PEPPERDINE HISTORY

Heading into its 79th season of intercollegiate play in 2018, the Pepperdine baseball program has long been known as one of the nation's finest.

Since fielding its initial team at the old campus in South-Central Los Angeles back in 1939, Pepperdine has established a baseball tradition that is rich in history. Pepperdine has compiled a cumulative record of 2,084-1,493-24 (.582)* and has won 17 West Coast Conference regular-season championships. Additionally, the Waves have appeared in postseason play 34 times, including 30* appearances in various NCAA Tournaments.

The Pepperdine program reached the pinnacle of collegiate baseball in June 1992 as the Waves captured the College World Series title. Pepperdine defeated local rival Cal State Fullerton in the championship game by a final score of 3-2 in front of 17,000 fans at Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha, Neb.

Through the 2017 season, 35 former Pepperdine players have enjoyed Major League Baseball careers. One of the most notable was Mike Scott, the 1986 National League Cy Young Award winner with the Houston Astros. Former Pepperdine players on 2017 MLB rosters included Eric Thames (Milwaukee Brewers), Chase d'Arnaud (Braves/Red Sox/Padres) and Zach Vincej (Cincinnati Reds), who made his debut late in the season.

Between 1978 and 2009, the Waves ran off a remarkable 32* seasons in a row with 30 or more victories, a run which had its foundation built in the decades prior when Pepperdine became an established collegiate baseball power in the 1950s under the guidance of head coach John Scolinos. The Waves advanced to the District 8 Playoffs in 1955, 1957 and 1960. The 1957 team was within one game of a College World Series berth before losing to eventual national champion California in Berkeley.

In the mid-1970s, Pepperdine won three consecutive WCC titles under the guidance of Wayne Wright, who later served as the University's Director of Athletics. The team competed in the District 8 Playoffs in 1974, 1975 and 1976.

Pepperdine advanced to the College World Series for the first time in 1979 under then-first-year head coach Dave Gorrie. After finishing second in the rugged Southern California Baseball Association, Pepperdine won the Mideast Regional in East Lansing, Mich., defeating San Diego State in the title game by a final score of 13-2.

The Waves lost their opening game at the 1979 College World Series to Arkansas by a final score of 5-4, but rebounded to defeat Miami (9-4), Mississippi State (5-4) and Texas (6-4) before being eliminated by SCBA rival Cal State Fullerton by a final count of 8-5. Pepperdine finished third at the eight-team event and compiled a school-record total of 53 victories.

Pepperdine's success continued during the 1980s, as the team advanced to the NCAA Tournament six more times. Four of those squads advanced to the regional championship before being eliminated. The 1987 team established a school record by winning 21 straight games and was ranked as high as No. 2 in the national polls.

The WCC was reinstituted for baseball prior to the 1984 campaign, and Pepperdine has been the league's dominant program, winning or sharing 15 of the 34 regular-season championships since that time.

Pepperdine shook off years of postseason frustration in 1992 as the Waves defeated Hawaii by a final score of 9-0 to win the NCAA West Regional at Tucson, Ariz. The Waves quickly became the crowd favorite at the 1992 College World Series, posting shutout wins over Wichita State (6-0) and Texas (7-0). After recording a dramatic come-from-behind 5-4 win over Texas, Pepperdine edged Cal State Fullerton, 3-2, in the first-ever NCAA championship game to feature two teams from the same state.

Pepperdine's success continued throughout the 1990s as the school compiled a 381-189-3 (.668) record during the decade, the 18th-best winning percentage nationally over that 10-year period. There were five regional appearances in the '90s, and the Waves capped off the decade by posting a 46-16 overall record and advancing to the championship game of the 1999 Los Angeles Regional at USC. Pepperdine finished the year with a Top 20 ranking and was ranked as high as No. 3 during the season.

The Waves experienced even more success under Steve Rodriguez during his 12-year tenure, winning three straight WCC titles between 2004-06 and making five straight regional appearances between 2004-08*. The 2006 season marked a new milestone in program history as Pepperdine hosted its first-ever NCAA Regional. The Waves won the WCC title and advanced to NCAA play again in 2012.

In 2014, Pepperdine again reached new heights, making it to the program's first ever NCAA Super Regional since the round was instituted in 1999. The Waves won both the WCC regular season and tournament titles to advance to postseason play once again, and then swept through the NCAA Regional hosted by Cal Poly San Luis Obispo, defeating the host team twice to advance for the first time since 1992. The Waves battled nationally-seeded TCU in Fort Worth, Texas in Super Regional play, falling 2-1 in the three-game series to end their season. Pepperdine finished the year ranked No. 12 nationally and posted a 43-18 record.

Rick Hirtensteiner, who has been on staff with Pepperdine for 18 years, took over as head coach of the program following Rodriguez's departure in 2015. During Hirtensteiner's tenure as an assistant, the Waves posted a 578-423 (.577) record. In Hirtensteiner's first season at the helm (2016), the Waves posted their fifth consecutive winning season with a 29-24 mark and made the WCC Tournament for the third straight year.

* Due to NCAA sanctions against the University, Pepperdine later vacated all wins and NCAA Championship appearances in baseball between the 2008 and 2011 seasons (115 wins and two losses). Pepperdine's adjusted overall NCAA records for each season are 0-19 (2008), 0-23 (2009), 0-30 (2010) and 0-34 (2011). The Waves' adjusted overall record is 1,969-1,491-24. Steve Rodriguez's adjusted overall record is 286-298.

