Interview Policy

Penn men's basketball coach Steve Donahue and Quaker players generally are available for interviews before practices. Please contact Mike Mahoney (215-898-9232 or mahoneyw@upenn.edu) in the Athletic Communications office at least one day in advance to request an interview. The Athletic Communications office will make every effort to accommodate requests as quickly as possible; this policy pertains to all Penn athletic administrators, coaches and student-athletes.

Press Credentials

Working press credentials to Penn home games at The Palestra can be obtained by contacting Mike Mahoney in Athletic Communications.

Parking

Parking is limited around The Palestra; media members should contact the Athletic Communications office well in advance to secure parking.

Media Will Call

The Palestra media will call gate is at the arena's west (front) entrance. The Palestra's general will-call window is located to the far left of the main entrance OR in The Palestra ticket office, which is also located at the main entrance of the arena.

Klatsky Media Room

The Klatsky Media Room is located under the bleachers on the North side of the Palestra (behind the benches). Food and drink is served here pregame, and press conference will take place here postgame.

Print Media Seating

The Palestra can seat approximately 50 members of the working press. Print media reporters and electronic media not broadcasting the game are seated at tables on the South sideline of the floor (across the court from the benches). The media room will be available during and following each game to transmit stories. The press row phone number at The Palestra is (215) 898-4324.

Photographers

Photographer locations are along each baseline; photographers are not to station themselves between the benches and the baskets, that area is reserved for cheerleaders. Flash photography is prohibited.

Radio and TV Seating

Visiting radio broadcast crews are seated on the scorer's table next to their team bench. Stations should confirm phone or ISDN lines through Mike Mahoney in Athletic Communications.

Television Cameras

TV cameras will be located in the South-side press box and at both ends of the floor, if desired. Television announcers sit at midcourt of the South side press tables (with no exceptions). Television stations should contact Peggy Kowalski in the Penn Athletics Operations office at (215) 898-9231 to order University support personnel for a telecast.

Statistics

Box scores, halftime and postgame statistics are distributed during and after each contest. A full statistical package will also be available following the game.

Postgame Interview Policy

Following a cooling-off period, the opposing coach and (if requested) players will go first in the interview room, followed by Penn Head Coach Steve Donahue and Penn players. The Penn locker room is closed to the media at all times.

It's Penn, Please

The first time you mention us on-air or in your columns, please use our full name—the University of Pennsylvania. After that, we ask that you refer to us simply as Penn. We would ask that you refrain from calling us Pennsylvania or UPenn at any time.

Thanks for your cooperation!

 THE IVY LEAGUE®
DIGITAL NETWORK

Joe Tordy, Matt Leon, and former Quaker players Stan Pawlak C'66 and Vince Curran ENG'92 W'92 will provide the Ivy League Digital Network radio play-by-play and commentary for Penn men's basketball during the 2016-17 season.

Tordy is in his second season with Penn. He also is the play-by-play voice of the Arena Football League's Philadelphia Soul—winners of ArenaBowl XXIX in August—and fills in as a host for the Philadelphia Flyers on pregame, intermissions, and postgame for the Flyers Radio Network on 97.5 The Fanatic.

In addition to his stints with Penn football and men's basketball, Leon can be heard weekdays on KYW Newsradio (1060 AM) where he is a sports reporter doing reporters at :15 and :45 of each hour. Leon also is the author of a book, Under Your Nose, about unsung Philadelphia sports figures.

Curran is one of the most recognizable figures in the Penn men's basketball family. The basketball offices bear the Curran Family name, and in 2009-10 Curran took a hiatus from his broadcasting duties to step in as an assistant coach when Jerome Allen was promoted to interim head coach.

Pawlak, meanwhile, was a three-time first-team All-Ivy pick from 1964-66, led the Quakers to its first Ivy League title in 1965-66 as a senior, and is a member of the Penn Athletics Hall of Fame Class III as well as the Philadelphia Big 5 Hall of Fame.

How did The Palestra gets its name? We excerpt Ralph Morgan, basketball pioneer, founder of Intercollegiate Rules Committee, and former Penn trustee (also one of the people who championed the building of The Palestra back in the 1920s)...

"We had our plans approved and our location agreed upon. Then one day Charlie Borie (Chairman of the Trustees' Committee on Building and Grounds) called me on the telephone. 'What are we going to call it?' he asked.

"'Coliseum' and 'arena' were dismissed as too commonplace. Then Borie suggested that he and I go out to the University and talk with Dr. William N. Bates, Professor of Greek. We did so, and after presenting our problem—which I felt would take many hours to solve—we were both bowled off our feet.

"'That is easy,' said Dr. Bates. 'The Greeks had the gymnasia, where their young men trained for their feats of prowess, wrestling, gymnastics, tumbling, leaping and the like. And then they had their Palestra, a rectangular enclosure attached to the gymnasium where they displayed their prowess to the view of all who would come to view.'

"And so in about five minutes we had our name—Palestra. It fit all of our specifications: Authentic, novel, dignified, descriptive. The only deviation we made was in deference to Philadelphia's winter weather, as we put a roof on our Palestra."

DID YOU KNOW

There are just two NCAA Division I programs that entered the 2016-17 season with more wins in their current home venue than Penn has in The Palestra (822)? Washington has 967 wins at Hec Edmundson Pavilion in Seattle, while Butler has 860 wins at Hinkle Fieldhouse in Indianapolis, Ind. The "Hec Ed" opened in 1927, Hinkle in 1928.

Now You Know ...

- The Penn men's basketball programs boasts an all-time record of 822-393 (.677 win percentage) at The Palestra.
- Penn has gone undefeated at The Palestra over an entire season four times.
- Penn has had 22 undefeated Ivy League seasons in The Palestra.
- Penn has a record of 346-88 (.798 winning percentage) vs. Ivy League opponents in The Palestra.
- Since losing its Ivy League home opener in 1991-92, Penn has gone 135-39 at The Palestra against the rest of the Ancient Eight.
- The Palestra has hosted 48 NCAA Tournament games, the most recent being an opening-round tripleheader in 1984.

PENN IN THE IVY LEAGUE

In 1901-02 Columbia, Cornell, Harvard, Princeton and Yale formed the Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball League (EIL). By 1955-56 Brown, Dartmouth and Penn had joined, and, in accordance with the Presidents' Agreement of 1954, the group was renamed the Ivy League.

Penn's Ivy League men's basketball championships (since 1956-57) are listed in bold italics.

25

The number of Ivy League titles Penn has won in men's basketball. After Penn and Princeton, no one else has won more than four titles in the 56-year history of the Ivy League.

16

Ivy League Players of the Year, more than any other school.

Penn players who have earned Ivy League Player of the Year twice—current head coach Jerome Allen (1993, 1994) as well as Ugonna Onyekwe (2002, 2003) and Ibby Jaaber (2006, 2007). Only three other players from the other seven schools combined have pulled off the double.

Penn players who have been named Ivy League Rookie of the Year, the most recent Tyler Bernardini in 2007-08.

Undefeated Ivy League campaigns, including five since 1992-93. The rest of the Ivy League has had six combined.

48

Penn's Ivy League win streak from 1993-96, the longest in Ancient Eight history and the second-longest conference winning streak in NCAA Division I history. The win streak included three straight undefeated campaigns (1993, 1994, 1995).

41

Players who have been awarded a total of 68 first-team All-Ivy honors; no other school in the Ancient Eight has had as many first-team All-Ivy selections.

Men's Basketball in the Penn Athletics Hall of Fame

The University of Pennsylvania inducted its inaugural Athletics Hall of Fame class, consisting of 46 members, on April 13, 1996. Since then, eight more classes have been elected, with Class X scheduled to go in on May 6, 2017.

Candidates for the Hall of Fame must have earned their last letter at least 10 years prior to their induction; coaching candidates must have coached at least five years at Penn and no longer be actively coaching at the University. Candidates must be nominated by a third party to be considered for induction.

Below is a list of names of former Penn men's basketball players and coaches who have been inducted into the Penn Athletics Hall of Fame.

