GAME NOTES

PITT'S 2018 & 2022 ACC TOURNAMENT APPEARANCE

2018: No. 12 Pitt 2, No. 8 Georgia Tech 1
- Making its first appearance at the ACC Championship, the Panthers scored twice in the seventh inning and held off the Yellow Jackets.
- A two-out single up the middle by Caleb Parry plated Liam Sabino as Pitt went up 1-0. Chris Cappas dropped his first career triple into right center in the next at bat, scoring Parry.
- Matt Pidich (6-2) went 7.0 innings, allowing one run of just three hits and one walk.
- RJ Freure secured his second save of the season, throwing 2.0 innings with just one hit allowed and three strikeouts.

2018: No. 12 Pitt 5, No. 1 North Carolina 4
- Pitt battled back from two early deficits and stunned top-seeded North Carolina, 5-4 to advance to the semifinals.
- For the second consecutive day, Chris Cappas provided a key extra-base hit for the Panthers in Pitt's decisive two-run seventh inning. With his team trailing 4-3, Cappas slapped a ball down the left field line, scoring Ron Washington Jr.
- The very next pitch saw Pitt take the lead for good when Cole MacLaren perfectly executed a squeeze bunt, as Caleb Parry ran home from third, giving the Panthers a 5-4 advantage that wouldn't be relinquished by pitcher Derek West, who concluded the game with 5.0 hitless innings on the mound.
- Lucas Maldonado led off the bottom of the third with a double, scoring following another double by David Yanni, who then was plated by a Nick Banman single to level the contest.

2018: No. 5 Louisville 5, No. 12 Pitt 2
- The Panthers and fifth-seeded Cardinals both reached their first ACC semifinal in program history.
- Louisville posted an early run in the bottom of the first inning and extended its lead in the fourth inning with a pair of runs to take a 3-0 advantage.
- Ron Washington Jr. blasted a two-run home run over the fence in right field in the sixth inning.
- Louisville regained its three-run advantage in the bottom of the seventh inning on a two-run homer of its own.

2021: No. 10 Pitt 5, No. 6 North Carolina 3
- Ron Washington, Jr. produced a go-ahead sac fly in the fifth inning and hit what proved to be the game-winning two-run homer in the eighth inning.
- Mitch Myers picked up the win, going 4.2 innings with two runs, six hits, two walks and five strikeouts, and Jordan McCrum picked up his sixth save of the season, allowing no hits and two walks with three strikeouts.
- Sky Duff and Kyle Hess each reached base twice with a hit and walk.

2021: No. 3 NC State, No. 10 Pitt 2
- The Panthers fell to one of the hottest teams in the nation to end its stay in the tournament.
- Matt Gilbertson threw his first complete game as a Panther, allowing four hits, three runs and three walks with 20 strikeouts while producing 22 outs in the last 22 batters faced.
- Ron Washington, Jr. had both of the Panthers' two RBI with a one-run triple in the first inning and another on a fielder's choice in the third inning.

Pitt starting pitchers Matt Gilbertson (second-team) and Billy Corcoran (third-team) were named All-ACC selections, the league announced Monday. They are the first tandem of Panther pitchers to earn All-ACC (first-third team) honors in the same season and the eighth and ninth overall selections under head coach Mike Bell to earn the distinction in his three full seasons guiding the program (no season awards given in 2020 due to COVID).

Gilbertson has served as a very effective No. 1 pitcher for Pitt all season. The senior has posted a team-best 3.55 ERA, 1.14 WHIP, 8-3 record, 87 strikeouts to 11 walks and a .261 opposing batting average. Entering the postseason he ranks in the ACC first in innings pitched (91.1) and strikeouts looking (37), tied for first in games started (14), tied for third in least walks allowed (11), tied for fourth in wins, sixth in strikeouts and 12th in ERA. In the nation he's ninth in walks allowed per nine innings (1.08), 13th in starts, 13th in strikeout-to-walk ratio (7.82), 24th in wins and 76th in strikeouts.

The right-handed pitcher ranks in program history tied for ninth in career wins (16), 14th in strikeouts (179) and 15th in games started (31) and innings pitched (200.1). This year, he ranks in single-season program history tied for seventh in wins and tied for 10th in strikeouts (87) and tied for 14th in starts. In his 10 ACC starts, Gilbertson has 56 strikeouts to just seven walks in 74.2 innings pitched.

Billy Corcoran bounced back tremendously from a limited 2020 season due to an injury with a career-best 2021 spring. This season he ranks in the ACC first in least walks allowed (8), sixth in innings pitched (80.2) and tied for sixth in wins (7). In the nation, he's fourth in walks allowed per nine innings (0.89), 10th in strikeout-to-walk ratio (8.25) and 67th in victories.

