– PURDUE HOSTS MICHIGAN FOR FINAL WEEKEND SERIES AT LAMBERT FIELD –

As Purdue athletics welcomes a large group of baseball alumni back to campus to celebrate the final weekend series in the history of Lambert Field, the current group of Boilermakers can help send the old ballpark out in style by winning the Big Ten title for the first time in over 100 years.

With a magic number to clinch at least a share of the conference championship at three, Purdue (37-9, 14-4 Big Ten) welcomes Michigan (20-29, 6-12 Big Ten) to Lambert for a three-game weekend series. Saturday's middle game will feature nearly 60 program alumni recognized between innings.

Friday's series opener is set for 4 p.m. and Sunday's series finale begins at 1 p.m. Lambert Field has been the home of Purdue baseball since 1965, hosting 47 seasons of action.

The Boilermakers opened their five-game homestand Wednesday with an 11-4 win against Illinois-Chicago, posting their 37th win of the season to tie the school record for the second year in a row. The 1986 team also won 37 games and the 1987 team qualified for the NCAA Tournament. But it has been since 1909 that Purdue last won a Big Ten title. The championship drought can end this weekend with a Purdue sweep, or a series victory and second-place Indiana losing at least one game at Northwestern.

Meanwhile, one victory for the Boilers or one loss by either Illinois or Nebraska would clinch Purdue its fifth-consecutive Big Ten Tournament berth, which ranks as the longest active streak in the league. That consistently-competitive stretch has peaked this season. The frustrations of the recent second-place finishes in 2001, 2005 and 2008, and being just one game out in the 2011 final standings can be put at ease this month.

A season ago, the Boilers were in position to post their first series sweep of Michigan since 1993, leading 5-1 in the eighth inning of Sunday's finale. But a pair of errors helped the Wolverines score four runs to tie game and they went on to win in 10 innings. For Purdue, it was a loss that stung even more when the final standings featured regular-season co-champs Michigan State and Illinois at 15-9, Purdue at 14-10 and Michigan at 7-16.

Going back to the ninth inning Sunday at UCLA, which saw the Boilers tally 10 runs to rally for a 15-11 win, Purdue has now scored 32 runs in its last 18 innings at the plate. The scoring surge comes on the heels of a six-game stretch in which the Boilers tallied only 16 runs in 57 innings.

The Purdue lineup will once again be tested to begin the weekend. Michigan ace Brandon Sinner is the reigning Big Ten Pitcher of the Week after throwing a complete-game shutout last Friday at Iowa, striking out eight and surrendering only one extra-base hit. The right-hander pitched 5 1/3 innings of shutout relief in last year's series finale at Lambert, keeping his team in the game after Purdue went ahead 5-0.

The remainder of Michigan's rotation remains in flux. Alex Lakatos (So, RHP) is likely to start game two after leading the Wolverines to a game two victory at Iowa last weekend in his first start of the season. The 6-foot-8 Ben Ballatine (Jr, RHP) has also been a regular weekend starter but has struggled recently.

Offensively, Michigan features the Big Ten leaders in home runs (Coley Crank, 11) and stolen bases (Patrick Biondi, 31). Biondi was 7-for-13 at the plate and 5-for-5 stealing bases in last year's series. But the Wolverines' top all-around player could very well be outfielder Michael O'Neill, who was an All-Big Ten honoree last year as a freshman. O'Neill (.338, 6 HR, 29 RBI, 17 SB) recently returned to the starting lineup after missing 15 games due to injury. Michigan is 16-18 with O'Neill and 4-11 without him.

Purdue's Cameron Perkins won Big Ten Player of the Week honors after his 7-for-11, 5-RBI series at the plate against Michigan at year ago. The Boilermakers shut out the Wolverines in the series opener, 8-0.

Nick Wittgren closed out the win by striking out six of the 11 batters he faced. Joe Haase worked seven innings of one-run ball in Sunday's series finale.

Purdue lost more than just the series finale against Michigan a year ago. Ryan Bridges also suffered a season-ending injury that day, breaking his leg on a collision at first base during the Boilers' five-run rally.

As one of Purdue's 14 seniors, Bridges is currently enjoying his most productive stretch of the season.

Over the last 10 games, he is 9-for-20 with a home run, seven runs scored and five walks versus only one strikeout. Bridges and Barrett Serrato (8-for-15, 7 RBI) have each recorded multiples hits in each of the last three games.

Purdue has not won series against Michigan in back-to-back years since 2003 and 2004.

Since Doug Schreiber was named Purdue's head baseball coach on May 29, 1998, the Boilermakers have become a major force in the Big Ten Conference and have made big strides on a national level.

Currently in his 14th year as the head coach at Purdue, he now owns program records for overall wins and conference victories. In 2007, Schreiber became the third head coach in Purdue baseball history to surpass the 500-games mark as the Boilermakers' head man. Dave Alexander, whom Schreiber played for from 1983 to 1986, owns the record for most games coached at Purdue with 792 over 14 seasons. Schreiber broke Alexander's all-time wins record (407) April 15, 2012, and is on pace to break the games coached benchmark in 2013.

