VIKINGS HOPE TO SOLVE ROAD WOES AT NORTHERN COLORADO, NORTH DAKOTA

PORTLAND, Ore. — The Portland State women's soccer team will need to solve its road woes if it hopes to make a push for a spot in the Big Sky tournament, as the Vikings head out on the road for their final road trip of the regular season this weekend.

Unfortunately for the Vikings, they'll close out their road schedule with one of the most difficult road trips of the season, as they play Northern Colorado at 7 p.m. (MT) in Greeley, Colo., Friday, and then head to Grand Forks, N.D., for a match against North Dakota at 11 a.m. (CT) Sunday. The Vikings' match against North Dakota will kick off just over 36 hours after the Vikings finish their match against Northern Colorado on Friday, and the Vikings will have to travel more than 3,500 miles in that time.

That will be a tough road to hoe for the Vikings, who have struggled on the road in recent seasons. The Vikings are a combined 1-17-0 on the road over the past two seasons, while 27 of the 34 goals the Vikings have allowed this season have come on the road.

The good news for the Vikings, however, is that the team aced the road trip to Northern Colorado and North Dakota the last time they faced it in 2014. The Vikings drew with Northern

HEAD COACH LAURA SCHOTT

NINTH SEASON • CALIFORNIA, 2004 • 70-75-22 OVERALL RECORD • 41-20-11 BIG SKY RECORD

Head coach Laura Schott has turned the Portland State women's soccer programs into perennial title contenders within the Big Sky Conference in eight full seasons at the helm. The Vikings have won four Big Sky regular-season titles in Schott's eight years as head coach, including three straight from 2011-13. Overall, the Vikings have gone 40-16-10 in the Big Sky in Schott's eight years, and have finished second or better in seven of her eight years at the helm.

The Vikings broke the Big Sky record for longest unbeaten streak with a 1-0 win over Utah Valley at the beginning of the 2014 season, and stretched their record to 16 matches before losing to then-No. 21 California. Senior goalkeeper Caitlin Plese was named the Big Sky Goalkeeper of the Year for the second straight season at the end of the year, while Plese, senior defender Kayla Henningsen and junior midfielder/forward Cori Bianchini were all named to the All-Big Sky first team.

Schott also led the Vikings to an historic year in 2013, as the Vikings completed their first unbeaten record in Big Sky play at 8-0-1. The Vikings also set program records for shutouts with 12 in 2013, and set a program record for team goals-against average at 0.76. Schott was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year after the season, her second conference coach of the year honor after she was named the co-coach of the year in 2009, when she led the Vikings to their first of four Big Sky titles (2009, 2011, 2012, 2013).

THE SCHOTT FILE

Born: April 4, 1981

Hometown: Portland, Ore.

Alma Mater: California, 2004 (B.S., Political Science; B.S., Mass Communications)

COACHING EXPERIENCE

- Has led the Vikings to four Big Sky regular-season titles in eight seasons at the helm (2009, 2011, 2012, 2013)
- Led PSU to its first unbeaten Big Sky record (8-0-1) and third straight Big Sky regular-season title in 2013
- Led the Vikings to a Big Sky-record 16-match unbeaten streak, stretching from Sept. 15, 2013 to Aug. 29, 2014
- All-time wins leader at PSU
- 2009 Big Sky Co-Coach of the Year
- 2013 Big Sky Coach of the Year

Colorado, 1-1, as they drew level on a late goal that season, and then beat North Dakota, 1-0, which now stands as the Vikings' last conference win on the road.

Despite all the struggles, the Vikings still stand just five points out of third place in the Big Sky, and just four points out of the sixth and final spot in the Big Sky tournament. Additionally, the Vikings play three of the teams ahead of them in the Big Sky standings over their last four matches of the regular season, and hold a win over a fourth team in Montana.

One of the teams ahead of the Vikings in the standings is Northern Colorado, which will be a tough team for the Vikings to pick up points against on the road. The Bears won the 2015 Big Sky tournament last season after finishing second in the Big Sky in the regular season, and have a perfect 6-0-0 record at home so far this season.

