THE OPENING TIP

The fine line between winning and losing in the Big Sky Conference continues to be evident as the Portland State Vikings approach the home stretch of the regular season. On Thursday night, for the fourth time in six games, the Vikings went to overtime. And for the fourth time, they took a heartbreaking loss, 92-90, to Montana State.

Now Portland State (12-12, 5-8) must regroup for a Saturday evening contest at Montana, hoping to reverse their recent fortunes as the Big Sky Conference Tournament approaches. On Jan. 19, the Vikings were riding high following an 88-79 win over the Grizzlies in Portland. PSU was 11-6 overall and 4-2 in the Big Sky. Since that time, the Vikings have lost six of seven games, four in overtime, four on the road, and five by six points or less. Its been a tough tonic to take. However, PSU certainly has good basketball in its DNA. Prior to the recent skid, the Vikings had won eight of 10 games, including three on the road.

The Vikings can also take solace in the fact that they trailed by 11 points at MSU with 3:48 to play but rallied back to get the game to overtime. SR F De'Sean Parsons scored 11 points down the stretch, including a tying free throw with 0.2 seconds on the clock to send the game to overtime. MSU guard Tyler Hall broke the Vikings hearts with a 12-foot jumper in the lane with 3.9 seconds left in OT for the decider.

Montana (13-14, 8-6) also understands the fine line for Big Sky success. The Griz took a 67-65 home loss on Thursday to Sacramento State. Brandon Gfeller had a winning three-point attempt at the buzzer that bounced off the rim.

The Grizzlies are 7-5 at home this season, while the Vikings bring in a 4-9 road record. PSU will be trying to win in Missoula for the first time since 2008.

One thing is certain: the Vikings will try to get the job done in regulation. PSU has now played a school-record five overtime games and eight overtime periods this season. And they are 0-5 in OT.

The game will be live streamed at www.GoViks.com/Live. Live stats are available at www.ViksLive.com. Tip-off is 6:05 p.m. PT

COMING UP

PSU's final home weekend is Feb. 23-25 when the Vikings play Southern Utah (4-22/2-11) and Northern Arizona (7-19/4-9). The regular season concludes with a trip to Northern Colorado (8-16/4-9, Mar. 2) and North Dakota (15-8/10-3, Mar. 4).

COMING SOON: AN ALL NEW VIKING PAVILION

The Peter W. Stott Center will remain the home court for the Vikings in 2016-17 while major construction is underway on the eastern portion of the building. That development will become the new Viking Pavilion, a venue that will seat 3000+ for basketball. A completion date is scheduled for winter 2018. PSU will find an alternate home court for 2017-18 until the new Pavilion is opened.

So, enjoy the current Stott Center while you can - only two games remain. With construction underway on the new Viking Pavilion, the Stott's main gym is in its final season of use. In fact, the gym, the academic center, the training room, and the new weight room are almost all that is left of the current facility.

This season, the Stott Center will be using makeshift ticketing, concessions and restroom facilities. At the end of this season, the gym will be taken off-line and transformed with the remainder of the building into the new Viking Pavilion.

Meanwhile, Pardon Our Dust.

- JR F Braxton Tucker has played in only five games due to knee issues. He had arthroscopy on his left knee on Jan. 5.

TASTY TIDBITS: A sampling of some unusual notes this season:

- A BAD TIME IN OVERTIME FOR THE VIKS: Portland State has played four overtime games in its last six starts, losing all four. For the season, the Vikings have played five overtime games and a total of eight overtime periods. Both are new school records... PSU played four overtime games in two other seasons (1998-99 and 2013-14)... Portland State has played in four triple-overtime games in its history (including a 130-124 loss at Eastern Washington on Feb. 4 this season), and one quadruple overtime game (a 92-91 win at Northern Arizona on Jan. 4, 2009).
- NUMBER 35: SR F De'Sean Parsons become the 18th different Viking player in history to score at least 35 points in a game with his performance at Eastern Washington (2/4). The feat has been accomplished 77 times with Freeman Williams doing it 41 times. Players have scored exactly 35 points on nine occasions. It is the eighth time in Portland State's Big Sky era that a player has scored 35 or more points.
- BURN POINTS: Portland State had an amazing 51 points off turnovers (or burn points) against North Dakota (12/29). That continued a season-long trend of burning opponents for their mistakes. The Vikings have scored 496 burn points this season (20.7 per game) to 287 for the opponents (11.9). That is a margin of +8.8 points per game.
- 100 WATCH: Portland State has had a number of meetings with the number 100 this season. Here are the highlights:
  - Coach Tyler Geving won his 100th career game on Dec. 3 against UTRGV. Geving has the second-most career wins by a coach in PSU history (109).
  - The Vikings have scored 100 or more points five times.
  - SR G Zach Gengler played in his 100th career game on Jan. 19 against Montana. Gengler is on pace to finish his career among the top five in games played all-time at PSU. He has now played in 107 games... Gengler also has passed 100 career steals (109).
  - SR G Calaen Robinson passed 100 career steals (117) and 100 career three-pointers (111).
  - SR G Calaen Robinson passed 100 assists for the season (104).