PENN IN THE PHILADELPHIA BIG 5

The Philadelphia Big 5 is unlike any basketball union in the country. An unsanctioned conference, the Big 5 groups Philadelphia's metropolitan universities in an unequalled basketball rivalry—the University of Pennsylvania out of the Ivy League; La Salle University and Saint Joseph's University from the Atlantic 10 Conference; Temple University out of the newly formed American Athletic Conference; and Villanova University from the Big East Conference. (The city's other current Division I program, Drexel University, was an NCAA Division 2 program at the time of Big 5's founding.)

The Big 5 is best known for the heated rivalries, The Palestra atmosphere, and the unique personalities.

The formation of the Big 5 was conceived by Penn athletic director Jerry Ford. Penn sports information director Bob Paul and the Quakers' business manager, John Rossiter, worked to put the round-robin format together. The other athletic directors who worked together to form the Big 5 were La Salle's Jim Henry, Saint Joseph's George Bertelsman, Temple's Josh Cody and Villanova's Ambrose (Bud) Dudley. University of Pennsylvania President Gaylord Harnwell announced the formation of the Big 5 at Penn's Houston Hall on November 23, 1954. On December 3, 1955, the first Philadelphia Big 5 doubleheader took place at The Palestra.

For 36 seasons, the winner of the annual round robin was informally crowned as the city champion. In 1991-92, the format was changed as each team played two Big 5 games on home courts throughout the city. The round-robin format returned in 1999-2000, and a true Big 5 champion has been crowned every year since. The Big 5 added women's basketball to the city series in 1980.

These partnerships have remained intact and defines Philadelphia's collegiate sports tradition, with heated rivalries and fierce competition on the court, partnership and camaraderie off the court.

In a city that is passionate about its sports teams, the Philadelphia Big 5 is the embodiment of collegiate sports.

• The University of Pennsylvania participated in the first intercollegiate 5-on-5 basketball game in history?

On March 20, 1897, the Quakers were defeated by host Yale, 32-10. (Perhaps it's a coincidence, given the margin of defeat, but Penn would wait nearly five years before playing its next intercollegiate game.)

• Penn entered the 2016-17 season tied for 16th on the NCAA Division I list of all-time winningest programs? The Quakers had 1,734 victories in program history at the start of the season.

1. Kentucky 2,205
2. Kansas 2,186
3. North Carolina . 2,173
4. Duke 2,087
5. Syracuse 1,943
6. Temple 1,870
7. Notre Dame . . . 1,819
8. UCLA 1,818
9. St. John's 1,803
10. Indiana 1,783
11. Louisville 1,778
12. BYU 1,764
13. Utah 1,759
14. Illinois 1,744
15. Texas 1,739
- 16. Penn 1,734
Washington . . 1,734

• From 1970-79, Penn went 223-56 overall, a .799 win percentage? The only schools with better win percentages during that decade were UCLA (273-27, .910) and Marquette (252-40, .863). UNC was fourth (.786), while Kentucky was fifth (.764).

• Penn's 1970-71 team holds a unique distinction in the annals of college basketball? That Quaker squad went 28-1 overall, losing in the NCAA Tournament East Regional final to Villanova. The Wildcats would later vacate the win due to the use of an ineligible player in the game. Thus, in the NCAA's eyes, Penn's record that year is 28-0—making them the only “undefeated” team in history to play in the NCAA Tournament but not win it. (There have been undefeated teams that did NOT play in the NCAA Tournament, most notably Kentucky in 1953-54 and N.C. State in 1972-73.)

• Penn holds the second-longest conference winning streak in NCAA Division I history? The Quakers won 48 straight Ivy League games from 1992-96, including three straight 14-0 seasons in 1992-93, 1993-94 and 1994-95. The overall record for conference wins is held by UCLA, which won 50 straight Pac-10 games from 1971-74.

• Penn is the only team to defeat the University of North Carolina in an NCAA Tournament game played in the state of North Carolina? On March 11, 1979, the ninth-seeded Quakers defeated the top-seeded Tar Heels, 72-71, in an East Regional second-round game played at Reynolds Coliseum in Raleigh. (That day is known by fans on Tobacco Road as “Black Sunday,” as second-seeded Duke also lost at Reynolds, to St. John's.) UNC has played 33 other NCAA Tournament games in the state during its history, and won them all.

• Penn's 1919-20 team is considered that year's national champion? The Quakers went 20-0 during the regular season, clinching the EIL title with a four-overtime win over Princeton (still the most OTs played in program history). Penn then met the Western champion, the University of Chicago, in a best-of-three series to determine the national champion. The Quakers lost the first game in Chicago, 28-24, but rebounded to win Game 2 in Philadelphia, 29-18. The rubber game was played in Princeton, N.J., with Penn coming out on top, 23-21. Later, the Quakers were awarded the Helms Foundation National Championship. (Penn also played Chicago for the national championship in 1907-08, losing twice to the Maroons.)

• Penn's home court, The Palestra, has hosted 48 NCAA Tournament games? The first were the East Regional in the tournament's first year, 1939. The most recent took place in 1984, when Penn hosted an opening-round tripleheader.

• When Koko Archibong took the floor for Nigeria at the 2012 Olympic Games in London, he became the first Penn basketball player to play in the Olympics? The 2003 graduate was joined in London by fellow Quaker Susan Francia, a gold medal-winning rower for the United States.

• Penn was a part of arguably the most famous Final Four in history? The Quakers joined Magic Johnson's Michigan State team and Larry Bird's Indiana State team in Provo, Utah, that year. Penn was beaten by the Spartans in the semifinal round. The fourth team in that Final Four? DePaul, which beat Penn 96-93 in overtime in the consolation game.

• Hall of Fame coach Chuck Daly was once the head coach at Penn? Before he won a pair of NBA titles as head coach of the Detroit Pistons in 1989 and 1990, and before he headed up the “Dream Team” at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona, Daly spent six years at the Quaker helm, going 125-38 (including a 74-10 Ivy League mark) and winning four Ivy titles.

• Penn can count among its alums the Executive Director of the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC), Jim Haney? He graduated in 1971 after three seasons with the varsity, and earned the Bus McDonald Award as a senior. The Quakers were 68-13 (38-4 Ivy, 9-3 Big 5) during Haney's career, including a staggering 53-3 (28-0 Ivy, 8-0 Big 5) his last two years.

Penn is the most recent Ivy League team to reach the Final Four; the Quakers did it in 1979.

JOHN R. ROCKWELL HEAD COACH STEVE DONAHUE

PASSION. GRATITUDE. UNITY. COMPETITIVENESS. HUMILITY.
Now in his second season as the John R. Rockwell Head Coach of the University of Pennsylvania men's basketball program, these are the five "core values" that Steve Donahue has established for the players, coaches and staff affiliated with the program that are under his stewardship.

Steve Donahue was introduced as the John R. Rockwell Head Coach of Men's Basketball on March 17, 2015 and enters his second season as the 20th head coach in program history.

Donahue's hiring marks a return to Penn for the Delaware County native; he was an assistant coach for the Quakers under Fran Dunphy from 1990-91 until 1999-2000. During that 10-year span, Penn won six Ivy League titles including four separate undefeated conference campaigns, compiling a 182-91 overall record that included a 114-26 mark in Ivy play.

"Having been a part of Philadelphia and Penn basketball for the greater part of my life, I have a great passion for this city and this program," said Donahue. "I spent 10 extraordinary years as an assistant here at Penn working with one of the great head coaches in all of college basketball, Fran Dunphy. That, combined with my experiences as head coach at Cornell and Boston College, have led me to this distinct opportunity to return the program that I grew up watching to national prominence. I plan to provide the energy and the enthusiasm that will put Penn basketball back atop the Ivy League."

Donahue left Penn to become head coach at Cornell ahead of the 2000-01 season. He stayed in Ithaca for 10 years, gradually building the Big Red program up until the table was set for a three-year run that included a trio of Ivy League titles; a 72-21 overall record that included a 38-4 Ivy mark; and three NCAA Tournament appearances that included a run to the Sweet 16 in 2010. Donahue was the Clair Bee National Coach of the Year and National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District 4 Coach of the Year in 2009-10; and the NABC District 4 Coach of the Year and United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) District II Coach of the Year in 2007-08, when his team went 14-0 in Ivy League play to become just the third program in Ancient Eight history to achieve an unbeaten conference season (also Penn and Princeton).