The Bears also feature one of the best offensive players in the conference in 2015 Big Sky Newcomer of the Year Mariel Gutierrez, who ranks second in the Big Sky with eight goals this season. The Bears returned their top four goal scorers overall in Gutierrez, Sydney Schroeder, Brooke Braden and Kassy Castillo.

The Bears' scoring has not been very balanced this season, however, as Gutierrez, Braden and Schroeder account for 16 of the team's 20 goals this season.

North Dakota, meanwhile, will be coming off its best performance of the season last Sunday, when the Fighting Hawks beat Southern Utah, 4-1. That win snapped a 10-match winless streak for the Fighting Hawks, as well as a four-match losing streak to open Big Sky play.

The Fighting Hawks' offense also broke out in their match against Southern Utah, as the team had scored just five goals before that match, but nearly doubled that total with their four goals against the Thunderbirds.

The Vikings will have history on their side against North Dakota, however, as the Vikings take a 4-0-0 record against UND into their match Sunday, including two wins in Grand Forks.

The Vikings will hope that can carry them Sunday, as the Vikings face the quick turnaround after their match against Northern Colorado on Friday.

If the Vikings can solve that problem, however, then they could come home for their final two matches of the regular season with plenty to play for.

SCOUTING NORTHERN COLORADO:

- The Northern Colorado Bears (8-5-1, 3-2-0 Big Sky) won the Big Sky tournament last season as the No. 2 seed, advancing past No. 1-seeded and tournament-host Idaho on penalty kicks. The Bears finished the 2015 regular season 7-2-1 in Big Sky play, and advanced to the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2002
- The Bears returned seven starters from their 2015 tournament title-winning team, including Big Sky Newcomer of the Year Mariel Gutierrez, who led the Bears with seven goals in 2015. The Bears returned their top four goal scorers from 2015 overall, as Sydney Schroeder (5 goals in 2015), Brooke Braden (5 goals in 2015) and Kassy Castillo (4 goals in 2015) also returned alongside Gutierrez. Castillo and Braden returned as All-Big Sky honorable mentions in 2015, and the Bears also returned All-Big Sky second-team defender Madeline Chase.
- The Bears lost two-time Big Sky Defensive MVP Adrienne Jordan off last year's team. Jordan, who was also a three-time All-Big Sky first-team selection, was drafted by the Chicago Red Stars of the NWSL in January.
- The Bears bounced back after two bad losses two weekends ago with a weekend sweep of Southern Utah and Northern Arizona last week. The Bears beat Southern Utah 3-1 on Friday, and then shut out Northern Arizona in a 3-0 win on Sunday. Before that, the Bears had one of their rougher Big Sky weekends in recent memory, as they lost a pair of road matches to Idaho State and Idaho by a combined scored of 8-2. Idaho State beat the Bears 6-2 in their match on Oct. 2, the most goals the Bears had ever given up to a Big Sky opponent.
- The Bears rank in the top half of the conference in both offense and defense, as the Bears rank fourth in the Big Sky in goals scored (20) and goals per game (1.43), and also rank fifth in the Big Sky in goals-against average (1.26) and goals allowed (18).

- Mariel Gutierrez leads the Bears and ranks second in the Big Sky with eight goals this season, four of which have come in Big Sky play. Brooke Braden and Sydney Schroeder rank tied for second on the team behind Gutierrez with four goals each, while Gutierrez, Braden and Schroeder as a threesome account for 16 of the Bears' 20 goals this season.

- Maddie Roberts leads the Bears and ranks tied for second in the Big Sky with five assists this season.

- The Bears are 6-0-0 at home this season, where they have outscored opponents, 13-2.

ALL-TIME SERIES VERSUS NORTHERN COLORADO:

The Vikings are 7-4-1 all-time in their all-time series against Northern Colorado, though the Vikings lost 1-0 to the Bears last season, snapping a three-match unbeaten streak against them. The Bears beat the Vikings 1-0 on a goal right before halftime in the Vikings' final home match of the 2015 season. The Vikings have not lost to the Bears on the road, however, since 2012, when the Vikings lost their third straight to the Bears at the time with a 1-0 loss.

