HEAD COACH DOUG SCHREIBER

Since Doug Schreiber was named Purdue's head baseball coach on May 29, 1998, the Boilermakers have become a major force in the Big Ten Conference and have made big strides on a national level.

Currently in his 15th season as the leader of the program, Schreiber is the program's all-time leader in overall wins and Big Ten wins. In 2007, Schreiber became the third head coach in Purdue baseball history to surpass the 500-games mark as the Boilermakers' head man. Dave Alexander, whom Schreiber played for from 1983 to 1986, owns the record for most games coached at Purdue with 792 over 14 seasons. Schreiber has been in the third base coach's box for 787 games through 14 years and will break Alexander's record for games coached early in 2013.

During its historic 2012 season, Purdue won a program-record 45 games, captured a pair of Big Ten titles, earned the right to host an NCAA Regional and closed out Lambert Field in thrilling fashion. Schreiber was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year after leading the Boilers to the most wins by a Big Ten team since 2008. He won his 400th and program-record 408th career games at Lambert in the spring of 2012. His 408th victory as the leader of the program, April 15 in the finale of a series sweep of Illinois, made him Purdue's all-time wins leader.

The Boilermakers began the 2012 season 14-1, won 10 consecutive games twice, posted their 20th win before April 1 for the first time, reached the 30-win mark at the earliest date (April 20) in program history and won their first Big Ten title since 1909. In its 16 games during the final year at Lambert, the home of the program since 1965, Purdue won three times in walk-off fashion and locked up the Big Ten title May 12 in front of a large group of program alumni.

In the five seasons between 2008 and 2012, Purdue went 172-110 overall (.610) and 75-51 in Big Ten play (.595). Both records represented the best marks in the league. The Boilermakers were the only conference team to qualify for the Big Ten Tournament each of those five seasons, the longest such streak in program history. Purdue has won at least one game at the Big Ten Tournament in eight of its nine appearances under Schreiber.

Headlined by Plawecki's selection 35th overall by the New York Mets, Purdue had a program-record seven players picked in the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Juniors Plawecki, Cameron Perkins and Nick Wittgren were each selected in the first 10 rounds to give the Boilers three players drafted in the first 300 picks for the first time. A program-record seven players were drafted overall in 2012.

Purdue's 37 overall wins in 2011 tied the program's previous single-season record and were the most in the Big Ten. Despite being picked eighth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Boilers finished third in the league with a 14-10 conference record, just one game shy of first. Purdue finished second in the Big Ten standings under Schreiber in 2001, 2005 and 2008.

Schreiber has coached 62 All-Big Ten Conference selections, including 22 who were named to the conference's First Team, and has had players selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft on 30 occasions. One of Schreiber's Boilermakers has led the Big Ten in hitting in four out of the last eight years.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Purdue, Schreiber spent four seasons (1995-98) as the top assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under Pat Murphy at Arizona State University. Schreiber helped guide Arizona State to the College World Series and the national championship game in 1998. A year earlier, the Sun Devils finished as regional runners-up to Miami, and were two outs away from going to the College World Series. All four of Schreiber's recruiting classes at ASU were nationally ranked, including the 1995 class which was ranked No. 1 in the country and the 1996 class, which was tabbed the third best in the nation.

Before going to ASU, Schreiber served as an assistant coach for Murphy at the University of Notre Dame in 1994. That season, the Fighting Irish finished 46-16 and ended the season just two wins shy of Omaha, finishing as regional runners-up to Auburn.

Schreiber began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Pat Quinn at Ball State University for two seasons (1991-92) and spent one year (1993) as an assistant at Butler University.

A native of LaPorte, Ind., Schreiber was a four-year starter (1983-86) at second base for the Boilermakers. During his career, Purdue posted a 120-112-2 mark and established a school-record 37 victories his senior season when he was a Second Team All-Big Ten selection. Schreiber still ranks among Purdue's career leaders in a variety of categories, including top-six ranking in four categories. Schreiber ranks first all-time in walks (132), fourth in runs scored (159), tied for third in games played (220) and tied for sixth in triples (9). He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications and has completed some course work towards a master's in education.

