAWAY THIS SATURDAY

Saturday's Big Sky Conference football game between Portland State and UC Davis at Providence Park will feature the Tonkin Touchdown Giveaway. For every touchdown scored by Portland State, a ticket-buying customer or current PSU student in attendance will receive a free two-year lease of a Tonkin Toyota.

Last year, Portland State scored six touchdowns against the Aggies in a 41-10 win at Davis, CA. The Vikings have scored 13 touchdowns in their first four games this season.

- After last season's loss to the Vikings (and an 0-4 start), UC Davis went on to win five of its final eight games, finishing 5-3 in the Big Sky.
- UCD running back Gabe Manzanares with the Big Sky Conference Newcomer of the Year in 2013.

SCOUTING UC DAVIS

Like the Vikings, UC Davis faced a pair of FBS level Division I teams in the preseason. The Aggies lost at Stanford and Colorado State, while beating Fort Lewis in a home game. Last week, UCD opened its Big Sky schedule with a 37-14 loss to second-ranked Eastern Washington.

Last year, the Aggies started the season at 0-4, but bounced back to go 5-3 in Big Sky Conference play. Overall, UC Davis averages 303.0 yards and 21.8 points per game, while giving up 484.5 yards and 37.0 points per game. The Aggies have been susceptible to the pass, allowing opponents 323.0 yards through the air per game and a total of 11 passing touchdowns.

A veteran offense includes eight seniors listed as starters and averages of 138 yards on the ground and 164 yards through the air. Senior quarterback London Lacy is finally getting his chance with the Aggies. He is 59-93 for 597 yards, three interceptions and four touchdowns this season.

Senior Colton Silveria leads the running attack with 49 carries for 258 yards and two touchdowns. Senior wideout Corey Galindo is the top receiver with 14 catches for 185 yards and three scores.

Last year's Big Sky Newcomer of the Year, running back Gabe Manzanares (1,258 yards, 10 TDs), has seen limited action and been ineffective due to a foot injury, carrying the ball 11 times for 22 yards in two games.

Safety Darryl Graham leads the defense with 24 tackles, a sack, an interception and a fumble recovery. Overall, the defense has forced seven turnovers.

The Aggie kicking game has struggled this year as Brady Stuart has made only 1-5 field goals.

LAST GAME: CAL POLY'S TRIPLE-OPTION RUNS OVER VIKINGS

Cal Poly rushed for 470 yards, gaining 531 total in a 42-14 victory over Portland State on Sept. 20 in San Luis Obispo.

The Mustangs built leads of 28-0 at halftime and 35-0 at the end of the third quarter as they cruised to a non-conference win.

CP quarterback Chris Brown had a big day, rushing for 159 yards and two touchdowns on 12 carries. He also completed 4-7 passes for 61 yards and another touchdown.

PSU had only 165 yards of total offense through three quarters before putting together a pair of scoring drives in the fourth. FR RB Steven Long rushed for a 27-yard touchdown - the first of his PSU career - and SR WR Roston Tatum caught a 17-yard TD pass from Kieran McDonagh.

The Vikings finished with 286 yards of offense.

PORTLAND STATE IN THE BIG SKY CONFERENCE

Portland State begins its 19th season as a member of the Big Sky Conference this week after moving up from Division II in 1996. The Vikings have never won the Big Sky title, but have finished second three times. PSU's all-time Big Sky record is 60-79.

PSU was picked to place 8th in the Big Sky Conference's preseason coaches and media polls.

Here is a look at PSU results over the past 18 years.

HEAD COACH NIGEL BURTON

Nigel Burton is in his fifth season on Park Blocks in 2013, leading the Viking program. A former assistant coach at Portland State (2001-02), and most recently the defensive coordinator at the University of Nevada (2008-09), Nigel Burton was named Portland State Head Football Coach on December 8, 2009.

In his first four seasons, Burton has returned the Vikings to conference and national relevancy. PSU was 7-4 in 2011, improving by five wins over 2010. As a result, Burton is a National Coach of the Year finalist.

