– BOILERS HOST MICHIGAN STATE FOR SERIES BETWEEN TOP TEAMS IN BIG TEN –

Another big three-game series for No. 13 Purdue baseball features a visit from Michigan State, as the top two teams in the Big Ten Conference standings square off this weekend at Lambert Field.

The Boilermakers enter the weekend with the top overall winning percentage (.842) in the nation and a 3 ½-game lead on Michigan State and Minnesota (7-5 Big Ten) in the Big Ten standings. The Spartans won two-of-three versus the Gophers last weekend in East Lansing.

The MSU series represents the third of Purdue's four consecutive weekends against quality opponents featuring records above .500. The Boilermakers swept Illinois and took two-of-three against Nebraska. Next weekend, Purdue is idle from Big Ten play but does have a challenging series on the schedule, playing UCLA three times in 48 hours May 5-6. Entering the weekend of April 13-15, Illinois, Nebraska, Michigan State and UCLA featured a combined of 83-43. Two weeks later, those four teams now stand at 102-56.

Eric Charles remains within striking distance of the Purdue all-time record for runs scored (168). The senior has scored 165 times during his time as the program's four-year starting second baseman. Fellow senior Barrett Serrato (98 RBI), meanwhile, will look to become the fifth Boiler to record his 100th career RBI this year. Serrato had multiple hits and drove in a run in all three games of the Nebraska series last weekend in Lincoln.

Purdue led the Big Ten with a 37-20 overall record last season. Only three teams defeated the Boilers more than once a year ago. Michigan State won all four meetings and the series sweep of Purdue in East Lansing helped propel the Spartans to their first Big Ten regular-season title since 1979. Coincidentally, the Boilers had compiled a 20-9 record against MSU during Schreiber's tenure prior to last year.

Michigan State lost the Big Ten Player and Pitcher of the Year to graduation. Together, Jeff Holm (8-for-15, 3 HR, 9 RBI) and Kurt Wunderlich (2-0, 14 IP, 4 R, 7 K) were two of the big reasons why the Spartans went 4-0 against the Boilers.

Purdue and Michigan State entered last year's series tied for first place in the Big Ten. While the Spartans hit five home runs in the series, all by Holm and Boss to right field, the Boilers left 32 runners on base over the course of the three-game series. Right field at MSU's McLane Stadium is a short porch guarded by a high right field fence.

Michigan State continues to feature a well-rounded and balanced team. Center fielder Jordan Keur (.404, 12 doubles) and Ryan Jones (.386, 13 extra-base hits) enter the weekend with two of the top three batting averages in the league. Third baseman Torsten Boss (.331, 18 extra-base hits) remains one of the top run producers in the Big Ten.

Among the MSU pitching staff, Friday starter Tony Bucciferro (3.04 ERA, 60 K in 68 IP) and closer Tony Wieber (0.95 ERA, two wins and six saves) are having quality seasons again. But it has been Andrew Waszak that has made the greatest strides. After serving as MSU's Sunday starter a year ago, the junior leads the rotation this season with a 2.23 ERA, ranking sixth in the Big Ten.

Tennessee transfer Mike Theodore (2.89 ERA) has been an effective starter for much of the season, but David Garner has taken the ball in the finales of MSU's last two Big Ten series. However, MSU did not have a midweek game this week, meaning Theodore should be available in relief. Sophomore Jeff Kinley (5-2, 2.20 ERA) has excelled as the Spartans' primary setup man and long reliever.

In its series wins against Ohio State and Indiana, MSU lost the opener but came back to capture the weekend set. The opener and finale of last weekend's series with Minnesota were decided in extra innings. Boss played the hero in both walk-offs, drawing a bases-loaded walk in the 11th inning of game one and delivering a game-winning single in the 10th inning of the rubber game.

The Purdue-Michigan State showdown marks the only series around the league this weekend that features two teams in the top half of the current standings. While the Boilers do not play Indiana and Minnesota this year, Nebraska and Northwestern are MSU's no-play opponents.

Since Doug Schreiber was named Purdue's head baseball coach on May 29, 1998, the Boilermakers have become a major force in the Big Ten Conference and have made big strides on a national level.

Currently in his 14th year as the head coach at Purdue, he now owns program records for overall wins and conference victories. In 2007, Schreiber became the third head coach in Purdue baseball history to surpass the 500-games mark as the Boilermakers' head man. Dave Alexander, whom Schreiber played for from 1983 to 1986, owns the record for most games coached at Purdue with 792 over 14 seasons. Schreiber broke Alexander's all-time wins record (407) April 15, 2012, and is on pace to break the games coached benchmark in 2013.

