GAME NOTES

SERIES NOTES

LEADING OFF
- Pitt resumes resumes ACC play with a three-game weekend series against No. 5 Louisville with games Friday and Saturday at 3 p.m. and Sunday at 1 p.m.

BACKYARD BRAWL WIN
- A brand-new game added a day before play, Pitt defeated rival West Virginia 9-6 at home in the first of three scheduled games for the Backyard Brawl.
- The Panthers scored three unanswered runs to secure the victory.
- Sky Duff knocked in the game-winning run in the fourth inning, singling through the right side with two outs to bring home Jeffrey Wehler.
- Tatem Levins blasted his team-leading ninth homer of the season, a two-run shot to right field in the ninth inning.
- Brock Franks completed a six-run frame in the first inning with a three-run homer to right field, as all six runs came with two outs.
- Brady Devereux picked up the win in relief, allowing no runs, two hits and one walk with two strikeouts.
- Baron Stuart recorded his second-straight save and third of the season, retiring all four batters faced to end the game with two strikeouts.
- Quin Konuszewski, Dylan Lester, C.J. McKennitt, Stuart and Devereux combined to only allow four batters reach base on two walks and two hits over 5.1 innings of scoreless relief.
- Levins reached base in all five trips to the plate with his homer, two walks and two hit-by-pitches.
- Bryce Hulett reached four times, going 2-3 with two RBI and two walks.

HOME RUN HITTING SQUAD
- The story of the Pitt offense so far this season has been its home run hitting ability.
- With 41 in 23 games, the Panthers rank in the nation 14th in homers and 12th per game (1.78).
- Tatem Levins has been the leader of that power-hitting squad, blasting nine to place 37th in the nation.
- Brock Franks is 75th in the nation in homers with seven while Ron Washington, Jr. also ranks in the top-100 in the nation in homers per game (.33) at 60th.
- All nine of the batters in the current starting lineup have hit at least one with Kyle Hess, Brock Franks and Washington, Jr. all registering six and Jack Anderson and Bryce Hulett each having five.
- CJ Funk hit his first collegiate homer at Virginia Tech (Saturday, March 19).

A TWO-GAME SWEEP OF NO. 20 CLEMSON
- Pitt is coming off a sweep of No. 20 Clemson, as they took both games at home Friday 8-0 and 10-7.
- The series finale was cancelled due to weather.
- The Panthers recorded its first series win over the Tigers in four tries since joining the ACC for the 2014 season.
- The ACC series victory was also the first of the season and the fourth against a ranked squad in the last two seasons No. 9 Florida State, No. 7 Georgia Tech and No. 15 Miami last year with both being sweeps over the Yellow Jackets and Hurricanes).
- Pitchers Matt Gilbertson and Logan Evans both earned the wins with nine strikeouts each, with Gilbertson throwing seven shutout innings and Evans going five with just one run allowed.

- The Panthers belted five homers, two by Washington, Jr. and one each from Anderson, Franks and Hulett.
- Baron Stuart threw two scoreless innings of relief in both games, earning the save with retiring all six batters faced with five strikeouts and allowing just one hit and no walks with four strikeouts in the first game.
- The Panthers finished with 28 hits and 10 walks on the day with all but two starters reaching base four times with at least three hits.
- Hess had a doubleheader-high six hits with two doubles.
- Washington, Jr. led both teams with four extra-base hits, two homers and two doubles.
- Hulett finished a single short of the cycle in game two.
- Funk drew a day-high four walks and added two hits.

BREAKOUT SEASON FOR HULETT
- Bryce Hulett has enjoyed a tremendous start to the season as the Panthers' top hitter.
- Known for his tremendous glove at first base since he started his career in Pittsburgh in 2020, Hulett has excelled at the plate so far this spring.
- He has the team-lead for OPS (1.189), batting average (.397), hits (31), and on-base percentage (.510) along with 11 extra-base hits, a .679 slugging percentage and 17 walks to just nine strikeouts.
- In the nation he ranks 45th in on-base percentage (.510), 66th in batting average and 98th in slugging percentage (.679) and is in the ACC sixth in batting average, seventh in on-base percentage and ninth in OPS.
- His power has seen an uptick with five homers, five doubles and a triple in 78 at-bats (eight, three and zero in 154 last season), and he's drawn more walks and cut down drastically on strikeouts (averaging one per 8.7 at-bats), compared to last year (55 in 157, average of one every 2.85 at-bats).

