>> OPENING TIPS

A WIN WOULD...

- » Give the Panthers their first ACC win since February 1, 2018.
- » Be the Panthers 20th win against Syracuse in the all-time series.
- » Give the Panthers a 6-4 record at home this season.
- » Give Pitt 80 victories against ACC schools in program history.
- » Be the 10th win of the season for the Panthers, marking last seasons win total.

LAST TIME OUT...

- » The Panthers (9-8, 0-3 ACC) put up a strong fight but weren't able to notch the come-from-behind victory as they fell 59-55 to Boston College on Sunday afternoon at the Petersen Events Center.
- » The difference in the game on Sunday was the struggles at the free throw line for the Panthers as they went 9-for-18 from the charity stripe in the five-point loss.
- » Junior Jasmine Whitney continued her high level of play for Pitt as she led the way with 20 points, a career-high six steals, five rebounds and four assists across 37 minutes of work. The 20-point effort for Whitney was the third of her career and second this season.

- » Senior Danielle Garven had a strong second half for the Panthers as she finished with 11 points, four rebounds, two assists, a steal and a block in 31 minutes. Kauai Bradley did a little bit of everything as she netted six points, seven rebounds, five steals, two assists and two blocks while Cassidy Walsh started her 17th straight game and finished with eight points, six boards and three assists.
- » As a team, the Panthers were able to force 25 Boston College turnovers and they turned those chances into 20 points. Pitt also notched 15 steals in the loss.

STORYLINES

- » Pitt will be taking on their third Top-15 team through their first four conference games for the first time in program history.
- » The Panthers are looking to avoid their third 0-4 start in ACC play since joining the conference in 2013-14.
- » When the Pitt offense is able to score at least 60 points this season, they own a perfect 8-0 record.

LOOKING AHEAD...

- » Pitt will stay at home for two more inside the Petersen Events Center after Thursday night as they welcome Clemson (Jan. 20) and Virginia (Jan. 24).

>> SCOUTING THE OPPONENT

- » The Syracuse Orange come to town with a 14-2 overall record and an unblemished 3-0 ACC mark. The Orange enter as the #12 team in the country as announced on Monday with the release of the new AP Top-25 poll.
- » The Orange are being led offensively by one of the point guards in the country, Tiana Mangakahia. The Australia native is averaging a team-high 17.1 points, 8.0 assists, 5.3 rebounds and 2.4 steals while shooting 47.2% from the floor and 38.2% from behind the arc. Mangakahia is coming off of a triple-double against North Carolina as she recorded 34 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists in the win. She has also been named ACC Player of the Week three times this season.
- » Miranda Drummond ranks second on the team in scoring as she is averaging 11.6 points, 4.9 rebounds and 2.1 steals while starting all 16 games. Off the bench, Maeva Djaldi-Tabdi is making an impact as she is averaging 10.1 points and a team-high 54 rebounds while shooting a team-best 58.8% from the floor.
- » As a team, the Orange are averaging 81.1 points/game while holding their opponents to just 63.7 points/game. They are also shooting 44.7% from the floor while holding opponents to just 36.3% shooting. The Orange hold the edge in rebounding 42.6 to 37.7 so far this season.

&gt;&gt; NOTES

61st MEETING WITH THE ORANGE

- » Thursday's matchup against Syracuse will be the 61st meeting of all-time between the two programs with the Orange owning the 41-19 record against the Panthers.
- » The Orange have won 14 straight games against Pitt with the Panthers last win against Syracuse coming on the road on January 24, 2009, 77-75.
- » The Orange own the 17-12 series record against the Panthers in Pittsburgh with Pitt's last win at home coming in 2008.

TOUGH ACC SCHEDULE CONTINUES FOR PANTHERS

- » The Panthers were awarded no favors when the schedule for ACC play was announced as they opened conference play on the road against a pair of top-10 teams before returning home and welcoming #12 Syracuse on Thursday.
- » For the first time in program history, Pitt will open up their conference slate with three top-15 teams through the first four games as they will play #2 Notre Dame, #8 NC State and #12 Syracuse.
- » After two home games against unranked opponents, the Panthers will then hit the road for a test against nationally ranked Louisville, marking the fourth game against a nationally ranked foe out of the first seven ACC games.

WHITNEY EXCELLING AT THE POINT

- » Junior guard Jasmine Whitney has taken the starting point guard spot and ran with it while showing steady growth so far this season.
- » The junior has started 14 straight games at the point and has helped the Panthers to a 8-6 record in the games she started this season.
- » Last time out, Whitney was outstanding for the Panthers as she netted her second 20-point game of the season. The junior finished off the close loss to Boston College with 20 points, a career-high six steals, five rebounds and four assists across 37 minutes of work.
- » Whitney is enjoying her best season to date as she is averaging a career-high 9.5 points, a team-high 3.6 assists, 3.3 rebounds and 1.8 steals while connecting on a career-best 12 three-pointers.
- » Over her last 10 games, the junior is averaging a team-high 12.0 points, 3.9 assists, 3.3 rebounds and 1.8 steals while playing an average of 30.2 minutes/game and leading the Panthers to six wins.
- » Whitney has been lethal from the charity stripe this season as she is shooting a career-best 80.6% which ranks 13th in the ACC. Her 58 free throws made are the fourth most in the conference.

