

PRINCETON WRESTLING

9-4 OVERALL • 5-0 IVY LEAGUE

It's Not Where You Start... • Princeton has finished third at the EIWAs in each of the last three years, behind Lehigh and Cornell in either order. The finishes are Princeton's best since its last EIWA title, in 1978.

Individual Champ • Princeton had two EIWA individual champs in 2019 (Glory, 125; Brucki, 197) and 2017 (Kolodzik, 141; Laster, 149), the program's most in any year since two in 1978. Princeton has had more than two only once, in 1911 (four).

Dual Indication • It's a different format, but Princeton defeated both Lehigh and Cornell in dual matches this year, beating Lehigh 18-14 in Jadwin and Cornell 18-15 in Jadwin. The win over Lehigh was Princeton's second straight, a year after beating the Mountain Hawks for the first time since 1968, and it marked Princeton's first consecutive wins over Lehigh since the 1930s. Princeton's win over Cornell was its first since 1986, and with it, Princeton clinched at least a share of the Ivy League title for the first time since 1986. The next week, Princeton completed the outright Ivy title win, sweeping the league with a win over Penn.

Run of Dominance • No team other than Cornell and Lehigh have finished in the top two at EIWAs since 2013, when Navy finished second. No team other than Lehigh, which has won the last two EIWA titles, and Cornell, which won the 11 before that to end a Lehigh streak of five before that, has won the EIWA title since 2001, when Harvard won.

Familiar Faces • Princeton will return seven of its 10 competitors from last year's EIWAs, including Patrick Glory at 125, Marshall Keller at 141, Matthew Kolodzik at 149, Quincy Monday at 157, Kevin Parker at 174 (was 184), Travis Stefanik at 184 (was 174), and Patrick Brucki at 197. Princeton has two titles to defend, with Brucki's at 197 and Glory's at 125, and Kolodzik is a past champion, having won at 141 in 2017 and 149 in 2018.

What a Season Already! • Even before the potential that the EIWA and NCAA championships bring, 2019-20 has already been a season to remember. Beyond winning back-to-back matches against Lehigh for the first time since the 1930s, Princeton beat Cornell for the first time since 1986, won its first Ivy title since 1986, beat Rutgers for the first time since 1990, and swept New Jersey's other two Division I wrestling programs, Rutgers and Rider, for the first time since the 1982-83 season.

Coach Ayres • This will be Princeton's third visit to Lehigh for the EIWAs since 2001 Lehigh alum Chris Ayres took over. Princeton finished 12th in 2010 and seventh in 2015 under the 1998 EIWA champion at 150. Ayres is a four-time Ivy Coach of the Year (2016, 2017, 2019, 2020) and a 2017 EIWA Co-Coach of the Year.