Purdue's 37 overall wins in 2011 tied the program's single season record and were the most in the Big Ten. Despite being picked eighth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Boilers finished third in the league with a 14-10 conference record, just one game shy of first, and reached the Big Ten Tournament for the fourth consecutive year and seventh time in the last eight seasons. The four straight tourney appearances represent the longest active streak in the league as well as a program high. The program's 58 Big Ten wins over the last four years are also the most in the league.

Purdue led the Big Ten in numerous statistical categories in 2011, highlighted by runs scored, doubles, slugging percentage, on-base percentage, sacrifice flies, saves and strikeouts. The Boilermakers drew the most walks at the plate and issued the fewest number of free passes on the mound.

Six Boilers were recognized as all-conference performers, matching the second-highest total in program history. Kevin Plawecki and Barrett Serrato were named First Team, Tyler Spillner and Nick Wittgren Second Team and Cameron Perkins and Stephen Talbott Third Team. With Serrato, Spillner and Talbott all honored as outfielders, it marked the first time 1991 that three Purdue outfielders were named all-conference in the same season.

The 2010 season saw the Boilermakers post 33 victories, the program's most since 2000. Purdue navigated a hotly-contested Big Ten race that saw all six league tournament-qualifying teams finish within three games of first place. The Boilermakers reached the Big Ten Tourney for the eighth time under Schreiber, including six of the last seven seasons. Purdue eliminated Northwestern and Indiana from the 2010 tournament before bowing out. The Boilers have won at least one game at the Big Ten Tournament in seven of their eight appearances under Schreiber.

The 2010 Boilermakers posted new school records for hits (636) and runs per game (7.2) at the plate and led the Big Ten in strikeouts (435) and batting average against (.276) on the mound. Purdue went 15-6 at home and 9-2 in midweek action, compiling a 32-18 mark after opening the season 1-6.

Individually, Matt Bischoff was honored as a First Team All-Big Ten starting pitcher. He led the Big Ten with 10 wins and 95 strikeouts and in the process became the first player in program history to be a four-time All-Big Ten honoree. He established new single-season and career strikeout marks in his final season as a Boilermaker. Bischoff and fellow pitcher Kevin Cahill were both selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

Schreiber has coached 54 All-Big Ten Conference selections, including 18 who were named to the conference's First Team, and has had players selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft on 23 occasions. One of Schreiber's Boilermakers has led the Big Ten in hitting in four out of the last seven years.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Purdue, Schreiber spent four seasons (1995-98) as the top assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under Pat Murphy at Arizona State University. Schreiber helped guide Arizona State to the College World Series and the national championship game in 1998. A year earlier, the Sun Devils finished as regional runners-up to Miami, and were two outs away from going to the College World Series. All four of Schreiber's recruiting classes at ASU were nationally ranked, including the 1995 class which was ranked No. 1 in the country and the 1996 class, which was tabbed the third best in the nation.

Before going to ASU, Schreiber served as an assistant coach for Murphy at the University of Notre Dame in 1994. That season, the Fighting Irish finished 46-16 and ended the season just two wins shy of Omaha, finishing as regional runners-up to Auburn.

Schreiber began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Pat Quinn at Ball State University for two seasons (1991-92) and spent one year (1993) as an assistant at Butler University.

A native of LaPorte, Ind., Schreiber was a four-year starter (1983-86) at second base for the Boilermakers. During his career, Purdue posted a 120-112-2 mark and established a school-record 37 victories his senior season when he was a Second Team All-Big Ten selection. Schreiber still ranks among Purdue's career leaders in a variety of categories, including top-six ranking in four categories. Schreiber ranks first all-time in walks (132), fourth in runs scored (159), tied for third in games played (220) and tied for sixth in triples (9). He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications and has completed some course work towards a master's in education.