Burton is the 13th head coach in the history of Portland State football.

After his previous experience at Portland State, Burton moved on to Oregon State, where he spent five years as the secondary coach (2003-07), developing a reputation as one of the top recruiters on the west coast for a top level Pac-10 program.

Although Portland State has always been at the forefront of progress, hiring its first African-American Head Football Coach in 1973 (Ron Stratten), the 38-year-old Burton became the first African American Head Coach in the Big Sky Conference.

Burton brings a distinctive offense (The Pistol) from his experience at Nevada, as well as a 4-3 defense. He is also the position coach for the Viking cornerbacks.

SUSTAINABLE AND RECYCLABLE: VIKING QUICK NOTES

THE 2014 VIKINGS: A BREAKDOWN

- Portland State has 47 returning letterwinners.
- The Vikings have 14 returning starters, seven on offense, four on defense and three special teams.
- A total of 26 players return that have started games.
- There are 27 redshirts returning.
- 45 players hail from the state of Oregon, 35 are from the Portland metropolitan/SW Washington area, and 62 are from the Pacific Northwest.

WINS AND LOSSES:

- Portland State is 1-3 this season, 1-0 at home, 0-3 on the road.
- PSU was 6-6 last season, 4-2 at home and 2-4 on the road.
- The Vikings are 11-7 at home since the start of 2011, 6-14 on the road.
- Head Coach Nigel Burton has a 12-10 home record, 7-20 road record, and 19-30 overall record.
- The Vikings have eight winning records in 18 years as a member of the Big Sky Conference.
- PSU is 62-36 in home games since moving to the NCAA I level, 31-75 on the road.
- PSU is 60-79 all-time in Big Sky Conference games in 18 seasons as a member. The Vikings are 37-33 at home, 23-46 on the road in BSC games.

RUN OR PASS?: Portland State has been known for its running offense in recent years, using concepts of the Pistol that was developed during Head Coach Nigel Burton's time at the University of Nevada. However, the passing game continues to be a larger part of the Viking scheme as time goes by. For the first time since 2009, PSU is throwing the ball more than it is running. The Vikings have thrown 141 passes through four games (35 per game), while running 130 times (32 per game). PSU has passed 52% of the time... last year, PSU ran the ball 558 times in 923 plays with was a 60/40 run-pass ratio.

OFFENSE YET TO HIT ITS STRIDE: Portland State's offense has been building and improving in each of the four years of the Nigel Burton era (with Bruce Barnum as offensive coordinator). PSU has increased its total offense and scoring average numbers each season prior to this year. But, through four games, the Vikings numbers are down to only 23.5 points and 342.5 yards of offense. Last year PSU averaged 34.9 points and a school-record 540.5 yards of offense. A deeper look shows that the Vikings are not sustaining drives like they did last year. PSU converts only 33% of its third-down opportunities (compared to 40% last year), and is running 10 fewer plays per game (67 compared to 77 last year). As a result opponents are dominating time of possession as well (34:13 to 25:47). It's early though, as PSU has played only one-third of its schedule. Certainly the loss of RB DJ Adams (1,600 yards, 19 TDs), three road games and two Pac-12 opponents have been factors.

A COMPLETE FLIP-FLOP ON DEFENSE: Portland State's run defense has been solid for the past three seasons. In fact, the Vikings were allowing only 90.0 rushing yards through the first three games of this season. However, Cal Poly's triple-option offense has been a mystery to the Vikings. In 2012, CP rushed for 341 yards against the Vikings. Last year, it was 431 rushing yards, and on Sept. 20 the Mustangs went for a whopping 470 rushing yards. The good news for the Vikings is they will not face a triple-option team again this season. And, following last year's troubles with the Mustangs, the Vikings held five of the final seven opponents to 74 rushing yards or less.

BIG GAMES AGAINST THE MUSTANGS: The Vikings didn't have a lot to brag about after a 42-14 loss at Cal Poly on Sept. 20, but here are a few highlights.