– BOILERMAKERS TRAVEL TO MISSISSIPPI FOR ANOTHER FOUR-GAME WEEKEND –

As Purdue baseball travels to Starkville, Miss., for the first time since the 1987 NCAA Regionals, the Boilermakers have another four-game weekend on tap at the Diamond Classic at Dudy Noble Field.

The three-team field of No. 5 Mississippi State (5-0), Samford (4-1) and Purdue (2-2) is comprised of three teams that earned automatic bids to the 2012 NCAA Tournament by winning the postseason tournaments of their respective conferences. They were a combined 126-61 a year ago.

The Boilermakers take on Samford Friday at 3:30 p.m. ET and Sunday at noon ET. The two teams are scheduled to play five times over the next two weeks, with Purdue visiting the SU campus in the Birmingham suburb of Homewood, Ala., next weekend for a three-game series.

Mississippi State is ranked as high as fifth nationally in the Baseball America Top 25 poll, representing the Boilers' second top-five opponent of the young season. Purdue takes on the Bulldogs at 7 p.m. ET Friday and Saturday evening.

The Boilermakers' 15th-year head coach Doug Schreiber is set to coach in career games No. 792 and 793 at Purdue Friday. In doing so, he will eclipse Dave Alexander's program record for games as head coach. Schreiber played for Alexander from 1983-86 and surpassed his skipper's all-record for victories (407) in April of last season.

Alexander was the leader of the Boilers when they earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament Regionals and were sent to Starkville for the 1987 postseason. Current senior Angelo Cianfrocco's father Archi was the team's standout shortstop that season and later selected in the 1987 MLB First-Year Player Draft. The 1987 Boilers dropped games to Texas A&M and Western Carolina at the Starkville Regional in what was the program's only NCAA Tournament appearance until last season.

Meanwhile, Purdue will be making its first appearance in the state of Mississippi since getting swept in a three-game series at Ole Miss in March 2005.

The Boilermakers' season-opening weekend at the Big East/Big Ten Challenge was highlighted by a seven-run inning, three-run homer from Conner Hudnall, some gutsy pitching against No. 4 Louisville by Kyle Wood in his Purdue debut and a complete-game victory by senior Robert Ramer. Hudnall became the last Boiler to homer in a season opener since Cameron Perkins in 2010, who was also the last player to go deep in his team debut. Josh Estill and Wood started games at three different positions. Wood batted sixth in the lineup as the starting pitcher in the game against Louisville. In doing so, he became the first Purdue player since Daniel Underwood in 2003 to bat in the lineup in the same game in which he was the starting pitcher.

A year ago, the Boilers played in a four-team tournament hosted by the University of Auburn. Purdue's Friday evening victory against the host Tigers represented the program's first win against a Southeastern Conference opponent since defeating Georgia in the middle game of a February 2007 series in Athens. The Boilermakers have not played Mississippi State since 1936.

Samford and MSU are also scheduled to play twice this weekend. They met as recently as the 2012 Tallahassee Regional, at which Samford won both meetings.

The last time Purdue played the Samford Bulldogs they were still a member of the Ohio Valley Conference. The Boilermakers won two-of-three in Birmingham during an eight-game spring break trip through Alabama in March 2007. The Samford program has been on the rise since winning the OVC regular-season title in 2006, later joining the Southern Conference in time for the 2009 baseball season and making its first Regional appearance last year.

Mississippi State boasts a rich baseball history that features prominent alumni like Will Clark, Rafael Palmeiro, Jonathan Papelbon, Jeff Brantley and Bobby Thigpen, who went on to enjoy successful Major League careers. The Bulldogs have eight College World Series appearances, their last coming in 2007. After missing out on the NCAA Regionals from 2008 through 2010, MSU has been back in the postseason the last two years.

Dudy Noble Field-DeMent Stadium is one of the largest on-campus baseball facilities in the country and set an NCAA record with a crowd of nearly 15,000 fans for a big Southeastern Conference doubleheader against Florida in 1989. The No. 5 preseason ranking for MSU this year was its highest since 1989.

