TERRIFIC TIGHT ENDS:

- ✓ Pitt's tight ends—Lucas Krull and Gavin Bartholomew—were a major part of Pitt's record-setting offense in 2021.
- ✓ Krull earned All-ACC accolades after compiling 38 receptions for 451 yards (11.9 avg.) and six touchdowns. His six scores were the most by a Pitt tight end since 2009. Krull was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Bowl.
- ✓ Bartholomew was one of college football's top newcomers, asserting himself as a blocker and receiver, and was named a Freshman All-American by multiple outlets.
- ✓ Bartholomew had 28 catches for 326 yards (11.6 avg.) and four touchdowns during his debut season and figures to rank among the ACC's top tight ends again in 2022.

TD PASSES BY NON-QBS:

- ✓ In Pitt's 41-34 victory at Tennessee (Sept. 11), wide receiver Jared Wayne threw a 16-yard touchdown to tight end Lucas Krull. The score gave Pitt a 14-13 lead in the second quarter, erasing a 10-0 deficit.
- ✓ It was the Panthers' first touchdown pass thrown by a non-quarterback since Sept. 21, 2019, when receiver Aaron Mathews threw three yards to quarterback Kenny Pickett for the winning score in a 35-34 victory over UCF. That play has been immortalized as the "Pitt Special."
- ✓ Since 1969, a non-quarterback has thrown a touchdown pass on 17 occasions for the Panthers.
- ✓ Wayne, incidentally, was 2-of-3 passing last season for 36 yards. In addition to the TD, he also had a 20-yard completion to Krull in Pitt's 45-21 victory over Wake Forest in the Subway ACC Championship Game (Dec. 4).

BIG (LONG SNAPPING) SHOES TO FILL:

- ✓ The Panthers will need to replace a vital component of their special teams—long snapper Cal Adomitis.
- ✓ Adomitis was named the 2021 recipient of the Patrick Mannely Award as college football's top long snapper. He is the first Pitt player to be honored with the award.
- ✓ Additionally, the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) added the long snapping position to its annual All-America squad for the first time in 2021 and Adomitis made history by earning the inaugural honor.
- ✓ Adomitis handled both long and short snapping for the Panthers in every game from 2017-21—a streak of 64 consecutive contests.
- ✓ He played in the prestigious Reese's Senior Bowl and was a 2022 NFL Combine participant.
- ✓ Candidates who will look to replace Adomitis at Pitt this season include sophomore Byron Floyd and redshirt freshman James Fineran.

AUSSIE PUNTER CONNECTION:

- ✓ Pitt needs to replace a four-year starter at punter, Australian import Kirk Christodoulou.
- ✓ Coincidentally, Christodoulou's successor may also be an Aussie: freshman Sam Vander Haar.
- ✓ An Australian rules football player from his youth, Vander Haar worked with the renowned Prokick Australia program that has produced many successful collegiate and NFL punters.
- ✓ Prokick Australia's products include Christodoulou, Minnesota Vikings punter Jordan Berry, the San Francisco 49ers' Mitch Wishnowsky, the Seattle Seahawks' Michael Dickson and the Houston Texans' Cameron Johnston.
- ✓ Vander Haar enrolled at the University of Pittsburgh in January and will compete for the Panthers' starting punting job this spring.

Pittsburgh, 2015-present, Chris Bickell '97 Head Football Coach.

Like the region it calls home, Pitt football under Pat Narduzzi has proven to be rugged, relentless and continuously rising.

Upon his hiring on December 26, 2014, Narduzzi pledged his Panthers would "play with a tough, blue-collar mentality—and how else would you want it in the City of Pittsburgh?"

Promise kept.

The eighth-year Chris Bickell '97 Head Football Coach has made an emphatic imprint on Pitt's program. His vision for the Panthers—on and off the field—continues to bear fruit with each passing season.

The 2021 campaign will go down as one of the most celebrated in Pitt's long football history. The Panthers' stormed to 11 victories—their most in 40 years—and claimed their first outright conference title with a 45-21 triumph over Wake Forest in the ACC Championship Game.

Pitt earned a No. 13 ranking in the final polls, its highest finish since 1982. The Panthers placed No. 12 in the final College Football Playoff ratings, their highest ever.

Individually, three Pitt players earned first-team All-America honors from NCAA-recognized selectors: wide receiver Jordan Addison (consensus), quarterback Kenny Pickett and long snapper Cal Adomitis. The Panthers last had three first team All-Americans in a season in 1982.

Addison won the 2021 Biletnikoff Award (nation's outstanding receiver), Pickett won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award (nation's top upperclassman quarterback) and Adomitis earned the Patrick Mannely Award (nation's top long snapper).

Pickett finished third in the 2021 Heisman Trophy balloting, the highest finish by a Pitt player since wide receiver Larry Fitzgerald was the 2003 runner-up.

Narduzzi also earned personal accolades, receiving the Andy Talley Regional Coach of the Year award, annually bestowed by the esteemed Maxwell Football Club to the top college coach in the northeast. Narduzzi was a finalist for the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year, Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year and Paul "Bear" Bryant Coach of the Year national awards.

The 2021 season was a culmination of Narduzzi's steady yet unmistakable program building. But the crowning achievement of an ACC title was preceded by many other milestone moments and accomplishments. Among them:

- From 2015-21, Narduzzi directed Pitt to 36 victories in ACC play, the conference's third-highest win total during that span. Only Clemson (52) and Miami (37) won more.
- Narduzzi directed the Panthers to two ACC Coastal Division titles (2018 and 2021). Since ACC expansion in 2013, Pitt is the only team with multiple Coastal crowns.
- Narduzzi has coached seven first team All-Americans at Pitt, including four who earned consensus status. Over the 2020-21 seasons, Pitt was one of only four programs nationwide to have at least three consensus selections, joining Alabama, Notre Dame and Texas A&M. In addition to Addison in 2021, defensive ends Patrick Jones II and Rashad Weaver were 2020 consensus All-Americans.
- Six Pitt products—Jones, Weaver, center Jimmy Morrissey, safety Damar Hamlin, cornerback Jason Pinnoch and defensive tackle Jaylen Twyman—were selected in the 2021 NFL Draft, the most of any program in the ACC and tied for eighth nationally.
- Narduzzi's Panthers have a well-earned reputation as a dangerous opponent for highly ranked foes. In 2019, Pitt scored a 35-34 triumph over UCF, which visited Heinz Field riding a 27-game non-bowl winning streak. The winning touchdown—a gadget-play pass caught by quarterback Kenny Pickett—has been immortalized as the "Pitt Special."
- In 2017, Pitt closed the season with a 24-14 victory over No. 2 Miami, which entered the game undefeated and on the cusp of the College Football Playoff.
- In 2016, the Panthers defeated two teams that finished in the top 5 of the final CFP rankings. Pitt gave No. 2 Clemson—that year's national champion—its only loss (43-42) and kept No. 5 Penn State out of the playoff field by defeating the Nittany Lions, 42-39.
- In 2020, Pitt earned an NCAA Public Recognition Award for achieving an Academic Progress Rate (APR) score that ranked in the top 10% of all football programs. The Panthers' multi-year 988 APR set a Pitt football program record and was 24 points higher than the national average.
- In 2018, the Panthers received the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Academic Achievement Award after scoring a perfect single-year 1,000 APR.
- In Narduzzi's initial seven seasons as head coach, Pitt had 41 All-ACC Academic Football Team honorees. The Panthers have had at least five All-ACC Academic selections in each season of Narduzzi's tenure.