TRENDING: Here is a look at some Viking trends:

- Portland State is 10-4 when scoring 80 or more points, 0-3 when scoring less than 70.
- The Vikings are 8-1 when leading at halftime, 2-9 when trailing, 2-2 when tied.
- PSU is 9-1 when shooting a higher percentage from the field than its opponents, 3-11 when being outshot.

IT TAKES A THIEF: Portland State set a school record for steals last season with 263 in 31 games (8.48). With 245 steals already this year (10.2), the Vikings are about to break that mark again.

- Three Vikings rank in the top eight in steals in the Big Sky: Robinson, Gengler, and SR F De'Sean Parsons.
- PSU had a season-high 19 steals in a win over North Dakota (12/29).

HOT SHOTS: Portland State is averaging 86.5 points per game - the most of any team in the Big Sky Conference. The Vikings have scored 99 or more points in six games this season. The scoring can be attributed to good shooting, an up-tempo pace, an ability to force opponent turnovers, and a few overtimes don't hurt.

- The Vikings shot .530 or better in eight of their wins.
- Portland State shoots .485 from the field overall and has failed to score at least 70 points only three times this season.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT PORTLAND STATE

Portland State University, located in Portland, is the largest school in the state of Oregon with 29,057 students. PSU was founded in 1946 as Vanport College - a two-year institution.

Athletically, Portland State began as a junior college in 1946-47, but competed in the Oregon Collegiate Conference (NAIA) beginning in 1948-49 to 1964-65. PSU became a four-year institution - Portland State College - in 1955. The Vikings won five OCC titles and competed in the NAIA playoffs twice.

Portland State joined the NCAA in 1965-66. The Vikings reached the College Division playoffs in 1966-67. College Division was the forerunner to Division II. Portland State was given university status in 1969.

During the 1970s, Portland State competed as a Division I program. The Vikings' biggest star was Freeman Williams, who still ranks as the second all-time leading scorer in college basketball history behind Pete Maravich. Williams, a Division I All-American in 1978, scored 3,249 points in his career.

The university dropped the men's basketball program in 1981 for budgetary reasons. It remained dormant until 1996-97 when basketball was reinstated and Portland State joined the Big Sky Conference. PSU has had seven winning seasons in its 13 years as a member, including four of the last five.

Portland State won the Big Sky Conference regular season title in 2004-05 (19-9, 11-3), but lost in the Big Sky Tournament semifinals, missing a chance for the NCAA Tournament.

In 2007-08, the Vikings won the Big Sky Conference regular season and tournament titles going 23-10, 14-2 in the Big Sky Conference. The resulting NCAA berth was the first at the Division I level for the Viking program. The Vikings lost to eventual national champion Kansas, but concluded the most successful season in school history.

In 2008-09, PSU once again won 23 games - matching the school record - and reached a second straight NCAA Tournament after winning the Big Sky Conference Tournament for the second year in a row.

With 78 wins from 2007-10, PSU had its most successful era in school history.

Portland State has had 19 first team All-Big Sky Conference selections since 1996, including two Big Conference Players of the Year (Seamus Boxley, Jeremiah Dominguez), three Big Sky Defensive Players of the Year (Seamus Boxley - twice, Scott Morrison), and four Big Sky Newcomers of the Year (Jason Hartman, Ime Udoka, Dupree Lucas, Jeremiah Dominguez), one 6th Man of the Year (DaShaun Wiggins) and one Big Sky Outstanding Freshman (Seamus Boxley).

THE VIKING PAVILION PROJECT

Portland State University broke ground on the new Viking Pavilion during the spring of 2016. It marked the beginning of a $51.6 million renovation of the outdated Peter W. Stott athletics facility.

The building will become a lively center for academics, athletics, the arts and community events. The Viking Pavilion will have a new entrance and glass windows that open onto the South Park Blocks, as well as an energy-efficient design and construction that demonstrate PSU's commitment to sustainability.

"This is the culmination of a lot of hard work by a lot of donors, Legislators, PSU supporters and staff," said Wim Wiewel, PSU president. "The Pavilion will add collaborative study space, create a new destination center on campus, and provide OHSU and PSU with much needed event space."

The renovated building will include 15,000 square feet for studying, tutoring and advising. The new 3,000-seat arena will fill Portland's need for a mid-size public venue and attract an estimated 220,000 people to PSU campus. Visitor spending of $6.8 million will add to PSU's $1.44 billion in annual regional economic impact. The project will also create 396 construction jobs and support the equivalent of 24 permanent full-time jobs.

