WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT PORTLAND STATE AND VIKING FOOTBALL

Portland State University, located in Portland, OR, has an enrollment of 21,040 students (fall 2023). It was founded in 1946 as Vanport College - a two-year institution.

Athletically, Portland State began as a junior college in 1946-47, but competed in the Oregon Collegiate Conference at the NAIA level from 1950 to 1964, winning three OCC football titles (1962, 1963, 1964). PSU became a four-year institution in 1955.

Portland State joined the NCAA in 1965 and competed at the College Division level (the forerunner of NCAA II). PSU was an NCAA 1-AA member from 1978-80, then moved back to Division II in 1981, where it competed through the 1995 season. The Vikings were members of the Western Football Conference from 1982 to 1992, winning six conference championships. PSU made eight NCAA II playoff appearances from 1987 to 1995 and played in the NCAA National Championship game in 1987 and 1988.

In 1996, Portland State moved to the Big Sky Conference and up to the NCAA 1-AA (now FCS) level. The Vikings made their first playoff appearance at their current level in 2000. In 2015, Portland State had its best season ever at the Division I level, compiling a 9-3 record and reaching the NCAA playoffs.

Portland State's football program has produced such legendary figures as Coach Mouse Davis, quarterbacks Neil Lomax and June Jones, Tom Oberg (the first Viking to play in the NFL), Coach Pokey Allen (who led the Vikings to two NCAA II National Championship appearances), and some 33 players who have appeared in the NFL.

In 2014, three former Vikings reached NFL Championship games: Julius Thomas with Denver, DeShawn Shead with Seattle and Jordan Senn with Carolina. Thomas and Shead went on to meet in Super Bowl XLVIII with their respective teams and Shead became a Super Bowl Champion - just the third former PSU Viking to do so (Clint Didier, Ted Popson). Shead made a return appearance to the Super Bowl in 2015, while Thomas was selected to his second Pro Bowl in as many years. He later signed a free agent contract with the Jacksonville Jaguars, making him the highest paid tight end in the NFL.

Portland State football plays at Hillsboro Stadium, west of downtown, a 7,600-seat stadium.

PORTLAND STATE UNIVERSITY VIKINGS

Portland State should always be referred to as "Portland State," NEVER by just "Portland." An acceptable alternative to "Portland State" is "PSU." The nickname for both the men's and women's teams at Portland State is "Vikings." An acceptable alternative to "Vikings" is "Viks."

VIKINGS SEASON PREVIEW

WHO THEY ARE

The Portland State Vikings will open spring football practice on April 2 at Stott Community Field. The 15-practice session will conclude with the Spring Game on Saturday, April 27, at Hillsboro Stadium.

PSU has 54 returning letterwinners and 15 returning starters from the 2023 season. Thirty redshirts also return, including 22 who saw game action last season. That gives the Vikings over 70 players with game experience.

The national letter of intent signee day brought 27 new Vikings to the program, including 22 freshmen and five transfers.

THE OFFENSE

• DANTE'S DATA: SR QB Dante Chachere (6-3, 200) will begin his third season directing the Viking offense in 2024. Over the past two years, Chachere has compiled 4,767 yards of total offense and 52 total touchdowns. Chachere has rushed for more than 1,200 yards with 17 TDs, and passed for over 3,500 yards and 35 TDs. With 4,919 yards of total offense and 54 total touchdowns in his career Chachere has proven to be the epitome of the pass/run quarterback... Chachere has twice been named Big Sky Conference Player of the Week and will be one of the league's top returning QBs... the real intrigue at quarterback is likely the battle for backup. Behind the incumbent signal caller is a group of four freshmen - two redshirts (Gabe Downing and Jazel Riley) and two true (Cru Newman and Tyrese Smith) - redshirt junior Keegan Stancato (6-4, 210) and walk-on juniors William Haskell (6-4, 200) and Rieger Sayre (6-2, 225). It should be fascinating.