Narduzzi has engrained toughness and tenacity into the program's culture. His passionate approach has spurred Pitt's rise in the ACC and nationally. Moreover, he is committed—in both word and deed—to his student-athletes' long-term growth.

That last point was vividly illustrated when Narduzzi and his wife, Donna, made a six-figure financial gift to the Pitt Football Championship Fund, which serves the program in such key areas as student-athlete development, facility improvement, technology and recruiting.

"I take great pride in wearing that Pitt Script on my chest each day as the University of Pittsburgh's head football coach," Narduzzi said. "This is an outstanding place with so many amazing people. Donna and I feel incredibly blessed to call Pitt our home."

"This gift is an expression of our thankfulness for the people of Pitt, especially the student-athletes we get to work with each day. Our responsibility is to give them the finest experiences possible—academically, athletically and personally. Donna and I feel truly honored and fortunate to be able to provide support for that mission at Pitt."

Narduzzi arrived at Pitt following eight highly successful years as the defensive coordinator at Michigan State under former head coach Mark Dantonio. During that time the Spartans achieved five Top 25 finishes and Narduzzi's defense proved instrumental in that success. Michigan State was the only team to rank in the nation's top 10 in total defense and rushing defense each season from 2011-14.

In 2014, the Spartans finished with a No. 5 national ranking and 11-2 record following a stirring 42-41 victory over Baylor in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. Narduzzi's defense shut out the high-scoring Bears in the fourth quarter, opening the door for 21 unanswered points by Michigan State.

Michigan State boasted the nation's top rushing defense in 2014, yielding just 88.5 yards per game. The Spartans finished third nationally with 34 turnovers gained and eighth in total defense, holding opponents to just 315.8 yards per contest.

In 2013, Michigan State finished No. 3 in the country following a Big Ten title and 24-20 victory over No. 5 Stanford in the Rose Bowl. In the wake of that championship season, Narduzzi was named the 2013 recipient of the prestigious Broyles Award, annually presented to the country's top assistant coach.

Narduzzi tutored an impressive list of decorated defensive players at Michigan State, including first team All-Americans in cornerback Darqueze Dennard, safety Kurtis Drummond, linebacker Greg Jones and defensive tackle Jerel Worthy.

Dennard was a unanimous All-American in 2013, becoming the first Michigan State cornerback to earn that distinction. He also was the school's first winner of the Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to college football's top defensive back. Dennard was a first-round NFL Draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in 2014, the first Spartans defensive back taken in the initial round since 1961. In the 2015 draft, another Narduzzi pupil, Michigan State cornerback Trae Waynes, was a first-round pick of the Minnesota Vikings.

Narduzzi coached 19 first-team All-Big Ten selections. Four players won the conference's top individual awards under his watch, including two Big Ten Defensive Back of the Year honorees (Dennard in 2013 and Drummond in 2014). Shilique Calhoun was the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year in 2013 while Greg Jones was the overall Defensive Player of the Year in 2009.

Prior to Michigan State, Narduzzi spent three years (2004-06) as defensive coordinator under Dantonio at Cincinnati, helping the Bearcats to a pair of bowl invitations.

In 2003, Narduzzi was the defensive coordinator at Miami of Ohio under the late Terry Hoepfner. The RedHawks stormed to a 13-1 record that season, capturing the Mid-American Conference (MAC) championship and defeating nationally ranked Louisville in the GMAC Bowl to finish No. 10 in the Associated Press poll. While quarterback Ben Roethlisberger headlined Miami's offense, Narduzzi's stout unit topped the MAC in rushing defense (19th nationally), scoring defense (22nd nationally) and pass efficiency defense (34th nationally).

Narduzzi served as linebackers coach at Northern Illinois for three seasons (2000-02). NIU won a pair of MAC divisional titles during his tenure and in 2002 had the league's top rushing defense.

From 1993-99, Narduzzi coached at his alma mater, Rhode Island, serving as the Rams' defensive coordinator his final two seasons. He began his coaching career at Miami of Ohio, working as a graduate assistant in 1990 and 1991, before earning his first full-time position as receivers coach for the 1992 season.

Narduzzi was an All-Ohio performer at Youngstown's Ursuline High School, leading the Irish to the Steel Valley championship and state playoffs as a senior in 1984. He was a starting linebacker under his father, the late Bill Narduzzi, as a freshman at Youngstown State University in 1985 before transferring to Rhode Island, where he became a three-year starter for the Rams from 1987-89.

Bill Narduzzi was head coach at YSU from 1975-85. He led the Penguins to two NCAA Division II playoff appearances, including the national championship game in 1979, and twice was named the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) Coach of the Year. (One of Bill's first coaching posts was as a freshman line coach at Pitt in 1962.)

Narduzzi completed his bachelor's degree in physical education at Rhode Island in 1990 and later earned a master's degree in sports studies at Miami of Ohio in 1992.

He and his wife, Donna, have four children: Arianna, Christina, Patrick and Isabella.

Drake, 1996-97, graduate assistant.
Iowa State, 1998-99, graduate assistant; 2000-01, director of football operations.
Eastern Illinois, 2002, defensive line and recruiting coordinator.
Pittsburgh, 2003-05, defensive ends; 2005, special teams; 2006-07, special teams coordinator; 2006, defensive line; 2007, linebackers.
Wisconsin, 2008-10, defensive line and specialists; 2011-12, associate head coach, co-defensive coordinator and defensive line.
Arkansas, 2013, assistant head coach and defensive line.
Florida Atlantic, 2014-16, head coach.
Pittsburgh, 2017-present, defensive line; 2018-present, assistant head coach.

Entering his sixth season on Pat Narduzzi's Pitt staff, Charlie Partridge is a tremendous asset with his experience as an FBS head coach, accomplished assistant and renowned recruiter. Reflective of his invaluable contributions, Partridge also serves the Panthers as assistant head coach.

Partridge's positional focus is the defensive front, a unit that has played at a dominant level under his watch. In addition to high production—an impressive 65% of Pitt's FBS-best 151 sacks over the past three seasons (2019-21) came from the defensive line—Partridge's players have also been highly decorated.

Tackle Calijah Kancey is a rising star on the national level after garnering first-team All-ACC and third-team Associated Press All-America honors in 2021. Additionally, defensive end Habakkuk Bal-donado was honored on the All-ACC Team last season.

