– AROUND THE HORN –
• The Boilermakers host Nebraska for the opening weekend of Big Ten play. Purdue's first home series is part of a stretch in which the team plays 19 of its 22 games in the state of Indiana. That stretch began with last weekend's series at Kokomo Municipal Stadium.
• The Boilermakers won two of three at Nebraska last season, posting their first series victory in Big Ten play since March 2013 at Penn State. Purdue won the series by taking the final two games of weekend. It was the Boilers' first rubber game win Big Ten play since 2012 (at Nebraska) and first time they had won a Big Ten series after dropping the opening game since May 2009 (at Michigan State).
• The road team has won seven of the nine meetings since Nebraska joined the Big Ten in 2012. Purdue won two of three in Lincoln in 2012 and 2015 and Huskers swept a three-game series at Alexander Field in 2013.
• Nebraska enters the weekend as the hottest team in the Big Ten, winning 10 of its last 11 after starting the season 3-6. The Huskers went 8-1 on a nine-game homestand and won both games of a two-game midweek series at Indiana State this week.

Players in bold reached the Big Leagues

Since Doug Schreiber was named Purdue's head baseball coach on May 29, 1998, the Boilermakers have become a major force in the Big Ten Conference and have made big strides on a national level.

Currently in his 18th season as the leader of the program, Schreiber is the program's all-time leader in overall wins and Big Ten wins. He eclipsed Dave Alexander's record for games coached (792 over 14 seasons) during the second weekend of the 2013 season. Schreiber played for Alexander at Purdue from 1983-86.

Purdue unveiled its new Alexander Field stadium and facilities during the 2012-13 school year, but the first two seasons at the new ballpark turned out to be rebuilding years for the Boilermakers after losing 15 seniors and three junior MLB draftees from the 2012 Big Ten championship team. As of July 2014, 10 members of the 2012 championship team had signed with MLB organizations at some point in their post-college careers.

In the five seasons between 2008 and 2012, Purdue went 172-110 overall (.610) and 75-51 in Big Ten play (.595). Both records represented the best marks in the league. The Boilermakers were the only conference team to qualify for the Big Ten Tournament each of those five seasons, the longest such streak in program history. Purdue has won at least one game at the Big Ten Tournament in nine of its 10 appearances under Schreiber.

The 2015 Boilermakers won their final five games and six of their last seven, posting their third longest season-ending win streak in program history. Kyle Wood won the team triple crown in 2015, becoming the first hitter to do so since 2007 and the 11th Boilermaker position player since 1970 to accomplish the feat.

After playing six NCAA Regional qualifiers throughout the season, including four opponents that were among the 16 Regional hosts, Purdue's strength of schedule in 2014 ranked among the Top 25 nationally for much of the year. The Boilermakers' eight extra-inning affairs were the most in Schreiber's tenure as well as the most in the Big Ten. Purdue also played in 17 one-run games, but managed just a 5-12 record in those contests.

During its historic 2012 season, Purdue won a program-record 45 games, captured a pair of Big Ten titles, earned the right to host an NCAA Regional and closed out Lambert Field in thrilling fashion. Schreiber was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year after leading the Boilers to the most wins by a Big Ten team since 2008. He won his 400th and program-record 408th career games at Lambert in the spring of 2012. His 408th victory as the leader of the program, April 15 in the finale of a series sweep of Illinois, made him Purdue's all-time wins leader.

The Boilermakers began the 2012 season 14-1, won 10 consecutive games twice, posted their 20th win before April 1 for the first time, reached the 30-win mark at the earliest date (April 20) in program history and won their first Big Ten title since 1909.

Headlined by Kevin Plawecki's selection 35th overall by the New York Mets, Purdue had a program-record seven players picked in the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Juniors Plawecki, Cameron Perkins and Nick Wittgren were each selected in the first 10 rounds to give the Boilers three players drafted in the first 300 picks for the first time. Six times since 2006 multiple Boilers have been selected in the same draft. Highlighted by Big Ten Player and Pitcher of the Year honors for Plawecki and Joe Haase, Purdue had a program-high eight all-conference honorees in 2012.

Schreiber has coached 62 All-Big Ten Conference selections, including 22 who were named to the conference's First Team, and has had players selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft on 32 occasions.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Purdue, Schreiber spent four seasons (1995-98) as the top assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under Pat Murphy at Arizona State University. Schreiber helped guide Arizona State to the College World Series and the national championship game in 1998. All four of Schreiber's recruiting classes at ASU were nationally ranked, including the 1995 class which was ranked No. 1 in the country and the 1996 class, which was tabbed the third best in the nation.

Before going to ASU, Schreiber served as an assistant coach for Murphy at the University of Notre Dame in 1994. That season, the Fighting Irish finished 46-16 and ended the season just two wins shy of Omaha. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ball State (1991-92) and spent 1993 as an assistant at Butler.

