STORYLINES

HOT START CONTINUES FOR UNC: Northern Colorado followed up its dominant opener with another statement win, defeating Colorado Christian 101-65 on Friday night at Bank of Colorado Arena. The Bears (2-0) were lights-out from beyond the arc, hitting 18 three-pointers while shooting 53.8 percent from the field. Eleven players entered the scoring column, eight knocked down a three, and five reached double figures as UNC eclipsed the 100-point mark for the first time this season.

VETERAN CORE LEADS THE WAY: Northern Colorado's experienced trio of Zach Bloch, Brock Wisne, and Quinn Denker set the tone once again. Bloch exploded for a career-high 24 points, connecting on 7-of-11 from deep to tie for the fourth-most threes in a single game in program history. Wisne turned in a perfect 7-for-7 performance from the floor, finishing with 18 points and two made threes, while Denker dished out a career-best 10 assists, matching the fourth-highest single-game total in UNC history, to go along with six points and five rebounds. The trio's leadership and chemistry have powered an offense averaging 96.0 points per game with 48 total assists and a 2.3 assist-to-turnover ratio.

DEPTH AND BALANCE DEFINE THE BEARS: UNC's depth continues to shine, with 11 players averaging double-digit minutes and all 11 scoring in Friday's win. Ring Nyeri added 14 points and six rebounds, while Ibu Yamazaki (11 points, three triples) and Ariik Mawien (10 points, five boards) also reached double figures. Egan Shields continued his strong start on the glass, pulling down eight rebounds to boost his team-leading average to 7.5 per game.

DEFENSE, REBOUNDING, AND DISCIPLINE COMPLETE THE FORMULA: While the Bears' offensive fireworks draw attention, their defensive effort and rebounding have been equally dominant. UNC held Colorado Christian to 41 percent shooting, forced 16 turnovers, and owned a 39-22 advantage on the boards, including 17 offensive rebounds that led to 22 second-chance points. Through two games, Northern Colorado boasts a +21.5 rebounding margin and +35.0 scoring differential.

SCOUTING THE WAVES: Northern Colorado travels west for its first road test of the season against Pepperdine (2-1) on Saturday at Firestone Fieldhouse. The Waves are coming off a 113-76 rout of Lincoln, shooting 60.5 percent from the field and scoring 88 points in the paint. Danilo Dozic led the way with a career-high 23 points on 11-for-13 shooting, while Yonatan Levy recorded 16 points and 11 rebounds for his first double-double of the year. Pepperdine's offensive depth was on full display, as eight players scored at least eight points and the team totaled 26 assists and 26 offensive boards; numbers that highlight the Waves' size, balance, and unselfish style under second-year head coach Ed Schilling.

IN THE POLLS: Northern Colorado was slotted third in both Big Sky Coaches' and Media polls as the Bears return a talented core from last season's title squad, aiming to remain among the league's elite and contend for another championship in 2025-26. Idaho was selected fourth in both polls after earning its first Big Sky Tournament win since 2017 last year in Boise. The 2026 Big Sky Basketball Championships will take place March 7-11 at Idaho Central Arena in Boise, Idaho.

NOTING THE NORTHERN COLORADO-PEPPERDINE SERIES

- Northern Colorado holds a 2-1 advantage in the all-time series against Pepperdine, which dates back to the 1964-65 season.
- The programs first met in December 1964, with the Bears falling 85-80 in Malibu. After more than five decades without a matchup, UNC swept a home-and-home series against the Waves in 2017-18 and 2018-19, winning 84-82 in Malibu and 88-80 in Greeley.
- Northern Colorado has averaged 86.0 points per game in the two modern-era meetings, both of which were decided by single digits.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

HEAD COACH STEVE SMILEY

91-71 // sixth year (UNC)

243-116 // 12th year (career)

Steve Smiley became the 20th head coach in Northern Colorado men's basketball history in March 2020 and has since established himself as the winningest coach in the program's Division I era.

Smiley owns the second-highest winning percentage in the program's DI era and has guided the Bears to four postseason appearances in his first five years, holding the record for most postseason wins in school history with eight. Since his arrival in Greeley, 15 former Bears have gone on to professional basketball careers, including 11 during his head coaching tenure.

The 2024-25 campaign marked a historic breakthrough for Northern Colorado, as Smiley led the Bears to a share of the Big Sky regular season championship and the program's first-ever berth in the National Invitation Tournament (NIT). UNC finished 25-10, the second-most wins in program history, while posting a .714 winning percentage, the ninth-best in school history and second-best in the DI era. The Bears also tied a program-best with 15 Big Sky wins.

Smiley's squad finished in the top 50 nationally in eight statistical categories, including first in field goal percentage (50.7%) and fourth in effective field goal percentage (58%). UNC's dominance carried into postseason play, where they advanced to the Big Sky Championship Game before earning the NIT bid. The 25-win season pushed Smiley to the top of UNC's Division I coaching wins list.

In 2023-24, Smiley guided a reshaped roster to a 19-14 record and the program's second College Basketball Invitational (CBI) appearance in four years. The Bears' 19 wins ranked sixth-most in program history and fifth-most in the Division I era, highlighting Smiley's ability to reload and compete at a high level despite losing eight rotation players from the previous season.

Smiley has now produced over 10 All-Big Sky selections and three 1,000-point scorers. His student-athletes have earned honors ranging from Big Sky First Team to NABC All-District recognition, including recent standouts Dalton Knecht, Daylen Kountz, Saint Thomas, Langston Reynolds, Isaiah Hawthorne, and Jaron Rillie.