WALSH CONTINUES STEADY PLAY

- » Senior guard Cassidy Walsh is enjoying the best season of her career thanks to more playing time in the backcourt for the Panthers. The senior is leading the team with an average of 31.1 minutes played/game.
- » Walsh has been the Panthers most consistent performer this season as she is the lone Pitt player to start all 17 games and is averaging a team-high 10.1 points, 3.7 rebounds and 2.4 assists so far this season.
- » She has also made a team-high 31 three-pointers and is shooting 33.7% from deep on the year. The senior has connected on at least one three-pointer in 10 straight games and two or more triples in five of her last seven games for the Panthers.
- » Last time out, Walsh struggled from the field as she went 3-for-13 but she managed eight points, six rebounds and three assists across 35 minutes of work.
- » Walsh has a team-high nine double-digit scoring games this season including a career-high 21 point performance in the win over New Orleans earlier this season.

GARVEN GETTING IT DONE DOWN LOW

- » Senior Danielle Garven has seen her role in the Pitt rotation grow over the last couple weeks and her impact has helped the Panthers win seven of their last 11.
- » Last time out, Garven played 31 minutes and finished with 11 points, four rebounds and two assists while going 5-for-10 from the floor.
- » Garven has started 13 straight games for Pitt and has scored in double figures in six of those games and in eight games overall this season.

- » Across her last 12 games, Garven is averaging 10.6 points, 4.2 rebounds and 2.1 assists while shooting 73.5% from the charity stripe.

TURNING THEM OVER

- » The Panthers defense prides itself on turning the ball over and they have done a great job of doing that so far this season.
- » Pitt is forcing an average of 16.1 turnovers/game this season overall but they have turned up the pressure through the first three ACC games as they are forcing an average of 17.3 turnovers/game.
- » As a team, the Panthers are averaging 8.2 steals/game which ranks eighth in the ACC. Pitt has six players with double figure steal numbers so far this season led by Kauai Bradley who has notched 35 so far this season.
- » Last time out, the Panthers defense forced 25 Boston College turnovers and they recorded 15 steals.
- » On the year, Pitt has three games with at least 15 steals including a season-high 18 thefts in the win over New Orleans.

PAINT SUCCESS = TEAM SUCCESS

- » Controlling the paint has proved to be a pivotal task for the Panthers this season and when they do so they usually win.
- » On the year, Pitt owns a 9-2 record when they score the same or more points inside the paint than their opponent. The Panthers are 0-6 this year when they lose the scoring in the paint category.
- » As a team, Pitt averages 25.1 points/game in the paint while limiting their opponents to just 23.9 points/game.
- » Last time out, the Panthers were outscored 28-24 inside the paint as they were handed a four-point loss by the Eagles.
- » The Panthers have posted two games this season of 40+ points in the paint, both victories, and fives games with 30+ paint points.

SHOOTING FOR THE STARS

- » One of the keys to success so far this season for the Panthers has been shooting the ball at a higher percentage than their opponents.
- » Pitt is 8-0 this season when shooting a higher percentage from the floor than their opponent and 1-8 when not doing so.
- » Last time out, Boston College outshot the Panthers 43.1% to 33.9% as the Eagles claimed the road win.
- » The Panthers have shot 45% or higher from the floor in five games this season, all victories. Earlier this season Pitt shot a season-best 58.7% in the win over Tennessee State.
- » Pitt has posted an unblemished 8-0 record this season when they score at least 60 points. In the eight games that Pitt has scored 60+ points, they are shooting 46.3% from the floor.

FINDING THE RIGHT COMBINATION

- » One of the challenges for a new coaching staff is finding a lineup combination that works and that will put forth maximum effort.
- » The Panthers have used eight different starting lineup combinations this season and the lone player to start all 17 games for Pitt is senior guard Cassidy Walsh.
- » After starting five different lineups through the first five games of the season, the Panthers went with a lineup of Cassidy Walsh, Kyla Nelson, Danielle Garven, Jasmine Whitney and Cara Judkins over the next six games and they compiled a 4-2 record.
- » Over the last six games, Kauai Bradley was inserted into the starting lineup and the Panthers have won three of those six games.

COMEBACK KIDS TIMES THREE

- » The Panthers struggled offensively in each of their final three non-conference games but were able to gut-out three wins in those contests after trailing by at least nine points in each.
- » Pitt overcame 9+ point deficits in three straight games for the first time since joining the ACC in 2013-14.

>> NOTES

- » The 13-point comeback over UNCW earlier this season marked the Panthers biggest second half comeback since Dec. 31, 2011 when they trailed by 15 against Lafayette and came back to win.
- » Overall it is the largest comeback win since Jan. 30, 2014 when the Panthers trailed Boston College by 14 in the first half before earning the win.
- » Each of the Panthers last four wins have come after trailing by at least nine points in the second half.