- FB RB's Steven Long and Rey Vega combined to rush for 88 yards on 10 carries in the fourth quarter. Long had a 27-yard touchdown run - the first of his career.
- SR WR Roston Tatum caught a 17-yard touchdown pass - the second of his career.
- JR S Patrick Onwuasor had a team-high 10 tackles. He leads the Vikings with 29 tackles this season.

PENN ULTIMATE: SO QB Paris Penn has run 23 times for 177 yards this season, for a team-high average of 7.7 yards per carry. He averages 7.2 yards on 51 career rushing plays (365 total).

- This season Penn has three TDs on runs of 58, 11 and 48 yards.
- Penn ran for a career-high 112 yards on nine carries at Oregon State.

PLAYMAKERS: Portland State's defensive numbers were not good against Cal Poly, but the Vikings have shown the ability to make big plays this season. Through four games, PSU has:

- 28 tackles for loss
- 12 sacks
- 20 pass breakups
- six forced fumbles

HE'S NOT GETTING OLDER, HE'S GETTING BETTER: 2013 consensus 1st team All-American SR P Kyle Loomis is the oldest Viking (he will be 27 on Sept. 30). But the All-American proves he is aging well, averaging 46.3 yards on 28 punts this season. Loomis has 13 punts of 50 yards or better and 11 punts downed inside the 20-yard line... Loomis averaged 46.5 yards per punt last year to lead the nation and set a new PSU record.

TURNOVER TALK: Portland State went into 2014 wanting to turn around a turnover issue it dealt with last season. The Vikings had 29 turnovers in 12 games last year and a -8 turnover margin. So far, it hasn't gotten any better as PSU has nine turnovers in the first four games and a -4 turnover margin.

YELLOW FEVER: Portland State had a whopping 18 penalties for 146 yards against Western Oregon on Sept. 6. However, in the other three games combined, PSU had only 11 penalties for 90 yards - including 2-11 at Cal Poly... last year, PSU led the Big Sky in penalties with 109 for 876 yards.

TASTY, YET INSIGNIFICANT, TIDBITS:

- Portland State has appeared on television locally in Portland 56 times since joining the Big Sky Conference in 1996. PSU is 19-37 in those games, 12-11 at home, 7-26 on the road... PSU is 0-2 in televised games this season and will play at least three more.
- Portland State is 29-37-2 all-time in season-opening games.
- The Vikings are 15-4 in home opening games since joining the Big Sky Conference in 1996. They are 36-21-1 in home openers since 1958.
- With a 45-38 win over Western Oregon, the Vikings are 14-0 against lower division teams since moving to the Big Sky Conference in 1996.
- PSU has played three Big Sky Conference schools in non-conference games over the last three seasons, going 1-2. The Vikings lost at North Dakota, 45-37, in 2012; won at UC Davis, 41-10, in 2013; and lost at Cal Poly, 42-14, in 2014.
- Head Coach Nigel Burton is 3-0 at UC Davis and the Vikings have averaged 43.7 points in those games. The Vikings host UC Davis for the first time in Burton's tenure on October 4.
- The Vikings' 14-10 win against North Dakota were the fewest points in a win since PSU beat Sacramento State, 13-7, on Nov. 11, 2006. PSU plays at UND on October 11.
- The 2007 meeting between Portland State and Weber State is the highest-scoring Division I regulation football game in college history with Weber State winning, 73-68. Amazingly, that was NOT the most points by either team in the series. Weber State earned a 74-6 win in 1965. A Mouse Davis-coached Portland State team won 75-0 in 1980. A 65-43 win by the Vikings in 2001 was the highest-scoring game in PSU history by two teams, combined, until the 2007 contest. PSU plays at Weber State on Oct. 25.
- PSU has averaged 422.7 rushing yards and 52.2 points per game over its last three meetings with Idaho State. The Vikings face ISU on November 1 in Portland.
- Portland State is 4-1 all-time in Thursday games. The Vikings have one Friday game this year, November 21 vs. Eastern Washington.
- PSU has won the Dam Cup - a multi-sport competition with Eastern Washington - in three of the four years of the existence of the competition.