A native of LaPorte, Ind., Schreiber was a four-year starter (1983-86) at second base for the Boilermakers. During his career, Purdue posted a 120-112-2 mark and established a school-record 37 victories his senior season when he was a Second Team All-Big Ten selection. Schreiber still ranks among Purdue's career leaders in a variety of categories, including first all-time in walks (132) and games played (226), sixth in runs scored (159) and tied for eighth in triples (9). He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications and has completed some course work towards a master's in education.

Active Multi-Year Purdue Letter-Winners Only

WOOD ON A HOME RUN TEAR

• Kyle Wood has gone deep four games in a row and eight times in the last 11 games. The left-handed hitter has connected for five of the eight home runs to the opposite field and another to straight away center. He leads the Big Ten in long balls and ranks sixth nationally in home runs per game. Wood became just the sixth player in program history to reach the 20-homer benchmark for his career. His eight home runs this season are already a season career high and the most by a Purdue player since Cameron Perkins hit nine in 2012. Wood is looking to become the first Boilermaker to record a double-figure homer campaign in the BBCOR bat era (2011-present). Dan Black hit 15 homers in 2009.

• Wood is the first Boilermaker since at least the beginning of the 2005 season to go deep in four consecutive games. However, Black hit four homers over the course of four consecutive games on three occasions while hitting a combined 33 homers between 2008 and 2009.

• Wood and Kyle Johnson (five) have accounted for all 13 of Purdue's home runs this season. Together they have out homered more than half the Big Ten. Entering the weekend, Minnesota (11), Michigan State (10), Illinois (10), Iowa (7), Michigan (5), Penn State (5) and Northwestern (4) have all hit fewer homers that Purdue's senior duo. Many of those Big Ten rivals also have fewer homers than Wood alone.

GRAND SLAMS PILING UP

• The Boilermakers hit a grand slam in each of their first two midweek games of the season. Kyle Johnson connected for his second slam of the season March 22 at Ball State and Kyle Wood hit his first collegiate slam in the home opener against Louisville. Johnson is the first Boilermaker to hit two grand slams in the same season since Drew Madia in 2009. Madia (2007-10) hit three in his career altogether. Going back to the grand slams hit by Ted Snidanko and Jack Picchiotti in March of last season, Purdue has five in a little over a year. The Boilermakers only hit two grand slam total in the three season from 2011 to 2014.

EARLY BIG INNING BURNING BOILERMAKERS AS OF LATE

• Purdue did a decent job of avoiding big innings over the first month of the season, giving up four-plus runs in a frame only twice over the first 15 games. But while giving up nine runs in each of its last three games, all losses, the Boilermakers have the seen the opposition score four-plus runs in an inning early in each game. Of the 27 runs allowed in the last three games, 21 have been scored in the first three innings. Ohio and Louisville both scored four runs in the top of the first before Purdue even came to the plate.

• Starting pitchers have not been able to go deep for the Boilermakers. Only once (Tanner Andrews on Friday at ETSU) has a Purdue starter worked six innings. Conversely, in six of the Boilers' 16 weekend games, their starter failed to make it through the third inning. Purdue is 1-5 in those six games.

SHIPLEY AMONG TOP DEFENSIVE SHORTSTOPS IN THE BIG TEN

• Sophomore Harry Shipley has started 72 consecutive games at shortstop, every game since the start of last season. After leading the Big Ten in defensive assists through the end of the regular season a year ago, he's once again among the top defensive shortstops in the league. He has committed just one error in 106 defensive chances, his .991 fielding percentage ranking as the best among Big Ten shortstops. Only Nebraska's Jake Schleppenbach (.989) has a comparable fielding percentage and just two other shortstops have fielding percentages better than .970. Shipley's 67 defensive assists are the most in the conference.

FRAWLEY EXCELLENT IN RELIEF

• Matt Frawley enters the weekend ranked seventh in the Big Ten in ERA (1.61) and eighth in batting average against (.218), putting up his strong numbers despite not starting a game. He has worked at least four innings of effective relief in each of the last three weekends, helping Purdue win all three games in which he took the mound. He worked seven innings of one-run ball in the 15-inning win against Ohio, keeping OU off the scoreboard after the fifth inning and remaining on the hill through the top of the 11th as he and Alex Lyons teamed up post 10 consecutive scoreless innings.

• Frawley also worked the final four frames of the shutout of North Dakota, teaming up with Mike Lutz for Purdue's first shutout since April 2015 vs. Ball State. Frawley's 7 2/3 innings pitched and six strikeouts at ETSU were both career highs. It was the longest relief outing by a Purdue pitcher since April 2013.

• In Purdue's comeback win at Georgia State on Feb. 21, Tanner Schumacher retired all 12 batters he faced over four perfect innings of relief.

PURDUE WINS THIRD-LONGEST GAME IN PROGRAM HISTORY ON WALK-OFF BUNT

• The Boilermakers rallied to win the middle game of the Ohio series in 15 innings. Alec Olund delivered the game-winning hit, a two-out bunt single with the runners on the corners. It was the third-longest game in program history and Purdue's first walk-off win since February 2015 vs. Sam Houston State (in Corpus Christi), game in which Olund scored the game-winning run on a sacrifice fly. Olund also had a two-out RBI bunt single in the March 5 win at ETSU.