Corcoran was named the ACC Pitcher of the Week on April 25, earning the honors with a win at No. 4 Miami on April 24 in which he had eight strikeouts, one walk and one run in seven innings. He has gone at least six innings in all but one appearance this season and allowed just four walks in his last nine starts with a combined 53 strikeouts in 56.2 innings pitched. In program history, he ranks 14th in games started (31), 18th in innings pitched (184.1) and 19th in strikeouts (157).

SERIES NOTES

LEADING OFF
- No. 11 seed Pitt baseball faces No. 7 Georgia Tech Tuesday and No. 2 Louisville Wednesday both at 11 a.m. in Charlotte, N.C. at Truist Field for Pool B play in the ACC Tournament. The Panthers are playing in the league's postseason tournament for the second-straight year for the first time and third overall since joining for the 2014 season.

ALL-TIME SERIES
- Georgia Tech has the edge 13-11, and Louisville has the edge 22-10.
- The Yellow Jackets swept the Panthers in this year's series.
- Pitt took this year's series against then-ranked No. 5 Louisville 2-1 with an 8-7 win in the opener and a 6-3 win in the closer.
- The Panthers' latest and only postseason meeting against Georgia Tech occurred at the ACC Tournament on May 22, 2018, in which Pitt won 2-1.
- Pitt is looking to secure its first postseason victory against Louisville.

RPI TALK
- With the Panthers' improved play and strong wins in April, they find themselves in the upper portion of the RPI rankings.
- Pitt currently stands at No. 72 (.5427) with a strength of schedule at 30 (.5538).
- With its strong slate of opponents, Pitt is 10-16 against quadrant one teams (squads ranked 1-50) and 1-0 against quadrant two teams (squads ranked 50-100).
- Two wins against No. 9 Louisville, No. 15 Virginia and No. 30 Clemson.
- One win versus No. 4 Virginia Tech, No. 8 Miami, No. 17 Notre Dame, No. 35 West Virginia and No. 60 Campbell.
- The ACC is the second-highest rated league in the country.

ACC TOURNAMENT
- The ACC tournament format features four pools (A, B, C and D) with three teams each as the winners of each one advance to the semifinals Saturday with championship Sunday.
- Due to the league's tiebreaker of the higher seed advancing, Pitt must win both of its games in Pool B to advance in the tournament.
- Three games (11 a.m., 3 p.m. and 7 p.m.) are played Tuesday-Friday, so the Panthers would have a two-day break if they win.
- Its potential semifinal would come against the Pool C winner (No. 3 Miami, No. 6 Wake Forest or No. 10 NC State) Saturday at 5 p.m. in the second game of the day with the championship the next day.

HOME RUN HITTING SQUAD
- The story of the Pitt offense so far this season has been its home run hitting ability.
- With 73 in 53 games, the Panthers rank in the nation 48th in homers per game (1.38) and 49th in homers.
- Additionally, Pitt is 58th in on-base percentage (.392) and 83rd in slugging percentage (.461).
- Tatem Levins has been the leader of that power-hitting squad, blasting 15 to place 90th in the nation.
- All nine of the batters in the current starting lineup have hit at least two with Levins hitting 15, Washington, Jr. blasting 13, Brock Franks registering nine, Bryce Hulett hitting eight and Jack Anderson with six.

- CJ Funk hit his first collegiate homer at Virginia Tech (Saturday, March 19) and has hit four in his last 21 games (two against No. 5 Louisville, April 2 and 3, and at Boston College, April 9).
- Filling in the infield due to multiple injuries, freshman Tommy Tavarez has hit four in his last 16 starts (at Youngstown State, April 6, at Boston College, April 8, at Kent State, April 12 and against No. 5 Virginia, April 15).

HOME SERIES WIN OVER NO. 5 VIRGINIA
- Pitt won its fourth-straight ACC series and third in a row against a ranked team for the first team with two wins (9-4 Friday and 4-1 Sunday) over No. 5 Virginia.
- Winners of 11 of the last 15 games, Pitt improves to 6-2 at home in ACC play, all against ranked teams (8-0 and 10-7 over then-No. 20 Clemson, March 25, 8-7 and 6-3 against then-No. 5 Louis-ville, April 2-3 and 9-4 over Virginia Friday).
- Pitt has taken six series including this one against ranked league opponents the last two seasons (No. 9 Florida State, No. 7 Georgia Tech and No. 15 Miami last year with both being sweeps over the Yellow Jackets and Hurricanes).
- Starting pitching was the key for Pitt as Matt Gilbertson won his fifth-straight start in the series-opener, throwing eight innings with eight hits, four runs, no walks and eight strikeouts.
- Billy Corcoran recorded a win for the third time in a row in the finale, throwing seven innings with no earned runs, no walks, seven hits and four strikeouts.
- Tommy Tavarez and Tatem Levins each hit a homer Friday and were the main catalyst of the of-fense for the weekend with three RBI each.
- Tavarez went 4-8 with four walks, and Levins also racked up four hits with three walks.