VIKING ONE-LINERS (and sometimes two)

- Portland State's offensive line allowed only 10 sacks in 2013, that makes a total of only 25 over the last three years combined. PSU threw nearly 1,000 passes over that span.
- Portland State had a pair of former players meet in the Super Bowl for the first time in history last February. TE Julius Thomas ('10, Denver) and DB DeShawn Shead ('11, Seattle) both played in Super Bowl XLVIII. Shead joins Clint Didier and Ted Popson as former Vikings with Super Bowl rings. Thomas was named a Pro Bowl tight end in 2013.
- SR WR Kasey Closs was a walk-on to the Viking program. His father, Rob, was a star basketball and baseball player at the University of Oregon back in the 1970s.
- RS FR RB Steven Long had brain surgery in April 2013 to remove an infectious lesion. Early on the morning of April 25, Long suffered seizures in his dorm room at Portland State. The alert action of roommate and teammate Adam Futter with an assist from Long's girlfriend, Brogan Taylor, soon had Steven on the way to the hospital. Long had surgery on April 28 and, miraculously, made it back on the field for the opening of practice in August. Long's father, Jeff, played at Portland State from 1978-81.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT PORTLAND STATE

Portland State University, located in Portland, OR, is the largest school in the state of Oregon with 29,452 students. It was founded in 1946 as Vanport College - a two-year institution.

Athletically, Portland State began as a junior college in 1946-47, but competed in the Oregon Collegiate Conference at the NAIA level from 1950 to 1964, winning three OCC football titles (1962, 1963, 1964). PSU became a four-year institution in 1955.

Portland State joined the NCAA in 1965 and competed at the College Division level (the forerunner of NCAA II). PSU was an NCAA 1-AA member from 1978-80, then moved back to Division II in 1981, where it competed through the 1995 season. The Vikings were members of the Western Football Conference from 1982 to 1992, winning six conference championships. PSU made eight NCAA II playoff appearances from 1987 to 1995.

In 1996, Portland State moved to the Big Sky Conference and up to the NCAA 1-AA (now FCS) level. The Vikings made their first playoff appearance at their current level in 2000. In 18 seasons in the Big Sky, Portland State has eight winning records and a 60-79 conference record.

Portland State's football program has produced such legendary figures as Coach Mouse Davis, quarterbacks Neil Lomax and June Jones (now head coach at SMU), Tom Oberg (the first Viking to play in the NFL), Coach Pokey Allen (who led the Vikings to two NCAA II National Championship appearances), and nearly 30 players who have appeared in the NFL.

In 2013, three former Vikings reached NFL Championship games: Julius Thomas with Denver, DeShawn Shead with Seattle and Jordan Senn with Carolina. Thomas and Shead went on to meet in Super Bowl XLVIII with their respective teams and Shead became a Super Bowl Champion - just the third former PSU Viking to do so (Clint Didier, Ted Popson). Thomas was selected to the Pro Bowl.

2014 SEASON NOTES

AREAS TO IMPROVE ON

- WINNING THE CLOSE ONES: Portland State set a school record for offense with 540.5 yards per game last year. And, although the defensive yards allowed was up from 401 per game in 2012 to 430 in 2013, the Vikings allowed fewer points, down to 27.5 from 36. Still, PSU lost its last two games by a single point (43-42 and 42-41) and had four conference losses by a combined 16 points (they were 16 points from a 7-1 mark in conference play). The only game that PSU was out of in the late-going was a loss at Montana.
- FIXING THE KICKING: All of Portland State's special teams were among the best in the conference and nation (kick coverage, punt coverage, punting, kick return) except for kicking. PSU made only 3-16 FGs, and 52-56 PATs. Those misses were key considering the number of close losses the Vikings had in 2013.
- BUILDING UP THE DEFENSE: Portland State has only four full-time returning starters (though eight others have made starts). As a result, 15 of the 21 players added on signing day were on defense, including eight defensive linemen and four defensive backs. Expect SO DE Michael Doman (BYU transfer), JR LB Zach Berg (Wyoming), JR LB Anthony McNichols (Golden West CC) and JR S Patrick Onwuasor (Arizona) to play big roles in 2014.