Mississippi State opened its new season with a four-game sweep of Portland and then shutout Grambling 2-0 in a midweek game Tuesday. The Bulldogs have surrendered only three runs in their first five games. Probable MSU starting pitchers vs. Purdue, Jacob Lindgren and Kendall Grave-man, both started NCAA Regional games last year and earned wins against Portland during the season-opening weekend with quality starts. Shortstop Adam Frazier, outfielder Hunter Renfroe and closer Jonathan Holder were all preseason All-Americans.

Samford is led by standout outfielder Phillip Ervin, a preseason All-American and the SoCon Preseason Player of the Year. He batted .330 with 18 doubles, nine home runs, 45 RBI and 14 stolen bases as a sophomore. C.K. Irby is the team's top two-way player and could start Friday against the Boilers. He closed out the two wins against MSU at the Tallahassee Regional last season.

Samford won three-of-four against Youngstown State at home during the season-opening weekend and defeated Alabama A&M in midweek action Tuesday. The Bulldogs have posted a double-figure run total in three of their first five games.

BOILERMAKERS RETURN TO STARKVILLE FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1987 REGIONALS

• After going 2-2 at the season-opening Big East/Big Ten Challenge, Purdue is set for another four-game weekend. The Boilermakers head to Starkville, Miss., this weekend for the three-team Diamond Classic at Dudy Noble. Ranked fifth by Baseball America, Mississippi State represents the second top-five team Purdue will have played this year. The Boilers also play Samford five times over the next two weeks.
• All three teams in Starkville this weekend participated in the 2012 NCAA Regionals, posting a combined 126-61 record a year ago. Purdue's last visit to Starkville, was for the 1987 NCAA Regionals. That was the Boilers' only national postseason appearance until last season. Meanwhile, Samford defeated MSU twice at the Tallahassee Regional last year.

HIGHS & LOWS OF THE SEASON-OPENING WEEKEND

• Thanks to victories against Connecticut to open and close the Big East/Big Ten Challenge, Purdue posted a 2-2 record in Florida and teamed with Indiana to help the Big Ten win the Challenge, 4-3. The first two days of the new season featured some highs and lows. Friday, the Boilers scored seven times in the fourth inning and used the big inning to beat UConn, 11-8. Brandon Krieg and Stephen Talbott delivered consecutive two-run doubles during the rally. The next day against South Florida, Purdue gave up nine runs in the first inning and got blown out 20-2. It marked the first time the Boilers had surrendered 20-plus runs since a March 2010 loss at Missouri. Notre Dame's 11-run rally at the 2011 Big East/Big Ten Challenge represented the last time Purdue gave up nine-plus runs in an inning.
• The Boilermakers were much more competitive on Sunday, splitting games with No. 4 Louisville and UConn. Thanks to a four-run third inning, Purdue was tied with the Cardinals, 4-4, until the eighth inning. Louisville scored five times off the Boilers' bullpen in the final two frames to win the game, 9-4. But thanks to a three-run first inning and Robert Ramer's complete-game effort, Purdue bounced back to beat UConn, 5-3, in the nightcap Sunday. The Boilermakers have won three straight season openers and are 4-0 versus Connecticut over the last three seasons.

ESTILL NAMED BIG TEN FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

• Josh Estill hit safely in all four games while making starts at three different positions during the season-opening weekend, earning Big Ten co-Freshman of the Week honors for his impressive collegiate debut. He finished the weekend a team-best 7-for-15, reaching base safely in 10 of his 17 plate appearances. The San Diego area native started the first two games at designated hitter. In Sunday's doubleheader against Louisville and Connecticut, he was the starting catcher in game one and the first baseman in the nightcap.
• Estill had three hits in the season-opening win against Connecticut Friday. He reached base safely twice during the Boilers' seven-run fourth inning rally. Sunday versus No. 4 Louisville, he had two hits, including an RBI single with the bases loaded during Purdue's four-run third inning rally that tied the game.
• Sean McHugh (6-for-15) also hit safely and Jake Hansen (4-for-10, 3 walks) reached base safely in all four games of the season-opening weekend at the Big East/Big Ten Challenge.
• Estill was one of 14 new players to make their Purdue debuts over the weekend. Eleven of those 14 players were true freshmen. Estill's classmates Eddie De LaRiva and Patrick Kenney earned the win and the save in the season opener against Connecticut, respectively.