ACC PLAYER OF THE WEEK (MARCH 7)
- Tatem Levins was named ACC Player of the Week March 7 for in his performance at the All-American Classic.
- Levins homered in all three games and posted nine RBI and a 1.231 slugging percentage.
- He opened the tournament in Fayetteville, N.C. with a 2-4 performance at the plate with a solo homer and double against Army.
- He had a two-run homer in the 6-5 comeback win over Ohio State.
- In the 11-5 victory over Campbell, he saved his best performance for last with a grand slam and two other hits, six RBI and two runs.
- He was also named one of Collegiate Baseball's Players of the Week.
- For the season, Levins has been an effective power hitter, ranking 25th in the nation with nine homers that included a five-game home run streak (Lipscomb, Feb. 27-at High Point, March 9) and a two-homer performance the 21-5 win over Bucknell.

SERIES NOTES

- In the five-game stretch with a homer he registered a .545 batting average (12-22), 12 hits, 12 RBI, 28 total bases, a 1.273 slugging percentage and .545 on-base percentage.
- In the nation he ranks 27th in homers per game (.39) and 71st in slugging percentage (.702) and is tied for sixth in homers in the ACC.
- Overall this season, he has boasted a 1.138 OPS, a team-leading 25 RBI and 12 extra-base hits.

HOMETOWN HERO
- Pittsburgh native and Mars High School graduate Jack Anderson is in his first season at his hometown school.
- The primary DH for the Panthers played his first two seasons of college ball at Northwestern and spent last year at State College of Florida, where teammate Bryce Hulett played at from 2018-19.
- One of the prominent power bats in the lineup, Anderson has come on as of late with four homers in the last eight games and an active six-game hitting streak.
- One of five starters with an OPS above 1.000, Anderson is third at 1.082 with five homers and three doubles as part of his 20 hits with a .339 batting average and 16 RBI.

FRANKS THE HOME RUN HITTER
- Brock Franks has also seen a power surge at the plate.
- Only hitting one homer in his first 47 games as a Panther, Franks has hit seven in the last 18 games, including his first multi-home run game of his collegiate career.
- In a six-game stretch (Lipscomb, Feb. 26-High Point, March 9), he registered 25 total bases, a 1.087 slugging percentage and 11 RBI.
- Franks has highest ratio of extra-base hits to hits in the starting batting lineup at 71.4% (10 out of 14).

HOME RUN EXPLOSION (PART TWO) AGAINST BUCKNELL
- In its 2021 home-opening 21-5 win over Bucknell (March 15), Pitt scored the most runs in its 12 years at Charles L. Cost Field and also set Cost Field records for homers (six) and total bases (40).
- The Panthers hit six homers for the first time since doing so against Grambling State in an 18-5 win on Feb. 28, 2016.
- Both Jack Anderson and Tatem Levins had their first multi-home run games of their collegiate career.
- Kyle Hess recorded the first leadoff homer to start a game since Connor Perry's at Virginia on March 22, 2019 and later in the opening frame had a triple with the bases loaded.
- Ron Washington, Jr. also had a solo homer with one out in the third inning.
- Anderson finished with six RBI while Levins and Hess had four.
- Pitt also finished with 12 walks, the most since recording 15 in a 7-2 win over Villanova on Feb. 15, 2019.

HOME RUN EXPLOSION (PART ONE) AT HIGH POINT
- Playing its fourth-straight game in the state of North Carolina on its annual spring break trip, Pitt defeated High Point 15-5 on March 9.
- Brock Franks had his first multi-home run game in his collegiate career, and Tatem Levins hit a homer for the fifth-straight game.
- Leaving a batter on with no runs in each of the first four innings, Pitt erupted for a seven-run fifth.
- Pitt scored all 15 runs in a row over the fifth, sixth and seventh innings.
- The five home runs were the most since six against Grambling State in an 18-5 win on Feb. 28, 2016.
- Pitt has hit a home run in all but one game this season and a combined 12 in the last five games.
- The 19 hits were the most since accomplishing the feat twice in wins over No. 7 Georgia Tech last year (March 12 and March 14).
- Pitt players reached base 28 times with seven walks and two hit-by-pitches.
- Levins had a game-high four hits.
- Bryce Hulett also reach based four times with a homer, single and two walks.
- Franks and CJ Funk each went 3-5, with Franks also having a double to his two homers.
- Tommy Tavarez recorded his first multi-hit game of his collegiate career along with a walk and hit-by-pitch.