While at Cornell, Donahue coached and/or recruited seven of the school's top 13 all-time leading scorers; two Ivy League Player of the Year selections; two Ivy League Rookie of the Year selections; eight NABC All-District selections; six Academic All-District players; and two Academic All-Americans.

Following that Sweet 16 campaign, Donahue left Cornell to become head coach at Boston College. He spent four years at The Heights, going 21-13 his first season and getting the Eagles to the NIT. In 2012-13, he boasted the consensus ACC Rookie of the Year in Olivier Hanlan.

During the 2014-15 basketball season, Donahue was a regular analyst on college basketball broadcasts for ESPN and FOX.

Prior to his arrival at Penn for the 1990-91 season, Donahue was an assistant under legendary coach Herb Magee at Philadelphia University for two seasons and helped the Rams to a pair of 20-win seasons and the NCAA Division II Tournament. Before that, Donahue was an assistant for current Lafayette head coach Fran O'Hanlon at Monsignor Bonner High School, helping to guide Bonner to the Philadelphia Catholic League title. He began his coaching career at Springfield (Pa.) High School.

Donahue is a 1984 Ursinus College graduate, where he was a four-year letterman in both basketball and baseball for the Bears and captain of the basketball team as a senior. His freshman season, Donahue helped the basketball team finish 23-8 and advance to the NCAA Division III Tournament semifinal round. His sophomore year, the Bears were NCAA quarterfinalists.

NAT GRAHAM
Assistant Coach
3rd Season
Penn '07

Nat Graham returned to his alma mater prior to the 2014-15 season and enters his third season with the coaching staff. The 2015-16 season marked a reunion of sorts for Graham—prior to his arrival at Penn, he spent nine seasons on Steve Donahue's staffs, first at Cornell (five seasons) and then at Boston College (four, serving as associate head coach the final three).

Graham helped guide the Big Red to 111 victories and three Ivy League titles in his five years. In 2009-10, Cornell finished with a 29-5 mark and advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Big Red established school records for wins, points (2,545), three-pointers (326), and blocked shots (127). The season marked the program's third straight 20-win campaign.

In 2008-09, Cornell won all 13 home games, a school record, while in 2007-08 the Big Red won a school-best 16 consecutive contests.

Prior to joining Donahue at Cornell, Graham spent one season (1999-2000) as an assistant coach at the University of Western Ontario and one year (2004-05) as an assistant coach at the University of Toronto.

Graham was a two-year letterman (1993-95) at the University of Pennsylvania—playing here when Donahue was an assistant coach with the Quakers—and was a member of two undefeated Ivy League championship teams along with fellow assistant coach Ira Bowman. Penn went a combined 47-9 overall during those two seasons, and earned an NCAA Tournament win over Nebraska in 1994.

Graham transferred to the University of Western Ontario following the 1994-95 season, and was a two-time Ontario University Athletics West first-team selection with the Mustangs. A two-year team captain, he also earned All-Canadian accolades in 1998-99. After graduation, Graham played two years of professional ball in Ireland and Denmark.

Graham graduated from Penn in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in sociology. He earned his master's degree in multicultural education from Eastern University in 2009.

Graham and his wife, Kelly, have one daughter, Noelle, and two sons, Silas and Dashiell.

IRA BOWMAN
Assistant Coach
5th Season
Penn '96

Ira Bowman was hired in June 2012 and is in his fifth year at Penn. The move to Penn marked a homecoming for Bowman, who played two years of college basketball for the Quakers—both of them when Steve Donahue was an assistant coach.

Bowman returned to Penn after spending four years at the New Jersey Institute of Technology (NJIT). The year before Bowman arrived at NJIT, the Highlanders were winless (0-29), and in his first season they went 1-30. After that, NJIT improved dramatically—just two years after that 1-30 campaign, the Highlanders went 15-15 overall including a 9-3 Great West Conference mark in 2010-11. The next season, NJIT went 15-17 overall and advanced to the Great West Conference Tournament championship game.

Bowman played two years at Penn, the 1994-95 and 1995-96 seasons, after transferring from Providence College. His first year with the Quakers, Penn went 22-6 overall and 14-0 en route to its third straight Ivy League title. Bowman was second-team All-Ivy that season. As a senior, Bowman was the Ivy League Player of the Year and first-team All-Philadelphia Big 5 as he led the Quakers to a 17-10 record including a 12-2 mark in Ivy play. Penn tied Princeton that year for the conference title, but fell to the Tigers in a one-game playoff to determine the Ivy's NCAA Tournament bid.

Following his Penn career, Bowman enjoyed a professional playing career that included stints with the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers and Atlanta Hawks. He also played overseas, in Italy and Australia, as well as in the Continental Basketball Association.

Before returning to college basketball as a coach, Bowman spent four years as director of the Assist by Knight Foundation. In addition, he has experience with several aspects of the NBA including serving as an administrator at the NBA's FIBA Tournament in Las Vegas in 2007 and participating in the NBA's Player Development Assistant Coaches Summit in 2007.

JOE MIHALICH
Assistant Coach
2nd Season
Nazareth '09

Joe Mihalich Jr. was hired in April 2015 and enters his second season as an assistant coach for the University of Pennsylvania men's basketball program in 2016-17.

A Philadelphia native and the son of longtime Niagara and current Hofstra head men's basketball coach Joe Mihalich, this move marks a return to the area for Joe Jr. He spent two seasons as a graduate assistant with the men's basketball program at Villanova University under Jay Wright, working directly with the Wildcats' director of basketball operations; organizing and overseeing team and summer camps; and helping out with academics, scouting and recruiting. During Mihalich's time with the program, Villanova posted a 46-20 record and made two NCAA Tournament appearances.

Mihalich spent the last four years at the University of Scranton (Pa.) as the Royals' assistant coach under head coach Carl Danzig. There, his primary responsibilities included recruiting, scouting, player skills' development, overseeing daily operations, and development and implementation of game and practice plans.

Scranton won three Landmark Conference titles during his four-year tenure, and this year the Royals advanced to the NCAA Division III Championship second round before falling to a Babson team that reached the national semifinals. In 2012, Mihalich's first season on staff, Scranton advanced to the sectional championship, the Royals' first national quarterfinal appearance since 1993. Overall, Scranton went 89-25 during the last four seasons including a 47-11 mark in the conference play.

In addition to his coaching stints at Villanova and Scranton, Mihalich has also worked numerous summer camps including Villanova (2007, 2008), Notre Dame (2006-08), Michigan head coach John Beilen (2006, 2008), Nazareth College (2006, 2007) and Niagara University (2005-08).

Mihalich was a four-year letterman on the basketball team at Nazareth College in Rochester, N.Y. In his junior year, the Golden Flyers won the Empire 8 Conference championship, advanced to the NCAA Division III tournament, and capped off the season with a 20-8 record under then-head coach Mike Daley. Mihalich was twice named the team's Hustle, Heart and Harmony Award recipient, received Nazareth's Emily Haskins Inspirational Athlete award as a senior, and was named to the Empire 8 President's List for academic achievement in 2007. He also served as a student-athlete mentor.

Mihalich holds a Bachelor's of Arts degree in mathematics, cum laude, from Nazareth, and a Master of Education degree from Villanova.

BRAD FADEM
Director of Operations
2nd Season
Boston College '13

After spending five seasons with Steve Donahue at Boston College, Brad Fadem made the move to Philadelphia in May 2015 and enters his second season as the director of operations for the University of Pennsylvania's men's basketball program. The move represents a return home for Fadem—who grew up in nearby Devon, Pa.—as well as a reunion with Coach Donahue, who enters his first season overseeing the Quakers in 2015-16.

Overall, Fadem spent six seasons with the BC men's basketball program, four as an undergraduate manager and two as a graduate manager. As an undergrad, he traveled with the Eagles to Spain in August 2012. As a manager, Fadem assisted with the team's video and film, off-season workouts, and recruiting-related tasks, while also organizing the managers' work schedules.

Fadem graduated from BC's Carroll School of Management in 2013 with a bachelor's degree in finance and management & leadership while minoring in film studies. He also holds a Master's in Business Administration (MBA) from Boston College.