• Alex Lyons escaped a one-out bases-loaded jam in the 12th inning to keep the game tied. Matt Frawley retired 13 of the final 14 batters he faced amid seven innings of one-run relief. Kyle Wood hit a game-tying home run in the eighth inning as the Boilers rallied from a 4-1 deficit.

CUTTING DOWN RUNNERS AT THE PLATE

• Purdue has thrown out seven runners at the plate over the last five games. Five of those runners were cutdown while trying to score on hits that reached the outfield.

WOOD ECLIPSES HIT BY PITCH RECORD
• Kyle Wood was hit by a pitch for the 41st time in his career in the March 22 loss at Ball State, eclipsing Kevin Plawecki's program record. It was the first Purdue all-time record to change hands since Robert Ramer finished his career in 2013 with the best fewest walks per nine innings ratio in program history. A year earlier during the Boilermakers' Big Ten championship season, Nick Wittgren broke the saves record and Eric Charles eclipsed the runs scored benchmark (along with Plawecki taking the hit by pitch record).
• Just as Plawecki did not hold the HBP record very look, Wood's stay atop the all-time leaderboard could also be short lived. Harry Shipley has already been plunked 20 times before the halfway point of his sophomore season.

CLOSER TO HOME FINALLY
• After playing its first 13 games in four different states (Georgia, California, Tennessee and Kansas), the schedule has finally turned in Purdue's favor in terms of travel. The Boilermakers are close out the month of March with a five-game homestand and nine straight games in the state of Indiana. And there's really only one long trip (April 1-3 at Penn State) on tap during the next 22 games. Purdue is scheduled to play 19 of those 22 games in the state of Indiana and 11 of those 19 in-state games at Alexander Field. The home opener is set for Wednesday, March 23. Last season, the Boilermakers were 12-15 (.444) in games played in Indiana and 8-19 (.296) in games played elsewhere.

DALESANDRO'S 11-GAME HIT STREAK LONGEST AMONG ACTIVE BOILERS
• Freshman Nick Dalesandro already had an 11-game hitting streak this season. It began when he delivered a two-run double with the bases loaded to break a 3-3 tie in the Feb. 21 win at Georgia State and ended in the March 18 series opener against Ohio. The streak already ranks as the longest career hitting streak among active Boilermakers. Harry Shipley and Kyle Wood both had 10-game hitting streaks last season and Kyle Johnson posted a 10-gamer in 2013. Overall, Dalesandro's hit streak was the longest by a Boilermaker since Sean McHugh and Brandon Krieg had 12-game streaks in 2014.
• Dalesandro was 15-for-38 (.395) with three doubles and six RBI during the streak. He recorded a hit in his first at-bat in five of the 10 games after delivering the game-winning double. This year Dalesandro has become the first Boilermaker since Kyle Wood in April 2014 to bat in the lineup in the same game he was the starting pitcher. But it February 2014 (Wood again) the last time it happened in a weekend game. After getting chased from the mound in the bottom of the second inning of his start at ETSU, he delivered another bases-loaded two-run double the following frame to ignite the Purdue comeback.
• Fellow freshman Jacson McGowan saw his six-game hitting streak and eight-game reached base safely streak end in the March 12 loss at Kansas. He came through with a rare two-run sac fly with the bases loaded in the fourth inning of the 19-6 win at ETSU. The center fielder made a diving catch to take away a double, but Jack Picchiotti was able to score from second on the play.

JOHNSON & WOOD PRODUCE A NUMBER OF FIRST TIMES SINCE AT ETSU
• There were a combined 11 home runs hit in the four-game series at East Tennessee State, including six by Purdue's Kyle Johnson and Kyle Wood. Both seniors recorded their first collegiate multi-homer games, joining Alec Olund as active Boilermakers to accomplish the feat. Purdue's three home runs in the 19-6 win were the team's most in a game since hitting four in a May 2012 win at Iowa that clinched the outright Big Ten title. The 27 runs the Boilermakers scored in the March 5 doubleheader at ETSU were their most in a single day since putting up 35 in a doubleheader sweep at Morehead State in February 2011.
• Johnson had career-highs of four hits and six RBI in his multi-homer game, the 19-6 Purdue win. He hit the first grand slam by a Boilermaker since Jack Picchiotti in the 2015 Big Ten opener vs. Rutgers. His 10 total bases were the most by a Boilermaker since Sean McHugh had 12 as part of a multi-homer game in May 2013. Johnson hit his grand slam in the seventh inning and a two-run shot the following frame, becoming the first Boilermaker since Cameron Perkins in May 2012 (at Iowa) to go deep in consecutive innings.
• Wood homered three times in the Saturday doubleheader, doing deep twice in the nightcap. He became the first Boilermaker since Perkins in February 2011 to homer in both games of a doubleheader. His three home runs in one day were the most by a Boilermaker since Dan Black's three-homer game against Indiana at the 2008 Big Ten Tournament.