SERIES WIN AT BC
- Pitt won its third-straight ACC series last weekend at Boston College, winning the first game 13-3 and clinching the series 10-9 Sunday.
- The Panthers have won two of three games in all five ACC series against the Eagles (2022, 2021, 2018, 2016 and 2014).
- Starting pitching was a key once again for the Panthers' weekend success, as Matt Gilbertson won his four-straight start and went seven innings for the third time in a row in Friday's victory.
- Billy Corcoran went six innings with one earned run, four hits, one walk and five strikeouts for his second-straight start.
- The Panthers' offense was explosive once again, hitting three triples Friday, the most in an ACC game, and racked up 17 total extra-base hits, including five homers.

HOME SERIES WIN OVER NO. 5 LOUISVILLE
- Pitt won its second-straight home series over a ranked ACC team by taking two games (8-7 and 6-3) last weekend over No. 5 Louisville.
- Starting pitching led the Panthers to the two victories.
- Matt Gilbertson picked up his second-straight win in the series-opener, going seven innings with two runs, eight hits and no walks with five strikeouts.
- Billy Corcoran threw his first collegiate complete game in the finale, tying a career-high with nine strikeouts, allowing no walks and just four hits and retiring the side in all but two innings.

- Pitt had its four-straight game with 8+ runs (8-0 and 10-7 over No. 20 Clemson last Friday and 8-6 over West Virginia Wednesday), the first time since 2013 (12-9, 14-2 and 11-2 at Saint John's March 22-24 and 10-8 at Penn State March 27).
- Having not played each other since 2018, Pitt won its first ACC series over Louisville and the first overall since winning two of three at home on April 9-10, 2010 (8-3 and 15-5).
- Pitt has taken five series against ranked league opponents the last two seasons (No. 9 Florida State, No. 7 Georgia Tech and No. 15 Miami last year with both being sweeps over the Yellow Jackets and Hurricanes).
- The Panthers finished with six homers in the series, two each by CJ Funk and Kyle Hess.

BACKYARD BRAWL WIN
- A brand-new game added a day before play, Pitt defeated rival West Virginia 9-6 at home Wednesday, March 30 in the first of three scheduled games for the Backyard Brawl.
- The Panthers scored three unanswered runs to secure the victory.
- Sky Duff knocked in the game-winning run in the fourth inning, singling through the right side with two outs to bring home Jeffrey Wehler.
- Tatem Levins blasted his team-leading ninth homer of the season, a two-run shot to right field in the ninth inning.
- Brock Franks completed a six-run frame in the first inning with a three-run homer to right field, as all six runs came with two outs.
- Brady Devereux picked up the win in relief, allowing no runs, two hits and one walk with two strikeouts.
- Baron Stuart recorded his second-straight save and third of the season, retiring all four batters faced to end the game with two strikeouts.
- Quin Konuszewski, Dylan Lester, C.J. McKennitt, Stuart and Devereux combined to only allow four batters reach base on two walks and two hits over 5.1 innings of scoreless relief.
- Levins reached base in all five trips to the plate with his homer, two walks and two hit-by-pitches.
- Bryce Hulett reached four times, going 2-3 with two RBI and two walks.

A TWO-GAME SWEEP OF NO. 20 CLEMSON
- In its first home ACC and weekend series, Pitt swept the only two games played against No. 20 Clemson, winning a doubleheader Friday 8-0 and 10-7.
- The series finale was cancelled due to weather.
- The Panthers recorded its first series win over the Tigers in four tries since joining the ACC for the 2014 season.
- The ACC series victory was also the first of the season and the fourth against a ranked squad in the last two seasons No. 9 Florida State, No. 7 Georgia Tech and No. 15 Miami last year with both being sweeps over the Yellow Jackets and Hurricanes).
- Pitchers Matt Gilbertson and Logan Evans both earned the wins with nine strikeouts each, with Gilbertson throwing seven shutout innings and Evans going five with just one run allowed.

- The Panthers belted five homers, two by Washington, Jr. and one each from Anderson, Franks and Hulett.
- Baron Stuart threw two scoreless innings of relief in both games, earning the save with retiring all six batters faced with five strikeouts and allowing just one hit and no walks with four strikeouts in the first game.
- The Panthers finished with 28 hits and 10 walks on the day with all but two starters reaching base four times with at least three hits.
- Hess had a doubleheader-high six hits with two doubles.
- Washington, Jr. led both teams with four extra-base hits, two homers and two doubles.
- Hulett finished a single short of the cycle in game two.
- Funk drew a day-high four walks and added two hits.

