HEAD COACH MARK WASIKOWSKI

Mark Wasikowski, an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at the Universities of Oregon, Arizona, Florida as well as Southeast Missouri State during his career, was hired as the head coach of Purdue baseball in June 2016.

Wasikowski has played and coached in the College World Series. He helped lead teams to 14 NCAA Tournament appearances during a successful 20-year run as an assistant coach. He also won an NCAA championship as the starting third baseman and a captain on Pepperdine's 1992 College World Series team.

Wasikowski (pronounced WOZ-uh-COW-ski) played for and worked under three-time national Coach of the Year Andy Lopez for a combined 18 years. He was part of Lopez's coaching staffs at both Florida (1999-2001) and Arizona (2002-11) before joining George Horton's staff at Oregon in the summer of 2011, spending five seasons with Horton in Eugene. Wasikowski was an assistant coach on Arizona's 2004 College World Series team, the same year that Horton led Cal State Fullerton to the national title.

Wasikowski has been an assistant coach on teams that have made 11 NCAA Regional appearances since 2003, including six straight seasons from 2010 to 2015. Oregon qualified for the NCAA Tournament in four of his five years, hosting two Regionals and a 2012 Super Regional. When Lopez took over the Arizona program in 2001 with Wasikowski by his side, the Wildcats had been to one Regional in the last nine years. During Wasikowski's 10 years as an assistant in Tucson, Arizona qualified for the postseason seven times.

Wasikowski is the 20th head coach in Purdue's 129-year history, but only the Boilermakers' fourth full-time skipper since 1978.

Wasikowski has coached 117 players that have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, a list highlighted by 28 big leaguers. During his 10 seasons at Arizona, Wasikowski coached 59 Major League Baseball draft picks and 22 future big leaguers. As the recruiting coordinator, he assembled the Wildcats' 2012 national championship team, leaving for Oregon before the start of the 2011-12 school year. Oregon was one of only three teams nationally to win 40-plus games every year from 2012 to 2014. During his five seasons in Eugene, the Ducks had 23 players drafted. Oregon also had a perfect 1,000 APR score as recently as 2015.

Wasikowski was a two-time All-West Coast Conference honoree at Pepperdine after spending his first two collegiate seasons at Hawaii and Rancho Santiago Junior College. He was selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 1993 MLB Draft, but opted to remain at Pepperdine to finish his bachelor's degree in business administration while serving as a student assistant under Lopez during the 1994 season. He also has a master's of business administration from Southeast Missouri.

Wasikowski was inducted into the Pepperdine Athletics Hall of Fame along with all of his teammates from the 1992 national championship team. He led the Waves in doubles as a junior and hits as a senior, guiding Pepperdine back to the NCAA Tournament in 1993.

Wasikowski and his wife, Lori Jo, are the parents of two daughters, Joelle and Kelsey.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT MARK WASIKOWSKI...

George Horton – Head Coach at the University of Oregon

"I believe Mark Wasikowski is one of the brightest, up-and-coming baseball coaches in the country. There is no doubt that Mark will make a huge impact as the new leader at Purdue. We will miss Coach Waz and wish him great fortune."

Andy Lopez – Former Head Coach at Pepperdine, Florida & Arizona; Two-Time NCAA Champion

"Mark Wasikowski is more than ready to be a successful head coach. He will not only establish a winning culture, but he and his family will be a great addition to Purdue University and the community."

Mark Hogan – Head Coach at Southeast Missouri State From 1996 to 2012

"Mark is arguably the best recruiter in the country. He's going to be a tireless and energetic guy. His understanding of the inner workings of the game is off the charts, and they were that way almost 20 years ago when he was with me. What a great, great hire for Purdue. We are thrilled for Mark and his family."

Nick Hundley – Colorado Rockies Catcher, 2005 All-American at Arizona

"I never in my wildest dreams thought I'd go to Arizona. I thought I was going to Stanford or Tulane when Waz started recruiting me. I felt like he cared more about me than anyone I talked to in the recruiting process. He out recruited every other school. My dad was a college football coach for 41 years, and he told me during the process that Arizona will get good players if I went there because Waz could recruit and get players in there. Then when I got to school, he was more concerned with me as a person than he was with my performance. He stayed on me about school and put together a three-year graduation plan so I could be done with school if I signed after my junior year. As a player, I left Arizona much better than when I arrived. He was very good at the mental part of the game and pushing us to get to places we didn't know we could go. I still talk to Waz about once every three months. He is very loyal, and I would trust his character to run my program."

Robert Refsnyder – New York Yankees Second Baseman, 2012 College World Series MVP at Arizona

"I can't say enough about Waz. He was a diligent recruiter and true competitor. I have the upmost respect for him. He's a family man and a family coach. If you give your all as a player, he will give you everything he's got. Love that guy!"

Trevor Crowe – 2005 First Round MLB Draft Pick, 2005 All-American at Arizona

"My experience with Coach Waz at the University of Arizona was an important part of my development as a baseball player, but was more important to my development as a human being. I hope my child has the chance to develop as a baseball player and a man under the leadership of a man like Coach Waz."