1992 NCAA CHAMPIONS

In an all-California championship game, Pepperdine bested local rival Cal State Fullerton by the score of 3-2 to claim the 1992 College World Series at Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha, Neb.

Under the direction of head coach Andy Lopez, Pepperdine advanced to the CWS after winning the NCAA West Regional Championship at Tucson, Ariz. The Waves quickly became a crowd favorite at Rosenblatt Stadium after opening CWS action with impressive shutout wins over Wichita State and Texas.

In order to advance to the championship game, Pepperdine needed to defeat Texas a second time. The Longhorns used a four-run rally in the top half of the seventh inning to take a 4-1 lead, but the advantage was short-lived, as Steve Rodriguez connected for a dramatic grand slam in the bottom half of the inning to propel the Waves to a 5-4 win. In the championship game, Patrick Ahearne, Derek Wallace and Steve Montgomery turned in solid efforts on the mound, and Eric Ekdahl's solo home run in the fifth inning proved to be the game-winning blow.

JOHN SCOLINOS AWARD

The John Scolinos Award is given annually to a Pepperdine baseball player in recognition of exemplary behavior during a season or career. The recipient will be honored for demonstrating strong character traits including humility, resourcefulness, loyalty, honesty, work ethic, Christian behavior and sportsmanship, which contribute to outstanding performance and dedicated efforts both on and beyond the baseball diamond. The legendary Scolinos was Pepperdine's head coach from 1946-60.

DRAFT NOTES

The first number in each row indicates the round the player was selected ... The number in parentheses for first-round picks following the team indicates the overall selection ... From 1966-86, draft was the June regular phase unless otherwise noted ... In 1987, MLB moved to just one annual draft.

* Drafted player who did not sign.

Jay Gehrke was a sandwich pick between the first and second rounds and was the 32nd overall pick in the draft.

WAVES WITH USA BASEBALL

Since 1984, when USA Baseball began sponsoring a National Team comprised of collegiate players, a total of eight Pepperdine student-athletes have represented their country as members of the USA Baseball National Team.

Pitcher Mike Feters became the first Pepperdine player to make the USA Baseball National Team when he was selected in 1985. Other former Waves' players chosen to play for select national teams include Rick Hirtensteiner (1987), Dan Melendez (1991), Steve Rodriguez (1991-92), Randy Wolf (1995-96), David Matranga (1997), Brett Hunter (2007-08) and Chase d'Arnaud (2010).

Hirtensteiner batted .333 in 40 games for the U.S. squad during his 1987 stint with the national team, going 43-for-129 with four home runs and 21 RBI.

Rodriguez was a member of the 1991 Pan American Games team. He earned "Player of the Series" honors against Mexico and Cuba in 1991 and against Korea in 1992. Rodriguez also served as an assistant coach on the 2014 College National Team.

Wolf had an outstanding showing in 1995 as a reliever, going 4-0 with a 1.90 ERA in 23.2 innings and 12 appearances. He saw less action in 1996 but added two more wins for a perfect 6-0 record in his two-year career.

Hunter was one of the USA's top pitchers during summer of 2007 as he went 3-0 with a 0.66 ERA in 14 relief appearances. He competed in the Pan American Games in Brazil and the World Port Tournament in The Netherlands.

Hunter again was tabbed to the national team roster in 2008. The team finished the year at 24-0 and won its third consecutive FISU title with a 1-0 extra-inning decision over Japan. He made three starts for the Americans and posted a 2-0 record with a 1.47 ERA. Hunter also struck out 26 batters in 18.1 innings and limited opposing hitters to a .119 average.

d'Arnaud became the most recent Wave to don a USA Baseball jersey when he was added to the 2010 roster for October's COPABE Pan American/World Cup Qualifying Tournament. That team finished with a 9-1 overall record and shared third place with Venezuela.

d'Arnaud hit .321 through eight starts with four doubles, one triple, four RBI, six runs and two stolen bases.

EDDY D. FIELD STADIUM

Pepperdine's home baseball games are played at Eddy D. Field Stadium, one of the nation's most picturesque collegiate facilities.

Original field construction was completed prior to the 1973 season, and the facility was then known as Waves Park. Pepperdine won the first game played at Waves Park, defeating Whittier by a score of 5-2 on Feb. 16, 1973.

Bleacher and stadium seating was added in 1980, and the facility was officially dedicated as Eddy D. Field Stadium on March 30, 1980. Pepperdine defeated Nebraska by a final score of 5-4 on that date.

Eddy D. Field Stadium has seating for up to 1,800 fans. The facility also includes a fully equipped press box, self-contained clubhouses underneath the grandstands, restrooms and a concession booth.

Recent improvements include refurbishment of the playing surface, additional batting cages, new lockers in the home clubhouse, an upgraded weight room, state-of-the-art scoreboard and new blue plastic chair back seats installed during the summer of 2003. A new backstop screen was installed prior to the 2008 season and the outfield wall was padded during the 2009 offseason.

Pepperdine has posted a winning record at Eddy D. Field Stadium nearly every year since 1974, and the Waves' all-time cumulative home mark in 45 seasons stands at 934-396-13 (.700).*

The 2006 season marked a first in program history as Eddy D. Field Stadium was selected as host site for an NCAA Regional.

The Eddy D. Field Stadium complex has been used extensively for the filming of several commercials and movies and has been the site for the University's commencement exercises.