NEW STAFF: Portland State has four new assistant coaches in 2014. Malik Roberson, who was PSU's defensive line coach in 2011, has returned to the same position after two seasons as the defensive coordinator at Central Washington. Jason Belford is new to the staff as the assistant defensive line coach after working at Weber State for two seasons. Those two replace Ikaika Malloe and Mike Scheper, who took jobs with Utah State and the Canadian Football League, respectively... veteran coach Steve Morton, who begins his 40th season in coaching, is the new offensive line coach. He replaces Brad Davis, who moved on to a similar position at James Madison University... Mike Preston is the new tight ends coach. He was most recently at Lindenwood College. Preston replaces Matt Leunen, who now works in private business... Trevor Gentry is serving as the team's defensive quality control coach.

PORTLAND STATE AND THE BIG SKY CONFERENCE: Portland State begins its 19th season as a member of the Big Sky Conference and Division I football in 2014. The Vikings are 60-79 all-time in Big Sky games, 37-33 at home and 23-46 on the road.

Former coach Tim Walsh (42-41 in Big Sky games) led the Vikings through the first 11 years, and Jerry Glanville (7-17) was the head coach for three seasons. Nigel Burton is 19-29 in his fifth season as head coach.

The Vikings have never won a Big Sky title, but tied for second four times, tied for third two times, and tied for fourth twice under Walsh. The Vikings finished sixth, sixth and eighth under Glanville. Burton has placed in a tie for eighth, third, tie for 11th and 9th.

PSU has made one NCAA I playoff appearance (2000) after placing second in the Big Sky.

OREGON STATE 29

PORTLAND STATE 14

Paris Penn rushed for two touchdowns, including this 58-yarder in the second quarter.

Corvallis, OR - Hope was alive for a long time in the valley. Portland State went after a first-ever win over a Pac-12 school at Oregon State and looked like they might make history through the first half of the game. But a gruesome third quarter that included four turnovers ultimately cost the Vikings in a 29-14 loss to the Beavers.

After PSU took a 14-13 lead into the halftime locker room, Oregon State came back out and took advantage of those Viking mistakes. In all the Vikings made five second-half turnovers but the defense kept them in the game, allowing OSU to convert only 13 points off those miscues.

Oregon State made two lengthy drives in the first quarter, but the Vikings held inside the five-yard line both times. Garrett Owens made a pair of 25-yard field goals and the Beavers led 6-0 at the end of the first quarter.

The Vikings put a shock into the Beavers on the first play of the second quarter. Quarterback Paris Penn ran a quarterback draw off left guard for 58 yards and a touchdown. Jonathan Gonzales extra point gave PSU a 7-6 lead at the 14:48 mark.

All-American quarterback Sean Mannion finally led the Beavers into the endzone after that. A 10-play, 82-yard drive culminated with Mannion scrambling in on a six-yard carry when he couldn't find an open receiver. OSU had the lead back at 13-6 with 9:36 left in the second quarter.

PSU answered on the next drive, benefiting from four Oregon State penalties. The Vikings went 73 yards on nine plays and got an 11-yard TD run from Penn. PSU was up 14-13 and carried that lead into halftime.

The Vikings first crucial mistake came on the second play of the second half. Tyreque Zimmerman intercepted a Viking pass on a trick play. The Beavers got another short field goal as a result. Owens' 26-yard kick put OSU back on top 16-13.

A second turnover; a lost fumble on a handoff by the Vikings turned into a 23-yard touchdown reception for the Beavers' Storm Woods on the very next play. For the first time all day, the Vikings were down by more than one score, 23-14.