DEFENSE, DEFENSE, DEFENSE

- » The goal for the Pitt defense this season has been holding their opponents to 60 points or less and they have done so eight times, winning seven of those games.
- » Overall this season, the Panthers rank sixth in the ACC in scoring defense as they are limiting their opponents to 61.6 points/game.
- » The stingy Pitt defense also ranks fifth in the ACC in three-point field goal defense (28.7%) and seventh in the ACC in field goal defense (37.5%).
- » When Pitt holds their opponent to less than 40% shooting for the game, they own a 7-2 record this season.

BUGG OUT INDEFINITELY

- » As announced by head coach Lance White, the Panthers leading scorer Aysia Bugg will be out indefinitely due to blood clots.
- » Bugg was pacing the Pitt offense through the first five games of the season before being diagnosed with the blood clots. The redshirt senior was averaging a team-high 29.6 minutes, 14.0 points, 3.4 assists and 2.4 rebounds while starting all five games at point and netting 20+ points two times.

PANTHERS ADD TEXAS TECH TRANSFER

- » On Jan. 4, head coach Lance White announced the addition of Texas Tech transfer center Marcella Lamark dos Santos to the team for the 2019-20 campaign.
- » Lamark dos Santos will be eligible for the second semester of the 2019-20 campaign after not appearing in a game at Texas Tech during the first semester of this season.
- » The Brazil native was a highly recruited transfer from the junior college ranks as she played two seasons at the College of Central Florida where she started all 23 games as a sophomore and averaged 13.1 points, 9.1 rebounds and 2.0 blocks while connecting on 47.1% of her field goal attempts.

WHITE ANNOUNCES #FIRSTCLASS

- » First-year head coach Lance White announced his first signing class on Nov. 20 when he revealed the names of five student-athletes that will be joining the Panthers for the 2019-20 campaign.
- » Amber Brown comes to Pitt from Monroe, Louisiana

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

Sue Semrau, Florida State head women's basketball coach (1997-present)

- "Lance has played an integral part in building our program to this point. He is not only a great teacher, but also a strong connector. Pittsburgh is getting a tremendous person who cares deeply about his own family in addition to his basketball family. It has been 15 amazing years coaching with Lance, and we wish him nothing but the best."

Stan Wilcox, Florida State Director of Athletics (2013-present)

- "Lance has played an integral part in building our program to this point. He is not only a great teacher, but also a strong connector. Pittsburgh is getting a tremendous person who cares deeply about his own family in addition to his basketball family. It has been 15 amazing years coaching with Lance, and we wish him nothing but the best."

Marsha Sharp, Texas Tech head women's basketball coach (1982-2006)

- "I think this is a win-win for the University of Pittsburgh and also for Lance. I think he is going to bring an incredible amount of energy and a great work ethic to his job every single day. He is a person who connects people and makes them feel like they're a part of his programs. I'm so excited for him and his family for this opportunity. I told him that he had been preparing his entire career for this day and how excited I am for him that it's here and what a great job I know he's going to do. I have great confidence in him."

Lance White was introduced as the ninth head coach of Pitt women's basketball in program history on Thursday, April 19, 2018.

White comes to Pitt after spending the past 15 years at Florida State, where he helped the Seminoles to a 350-145 (.707) record, including 12 seasons with 20 or more wins.

During his final season at Florida State (2017-18), the Seminoles posted 25 or more wins for the fourth consecutive season, finishing with a 26-7 overall record and averaged the second-most points in a season in program history with 81.0 points per game. It was just the second time FSU averaged 80 or more points per game in a season. The team ranked in the Top 20 nationally in field goal percentage (20th), offensive rebounds per game (16th), rebound margin (sixth), rebounds per game (11th), scoring margin (10th) and scoring offense (13th). The Seminoles led the ACC in rebounding offense (42.8), rebounding margin (+10.0) and offensive rebounding percentage (41.4 percent).

During his time at FSU, 10 players were selected in the WNBA Draft, eight earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and 37 earned all-conference awards. He helped the Florida State reach the NCAA Tournament in 13 of the past 14 years, while the team won at least one NCAA Tournament game in its past 15 appearances.

For his standout coaching efforts during the 2016-17 season, White was named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) National Assistant Coach of the Year.

During his time in Tallahassee, White helped FSU reach new levels of success and brought an infectious energy to the program. He directed the Seminole defense and offense during his tenure in addition to being one of the country's top recruiters.

Florida State captured back-to-back regular season ACC co-titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. After serving as assistant coach for the first nine seasons in Tallahassee, White was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2012-13 campaign.

Prior to Florida State, White spent 11 seasons at Texas Tech, including five years as an assistant coach with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp. With White on staff, Texas Tech won three Big 12 championships and advanced to seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet 16 and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 national championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach in 1998.

While in Lubbock, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen, including National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA MVP Sheryl Swoopes as well as Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a master's degree in sports administration in August 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January 1993.

As a high school athlete in Spur, he was a three-time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to his football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991.