John R. Rockwell Head Coach: Steve Donahue (Ursinus '84), 2nd season

Assistant Coach: Nat Graham (Penn '97), 3rd season

Assistant Coach: Ira Bowman (Penn '96), 5th season

Assistant Coach: Joe Mihalich (Nazareth '09), 2nd season

Coordinator of Operations: Brad Fadem

Athletic Trainer: Phil Samko

2016-17 Captains: Matt Howard, Matt MacDonald

• Senior Matt Howard was the only player to start all 28 games last year, averaging 12.3 points and 5.7 rebounds per game. He was second on the team in all three categories as well as steals (25). Howard finished the season with 18 double-figure scoring games—including four with 20 or more points—had three double-doubles, and led Penn in scoring in eight games.

• Sophomore Jackson Donahue averaged 9.7 points per game last year and was the Quakers' top three-point shooter, knocking down 62 treys. He had 14 double-figure scoring games, third on the team, and led Penn in scoring three times. Donahue led the Ivy League in three-point field goals per game in league play last year (2.9) and was third in minutes per game (35.5).

• Sophomore Jake Silpe was the only freshman to play in all 28 games last year and made 20 starts, tops among the freshmen. The former South Jersey Player of the Year averaged 5.0 points, 2.6 rebounds and 22.4 minutes per game; led Penn in assists (89) and steals (27); and had four double-figure scoring games.

• Junior Sam Jones also played in all 28 games—one of just four players to do so—including 23 starts. He averaged 8.4 points, 3.6 rebounds and 24.8 minutes per game, and was second on the team with 58 three-point baskets. Jones had 11 double-figure scoring games.

• Junior Darnell Foreman was the fourth player to see time in all 28 games. He averaged 5.4 points and 2.7 rebounds per game and was second on the team in assists (61) and third in steals (21).

• Sophomore Max Rothschild had three double-figure scoring games, two double-digit rebounding efforts, and one double-double last year. He led Penn in scoring once and in rebounding twice.

• Sophomore Tyler Hamilton certainly made a favorable final impression last year; he made his first collegiate start in the season finale at Princeton and recorded 11 points, seven rebounds, three assists and three steals.

• Junior Dan Dwyer played in 24 games last year (three starts) and finished second on the team with 14 blocked shots.

• Sophomore Collin McManus and senior Dylan Jones will look to get more time in the frontcourt this season after appearing in nine and four games last year, respectively. (Jones missed much of last season to injury; he played in 22 games as a sophomore and 21 as a freshman.)

• Penn has a pair of transfers this season who have two years of eligibility. Matt MacDonald came to Penn from Fairleigh Dickinson University and sat out last season, while Caleb Wood is immediately eligible after playing last year at Lassen Community College in California. (MacDonald was voted a captain for this year's team, along with Howard.)

• Penn continues to pluck from the New England prep school scene in recruiting. With Ray Jerome (Cheshire Academy) and AJ Brodeur (Northfield Mount Hermon) on the roster, the Quakers now have six NEPSAC players including three from NMH and two from Cheshire.

• Brodeur helped NMH to the NEPSAC AAA title his senior year and was a first-team all-league pick.

• Locally, Coach Donahue picked up another pair of freshmen with the addition of Devon Goodman (Germantown Academy) and Ryan Betley (Downingtown West). Betley was the Daily Local Player of the Year last year, while Goodman was Inter-Ac MVP as a senior.

• Another freshman, Zack Kaminsky, helped his Pace Academy team to a state championship in Georgia his senior.

Schedule Notes

Penn's November 11 opener will come at Robert Morris, which is coached by former Quakers player Andrew Toole ... Penn will make two separate trips to Florida this year, Nov. 19 to face Miami and Dec. 12 to face UCF ... Penn's November 26 game at Navy will mark the 84th meeting between these two programs; the only schools the Quakers have played more often are the seven other Ivies and city rival Saint Joseph's ... Penn's home opener comes November 29 against the defending NCAA champion, Villanova; it will be one of just two true non-conference road games the Wildcats will play this season (the other coming at Purdue) ... Head coach Steve Donahue will face two of his fellow staff members from his days as a Penn assistant coach when he faces Temple (Fran Dunphy) on December 3 and Lafayette (Fran O'Hanlon) on December 7 ... Penn's February 7 game with Princeton will mark the first time the current student body at Penn will be on campus for a game between the two most historic rivals in Ivy League men's basketball ... Instead of the traditional men home and women away (and vice versa) of Ivy play, the Penn men and women will both host Yale and Brown the weekend of January 13-14 and then travel to Providence and New Haven the weekend of February 17-19.

Ivy League Preseason Poll

Penn was picked to finish fourth in the Ivy League's Preseason Media Poll, which came from the votes of two members of each school's media contingent in addition to one national voter. The poll was announced on Wednesday, Oct. 19.

This year, of course, marks the first time the Ivy League will hold a postseason tournament in men's basketball. The top four teams in the regular-season standings will meet at The Palestra the weekend of March 11-12 to determine the Ancient Eight's NCAA Tournament bid.

2016-17 Ivy preseason media poll (first-place votes in parentheses)

1. Princeton, 130 points (12)
2. Harvard, 123 (5)
3. Yale, 101
4. Penn, 72
5. Columbia, 61
6. Dartmouth, 48
7. Cornell, 42
8. Brown, 35

That's Not All...

A quick scan of some other preseason predictions for the Quakers...

- Athlon picked Penn fourth.
- CBSsports.com picked Penn fourth.
- Lindy's Sports Annuals picked Penn fourth.
- NBCSports.com picked Penn fourth.
- Blue Ribbon picked Penn fourth, and named A.J. Brodeur Newcomer of the Year.
- Mid-Major Madness picked Penn sixth.
- College Sports Madness named senior Matt Howard second-team All-Ivy and sophomore Jackson Donahue fourth-team All-Ivy.

P 2015-16 GAME RECAPS/BOX SCORES

GAME 1 at Penn 76, Robert Morris 75 Nov. 13, 2015

PHILADELPHIA — Penn led by as much as 17 points early in the second half, at 51-34, but Robert Morris came all the way back at The Palestra. Spurred by four consecutive three-point baskets over a span of 3:04 of game time, the Colonials reeled off a 17-2 run that turned a 69-55 deficit into a 72-71 lead with 2:30 left.

Antonio Woods pushed the Quakers back in front, knocking down the team's 10th three-point basket with 1:29 to play. RMU regained the lead when Kavon Stewart hit a free throw, and then his second shot missed but was rebounded by Elijah Minnie, leading to a Rodney Pryor layup.

Penn came down the floor, worked the ball around as it did all night—the Quakers had 25 assists on 29 baskets—and that eventually led to Woods finding Darien Nelson-Henry for a layup with 31 seconds left.

With the shot clock and game clock nearly identical, Robert Morris held for a late shot that was taken by Pryor. His effort missed the mark, the rebound was batted up in the air, and the buzzer sounded before any other Colonials player could gather the ball.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn won its season opener for the first time since the 2012-13 season.

- Senior Darien Nelson-Henry nearly had his seventh collegiate double-double (12 points, 9 rebounds).

GAME 2 at Penn 77, Central Conn. 61 Nov. 15, 2015

PHILADELPHIA — After an evenly played first half that saw the score tied at three media breaks and no team lead by more than five points, the Quakers broke it open in the second half to coast to the victory at The Palestra.

Penn was down 36-34 three minutes into the second half, but scored 10 straight points to go up by eight. Sam Jones played a major role in the run, hitting back-to-back three-point shots that turned a tie game into a six-point Quakers lead that they never relinquished. The run extended to 23-6, and when Jones hit yet another trey Penn was up by a score of 57-42.

Central Connecticut got as close as 10 points with just under nine minutes remaining, but then Penn held the Blue Devils without a field goal for nearly four minutes and extended its lead to a high point of 17. Jake Silpe had a pair of layups in that span, while Antonio Woods added a pair of buckets during the run.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn improved to 2-0 for the first time since the 2005-06 season.

- Sophomore Sam Jones matched a career high with 23 points, and was named Ivy League and co-Big 5 Player of the Week the following day.