HUDNALL GOES DEEP IN PURDUE DEBUT

• Consecutive two-out singles from Brandon Krieg and Stephen Talbott set the stage for Conner Hudnall's three-run homer in the fifth inning of the season-opening win against Connecticut. The long ball put the Boilers in front 10-2 and they went on to win, 11-8. Hudnall, a junior college transfer from Glen Oaks in Michigan, became the first Purdue player to homer in a season opener since Cameron Perkins in 2010. Perkins was also the last Boiler to go deep in his debut with the team.
• Hudnall finished the weekend with a team-best five RBI, driving in a run in three of the four games. From right field, he also threw out a runner at home plate who was trying to tag up and score on a fly ball out in the first inning of the Connecticut win on Sunday. It was the first of three double plays turned by Purdue in support of Robert Ramer's complete-game effort on the mound.

WOOD BECOMES FIRST PURDUE STARTING PITCHER TO BAT SINCE 2003

• Redshirt-freshman Kyle Wood started three of the four games in his first weekend of action with Purdue. He started the season-opening win vs. UConn at first base, the loss to South Florida in right field and the game against No. 4 Louisville on the mound. He also batted sixth in the game against Louisville, becoming the first Purdue starting pitcher to bat in the lineup since Daniel Underwood did it five times over the final month of the 2003 campaign.
• Wood and the Boilers found themselves down 4-0 to Louisville entering the bottom of the third, when Purdue rallied to tie the score. The Chicagoland native recorded an RBI during the four-run rally. But more importantly he shut the Cardinals down after the third inning, working four scoreless frames before giving way to the bullpen after escaping a jam in the seventh. Having not recorded a strikeout yet, the lefty fanned the No. 3 and No. 5 hitters in the lineup for the final two outs of the seventh inning, leaving the potential tying run on third base.

PURDUE LOOKS TO DEFEND BIG TEN TITLE WITH REVAMPED ROSTER

• Upperclassmen, specifically seniors, were a driving force behind Purdue's program-record 45-win season and Big Ten title in 2012. The Boilermakers graduated 15 seniors and also lost three juniors that were selected in the MLB First-Year Player from last season's team. Not all of those roster spots will be filled by true freshmen this season but there will be a large number of newcomers on the official 35-man roster nonetheless.
• Looking at the 28-man travel roster for the Mississippi State, 11 true freshmen and 14 newcomers are expected to make the trip. Cody Webster is part of the travel roster for the first time this weekend. The junior made the team as a left-handed pitcher during preseason practice. He is also the punter on the Purdue football team. Travis Dorsch was the last student-athlete to play football (1998-01) and baseball (1999-00) at Purdue. He was a punter/kicker on the football team and pitcher for baseball. Dorsch later played in the NFL.

TALBOTT LOOKING TO CLOSE CAREER AS THREE-YEAR STARTING OUTFIELDER

• A constant in left field and in the nine hole the last two years, Stephen Talbott enters his senior season as the Boilers' projected leadoff man and center fielder. The New Jersey native has batted over .300 in each of his first three years at Purdue and enters 2013 with a .322 career average. He's also 37-of-42 in career stolen base attempts. Talbott began his career a perfect 30-of-30 stealing bases before finally being thrown out for the first time in April 2012 at Northwestern.

• Talbott was named a Third Team All-Big Ten outfielder in 2011 after batting .301 with 13 doubles, a .392 on-base percentage and 17 stolen bases. He led the Big Ten in runs that season despite batting ninth in 36 of his 55 starts. He batted .347 with a team-high 12 sacrifice bunts in 2012.