BREAKOUT SEASON FOR WASHINGTON, JR.
- Ron Washington, Jr. has saved his best season for last in his five-year career at Pitt.
- Already an established bat in the ACC his entire career as an all-freshman selection in 2018, he has taken his game to another level this spring, especially the power numbers.
- Despite missing eight games and limited to a pinch-hit appearance twice due to an injury, he is second on the team in extra-base hits (23), RBI (37), slugging percentage (.574) and total bases (93) along with four stolen bases.
- In 162 at-bats, he has already established a season-best 13 homers (eight last year) and four steals (two in 2021 and 2018).
- Entering this year, he posted a season-best of a .480 slugging percentage last year (not counting a .492 total in the shortened 2020 season).
- He continues to etch his name in the record book, ranking in program history third in total bases (360), tied for third in homers (33), tied for fifth in doubles (47), sixth in at-bats (743), seventh in RBI (139), tied for seventh in games started (192), tied for ninth in games played (197), tied for 11th in walks (87) and 12th in hits (210).

BREAKOUT SEASON FOR HULETT
- Bryce Hulett has enjoyed a tremendous season as one of the Panthers' top hitters.
- Known for his tremendous glove at first base since he started his career in Pittsburgh in 2020, Hulett excelled at the plate this spring.
- He recorded a .274 batting average and .400 on-base percentage along with .853 OPS, .453 slugging percentage and 52 hits, 17 for extra-base.
- His power has seen an uptick with eight homers, eight doubles and a triple in 190 at-bats (eight, three and zero in 154 last season), and he's drawn more walks and cut down drastically on strikeouts (averaging one per 4.75 at-bats, compared to last year's 55 in 157, average of one every 2.85 at-bats).

SLUGGING TATEM
- For the season, Tatem Levins has been an effective power hitter, ranking 90th in

COMEBACK SEASON FOR CORCORAN
- Limited to just four appearances in 2021, Billy Corcoran has bounced back tremendously this spring.
- This season he ranks in the ACC first in least walks allowed (8), Sixth in innings pitched (80.2) and tied for sixth in wins (7).
- In the nation, he's fourth in walks allowed per nine innings (.89), 10th in strikeout-to-walk ratio (8.25) and 67th in victories.
- Corcoran was named the ACC Pitcher of the Week on April 25, earning the honors with a win at No. 4 Miami on April 24 in which he had eight strikeouts, one walk and one run in seven innings.
- He has gone at least six innings in 11 out of 12 appearances this season and allowed just four walks in his last nine starts with a combined 53 strikeouts in 56.2 innings pitched.
- He notched wins in four-straight starts (then-No. 5 Louisville, at Boston College, then-No. 5 Virginia and at then-No. 5 Miami).
- In that span, he recorded a 1.55 ERA, 26 strikeouts and just two walks in 29.0 innings pitched.
- In program history, he ranks 14th in games started (32), 18th in innings pitched (184.1) and 19th in strikeouts (157).

FRANKS THE HOME RUN HITTER
- Brock Franks has also seen a power surge at the plate.
- Only hitting one homer in his first 47 games as a Panther, Franks has hit nine in his last 35 games, including his first multi-home run game of his collegiate career.
- In a six-game stretch (Lipscomb, Feb. 26-High Point, March 9), he registered 25 total bases, a 1.087 slugging percentage and 11 RBI.
- Franks has highest ratio of extra-base hits to hits in the starting batting lineup at 48.5% (16 out of 33).

HOMETOWN HERO
- Pittsburgh native and Mars High School graduate Jack Anderson is in his first season at his hometown school.
- The primary designated hitter for the Panthers played his first two seasons of college ball at Northwestern and spent last year at State College of Florida, where teammate Bryce Hulett played at from 2018-19.
- One of the prominent power bats in the lineup, Anderson has come on as of late with five homers and a hit in 19 of his last 31 games.
- Anderson has registered an OPS of .856 along with six homers, eight doubles and a triple as part of his 41 hits with a .275 batting average and 26 RBI.

A FORMER PENGUIN, NOW A PANTHER
- Jeffrey Wehler faced his former team Youngstown State on April 6 for the second time this spring.
- Wehler arrived in Pittsburgh after starting four years at Youngstown State.
- In the first matchup against the Penguins Wednesday, March 16, Wehler reached base twice with a double and walk.
- He technically already faced his former school as Pitt defeated Youngstown State 22-7 on Oct. 22 in the fall.
- He had a grand slam in the second inning of the game.