• RUNNING GAME REBOOT: The Viking running game was dominant in 2023, averaging 224.0 yards per game to rank second in the Big Sky Conference and sixth in the nation. It was the best rushing performance by a Viking team in six seasons. In 2024, the backfield will need to feature old and new. SO RB Quincy Craig (5-9, 185) was named to the Jerry Rice Watch List for National Freshman of the Year honors early last year. He had 66 carries for 410 yards and three touchdowns, 19 receptions for 207 yards and three touchdowns, and six punt returns for 70 yards after six games. At that point he was leading the Big Sky Conference in all-purpose yards (124.0). Unfortunately, a knee injury knocked him out for the remainder of the season. Still, the 5-9, 185-pound back so impressed the league that he earned Big Sky all-purpose back honorable mention recognition. His return to health and the return of SR RB Christian Grubb (5-9, 170; 53-282-1) give the backfield a dynamic presence. Grubb was an all-around back for the Vikings compiling 727 all-purpose yards. The incorporation of SR RB Jalyne McGee (5-10, 195; 562 career rushing yards) and RS FR Delon Thompson (5-9, 200; leading HS rusher in southern California in 2022) will be vital to continued success in the Viking running game.

Dante Chachere (15) and Quincy Craig (17) will lead a dynamic running game once again 2024.

• EARLY COMEBACK PLAYER OF THE YEAR CANDIDATE: To say JR WR Darien Chase (6-1, 210) has been faced with challenges throughout his collegiate career would be an understatement. Chase was a redshirt at Nebraska in 2019, then transferred to PSU in 2020. That season was cancelled due to the COVID pandemic. Finally, in 2021, as a redshirt freshman, Chase showed his talents, making 54 receptions for 579 yards and four touchdowns. His career - finally underway - was off to a great start. Unfortunately, a torn achilles tendon in preseason camp cost him the 2022 season. Then, Chase suffered a torn ACL last season on Sept. 30 at Montana State. As a result, he has played in only four games since 2021. Going into 2024, presuming good health, Chase should be the Vikings' top wide receiver. Let's all knock on wood... the Vikings will need production from Chase and to identify other big contributors as they will be the least experienced at wide receiver as they have been for some time. SR Semaj Bolin (5-10, 170), JRs Chance Miller (6-0, 180) and Jayden Brannan (6-3, 190), and SO Jaylen Lynch (6-2, 175) have seen limited field time as backups. Bolin established himself last year in his first full year at wide receiver since moving over from defensive back. SR Travis West (5-6, 160) is making that move this year after three seasons as a DB... JR TR Branden Alvarez (5-11, 180) should step into a role after transferring in from San Jose State, while RS FRs Eric Denham (5-11, 185), Joaquin Johnson (5-11, 180) and Tini Tinali (6-0, 180) will all get a look. Walk-on Eddie Schultz (RS FR, 6-1, 195), a Cal Poly transfer, will participate in spring football... the Vikings signed three freshmen: Daulton Beard (6-5, 195), Kenen Elder (6-0, 175) and Ben Stevens (6-4, 205).