CIANFROCCO LOOKS TO FINISH CAREER ON HIGH NOTE

• One of Purdue's most snake bitten players the last few seasons, senior Angelo Cianfrocco has seen action as a first baseman, corner outfielder, designated hitter and relief pitcher during his Purdue career. He has started 98 of the 116 games in which he has played, making a career-high 42 starts in 2012. In 2011, Cianfrocco was among the Boilers' hottest hitters early in the 2011 season when he suffered a shoulder injury on the opening weekend of the spring break trip that sidelined him for a month and kept in a designated hitter role until May. Last season his .235 batting average was adversely affected by an unusually low .254 batting average on balls in play. He did finish the season having hit safely in each of the final four games in which he batted, including a two-hit showing in the NCAA Regional loss to Kent State.

• Cianfrocco had offseason foot surgery and is questionable for the season-opening weekend. He is the son of Purdue alumnus and MLB veteran Archi Cianfrocco.

McHUGH MAKES THE MOVE TO THIRD BASE

• Junior Sean McHugh was a part-time start on the 2012 Big Ten Championship, maximizing his opportunities by batting .317 with 10 extra-base hits, 24 RBI and a .549 slugging percentage. He was Purdue's regular catcher in midweek action and made five starts at designated hitter in the final three weeks of the season, including two of the NCAA Regional games. After playing for the Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox in the Cape Cod League in the summer of 2012, he is projected to move to third base and bat third in the lineup for Purdue this season.

• McHugh played a starring role in two of the Boilers' most dramatic moments of 2012. In the 10-run ninth inning rally in the comeback win in the finale of the UCLA series, he ignited the rally with a leadoff walk and later knocked in the go-ahead run with the third of Purdue's seven consecutive two-out hits. He did all that despite having not played the entire weekend until the eighth inning of Sunday's game. Nine days later in the final game in the history of Lambert Field, McHugh connected for the game-tying, pinch-hit home run with two outs in the ninth inning. Purdue went on to defeat Indiana State in 10 innings.

RAMER BACK FOR FIFTH YEAR AFTER EARNING DEGREE

• Fifth-year senior Robert Ramer is a big reason why Purdue has won 17 straight midweek games dating back to March 2011, serving as the starting pitcher in 10 of those games. But the Northern California native was also there when the Boilers needed him during the 2012 postseason, taking the ball in the Big Ten Tournament championship game victory against Indiana and also starting the NCAA Regional game against Kentucky. Purdue went 9-1 in Ramer's 10 starts in 2012 and are 17-2 when he has started during his career. His 13-1 career record represents a program record for career winning percentage.

• Ramer issued only two walks in 50 1/3 innings last season, establishing a Purdue single-season records (minimum 30 innings) for fewest walks per nine innings (0.358) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (15.0). He came up just shy of enough innings to qualify for the national leaders in both categories. He earned his bachelor's degree in management last year and is currently pursuing an MBA at Purdue. He'll have a chance to be a four-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree this year.

SCHREIBER & WOOD RETURN FROM INJURY

• Had they been healthy in 2012, it's possible Brad Schreiber and Kyle Wood could have been part of Purdue's weekend rotation. Both players redshirted after having Tommy John surgery. While they were out, the Purdue pitching staff still managed to post new school records for ERA (3.16), WHIP (1.21) and fewest walks per nine innings (2.18). So while Purdue lost its four All-Big Ten pitchers from last season, getting Schreiber and Wood back from injury gives the rotation a nice boost.

• Schreiber was Purdue's most consistent pitcher for the first half of the 2011 season, helping the Boilers win six of his eight starts. He was leading the Big Ten in strikeouts (50) when he suffered an arm injury in the April series at Penn State. Wood is projected to be the Boilers' top two-way player this season. He's scheduled to play outfield and first base as well as pitch and remain in the lineup on the days he starts on the mound. Wood batted .444 (8-for-18) in Purdue's five-game Gold and Black Series this past fall.