- Wehler was named the 54th-best transfer by Baseball America and No. 55 by DIBaseball.com after being named First-Team All-Horizon League last year and second-team in 2019 and 2018.
- He finished his Youngstown State career ranked second in school history with 88 career steals and led his team in stolen bases each year.
- He swiped his first bag as a Panther in the series-finale against Canisius and has gotten 10 more, needing two more to reach 100 in his career.
- Last season he had career-bests of a .332 batting average, .390 on-base percentage, .552 slugging percentage, 53 runs, 74 hits, 27 extra-base hits, eight homers, 38 RBIs and 20 walks.
- This year as the starting second baseman and batting primarily in the No. 2 batting spot in the lineup, Wehler has posted a .801 OPS, a team-high 17 doubles, 31 RBI and 28 walks.
- In program history, Wehler ranks for a single-season tied for 10th in doubles.

HOME RUN EXPLOSION (PART TWO) AGAINST BUCKNELL
- In its 2021 home-opening 21-5 win over Bucknell (March 15), Pitt scored the most runs in its 12 years at Charles L. Cost Field and also set Cost Field records for homers (six) and total bases (40).
- The Panthers hit six homers for the first time since doing so against Grambling State in an 18-5 win on Feb. 28, 2016.
- Both Jack Anderson and Tatem Levins had their first multi-home run games of their collegiate career.
- Kyle Hess recorded the first leadoff homer to start a game since Connor Perry's at Virginia on March 22, 2019 and later in the opening frame had a triple with the bases loaded.
- Ron Washington, Jr. also had a solo homer with one out in the third inning.
- Anderson finished with six RBI while Levins and Hess had four.
- Pitt also finished with 12 walks, the most since recording 15 in a 7-2 win over Villanova on Feb. 15, 2019.

HOME RUN EXPLOSION (PART ONE) AT HIGH POINT
- Playing its fourth-straight game in the state of North Carolina on its annual spring break trip, Pitt defeated High Point 15-5 on March 9.
- Brock Franks had his first multi-home run game in his collegiate career, and Tatem Levins hit a homer for the fifth-straight game.
- Leaving a batter on with no runs in each of the first four innings, Pitt erupted for a seven-run fifth.
- Pitt scored all 15 runs in a row over the fifth, sixth and seventh innings.
- The five home runs were the most since six against Grambling State in an 18-5 win on Feb. 28, 2016.
- Pitt has hit a home run in all but one game this season and a combined 12 in the last five games.
- The 19 hits were the most since accomplishing the feat twice in wins over No. 7 Georgia Tech last year (March 12 and March 14).
- Pitt players reached base 28 times with seven walks and two hit-by-pitches.
- Levins had a game-high four hits.
- Bryce Hulett also reach based four times with a homer, single and two walks.

- Franks and CJ Funk each went 3-5, with Franks also having a double to his two homers.
- Tommy Tavarez recorded his first multi-hit game of his collegiate career along with a walk and hit-by-pitch.

WINNING THE ALL-AMERICAN CLASSIC
- Rebounding from an opening 5-3 loss to Army, Pitt defeated Ohio State 6-5 and won 11-5 over Campbell.
- While no champion was crowned, the Panthers tied the Camels with a 2-1 record and earned a tiebreaker advantage over them with the 11-5 victory.
- Pitt came back to defeat Ohio State, tying the game up in the seventh before Brock Franks hit a walk-off homer with one out in the ninth inning.
- The Panthers led wire-to-wire over the Camels, scoring a run in the first inning before erupting for four in the third and five the next inning.
- Hayden Summers earned his first victory as a Panther with 3.1 scoreless innings of relief against the Buckeyes, allowing just two batters on with a walk and single along with three strikeouts.
- Sky Duff extended his reached base streak to 32 games, as the leadoff hitter went a team-best 6-11 with a double, sacrifice fly, RBI and walk.

WINNING THE MUSIC CITY COLLEGE CLASSIC
- Pitt won three of four games in the tournament hosted by Lipscomb with a two-game sweep of the host Bisons (16-0 in seven innings Saturday and 6-5 Sunday) and a split against Bradley (3-2 win and 6-5 loss).
- The Panthers clinched the top record in Nashville with a comeback victory in the finale against Lipscomb, with Jeffrey Wehler scoring in the eighth inning on a wild pitch and Bryce Hulett hitting the game-winning leadoff homer in the next inning.
- As one of four pitchers in the nation to throw at least 14 innings and not allow a run, Logan Evans pitched his second-straight seven-inning shutout with six strikeouts and only three hits and one walk allowed.
- Matt Gilbertson earned his first win of the year in the opening win against the Braves, going five innings with no earned runs, three hits, three walks and four strikeouts.
- The Panthers hit seven homers on the weekend, highlighted by a pair from Brock Franks and Kyle Hess.