Purdue's 37 overall wins in 2011 tied the program's single season record and were the most in the Big Ten. Despite being picked eighth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Boilers finished third in the league with a 14-10 conference record, just one game shy of first, and reached the Big Ten Tournament for the fourth consecutive year and seventh time in the last eight seasons. The four straight tourney appearances represent the longest active streak in the league as well as a program high. The program's 58 Big Ten wins over the last four years are also the most in the league.

Purdue led the Big Ten in numerous statistical categories in 2011, highlighted by runs scored, doubles, slugging percentage, on-base percentage, sacrifice flies, saves and strikeouts. The Boilermakers drew the most walks at the plate and issued the fewest number of free passes on the mound.

Six Boilers were recognized as all-conference performers, matching the second-highest total in program history. Kevin Plawecki and Barrett Serrato were named First Team, Tyler Spillner and Nick Wittgren Second Team and Cameron Perkins and Stephen Talbott Third Team. With Serrato, Spillner and Talbott all honored as outfielders, it marked the first time 1991 that three Purdue outfielders were named all-conference in the same season.

The 2010 season saw the Boilermakers post 33 victories, the program's most since 2000. Purdue navigated a hotly-contested Big Ten race that saw all six league tournament-qualifying teams finish within three games of first place. The Boilermakers reached the Big Ten Tourney for the eighth time under Schreiber, including six of the last seven seasons. Purdue eliminated Northwestern and Indiana from the 2010 tournament before bowing out. The Boilers have won at least one game at the Big Ten Tournament in seven of their eight appearances under Schreiber.

The 2010 Boilermakers posted new school records for hits (636) and runs per game (7.2) at the plate and led the Big Ten in strikeouts (435) and batting average against (.276) on the mound. Purdue went 15-6 at home and 9-2 in midweek action, compiling a 32-18 mark after opening the season 1-6.

Individually, Matt Bischoff was honored as a First Team All-Big Ten starting pitcher. He led the Big Ten with 10 wins and 95 strikeouts and in the process became the first player in program history to be a four-time All-Big Ten honoree. He established new single-season and career strikeout marks in his final season as a Boilermaker. Bischoff and fellow pitcher Kevin Cahill were both selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

Schreiber has coached 54 All-Big Ten Conference selections, including 18 who were named to the conference's First Team, and has had players selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft on 23 occasions. One of Schreiber's Boilermakers has led the Big Ten in hitting in four out of the last seven years.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Purdue, Schreiber spent four seasons (1995-98) as the top assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under Pat Murphy at Arizona State University. Schreiber helped guide Arizona State to the College World Series and the national championship game in 1998. A year earlier, the Sun Devils finished as regional runners-up to Miami, and were two outs away from going to the College World Series. All four of Schreiber's recruiting classes at ASU were nationally ranked, including the 1995 class which was ranked No. 1 in the country and the 1996 class, which was tabbed the third best in the nation.

Before going to ASU, Schreiber served as an assistant coach for Murphy at the University of Notre Dame in 1994. That season, the Fighting Irish finished 46-16 and ended the season just two wins shy of Omaha, finishing as regional runners-up to Auburn.

Schreiber began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Pat Quinn at Ball State University for two seasons (1991-92) and spent one year (1993) as an assistant at Butler University.

A native of LaPorte, Ind., Schreiber was a four-year starter (1983-86) at second base for the Boilermakers. During his career, Purdue posted a 120-112-2 mark and established a school-record 37 victories his senior season when he was a Second Team All-Big Ten selection. Schreiber still ranks among Purdue's career leaders in a variety of categories, including top-six ranking in four categories. Schreiber ranks first all-time in walks (132), fourth in runs scored (159), tied for third in games played (220) and tied for sixth in triples (9). He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications and has completed some course work towards a master's in education.

PURDUE HOSTS MICHIGAN LOOKING TO LOCK UP BIG TEN TITLE

• The Boilermakers enter the weekend with the third-best winning percentage (37-9, .804) in the country, trailing only Baylor (39-8, .830) and Florida State (40-9, .816). Highlighted by a 10-game win streak from April 4 through 20, Purdue posted a 14-3 record in April, but lost its first and final games of the month. Michigan State starting pitcher David Garner denied the Boilers a series sweep April 29 in their last Big Ten series, shutting out Purdue for the first time this season. It was the Boilers' first shutout loss at home since April 2009 vs. Ohio State.

• Purdue closed out its most-challenging stretch of the season last weekend with an 8-4 record. In four consecutive weekends, the Boilers squared off against Illinois, Nebraska, Michigan State and UCLA. Entering the Illinois series the weekend of April 13-15, Illinois, Nebraska, Michigan State and UCLA were a combined 83-43.

