GAME STORYLINES

- Pitt continues its 137th season of football Friday at Virginia Tech, opening its road schedule after four consecutive home victories. Both teams enter the matchup at 4-0 overall and 1-0 in the ACC, joining Duke and Miami as the conference's four remaining unbeaten teams.
- The Panthers and Hokies meet for the 24th time in a series that dates to 1993. Pitt leads 6-5 in ACC meetings and has won three of the past four matchups. The Panthers' most recent victory at Lane Stadium was a 28-7 decision in 2021.
- Pitt enters the game following a 59-0 victory over Bucknell that featured school records for total offense (766 yards), passing yards (574) and touchdown passes (eight). The eight touchdown passes also tied the ACC team record.
- Sophomore quarterback Mason Heintschel threw for 403 yards and six touchdowns without an interception against Bucknell. He became the first quarterback in ACC history to throw at least six touchdown passes in multiple games in a season and the first FBS player to accomplish the feat since 2021.
- Heintschel has completed 88-of-130 passes (67.7%) for 1,191 yards, 13 touchdowns and one interception. He ranks second in the ACC in touchdown passes, third in passing yards per game (297.8) and fourth in passing efficiency (176.11).
- Pitt's receiving depth was on display against Bucknell, with 13 Panthers catching passes and five scoring touchdowns. Censere Lee caught a career-high three touchdown passes, while Demetrice McCray became Pitt's first freshman with multiple touchdown receptions in a game since Tyler Boyd in 2013.
- True freshman Damon Ferguson Jr. leads Pitt with 239 rushing yards and 312 all-purpose yards. The Panthers enter their road opener averaging 176.5 rushing yards and 347.3 passing yards per game, ranking third in the ACC in total offense at 523.8 yards per contest.
- Friday's matchup pairs Pitt's ACC-leading scoring defense (8.5 points per game) with Virginia Tech's offense, which ranks second in the conference in scoring (43.3). The Panthers have held every opponent to 14 points or fewer and have not allowed a point in either the first or third quarter.
- Pitt ranks second in the ACC in total defense (244.5 yards per game) and rushing defense (53.3). The Panthers limited Bucknell to 136 total yards—the fourth-lowest opponent total under Pat Narduzzi—in recording their first shut-out since 2020.
- Narduzzi owns an 84-61 overall record and a 53-38 mark in ACC play. Friday will mark his school-record 146th game as Pitt's head coach and a return to the site of his first ACC victory, a 17-13 win at Virginia Tech in 2015.
- Pitt has won four consecutive road games, scoring at least 30 points in each while sweeping its 2025 trips to Florida State, Syracuse, Stanford and Georgia Tech. Scoring 30 points at Virginia Tech would give the Panthers five consecutive road games reaching that mark for the first time since a six-game stretch spanning 1976-77.
- The Panthers have won four consecutive Friday games and own a 4-1 Friday record under Narduzzi, including a 2-0 mark on the road. Pitt's most recent Friday appearance was a 37-35 victory over UCLA in the 2022 Sun Bowl.
- Kicker Antonio Chadha remains perfect on the season, converting all five field-goal attempts and all 18 extra-point attempts. He has made a field goal in every game, and his Pitt-record-tying 58-yarder against Miami (Ohio) remains the longest by an ACC player this season.

• The 2026 season marks Pat Narduzzi's 12th as Pitt's Chris Bickell '97 Head Football Coach. During his tenure, Narduzzi has led the Panthers to an ACC championship (2021) and two ACC Coastal Division titles (2018 and 2021).

• Narduzzi has compiled an 84-61 overall record. His 84 victories rank second all-time at Pitt, trailing only the legendary Jock Sutherland, who compiled 111 wins from 1924-38.

• With his 144th game as Pitt's head coach in Week 3 of 2026, Pat Narduzzi passed Hall of Famer Jock Sutherland for the most games coached in program history.

• From 2015-26, Narduzzi directed Pitt to 53 victories in ACC play, the conference's third-highest win total during that span, trailing only Clemson (77) and Miami (57).

• Over the 2021-22 seasons, Narduzzi directed the Panthers to a combined 20 wins. Pitt previously achieved 20 wins over a two-year span in 1981-82.

• In 2022, Pitt finished 9-4, including a stirring 37-35 win over nationally ranked UCLA in the Sun Bowl.

• Pitt finished 2022 in the national Top 25 for the second consecutive season, placing No. 22 in both major polls. It marked the first time since 1979-83 that Pitt earned Top 25 finishes in back-to-back years.

• In 2021, Narduzzi led Pitt to one of the most accomplished seasons in school history. The Panthers stormed to 11 victories—their most since 1981—and claimed their first outright conference title with a 45-21 triumph over Wake Forest in the ACC Championship Game.

• Pitt earned a No. 13 ranking in the final 2021 polls, its highest finish since 1982. Pitt placed No. 12 in the final College Football Playoff ratings, its highest ever.

• Narduzzi has coached 10 first team All-Americans at Pitt. In 2024, linebacker Kyle Louis was named a first team All-American by The Sporting News, the first Pitt sophomore defensive player to earn that distinction since the legendary Hugh Green in 1978.

• In 2021, quarterback Kenny Pickett won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award (nation's top upperclassman quarterback) and was a Heisman Trophy finalist, wide receiver Jordan Addison won the Biletnikoff Award (nation's outstanding receiver) and specialist Cal Adomitis earned the Patrick Mannelly Award (nation's top long snapper).