GAME 3 Penn 60, at Delaware State 54 Nov. 17, 2015

DOVER, Del. — Penn was down, 52-51, with less than three minutes, but scored seven straight points to pull away. The first bucket came when Darien Nelson-Henry found a cutting Matt Howard along the right baseline for a layin. After a defensive stop, Nelson-Henry punctuated his night with a nice move on the left post that ended with him rolling home a lefty layup.

Delaware State missed a three-pointer that could have tied it with 1:19 left, and after working the shot clock the Quakers' Sam Jones missed a three-point shot. Howard flew through the lane, though, and tipped in a rebound to make it a two-possession contest with less than 45 seconds left.

Another DSU miss led to a pair of Antonio Woods free throws, and he made one out of two to make the score 58-52. At that point the Hornets finally scored again, then fouled Darnell Foreman on Penn's inbounds. He made both.

Delaware State scored the game's first eight points. Bolstered by a spark from Jackson Donahue, Penn scrapped back into it, and his trey punctuated a 13-2 stretch that put the Quakers up, 17-16. DSU would lead just once more (52-51).

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn improved to 3-0 for the first time since the 1981-82 season.

- Junior Matt Howard set a career high with nine rebounds, and added eight points.

2015-16 GAME RECAPS/BOX SCORES

GAME 4 at Washington 104, Penn 67 Nov. 21, 2015

SEATTLE — The Huskies blitzed the Quakers, scoring the first 16 points en route to the easy win.

Penn's first points didn't come until nearly four minutes had passed, when Mike Auger hit a layup, but by that time Washington was well on its way. The Quakers got as close as nine points, 23-14, when Jake Silpe drained a three-pointer, but the Huskies scored 14 of the game's next 17 points to remove any drama from the contest.

Washington's lead was 24 points at halftime (54-30) and was as large as 42 on several occasions during the second half.

Darien Nelson-Henry led Penn with 13 points, while Matt Howard scored 10 and grabbed a team-high eight rebounds. UW put four of its five starters in double figures in the scoring column.

Two Quick Notes...

- UW became the first team to score 100 points on Penn since Duke dropped 114 on Dec. 31, 2009.

- The game was a homecoming for senior Darien Nelson-Henry, who grew up in nearby Kirkland.

GAME 5 at Penn 80, La Salle 64 Nov. 25, 2015

PHILADELPHIA — The Quakers battled the Explorers for most of the first half. Penn held a 13-12 lead with just over 12 minutes remaining, but La Salle went on an 18-7 run over the next ten minutes to jump out to a 10-point lead at 30-20.

Penn closed out the half well, however, cutting the lead to five with a minute remaining. At that point, Darien Nelson-Henry took a feed from Matt Howard under the basket for a lay-up with seven seconds left and Penn was down 32-29 at the half.

Penn took little time evening things up. Just over a minute in, Jones hit a three-pointer to tie the game at 34. Then Nelson-Henry drove the lane, drew a foul, and finished to give the Quakers a lead they would not relinquish. He would strike again on the next two possessions with a nice moves in the post to give the Quakers a seven-point lead with less than 17 minutes remaining.

After a La Salle three, Nelson-Henry caught a pass under the basket and threw down an emphatic dunk. He scored on five straight possessions and had 22 of Penn's 28 points.

Antonio Woods broke Nelson-Henry's personal run, scoring on back-to-back trips to cap a 30-9 Penn run that gave the Red and Blue a 50-39 lead with 12 minutes left. The Explorers cut the lead to five, at 57-52, but Penn went on an 10-0 run as four different players scored.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn won its Big 5 opener for the first time since the 2004-05 season.

- Senior Darien Nelson-Henry hit 14 field goals, the most since Hassan Duncombe hit 15 against Colgate on January 20, 1990.

GAME 6 at Lafayette 92, Penn 86 Nov. 29, 2015

EASTON, Pa. — The Quakers were down by 13 points before the game was seven minutes old, and never recovered in taking the loss.

Led by Matt Howard (10 first-half points), Penn got back to within five, at 24-19, but Lafayette answered with eight of the next 10 points to push its lead back up to double digits at 32-21. With Bryce Scott (12 first-half points) and Nick Lindner (10) leading the way, the Leopards' advantage eventually bulged to as much as 18 before Darnell Foreman hit a three-pointer at the halftime buzzer (Penn's first made trey of the game, after 11 misses) to make it 46-31 at the break.

Lafayette opened the second half with a pair of free throws, but Penn scored 14 of the game's next 18 points and crawled back to within 52-45. At that point, however, Matt Klinewski scored back-to-back buckets to put the Leopards up 11.

Penn was unable to get back within single digits again until just 2:41 was left in the game, and even then the Leopards scored five unanswered points push back ahead, 87-73. The Quakers used a 13-3 run after that to get within four points in the final 10 seconds, as close as they got.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn scored 55 points in the second half, the Quakers' best half since they scored 57 in the second half of a win vs. Monmouth on Nov. 22, 2008.

- Senior Jamal Lewis had 10 points, his first double-figure game since February 16, 2013.

P 2015-16 GAME RECAPS/BOX SCORES

GAME 7 Navy 65, at Penn 59 Dec. 2, 2015

PHILADELPHIA — For the second-straight contest, the Quakers never held a lead. They nearly came all the way back in this game, however, erasing all of a 13-point second-half deficit to tie the game at 59-59 when Darien Nelson-Henry converted both ends of a 1-and-1 on consecutive possessions.

Those turned out to be the last points Penn would score. After Shawn Anderson hit a jumper to put Navy back in front, Antonio Woods missed the front end of a 1-and-1 and then another jumper after Matt Howard snared the offensive rebound. Anderson rebounded the missed jumper, was fouled, and hit both free throws to make it a two-possession game. Woods then was fouled going to the hoop, but missed both foul shots. Will Kelly snared the board on the second one, was fouled, and hit his shots to set the final score.

It was an unfortunate finish for Woods, who scored nine points and fed Matt Howard for a spectacular alley-oop assist during a run that saw Penn turn a 52-41 deficit into a 57-55 game. Tilman Dunbar scored two freebies for Navy, before Nelson-Henry hit his four foul shots to set the stage for the game's final plays.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn lost for the first time this season when shooting a better percentage from the field than its opponent (previously 4-0 in such games).

- Sophomore Dan Dwyer set career highs in points (6) and minutes played (27); prior to this game he had played 10 minutes all season.

GAME 8 at George Mason 63, Penn 44 Dec. 5, 2015

FAIRFAX, Va. — For the third time in as many games, the University of Pennsylvania men's basketball team got off to an extremely slow start. Unlike the previous two games, the Quakers never got back into this one as they fell to George Mason, 63-44, at the Patriots' EagleBank Arena.

Penn needed almost four minutes to get on the board, and by that time the Quakers were already down 8-0. Darien Nelson-Henry's basket to open Penn's account was answered by six-straight Patriots points, though, and Penn got within single digits just one other time in the half, at 14-5.

Any thoughts of a second-half comeback were quickly thwarted, as Mason scored the first seven points of the period to turn a 29-16 lead into a 21-point advantage. The Red and Blue never got closer than 17 points after that, at 48-31.

Antonio Woods and Darien Nelson-Henry paced Penn offensively with 10 points each, and Nelson-Henry also had 11 rebounds to post his third double-double of the season. Three GMU players scored in double figures to pace the Patriots.

Two Quick Notes...

- Freshman Collin McManus scored his first collegiate points.

- Dan Dwyer made his second collegiate start and tied a career high with four rebounds.

GAME 9 Temple 77, at Penn 73 Dec. 9, 2015

PHILADELPHIA — For the second-straight contest, the Quakers never held a lead. They nearly came all the way back in this game, however, erasing all of a 13-point second-half deficit to tie the game at 59-59 when Darien Nelson-Henry converted both ends of a 1-and-1 on consecutive possessions.

Those turned out to be the last points Penn would score. After Shawn Anderson hit a jumper to put Navy back in front, Antonio Woods missed the front end of a 1-and-1 and then another jumper after Matt Howard snared the offensive rebound. Anderson rebounded the missed jumper, was fouled, and hit both free throws to make it a two-possession game. Woods then was fouled going to the hoop, but missed both foul shots. Will Kelly snared the board on the second one, was fouled, and hit his shots to set the final score.