• Purdue scored 10 runs in the ninth inning Sunday at UCLA to stun the home fans and steal the series finale, 15-11. The Boilers trailed 10-5 entering the inning. It was Purdue's first games in the state of California since February 2002, a series against Cal State Northridge.

• By losing the first two games of the UCLA series coupled with the April 29 shutout loss to Michigan State, the Boilers lost three games in a row for the first time since the 2011 spring break trip. But after rallying to win Sunday, Purdue avoided its first four-game losing streak since May 2010.

• The Boilermakers tied the single-season wins record (37) Wednesday in the home win against Illinois-Chicago, reaching 37 wins for the second year in a row. Purdue can clinch a share of the Big Ten title this weekend with a sweep of Michigan, or a series victory and second-place Indiana losing at least one game at Northwestern.

BOILERS' BATS 10TH IN THE NATION IN TEAM BATTING AVERAGE ENTERING THE WEEK

• The Boilermakers entered the week ranked 10th in the nation with a .316 team batting average. Purdue was also 23rd in hits and 26th in scoring (6.8 runs per game). Coincidentally, the Boilers are batting .340 in road and neutral-site action (34 games) versus only .257 in their 12 home games. But the Purdue pitchers have limited the opposition to a .230 batting average against at Lambert Field.

• The pitching and defense have been performing well overall. The Boilermakers were sixth nationally in double plays turned per game and ranked 10th in total twin killings. Purdue has now turned 52 double plays. The pitching staff, meanwhile, is averaging only 2.27 walks per nine innings, a total which ranks as the fifth best in the country and a big reason why the Boilers are 16th in strikeout-to-walk ratio (2.84) and 21st in WHIP (1.20). The 3.10 team ERA is good for 31st nationally.

BOILERS SCORE 10 IN NINTH TO STUN UCLA IN SUNDAY SERIES FINALE

• Purdue exploded for 10 runs in the ninth inning to win the May 6 series finale at UCLA. Seven of the 10 runs in scored with two outs. It marked the second time this season the Boilers have posted double-figure runs in an inning (12 runs in the 6th inning at Ball State April 11).

• Sean McHugh, Angelo Cianfrocco, Ryan Bridges and David Miller all reached base safely twice in the ninth inning as Purdue sent 15 men to the plate. McHugh and Cianfrocco each scored twice. Four walks issued by UCLA closer Scott Griggs ignited the rally.

• Cameron Perkins beat out an infield single on a grounder to third base with runners on the corners and two outs to plate the game-tying run. It was the second of seven consecutive two-out, run-scoring hits. McHugh followed with a base hit through the left side to knock in the go-ahead run.

• The Boilers had 12 consecutive productive plate appearances during the rally. Every batter in the lineup had an RBI in the inning. Miller knocked in a run in each of his two trips to the plate.

CHARLES ECLIPSES ALL-TIME RUNS RECORD; NAMED PLAYER OF THE WEEK AGAIN

• Senior Eric Charles is the program's active career leader in games played, runs, hits, doubles and stolen bases. He scored his 169th career run on May 9 win against Illinois-Chicago to break the Purdue all-time record. On April 17, Charles scored four times in the win at Illinois-Chicago, surpassing head coach Doug Schreiber (159) on the program's all-time leaderboard. Schreiber graduated in 1986 as the school record holder. The all-time record was held by Jose Rossy (168, 1984-87).

• Kevin Plawecki (39 HBP) has tied the Purdue all-time record for hit by pitch. Coincidentally, even as a cleanup-hitting catcher, Plawecki enters the weekend leading the team and Big Ten in runs scored (44) this year.

• Charles was named the Big Ten Player of the Week for the second time this season April 30 after he hit safely in all four games and finished the week 9-for-17. He had multiple hits in all three games of the Michigan State series, finishing the weekend 8-for-13. He has reached base safely in 32 straight Big Ten games dating back to last season.

• Charles joins Daryl Hallada (1999 and 2000), Daniel Underwood (three times in 2003), Eric Wolfe (twice in 2006) and teammate Cameron Perkins (2011 and 2012) as Boilers to win multiple Player of the Week awards during their careers. With Perkins earning Player of the Week recognition April 23, Purdue has had consecutive honorees among field players for the first time since the opening weeks of 2011 (Barrett Serrato and Angelo Cianfrocco) and sixth time in program history.

MILLER WINS BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE WEEK, PURDUE'S 10TH WEEKLY HONOREE

• Punctuated by driving in a run in each of his two plate appearances in the 10-run ninth inning rally, David Miller came to play in the series at UCLA, earning Big Ten Player of the Week honors after reaching base safely nine times in 13 chances.

• Miller represents the Boilers' 10th Big Ten weekly honoree this season, extending a program record. He is team's the third consecutive Player of the Week. Cameron Perkins was honored on April 23 and Eric Charles on April 30. This marks the second time in team history Purdue has had three straight Big Ten Players of the Week (also in 2008).