SCOUTING NORTH DAKOTA:

- The North Dakota Fighting Hawks (2-9-2, 1-4-0 Big Sky) had a 10-match winless streak snapped in their last match, as they beat Southern Utah 4-1 at home for their first Big Sky win of the season. The Fighting Hawks had lost four straight matches to Weber State, Idaho State, Idaho and Northern Arizona to open Big Sky play before that.

- The Fighting Hawks returned nine starters from their 2015 team that went 4-12-2 overall and 2-7-1 in Big Sky play. The Fighting Hawks returned their top five scorers from last season in Zoe Foster (eight points on four goals), Kaylee Kebba (seven points on two goals and three assists), Katie Moller (six points on three goals), Kennedy Kidd (four points on two goals) and Veronica Kessler (four points on two goals). Kessler leads the Fighting Hawks with five points on two goals and one assist, while Moller ranks tied with Kessler for the team lead in goals with two this season. Emily Smithson, another returner, also ranks tied with Moller for second on the team with four points on one goal and two assists.

- The Fighting Hawks also returned starting goalkeeper Olivia Swenson, who was one of the NCAA leaders with 179 saves last season. Swenson has split time in goal this season, however, as she and Catherine Klein have each started six matches for the Fighting Hawks. Swenson has started the last five matches for the Fighting Hawks, though, including the team's recent win over Southern Utah.

- The Fighting Hawks rank last in the Big Sky with only nine goals scored this season, four of which came in their last match in their 4-1 win over Southern Utah. The Fighting Hawks rank towards the bottom of the NCAA in scoring offense, as they rank 306th out of 335 teams with a 0.69 goals per game average.

- The Fighting Hawks rank in the middle of the Big Sky defensively, as they rank sixth in goals-against average (1.73) and seventh in goals allowed (24).

- North Dakota leads the Big Sky once again in saves, however, as they rank first in the Big Sky with 112 saves as a team, 32 more than the second-place team, Northern Colorado, which has 80. Individually, Catherine Klein and Olivia Swenson rank 1-2 in the Big Sky with averages of 8.38 and 7.17 saves per game, respectively.

- The Fighting Hawks also rank sixth in the NCAA with their team average of 8.62 saves per game, while Catherine Klein ranks third nationally as an individual with her average of 8.38 saves per game.

ALL-TIME SERIES VERUS NORTH DAKOTA:

The Vikings are a perfect 4-0-0 against North Dakota since the Fighting Hawks joined the Big Sky Conference in 2012. The Vikings are 2-0-0 against North Dakota on the road, where the Vikings beat UND 3-1 in 2012 and 1-0 in 2014.

LAST TIME OUT:

The Vikings had a tough weekend last week, as they led in both of their matches and yet lost both. The Vikings twice held leads against Idaho State on the road, but the Bengals tied it up twice, the second time on an 85th-minute goal to send the match to overtime. The Bengals then scored the game-winner in the 108th minute, the second-latest goal the Vikings have conceded in overtime since overtime periods moved to 10 minutes long in 2002. The Vikings took the lead again in their match against league-leading Idaho on Sunday, as redshirt junior Kristin Moyer scored in the 32nd minute to give the Vikings a 1-0 lead. However, a couple of mistakes too close to goal led to a pair of second-half goals for Idaho, and the Vandals held on from there to close a 2-1 win. The Vandals scored their first goal on a penalty kick in the 47th minute, following a hard foul in the box by a Viking defender. The Vikings then sent a back pass on the ground that goalkeeper Abbie Faingold picked up in the 57th minute, resulting in an indirect free kick just outside the six-yard box. The Vandals had no problems putting in a goal on the ensuing play, and the Vikings could not muster an equalizer over the last 30 minutes of the match.