DIFFERENT STARTS THAT LED TO PITTSBURGH
- Almost half of Pitt's roster are transfers (16 of 36, 44.4%).
- Jeffrey Wehler and Baron Stuart are graduate transfers who have an additional year due to COVID prematurely ending the 2020 season and the NCAA granting every spring sport athlete an extra year of eligibility:
- Wehler (Youngstown State) and Stuart (USF).
- Eight have come from various junior colleges all around the nation:
- Jack Anderson (two years at Northwestern and one at State College of Florida), Jordan Anderson (one year at Mississippi State and Chipola), Brock Franks

(two years at Northwest Flor-ida State), Matt Gilbertson (two years at College of Southern Nevada) Bryce Hulett (two years at State College of Florida), Dylan Lester (two years Houston and one at San Jacinto College-North), Hayden Summers (one year at Walters State) and Dominic Verrastro (two years at Lackawanna).
- Six transferred from a fellow Division I school:
- Ben Dragani (four years at Michigan), Logan Evans (two years at Penn State), Tatem Levins (three years at La Salle), Johnny Long (two years at Florida Gulf Coast), CJ McKennitt (one year at Holy Cross) and Ryan Miller (three years at North Carolina Central).

A LOOK BACK AT HISTORIC 2021 SEASON
- Last year, Pitt had its most successful season in the ACC.
- The Panthers set program records for their highest ranking in the polls, No. 14 by Baseball America, consecutive weeks in the polls (nine), RPI (50), and strength of schedule (30). In ACC play, Pitt set program-bests in ACC series wins (six) and ACC victories (16).
- Pitt went 18-12 against teams that made the NCAA Regionals, tied for the second-best record in the nation. The Panthers won 17 times against Quad-one schools.
- They're just the second team to sweep Florida State and Miami in the same season.
- Pitt narrowly missed out on its first at-large bid to NCAA Regionals, as they were the second team left out (behind Baylor) by the selection committee.
- With Bell serving as the pitching coach since last season, Mitch Myers became the highest drafted Panther since 2018.
- The junior right-hander was selected in the 12th round of the MLB draft with the No. 368 pick by the Oakland Athletics.
- Myers was one of a program-best four Panthers selected to the All-ACC Third Team: Sky Duff, Nico Popa, and David Yanni. Duff earned a selected to the ABCA/Rawlings All-East Region Second Team.
- The third baseman had a breakout campaign in his third year in Pittsburgh and enters 2022 with 21-game reached base and 13-game hitting streaks.
- A member of the 2019 second-team, Popa is the first Panther to earn All-ACC honors twice. The all-time leader in program history in games played, starts and walks, Yanni had his best season as a Panthers in 2021.

REPLACING YANNI AND POPA
- Pitt has to replace arguably the two-most important Panthers of the ACC era of the program, David Yanni and Nico Popa.
- The pair combined for 11 years starting, with Popa manning right field for five seasons and Yanni spending his first five years at shortstop and last season at second base.
- Both earned All-ACC Third-Team selections last year with Popa becoming the first Panther to earn All-ACC honors twice (second-team in 2019).
- The duo etched their name all over the record book.
- Yanni played the most games (226) and started the most (215).
- Popa is third in games played and starts (193).

- In career offensive categories, Yanni is the all-time leader in walks (148), third in doubles (50) and at-bats (774), fourth in RBIs (146), tied for fifth in hit by pitches (25), sixth in total bases (338), seventh in homers (28) and runs (144), tied for 10th in triples (eight) and 16th in hits (187).
- Popa is tied for second in hit by pitches (28), tied for fifth in triples (10), eighth in at-bats (726), tied for ninth in total bases (316), 12th in stolen bases (45), 12th in hits (208) and homers (19), 16th in runs (134) and 20th in walks (66).

RETURNING EXPERIENCE

- While replacing two all-time performers in Popa and Yanni, the Panthers' batting lineup features names that every ACC program is familiar with.
- Pitt brings back six starting position players from 2021, with only one who's started just one year (shortstop Brock Franks.
- Ron Washington, Jr. is the most tenured of the bunch as a starter for four straight years.
- Washington, Jr. was an All-ACC All-Freshman selection in 2019 as a freshman at third base and has since been at right field and the designated hitter if not playing in the outfield.
- He is the Panthers' top returning power hitter with 59 extra-base hits, 20 homers and 102 RBI's coming into the season.
- Members of Bell's first recruiting class, Sky Duff occupies the hot corner for the second-straight sea-son after starting at second base for 2019 and 2020, and Kyle Hess has occupied either right or left field since 2019.
- Coming in for the 2020 season, center-fielder Jordan Anderson and first base-man Bryce Hulett have started from first game played.