2024 PORTLAND STATE FOOTBALL

- REGROUPING THE BIGGEST GROUP: Speaking of injuries, PSU's offensive line had more than its share in 2023. The Vikings got through, but the depth was mostly gone by the end of the season. In 2024, the Vikings will be fully-staffed and experienced once again. The good news is four returning starters up front led by fourth-year OLs Richard Estrella (6-4, 305) and D'Angalo Titilii (6-2, 320). Also back are SR OL Billy Lutui (6-1, 310) and SO OL Isaac Perez (6-3, 305), who moved into starting roles in 2023. After that, the Vikings welcome back Pedro Timoteo (6-4, 335), Braylon Cornell (6-6, 285), Hezephaniah Po Ching (6-2, 300) and Dominic DeBerry (6-4, 285), all of whom were injured last year. Experienced backups Anthony Tena (6-4, 285), Christian Delacruz (6-3, 295) and Jake Cooper (6-5, 260) also return, while the RS FRs Tristan Lewis (6-5, 275) and Pryce Roberts (6-5, 290) - part of the top-ranked 2023 recruiting class - are also ready to go... PSU brought in SR TR Gavin Miller (6-6, 310) from Brown to compete for a starting role as well... three other redshirts and three 2024 freshmen signees make the position the largest and deepest on the team.
- TIGHT END TALENT: Another fascinating position battle will come from the tight end spot. The Vikings are deeper at that position than they have been in recent memory. SR Elias Spence (6-4, 225) has been a special teams leader, but also pitched in on the line last season. SO Tanner Beaman (6-3, 220) possesses size but can also get outside like a wide receiver. SOs Charlie White (6-2, 235) and Brooks Ferguson (6-5, 225) both gained experience in 2023. And, RS FR Kristian Ingman (6-5, 235) was an intriguing prospect last season before an early hand injury shut him down. Throw in JR TR Seth Lyon (6-3, 245) and JR walk-on Jahleel Heath (6-1, 235) and the Vikings have eight capable players battling for field time.

THE DEFENSE

- RE-ESTABLISHING THE RUSH: Portland State had a disappointing total of 10 sacks last season as a team. But, on the defensive line, it was apparent that a lot of young talent was emerging. The 2024 season should reveal those talents of a group that was a feature of PSU's top-ranked 2023 recruiting class. SOs Elijah Eason (6-5, 235, 3 starts), Jayden House (6-2, 250, 2 starts) and Spencer Elliott (6-2, 235) all saw action at defensive end as true freshmen. They should take a big step forward in the coming season while classmates (and 2023 redshirts) Donte Hookfin (6-3, 240), Kamren Marsh (6-3, 250) and Bam Afalava (6-3, 240) join the mix... the Vikings return their starting defensive ends in JR Slade Shufelt (6-3, 255, 3.5 sacks) and SR Kennedy Freeman (6-1, 240, 2 sacks), though Freeman may miss part of the season while recovering from a knee injury... on the inside, starting SR DT Jordan Tagaloa (6-2, 285) is back. He is joined by SR J'Querian Ladson (6-4, 345) and SOs Elias Sanders (6-2, 265) and Michael MacNeill (6-1, 280)... also joining in the spring is JR walk-on Jayden Sandusky (6-1, 260).

- HIT MAN: SO LB Michael Montgomery (6-3, 230) got his career started in a big way, making 14 tackles against Oregon in game one of 2023 - all in the second half. That was the most by any player in the Big Sky Conference on the opening weekend of games. He went on to start five games and ranked second on the Vikings in tackles (69, 3.5 TFL, 1 FR). He was a Freshman All-American by both Stats Perform and FCS Football Central at the end of the season. Still young, Montgomery will lead the linebacker corps along with SR Jaymason Willingham. The Vikings have a very athletic group of sophomores in Peyton Wing (6-0, 210), Jaxton Helmstetler (6-2, 200) and Davin Beason (6-1, 225). RS FR Nate Richter (6-3, 220) will bring excellent size and athleticism as well. JR TR Jordan Allen (6-0, 225), a signee from San Jose State, and walk-on JR JC transfer Chase Beardsley will come in spring and compete for roles.
- TAKEAWAY TYREESE: SR CB Tyreese Shakir (5-10, 175) moves over from the safety position to cornerback for 2024. Shakir and SR CB Michael Jackson (6-2, 185) lead an experienced defensive backfield. With 31 career games and 25 starts behind him, Shakir 122 career tackles, eight career takeaways (5 INT, 3 FR) and nine career pass breakups... Jackson has played in 30 career games and has 14 starts. He has 63 career tackles, six pass breakups and three interceptions... another starter back is SO FS Michael Hurst (5-11, 190), who had 51 tackles, four tackles for loss and five pass breakups in his freshman season... depth is not an issue in the defensive backfield as other key players are JR NICK Ezriel Vasquez (5-11, 170), SO CB Duhron Goodman (5-11, 190), SR CB Day Day Bright (5-10, 170) and RS FRs S Zach Wusstig (6-1, 185), NICK Jaden DeCosta (6-1, 195), CB DeMarcus Houston (6-2, 185) and S Isaiah Green (6-1, 180). Goodman, Wusstig, Vasquez and Dacosta all have starts in their careers... walk-on JR Jeffrey Robinson (5-9, 180) will join for spring football.