UPCOMING:

The Vikings return home for their final Sunday match of the regular season next weekend, as Weber State comes to Hillsboro Stadium to play the Vikings. The Vikings and Wildcats will kick off at 1 p.m. (PT) on Oct. 23.

WE'RE OVER OVERTIME AT PSU:

The first part of the word overtime is over, and if Big Sky soccer matches just went with that after 90 minutes, then the Vikings would be unbeaten in five of their six conference matches so far this season. The Vikings have lost three overtime matches in Big Sky play, half of the six conference matches they've played so far, and have played four overtime matches in Big Sky play overall. The four overtime matches in Big Sky play already stand as a school record, and the Vikings had only played three overtime matches in conference play once before, back in 2003.

ROAD WOES:

The Vikings will have to solve their road woes if they hope to pick up points this weekend, as the Vikings are just 1-7-0 on the road this season. The Vikings have not won a Big Sky road match since their last trip to North Dakota on Oct. 19, 2014, when the Vikings beat the Fighting Hawks, 1-0. Additionally, the Vikings' defense has performed dramatically better at home this season, as the Vikings have a 1.12 goals-against average at home, while starting goalkeeper Abbie Faingold has only allowed three goals at home and has a 0.64 goals-against average in home matches. In comparison, the Vikings have a 3.27 goals-against average as a team in road matches this season, while Faingold has allowed 25 road goals and has a 3.23 individual goals-against average in road matches.

STRONG OFFENSE:

The Vikings have scored a goal in eight of their last nine matches, with the only exception being the Vikings' 0-0 draw with the then-league-leading Eastern Washington Eagles on Sept. 30. The Vikings' offense has been a bright spot for the team this season, as the team has scored 16 goals this season, three more than the team scored during all of last season, and just four less than the Vikings scored during the 2014 regular season, when the Vikings finished second in the Big Sky Conference. Additionally, the Vikings have four players with at least three goals this season, the first time the Vikings have spread out the scoring like that since 2013. The Vikings have also scored multiple goals in five matches this season, more than the Vikings' totals in 2015 and 2014. Individually, senior Aurora Bodenhamer ranks tied for eighth in the Big Sky with four goals this season, three of which have come in Big Sky play. Junior Katie Forsee and sophomore Morgan Matthews and Krystal de Ramos also have scored three goals each this season, while Forsee leads the Vikings with two assists.

AURORA BODENHAMER, BIG SKY KILLER:

Senior Aurora Bodenhamer moved into a tie for seventh all-time in goals scored at Portland State with her 11th career goal in the Vikings' loss at Idaho State last Friday. Bodenhamer's goal against Idaho State was also her eighth career goal in Big Sky play, just two behind Dolly Enneking's school record of 10 conference goals, set from 2006-09. Bodenhamer also moved into a tie for seventh all-time with her fourth career game-winning goal earlier in the season, and will move into a tie for fourth all-time with her next game-winner. Bodenhamer leads the Vikings in goals (4) and points (9) this season, a season after she led the Vikings in both categories with five goals and 11 points in 2015. All five of Bodenhamer's goals last season came in Big Sky play, ranking one off the single-season record for conference goals by a Viking. Bodenhamer scored two goals in two different matches last season, including both goals in the Vikings' 2-1, overtime win over Southern Utah. Bodenhamer was named an All-Big Sky honorable mention after the season, the first all-conference honor of her career.

THE FORCE-EE IS WITH THE VIKINGS:

The force is strong with junior Katie Forsee, who leads the Vikings with two assists, and ranks one off the team lead in points with eight on three goals and two assists. Forsee's three goals this season are more than she scored in her freshman and sophomore seasons combined, while her eight points this season are double her previous season's best of four, set during her sophomore year last season. Forsee is also unquestionably the team's most versatile player, as she fluctuates in-game between the Vikings' attack and defense. Forsee also spent time at every position, save goalkeeper, last season, when she was named an All-Big Sky honorable mention.