The 2022-23 season featured one of the nation's toughest schedules, with the Bears defeating Colorado State in Fort Collins for the first time since 2015 and producing the Big Sky's scoring leader in Dalton Knecht (20.2 ppg).

In 2021-22, Smiley led UNC to 22 wins, the third-most in program history, and a trip to the Big Sky title game before advancing to the CBI semifinals. Daylen Kountz earned unanimous First Team All-Big Sky and national All-District recognition after finishing 10th in the NCAA in scoring (21.2 ppg).

In his debut 2020-21 season, Smiley navigated COVID-19 disruptions while still guiding multiple Bears to All-Big Sky honors.

Before taking over as head coach, Smiley spent four years as UNC's associate head coach, helping lead the Bears to an 80-50 record, a CIT championship in 2018, and three straight 20-win seasons.

Smiley's experience in the Big Sky goes beyond his four years at UNC as he was an assistant coach at Weber State from 2014-16. The Wildcats won 39 games in those two years and advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2016 by winning the Big Sky Tournament.

Before Weber State, Smiley spent six years as the head coach and Athletic Director at Sheridan College, a national junior college powerhouse in Sheridan, Wyoming.

In the six years with the Generals, Smiley posted a 153-43 overall record and led Sheridan to four North

Sub-Region 9 titles and two runner-up finishes. His teams also advanced to the Region 9 Final Four on four occasions and appeared in two championship games. Smiley was twice named the North Region Coach of the Year.

During his time at Sheridan, Smiley had 21 players sign to play NCAA Division I basketball and 38 players moved on to play at four-year colleges. He coached two players who earned NJCAA All-American honors and nine players who earned All-Region honors. Several players went on to play professional basketball across the world.

Prior to his stint at Sheridan, Smiley spent two seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Northern State University in Aberdeen, South Dakota where he collaborated with the winningest coach in NCAA history, Don Meyer. During his time at NSU, the Wolves posted a 50-12 record. Smiley was also the assistant head coach at Black Hills State University during the 2005-06 season.

Smiley began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M International during the 2004-05 campaign.

A native of Denver, Smiley graduated from Northern State in 2004. He was a three-year starter with the Wolves and led the Northern Sun league in assists for three straight seasons. He ranks second in NSU history in career assists with 537. As a senior, he was named the NSIC Defensive Player of the Year and the league tournament MVP. He helped lead the team to a 24-7 record and a trip to the NCAA Division II Tournament.

He played high school basketball at Pomona High School in Arvada, Colorado, where he was a four-year starter and earned All-State honors twice while graduating as his class valedictorian. He also led the state of Colorado in assists during his junior season.

Davis set a @UNC_BearsMBB record and sealed the win over the Waves

GREELEY, Colo. (NOV. 13, 2018) – Coming down the stretch of a tight game is always a spot where Jordan Davis wants the ball. Tuesday night against Pepperdine was no different, except this time it had a little more history attached to it. With 37 seconds left on the clock, UNC had seen its once 11-point lead cut to just four. The Bears didn't panic they just got the ball to Davis and the senior came through going 4-of-6 from the line in the final half minute to seal an 88-80 UNC win. The last free throw, which gave him 32 points on the night also pushed him past Devon Beitzel on the Bears all-time Division I scoring list.

"It probably won't really hit me until I call home and talk to my parents," said Davis. "It's definitely big to be in the history books. When I came here I wanted to make sure to leave my legacy. I wasn't even focused on the record tonight, I just wanted to win. At that time great players have to finish the game and I have the mindset that I am the best player on the floor, so I have to finish the game."

Davis now has 1,569 career points, which is good for third place in program history and just 543 behind Mike Higgins for most in all-time UNC history.

"It is a credit to JD and his mentality. He is a guy who has an elite work ethic," said UNC head coach Jeff Linder. "When you put in the work and have the talent the results are going to show up."

One of the biggest stretches in the game actually came when Davis wasn't on the floor. Hampered with some light foul trouble, JD went to the bench and the Waves cut the lead to just a single point. But, Matej Drgon helped stem the tide for the Bears. He made a pair of jumpers in the paint that allowed UNC to have a four-point lead when Davis came back. His return didn't spark the UNC offense, however, in fact, Pepperdine went up 61-59 with eight and a half minutes to play. Drgon stepped up again, Davis set up the big man for a three-ball that gave UNC a 62-61 lead, and they never looked back.

"Matej is a guy who is capable of helping us win games. The three gave us the lead back and I feel was really the play of the game. As much as JD finished the game, Matej put us in that position. I am really proud of him because he has felt the wrath of coach Linder many times," Linder said.

Overlooked at times is the Bears defense, but on Tuesday they came through to help UNC execute its gameplan for the win. Northern Colorado knew the Waves two leading scorers Kameron Edwards and Colbey Ross were going to get theirs, but not allowing Eric Cooper Jr. to be the third scorer was huge. Led by Jonah Radebaugh, UNC held Cooper Jr. to just 1-for-4 from the floor and a total of two points.

GAME NOTES

- UNC took a season-low 30 three-point attempts.
- Trent Harris followed up his record-setting performance by making four more threes and finished with 12 points.
- Radebaugh chipped in with 11 to give the Bears four players in double digits.
- The 32 points scored by Davis are the most he has scored in a single game, topping his 30-point effort against North Dakota last season.
- Davis has scored over 543 points in a season twice in his career already.

SCHEDULE SAYS

Hopefully, you got out to Bank of Colorado Arena to catch the Bears over the past two weeks because they hit the road for the next month. Things start with a trip to Texas to take on Incarnate Word and Texas Tech next week.