The third turnover, another interception by Zimmerman set up another Oregon State field goal later in the third.

A late fourth-quarter 23-yard field goal by Owens wrapped up the scoring and a 29-14 Beaver win.

Other than a number of early penalties, Oregon State's defense was strong. The Beavers held PSU to just 40 offensive yards in the second half and 215 for the game.

"It was like we thought it would be, it was a hard fought game. I know one thing, I have some tough dudes in that (locker) room. We just hit the self-destruct button one too many times. Obviously, the turnovers are what changed the game," said Viking Coach Nigel Burton.

Penn was the Vikings' offensive star, rushing nine times for 112 yards and both PSU touchdowns. Portland State rushed for 132 yards and passed for just 83. Kieran McDonagh started at quarterback, completing 7-16 passes for 52 yards and one interception. He shared time with Penn throughout the game.

"Their were some times of brilliance and some times that were rough. Their secondary did a really nice job and their d-line found ways to get pressure on them. I don't care who the quarterback is, if you find ways to hit them, it changes things," said Burton.

Mannion paced the Beavers, completing 26 of 45 passes for 328 yards and a touchdown. Woods led the running game with 16 carries for 126 yards.

OSU had 505 yards of total offense, running 31 more plays than the Vikings (82-51).

Linebacker Anthony McNichols had nine tackles to lead Portland State. Cornerback Aaron Sibley had eight stops. The Vikings made nine pass breakups and three sacks in the game.

Defensive end Dylan Wynn led the Beavers with six tackles. Zimmerman had five stops to go with his two interceptions.

GAME NOTES: All-American punter Kyle Loomis averaged 48.5 yards on six punts for the Vikings... OSU is 4-0 all-time against the Vikings... PSU is now 0-13 against Pac-12 opponents.

PORTLAND STATE 45 WESTERN OREGON 38

Corey Crowder (22) made a key play, forcing and recovering a fumble in the fourth quarter.

Hillsboro, OR - Portland State expected to get their first win of the season in their home opener against Division II Western Oregon at Hillsboro Stadium. Wolves quarterback Ryan Bergman had other ideas, keeping the Vikings on their toes deep into the fourth quarter before PSU came away with a 45-38 victory.

In a game loaded with big plays and momentum turns, the Vikings were finally able to get enough pressure to Bergman in the fourth quarter to seal the win.

Portland State had 507 yards of total offense, but Bergman threw for 413 of Western Oregon's 430 total yards, twice bringing the Wolves back from 17-point deficits.

The game was tied 31-31 early in the fourth quarter after Western's Joe Harris scored on a three-yard run. Following a defensive stop by the Wolves, Bergman took the ball back with a chance for Western to take the lead for the first time since the first series of the game.

The Wolves crossed midfield on the Vikings, but PSU linebacker Corey Crowder came up with the biggest defensive play of the game. He sacked Bergman, forcing a fumble and recovered it at Western Oregon's 48-yard line.

On the very next play, PSU sophomore quarterback Paris Penn scampered 48 yards for a go-ahead touchdown. Penn tacked on another score four minutes later when he hit Kasey Closs on a 36-yard touchdown pass.

Leading 45-31 with 7:29 to play the Vikings appeared to have the game in hand.

But Bergman brought the Wolves back again, hitting Paul Revis on a 48-yard touchdown pass inside the final minute. Western Oregon was unable to recover the ensuing onside kick and PSU ran out the clock.

Both teams had a lot of offensive stars. PSU's starting quarterback Kieran McDonagh and Penn combined to throw for 222 yards with three touchdowns, and combined to rush for 99 yards with two touchdowns.

Shaq Richard went for a career-high 151 yards on 14 carries. He had a career-long 70-yard run and followed that with a 10-yard touchdown to open the third quarter.

Overall, PSU rushed for 285 yards, averaging 7.5 yards per carry.

One of the biggest and perhaps most overlooked plays of the night came on a Hail Mary throw by McDonagh as the first half clock ran out. Closs hauled down McDonagh's 48-yard heave to give PSU a 24-14 halftime lead.