In 2020, Pitt boasted the country's top defensive end duo in Patrick Jones II and Rashad Weaver. Both players earned consensus All-America honors. It was the first time since 1977 that Pitt had two defensive players earn consensus status in the same season.

Partridge himself garnered postseason accolades when FootballScoop named him the 2020 Defensive Line Coach of the Year.

In 2019, tackle Jaylen Twyman was named a second team All-American by six different outlets after compiling a team-high 10.5 sacks. Twyman became the first interior defensive lineman to lead Pitt in sacks since Aaron Donald (11) in 2013.

Jones (Minnesota Vikings), Weaver (Tennessee Titans) and Twyman (Vikings) were each selected in the 2021 NFL Draft.

This is Partridge's second tour at Pitt. He originally served under head coaches Walt Harris and Dave Wannstedt from 2003-07.

From 2014-16, Partridge was the head coach at Florida Atlantic University. Inheriting a program in need of a complete rebuild, on and off the field, he signed three of the finest recruiting classes in FAU history. His 2015 class was hailed as the best in Conference USA. Partridge recruited 10 players to FAU who went on to sign NFL contracts. In the classroom, the Owls set new program standards for individual academic achievement and the highest team grade point average.

Partridge spent the 2013 season at Arkansas, where he served as assistant head coach and oversaw the defensive line. Under his watch, defensive ends Trey Flowers and Chris Smith were All-SEC performers. Partridge also contributed to the Razorbacks' special teams that featured All-SEC kicker Zach Hocker and punter Sam Irwin-Hill, who ranked 15th nationally with a 44.3-yard average.

Partridge was instrumental in one of the best five-year runs in Wisconsin history from 2008-12. Initially serving as defensive line and specialist coach, he was elevated to associate head coach and co-defensive coordinator for his final two seasons. The Badgers won three consecutive Big Ten titles from 2010-12. His most accomplished pupil was defensive end J.J. Watt, a 2010 All-American and winner of the Lott IMPACT Trophy as the national defensive player of the year.

During Partridge's initial Pitt tenure, he worked with the defensive line for four seasons and the linebackers in his final campaign. He also served as the Panthers' special teams coordinator in 2006-07. In 2007, Pitt ranked fifth in the nation in total defense, yielding just 297.7 yards per game.

Under the guidance of Partridge and defensive coordinator Paul Rhoads in 2007, first-year starting middle linebacker Scott McKillop led the nation in tackles (12.6 per game), earning All-America status and unanimous first-team All-Big East honors. Another Partridge protégé, defensive end Joe Clermond, led the Big East in tackles for loss (16.5) in 2006.

Pitt's special teams were highly productive under Partridge's guidance. In 2006, the Panthers led the Big East in net punting (37.5 avg.) and kickoff returns (24.1 avg.). During the 2007 campaign, Pitt topped the conference in field goal percentage (81.8%, 18-22) and PAT kicking (100%, 28-28), while ranking second in kickoff returns (22.9 avg.). ESPN's 2006 College Football "Play of the Year" was a Pitt special teams gem—Darrelle Revis' 73-yard punt return for a touchdown against West Virginia.

Partridge served four seasons (1998-2001) at Iowa State in administrative and coaching roles. In 2002, Partridge was hired by Eastern Illinois University as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. The Panthers advanced to the NCAA I-AA playoffs that year and shared the Ohio Valley Conference (OVC) championship.

Partridge was an NSCA All-America defensive lineman for Drake University. His collegiate coaching career began at his alma mater as a Drake graduate assistant during the 1996 and 1997 seasons.

Partridge and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Alexa and Kylee.

Pittsburgh native Frank Cignetti Jr., widely respected for his offensive schemes and mentorship of quarterbacks, was named Pitt's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach by Pat Narduzzi in January 2022.

Owning more than three decades of experience at both the collegiate and professional levels, this marks Cignetti's third appointment at Pitt. He began his coaching career as a Panthers graduate assistant on Mike Gottfried's staff in 1989. From 2009-10, Cignetti was Pitt's offensive coordinator under Dave Wannstedt.

Cignetti spent the past two seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Boston College, where he completely revitalized the Eagles' passing attack. Under his guidance, transfer Phil Jurkovec ranked among the ACC's top quarterbacks as a first-year starter in 2020.

Cignetti's pro-style schemes maximized the talents of tight end Hunter Long, who earned All-America honors and now plays for the Miami Dolphins, and wide receiver Zay Flowers, a two-time All-ACC honoree and one of the most prolific pass catchers in Boston College history.

In total, Cignetti brings to Pitt 32 years of accomplished coaching experience—21 in college and 11 in the National Football League. He has coordinated offenses at seven different schools and in the NFL. Cignetti has worked alongside future Hall of Fame quarterbacks Aaron Rodgers and Eli Manning, dynamic receivers like Tavon Austin and Mohamed Sanu, as well as 1,000-yard backs in Dion Lewis, Todd Gurley and Jahvid Best.

Cignetti's family has deep ties to Pitt and Western Pennsylvania football. His father, College Football Hall of Fame inductee Frank Sr., was a Pitt assistant from 1966-68 and later the head coach at both West Virginia (1976-79) and Indiana University of Pa. (1986-2005). His brother, Curt, was also a Pitt assistant (1983-84 and 1993-99) who now is the head coach at James Madison University.

During his most recent Pitt tenure, Cignetti's influence figured prominently for the 2009 team, which finished 10-3 and ranked No. 15 in the final polls. The Panthers' offensive arsenal included a 1,700-yard rusher in Dion Lewis and 1,000-yard receiver in Jon Baldwin. Moreover, quarterback Bill Stull ranked among the nation's most efficient passers (No. 10 nationally, 150.6 rating), throwing for more than 2,600 yards and 21 touchdowns.

Lewis was named the Big East's 2009 Offensive Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year. Tight end Dorin Dickerson, who caught 10 touchdowns that season, earned first-team All-America honors. For his impact, Cignetti was a nominee for the prestigious Broyles Award.

Following Pitt, Cignetti was offensive coordinator for 2011 Pinstripe Bowl champion Rutgers, where under his watch wide receiver Mohamed Sanu compiled a school and Big East-record 115 receptions.

Cignetti would spend the next seven seasons in the NFL, working with the St. Louis Rams (2012-15), New York Giants (2016-17) and Green Bay Packers (2018).

Cignetti coached the Rams' quarterbacks his initial three seasons before serving as offensive coordinator his final year. In 2015, he orchestrated one of the league's top rushing offenses as Pro Bowler Todd Gurley gained 1,106 yards—third most in the NFL—and was named Rookie of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America (PFWA).

Overseeing the Rams' quarterbacks, Cignetti helped Sam Bradford, when healthy, achieve some of the best production of his career. In 2012, Bradford enjoyed a breakthrough season as an NFL starter by throwing for 3,702 yards and 21 touchdowns. He was on a similar trajectory in 2013—ranking among the league leaders in passing yards, passing touchdowns and completions—before injury ended his season after seven games.