• Miller hit safely and scored a run in all three games of the UCLA series, finishing the weekend 6-for-10 and compiling a .692 on-base percentage. He broke up the perfect game bid by UCLA pitcher Adam Plutko with a one-out single in the sixth inning of game one of Saturday's doubleheader. The senior connected for a solo home run in the nightcap Saturday as part of a three-hit showing.

BIG TEN LEADING BOILERS

• While the offense has generated the majority of the headlines this season, the Purdue pitching and defense has also carried its fair share of the load to help Purdue earn its national ranking. Entering the weekend, the pitching staff has issued the fewest walks (104) and surrendered the fewest hits (392), extra-base hits (82) and second fewest runs (182) in the Big Ten. The Boilermakers' 52 double plays turned, including 46 of the ground ball variety induced by the pitchers, are second in the league.

• While leading the league in team batting average (.320) and on-base percentage (.387), Purdue is second to Nebraska in many other offensive categories. The Huskers have played two more games than the Boilers entering the weekend. Purdue has struck out the fewest number of times in the league (180), 27 fewer times than Nebraska (second fewest).

• Individually, Kevin Plawecki, who is the most difficult batter to strikeout in the Big Ten, enters the weekend leading the conference with 17 doubles and 41 runs scored. He was fifth nationally in toughest to K entering the week. Cameron Perkins (RBI), Stephen Talbott (triples, 15th nationally), Blake Mascarello (wins) and Nick Wittgren (saves) also lead the league in at least one notable statistical category. Mascarello has the sixth best WHIP (0.87) in the country.

MASCARELLO STELLAR IN LONG RELIEF ROLE

• Senior left-hander Blake Mascarello has been Purdue's most consistent pitcher this season, earning the win in eight of his 22 relief appearances. He was the winning pitcher against Connecticut, Auburn, Murray State (game one), Missouri State, Louisville and Illinois (game three), Nebraska (game one) and Michigan State (game two). He also closed out the series opener at Ohio State for a save. He has helped the Boilers win the game in all but one of his outings (game four at Wichita State) in which he has taken the mound with Purdue leading.

• While the lefty has been consistently excellent, his work in the Connecticut (retired 12 of 14 batters), Murray State (13 of 14) and Nebraska (all 13) wins stand out. Mascarello retired 21 consecutive hitters over three appearances from April 15 (vs. Illinois) through April 27 (vs. Michigan State).

• Mascarello did not allow an earned run for nearly a month, going eight straight appearances from April 7 through May 5 without the opposition scoring an earned run. The earned run he was charged with May 6 at UCLA was a runner that scored after he had already left the mound. He retired 12 of the 13 batters he faced in game two of the May 5 doubleheader at UCLA.

CHARLES & PERKINS DELIVER CLUTCH HITS IN WALK-OFF WIN VERSUS MICHIGAN STATE

• In a game that was scoreless until the top of the eighth inning, Purdue trailed 3-1 with outs in the ninth inning but managed to pull out a 4-3 walk-off win in 14 innings against Michigan State April 28 at Lambert Field. It was the Boilers' second extra-innings walk-off victory of the year after they also beat Louisville on a 10th-inning walk-off in the March 27 home opener. The 14-inning game was the longest since Purdue won a 16-inning affair with Ohio State in April 2004 at Lambert Field.

• Eric Charles delivered a game-tying, two-out, two-run single in the ninth inning. He singled to right field on a full count pitch with the bases loaded. The senior had also knocked in Purdue's first run of the game with a base hit in the eighth inning.

• Cameron Perkins played the hero in the 14th, singling home Tyler Spillner for the walk-off winner. It was Perkins' second career walk-off hit. The junior was 0-for-6 on the day entering the at-bat.

• Nick Wittgren and Blake Mascarello teamed up for 6 2/3 innings of one-run relief. Mascarello earned his Big Ten-leading eighth win of the season, getting the first batter he faced to ground into an inning-ending 6-4-3 double play in 11th. Wittgren gave up a three-run triple in the eighth inning but came back in the ninth and struck out the side in order. When he gave way to Mascarello in the 11th it marked the first time this season that Wittgren did not finish a game in which he pitched.

SERRATO SLAMS SPARTANS IN SERIES OPENER

• Barrett Serrato connected for Purdue's second grand slam of the season and the first at Lambert Field since April 2010 in the April 27 series-opening win against Michigan State. The senior went deep with the sacks packed in the fourth inning, giving the Boilers the lead for good. It was his fourth home run of the season and sixth career, five of which have come in Big Ten play. Purdue is 3-1 when he has homered this year and 5-1 in his career.

• Serrato's slam represented only the second home run hit by a Boiler in 11 games at Lambert Field this year. Cameron Perkins also connected for a grand slam in the Feb. 19 win against Notre Dame at the Big Ten/Big East Challenge.