*Active Multi-Year Purdue Letter-Winners Only

PURDUE HOSTS MICHIGAN STATE FOR SERIES BETWEEN FIRST & SECOND-PLACE TEAMS

- The Boilermakers enter the weekend having won 12 of their last 13 games. Purdue's .842 winning percentage (32-6 record) is the best in the nation. The Boilers leapfrogged Kentucky Tuesday with their win at Illinois State and UK's loss at Louisville.
- Purdue has a 3 1/2-game lead in the Big Ten standings at the midpoint of the conference season. However, the Boilers are in the midst of a challenging stretch that could ultimately determine whether or not Purdue can finally break through and claim that elusive regular-season Big Ten title. Purdue has won five of its six games in back-to-back series against Illinois and Nebraska, winning its first true rubber game of the season Sunday in Lincoln. The Boilers won their series in their first-ever trip to Haymarket Park.
- Purdue's 10-game win streak was snapped April 21 in Lincoln. The Boilermakers also won 10 straight games from Feb. 26 through March 16. It marked the first time in program history Purdue had a pair of 10-game win streaks in the same year.
- The Boilermakers won their 30th game of the season April 20 at Nebraska, marking the earliest date in program history they had reached the benchmark. The 2011 team won its 30th game on May 1. This marks the first time since 1985-87 that Purdue reached 30 wins by May 1 in consecutive seasons.
- Purdue swept Northwestern and Illinois in back-to-back weekends, recording consecutive Big Ten sweeps for the first time since 2001 (at Michigan State and at Northwestern). The Boilermakers also swept back-to-back nonconference series in 2010 (at Ohio and vs. Chicago State). Purdue swept Illinois for the first time since 2000. The Boilers had lost the finale of their first two conference series after taking the first two games. Overall, Purdue has now posted five undefeated weekends this year season and three true series sweep.
- The sweep at Northwestern (April 6-8) was the Boilers' first Big Ten sweep on the road since 2001, a season in which they won 13 straight games from March 24 through April 14.

BOILERS' BATS THIRD IN THE NATION IN TEAM BATTING AVERAGE ENTERING THE WEEK

- The Boilermakers entered the week ranked third in the nation with a .327 team batting average. Purdue was also 15th in scoring (7.3 runs per game) and 23rd in slugging percentage. Coincidentally, the Boilers are batting .344 in road and neutral-site action (30 games) versus only .243 in their eight home games. But the Purdue pitchers have limited the opposition to a .199 batting average against at Lambert Field.
- The pitching and defense have been performing well overall. The Boilermakers were fifth nationally in double plays turned per game and ranked seventh in total twin killings. Purdue has now turned 44 double plays. The pitching staff, meanwhile, is averaging only 2.18 walks per nine innings, a total which ranks as the sixth best in the country.

CHARLES APPROACHING ALL-TIME RUNS RECORD

- Senior Eric Charles is the program's active career leader in games played, at-bats, runs, hits, doubles and stolen bases. He scored four times in the April 17 win at Illinois-Chicago, surpassing head coach Doug Schreiber (159) on the program's all-time leaderboard. Schreiber graduated in 1986 as the school record holder. With 165 runs, Charles is closing in on the all-time record held by Jose Rossy (168, 1984-87).
- Kevin Plawecki (36 HBP) could also eclipse the Purdue all-time record (39) for hit by pitch soon. Coincidentally, even as a cleanup-hitting catcher, Plawecki enters the weekend leading the team and Big Ten in runs scored (40) this year.

BIG TEN LEADING BOILERS

- While the offense has generated the majority of the headlines early this season, the Purdue pitching and defense has also carried its fair share of the load to help Purdue earn its national ranking. Entering the weekend, the pitching staff has issued the fewest walks (83) and surrendered the fewest hits (311), extra-base hits (64) and second fewest runs (145) in the Big Ten. The Boilermakers 44 double plays turned, including 38 of the ground ball variety induced by the pitchers, are second in the league.
- While leading the league in team batting average (.326) and on-base percentage (.391), Purdue is second to Nebraska in many other offensive categories. The Huskers have played four more games than the Boilers entering the weekend. Purdue has struck out the fewest number of times in the league (168), 44 fewer times than Nebraska (second fewest).

- Individually, Kevin Plawecki, who is the most difficult batter to strikeout in the Big Ten, enters the weekend leading the conference with 15 doubles and 40 runs scored. He was 13th nationally in doubles per game and seventh in toughest to K entering the week. Stephen Talbott is No. 1 in the league with six triples. Blake Mascarello leads the league with seven wins and has surrendered the fewest runs, hits and walks among qualifying pitchers. Nick Wittgren leads the conference with nine saves.