KRIEG & OLIVER FORM NEW DOUBLE PLAY DUO

• Brandon Krieg and Bennett Oliver were part of the travel roster every weekend of 2012 but their playing time was otherwise sparse on Purdue's veteran team. Now sophomores, the duo began the season as the team's new double play duo at second base and shortstop, respectively. While their opportunities were limited in 2012, Krieg was on the field for the final inning of the Big Ten Tournament championship game victory against Indiana and started the NCAA Regional win versus Valparaiso. Oliver made starts against quality opponents like Maryland, Michigan State (two) and UCLA. Jake Hansen finished each of the first four games of the season at shortstop after Oliver battled some early-season jitters. Hansen got the starting nod in the Sunday split with Louisville and Connecticut and was productive at the plate and the field.

• In the summer of 2012, Krieg and Oliver teamed with Kyle Wood to help Northwest Indiana Oilmen win the Midwest Collegiate League title. Joe Eichmann also played for Northwest Indiana but did not pitch in the second half of the season.

HUDNALL & PICCHIOTTI IMPRESSED IN FALL BALL

• Conner Hudnall and Jack Picchiotti are two of the newcomers expected to see significant playing time early this season. Both players impressed in the team's five-game Black and Gold Series this past fall. Hudnall batted .474 (9-for-19) with three RBI and Picchiotti batted .350 (7-for-20) with two RBI. Both players did not strikeout.

ALEXANDER FIELD

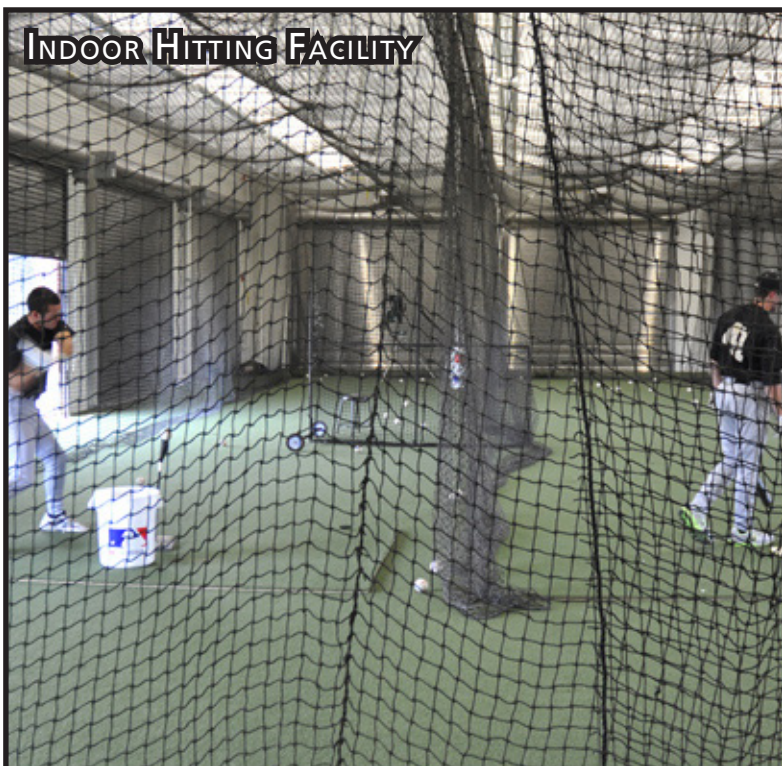

After closing out Lambert Field in thrilling fashion during the 2012 Big Ten championship season, Purdue baseball moved into its new Alexander Field stadium facilities in August 2012. The inaugural season at the new home of the Boilermakers will feature a 23-game schedule. The first game at Alexander Field is set for Tuesday, March 19, 2013. Ohio State will be the opponent for the first Big Ten series (March 22-24) and a formal dedication game is being planned for Saturday, April 20, 2013.

A Big Ten championship ring ceremony and dinner, during which the 2012 team was honored and received its championship rings, was held at the new stadium in the fall of 2012 after the completion of fall practice and the Gold and Black Series.

The $21 million stadium, financed with athletics department funds, could eventually seat up to 2,500 spectators. The new stadium was named Alexander Field in honor of the late John and Anna Margaret Ross Alexander. The Alexanders were the parents of Dave Alexander, who gave the lead gift for the project. Dave Alexander was Purdue baseball coach from 1978 to 1991 and then an athletics administrator through 1994.
