ALL-TIME JERSEY NUMBERS

Nearly 1,000 players have worn the Boilermaker baseball uniform in the 117-year history of the team. Baseball, along with football, was one of the first two intercollegiate sport played in the tradition-rich history of Purdue athletics (1887-1888).

The following is the numerical roster of all Purdue baseball letterwinners since 1965.

If a correction needs to be made, please contact the Purdue Sports Information Office.

PURDUE IN THE DRAFT

Since 1965, Major League Baseball has conducted a first-year player draft, in which each major league team selects players from high schools, junior colleges, and four-year universities. Since the inception of the draft, 38 Boilermakers have been selected.

In the 40 years of the draft, three Boilermakers have been selected in the first round. In 1992, Sherard Clinkscales was tabbed as Purdue's initial first-rounder, selected by the Kansas City Royals in the supplemental first round with the 31st overall selection. Jermaine Allensworth followed as a first-rounder the next year, as he was picked by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the supplemental first round with the 34th overall selection. Most recently, Chadd Blasko was selected in the supplemental first round of the 2002 draft by the Chicago Cubs with the 36th overall pick.

In the 2004 draft, Purdue added one more to the ranks of professional baseball as third baseman Simon Klink was selected in the 21st round by the San Francisco Giants.

Below is a comprehensive list of former Purdue players selected in the draft.
