ACC OPENER FOR THE PANTHERS

- » The Panthers haven't been able to find success in their ACC openers since joining the conference in 2013-14 as they are 0-5.
- » Pitt has opened played against Notre Dame one other time, falling 65-55 in 2015-16 inside the Petersen Events Center.

30TH MEETING WITH THE FIGHTING IRISH

- » Thursday's matchup against the Fighting Irish will be the 30th meeting between the two squads all-time with Notre Dame owning the 26-3 record over the Panthers in the series.
- » The Fighting Irish have won nine straight in the series with the Panthers last win coming in 2009 when they downed Notre Dame 82-70 in Pittsburgh.

COMEBACK KIDS TIMES THREE

- » The Panthers struggled offensively early on for the third straight game on Saturday, but a strong finish to the game helped Pitt notch their third straight come-from-behind win.
- » Pitt has now overcome 9+ point deficits in three straight games for the first time since joining the ACC in 2013-14.
- » The 13-point comeback over UNCW earlier this season marked the Panthers biggest second half comeback since Dec. 31, 2011 when they trailed by 15 against Lafayette and came back to win.
- » Overall it is the largest comeback win since Jan. 30, 2014 when the Panthers trailed Boston College by 14 in the first half before earning the win.
- » Each of the Panthers last four wins have come after trailing by at least nine in the second half.

WHITNEY EXCELLING AT THE POINT

- » Junior guard Jasmine Whitney has taken the starting point guard spot and ran with it while showing steady growth so far this season.
- » The junior has started 11 straight games at the point and has helped the Panthers to a 8-3 record in the games she started this season.
- » Last time out, Whitney was the catalyst for another comeback win for the Panthers as she netted a career-high 23 points, six assists, four rebounds and two steals. The junior went 3-for-4 from behind the arc and 8-for-8 from the charity stripe in the win.
- » The 20+ point effort by Whitney marked the fourth time this season that a Panther surpassed the 20-point plateau (Bugg, Walsh, Garven). It also marked the second straight game that Pitt had a 20+ point effort.
- » Over her last seven games, the junior is averaging 12.3 points, 4.1 assists, 3.3 rebounds and 1.4 steals while playing an average of 29.7 minutes/game and leading the Panthers to six wins.

WALSH CONTINUES STEADY PLAY

- » Senior guard Cassidy Walsh is enjoying the best season of her career thanks to more playing time in the backcourt for the Panthers. The senior is leading the team with an average of 30.5 minutes played/game.
- » Walsh has been the Panthers most consistent performer this season as she is the lone Pitt player to start all 14 games and is averaging 10.9 points, 3.4 rebounds and 2.6 assists so far this season. She has also made a team-high 27 three-pointers and is shooting 37.0% from deep on the year.
- » Last time out, Walsh notched her third straight double digit scoring effort as she netted 14 points and three rebounds while connecting on 3-for-5 from behind the arc across 31 minutes of work in the win over Duquesne.
- » Walsh has a team-high nine double-digit scoring games this season including a career-high 21 point performance in the win over New Orleans earlier this season.

GARVEN SHOWING GROWTH DOWN LOW

- » Senior Danielle Garven has seen her role in the Pitt rotation grow over the last couple games and her impact has helped the Panthers win seven of their last eight.
- » Last time out, Garven played 26 minutes and finished with seven points, five rebounds and two assists while playing strong defensively.
- » Garven has started 10 straight games for Pitt and has scored in double figures in five of those games and in seven games overall this season.
- » Across her last eight games, Garven is leading the Panthers in scoring as she is averaging 11.5 points, 4.5 rebounds and 2.4 assists while shooting 43.7% from the floor and 80.0% from the charity stripe.

JUDKINS MAKES IMPACT OFF BENCH

- » Sophomore center Cara Judkins continues to impress down low for the Panthers as she has made major strides on the offensive end of the court this season.
- » Last time out, Judkins came off the bench and was able to produce her first career double-double. The sophomore posted 10 points and 11 rebounds while going 4-for-7 from the floor across 25 minutes of work.
- » Over her last five games, Judkins is averaging 24.4 minutes, 10.4 points, a team-high 8.0 rebounds and 1.8 blocks while connecting on 57.9% of her shots from the floor.
- » She has two games this season with 10+ rebounds and has scored in double figures four times including in three of her last four games.

CONTROL THE PAINT

- » Controlling the paint has proved to be a pivotal task for the Panthers this season and when they do so they usually win.
- » On the year, Pitt owns a 9-2 record when they score the same or more points inside the paint than their opponent. The Panthers are 0-3 this year when they lose the scoring in the paint category.
- » As a team, Pitt averages 26.6 points/game in the paint while limiting their opponents to just 22.9 points/game.
- » Last time out, the Panthers were able to protect the paint as they outscored the Dukes 22-16 as they claimed the eight point win.
- » The Panthers have posted two games this season of 40+ points in the paint, both victories, and fives games with 30+ paint points.

SHOOTING FOR THE STARS

- » One of the keys to success so far this season for the Panthers has been shooting the ball at a higher percentage than their opponents.
- » Pitt is 8-0 this season when shooting a higher percentage from the floor than their opponent and 1-5 when not doing so.
- » Last time out, Pitt shot just 38.6% from the floor but held the Dukes to 32.4%. The Panthers, however, were able to shoot 60% from behind the arc in the win.
- » The Panthers have shot 45% or higher from the floor in five games this season, all victories. Earlier this season Pitt shot a season-best 58.7% in the win over Tennessee State.
- » Pitt has posted an unblemished 8-0 record this season when they score at least 60 points. In the eight games that Pitt has scored 60+ points, they are shooting 46.3% from the floor.