THE DUFFMAN
- Sky Duff had a breakout campaign in 2021, his third year in Pittsburgh, and earned spots on the All-ACC Third-Team and ABCA/Rawlings All-East Region Second Team.
- Serving as the leadoff batter for most of the season, Duff still has an active 44-game reached base streak started last year and currently ranks 64th in the nation in walks (20) along with teammate CJ Funk.
- This season he leads the team in walks and has a .450 on-base percentage, 26 hits and 11 RBI.
- He recorded a nation-best nine walks and three hits on opening weekend.
- Known for his ability to draw walks in his entire career, he ranks fifth in program history with 103.
- Former teammate David Yanni (148, 2016-21), John Schultz (142, 2008-11), Jacob Wright (116, 2015-17), and Jim Negrych (107, 2004-06) all could be passed by Duff this or next season.
- In the nation he ranked last year 14th in doubles per game (.43), 47th in doubles (18), 67th in hits per game (1.43), 83rd in batting average (.366) and 91st in on-base percentage (.461).
- He was in the ACC fifth in batting average and fourth in on-base percentage and doubles.
- The junior showed an improvement with his power, racking up a team-high 18 doubles.
- He also hit two homers last year after recording his first career homer the previous season.

GILL ON THE HILL
- Matt Gilbertson was the Panthers' "Saturday" pitcher all of last season and is the No. 1 pitcher this year.
- Gilbertson has posted a team-best 2.88 ERA along with a 1.34 WHIP, 3-2 record, 36 strikeouts to 10 walks and a .269 opposing batting average.
- This season he ranks in the ACC tied for first in strikeouts looking (15), seventh in innings pitched (34.1) and 10th in strikeouts.

- He earned his first win this season with no earned runs allowed and four strikeouts in five innings pitched against Bradley (Feb. 25).
- He recorded his first ACC victory at Virginia Tech (March 18), going six innings with two runs, six hits, one walk and seven strikeouts.
- He notched another ACC win with seven shutout innings with just five hits and no walks allowed with nine strikeouts.
- In 23 career starts at Pitt, Gilbertson has accumulated 128 strikeouts to just 36 walks and gone at least five innings in all but two games.
- With starts in the second game of each weekend series in 2021, Gilbertson posted a 6-4 record with a 1.29 WHIP, 4.45 ERA, 72 strikeouts to 20 walks and a .269 opposing batting average.
- In the ACC, he ranked tied seventh in innings pitched (85.0) and ninth in wins (six), both team-highs.

A FORMER PENGUIN, NOW A PANTHER
- Jeffrey Wehler faced his former team Youngstown State in Pitt's second home game March 16.
- Wehler arrived in Pittsburgh after starting four years at Youngstown State.
- He technically already faced his former school as Pitt defeated Youngstown State 22-7 on Oct. 22 in the fall.
- He had a grand slam in the second inning of the game.
- Wehler was named the 54th-best transfer by Baseball America and No. 55 by DIBaseball.com after being named First-Team All-Horizon League last year and second-team in 2019 and 2018.
- He finished his Youngstown State career ranked second in school history with 88 career steals and led his team in stolen bases each year.
- He swiped his first bag as a Panther in the series-finale against Canisius and has gotten four more, needing seven more to reach 100 in his career.
- Last season he had career-bests of a .332 batting average, .390 on-base percentage, .552 slugging percentage, 53 runs, 74 hits, 27 extra-base hits, eight homers, 38 RBIs and 20 walks.
- This year as the starting second baseman and batting primarily in the No. 2 batting spot in the lineup, Wehler has posted a .821 OPS, a tie for the team lead in doubles (six), eight RBI and 12 walks.