SPECIAL TEAMS

- FOOTNOTES: Portland State will have a transition in its kicking game in 2024. The Vikings have signed JR P Tony Johnson from College of the Canyons... SO K Fyodor Henrichs-Tarasenko returns after backing up in 2023... look for an additional transfer signing in the kicking game

Linebacker Michael Montgomery was named a freshman All-American by two media outlets.

MOST CHALLENGING SCHEDULE IN PROGRAM HISTORY AWAITS

Plain and simple, the 2024 Portland State Football schedule may be the most challenging in program history. And, it may be the most challenging in the nation at the FCS level.

The Viking program's 12-game slate is loaded; loaded with teams that had winning records in 2023, loaded with teams with playoff appearances, and loaded with FBS opponents. In fact, seven of the Vikings' nine FCS opponents in 2024 finished 2023 nationally-ranked, including six in the top 14, and national finalist Montana.

PSU will play five home games and seven road games in 2024 – all against Division I programs. PSU hosts South Dakota (Sept. 14), UC Davis (Oct. 5), Montana State (Oct. 19), Idaho (Nov. 9) and Northern Colorado (Nov. 23) in contests at Hillsboro Stadium.

The Vikings go on the road to play at Washington State (Aug. 31), Weber State (Sept. 7), Boise State (Sept. 21), Chattanooga (Sept. 28), Idaho State (Oct. 12), Sacramento State (Nov. 2) and Montana (Nov. 16).

Notable are games against Washington State (Aug. 31), which is playing a hybrid Mountain West schedule, and Boise State (Sept. 21), a member of the Mountain West. It will be a second meeting with each of those FBS schools in the past five seasons.

PSU also picks up a pair of brand new opponents in South Dakota and Chattanooga. A member of the Missouri Valley Football Conference, South Dakota was 10-3 in 2023, reaching the NCAA FCS Quarterfinals. Chattanooga, from the Southern Conference, was 8-5 overall reaching the round of 16 in the FCS Playoffs.

The Vikings will play all four Big Sky Conference playoff teams in succession - Montana State, Sacramento State, Idaho and Montana – between Oct. 19 and No. 16. That gives PSU six (!) 2023 FCS playoff teams on its 2024 schedule who had a combined 7-6 record in the post-season.

Nine of the 12 opponents had winning records in 2023 with a combined record of 85-64.

SCHEDULE NOTES

The Vikings will miss Cal Poly, Eastern Washington and Northern Arizona in 2024 - all of whom they beat in 2023.
- PSU's two FBS-level opponents are Washington State and Boise. PSU is 4-48 all-time when playing "up" against FBS programs. Wins have come over Hawai'i (2000), New Mexico (2006), Washington State (2015) and North Texas (2015)... this marks the 10th consecutive season that Portland State has played two FBS opponents. PSU has done so a total of 14 times, including three in 2006.
- Final 2023 rankings of PSU's 2024 opponents (Stats Perform FCS Top 25): Montana (#2), South Dakota (#4), Idaho (#8), Montana State (#9), Sacramento State (#13), Chattanooga (#14), UC Davis (#24).

SEVEN VIKINGS EARN ALL-BIG SKY CONFERENCE HONORS

The Portland State Vikings Football Team had four players named second team All-Big Sky Conference and three others earned honorable mention as the league released its post-season awards. Voting for awards was done by league coaches.