It was an unfortunate finish for Woods, who scored nine points and fed Matt Howard for a spectacular alley-oop assist during a run that saw Penn turn a 52-41 deficit into a 57-55 game. Tilman Dunbar scored two freebies for Navy, before Nelson-Henry hit his four foul shots to set the stage for the game's final plays.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn lost for the first time this season when placing three players in double figures in the scoring column (previously 4-0 in such games).

- Freshman Jackson Donahue became the sixth different player to score in double figures in a game, with 12 points (on four three-pointers).

2015-16 GAME RECAPS/BOX SCORES

GAME 10 at Penn 73, Ursinus 66 Dec. 19, 2015

PHILADELPHIA — Nothing came easy in a supposed “breather” for the Quakers coming out of exams, as NCAA Division 3 Bears gave Penn all it could handle before succumbing.

Ursinus held an early lead on the strength of some hot shooting (better than 60 percent from the field). The Bears led by as many as seven in the first ten minutes, before Penn rattled off nine straight points to take its first lead of the game.

After a brief cool down, Ursinus once again found its stroke, taking a 31-27 lead with less than four minutes to play in the first.

The Quakers were able to answer once more again battling back to take a three-point lead, but Ursinus’ Matt Knowles hit a three with four seconds remaining in the half to send the teams to the locker room tied at 36.

Penn opened the second half on a 10-0 run, however, capped off by a three-point basket by senior Darien Nelson-Henry—the first of the big man’s collegiate career. The Quakers never looked back after that, as Ursinus got no closer than seven the rest of the afternoon.

Two Quick Notes...

- This was Penn’s first game against an NCAA Division 3 opponent in almost exactly 22 years (December 18, 1993).

- Junior Matt Howard collected his first collegiate double-double with career highs in points (23) and rebounds (11).

GAME 11 at Drexel 53, Penn 52 (ot) Dec. 22, 2015

PHILADELPHIA — In a game which never had a margin larger than four points, Penn had two chances to win at the buzzer—one at the end of regulation, and one at the end of overtime. Both shots were off the mark, however, and it was the Dragons who escaped the Daskalakis Athletic Center with a 53-52 win.

Antonio Woods had the final shot both times. His effort in regulation never really stood a chance. His overtime chance, with Penn down a point, got to the rim but could not muscle over it, and Darien Nelson-Henry’s desperation tip was a little too hard off the iron. The ball bounced around until Drexel was able to come up with it at the buzzer.

Penn scored the first four points in overtime, on layups by Darnell Foreman and Woods. Drexel then scored seven in a row, starting with a three-pointer by Rashann London and ending with a pair of Kazembe Abif free throws. Woods made it a one-point game on a nice layup with just over a minute remaining, and then matched free throws with Drexel’s Terrell Allen. After Woods’ free throws, Tavon Allen was called for a walk when Drexel inbounded, giving the Quakers the final opportunity that fell just short.

Two Quick Notes...

- This was the second time Penn visited the DAC, and the second time Penn and Drexel have gone to overtime in 25 meetings all-time.

- Sophomore Antonio Woods led Penn with 17 points, and had the Quakers’ last six points in the extra session.

GAME 12 at #16/16 Villanova 77, Penn 57 Dec. 28, 2015

VILLANOVA, Pa. — The Quakers were overwhelmed early by the Wildcats and never recovered at The Pavilion.

Villanova hit six of its first seven shots and led 14-0 before the first media timeout. Sam Jones finally put Penn on the board nearly six minutes into the game, hitting a three-pointer on their 10th possession, but the Wildcats scored the next 16 points as the Red and Blue went without a point for nine more minutes after the Jones trey.

Darien Nelson-Henry scored six points in succession for the Quakers late in the half, but Villanova’s lead was as large as 29 points before settling on 39-11 at halftime.

The second half was much better, as Penn scored 46 points led primarily by Jackson Donahue (18 points in the period) and Matt Howard (11). The Quakers shot 54.8 percent from the field (17 of 31) and knocked down six treys—five of them by Donahue.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn fell to 1-3 all-time when facing a team ranked 16th in the AP poll at the time of tipoff.

- Freshman Jackson Donahue scored season/career highs in points (18), three-point FG (5) and steals (3) in his first collegiate start.

P 2015-16 GAME RECAPS/BOX SCORES

GAME 13 at Penn 80, Binghamton 45 Jan. 2, 2016

PHILADELPHIA — With the scored tied at 5-5, Penn got three-point baskets from Jake Silpe, Sam Jones and Jackson Donahue. Those, combined with a layup by senior Darien Nelson-Henry, put the Quakers in front 16-5.

Binghamton got back within 19-14 with a little less than eight minutes left in the first half. As it turned out, the Bearcats would not score again for a stretch of 10 minutes, 21 seconds bridging into the second half. Penn took advantage, using a season-high 18-0 run the rest of the period to take a 37-14 lead into the locker room.

Binghamton would score the first points of the second half, but that wouldn't come until there was 17:32 left in the period. Penn then reeled off the game's next eight points to make the score 45-16, ending any thoughts of a Bearcats comeback.

As a team, Penn hit 12 three-pointers, the most by the Quakers since they hit 12 in a 71-69 loss to Cornell on February 2, 2013. Matt Howard tied his season/career high with 23 points and hit five three-pointers, while Donahue scored 17.

Two Quick Notes...

- The 35-point margin was Penn's largest in a win since an 84-44 win over Cornell on Jan. 13, 2006.

- Freshman Tyler Hamilton scored seven points, the first seven of his career.

GAME 14 Princeton 73, at Penn 71 (ot) Jan. 9, 2016

PHILADELPHIA — Penn led by 11 with a little less than four minutes to play in regulation, but Princeton fought all the way back to tie it. The Quakers then scored the first five points of the extra session, but the Tigers scored the next seven—all from the foul line—to gain an improbable win in the Ivy League opener for both teams.

Penn's lead was 64-53 coming out of the final media timeout of the second half, but Princeton roared back with nine straight points in less than two minutes, and then answered Jake Silpe's bucket with four more to tie the score at 66-66. Penn had a chance to win it at the buzzer, but a scrambled play ended with the ball in senior Darien Nelson-Henry's hands. His runner hit the backboard and rim to send the game to overtime.

In the extra session, Darnell Foreman hit a layup and Jackson Donahue knocked down a three-pointer. Again, Princeton responded.

Penn had its chances. Silpe missed a jumper with the Quakers up 71-68, and then Howard missed a trey and Silpe had a layup that just couldn't find its way over the rim when the score was 71-70. After Princeton took the lead, Silpe was stripped as he drove the lane in the final seconds, and then Foreman's layup at the buzzer (which would have tied the game) rimmed out.

Two Quick Notes...

- This was the 15th overtime game in this historic rivalry; Princeton has now won eight of those OT games, while Penn has won seven.

- Freshman Jake Silpe set season/career highs in points (11), rebounds (7) and assists (7).

GAME 15 Saint Joseph's 75, Penn 60 Jan. 20, 2016

PHILADELPHIA — Penn got off to a hot start, making two of its first three three-point attempts and jumping out to a quick five-point lead. However, the Red and Blue lost their touch as the half progressed, and that led to a deficit of as many as 14 points in the opening 10 minutes.

Mike Auger brought Penn within single digits with a layup through contact, but Saint Joseph's wouldn't let the Quakers hang around much longer. The Hawks took a 16-point lead at the half on a buzzer-beating layup by DeAndre' Bemby.

The Hawks opened the second half by taking their largest lead of the game, but Penn fought back just before the first media timeout thanks to a second-chance effort by Darien Nelson-Henry. Jake Silpe then stole the following inbounds pass and dished back to Jackson Donahue, who nailed a three-pointer to send the Penn fans into a frenzy and bring the Quakers back within 11.

Saint Joseph's proved to be too much, however as the Hawks ran away down the stretch. They led by double digits for the entire second half and left West Philadelphia with the victory.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn set a program record by taking 38 three-point shots; the previous record of 37 was set during the 1994 NCAA Tournament.

- Freshman Jackson Donahue established a Penn player high for the season with six three-point baskets in the game.

2015-16 GAME RECAPS/BOX SCORES

GAME 16 at Yale 81, Penn 58 Jan. 29, 2016

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Yale jumped out with the first eight points of the game, a run that was punctuated by a flagrant 1 foul called against Darien Nelson-Henry. Penn recovered from the first blow, and behind a trio of three-point baskets from Sam Jones the Quakers got as close as two points (31-29). However, the Bulldogs again scored eight in a row, and took a 41-31 lead into the half.