• Culminating with Serrato's grand slam, the Boilers hit six home runs in a stretch of five games from April 20-27. That power surge came after recording only four long balls in their first 17 games after returning from the spring break trip (March 27-April 17). Perkins went deep twice in the April 20 series opener at Nebraska, Serrato and David Miller homered in the April 22 rubber game win in Lincoln and Kevin Plawecki connected for a two-run shot April 24 in a midweek win at Illinois State. It was Plawecki's first homer since March 10.

MILLER NAMED TO BROOKS WALLACE AWARD WATCH LIST

• David Miller has been one of the team's most consistent performers and the senior was recognized for his all-around good season by being selected to the College Baseball Hall of Fame's Brooks Wallace Award Watch List. The Brooks Wallace Award recognizes the nation's top shortstop. Fifty shortstops were selected to the initial watch list, including three from the Big Ten Conference. Illinois' Thomas Lindauer and Nebraska's Chad Christensen joined Miller on the list.

• Miller's production at the bottom of the lineup has given Purdue one of the deepest one-through-nine combinations in the country. He enters the Michigan series with a .321 batting average, 13 extra-base hits and 28 RBI. He has drawn 17 walks versus only 13 strikeouts. The senior has recorded 16 of his 28 RBI with two outs in an inning.

• More importantly, Miller has improved defensively. After committing 13 errors during his first year with the program in 2011, he has just eight errors this year while handling almost the same number of defensive chances already. His fielding percentage is up to .962 from .939 last year. A lingering hand injury has flared up on Miller in late April, playing a role in the three throwing errors he committed the final week of the month. He had committed only two errors while handling 160 defensive chances over a stretch of 33 games from Feb. 25 through April 22.

• Due in part to some injuries and inexperience among the other middle infielders, Miller has also been an ironman at shortstop this year. He did not play for the first time this season in the finale of the Michigan State series April 29, ending his streak of 64 consecutive games started at shortstop dating back to last season. Furthermore, the senior had played 355 of the possible 361 innings at shortstop prior to the April 29 game.

• Miller joins Lance Breedlove (College Baseball Hall of Fame Pitcher of the Year), Kevin Plawecki (Johnny Bench Award) and Nick Wittgren (Stopper of the Year) as Boilers on watch lists for prominent national awards.

BREEDLOVE NAMED TO PITCHER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST; LAMBERT STREAK SNAPPED

• Lance Breedlove was among the 51 pitchers nationally named to the initial Pitcher of the Year Watch List. The Pitcher of the Year Award is presented by the College Baseball Hall of Fame and honors the nation's top performer on the mound. Minnesota's TJ Oakes and Breedlove represented the Big Ten Conference on the initial list.

• Breedlove's six victories have been highlighted by shutout performances against Cincinnati, Penn State and Illinois. He struck out a career-high 11 over seven innings of shutout ball in his season-opening start against Cincinnati. He fanned 10 in a complete-game performance at Ohio State March 24. The senior right-hander took a perfect game into the seventh inning of his two-hit complete game shutout of Penn State March 31, retiring 27 of the 29 batters he faced that day. In his next home start he worked 7 2/3 shutout innings against Illinois.

• Breedlove's streak of 33 consecutive scoreless innings at Purdue's Lambert Field, which dated back to May 2011, was snapped in the eighth inning of the April 28 win against Michigan State. The Spartans scored three times in the frame on a bases-loaded triple. However, Nick Wittgren gave up the big hit after taking over for Breedlove with one out in eighth inning. Therefore, the opposition has still not scored while Breedlove has been physically on the mound at Lambert Field this year.

NO STRIKEOUTS IN RUBBER GAME WIN AT NEBRASKA; RELIEF PITCHING SHINES

• The Boilermakers did not strikeout in their rubber game win at Nebraska April 22. Purdue scored in three of the first four innings, highlighted by a four-run fourth inning. Each of the first four batters of the inning recorded a hit, highlighted by a three-run homer from David Miller. Purdue did not strikeout last season in March of 2011 in a home win against Nebraska. Dating back to the beginning of the 2008 season, a no-strikeout game for the Boiler batters has happened only one other time: April 5, 2008, in a seven-inning win at Iowa.

• The relief work of Blake Mascarello and Nick Wittgren highlighted the series win on the mound. Mascarello retired all 13 batters he faced over 4 2/3 innings of shutout relief in the series opener, earning his Big Ten-leading seventh win of the year (all of which have come in relief). Wittgren closed out the series finale, working a season-high 3 2/3 innings of shutout relief. Wittgren entered the game with runners on second and third with one out in the sixth inning. He kept the Huskers from scoring, keeping Purdue in front 6-3 at the time.