NO, NOT ALEX MORGAN, WE'LL TAKE MORGAN MATTHEWS:

Sophomore Morgan Matthews became just the 33rd player in school history to score in back-to-back matches after scoring against Nevada and Colorado state on Sept. 11 and 16, respectively. Matthews, who ranks tied for second on the team in goals (3) and third on the team in points (7), has now scored five goals in her young Portland State career, all in just 31 matches played. That rate gives Matthews an average of a goal every 6.2 matches comparable to senior Aurora Bodenhamer – the active career leader in goals scored for the Vikings – who averages a goal every 6.18 matches with 11 goals in 68 career matches played. Matthews scored both her goals as a freshman in the last six matches of the season, however, meaning her five career goals have all come in her last 20 matches for the Vikings, which equates to an average of a goal every four matches.

IRON WOMAN:

Trains should run their schedules off the Vikings' Kristin Moyer because she's just that reliable on the Vikings' back line. The redshirt junior defender has not missed a minute of action in 11 of the Vikings' 14 matches so far this season, and has only missed a total of 34 minutes in the other three matches combined. For her career, Moyer has missed playing time in just eight matches, and did not miss a minute of any match last season. Additionally, Moyer has started all 51 matches of her career, giving her a chance to break the school records for career starts and minutes played if she stays healthy over her final two seasons of eligibility. Moyer has a better chance to break the school record in minutes played if she stays healthy, as her 4,574 career minutes played rank more than two-thirds of the way to Juli Edwards' current record of 6,224, and Moyer still has a season and change of eligibility remaining. To break the record for career starts, however, Moyer would likely need the Vikings to make the Big Sky tournament during both her junior and senior seasons, or make an extended postseason run in one season or the other. If she starts every match this season and the Vikings do not make the Big Sky tournament, then Moyer will finish the year with 55 career starts, 19 behind the current record shared by Nathalie Wollman and Dolly Enneking at 74. The Vikings have played 18 matches in the regular season in each of the past three seasons, meaning Moyer will likely need to pick up a start or two in the postseason somewhere to either tie or break the record.

DE RAMOS SPENDS TIME WITH THE PHILIPPINES NATIONAL TEAM:

Sophomore Krystal de Ramos, who ranks tied for second on the team with three goals this season, played with the Philippines National Team at the AFF Women's Championship over the summer. De Ramos earned her first cap on July 26, when she was inserted into the starting XI for the team's match against Thailand. De Ramos also started in the Philippines' 2-0 win over Singapore on July 30.

TOUGH ROAD SCHEDULE:

The Vikings face a tough road schedule in 2016, as they play four of their five Big Sky road matches at 4,000 feet of elevation or above. The Vikings will open Big Sky play on their toughest road trip of the season, playing at Northern Arizona (7,000 feet above sea level) and Southern Utah (5,000 feet above sea level) within 36 hours. The Vikings will also travel more than 3,500 miles as they play at Northern Colorado and North Dakota on Oct. 14 and 16, respectively.

YOUTH MOVEMENT:

The Vikings brought in 10 true freshmen during the offseason, and added a transfer from South Carolina in sophomore forward/midfielder Jacky Huchler. The Vikings will rely on their young players frequently during the season, as freshmen or sophomores make up 18 of the team's 26-player roster. Additionally, all four of the Vikings' goalkeepers are freshmen or sophomores, and none of them had started a match for the Vikings before the season. Red-shirt sophomore Abbie Faingold was the only goalkeeper to have seen action for the Vikings before this season, as she made her Portland State debut last season while playing the final 27:07 in the Vikings' match at Weber State.

2015 SEASON RECAP:

Injuries and inexperience led the Vikings to a disappointing 2015 campaign that saw their seven-year streak of making the Big Sky tournament snapped. The Vikings finished the season 5-13-0 overall and 3-7-0 in Big Sky play. Goal scoring was an issue all season, as the Vikings scored only 13 goals, the lowest total of any season under head coach Laura Schott. The Vikings also only shut out two opponents during the season, and had the highest goals-against average (1.65) of any Viking team under Schott.