SCHREIBER BREAKS PROGRAM WINS RECORD AS PURDUE COMPLETES SWEEP

- Finishing off the series sweep of Illinois not only helped the Boilers in the Big Ten standings but also allowed head coach Doug Schreiber to break the program's all-time wins record at home. The 14th-year skipper posted his 408th career win in the nightcap of the April 15 doubleheader with Illinois, overtaking Dave Alexander (1978-91) for the team record. Schreiber was a four-year starter at second base for Alexander from 1983-86. Alexander was also the head coach of the Boilers for 14 years, coaching a school-record 792 games. Schreiber is expected to eclipse the games-coached record early next season.
- Schreiber also won his 400th career game at Lambert Field this season, March 31 vs. Penn State.

NO STRIKEOUTS IN RUBBER GAME WIN AT NEBRASKA; MASCARELLO & WITTGREN STAR IN RELIEF IN LINCOLN

- The Boilermakers did not strikeout in their rubber game win at Nebraska April 22. Purdue scored in three of the first four innings, highlighted by a four-run fourth inning. Each of the first four batters of the inning recorded a hit, highlighted by a three-run homer from David Miller. Purdue did not strikeout last season in March of 2011 in a home win against Nebraska. Dating back to the beginning of the 2008 season, a no-strikeout game for the Boiler batters has happened only one other time: April 5, 2008, in a seven-inning win at Iowa.
- The relief work of Blake Mascarello and Nick Wittgren highlighted the series win on the mound. Mascarello retired all 13 batters he faced over 4 2/3 innings of shutout relief in the series opener, earning his Big Ten-leading seventh win of the year (all of which have come in relief). Wittgren closed out the series finale, working a season-high 3 2/3 innings of shutout relief. Wittgren entered the game with runners on second and third with one out in the sixth inning. He kept the Huskers from scoring, keeping Purdue in front 6-3 at the time.

BREEDLOVE NAMED TO PITCHER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

- Lance Breedlove was among the 51 pitchers nationally named to the initial Pitcher of the Year Watch List. The Pitcher of the Year Award is presented by the College Baseball Hall of Fame and honors the nation's top performer on the mound. Minnesota's TJ Oakes and Breedlove represented the Big Ten Conference on the initial list.
- Breedlove's six victories have been highlighted by shutout performances against Cincinnati, Penn State and Illinois. He struck out a career-high 11 over seven innings of shutout ball in his season-opening start against Cincinnati. He fanned 10 in a complete-game performance at Ohio State March 24. The senior right-hander took a perfect game into the seventh inning of his two-hit complete game shutout of Penn State March 31, retiring 27 of the 29 batters he faced that day. In his next home start he worked 7 2/3 shutout innings against Illinois. Dating back to May 2011, he has pitched 26 consecutive scoreless innings at Purdue's Lambert Field.
- Breedlove joins Kevin Plawecki (Johnny Bench Award) and Nick Wittgren (Stopper of the Year) as Boilers on watch lists for prominent national awards. Cameron Perkins was also featured in the Golden Spikes Award spotlight series.

PERKINS WINS SECOND CAREER BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARD

- Cameron Perkins led the way at the plate in Purdue's important series win at Nebraska (April 20-22), earning Big Ten Player of the Week honors for the second time in his career. Highlighted by a 5-for-13, 5-RBI showing at Haymarket Park, Perkins finished the week 7-for-17 with four extra-base hits, seven RBIs and four runs scored. He hit safely in all four games, recording multiple hits and multiple RBIs in three of the four games.
- Perkins recorded his second career multi-homer game in the series-opening win at Nebraska, going deep in back-to-back at-bats in a game televised live on the Big Ten Network. His two-run shot in the fifth inning was particularly significant. Not only did it give the Boilers the lead for good, but it also silenced the Nebraska faithful after the Huskers had tied the game at 5-5 with a three-run bottom of the fourth. Each of Perkins' three career multi-homer games has come in Big Ten play.
- Perkins was also honored as the Big Ten Player of the Week in April of last season after the Boilers' series win against Michigan. He joins Daryl Hallada (1999 and 2000), Daniel Underwood (three times in 2003) and Eric Wolfe (twice in 2006) as Boilers to win multiple Player of the Week awards during their careers.
- Perkins joins Eric Charles and Stephen Talbott as Purdue's Big Ten Player of the Week honorees this season. With the Boilers also claiming five Pitcher of the Week awards, the eight weekly honors matches last year's team for the most in program history.