BOILERS REACH 30 WINS ON APRIL 20 & OTHER BIG TEN SERIES HIGHLIGHTS

- The Boilermakers won their 30th game of the season April 20 at Nebraska, marking the earliest date in program history they had reached the benchmark. The 2011 team won its 30th game on May 1. This marks the first time since 1985-87 that Purdue reached 30 wins by May 1 in consecutive seasons.
- The Boilermakers won their first true rubber game of the season April 22 at Nebraska, capturing their first Big Ten series with the Huskers in the program's first-ever trip to Haymarket Park. A day earlier, Purdue's 10-game win streak was snapped in Lincoln. The Boilers also won 10 straight games from Feb. 26 through March 16. It marked the first time in program history Purdue had a pair of 10-game win streaks in the same year.
- The Boilermakers swept Northwestern and Illinois in back-to-back weekends in April, recording consecutive Big Ten sweeps for the first time since 2001 (at Michigan State and at Northwestern). The Boilermakers also swept back-to-back nonconference series in 2010 (at Ohio and vs. Chicago State). Purdue swept Illinois for the first time since 2000. Overall, Purdue has now posted five undefeated weekends this year season and three true series sweeps.
- The sweep at Northwestern (April 6-8) was the Boilers' first Big Ten sweep on the road since 2001, a season in which they won 13 straight games from March 24 through April 14.
- Purdue has won the opening game of every weekend this year, posting an 11-0 record in game started by pitcher Joe Haase. Finishing weekend sweeps, especially in Big Ten play, has not come as easy. On three occasions (series vs. Ohio State, Penn State and Michigan State), the Boilers had a chance to sweep a series on Sunday but dropped the weekend finale.

PERKINS WINS SECOND CAREER BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARD

- Cameron Perkins led the way at the plate in Purdue's important series win at Nebraska (April 20-22), earning Big Ten Player of the Week honors for the second time in his career. Highlighted by a 5-for-13, 5-RBI showing at Haymarket Park, Perkins finished the week 7-for-17 with four extra-base hits, seven RBIs and four runs scored. He hit safely in all four games, recording multiple hits and multiple RBIs in three of the four games.
- Perkins recorded his second career multi-homer game in the series-opening win at Nebraska, going deep in back-to-back at-bats in a game televised live on the Big Ten Network. His two-run shot in the fifth inning was particularly significant. Not only did it give the Boilers the lead for good, but it also silenced the Nebraska faithful after the Huskers had tied the game at 5-5 with a three-run bottom of the fourth. Each of Perkins' three career multi-homer games has come in Big Ten play.

SCHREIBER BREAKS PROGRAM WINS RECORD AS PURDUE COMPLETES SWEEP

- Finishing off the series sweep of Illinois April 15 not only helped the Boilers in the Big Ten standings but also allowed head coach Doug Schreiber to break the program's all-time wins record at home. The 14th-year skipper posted his 408th career win in the nightcap of the doubleheader with Illinois, overtaking Dave Alexander (1978-91) for the team record. Schreiber was a four-year starter at second base for Alexander from 1983-86. Alexander was also the head coach of the Boilers for 14 years, coaching a school-record 792 games. Schreiber is expected to eclipse the games-coached record early next season.
- Schreiber also won his 400th career game at Lambert Field this season, March 31 vs. Penn State.

STARTING PITCHING LED THE WAY DURING APRIL 10-GAME WIN STREAK

- After giving up a season-high 16 runs in the April 1 blowout loss to Penn State, the Purdue pitching staff performed at a remarkably high level. Led by the starting staff of Joe Haase, Lance Breedlove, Connor Podkul and Robert Ramer, the Boilers surrendered no more than five runs in a game during the 10-game win streak (April 4-20). Purdue outscored the opposition 71-19 during the win streak.
- Purdue posted two shutout wins (the series openers of the Northwestern and Illinois series) during the win streak. On three other occasions (April 4, 15 and 17), the Boilers took a shutout into the ninth inning. Behind stellar performances from Haase and Breedlove, Purdue kept Northwestern off the scoreboard for the first 15 innings of that series and shutout Illinois for the first 17 innings the following weekend.
- The Boilermakers trailed only twice during the 10-game win streak: after the first inning of the series finale at Northwestern and after the fourth inning of the midweek game at Ball State.

CONSECUTIVE SCORELESS INNINGS STREAKS FOR HAASE & BREEDLOVE

- Joe Haase and Lance Breedlove have put together notable consecutive scoreless innings streaks this year. Haase pitched 18 consecutive scoreless frames from April 6-20, a span of three straight starts. He finished off a complete-game shutout April 6 at Northwestern and following that up with 7 2/3 shutout innings in his April 13 win against Illinois. Nebraska scored in the third inning April 20 to snap the streak. Haase won five straight starts from March 16-April 15, putting together a quality start each time out. Purdue is 11-0 in the games he has started this year.
- Breedlove pitched 33 consecutive scoreless innings at Lambert Field dating back to his final inning of relief in the May 1, 2011, win against Indiana. The senior pitched a complete-game shutout against Penn State March 31 in his first start of the season at Lambert Field. He followed that up with 7 2/3 shutout innings in game two of the Illinois series (April 15). The streak was snapped in the eighth inning of the April 28 win against Michigan State. The Spartans scored three times in the frame on a bases-loaded triple. However, Nick Wittgren gave up the big hit after taking over for Breedlove with one out in eighth inning. Therefore, the opposition has still not scored while Breedlove has been physically on the mound at Lambert Field this year.
- Breedlove surrendered only two runs over 32 2/3 innings in his first four Big Ten starts. Along with shutting out Penn State and Illinois, he kept Ohio State off the scoreboard until the ninth inning and prevented Northwestern from scoring until the seventh.

