HISTORY

The Pepperdine women's swimming and diving team is in its fourth decade of existence and the Waves have perennially been one of the top teams in the Pacific Collegiate Swim Conference.

The Waves have posted top-five finishes in 28 of the 35 PCSC Championships ever contested, with second-place finishes in 1989, 2008, 2019, 2020 and 2021.

Over the years, the Waves have been awarded the PCSC Swimmer of the Year nine times and the PCSC Diver of the Year 11 times. There have been 40 PCSC individual champions and six relay titles, and Waves have posted NCAA qualifying marks 13 times.

One of Pepperdine's most decorated swimmers was Andreea Trufasu, who was an Olympian for her native Romania before arriving in Malibu. She would earn PCSC Swimmer of the Year honors twice while winning four PCSC individual titles. The only other Wave to capture multiple PCSC Swimmer of the Year awards was Jessica Mosbaugh in 2013 and 2014.

There have been only four head coaches in the program's 36-year history. Tim Elson began with the inaugural team in 1985-86 and served in the position for 15 seasons. Nick Rodionoff, who had been the long-time diving coach, was promoted to head coach in 2000-01 and held that role for 18 seasons. Ellie Monobe, formerly an assistant at UC Santa Barbara, took over in August 2020 and is heading into her second season.

ELLIE MONOBE

The Waves compete on-campus at the Raleigh Runnels Memorial Pool. The facility is recognized as a sparkling blue jewel carved amidst the rugged Santa Monica Mountains. It has been the site for many prominent swimming and water polo events, including the 1984 Olympics, when Pepperdine hosted the water polo competition.