WINNING THE ALL-AMERICAN CLASSIC
- Rebounding from an opening 5-3 loss to Army, Pitt defeated Ohio State 6-5 and won 11-5 over Campbell.
- While no champion was crowned, the Panthers tied the Camels with a 2-1 record and earned a tiebreaker advantage over them with the 11-5 victory.
- Pitt came back to defeat Ohio State, tying the game up in the seventh before Brock Franks hit a walk-off homer with one out in the ninth inning.
- The Panthers led wire-to-wire over the Camels, scoring a run in the first inning before erupting for four in the third and five the next inning.
- Hayden Summers earned his first victory as a Panther with 3.1 scoreless innings of relief against the Buckeyes, allowing just two batters on with a walk and single along with three strikeouts.
- Sky Duff extended his reached base streak to 32 games, as the leadoff hitter went a team-best 6-11 with a double, sacrifice fly, RBI and walk.

WINNING THE MUSIC CITY COLLEGE CLASSIC
- Pitt won three of four games in the tournament hosted by Lipscomb with a two-game sweep of the host Bisons (16-0 in seven innings Saturday and 6-5 Sunday) and a split against Bradley (3-2 win and 6-5 loss).
- The Panthers clinched the top record in Nashville with a comeback victory in the finale against Lipscomb, with Jeffrey Wehler scoring in the eighth inning on a wild pitch and Bryce Hulett hitting the game-winning leadoff homer in the next inning.
- As one of four pitchers in the nation to throw at least 14 innings and not allow a run, Logan Evans pitched his second-straight seven-inning shutout with six strikeouts and only three hits and one walk allowed.
- Matt Gilbertson earned his first win of the year in the opening win against the Braves, going five innings with no earned runs, three hits, three walks and four strikeouts.
- The Panthers hit seven homers on the weekend, highlighted by a pair from Brock Franks and Kyle Hess.

A LOOK BACK AT HISTORIC 2021 SEASON
- Last year, Pitt had its most successful season in the ACC.
- The Panthers set program records for their highest ranking in the polls, No. 14 by Baseball America, consecutive weeks in the polls (nine), RPI (50), and strength of schedule (30). In ACC play, Pitt set program-bests in ACC series wins (six) and ACC victories (16).
- Pitt went 18-12 against teams that made the NCAA Regionals, tied for the second-best record in the nation. The Panthers won 17 times against Quad-one schools.
- They're just the second team to sweep Florida State and Miami in the same season.
- Pitt narrowly missed out on its first at-large bid to NCAA Regionals, as they were the second team left out (behind Baylor) by the selection committee.
- With Bell serving as the pitching coach since last season, Mitch Myers became the highest drafted Panther since 2018. The junior right-hander was selected in the 12th round of the MLB draft with the No. 368 pick by the Oakland Athletics.
- Myers was one of a program-best four Panthers selected to the All-ACC Third Team: Sky Duff, Nico Popa, and David Yanni. Duff earned a selected to the ABCA/Rawlings All-East Region Second Team.
- The third baseman had a breakout campaign in his third year in Pittsburgh and enters 2022 with 21-game reached base and 13-game hitting streaks.
- A member of the 2019 second-team, Popa is the first Panther to earn All-ACC honors twice. The all-time leader in program history in games played, starts and walks, Yanni had his best season as a Panthers in 2021.

REPLACING YANNI AND POPA
- Pitt has to replace arguably the two-most important Panthers of the ACC era of the program, David Yanni and Nico Popa.

SERIES NOTES

- The pair combined for 11 years starting, with Popa manning right field for five seasons and Yanni spending his first five years at shortstop and last season at second base.
- Both earned All-ACC Third-Team selections last year with Popa becoming the first Panther to earn All-ACC honors twice (second-team in 2019).
- The duo etched their name all over the record book.
- Yanni played the most games (226) and started the most (215).
- Popa is third in games played and starts (193).
- In career offensive categories, Yanni is the all-time leader in walks (148), third in doubles (50) and at-bats (774), fourth in RBIs (146), tied for fifth in hit by pitches (25), sixth in total bases (338), seventh in homers (28) and runs (144), tied for 10th in triples (eight) and 16th in hits (187).
- Popa is tied for second in hit by pitches (28), tied for fifth in triples (10), eighth in at-bats (726), tied for ninth in total bases (316), 12th in stolen bases (45), 12th in hits (208) and homers (19), 16th in runs (134) and 20th in walks (66).