Senior fullback Andrew Van Buren, senior offensive lineman Shiloh Ta'ase, senior defensive lineman Dino Kahaulelio and junior kicker Gianni Smith were all named second team All-Big Sky. Senior wide receiver Jermaine Braddock, sophomore linebacker Parker McKenna and freshman all-purpose back Quincy Craig earned honorable mention.

Van Buren, 6-foot, 240-pounder from West Hills, CA, rushed 56 times for 244 yards and three touchdowns this season. He played a vital role as a blocker for a running game that averaged 224.0 yards per contest – second-best in the Big Sky and sixth-best in the nation.

Ta'ase, a 6-3, 310-pound guard from Seattle, was a mainstay for the Vikings for four seasons. He played in 43 games, including 36 starts before an injury in the season's sixth game abruptly ended his career. He was vital in the Vikings outstanding running game and pass protection.

Kahaulelio, a 6-foot, 285 pounder from Santa Rosa, CA, started in the middle for the Viking defense. He made 24 tackles, 6.5 tackles for loss, had an interception and a pass breakup on the season.

Van Buren, Ta'ase and Kahaulelio were also Viking team co-captains.

Smith, a 6-1, 205-pound junior from Oak Park, CA, made eight of nine field goals this season to lead the Big Sky in field goal percentage (.889). He holds the PSU record for career percentage (18-23, .783) over three seasons. Smith was named Big Sky Conference and National Special Teams Player of the Week after kicking field goals of 51, 55 and 42 yards against UC Davis on Nov. 4. He was also 42-44 on extra points and had 45 touchdowns on 63 kickoffs.

Braddock, a 6-1, 190-pound transfer from San Jose State, is originally from Covina, CA. He led the Vikings in receptions with 54, receiving yards with 636, and receiving touchdowns with seven. Braddock ranked in the top six in the Big Sky in each category.

McKenna, a 6-foot, 220-pounder from Beaverton High School, led Portland State in tackles with 75 for the season. He also had a team-high nine tackles for loss, three pass breakups and an interception. McKenna was 11th in the Big Sky in tackles.

Craig might have been picked higher had he been able to stay healthy. The 5-9, 185-pound back from Garden Grove, CA was PSU's top offensive player for six games. He had 410 rushing yards and three rushing touchdowns as well as 19 receptions for 207 yards and three more TDs. The team's punt returner as well, Craig was averaging 124.8 yards all-purpose yards per game to lead the Big Sky at the time. In October, he was named one of 22 freshmen across the nation to the Jerry Rice Award Watch List for the National Freshman of the Year. Unfortunately, an injury at Northern Arizona (10/14) ended his season.

MONTGOMERY NAMED FRESHMAN ALL-AMERICAN

Highlighting Portland State Football's strong freshman class during the 2023 season, Viking linebacker Michael Montgomery has been named to The FCS Football Central and Stats Perform Freshman All-American Teams.

Montgomery ranked second on the team in tackles with 69 for the season, including 3.5 tackles for loss and a fumble recovery. He had a season-high 14 tackles against Oregon in the season opener. Montgomery also had a 10-tackle game against Idaho State.

With a start at center in the season finale, Holliday started at all five offensive line positions for the Vikings.
- NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK: JR OL Billy Lutui started at right guard in seven games for the Vikings. That came after starting the first two games at defensive tackle. Lutui, a transfer from Sacramento State, was deemed more valuable on the offensive side of the ball, and it took only three practices to get him into the starting lineup on offense... when the Vikings were short-handed on the line at Montana State, they went with true FR OL Isaac Perez as a starter at left guard. He came in to replace an injured Shiloh Ta'ase at Northern Arizona and took over at left guard with five starts... RS FR OL Anthony Tena started his first two games in place of an injured Lutui (10/28 and 11/4).

