TOP INDIVIDUAL PERFORMANCES

Steve Brenner

FREEMAN WILLIAMS

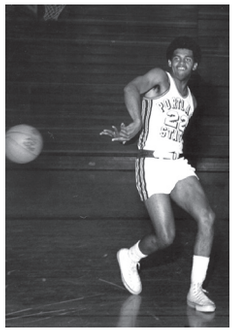

- 1st team All-American, 1977-78.
- 2nd all-time leading scorer in NCAA history, 3,249 points, 1975-78.
- 1977 World University Games.
- Holds 13 PSU records.
- 6 years in the NBA.

When Dominic Waters scored 41 points in a four-overtime win at Northern Arizona on Jan. 4, 2009 - the most recent 40-point game in school history - a quick scan of the PSU record book revealed it was just the 28th-best scoring game in school history - that's not a misprint - 28th-best. But it did reopen the eyes of basketball fans as they remembered the prolific scoring career of Freeman Williams.

Williams, in fact, eclipsed that total on 21 occasions. Other outstanding scorers in PSU history have included Willie Stoudamire, Leon Edmonds, John Nelson, Bill Wilkerson, Jason Hartman and Seamus Boxley.

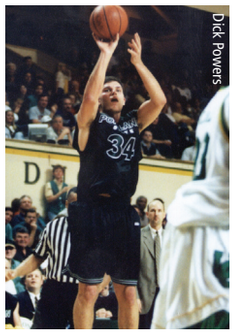

For his part, Williams ranks as the second all-time leading scoring in college basketball history with 3,249 points, trailing only Pete Maravich.

Williams actually scored 3,308 points in 108 games, but two games during his career against a Canadian school, Simon Fraser, are not recognized by the NCAA.

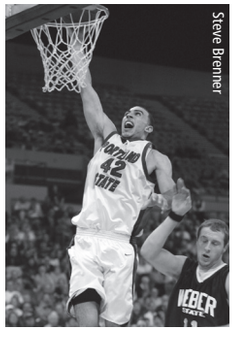

WILLIE STOUDAMIRE

- Ranks among the top ten at PSU in both scoring and assists.
- Averaged 30 points per game in 1970-71.
- Scored 50 points in a game against Nevada.

Dick Powers

JASON HARTMAN

- Scored more than 1,000 points in just two seasons.
- Seventh-leading scorer in the nation in 1998-99, averaging 22.8 points.
- First Viking to lead the Big Sky Conference in scoring.
- Two-time All-Big Sky selection.
- Scored a career-high 38 points vs. Sacramento State.

Steve Brenner

SEAMUS BOXLEY

- Finished career as fourth all-time leading scorer (1,498 points) at Portland State.
- Set school season and career records for field goal percentage.
- Averaged 20.6 points as a senior, leading Big Sky, and was named Big Sky Conference Player of the Year.

M-Game played at Memorial Coliseum (H)
#-Postseason Playoff Game
%-Big Sky Conference Tournament
^-NCAA Tournament

* Games against British Columbia, Victoria and Simon Fraser do not count in official record from 1965-66 to 1980-81 due to PSU's NCAA status. Game vs. Simon Fraser in 1997-98 season was officially recognized NCAA game.

In other non-counting games from PSU's early years of basketball, the Vikings had a 29-13 record against junior colleges, 11-8 record against AAU teams, and a 13-4 record during a trip to Asia in 1954-55.

NAME CHANGES
Alaska became Alaska-Anchorage and is listed as such. Nevada-Southern became Nevada-Las Vegas. Oregon College became Western Oregon. Nevada-Reno became Nevada. Northeast Louisiana became Louisiana-Monroe. Weber JC became Weber State. California Western is now Point Loma Nazarene.

[1]The Cascade College which PSU played during the 1997-98 season is a different college from the Cascade College played during the 1964-65 season, although both are Portland schools. The Cascade College of the 1960's no longer exists.

George Fox University was known as Pacific College during the two meetings in the 1947-48 season. It is not to be confused with Pacific of Forest Grove, OR of the same era.