RETURNING EXPERIENCE

- While replacing two all-time performers in Popa and Yanni, the Panthers' batting lineup features names that every ACC program is familiar with.
- Pitt brings back six starting position players from 2021, with only one who's started just one year (shortstop Brock Franks.
- Ron Washington, Jr. is the most tenured of the bunch as a starter for four straight years.
- Washington, Jr. was an All-ACC All-Freshman selection in 2019 as a freshman at third base and has since been at right field and the designated hitter if not playing in the outfield.
- He is the Panthers' top returning power hitter with 59 extra-base hits, 20 homers and 102 RBI's coming into the season.
- Members of Bell's first recruiting class, Sky Duff occupies the hot corner for the second-straight sea-son after starting at second base for 2019 and 2020, and Kyle Hess has occupied either right or left field since 2019.
- Coming in for the 2020 season, center-fielder Jordan Anderson and first base-man Bryce Hulett have started from first game played.

NEW BULLPEN

- Pitt has to replace several workhorses from last year's bullpen.
- Jordan McCrum graduated after serving as the closer last year.
- Named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Midseason Watch List, McCrum registered six saves and had 35 strikeouts in 30 innings.
- Chase Smith had served as a key arm in four years in Pittsburgh and departed as the program's all-time leader in appear-ances (89) and tied for fourth in saves (eight) and tied for 19th in ERA (3.33).
- Chris Gomez played for the last five sea-sons and graduated after ranking second in career appearanc-es (72) while contrib-uting a 2.27 ERA and 2-0 record in 2021.
- Only a combined 42 appearances and 48 innings pitched return from Dylan Lester (15 appearances and 21.1 innings), CJ

McKennitt (13 and 14.1), David Ferguson (nine and nine) and Dominic Verrastro (five and three).
- 13 pitchers joined the program with many that can start and come out of the bullpen.
- Logan Evans, Ben Dragani, Baron Stuart and Ryan Miller are three experienced veteran Division I transfers that
- Named the 85th-best transfer by Baseball America, Miller was arguably the most decorated pitcher from the MEAC in the last decade.
- Last season was named the MEAC Pitcher of the Year, HBCU Nines Large School Division National Pitcher of the Year, First Team All-MEAC, an All-American by Collegiate Baseball (Second Team) and NCBWA (Third Team), to the ABCA Second Team All-Region and a NCBWA Dick Howser Trophy Semifi-nalist.
- He set an NCCU modern era record with 10 wins (10-0), tossed consecutive complete game shutouts against Norfolk State on Feb. 27 and March 6, had a streak of 23 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run in his first four starts of the year and led the MEAC with a 2.21 ERA, which is the third-lowest in the modern era at NCCU and 10th-best in a single season in MEAC history.
- Picked the 2019 MEAC Rookie of the Year and a Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American and Third Team All-MEAC.
- Dragani was named the 44th-best transfer by Baseball America.
- In three years at Michigan, he recorded a 3.34 ERA, 9-5 record and 73 strikeouts in 28 appearances, 14 starts and 105 innings pitched and in 2018 was named to the Collegiate Baseball News Freshman All-America, Perfect Game Freshman All-America Second Team, D1Baseball Freshman All-America Second Team selection, All-Big Ten Third Team and All-Big Ten Freshman Team.
- Evans was a two-year reliever for Penn State and went 2-1 in three appearances, totaling a 4.50 ERA and 11 strikeouts in eight innings in 2020.
- Stuart was a key arm for the last four years at USF, recorded a career 5.78 ERA, 116 strikeouts and 10-8 record in 43 appearances, 26 starts and 137 innings pitched.
- He helped the Bulls last year win the American Athletic Conference Tournament and Gainesville NCAA Regional Champion-ships to advance to the Austin NCAA Super Regionals.
- Hayden Summers come from junior colleges while Brendon Bair, Jonathan Bautista, Harrison Coble, Kyle Demi, Will Droll, Tyler Kennedy and Quin Konusze-wski.
- In Perfect Game's preseason freshman rankings, three were selected in the top-500: Kennedy (184), Bau-tista (308) and Bair (490).