THE FINAL WEEKEND SERIES AT LAMBERT FIELD: PURDUE BASEBALL HOSTS MICHIGAN

PODKUL JOINS WEEKEND ROTATION DURING SWEEP AT NORTHWESTERN

- Starting pitchers Joe Haase, Lance Breedlove and Connor Podkul teamed up for 22 innings of four-run ball, leading the Boilers to a series sweep at Northwestern (April 6-8). It was Purdue's first Big Ten sweep on the road since 2001. The Boilermakers only trailed once all series, going down 1-0 after the first inning of game three.
- Podkul earned his first collegiate win with six innings of three-run ball in the series finale at Northwestern (April 8). The freshman struck out a season-high six in his first Big Ten start. He became the first Purdue freshman to start a Big Ten game since Kyle Cook in 2008.
- Other highlights for Podkul as a starter during his freshman campaign have included: working 4 1/3 innings of one-run ball March 13 at Missouri State, pitching six innings of no-hit ball (surrendering a run) in the March 27 home opener against Louisville, his 6 1/3 innings of two-hit ball in an April 15 no-decision against Illinois and limiting Nebraska to three runs over 5 1/3 innings to earn the victory in the rubber game win at Nebraska.
- PODKUL AS A STARTER: 2-1, 6 GS, 32 IP, 21 H, 5 BB, 16 K, 3.38 ERA, .184 B/Avg

BOILERS EXPLODE FOR 12-RUN INNING IN MIDWEEK WIN AT BALL STATE

- Purdue scored a season-high 12 times on 11 hits, sending 17 men to the plate, in the sixth inning of the April 11 win at Ball State. It was the Boilers' biggest inning since also scoring 12 times in a March 2008 home win against Western Illinois.
- Angelo Cianfrocco and David Miller both connected for two-run homers in their second at-bats of the sixth inning. Every batter in Purdue's original starting lineup had a hit in the sixth inning. Cianfrocco and Stephen Talbott both recorded a pair of hits, Cianfrocco racking up six total bases, and scored twice in the frame.
- The Boilermakers have won 14th straight true midweek games dating back to March 2011.

BIG SCORING EDGE LATE IN GAMES

- Purdue has feasted on relief pitching for much of the season, best demonstrated by a 173-74 scoring edge from the sixth inning through the end of the game. The Boilermakers have scored 62 runs in the sixth inning, their highest total in any inning. In fact, the run totals in the sixth, seventh (39), eighth (36) and ninth (36) innings rank as three of the team's top four most productive innings. Coincidentally, Purdue has only scored 21 runs in the fifth inning.
- The Boilermakers have scored four or more runs in an inning 22 times this year. Fifteen of those 22 occurrences have come in the sixth inning or later. Purdue has registered extended sixth-inning rallies featuring run totals of 12 (April 11 at Ball State), nine (Feb. 19 vs. UND), eight (March 10 at Murray), seven (Feb. 26 vs. WCU and March 3 vs. USM) and five (March 15 at WSU).
- On multiple occasions early this season, Purdue was able to score runs against an opposing reliever that entered the day having not surrendered an earned on the year. Wichita's Foster Vielock (3 H, 3 ER), Murray's Will Handlin (7 H, 5 ER), Southern Miss' Cameron Giannini (3 H, 4 ER), and Auburn's Dillon Ortman (H, ER) and Cory Luckie (2 H, 2 ER) all failed to hold down the Purdue offense in close games that the Boilers went on to win.
- In the walk-off wins against Michigan State and Louisville, Purdue successfully got to the opposition's closer. MSU's Tony Wieber had only allowed two runs in 19 innings this season when the Boilers scored twice in the ninth on a two-run single by Eric Charles to tie the game. Against Louisville, Purdue scored the game-winning run against the Cardinals' closer, Derek Self. He had surrendered only two earned runs in his first 10 appearances of the season entering the day.

HAASE'S GARNERS PITCHER OF THE WEEK HONORS FOR TWO-HIT SHUTOUT

- A two-hit shutout in the April 6 series-opening win at Northwestern earned Joe Haase Big Ten co-Pitcher of the Week honors, making him the fifth Boiler honored by the conference office this season. He was also named to the College Baseball Hall of Fame's weekly National All-Star Lineup.
- The senior did not give up hit after the fourth inning, needing only 99 pitches to finish his second career complete-game shutout. He retired 27 of the 30 batters he faced, including eight in a row twice. The right-hander recorded six 1-2-3 innings.
- Haase was honored by the conference office for the second time in his career. Last year, he was recognized after shutting out Minnesota at Target Field during the conference-opening weekend.