During Cignetti's stint in New York, the Giants went 11-5 during the 2016 season as Eli Manning achieved the second-highest completion percentage (63%) of his career. Manning was one of only six NFL quarterbacks that season to compile at least 4,000 passing yards, 25 passing touchdowns and a 63.0 completion percentage.

As Green Bay's quarterbacks coach in 2018, Cignetti worked with Aaron Rodgers, who threw for 4,442 yards and 25 touchdowns against only two interceptions. Rodgers' yardage marked the second highest of his career while his INTs were his lowest as a starter.

Cignetti's other NFL appointments came with the San Francisco 49ers (quarterbacks, 2007), New Orleans Saints (quarterbacks, 2000-01) and Kansas City Chiefs (quality control, 1999). While with the Saints, he helped Jeff Blake to a career-best passer rating and also helped Aaron Brooks produce some of the best statistics of his career in earning a Pro Bowl alternate selection.

Cignetti coordinated offenses at three additional FBS programs: California (2008), North Carolina (2006) and Fresno State (2002-05).

His 2004 Fresno State offense ranked among college football's most explosive. The Bulldogs averaged 40.2 points—the fifth-highest scoring clip in the country—en route to a 9-3 record and No. 22 final national ranking.

The Bulldogs twice finished among the nation's top 10 in scoring and third-down conversions during Cignetti's tenure. They were also a perennial postseason team, advancing to four consecutive bowls, including victories over power conference foes Georgia Tech, UCLA and Virginia.

From 1990-98, Cignetti was on his father's staff at IUP, where he was an all-conference safety before earning his bachelor's degree in 1988. He served IUP as receivers, secondary and quarterbacks coach before elevating to offensive coordinator for his final two seasons. During his tenure, IUP twice advanced to the NCAA Division II national title game and earned a berth in the semifinals four times.

He and his wife, Ellen, have one son, Frankie, and three daughters, Alyssa, Gabrielle and Ella.

Under the coordination of Randy Bates, Pitt's defense was an aggressive and impactful force during the 2021 Atlantic Coast Conference championship season. The Panthers' trademarks—a swarming pass rush and smothering run defense—were once again on full display. The ball-hawking unit produced points on the scoreboard as well.

Pitt led the ACC and ranked second nationally with an average of 3.86 sacks per game. The Panthers have collected 151 sacks over the past three seasons (2019-21), the highest total in the nation over that span.

Pitt limited opponents to just 89.3 rushing yards per contest, its lowest average since 1981. The Panthers led the ACC and ranked sixth in the nation in defending the run. Pitt has finished in the nation's top 12 in rushing defense each year from 2019-21.

Pitt grounded opposing passing games to the tune of an ACC-high 16 interceptions in 2021, the eighth most nationally and the Panthers' most since 2008.

Bates' defense also proved adept at producing points. The Panthers scored five defensive touchdowns (four via interceptions and one fumble return), tying the school record set in 1986. Pitt finished atop the ACC and fourth in the FBS in defensive TDs.

During Bates' tenure, four Pitt defensive players have earned All-America recognition. Tackle Calijah Kancey was an Associated Press All-America honoree (third team) in 2021. Defensive ends Patrick Jones II and Rashad Weaver were consensus All-Americans in 2020. Tackle Jaylen Twyman was named a second team All-American by six different selectors in 2010.

Bates has also received national recognition. He was named the 2020 Assistant Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA). The prestigious award is annually presented to an assistant coach who distinguishes himself through on-field performance and community impact.

Bates arrived in Pittsburgh in 2018 after spending the prior 12 seasons (2006-17) coaching linebackers at Northwestern. His accomplished pupils included back-to-back All-America linebackers. Anthony Walker Jr., now a member of the Cleveland Browns, was a consensus All-Big Ten selection who earned All-America accolades from Associated Press and Sports Illustrated.

Additionally, Bates oversaw the development of Paddy Fisher, a 2017 Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) Freshman All-American and the Big Ten Network's Defensive Freshman of the Year.

Prior to Northwestern, Bates spent six seasons at Louisiana Tech (2000-05). He coached nearly every defensive positional group while with the Bulldogs before ascending to defensive coordinator for his final season.

Under Bates' orchestration in 2005, the Louisiana Tech defense forced a whopping 31 turnovers to lead the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) and rank ninth nationally. The Bulldogs surrendered their fewest points since 1994 and finished among the WAC's top three teams in rushing defense, pass defense, total defense and scoring defense.

Among the standouts under Bates at Louisiana Tech were three defensive backs who played in the NFL: safety Bobby Gray (Chicago Bears), cornerback Jerron Wishom (Green Bay Packers) and cornerback Tramon Williams, who as a member of the Packers won a Super Bowl and earned a Pro Bowl invitation.

Before Louisiana Tech, Bates was the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Kent State for two seasons (1998-99). While with the Golden Flashes, he coached future NFL Defensive Player of the Year James Harrison.

Bates coached the linebackers at New Hampshire from 1992-97, mentoring three players who finished among the top 10 career tacklers in program history. The Wildcats claimed three Yankee Conference Northern Division titles during his tenure.

Bates' additional coaching stops include Navy (1989-91), St. Joseph's (Ind.) College (1984-88), Miami (Ohio) (1983) and Muskingum College (1982).

A retired Naval Lieutenant, Bates received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Ohio State in 1983. He also earned a master's degree in education from Miami University in 1985.

Bates and his wife, Tracey, have three daughters: Samantha, Alexandra and Olivia.

Pittsburgh, 2015-present, special teams coordinator and running backs.

Andre Powell enters his eighth season as Pitt's special teams coordinator and running backs coach. His impact on both areas of responsibility has been nothing short of exceptional.

Under Powell, the Panthers have a well-earned reputation for producing punishing, downhill runners. A list of his recent standouts—including James Conner, Qadree Ollison and Darrin Hall—serves as a vivid illustration of Pitt's excellence at the position.

In 2018, Pitt had two 1,000-yard rushers in a season for the first time ever. Ollison (1,213) and Hall (1,144) both reached the milestone and were named All-ACC. For Ollison (who now plays for the Atlanta Falcons), it was his second 1,000-yard season under Powell. In 2015, he was the ACC Offensive Rookie of the Year after rushing for 1,121 yards. Hall averaged 7.48 yards per carry in 2018, ranking seventh nationally, and eclipsed the long-standing Pitt season record held by the legendary Tony Dorsett (6.6 in 1975; minimum 1,000 yards gained).

Conner was a first-team All-ACC selection in 2016 after rambling for 1,092 yards and 16 touchdowns. He concluded his college career as the ACC's all-time leader with 52 rushing touchdowns and 56 total TDs. Conner, a two-time Pro Bowler, now plays for the Arizona Cardinals.