"Our existing building is about 50 years old and deferred maintenance costs are high. It's time to renovate and open it up for greater use," said Mark Rountree, PSU's athletic director at the time. "It will also provide a beautiful, efficient facility for Athletics that will help to attract the best and brightest student-athletes from around the country."

The design of the new facility was created by Portland's Woofter Architecture and Sink Combs Dethlefs Architects with Fortis Construction contracted to build it. The building is scheduled to open in March 2018.

The renovation is funded through state bonds, private donors, OHSU, and student fees. Funding does not come from general operating funds or tuition dollars.

- $24 million in state bonds
- $17 million in private gifts
- $7.5 million from OHSU
- $1.5 million from student fees

As a basketball venue, the Viking Pavilion has the potential to transform how Portland State Basketball is viewed. PSU will no longer have to compete in the cramped 1,500-seat main gym of the Peter W. Stott Center. That will allow the Viking program to be a more attractive scheduling opportunity for teams from prestigious conferences. It will also be a more attractive recruiting tool for Viking coaches as PSU will have a first-class Division I venue in which to compete.

2016-17 SEASON NOTES

• TUCKER HAS KNEE PROCEDURE: JR F Braxton Tucker, who played in only the first five games of the season, underwent an arthroscopy on his left knee on Jan. 5. He return is unknown. Tucker missed the 2015-16 season with a knee injury. He came back to play in the first five games this season, averaging 16.8 points and 5.8 rebounds, leading the team in scoring in the first four games.

• GEVING GETS 100TH WIN: Portland State Head Coach Tyler Geving earned his 100th career victory at Portland State in an 87-74 win over Texas Rio Grande Valley (12/3). The only other 100-win coach is Sharkey Nelson (162-156 in 12 seasons, 1953-65). Marion Pericin (1965-72) actually won 100 games as Viking Head Coach, however 15 of those wins are not recognized by the NCAA as they came against Canadian universities. Here is a list of Portland State's winningest coaches throughout its 56-year history of men's basketball:

1. Sharkey Nelson, 162-156, 1953-65
2. Tyler Geving, 109-129, 2009-17
3. Ken Edwards, 93-64, 1972-78 (96-64 overall, 3-0 in games against Canadian universities not recognized by NCAA)
4. Marion Pericin, 85-82, 1965-72 (100-86, 15-4 in games against Canadian universities not recognized by NCAA)
5. Arba Ager, 85-52, 1948-53
6. Ken Bone, 77-49, 2005-09

- WCC AFFILIATES?: Portland State had a good run against West Coast Conference teams during the non-conference schedule, especially when you consider all four games were on the road. The Vikings lost to their first WCC opponent, Loyola Marymount (78-62), but went on to pick up wins at Pepperdine (91-85), San Francisco (82-78) and Portland (77-75). That made the Vikings 3-1 against the WCC this season. PSU had been 0-6 against West Coast Conference teams the past four seasons.
- SR C Namdi Oknokwo will redshirt the 2016-17 season. SO G Daniel Davydov is also expected to redshirt as he recovers from a knee injury.
- Portland State is in its 21st season as a member of the Big Sky Conference in 2016-17. PSU won Big Sky regular season titles in 2004-05 and 2007-08. The Vikings won Big Sky tournament titles, advancing to the NCAA Tournament in 2007-08 and 2008-09... PSU's trip to the CollegeInsider.com post-season tournament in 2013-14 was its first Division I post-season tournament other than its previous NCAA trips.
- Portland State was picked to place eighth in the Big Sky Conference Preseason Coaches Poll, ninth in the Big Sky Media Poll (polls listed on page 9 of this release).
- The 18-game Big Sky Conference schedule is unbalanced due to the 12-team membership. Due to the unbalanced schedule Portland State will not host Idaho or Eastern Washington, and will not travel to Idaho State and Weber State.

- This marks the second year in Big Sky history in which all 12 teams will qualify for the post-season tournament. It also marks the second time that the tournament will be hosted at a neutral site; Reno, NV. The tournament takes place on Mar. 7-11 with the top four teams earning first-round byes into the quarterfinals.
- This season Northern Colorado will not participate in the Big Sky Tournament due to a self-imposed ban. That will give the top five teams byes into the quarterfinals.

VIKING BASKETBALL SIGNS FOUR TO NLIs

Portland State Head Coach Tyler Geving announced the signing of four student-athletes to National Letters of Intent for the 2017-18 academic year during the November signing period. It is the largest early signing class for Geving in his eight seasons as a head coach at PSU.