LONG BALL RESURGENCE

- The Boilermakers have hit five home runs in their last four games after recording only four in their first 17 games after returning from the spring break trip (games since March 27). Cameron Perkins went deep twice in the April 20 series opener at Nebraska, Barrett Serrato and David Miller homered in the April 22 rubber game win in Lincoln and Kevin Plawecki connected for a two-run shot April 24 in a midweek win at Illinois State. It was Plawecki's first homer since March 10.

STARTING PITCHING LED THE WAY DURING APRIL 10-GAME WIN STREAK

- After giving up a season-high 16 runs in the April 1 blowout loss to Penn State, the Purdue pitching staff has performed at a remarkably high level. Led by the starting staff of Joe Haase, Lance Breedlove, Connor Podkul and Robert Ramer, the Boilers surrendered no more than five runs in a game during the 10-game win streak (April 4-20). Purdue outscored the opposition 71-19 during the win streak.
- Purdue posted two shutout wins (the series openers of the Northwestern and Illinois series) during the win streak. On three other occasions (April 4, 15 and 17), the Boilers took a shutout into the ninth inning. Behind stellar performances from Haase and Breedlove, Purdue kept Northwestern off the scoreboard for the 15 innings of that series and shutout Illinois for the first 17 innings of that series.
- The Boilermakers trailed only twice during the 10-game win streak: after the first inning of the series finale at Northwestern and after the fourth inning of the midweek game at Ball State.

A STREAK IS DEFINED AS 3 OR MORE CONSECUTIVE GAMES.

*ONLY GAMES IN WHICH HE BATTED

MILLER IMPRESSES WITH HIS DEFENSE

• Senior shortstop David Miller has been one of the unsung heroes on the team this season, starting every game while playing 332 of the possible 338 innings at shortstop. While continuing to put together quality at-bats and drive in timely runs as a key member of Purdue's formidable 7-8-9, Miller has improved most drastically defensively. After committing 13 errors and posting a .939 fielding percentage in 2011 during his first year with the program, the St. Louis native has made only six errors and is among the most efficient shortstops in the Big Ten with a .975 clip. He improved his arm strength during the offseason thanks to a long-toss program.

• Miller has contributed to 25 of Purdue's 44 double plays this year.

CONSECUTIVE SCORELESS INNINGS STREAKS FOR HAASE & BREEDLOVE

• Joe Haase and Lance Breedlove have put together notable consecutive scoreless innings streaks this year. Haase pitched 18 consecutive scoreless frames from April 6-20, a span of three straight starts. He finished off a complete-game shutout April 6 at Northwestern and following that up with 7 2/3 shutout innings in his April 13 win against Illinois. Nebraska scored in the third inning April 20 to snap the streak. Haase won five straight starts from March 16-April 15, putting together a quality start each time out. Purdue is 10-0 in the games he has started this year.

• Breedlove surrendered only two runs over 32 2/3 innings in his first four Big Ten starts. Along with shutting out Penn State and Illinois, he kept Ohio State off the scoreboard until the ninth inning and prevented Northwestern from scoring until the seventh.

PODKUL JOINS WEEKEND ROTATION DURING SWEEP AT NORTHWESTERN

• Starting pitchers Joe Haase, Lance Breedlove and Connor Podkul teamed up for 22 innings of four-run ball, leading the Boilers to a series sweep at Northwestern (April 6-8). It was Purdue's first Big Ten sweep on the road since 2001. The Boilermakers only trailed once all series, going down 1-0 after the first inning of game three.

• Podkul earned his first collegiate win with six innings of three-run ball in the series finale. The freshman struck out a season-high six in his first Big Ten start. He became the first Purdue freshman to start a Big Ten game since Kyle Cook in 2008.

• In his three other starts this year, Podkul has surrendered no more than two hits. He worked 4 1/3 innings of one-run ball March 13 at Missouri State, six innings of no-hit ball (surrendering a run) in the March 27 home opener against Louisville and 6 1/3 innings of two-hit ball in an April 15 no-decision against Illinois.

• PODKUL AS A STARTER: 2-0, 5 GS, 28 IP, 15 H, 5 BB, 15 K, 2.89 ERA, .153 B/AvG

BOILERS EXPLODE FOR 12-RUN INNING IN MIDWEEK WIN AT BALL STATE

• Purdue scored a season-high 12 times on 11 hits, sending 17 men to the plate, in the sixth inning of the April 11 win at Ball State. It was the Boilers' biggest inning since also scoring 12 times in a March 2008 home win against Western Illinois.