BOILERMAKERS STREAKING INTO BIG TEN PLAY

- Purdue rides a six-game win streak into conference play after winning its final five games of the eight-game spring break trip in California plus the midweek opener at Ball State. The Boilermakers lead the Big Ten in runs scored, doubles, total bases, hit by pitch, sacrifice bunt and sacrifice flies.
- Purdue recorded season highs for hits (21) and runs (16) in the Ball State win. It was the team's first 20-hit game since a March 2015 win vs. Northern Illinois. The 16 runs were the most since scoring 19 in a win at East Tennessee State in March of last season.
- In their series win at Santa Clara, the Boilermakers swept a doubleheader for the first time since February 2015 vs. Sam Houston State in Corpus Christi, Texas, and swept a doubleheader on an opponent's home field for the first time since March 2012 at Ohio State.
- Purdue Won a four-game series on the road for the first time since February 2011 at Morehead State, swept a four-game series for the first time since April 2008 vs. Minnesota and swept a four-game series on the road for the first time since April 2001 at Northwestern.
- The Boilermakers have won a pair of non-conference series this year, their first on the road since March 2013 at Evansville.

RED-HOT HUNTER NAMED BIG FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

- After driving in the go-ahead run in three of the five wins on the spring break trip, Skyler Hunter was named the Big Ten Freshman of the Week. After recording he more hits and five RBI in the Ball State win, he has now hit safely in nine straight games. He's 10-for-19 with 13 RBI during the six-game win streak.
- Hunter has put together 17 productive plate appearances in his last 26 trips to the dish. He has a pair of three-run doubles, two walks, a hit by pitch, three sacrifice flies and a sac bunt during that stretch. With a runner on third base and less than two outs, he has drove in that runner in all seven of his opportunities.
- Hunter hit safely in every game of each of Purdue's three four-game series this season. Four-game series have not been as common since the Big Ten switched from four- to three-game conference week-ends beginning in 2009, but he's the first Boilermaker to accomplish the feat since 2008 nonetheless.

DALESANDRO NAMED TO JOHNNY BENCH AWARD WATCH LIST

- Nick Dalesandro is part of the first edition of the watch list for the 2017 Johnny Bench Award, which recognizes the top Division I catcher. The sophomore opened the season as the starting catcher and remains a valuable versatile performer, also starting game in all three outfield positions for the Boilermakers.
- Dalesandro has heated up at the plate in March. He entered the month just 4-for-26 with no extra-base hits. But he's now reached base safely in 15 straight games, batting .407 (24-for-59) with seven extra-base hits and 16 RBI. He homered in back-to-back games at Southeast Missouri, the first two long balls of his collegiate career, and drove in a run in the first six games of March. He was 14-for-32 (.438) with five doubles and eight RBI on the spring break trip.
- Dalesandro joins Kevin Plawecki (2011, 2012), Sean McHugh (2014) and Jack Picchiotti (2016) as recent Purdue players to be on the Johnny Bench Award watch list. Plawecki was one of three finalists in 2012 after being among the 15 semifinalists the year before. McHugh also advanced to the semifinalist list in 2014.
- Drafted by the Detroit Tigers in June 2015 after his senior year of high school, Dalesandro has started games in left field (34), at catcher (26), in center field (4), at pitcher (4), designated hitter (3) and in right field (2) as a Boilermaker. Rare is the college player who is able to handle the defensive needs and responsibilities of both catcher and center field.

ANDREWS NAMED BIG TEN PITCHER OF THE WEEK AGAIN

- Tanner Andrews retired 27 of the 32 batters he faced in his first career complete-game shutout, striking out eight in the series opener at Southeast Missouri. He did not allow the leadoff man to reach base safely until the ninth inning, working five 1-2-3 frames total. He didn't allow a runner to reach third base and was most dominant against the four through nine hitters, a segment of the SEMO order that was a combined 1-for-20. He posted his shutout in a ballpark that yielded a combined 42 runs over the final two games of the series.
- Andrews is the fourth Boilermaker to win Big Ten Pitcher of the Week at least twice in the same season. Around the Big Ten, OSU's Brad Goldberg (first two weeks of 2013) was the last pitcher to win it twice over the first three weeks. Andrews pitched Purdue's first complete-game shutout on the road since May 2012.
- Andrews struck out a career-high 10, the most by a Purdue pitcher since March 2012, over 7 2/3 shut-out innings at Santa Clara. Dating back to the final weekend of 2016, four of his last seven appearances in the mound have come in shutout wins for the Boilermakers.

BOILERMAKERS HIT SEVEN HOMERS AT SEMO

- Purdue won its series at Southeast Missouri behind Tanner Andrews' complete-game shutout Friday and the lineup producing 13 runs Saturday. The Boilermakers hit seven homers, including six of the two-run variety, over the final two games of the series. Nick Dalesandro and John LeGare both homered on consecutive days. Harry Shipley also connected for his first collegiate long ball. Alec Olund and Jacson McGowan went deep as well.
- Purdue's four home runs in the 13-5 middle game win were its most since also hitting four in a May 2012 win at Iowa. Meanwhile, the seven homers were the Boilermakers' most in a series in the BBCOR bat era (2011-present). Purdue had not hit seven homers against a single opponent since a March 2010 two-game midweek series at Missouri. It had been since April 2006 at Indiana for the last time the Boilermakers had seven long balls in a weekend series.
- Led by Andrews, the Boilermakers have won their first game of a weekend in each of the first three weekends of a season for the first time since 2012. But things have not come as easy on Sundays. Purdue is 0-3 on Sundays, getting outscored 44-12 while surrendering a double-figure run total in all three losses.