It was in the second half that Yale pulled away. The Bulldogs used a 17-5 run midway through the period that proved to be the knockout blow. The run—much of which came with reigning Ivy League Player of the Year Justin Sears on the bench—turned a 46-37 game into a 21-point runaway.

Matt Howard was the only Penn player to reach double figures in the scoring column (17 points).

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn ended up getting swept on this road trip for the third-straight year, and the ninth time in 60 such trips.

- Senior Darien Nelson-Henry played just three minutes, then sat out the next night at Brown, due to an injury suffered earlier in the week.

GAME 17 at Brown 89, Penn 83 Jan. 30, 2016

PROVIDENCE, R.I. — Max Rothschild—who had a career night, scoring 18 points—gave Penn an 81-80 lead on a layup with 3:10 left in the game. However, Brown quickly regained the lead when Corey Daugherty blew in for a lefty layup. The Bears never relinquished it.

Jackson Donahue (17 points) missed a contested layup, and then Brown's Steven Spieth slipped around the Penn defense for a layup to make it 84-81. Penn worked the shot clock down, and then Donahue fed Rothschild for a nice bunny that got the Quakers back within one.

Spieth was fouled on Brown's ensuing possession, and hit both free throws. After a timeout, Penn had a chance to tie it as Sam Jones got the ball in the right corner. The sophomore had already hit four three-pointers in the game, but this one rolled off the rim and into the hands of Brown's Tavon Blackmon. He was fouled by Jake Silpe, and hit both foul shots to make it a two-possession game.

Matt Howard had 20 points and seven rebounds, leading Penn in both categories. Rothschild and Dan Dwyer each had six rebounds, while Silpe dished out five assists.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn hit 11 three-pointers for the third time in five games, and reached double digits in that category for the sixth time this season.

- Freshman Max Rothschild set new season/career highs in points (18) and rebounds (6).

GAME 18 at Penn 71, Dartmouth 64 Feb. 5, 2016

PHILADELPHIA — Penn found itself down nine early in the second half, but worked its way back to get themselves within four when Darien Nelson-Henry finished at the rim through contact and knocked down his free throw to make it 46-42.

Nelson-Henry would strike again moments later, this time dunking through contact and connecting from the stripe to make the deficit just two after the second media timeout.

After Nelson-Henry scored on a third straight possession, Jackson Donahue hit a three from the corner to tie the game at 50 with nine remaining.

Dartmouth scored to take a three-point lead, but Nelson-Henry scored underneath to make it 53-52, Dartmouth. On the next possession, Howard picked up the ball in a scramble and drove to the basket to give Penn its first lead of the half.

The teams went back and forth with the lead down the stretch. With a minute and a half left, tied at 59, Jake Silpe picked up an offensive rebound and made a lay-up through two defenders, drawing a foul. Silpe would make his free throw and Penn led by three. After two free throws from Dartmouth, Darien Nelson-Henry continued his incredible second half with a hook shot to put the Quakers back up by three.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn won despite setting a season high for turnovers in a game (22).

- Freshman Jake Silpe set a Penn player high for the season with eight assists.

P 2015-16 GAME RECAPS/BOX SCORES

GAME 19 at Penn 67, Harvard 57 Feb. 6, 2016

PHILADELPHIA — It was another rocky start for the Quakers, as they fell behind 7-0 early but—as they did on Friday night—went on a 12-3 run to take their first lead just before the 12-minute mark of the first half.

With Harvard leading by five with two minutes to left, Penn scored the next seven points before the half, capped off by a three-pointer by Sam Jones to take a two-point lead into the locker room, 27-25.

Both teams were less than stellar from the field in the first half. Penn shot 38 percent, but held Harvard to just 31 percent.

Penn led for the entire second half on Saturday night and pushed its lead to as many as 11. Darnell Foreman and Max Rothschild showed great chemistry on back-to-back possessions, with clever passing from Foreman and great finishing by Rothschild at the basket.

The Quakers shot just over 43 percent for the evening, but held Harvard to just 31 percent from the field. Penn also outrebounded Harvard, 53-32. Patrick Steeves led the Crimson with 13 points, while Corey Johnson and Agunwa Okolie had 11 each. Okolie also had 10 boards for Harvard, which played the game without leading scorer and rebounder Zena Edosomwan.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn defeated Harvard in The Palestra for just the second time in the last eight meetings.

- Penn had three different players collect double-doubles: Darien Nelson-Henry (18 points/12 rebounds), Max Rothschild (14/11) and Matt Howard (12/11).

GAME 20 at Columbia 63, Penn 53 Feb. 12, 2016

NEW YORK CITY — Unlike the previous two years, when Penn was run out of the gym early, the Quakers put up a solid fight in the first half. Matt Howard, in particular, broke out with 10 first-half points on the way to a team-high 14 for the game. However, a late three-pointer by Columbia's Maodo Lo—his third trey of the period—gave the Lions a 28-24 lead at the break.

Columbia then scored the first seven points of the second half, but Penn responded with the next eight points—six of them from freshman Jake Silpe—and it was 35-32 after the first media timeout of the period.

It was still a four-point Columbia lead near the midpoint of the period, before Jackson Donahue (12 points on the night) nailed a three-pointer to make the score 41-40.

Columbia scored the game's next 11 points after that, seven of them (including the first five) from Jeff Coby. He was complemented by a driving Lo layup and a long two-pointer from Grant Mullins. That effectively took the wind out of Penn's sails, and the Quakers could never make up the deficit.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn had a two-game winning streak snapped with the loss.

- Senior Darien Nelson-Henry had his second-straight double-double (11 points, 11 rebounds) and doubled his previous career high in assists (6).

GAME 21 Penn 92, at Cornell 84 Feb. 13, 2016

ITHACA, N.Y. — Penn's offense came easy to start the game, and the Quakers were up by as many as 12 points in the first half at 23-11. However, Matt Morgan had a personal 12-point run for Cornell that jump-started the Big Red and tied it at 25-25.

Penn jumped back in front with seven-straight points, but the half ended with the Big Red scoring six in a row to send the teams to locker rooms with Penn up, 36-35.

Troy Whiteside gave Cornell a lead with the opening points of the second period, but Penn reeled off seven in a row to take a 43-37 lead. The Quakers never trailed after that, although Cornell drew back within a point three times.

Penn's six-point lead was whittled to two points when Robert Hatter knocked down a layup with 28 seconds left. However, Sam Jones was fouled shortly after the Quakers inbounded, and he knocked down both free throws. Matt Morgan then missed a three-point shot that Jackson Donahue rebounded. He was fouled, and made both shots. Another Cornell missed three ended up in Jones' hands, and he wrapped it up.

Two Quick Notes...

- This marked Head Coach Steve Donahue's first game at Cornell since he led the Big Red to their third-straight Ivy League title in 2010.

- Senior Darien Nelson-Henry grabbed 16 rebounds, the most by a Penn player since March 2, 2007.

2015-16 GAME RECAPS/BOX SCORES

GAME 22 at Penn 79, Brown 74 Feb. 19, 2016

PHILADELPHIA — The first half was all about the three-ball for the Quakers. Penn started the night 4-for-4 from distance, with Sam Jones and Jackson Donahue each knocking down a pair.

At the break, the Quakers held a five-point advantage and had two players in double figures. Jones led the way with 12 points on four made threes, while Darien Nelson-Henry chipped in 10 (six of them in the final five minutes).

In the second half, Penn led for the first 15 minutes before Brown tied it at 67 with a pair of free throws. However, Matt Howard converted a fast-break layup to put the Quakers back up by two with four minutes to play. Brown would not catch up again after that.

Up by just a point in the final two minutes, Jones knocked down his fifth trey of the evening, giving Penn a 72-68 lead with a minute and a half remaining. Brown would not come within four points for the rest of the night and the Quakers walked away with a 79-74 win.