The Vikings have added local high school star Elijah Gonzales from Clackamas, another prep star out of Phoenix, AZ, Holland Woods, and two junior college transfers, Aaron Ray and Narcisse Kalamba.

Ray and Kalamba are coached by brothers at their respective colleges. Brady Trenkle coaches Ray at Garden City (KS) CC, and Swede Trenkle coaches Kalamba at Hill (TX) JC.

"Our staff did a great job of identifying talent across the country and we are enthusiastic about the four players we signed," said Geving. "We feel like we signed two outstanding high school guards who will have a big impact on our program for the next four years. Our two junior college players are very talented and we feel fortunate to sign them both early. We feel both will have a big impact on our program next year. I know all four recruits are excited about playing in the new Viking Pavilion as well. This new arena project on campus helped in the recruitment of all four players."

Here is the early signing class for Portland State basketball for 2017-18:

Elijah Gonzalez, G, 5-8, 150, FR, HS, Clackamas, OR (Clackamas HS)

Named Oregonian first team All-State as a junior at Clackamas High School... named second team All-State by USA Today... named Player of the Year and first team All-Mt. Hood Conference... his team advanced to the quarterfinals of the Oregon 6A state tournament before being knocked out by South Salem... scored 40 points in a playoff win over Franklin High School.

Holland Woods, G, 6-0, 170, FR, HS, Phoenix AZ (Apollo HS)

Averaged 22.1 points, 7.5 assists and 2.9 steals per game as a junior... his sophomore season averaged 14.3 points, 5.5 assists and 2.5 steals.

Aaron Ray, G, 6-2, 210, JR, JC, Middletown, NY (Garden City (KS) CC)

Averaged 10.3 points, 3.2 rebounds as a freshman at Garden City CC... shot .490 from the field, .447 from three-point range and .766 at the line... brother of Allan Ray, who played at Villanova and in the NBA.

Narcisse Kalamba, G/F, 6-6, Montreal, Quebec (Hill (TX) JC)

Averaged 10.3 points and 5.1 rebounds per game as a freshman at Clarendon Junior College... shot .442 from the field, .330 from three-point range and .538 at the line.

VIKING ONE-LINERS (and sometimes two)

- PSU has three players that competed for other Division I schools: Calae Robinson (Arizona State), Deontae North (Long Beach State), Traylin Farris (Incarnate Word).
- SR G Zach Gengler was the Oregon 5A High School Player of the Year in 2012-13.
- SR C Namdi Okonkwo is the first 7-foot player in Portland State's Big Sky era (1996-present) and perhaps ever. PSU previously has had five players that stood 6-11 since reinstating basketball for the 1996-97 season.
- SR F Montie Leunen's brother Matt has been a Viking assistant football coach for five seasons. Matt played for the Vikings between 2005-09.
- Portland State is in its 21st season as a member of the Big Sky Conference and Division I. PSU played basketball from 1946-1981 before discontinuing the program. Basketball was reinstated for the 1996-97 season.
- Construction of the new The Viking Pavilion began in April. The Pavilion will consist of an upgraded Stott Center facility, including a new arena for Viking basketball, as well as athletic training enhancements, academic upgrades and overall facility enhancements. The Viking Pavilion will more than double the capacity of PSU's home court (to be situated on the east side of the building) to somewhere between 3,000-4,000 seats. The arena is expected to be available for play beginning in February 2018.
- Portland State received public recognition from the NCAA in 2014 for being among the top 10 percent of teams in multiyear Academic Progress Rate (APR) scores for the four-year period ending in 2012-13. PSU basketball, which received APR sanctions six years ago, is now among the top programs in the nation in APR scores. Head Coach Tyler Geving has led the program to that accomplishment. PSU had the only men's basketball program in the Big Sky Conference and among the state of Oregon's four Division I programs to be among the top 10 percent recognized by the NCAA.
- Head Coach Tyler Geving and Associate Head Coach Jeff Hironaka were both assistant coaches on the 2000-01 Seattle Pacific basketball staff.
- Special Advisor Barry Adams, a high school coaching legend in the state of Oregon, was elected to the Oregon Sports Hall of Fame on March 10, 2014. Adams spent more than four decades as a prep coach in the state.
- Former Viking Ime Udoka played seven seasons in the NBA. He started 75 games for the Portland Trail Blazers in 2006-07. Udoka is now an assistant coach with the San Antonio Spurs, and won an NBA title with the team in 2013-14.
- Julius Thomas, who holds Portland State records for games played (121), field goal percentage in a season and career (.671/.663), and career wins (78) was a two-time Pro Bowler for the Denver Broncos. Thomas played on two Big Sky Conference Championship/NCAA Tournament teams (2007-08, 2008-09) at PSU. He competed in Super Bowl XLVIII in 2014. Thomas signed a free agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2015 making him the highest paid tight end in the NFL.