ALL-TIME SERIES

- Louisville has the advantage 21-8.
- The Panthers do have the edge in games in Pittsburgh at 7-5.
- Former Big East foes, the two teams haven't played each other since the 2018 ACC Tournament due to the COVID pandemic and playing in different divisions in the ACC.

the 2022 season: junior Tatem Levins, sophomore Johnny Long, junior Jack Anderson (also a first baseman) and freshman Luke Lambert.

- All four Panthers from last year have moved on: Jackson Phinney (transfer to Bryant), Riley Wash (transfer to UCF after graduating from Pitt), Ramon Padilla (graduated) and Nico Samarkos (graduat-ed).
- The Panthers' catching unit however will still be an experienced group with years spent at high-levels of collegiate baseball.
- Levins is rated as the No. 19 catcher in the nation by DIBaseball.com and also the 34th-best transfer by Baseball America and No. 51 by DIBaseball.com.
- A three-year starter at La Salle, tallying a .318 batting average, .524 slugging per-centage and .402 on-base percentage with 17 homers, 37 doubles and 113 RBIs.
- Last year Levins was selected to the ABCA/Rawlings All-Region Second Team and All-Atlantic 10 Sec-ond-Team last year when he batted .315 with a .416 on-base percentage and a .503 slugging percent-age and led the team with 49 runs scored, homered seven times and added 14 doubles.
- He also was picked as the 2019 A-10 and Philadelphia Big 5 Rookie of the Year and to the Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American.
- Long was a two-year starter at Florida Gulf Coast and named to the All-Atlantic Sun Freshman Team after recording a .385 on-base percentage, .351 slugging percentage, 18 RBIs, eight extra-base hits and 24 runs with five baserunners caught stealing.
- A Pittsburgh native (Mars HS), Anderson recorded a .495 slugging percentage, .429 on-base percentage and .314 batting aver-age at State College of Florida with 59 hits, 15 doubles, 46 runs and five homers.
- Before JUCO ball, he played two seasons at Northwestern with 11 starts.
- Lambert is also a local player from nearby West Allegheny High School where he fin-ished his senior season with a .484 batting average and five home runs.

DIFFERENT STARTS THAT LED TO PITTS-BURGH
- Almost half of Pitt's roster are transfers (16 of 36, 44.4%).
- Jeffrey Wehler and Baron Stuart are graduate transfers who have an additional year due to COVID prematurely ending the 2020 season and the NCAA granting every spring sport athlete an extra year of eligibility:
- Wehler (Youngstown State) and Stuart (USF).
- Eight have come from various junior col-leges all around the nation:
- Jack Anderson (two years at Northwest-ern and one at State College of Florida), Jordan An-derson (one year at Missis-sippi State and Chipola), Brock Franks (two years at Northwest Flor-ida State), Matt Gilbertson (two years at College of Southern Nevada) Bryce Hulett (two years at State College of Florida), Dylan Lester (two years Houston and one at San Jacinto College-North), Hayden Summers (one year at Walters State) and Dominic Verras-tro (two years at Lackawanna).
- Six transferred from a fellow Division I school:

- Ben Dragani (four years at Michigan), Logan Evans (two years at Penn State), Tatem Levins (three years at La Salle), Johnny Long (two years at Florida Gulf Coast), CJ McKennitt (one year at Holy Cross) and Ryan Miller (three years at North Carolina Central).

Head Coach Mike BELL	Assistant Coach Ty MEGAHEE	Assistant Coach Joe MERCADANTE	Volenteer Assistant Devin MESORACO	Player Development Drew LINDER	Director of Operations Austin THOMPSON

Mike Bell is in his fourth season as head coach of Pitt baseball. Bell was hired in July of 2018, becoming the fifth head coach in Pitt baseball history and bringing 14 years of Division I coaching experience to the Panther program. He joined Pitt after a seven-year stint as the associate head coach and pitching coach at Florida State.

Last year, Bell led Pitt to its most successful season in the ACC. The Panthers set program records for their highest ranking in the polls, No. 14 by Baseball America, consecutive weeks in the polls (nine), RPI (50), and strength of schedule (30). In ACC play, Pitt set program-bests in ACC series wins (six) and ACC victories (16).

Pitt went 18-12 against teams that made the NCAA Regionals, tied for the second-best record in the nation. The Panthers won 17 times against Quad-one schools. They're just the second team to sweep Florida State and Miami in the same season.