Pitt has featured dynamic special teams under Powell's direction. In 2021, Cal Adomitis, a Senior Bowl invitee, was named a first team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) and won the Patrick Mannely Award as college football's top long snapper. Additionally, first-year starting placekicker Sam Scarton was an All-ACC honoree after setting a Pitt single-season kick scoring record with 120 points.

In 2020, Kirk Christodoulou was a Pro Football Focus All-American after averaging a career-high 44.7 yards per punt. The Panthers set a school record with a net punting average of 41.94, which ranked 11th in the country.

Quadree Henderson finished his career (2015-17) with a Pitt-record seven kick returns for touchdowns. Henderson was the 2016 NCAA statistical champion in kickoff return TDs (a school-record three) and combined kick return yards (1,166). He earned consensus All-America honors, becoming the first player in Pitt history to earn that stature as a return specialist.

Pitt's two most prolific placekickers were mentored by Powell. Chris Blewitt (2013-16) concluded his career as Pitt's all-time kick scoring leader (363 points). His most memorable kick was a 48-yard field goal that lifted Pitt past eventual national champion Clemson, 43-42, in 2016.

Alex Kessman (2017-20) ranks second in kick scoring with 341 points. He set Pitt records for career field goals (69) and longest field goal (58 yards). Kessman additionally set marks for 50-yard field goals in a career (12) and season (four in 2018 and 2020). His 66.7% success rate from that long range (12 of 18) set an NCAA record, eclipsing Arizona's Max Zendejas (60.9% from 1982-85).

Powell spent four seasons at Maryland (2011-14), where he coached the running backs and, in his final three seasons, served as special teams coordinator. In ESPN's 2014 team efficiency rankings, the Terrapins' special teams were rated No. 11 in the country. Maryland's Brad Craddock was selected the 2014 winner of the Lou Groza Award as college football's top kicker.

Powell coached at Clemson from 2007-10, overseeing the running backs each of his four seasons and coordinating the special teams his last three. He mentored all-time Clemson great C.J. Spiller, a 2009 unanimous All-American and ACC Player of the Year. Spiller became the first running back in ACC history to compile 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season.

Spiller concluded his Clemson career with 7,588 all-purpose yards, the second most in FBS history. His seven kickoff return touchdowns set an NCAA record, while his eight total kick return TDs (including one punt) tied the national mark.

Powell coached running backs at North Carolina from 2001-06. He was the Tar Heels' special teams coordinator his final three seasons in Chapel Hill.

At Virginia from 1996-2000, Powell coached the running backs (1996 and 2000) and receivers (1997-99). Among his pupils were future NFL players Tiki Barber, Germaine Crowell, Thomas Jones, Charles Kirby, Pat Washington and Terrence Wilkins.

Powell first worked with Pat Narduzzi on the football staff at Rhode Island during the 1993-94 seasons. Powell's additional coaching stops include Indiana (1989), South Carolina (1990), Army (1991 and 1995) and Virginia Military Institute (1992).

Powell is a 1989 graduate of Indiana, where he lettered twice as a fullback and helped pave the way for 1,000-yard rusher Anthony Thompson. He played on a pair of bowl teams for the Hoosiers (1986 All-American Bowl and 1988 Peach Bowl). Powell and his wife, Joann, have two daughters, Alayna and Mikala, and a son, Andre II.

Dave Borbely enters his fifth year as Pitt's offensive line coach. Owning a long and productive history of developing outstanding offensive linemen, Borbely's influence has been evident during his tenure with the Panthers.

Borbely's offensive front was highly instrumental for an offense that averaged a school-record 41.4 points and 486.6 yards per game during the Panthers' drive to the 2021 ACC championship. Pitt ranked third nationally in scoring and eighth in total offense.

Borbely's entire starting line earned ACC postseason recognition in 2021. Guard Marcus Minor and tackles Gabe Houy and Carter Warren were named All-ACC, while center Owen Drexel and guard Jake Kradel received Honorable Mention.

Under Borbely's watch, Jimmy Morrissey developed into one of the most accomplished centers in recent Pitt history. Morrissey was a three-time All-ACC performer and the 2020 recipient of the Burlsworth Trophy, annually presented to the most outstanding player in college football who began his career as a walk-on. Morrissey is now a member of the Houston Texans.

Borbely's 2018 offensive front paved the way for two 1,000-yard rushers (Qadree Ollison and Darrin Hall)—the first time in Pitt history that feat was achieved in the same season. The Panthers' 3,191 total rushing yards in 2018 rank fourth all-time in school annals. Pitt was selected a semifinalist for the 2018 Joe Moore Award given to the nation's top offensive line.

Prior to Pitt, Borbely spent two seasons at Maryland. In 2016, his offensive front helped the Terps produce 2,594 rushing yards, only the seventh time in program history—and first since 2003—the Terps surpassed 2,500 yards on the ground. Maryland also rushed for 26 touchdowns in 2016, its most since the 2007 campaign.

Borbely served two coaching tours at Virginia (2006-09 and 2015). While with the Cavs he oversaw the development of All-America tackle Eugene Monroe, who won the 2008 Jacobs Blocking Trophy, annually presented to the ACC's top blocker. Monroe was the eighth overall selection in the 2009 NFL Draft, taken by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

From 2010-13, Borbely coached the offensive line at Louisville. The Cardinals' 2012 team went 11-2, won the Big East championship and rolled past No. 3 Florida, 33-23, in the Sugar Bowl to finish 13th in the final polls. In 2013, Louisville's potent offense averaged 460.8 yards per contest en route to a 12-1 mark. The Cardinals capped that season with a 36-9 drubbing of Miami in the Russell Athletic Bowl and earned a No. 15 final ranking.

Borbely had a four-year tenure at Colorado (2002-05), during which the Buffs won three Big 12 North titles. Among the players he developed was All-Big 12 center Mark Fenton, a finalist for the Rimington Award.

Prior to Colorado, Borbely spent four seasons coaching the offensive line at Notre Dame (1998-2001). The Irish annually fielded a potent rushing game behind Borbely's front and advanced to two New Year's Day bowl games (1999 Gator Bowl and 2001 Fiesta Bowl).

From 1995-97, Borbely coached the offensive line at Stanford, molding a pair of NFL Draft picks in guard Brad Badger and tackle Nathan Parks.

Borbely's additional offensive line appointments include Colorado State-Pueblo (during the Thunder Wolves' 2014 NCAA Division II national title season), Tulane (1992-94), Temple (1989-91) and Rice (1986-88).

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Evansville (1981-82) before serving as a freshman defensive line coach in the Ivy League at Penn (1983). Borbely's first major-college appointment came as a graduate assistant at Tennessee (1984-85) under Johnny Majors, the legendary former Pitt head coach.

A native of Hammond, Ind., Borbely is a 1981 graduate of DePauw University with a bachelor's degree in history. He earned his master's degree in secondary education from the University of Evansville in 1983.