Closs had 109 receiving yards with two touchdowns on six catches.

Although the Vikings gave up a lot of yards to Bergman, they were able to get a lot of pressure on him in the end. PSU made seven sacks on the night, led by 2.5 from defensive end Brandon Tobias. Crowder led PSU with eight tackles, as well as the big fumble recovery. In all, the Vikings made 14 tackles for loss and the Wolves could get only 26 rushing yards on 17 carries.

However, Bergman kept the Wolves in the game all night, completing 32 of 61 passes for 413 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions. He also ran for a score.

In addition to Bergman's fine play, the Vikings hurt themselves with 18 penalties for 146 yards.

"(Bergman) is a heckuva football player," said Viking Coach Nigel Burton. "We knew that going in. Our guys played seven-on-seven against him in the summer, and were talking about what a great player he was. That wasn't surprising. We saw it on film. I was surprised we didn't do a good job, when he decided to scramble, keeping him contained."

GAME NOTES: The 100-yard receiving game was the fifth of Closs' career... Richard had the second 100-yard rushing game of his career... the Wolves, playing their first game of the season, were 7-4 last year... PSU is now 15-4 in home openers since joining the Big Sky Conference in 1996, 36-21-1 in home openers since 1958... PSU has beaten Western Oregon seven straight times.

WASHINGTON STATE 59 PORTLAND STATE 21

Demetrius Jackson (6) and Patrick Onwuasor (8) combined for 16 tackles against Washington State.

Pullman, WA - Connor Halliday threw three second-quarter touchdown passes, breaking open a close game and leading the Washington State Cougars to a 59-21 victory over Portland State at Martin Stadium.

Halliday's three TDs led to a 28-0 lead by halftime and PSU never got closer than 14 points after that.

For the game, Halliday had eye-popping numbers of 41-62 for 544 yards and six touchdowns. He also threw two interceptions. Halliday entered the game leading the nation in passing with 461.5 yards per game. In all, Washington State threw for 630 yards and had 706 yards of total offense.

Washington State picked up its first win (1-2), while the Vikings dropped to 1-2.

The Cougars put together a methodical 14-play, 80-yard scoring drive late in the first quarter. Gerard Wicks scored on a one-yard run as WSU ran seven times and passed seven times in the series.

Portland State's first serious scoring threat came early in the second quarter. A big 30-yard reception by Kasey Closs on a third-and-21 play set the Vikings up at the WSU 10-yard line. But, Shaq Richard fumbled on the next play and the Cougars took over.

A big-hitting 67-yard pass highlighted WSU's ensuing series. It took only six plays for the Cougars to go 93 yards as Halliday threw a 15-yard scoring strike to River Cracraft.

Washington State scored again quickly following a 44-yard punt return by Rickey Galvin. Halliday hit Dom Williams on a 17-yard scoring pass the very next play. After a strong first quarter of play, the Vikings suddenly trailed 21-0 with 11 minutes to go in the second.

Halliday tacked on a third TD pass - a three-yarder to Vince Mayle - late in the quarter and the Cougars led 28-0 at halftime.

Washington State had 357 yards by the half, with 321 on Halliday passes. In addition, the Cougars shut down PSU's always productive running game, allowing only 20 yards on 16 carries.

Portland State opened the second half with an impressive drive that gave them some hope. An 85-yard series that included seven Kieran McDonagh passes and four Shaq Richard running plays resulted in a six-yard scoring run by Richard.

The Viking defense got its first three-and-out stop on the Cougars on their next series. That set up another long drive and score. This time McDonagh tossed a 24-yard scoring pass to Alex Toureen. At 28-14, the Vikings once again had the Cougars attention.

Halliday connected on two more touchdowns in the next two series. Both went to Isiah Myers; an eight-yarder and a four-yarder. That pushed WSU back to a 42-14 advantage early in the fourth quarter.