NEW BULLPEN

- Pitt has to replace several workhorses from last year's bullpen.
- Jordan McCrum graduated after serving as the closer last year.
- Named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Midseason Watch List, McCrum registered six saves and had 35 strikeouts in 30 innings.
- Chase Smith had served as a key arm in four years in Pittsburgh and departed as the program's all-time leader in appearances (89) and tied for fourth in saves (eight) and tied for 19th in ERA (3.33).
- Chris Gomez played for the last five seasons and graduated after ranking second in career appearances (72) while contributing a 2.27 ERA and 2-0 record in 2021.
- Only a combined 42 appearances and 48 innings pitched return from Dylan Lester (15 appearances and 21.1 innings), CJ McKennitt (13 and 14.1), David Ferguson (nine and nine) and Dominic Verrastro (five and three).
- 13 pitchers joined the program with many that can start and come out of the bullpen.
- Logan Evans, Ben Dragani, Baron Stuart and Ryan Miller are three experienced veteran Division I transfers that
- Named the 85th-best transfer by Baseball America, Miller was arguably the most decorated pitcher from the MEAC in the last decade.
- Last season was named the MEAC Pitcher of the Year, HBCU Nines Large School Division National Pitcher of the Year, First Team All-MEAC, an All-American by Collegiate Baseball (Second Team) and NCBWA (Third Team), to the ABCA Second Team All-Region and a NCBWA Dick Howser Trophy Semifi-nalist.

- He set an NCCU modern era record with 10 wins (10-0), tossed consecutive complete game shutouts against Norfolk State on Feb. 27 and March 6, had a streak of 23 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run in his first four starts of the year and led the MEAC with a 2.21 ERA, which is the third-lowest in the modern era at NCCU and 10th-best in a single season in MEAC history.
- Picked the 2019 MEAC Rookie of the Year and a Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American and Third Team All-MEAC.
- Dragani was named the 44th-best transfer by Baseball America.
- In three years at Michigan, he recorded a 3.34 ERA, 9-5 record and 73 strikeouts in 28 appearances, 14 starts and 105 innings pitched and in 2018 was named to the Collegiate Baseball News Freshman All-America, Perfect Game Freshman All-America Second Team, D1Baseball Freshman All-America Second Team selection, All-Big Ten Third Team and All-Big Ten Freshman Team.
- Evans was a two-year reliever for Penn State and went 2-1 in three appearances, totaling a 4.50 ERA and 11 strikeouts in eight innings in 2020.
- Stuart was a key arm for the last four years at USF, recorded a career 5.78 ERA, 116 strikeouts and 10-8 record in 43 appearances, 26 starts and 137 innings pitched.
- He helped the Bulls last year win the American Athletic Conference Tournament and Gainesville NCAA Regional Championships to advance to the Austin NCAA Super Regionals.
- Hayden Summers came from junior colleges while Brendon Bair, Jonathan Bautista, Harrison Coble, Kyle Demi, Will Droll, Tyler Kennedy and Quin Konuszewski.
- In Perfect Game's preseason freshman rankings, three were selected in the top-500: Kennedy (184), Bautista (308) and Bair (490).

NEW CATCHING UNIT

- Pitt features four brand new catchers for the 2022 season: junior Tatem Levins, sophomore Johnny Long, junior Jack Anderson (also a first baseman) and freshman Luke Lambert.
- All four Panthers from last year have moved on: Jackson Phinney (transfer to Bryant), Riley Wash (transfer to UCF after graduating from Pitt), Ramon Padilla (graduated) and Nico Samarkos (graduat-ed).
- The Panthers' catching unit however will still be an experienced group with years spent at high-levels of collegiate baseball.
- Levins is rated as the No. 19 catcher in the nation by D1Baseball.com and also the 34th-best transfer by Baseball America and No. 51 by D1Baseball.com.
- A three-year starter at La Salle, tallying a .318 batting average, .524 slugging per-centage and .402 on-base percentage with 17 homers, 37 doubles and 113 RBIs.
- Last year Levins was selected to the ABCA/Rawlings All-Region Second Team and All-Atlantic 10 Sec-ond-Team last year when he batted .315 with a .416 on-base percentage and a .503 slugging percent-age and led the team with 49 runs scored, homered seven times and added 14 doubles.

- He also was picked as the 2019 A-10 and Philadelphia Big 5 Rookie of the Year and to the Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American.
- Long was a two-year starter at Florida Gulf Coast and named to the All-Atlantic Sun Freshman Team after recording a .385 on-base percentage, .351 slugging percentage, 18 RBIs, eight extra-base hits and 24 runs with five baserunners caught stealing.
- A Pittsburgh native (Mars HS), Anderson recorded a .495 slugging percentage, .429 on-base percentage and .314 batting aver-age at State College of Florida with 59 hits, 15 doubles, 46 runs and five homers.
- Before JUCO ball, he played two seasons at Northwestern with 11 starts.
- Lambert is also a local player from nearby West Allegheny High School where he finished his senior season with a .484 batting average and five home runs.

Mike Bell is in his fourth season as head coach of Pitt baseball. Bell was hired in July of 2018, becoming the fifth head coach in Pitt baseball history and bringing 14 years of Division I coaching experience to the Panther program. He joined Pitt after a seven-year stint as the associate head coach and pitching coach at Florida State.