Borbely and his wife, Bev, have three children: daughter Laura and sons Joseph and Brian. They have two granddaughters, Avery and Addilyn, and one grandson, Luke.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

College

Michigan State, 2010-12, graduate assistant.

Central Michigan, 2013-17, secondary; 2017, defensive passing game coordinator.

Pittsburgh, 2018-present, secondary.

Vital to the success of Pitt's nationally ranked defense has been an outstanding secondary coached by Archie Collins.

Pitt has led the ACC and ranked in the top 10 nationally in interceptions each of the past two seasons. The Panthers picked off 16 passes in 2021 (eighth best in the FBS) and 14 in 2020 (ninth). Collins' defensive backs were responsible for 24 of those 30 interceptions (80%).

Under Collins' watch, safety Brandon Hill was a 2021 All-ACC performer and semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, annually presented to the nation's top defensive back. The Panthers' other starting safety, Erick Hallett II, made two game-changing interceptions—including a clinching "pick six"—in Pitt's 45-21 victory over Wake Forest in the ACC Championship and earned the John D. Swofford Most Valuable Player Award.

Additionally, graduated cornerback Damarri Mathis played in the prestigious Senior Bowl and is a viable prospect in the 2022 NFL Draft.

Collins has been instrumental in the development of many NFL-caliber defensive backs at Pitt. Second-year pro Dane Jackson was a top cornerback for the the AFC East champion Buffalo Bills, while safety Damar Hamlin (Bills) and corner Jason Pinnock (New York Jets) completed their rookie campaigns in 2021.

Prior to Pitt, Collins spent five seasons at Central Michigan (2013-17). Serving as defensive pass game coordinator in 2017, his influence helped the Chippewas lead the Mid-American Conference (MAC) in interceptions (19), fewest passing yards allowed (185.5 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (108.8 rating). On a national scale, CMU ranked sixth nationally in pass efficiency defense, seventh in interceptions and 20th in passing defense. FootballScoop named Collins a finalist for its 2017 Defensive Back Coach of the Year award.

Two of Collins' Central Michigan defensive backs, cornerback Amari Coleman and safety Josh Cox, were 2017 All-MAC honorees. Coleman was a first-team selection for the second consecutive season and finished his collegiate career with three interceptions returned for touchdowns. Cox intercepted six passes as a senior to finish seventh in the nation (0.5 INTs per game).

Additionally, corner Sean Bunting had five interceptions during that 2017 season. Bunting was a second-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 2019 NFL Draft.

During Collins' tenure, Central Michigan ranked among the nation's top 25 in passing defense three times: 2017, 2015 (No. 24, 193.0 avg.) and 2013 (No. 20, 203.9 avg.). In 2016, CMU finished eighth nationally with four defensive touchdowns—all pick-sixes by Collins' defensive backs.

Also under his watch at CMU was Kavon Frazier, an All-MAC safety in 2015 who spent last season with the Las Vegas Raiders.

Collins was also highly productive on the recruiting trail at Central Michigan. In 2015, he was named the MAC's Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com.

Prior to Central Michigan, the Detroit native was a defensive graduate assistant from 2010-12 at Michigan State, his alma mater. It was during this coaching assistantship that he first met Pat Nar-duzzi, who was the Spartans' defensive coordinator at the time.

In addition to contributing to one of college football's elite defensive units, Collins worked daily with future NFL defensive backs Darqueze Dennard, Kurtis Drummond and Trae Waynes. Collins also helped with the special teams during his time in East Lansing.

Collins' additional experience includes nine years coaching high school football in the Detroit Public School League. He worked at three PSL schools (Cass Tech, Mackenzie and Southeastern), producing nine all-state performers and 28 all-city honorees.

A safety at Michigan State, Collins finished his career as a two-year letterman (1996-97) for the Spartans.

He graduated from Michigan State in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in finance. Collins went on to earn a master's degree in kinesiology and coaching from MSU in 2011.

He and his wife, Brandi, have three children: son Archie IV and daughters Amber and BellaRose.

COACHING EXPERIENCE

Michigan State, 2011, video assistant; 2012-14, graduate assistant; 2015, operations assistant.
Valparaiso, 2016, linebackers.
Ohio Dominican, 2017-18, defensive coordinator and secondary.
Bucknell, 2019-20, defensive coordinator and linebackers.
Pittsburgh, 2021-present, linebackers.

Ryan Manalac, a former standout collegiate linebacker at Cincinnati, enters his second season as Pitt's linebackers coach.

Manalac's arrival at Pitt served as a reunion with Pat Narduzzi. The pair previously worked together when Narduzzi was defensive coordinator at Cincinnati and Michigan State.

Manalac's linebackers were an impactful unit for the Panthers' nationally ranked defense. SirVocea Dennis was named All-ACC after posting a team-high 87 tackles. The middle linebacker made one of the biggest plays of Pitt's ACC championship season with his 50-yard interception return for a touchdown in a 27-17 win over Clemson.

Moreover, outside linebackers Phil Campbell III and John Petrishen enjoyed career years and received ACC Honorable Mention.

Prior to Pitt, Manalac spent two years at Bucknell, which had its 2020 season cancelled due to the pandemic. In 2019, Bucknell's defense ranked among the very best in Patriot League play, finishing first in sacks (32), turnovers gained (14) and defensive touchdowns (four). The Bison ranked second in total defense (319.7 avg.) and rushing defense (96.3 avg.).

Manalac's unit produced six total defensive TDs to lead the Football Championship Subdivision. The Bison's 37 overall sacks ranked fifth nationally.

He also coached the Bucknell linebackers and had three players named to Phil Steele's All-Patriot League team, including first-team selection Simeon Page, who paced the Bison in sacks (nine) and tackles for loss (12.5).

Manalac was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Ohio Dominican University during the 2017 and 2018 seasons. During that two-year span, ODU surrendered just 15.9 points per game in conference play, the lowest average in the Great Midwest Athletic Conference.

Ten Ohio Dominican defensive players earned first team all-conference under his watch. Linebacker Ross Thompson was named the G-MAC Defensive Player of the Year after compiling a school-record 110 tackles. Thompson finished his career as ODU's all-time tackles leader with 294 stops.

Manalac earned his first full-time coaching appointment in 2016 at Valparaiso, overseeing the linebackers.

At Michigan State from 2011-15, Manalac served as a graduate assistant on both sides of the ball and also worked with special teams, recruiting and video. During his tenure, the Spartans achieved four Top 10 finishes, four bowl victories, two Big Ten championships and a berth in the 2015 College Football Playoff.

Manalac worked directly under Narduzzi with Michigan State's defense during the 2012 and 2014 seasons. At the conclusion of each of those campaigns, the Spartans ranked among college football's finest defensive units.

The 2014 team won the Rose Bowl and finished with an 11-2 record behind a defense that led the nation in fewest rushing yards allowed (88.5 avg.) and finished eighth in fewest total yards allowed (315.8 avg.).