With Bell serving as the pitching coach since last season, Mitch Myers became the highest drafted Panther since 2018. The junior right-hander was selected in the 12th round of the MLB draft with the No. 368 pick by the Oakland Athletics. Myers was one of a program-best four Panthers selected to the All-ACC Third Team: Sky Duff, Nico Popa, and David Yanni.

Duff earned a selected to the ABCA/Rawlings All-East Region Second Team. The third baseman had a breakout campaign in his third year in Pittsburgh and enters 2022 with 21-game reached base and 13-game hitting streaks. A member of the 2019 second-team, Popa is the first Panther to earn All-ACC honors twice. The all-time leader in program history in games played, starts and walks, Yanni had his best season as a Panthers in 2021.

In 2020, Bell guided the Panthers to a 10-6 record before the season was cut short due to COVID-19. Revamping the roster with 21 newcomers, Bell lead the Panthers to a 10-1 start to the year, tied for the second-best start through 11 games in program history. Pitt's offense played a huge part, ranking second in the nation in doubles per game (2.88), 37th in slugging percentage (.447) and 38th in scoring (7.3 runs per game).

Since 2005, Bell has helped lead three teams to four College World Series appearances – Tennessee (2005),

HEAD COACH

🐦 @CoachMikeBell22

Education: Florida State, '96
Playing Experience: Montreal Expos; Baltimore Orioles (1995-2000); reached as high as AA Coaching Experience: Tennessee (2005-07); Oklahoma (2008-11)); Florida State (2012-18) Pitt (2019-present)
Family: Wife (Alicia); Daughter (Alexis); Son (Kyler)

Oklahoma (2010) and Florida State (2012 & 2017). He has coached nine first round draft picks, 35 Top-10 round picks, 93 overall Draft picks, 19 Major Leaguers, and helped guide 12 Top-25 recruiting classes. In 2012, he was named the Perfect Game Assistant Coach of the Year and was named the No. 13 recruiter in the country by D1Baseball.com prior to the 2017 season.

In five of his seven seasons, Florida State pitchers had recorded 500 or more strikeouts, including a pair of top 10 seasons in 2017 (640, fifth most) and 2018 (635, seventh most). The Seminoles posted a 314-136-0 record in his tenure, reaching a Super Regional on three occasions, advancing to the College World Series twice. Florida State captured three ACC titles in Bell's time in Tallahassee, Fla., taking home conference tournament titles in 2015, 2017 and 2018.

Bell made stops at Oklahoma and Tennessee in his time prior to Florida State. In his first seven seasons at the Division I level, including four at Oklahoma and three at Tennessee, he helped recruit and develop 22 pitchers who were selected in the Major League Baseball draft. That includes three first-round selections – including 2006 No. 1 overall pick Luke Hochevar.

In four seasons at Oklahoma, Bell's pitching staffs established a number of new standards. His 2011 group posted a 3.00 ERA, which is the Sooners' lowest since 1978. Four of his hurlers earned All-Big 12 honors, including second-team All-American Michael Rocha. The Sooners posted a 41-17 record and were ranked No. 15 in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll. In 2010, his pitching staff was instrumental in leading OU back to the College World Series for the first time since 1995.

Beyond his Division I experience, he spent two seasons as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Division II perennial power Florida Southern, where the Mocs finished twice in the top 20 nationally in ERA. He launched his coaching career in 2002 at Brandon High, where he led the team to a district title and a regional runner-up finish as the head coach, earning Hillsborough County Coach of the Year honors.

A left-handed pitcher and first baseman for the Seminoles, Bell reached the College World Series as a player in both 1994 and 1995. Bell posted a two-year record of 14-4 with a 3.00 ERA and was twice named to the ACC Academic Honor Roll. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education at Florida State in 1996 and previously spent two seasons as a pitcher at Hernando Community College, where he was a two-time All-Suncoast Conference selection.

Selected in the 20th round of the 1995 draft by the Montreal Expos, Bell spent six years in the minors, including the final three with the Baltimore Orioles' organization where he reached the Double-A level.

Bell is married to the former Alicia Favarato, a Florida State graduate, and the couple has two children, daughter, Alexis, and son, Kyler.