Safety Patrick Onwuasor picked off a Halliday pass in the fourth quarter, returning it 42 yards for a touchdown and completing the Viking scoring.

Washington State tacked on three touchdowns in the fourth quarter to round out the scoring.

Toureen had a career game, making seven receptions for 100 yards and a touchdown. Kasey Closs added eight catches for 81 yards. McDonagh finished the game with 269 yards passing on 31 of 51 with one interception.

PSU finished with only 93 yards on the ground, its fewest in a couple of seasons. Richard led the way with 11 carries for 68 yards and a touchdown.

Myers was the chief beneficiary of Halliday's big passing game, catching 11 passes for 227 yards and three touchdowns.

Demetrius Jackson led the Viking defense with nine tackles. Onwuasor had seven tackles to go with his interception return for touchdown. Xavier Coleman made six tackles, had a sack and broke up three passes.

GAME NOTES: Darien Washington had his first career interception, picking off a Halliday pass in the second quarter... PSU is 0-14 all-time against Pac-12 teams, 0-2 against Washington State.

CAL POLY 42

PORTLAND STATE 14

Steven Long rushed for his first career touchdown - a 27-yarder - at Cal Poly.

Steve Bremner

San Luis Obispo, CA - For the third straight year, Cal Poly's triple-option offense befuddled the Portland State defense as the Mustangs pulled off a 42-14 win at Alex G. Spanos Stadium.

The Mustangs gained 470 yards on the ground against PSU, 531 overall as they built a 21-0 halftime lead, were up 35-0 at the end of the third quarter and cruised to the win. PSU had no answers for the seldom seen triple-option running game that Cal Poly features.

Meanwhile, Cal Poly's defense was nearly as effective as its offense, holding the Vikings scoreless into the fourth quarter.

The Mustangs go to 1-2 on the season while the Vikings drop to 1-3. The game was played as a non-conference contest.

Quarterback Chris Brown led the offensive assault for Cal Poly, rushing for 159 yards and two touchdowns. He also completed four of seven passes for 61 yards and another score.

A rare defensive struggle took place early between the Vikings and the Mustangs. Outside of a 67-yard scoring drive by Cal Poly, neither offense could get untracked in the first 20 minutes of the game.

Portland State had a threat early in the second quarter, and took a chance on fourth-and-goal from the Cal Poly 2. But running back Shaq Richard was swarmed under by the Mustangs defense and Cal Poly took over.

Brown took advantage of that momentum, breaking away on a 57-yard run a few plays later. That ignited an 88-yard drive for the Mustangs. The sophomore quarterback eventually scored on a three-yard run and Cal Poly led 14-0 at the 8:38 mark of the second quarter.

Another lengthy scoring drive, a six-play, 87-yard march ended with a 32-yard TD run by Brown just before halftime.

At halftime, the Mustangs had 239 rushing yards, 267 yards in all. Brown had 133 rushing yards and two touchdowns on only seven carries. Meanwhile the Vikings had only 128 yards of offense.

PSU couldn't close the gap in the third quarter. Meanwhile, Mustang full-back Brandon Howe tacked on two more scores completing drives of 85 and 72 yards.

A 27-yard touchdown run by Steven Long in the fourth quarter finally got the Vikings into the scoring column. Roston Tatum caught a 17-yard TD pass from Kieran McDonagh in the final minute to complete the scoring.

Cal Poly carried the ball a remarkable 74 times. In addition to Brown's 100-yard game was an 18-carry, 103-yard effort by Kori Garcia.

PSU finished with 286 yards of offense. Long and Rey Vega combined for 88 rushing yards in the fourth quarter. McDonagh completed just nine of 26 passes for 89 yards in the game.

Patrick Onwuasor led the Viking defense with 10 tackles. Darien Washington added eight stops.

GAME NOTES: Cal Poly now has a three-game winning streak over the Vikings. The Mustangs had big rushing games in the previous two seasons as well (341 yards in 2012 and 431 yards in 2013)... PSU has lost four straight road games dating to last season.