Penn held Brown to under 40 percent shooting on Friday night, while Penn shot 44.4 percent from three-point range alone. The Bears also struggled from the line, missing eight of their 20 attempts from the charity stripe. Penn made 24 fields in the contest, half of them three-pointers.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn tied a season high with 12 three-point baskets; sophomore Sam Jones and freshman Jackson Donahue had five each.

- Sophomore Darnell Foreman nearly had a triple-double off the bench (11 points, 10 assists, 8 rebounds).

GAME 23 Yale 79, at Penn 58 Feb. 20, 2016

PHILADELPHIA — The Quakers battled throughout the first half, but went cold in the second to allow the Bulldogs to claim their ninth Ivy win of the season.

Penn trailed for most of the first half, but never fell behind by more than eight. With less than five minutes left in the period, Jake Silpe hit a three in the corner to pull the Quakers even at 20. On the next possession, with Yale leading by two, Jackson Donahue added his first points of the game, a three-pointer to give the Red and Blue its first (and, as it turned out, only) lead.

The lead wouldn't last long, and Yale went into the locker room with a 37-32 advantage. Penn shot 52 percent from the field in the opening half, scoring 20 of its 32 points in the paint. Matt Howard led the Quakers with 11 first half-points.

The second half wasn't as kind to the Red and Blue. Penn shot just 8-28 from the field and saw a five-point deficit turn into 21.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn ended the season getting swept by Yale for the fourth-straight year; it is the Quakers' longest losing streak ever to the Bulldogs.

- Junior Matt Howard and senior Darien Nelson-Henry were Penn's only double-digit scorers with 16 and 15 points, respectively.

GAME 24 at Penn 79, Cornell 67 Feb. 26, 2016

PHILADELPHIA — Penn jumped out to a 12-0 lead to start the game, and the Quakers were up by 19 with five minutes still left in the first half. However, the Big Red were able to whittle away at the lead and it was just 32-22 as the teams went to the locker rooms for halftime.

The Quakers scored the first six points of the second half, but once again the Big Red had an answer. Cornell got as close as seven points just five minutes into the period, then knocked another double-digit deficit down to just five with 8:24 to play. However, Penn used a decisive 7-0 run around the final media timeout of the second half, turning a 67-59 game into a 74-59 contest and effectively putting this one to bed.

Penn shot 26-of-31 from the foul line, a season-high 83.9 percent, while Cornell was just 9-of-19 at the charity stripe. Darien Nelson-Henry had his ninth double-double of the season, while Darnell Foreman set a new career high with 13 points and added five assists and three steals to lead the Quakers' offensive attack.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn placed five players in double figures in the scoring column for the third time this season.

- Senior Darien Nelson-Henry scored his 1,000th career point, becoming the 40th player in Penn history to achieve the milestone.

P 2015-16 GAME RECAPS/BOX SCORES

GAME 25 Columbia 93, at Penn 65 Feb. 27, 2016

PHILADELPHIA — On Senior Night at the Palestra, Penn fell behind in the early going, trailing by as many as 12 in the first ten minutes.

The Quakers bounced back, going on a 19-10 run and drawing as close as two (28-26) after a Matt Howard three-pointer. However, Columbia finished the half on a run of its own, and went into the locker room with a 47-36 lead.

Things didn't get better in the second half for Penn. Columbia built its lead to 20 in the first five minutes of the period, and the Quakers couldn't dig themselves out of that huge hole.

The efficient Lions shot an incredible 64.2 percent from the field—including 10 three-pointers—and turned the ball over just four times.

Two Quick Notes...

- It was the first time the home team lost in this series in nine game, dating back to the 2011-12 season when Penn won in New York City.

- Freshman Jackson Donahue knocked down four three-pointers and tied a season/career high with four assists.

GAME 26 at Dartmouth 72, Penn 64 March 4, 2016

HANOVER, N.H. — Penn was down just 27-25 after a Max Rothschild jumper with just over four minutes left in the opening period. However, Dartmouth reeled off 11 of the game's next 12 points to go ahead 38-26. Darnell Foreman nailed a three just before the break, but a Big Green bucket near the buzzer made it 40-29 at the half.

Penn was still down 12 midway through the second half, before Sam Jones nailed a three-pointer and then assisted a bucket by Jake Silpe that made the score 54-47. Dartmouth scored a bucket after that, but Rothschild answered with a trey—his first of the season—to make it 56-50.

Dartmouth was able to keep Penn at bay from there. The Quakers got as close as five points in the final minute, at 68-63, but got called for a foul on what looked like a steal. The Big Green hit the ensuing free throws.

Penn had no answer for Dartmouth's freshman sensation Evan Boudreaux, especially in the first half when he went for 18 of his game-high 26 points. He also had 13 rebounds. Taylor Johnson had 13 points, while Connor Boehm finished with 10 points and seven boards.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn set a season high with eight blocked shots.

- Sophomore Darnell Foreman scored 15 points, a season/career high, and tied his season/career high with eight rebounds.

GAME 27 at Harvard 74, Penn 56 March 5, 2016

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — Harvard began the game with a 17-3 run and extended the margin to 26-7 and then 31-9. It was 40-15 before Penn closed the half on a 5-0 run, however, putting the score at 40-20 at the intermission.

The Quakers continued to roll as the second half began, scoring six-straight points to pull to within 40-26. However, Harvard then scored 16 of the game's next 19 points to push back up to 56-29, before Penn responded with a 12-2 stretch to once again get within 58-41 with 9:58 to play. The Quakers cut it to 64-51 on Howard's and-1, and with 3:19 remaining Donahue's three-pointer put the score at 68-54. That was as close as the Red and Blue would get.

Matt Howard was Penn's only double-figure scorer, and his 14 points came on 20 field-goal attempts. The junior also had five rebounds, tied for the team lead with four assists, and collected two steals. Max Rothschild, making his second-straight start, finished with seven points and led the Quakers with 10 rebounds.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn committed a season-low seven turnovers.

- Freshman Max Rothschild had his second double-figure rebound game of the season, with 11; the other also came against Harvard.

GAME 28 at Princeton 72, Penn 71 March 8, 2016

PRINCETON, N.J. — Penn nearly came all the way back from an 18-point deficit early in the second half, but could not convert on a final possession in taking the narrow loss at the Tigers' Jadwin Gym.

Princeton's lead was still 14 points (63-49) with seven minutes to go in the game, but the Quakers went on a 10-0 run to cut it to four points in a span of less than three minutes. From there, the teams were never more than five points apart.

Devin Cannady's two free throws put the Tigers ahead 72-68 with 1:12 to go before Penn answered with a Tyler Hamilton bucket with 53 seconds left to make it 72-70. The Quakers then got the ball back with 28 seconds left, and Hamilton went to the line with 13 seconds remaining and the chance to tie. He only split the free throws, however.

The next break went Penn's way when the front end of a 1-and-1 by Amir Bell didn't fall, and the Quakers grabbed the rebound and raced downcourt, calling timeout with 3.2 seconds to go.

Penn couldn't get off a shot. After the inbound pass went to the arc, Quaker big man Darien Nelson-Henry caught a pass under the basket but had it knocked out of his hands by Spencer Weisz. The clock ran out as the ball went loose.

Two Quick Notes...

- Penn shot 50 percent from the field (28-56), the fifth time that happened this season and the first time in 11 games.

- Freshman Tyler Hamilton set season/career highs in points (11), rebounds (7), assists (3), steals (3) and minutes (37).

BARTON LEACH holds four of Penn's five top single-game rebounding efforts; perhaps most impressive, three of them came within a single week of each other! He had 27 boards on February 16, 1955 vs. Brown, then 32 (the current record) on February 18 vs. Harvard, and finally he snared 28 boards on February 23 against Syracuse.

JEFF NEUMAN (22) and STAN PAWLAK (31)—on either side of Head Coach JACK McCLOSKEY—were one of the most dynamic duos in Penn men's basketball history. They led the Quakers to their first Ivy League title, in 1965-66. Pawlak led the team in field-goal percentage all three years he was on the varsity, while Neuman led the team in free-throw percentage all three years.

ALL-TIME RESULTS BY YEAR

On March 20, 1897, University of Pennsylvania students played against Yale in New Haven, Conn. in the first intercollegiate 5-on-5 basketball game ever. The next recognized game at Penn was not played until 1902—in 1901, an unofficial Penn team named “Houston Club” played 11 games.