Initially a walk-on at Cincinnati, Manalac would earn a scholarship and four letters for the Bearcats. He compiled nearly 200 tackles during his career and was a starting linebacker his final two seasons. As a senior, he collected a team-high 82 stops to help Cincinnati win the 2008 Big East title and advance to the Orange Bowl.

Manalac, who was honored with Cincinnati's prestigious C-Club Strothman Award for academic and athletic excellence, went on to sign with the Buffalo Bills.

A native of Pickerington, Ohio, Manalac and his wife, Carly, have two children: daughter Bailey and son Lewis. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Cincinnati (2008) and additionally owns a master's degree in kinesiology from Michigan State (2012).

Illinois, 2012-14, special teams coordinator; 2012-13, running backs.
Pittsburgh, 2015-present, tight ends.

Having spent more than three decades in collegiate coaching, Tim Salem boasts experience that is both extensive and diverse. Salem has served as offensive coordinator at four different schools and coached four different positions on that side of the ball.

Entering his eighth season as Pitt's tight ends coach, Salem's broad perspective is a great asset on the field and in recruiting.

Salem's tight ends—Lucas Krull and Gavin Bartholomew—were a major part of Pitt's record-setting offense in 2021. Krull earned All-ACC accolades after compiling 38 receptions for 451 yards (11.9 avg.) and six touchdowns. His six scores were the most by a Pitt tight end since 2009. Krull was selected to play in the East-West Shrine Bowl.

Bartholomew was one of college football's top newcomers, asserting himself as a blocker and receiver. Named a Freshman All-American by multiple outlets, he had 28 catches for 326 yards (11.6 avg.) and four touchdowns on the year.

Salem has been instrumental in the development of a number of Pitt tight ends who went on to sign NFL contracts, including All-ACC performer J.P. Holtz (Chicago Bears), Scott Orndoff (Cincinnati Bengals and Philadelphia Eagles), Matt Flanagan (Washington and Jacksonville Jaguars) and Nakia Griffin-Stewart (Green Bay Packers, New York Giants and Kansas City Chiefs).

Prior to Pitt, Salem spent three seasons at Illinois (2012-14) as special teams coordinator. He also coached the running backs in 2012 and 2013. Salem's units helped Illinois earn an invitation to the 2014 Heart of Dallas Bowl. Punter Justin DuVernois was a 2014 All-Big Ten honoree after averaging 44.0 yards per punt to rank second in the conference and 18th nationally.

In 2013, V'Angelo Bentley led the Big Ten and ranked seventh nationally in punt returns with a 15.8-yard average. Bentley also became the first player in Illinois history to score touchdowns on both punt and kickoff returns in the same season.

At UCF from 2004-11, Salem coached some of the most productive and decorated players in school history. In 2007, running back Kevin Smith was a consensus All-American after leading the nation in rushing yards (2,567) and rushing touchdowns (29). Smith's rushing total that season remains the third highest in FBS history, trailing only Oklahoma State's Barry Sanders (2,628 in 1988) and Wisconsin's Melvin Gordon (2,587 in 2014).

With Salem at the controls of the offense in 2007, UCF claimed its first Conference USA championship. The Knights won 10 games, setting school records for points (502), touchdowns (62) and rushing yards (3,287) in the process.

Overseeing UCF's special teams, Salem mentored three of the country's most explosive kick returners. Rannell Hall (2011), Quincy McDuffie (2010) and Joe Burnett (2008) were all first-team All-Conference USA return men and ranked in the nation's top 10 in kickoff return average. McDuffie, in fact, was second nationally with a 32.2-yard average in 2010.

In 2003, Salem was the offensive coordinator, quarterbacks coach and kicking coach at Eastern Michigan, where he worked with placekicker Andrew Wellock, who would go on to be a Lou Groza Award finalist.

From 1997-2000, Salem was the quarterbacks coach at Ohio State. He added the Buckeyes' wide receivers to his positional responsibilities in 2000. In 1998, Joe Germaine was the Big Ten Player of the Year, throwing for 3,330 yards and 25 touchdowns in leading the Buckeyes to an 11-1 record and No. 2 final ranking.

From 1991-96, Salem worked at Purdue where he initially served as quarterbacks coach and then, in his final three years, offensive coordinator. The Boilermakers led the Big Ten in rushing in 1995.

Salem's other coaching stops include Colorado State (1989-90) and Phoenix College (1987-88). A 1985 graduate of Arizona State, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater for two seasons. Salem began his collegiate playing career at Minnesota, where he broke the Big Ten record for consecutive pass completions in 1980, before transferring to Arizona State for the 1983-84 seasons.

Salem comes from a family of coaches. His father, Joe, was head coach at South Dakota (1966-74), Northern Arizona (1975-78) and Minnesota (1979-83). Tim's brother, Brad Salem, is a longtime college assistant who is currently the tight ends coach at Memphis. His grandfather, Nusier Salem, was an accomplished high school coach and South Dakota Sports Hall of Fame inductee.

Salem and his wife, Wendy, have two sons, Taylor and Landan, and a daughter, Kylan. Landan is director of football recruiting operations at the University of Memphis.

Pittsburgh, 2018-present, safeties.

Cory Sanders, who arrived at Pitt in 2018 owning both head coach and defensive coordinator experience, enters his fifth season overseeing the Panthers' safeties.

Under Sanders, the position has been a major strength for Pitt's annually stout defense. His starting tandem of Brandon Hill and Erick Hallett II featured prominently during Pitt's ACC championship campaign in 2021.

Hill was an All-ACC performer and semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, annually presented to the nation's top defensive back. A force against the run and the pass, he collected 81 tackles and two interceptions on the year.

Hallett, an Honorable Mention All-ACC selection, had a team-high three interceptions and nine pass breakups. He received the John D. Swofford Most Valuable Player Award after he intercepted two passes—returning one for a 19-yard touchdown—in Pitt's 45-21 victory over Wake Forest in the ACC Championship Game.

Another beneficiary of Sanders' tutelage was Damar Hamlin, a 2020 All-ACC honoree who played in the prestigious Senior Bowl and was selected by the Buffalo Bills in the 2021 NFL Draft.

In 2019, safety Paris Ford garnered first-team All-ACC and third-team Phil Steele All-America accolades. Ford signed a free-agent contract with the Los Angeles Rams.

As the defensive backs coach at Western Michigan in 2017, Sanders oversaw the development of two All-Mid-American Conference (MAC) cornerbacks, Darius Phillips and Sam Beal. Phillips, who played in the Senior Bowl, is now a member of the Cincinnati Bengals, while Beal most recently played for the New York Giants.

Prior to WMU, Sanders was part of shaping an NCAA Division II program at the University of West Florida, which played its inaugural season in 2016. He was named the program's first defensive coordinator in December 2014 and was instrumental in building a foundation for the Argonauts' opening campaign 18 months later.