Last year, Bell led Pitt to its most successful season in the ACC. The Panthers set program records for their highest ranking in the polls, No. 14 by Baseball America, consecutive weeks in the polls (nine), RPI (50), and strength of schedule (30). In ACC play, Pitt set program-bests in ACC series wins (six) and ACC victories (16).

Pitt went 18-12 against teams that made the NCAA Regionals, tied for the second-best record in the nation. The Panthers won 17 times against Quad-one schools. They're just the second team to sweep Florida State and Miami in the same season.

With Bell serving as the pitching coach since last season, Mitch Myers became the highest drafted Panther since 2018. The junior right-hander was selected in the 12th round of the MLB draft with the No. 368 pick by the Oakland Athletics. Myers was one of a program-best four Panthers selected to the All-ACC Third Team: Sky Duff, Nico Popa, and David Yanni.

Duff earned a selected to the ABCA/Rawlings All-East Region Second Team. The third baseman had a breakout campaign in his third year in Pittsburgh and enters 2022 with 21-game reached base and 13-game hitting streaks. A member of the 2019 second-team, Popa is the first Panther to earn All-ACC honors twice. The all-time leader in program history in games played, starts and walks, Yanni had his best season as a Panthers in 2021.

In 2020, Bell guided the Panthers to a 10-6 record before the season was cut short due to COVID-19. Revamping the roster with 21 newcomers, Bell lead the Panthers to a 10-1 start to the year, tied for the second-best start through 11 games in program history. Pitt's offense played a huge part, ranking second in the nation in doubles per game (2.88), 37th in slugging percentage (.447) and 38th in scoring (7.3 runs per game).

Since 2005, Bell has helped lead three teams to four College World Series appearances – Tennessee (2005),

HEAD COACH
MIKE BELL

🐦 @CoachMikeBell22

Education: Florida State, '96
Playing Experience: Montreal Expos; Baltimore Orioles (1995-2000); reached as high as AA
Coaching Experience: Tennessee (2005-07); Oklahoma (2008-11); Florida State (2012-18) Pitt (2019-present)
Family: Wife (Alicia); Daughter (Alexis); Son (Kyler)

Oklahoma (2010) and Florida State (2012 & 2017). He has coached nine first round draft picks, 35 Top-10 round picks, 93 overall Draft picks, 19 Major Leaguers, and helped guide 12 Top-25 recruiting classes. In 2012, he was named the Perfect Game Assistant Coach of the Year and was named the No. 13 recruiter in the country by D1Baseball.com prior to the 2017 season.

In five of his seven seasons, Florida State pitchers had recorded 500 or more strikeouts, including a pair of top 10 seasons in 2017 (640, fifth most) and 2018 (635, seventh most). The Seminoles posted a 314-136-0 record in his tenure, reaching a Super Regional on three occasions, advancing to the College World Series twice. Florida State captured three ACC titles in Bell's time in Tallahassee, Fla., taking home conference tournament titles in 2015, 2017 and 2018.

Bell made stops at Oklahoma and Tennessee in his time prior to Florida State. In his first seven seasons at the Division I level, including four at Oklahoma and three at Tennessee, he helped recruit and develop 22 pitchers who were selected in the Major League Baseball draft. That includes three first-round selections – including 2006 No. 1 overall pick Luke Hochevar.

In four seasons at Oklahoma, Bell's pitching staffs established a number of new standards. His 2011 group posted a 3.00 ERA, which is the Sooners' lowest since 1978. Four of his hurlers earned All-Big 12 honors, including second-team All-American Michael Rocha. The Sooners posted a 41-17 record and were ranked No. 15 in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll. In 2010, his pitching staff was instrumental in leading OU back to the College World Series for the first time since 1995.

Beyond his Division I experience, he spent two seasons as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Division II perennial power Florida Southern, where the Mocs finished twice in the top 20 nationally in ERA. He launched his coaching career in 2002 at Brandon High, where he led the team to a district title and a regional runner-up finish as the head coach, earning Hillsborough County Coach of the Year honors.

A left-handed pitcher and first baseman for the Seminoles, Bell reached the College World Series as a player in both 1994 and 1995. Bell posted a two-year record of 14-4 with a 3.00 ERA and was twice named to the ACC Academic Honor Roll. He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education at Florida State in 1996 and previously spent two seasons as a pitcher at Hernando Community College, where he was a two-time All-Suncoast Conference selection.

Selected in the 20th round of the 1995 draft by the Montreal Expos, Bell spent six years in the minors, including the final three with the Baltimore Orioles' organization where he reached the Double-A level.

Bell is married to the former Alicia Favarato, a Florida State graduate, and the couple has two children, daughter, Alexis, and son, Kyler.