The true freshman group was rated the best National Letter of Intent class in the Big Sky Conference and third-best at the FCS level after the Feb. 1 signing date by 247Sports.com (18 freshmen, three JCs).
- PARTICIPATION AWARD: Portland State played 91 different players against North American, including numerous true freshmen. 2023 SEASON HIGHLIGHT REEL

91 PLAYERS, 91 POINTS

Portland State had a massive 91-0 win over North American (9/16) in a non-conference game that allowed the team to have 91 different players compete - likely a PSU record. The 91 points scored were the third-most in school history and most ever by a Big Sky Conference team. Nine different players scored touchdowns, 10 different players rushed the ball and 34 different players had tackles for the Vikings who gained 419 total yards. The -23 total yards for the Stallions was a new PSU defensive record. NAU was 1-15 on third downs and converted only one first down on offense.

2024 PORTLAND STATE FOOTBALL

THE HOLY TRINITY

Portland State played well in every aspect of the game in a 59-21 win over Cal Poly (9/23). On offense, the Vikings had 496 total yards, including 404 rushing yards – 10th-most in school history. The Vikings had five rushing plays of 50+ yards in the game. On defense, the Vikings held the Mustangs to 263 yards – the fewest by a Big Sky opponent in PSU’s last 11 league games – made 10 tackles for loss, forced two turnovers and five three-and-outs. On special teams, the Vikings had a kick return for touchdown and continued to punt (45.0) and kick (1-1 FG, 45 yards) effectively.

BREAKING A ROAD JINX

Portland State won for the first time at Northern Arizona since 2006 when the Vikings beat the Lumberjacks, 45-21 (10/14). Admittedly, it was only four losses at Walkup Skydome over the 17-year span, but it wasn’t something the Vikings wanted to continue. PSU’s dominant rushing game churned out 366 of the 525 yards of total offense. FR RB Quincy Craig had 10 carries for 103 yards to lead the team. But it was JR QB Dante Chachere who was the star with 14-19 passing for 159 yards and five touchdowns, and 12 rushing plays for 83 yards and another score. He was named Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Week. PSU’s defense was big in the win as well, holding the ‘Jacks to 318 yards, forcing two interceptions and twice stopping them on fourth-down attempts.

MALARY KEEPS THE DAM CUP IN TOWN

A career performance by JR RB Jobi Malary led a dynamic Portland State offense to a 47-35 victory over Eastern Washington in the Dam Cup Rivalry Game (10/28). The Vikings take the Dam Cup Trophy for the second year in a row as the offense totaled 544 yards of offense, 403 yards on the ground. Malary rushed 23 times for a career-high 241 yards and a school-record-tying six rushing touchdowns. Malary had scores of eight, one, one, 39, 75 and 44 yards. It was the most rushing yards by a Viking in seven years and tied the rushing touchdown record of Jeff Salta, set in 1976 in a win over Eastern Montana. He was named the Big Sky Conference Offensive Player of the Week.

CALLING LONG DISTANCE

JR K Gianni Smith had the game of his career at UC Davis (11/4) and was been honored by the Big Sky Conference as Special Teams Player of the Week, and nationally as the FCS FedEx Ground National Special Teams Player of the Week. Smith made a career-high three field goals in the Vikings 37-23 loss. He kicked a career-long 51-yard field goal in the third quarter. That stood up for less than a half an hour as he came back to kick another career-long - this time from 55 yards – in the fourth quarter. Smith later added a 42-yard field goal to get the Vikings within a touchdown with six minutes to play. The 55-yard kick ties for the second-longest in Portland State history. He is the first Viking to earn National Player of the Week honors since 2012.

HAPPY ENDING

Portland State pulled off a fourth-quarter comeback to defeat Northern Colorado, 27-23, (11/18) and end their season on a happy note. The Vikings scored two touchdowns in the final 6:15 of the game to erase a nine-point fourth-quarter deficit. PSU had drives of 75 and 90 yards result in TDs. JR QB Dante Chachere hit JR TE Elias Spence on a seven-yard score on the first drive, then rush in from three yards with a minute to go for the second score. PSU finished with 477 yards, including 175 passing and 123 rushing from Chachere, who accounted for all four Viking touchdowns.