• Under Narduzzi's watch, Pitt continues to produce high-level NFL prospects. Over the past six NFL drafts (2021-26), the Panthers' 21 picks are the third most of any ACC program (trailing only Clemson and Miami.)

• Six Pitt products—Kancey, offensive tackle Carter Warren, running back Israel Abanikanda, linebacker SirVocea Dennis and safeties Erick Hallett II and Brandon Hill—were selected in the 2023 NFL Draft, the most in the ACC (tied with Clemson) and fifth most nationally.

• Kancey was drafted in the first round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, marking the second consecutive year Pitt produced a first-round pick. In the 2022 draft, quarterback Kenny Pickett was a first-round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers—the first Pitt QB to be picked in the opening round since Dan Marino in 1983.

• Narduzzi's Panthers have a well-earned reputation as a dangerous opponent for highly ranked foes. In 2019, Pitt scored a 35-34 triumph over UCF, which visited Heinz Field riding a 27-game non-bowl winning streak. The winning touchdown—a gadget-play pass caught by quarterback Kenny Pickett—has been immortalized as the "Pitt Special."

• In 2017, Pitt closed the season with a 24-14 victory over No. 2 Miami, which entered the game undefeated and on the cusp of the College Football Playoff.

• In 2016, the Panthers defeated two teams that finished in the top 5 of the final CFP rankings. Pitt gave No. 2 Clemson—that year's national champion—its only loss (43-42) and kept No. 5 Penn State out of the playoff field by defeating the Nittany Lions, 42-39.

• Pitt has also thrived off the field under Narduzzi's watch. During the 2021-22 academic year, Pitt led all college football programs in community service hours.

• During Narduzzi's tenure, Pitt has two recipients of the Disney Spirit Award, presented to the most inspirational figure in college football: James Conner (2016) and Tre Tipton (2021). Additionally, Deslin Al-

- In 2020, Pitt earned an NCAA Public Recognition Award for achieving an Academic Progress Rate (APR) score that ranked in the top 10% of all football programs. The Panthers' multi-year 988 APR set a Pitt football program record and was 24 points higher than the national average.

- Narduzzi arrived at Pitt following eight highly successful years as the defensive coordinator at Michigan State under Mark Dantonio. The Spartans were the only team to rank in the nation's top 10 in total defense and rushing defense each season from 2011-14.

- Michigan State boasted the nation's top rushing defense in 2014, yielding just 88.5 yards per game. The Spartans finished with a No. 5 national ranking and 11-2 record following a 42-41 victory over Baylor in the Cotton Bowl.

- In 2013, Michigan State finished No. 3 in the country following a Big Ten title and 24-20 victory over No. 5 Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Narduzzi was named the 2013 recipient of the prestigious Broyles Award, annually presented to the country's top assistant coach.

- Narduzzi tutored an impressive list of decorated defensive players at Michigan State, including first team All-Americans in cornerback Darqueze Dennard, safety Kurtis Drummond, linebacker Greg Jones and defensive tackle Jerel Worthy.

- Dennard was a unanimous All-American in 2013, becoming the first Michigan State cornerback to earn that distinction. He also was the school's first winner of the Jim Thorpe Award, given annually to college football's top defensive back.

- Dennard was a first-round NFL Draft pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in 2014, the first Spartans defensive back taken in the initial round since 1961. In the 2015 draft, another Narduzzi pupil, Michigan State cornerback Trae Waynes, was a first-round pick of the Minnesota Vikings.

- Prior to Michigan State, Narduzzi spent three years (2004-06) as defensive coordinator under Dantonio at Cincinnati, helping the Bearcats to a pair of bowl invitations.

- In 2003, Narduzzi was the defensive coordinator at Miami of Ohio under the late Terry Hoepfner. The RedHawks stormed to a 13-1 record that season, capturing the Mid-American Conference (MAC) championship and defeating nationally ranked Louisville in the GMAC Bowl to finish No. 10 in the Associated Press poll.

- While quarterback Ben Roethlisberger headlined Miami's offense, Narduzzi's stout unit topped the MAC in rushing defense (19th nationally), scoring defense (22nd nationally) and pass efficiency defense (34th nationally).

- Narduzzi served as linebackers coach at Northern Illinois for three seasons (2000-02). NIU won a pair of MAC divisional titles during his tenure and in 2002 had the league's top rushing defense.

- From 1993-99, Narduzzi coached at his alma mater, Rhode Island, serving as the Rams' defensive coordinator his final two seasons. He began his coaching career at Miami of Ohio, working as a graduate assistant in 1990 and 1991, before earning his first full-time position as receivers coach for the 1992 season.

- Narduzzi was an All-Ohio performer at Youngstown's Ursuline High School, leading the Irish to the Steel Valley championship and state playoffs as a senior in 1984.

- Narduzzi was a starting linebacker under his father, the late Bill Narduzzi, as a freshman at Youngstown State in 1985 before transferring to Rhode Island, where he became a three-year starter for the Rams from 1987-89.

- Bill Narduzzi was head coach at YSU from 1975-85. He led the Penguins to two NCAA Division II playoff appearances, including the national championship game in 1979, and twice was named the Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year. One of Bill's first coaching posts was as a freshman line coach at Pitt in 1962.