ANTONELLI DELIVERS BIG HIT AS PURDUE REACHES 20 WINS BEFORE APRIL 1

- Chris Antonelli delivered the go-ahead single in the seventh inning of a scoreless game and help lead Purdue to a 2-0 win against Penn State March 31. The win was the Boilers' 20th of the season. The team reached the benchmark before April 1 for the first time in program history. Purdue closed the month of March with a 15-3 record.
- Head coach Doug Schreiber also hit his 400th career game March 31. He has now recorded his 100th, 250th, 300th and 400th career wins against Penn State. He received a Gatorade shower from his players during the postgame huddle in left field.
- Antonelli made his first start of the season in the landmark win and after a lengthy at-bat, hit a ground ball through the right side to score Kevin Plawecki from third base with two outs in the seventh inning. Plawecki singled to open the frame, breaking up the no-hit bid by Penn State left-hander Joe Kurrasch.

BREEDLOVE THE FIRST BOILER TO WIN PITCHER OF THE WEEK THREE TIMES IN SAME SEASON

- Lance Breedlove's complete-game shutout of Penn State in his season debut at Lambert Field (March 31) earned the senior his third Big Ten Pitcher of the Week award of 2012, making him the first Boiler in program history to be honored this times in one season.
- Breedlove retired the first 19 batters of the game in order. Both pitchers carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning, as PSU's Joe Kurrasch matched Breedlove for much of the day. But Purdue scored twice with two outs in the seventh and went on to win the game, 2-0.
- Breedlove won Big Ten Pitcher of the Week in back-to-back wins, working complete-game victories against Ohio State and Penn State. He was the first Boiler to pitch consecutive complete games since Matt Bischoff in April 2009 (also against PSU and OSU).
- Matt Morgan (2007-11) and Bischoff (2007-10) were both three-time Big Ten Pitcher of the Week winners during their careers, but they accumulated those awards over two seasons. Breedlove joins former outfielder Daniel Underwood (2000-03) as the only Purdue players to be recognized by the conference office three times in the same season since the weekly awards program began in 1990. Underwood was a three-time Big Ten Player of the Week in 2003. At the time, Underwood was the first Big Ten baseball player to accomplish the feat.
- Former Ohio State pitcher Alex Wimmers was the last pitcher to be the Big Ten Pitcher of the Week at least three times in the same season. He was honored four times in 2009.
- Breedlove needed only 101 pitches to finish his two-hit shutout of Penn State. It was his fourth start of the season without a walk. He worked seven 1-2-3 innings and retired 27 of the 29 batters he faced, pitching the first complete-game shutout by a Boiler since Joe Haase blanked Minnesota on April 2, 2011, at Target Field.

BOILERS NOW OFFICIALLY RANKED IN ALL FOUR NATIONAL POLLS

- After debuting at No. 24 in the March 19 USA Today/ESPN Top 25 coaches' poll, Purdue is now nationally ranked in all four major national polls at the same time for the first time in program history. The team has also garnered its highest ranking ever.
- Among the Collegiate Baseball Top 30 for the 10th week in a row, the Boilers are No. 21st this week. Purdue remained ranked in the Baseball America Top 25 and National Collegiate Baseball Writers of Association Top 30 polls for the ninth week in a row. The Boilermakers are No. 14 in the NCBWA & USA Today rankings and are No. 15 in Baseball America's poll.
- The program has earned its first in-season national ranking since February 2001 (Baseball America). The Boilermakers were also nationally ranked in the 2002 NCBWA preseason poll.
- The Boilermakers have been ranked among the Top 30 of Perfect Game USA's national Top 50 all season, holding at No. 12 this week.

Stadium to be located near the intersection of McCormick & Cherry on the northwest side of campus

Alexander Field will soon be the new home of the Boilermakers. The $21 million baseball stadium, to be financed with athletics department funds, could eventually seat up to 2,500 spectators in the first phase of improvements to the Northwest Athletics Complex that includes the adjacent soccer facility. The intercollegiate baseball stadium will replace the existing 1,100-seat Lambert Field, which has been the team's home since 1965. The new stadium will be named Alexander Field in honor of the late John and Anna Margaret Ross Alexander. The Alexanders were the parents of Dave Alexander, who is giving the lead gift for the project. David Alexander was Purdue baseball coach from 1978 to 1991 and then an athletics administrator through 1994. All three Alexanders graduated from Purdue, and Dave played on Purdue's baseball team. John Alexander earned a bachelor's degree in 1933, while Anna Margaret Ross Alexander earned a bachelor's degree in 1935. Both received honorary doctorates from Purdue in 1986.