FINDING THE RIGHT COMBINATION

- » One of the challenges for a new coaching staff is finding a lineup combination that works and that will put forth maximum effort.
- » The Panthers have used eight different starting lineup

>> NOTES

- combinations this season and the lone player to start all 14 games for Pitt is senior guard Cassidy Walsh.
- » After starting five different lineups through the first five games of the season, the Panthers went with a lineup of Cassidy Walsh, Kyla Nelson, Danielle Garven, Jasmine Whitney and Cara Judkins over the next six games and they compiled a 4-2 record.
 - » Over the last three games, Kauai Bradley was inserted into the starting lineup and the Panthers have won all three of those games.
 - » Last time out, Kalista Walters started at center for the Panthers in place of Judkins and Pitt earned the comeback victory.

DEFENSE, DEFENSE, DEFENSE

- » The goal for the Pitt defense this season has been holding their opponents to 60 points or less and they have done so eight times, winning seven of those games.
- » Overall this season, the Panthers rank fifth in the ACC in scoring defense as they are limiting their opponents to 58.9 points/game so far.
- » The stingy Pitt defense also ranks third in the ACC in three-point field goal defense (27.0%), fifth in the ACC in field goal defense (35.7%) and fifth in the ACC in blocks/game (4.3).
- » When Pitt holds their opponent to less than 40% shooting for the game, they own a 7-2 record this season.

BUGG OUT INDEFINITELY

- » As announced by head coach Lance White, the Panthers leading scorer Aysia Bugg will be out indefinitely due to blood clots.
- » Bugg was pacing the Pitt offense through the first five games of the season before being diagnosed with the blood clots. The redshirt senior was averaging a team-high 29.6 minutes, 14.0 points, 3.4 assists and 2.4 rebounds while starting all five games at point and netting 20+ points two times.
- » The crafty point guard has now played just five games over the last two seasons as she missed all of last season due to a torn ACL.

WHITE ANNOUNCES #FIRSTCLASS

- » First-year head coach Lance White announced his first signing class on Nov. 20 when he revealed the names of five student-athletes that will be joining the Panthers for the 2019-20 campaign.
- » Amber Brown comes to Pitt from Monroe, Louisiana where she was named First Team All-District after

Stan Wilcox, Florida State Director of Athletics (2013-present)

- "Lance has played an integral part in building our program to this point. He is not only a great teacher, but also a strong connector. Pittsburgh is getting a tremendous person who cares deeply about his own family in addition to his basketball family. It has been 15 amazing years coaching with Lance, and we wish him nothing but the best."

Marsha Sharp, Texas Tech head women's basketball coach (1982-2006)

- "I think this is a win-win for the University of Pittsburgh and also for Lance. I think he is going to bring an incredible amount of energy and a great work ethic to his job every single day. He is a person who connects people and makes them feel like they're a part of his programs. I'm so excited for him and his family for this opportunity. I told him that he had been preparing his entire career for this day and how excited I am for him that it's here and what a great job I know he's going to do. I have great confidence in him."

Lance White was introduced as the ninth head coach of Pitt women's basketball in program history on Thursday, April 19, 2018.

White comes to Pitt after spending the past 15 years at Florida State, where he helped the Seminoles to a 350-145 (.707) record, including 12 seasons with 20 or more wins.

During his final season at Florida State (2017-18), the Seminoles posted 25 or more wins for the fourth consecutive season, finishing with a 26-7 overall record and averaged the second-most points in a season in program history with 81.0 points per game. It was just the second time FSU averaged 80 or more points per game in a season. The team ranked in the Top 20 nationally in field goal percentage (20th), offensive rebounds per game (16th), rebound margin (sixth), rebounds per game (11th), scoring margin (10th) and scoring offense (13th). The Seminoles led the ACC in rebounding offense (42.8), rebounding margin (+10.0) and offensive rebounding percentage (41.4 percent).

During his time at FSU, 10 players were selected in the WNBA Draft, eight earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and 37 earned all-conference awards. He helped the Florida State reach the NCAA Tournament in 13 of the past 14 years, while the team won at least one NCAA Tournament game in its past 15 appearances.

For his standout coaching efforts during the 2016-17 season, White was named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) National Assistant Coach of the Year.

During his time in Tallahassee, White helped FSU reach new levels of success and brought an infectious energy to the program. He directed the Seminole defense and offense during his tenure in addition to being one of the country's top recruiters.

Florida State captured back-to-back regular season ACC co-titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. After serving as assistant coach for the first nine seasons in Tallahassee, White was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2012-13 campaign.

Prior to Florida State, White spent 11 seasons at Texas Tech, including five years as an assistant coach with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp. With White on staff, Texas Tech won three Big 12 championships and advanced to seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet 16 and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 national championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach in 1998.

While in Lubbock, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen, including National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA MVP Sheryl Swoopes as well as Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a master's degree in sports administration in August 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January 1993.

As a high school athlete in Spur, he was a three-time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to his football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991.

He is married to the former Melanie Smith. The Whites are the proud parents of Quentin and Vivian.