UWF went 5-6 in 2016, the most victories for a first-year Division II program in a decade. Sanders' aggressive defense ranked 11th nationally in quarterback sacks (3.6 sacks per game) and 26th in tackles for loss (8.2 TFLs per game), while Argonauts safety Trent Archie was named the Gulf South Conference Defensive Freshman of the Year.

Prior to West Florida, Sanders spent five seasons (2010-14) on the football staff at Division II Saint Joseph's (Ind.) College, his alma mater. The team's defensive coordinator his initial year, Sanders was promoted to head coach for the 2011 season and rebuilt the Pumas into a contender in the Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC).

The team achieved runner-up finishes in the GLVC in each of his final two seasons, while featuring a nationally ranked defense. The Pumas also set a school record for single-season total offense (4,594 yards) during his tenure and produced 36 All-GLVC performers.

Sanders initial coaching appointments came at North Central College (2007) and Elmhurst College (2008-09). He coached the defensive backs at both Illinois institutions.

Sanders himself was an outstanding collegiate defensive back. He was a four-time all-conference honoree at Saint Joseph's and elected a Pumas team captain three times. Sanders was an instrumental performer for two conference championship teams and finished his career fifth in school history with 30.5 TFLs.

Sanders is a 2007 graduate of Saint Joseph's with a bachelor's degree in business administration. He is engaged to Jessica Rose.

Former NFL player Tiquan Underwood joined Pitt's coaching staff in February 2022 as the program's wide receivers coach and pass game coordinator.

Underwood spent the previous two seasons as wide receivers coach at Rutgers, where he was a record-setting pass catcher himself from 2005-08 before going on to an eight-year professional career.

"Tiquan is a tremendous addition to our program," Pat Narduzzi said. "First and foremost, he is just an outstanding person. Our staff really enjoyed getting to know him during the interview process and it was obvious he'll be a great fit. Tiquan is an enthusiastic and knowledgeable coach who will help elevate everything we are looking to accomplish offensively. He'll make an immediate connection with our players and help them be better on and off the field."

"It is an honor to be named wide receivers coach and pass game coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh," Underwood said. "I am grateful to Coach Narduzzi and our director of athletics, Heather Lyke, for the opportunity to join this outstanding program and university. Pitt is a special place with a great tradition. I look forward to helping this program pursue another ACC championship and national title while working with our tremendous student-athletes, coaches and staff. I can't wait to get started and help build on the solid foundation that is already established here at Pitt."

Joining a rebuilding effort on Greg Schiano's Rutgers staff in 2020, Underwood helped the Scarlet Knights significantly raise their competitive level in the Big Ten. Under his tutelage, Bo Melton achieved the highest production of his career, compiling more than 100 receptions for 1,256 yards with 11 total touchdowns over the 2020-21 seasons. Melton is considered a viable prospect in this year's NFL Draft.

Prior to Rutgers, Underwood served as a quality control assistant with the Miami Dolphins (2019) and wide receivers coach at Lafayette College (2018). At Lafayette, he mentored All-Patriot League receiver Nick Pearson.

As a collegian, Underwood was a four-year letterman for the Scarlet Knights and captained the team as a senior. He finished his career ranking among the school's most prolific receivers of all-time, totaling 132 receptions for 1,931 yards and 16 touchdowns. His 248-yard receiving game against Buffalo in 2007 remains a school record.

Underwood was a first-team All-Big East performer in 2007, when he amassed 1,100 yards on 65 catches (16.9 avg.) and caught seven touchdowns. His signature moment came in a 30-27 upset at No. 2 USF, the highest-rated opponent the Scarlet Knights have ever defeated. Underwood averaged 22.8 yards per catch—totaling five receptions for 114 yards—and scored two touchdowns, including a 69-yard bomb in the third quarter that gave Rutgers the lead for good.

Underwood's career coincided with one of the most accomplished eras in Rutgers football history. He played in four bowl games (winning three) and was a member of arguably the greatest Scarlet Knights team ever—the 2006 squad that went 11-2 and finished with a No. 12 national ranking.

A 2009 draft selection of Jacksonville, Underwood played with the Jaguars (2009-10), New England Patriots (2011) and Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2012-13) during his five-year NFL career. He then played three seasons in the Canadian Football League (CFL), including tenures with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats and Montreal Alouettes.

#25/22 PITT 30 NORTH CAROLINA 23 (OT)

Nov. 11, 2021 • Heinz Field • 41,687

Pitt maintained control of the Coastal Division with a 30-23 overtime victory over North Carolina at soggy Heinz Field...the Panthers (8-2, 5-1) built a 17-0 first-quarter lead and held a 23-7 advantage at half... but North Carolina (5-5, 3-4) rallied to force overtime with a 20-yard field goal with less than a minute to play...in the extra period, Kenny Pickett hit Lucas Krull with an 11-yard scoring strike to retake the lead...Pitt's defense then forced a hurried throw from Sam Howell on fourth down that was intercepted by M.J. Devonshire, giving the Panthers a second consecutive overtime victory over the Tar Heels... Pickett's winning TD pass (his third of the game) capped a 346-yard performance in which he became Pitt's career passing yards leader, eclipsing Alex Van Pelt's mark of 11,267...Jordan Addison (84 yards) became Pitt's first 1,000-yard receiver since Tyler Boyd in 2014...LB SirVocea Dennis compiled a game-high 10 tackles with three TFLs... DE Habakkuk Baldonado added four stops and 1.5 sacks...it was the 10th straight game between Pitt and UNC decided by single digits.

#11/10 MICHIGAN STATE 31 #13/12 PITT 21 Dec. 30, 2021 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • 41,230

Pitt's historic 2021 season concluded with a 31-21 loss to Michigan State in Atlanta's Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl...the Spartans rallied from an 11-point deficit in the final quarter to seize the win...Payton Thorne threw two fourth-quarter touchdown passes, including a 22-yarder to Jayden Reed that put Michigan State (11-2) up 24-21 with less than three minutes remaining...Pitt marched to the Spartans' 26-yard line with 36 seconds to play, but Cal Haladay's 78-yard interception return for a score sealed the result...without the services of All-America quarterback Kenny Pickett, the Panthers (11-3) tapped Nick Patti as their starter...Patti accounted for Pitt's first score—a 16-yard scramble that made it 7-7 at the 7:57 mark of the opening period—but was injured as he dove for the end zone and would not return...Davis Beville, making just his third appearance of the season, came on in relief and completed 14-of-18 passes for 149 yards with a TD and INT...Beville threw his first career touchdown, a four-yarder to Jared Wayne, to give Pitt a 14-10 halftime lead...the advantage swelled to 21-10 early in the third period when John Morgan forced Thorne to fumble and Cam Bright returned it for a 26-yard TD...unfortunately those would be the final points Pitt could muster, setting the stage for 21 unanswered points by the Spartans in the game's final 8:06.