• Angelo Cianfrocco and David Miller both connected for two-run homers in their second at-bats of the sixth inning. Every batter in Purdue's original starting lineup had a hit in the sixth inning. Cianfrocco and Stephen Talbott both recorded a pair of hits, Cianfrocco racking up six total bases, and scored twice in the frame.

• The Boilermakers have won 14th straight true midweek games dating back to March 2011.

BIG SCORING EDGE LATE IN GAMES

• Purdue has feasted on relief pitching for much of the season, best demonstrated by a 149-59 scoring edge from the sixth inning through the end of the game. The Boilermakers have scored 58 runs in the sixth inning, their highest total in any inning. In fact, the run totals in the sixth, seventh (36) and eighth (33) innings rank as three of the team's top four most productive innings. Coincidentally, Purdue has only scored 16 runs in the fifth inning.

• The Boilermakers have scored four more runs in an inning 19 times this year. Thirteen of those 17 occurrences have come in the sixth inning or later. Purdue has registered extended sixth-inning rallies featuring run totals of 12 (April 11 at Ball State), nine (Feb. 19 vs. UND), eight (March 10 at Murray), seven (Feb. 26 vs. WCU and March 3 vs. USM) and five (March 15 at WSU).

• On multiple occasions early this season, Purdue was able to score runs against an opposing reliever that entered the day having not surrendered an earned on the year. Wichita's Foster Vielock (3 H, 3 ER), Murray's Will Handlin (7 H, 5 ER), Southern Miss' Cameron Giannini (3 H, 4 ER), and Auburn's Dillon Ortman (H, ER) and Cory Luckie (2 H, 2 ER) all failed to hold down the Purdue offense in close games that the Boilers went on to win.

• In the March 27 walk-off win against Louisville, Purdue scored the game-winning run against the Cardinals' closer, Derek Self. He had surrendered only two earned runs in his first 10 appearances of the season entering the day.

HAASE'S GARNERS PITCHER OF THE WEEK HONORS FOR TWO-HIT SHUTOUT

• A two-hit shutout in the April 6 series-opening win at Northwestern earned Joe Haase Big Ten co-Pitcher of the Week honors, making him the fifth Boiler honored by the conference office this season. He was also named to the College Baseball Hall of Fame's weekly National All-Star Lineup.

• The senior did not give up hit after the fourth inning, needing only 99 pitches to finish his second career complete-game shutout. He retired 27 of the 30 batters he faced, including eight in a row twice. The right-hander recorded six 1-2-3 innings.

• Haase was honored by the conference office for the second time in his career. Last year, he was recognized after shutting out Minnesota at Target Field during the conference-opening weekend.

• Lance Breedlove had been selected as the Big Ten Pitcher of the Week each of the last two weeks. This marks the first time since the Big Ten's weekly awards program began in 1990 that Purdue has had the Pitcher of the Week in three consecutive weeks. Brad Schreiber and Haase won back-to-back Pitcher of the Week awards last season.

PURDUE'S CONSECUTIVE BIG TEN PITCHERS OF THE WEEK

2012: L. Breedlove (3/26-4/3) & J. Haase (4/9)
2011: B. Schreiber (3/28) & Joe Haase (4/4)
2000: A. Helmer (4/17) & D. Gassner (4/24)
1990: K. Flexsenhar (4/23) & A. Puffer (4/30)

- Chris Antonelli delivered the go-ahead single in the seventh inning of a scoreless game and help lead Purdue to a 2-0 win against Penn State March 31. The win was the Boilers' 20th of the season. The team reached the benchmark before April 1 for the first time in program history. Purdue closed the month of March with a 15-3 record.
- Head coach Doug Schreiber also his 400th career game March 31. He has now recorded his 100th, 250th, 300th and 400th career wins against Penn State. He received a Gatorade shower from his players during the postgame huddle in left field.
- Antonelli made his first start of the season in the landmark win and after a lengthy at-bat, hit a ground ball through the right side to score Kevin Plawecki from third base with two outs in the seventh inning. Plawecki singled to open the frame, breaking up the no-hit bid by Penn State left-hander Joe Kurrasch.

• Lance Breedlove's complete-game shutout of Penn State in his season debut at Lambert Field (March 31) earned the senior his third Big Ten Pitcher of the Week award of 2012, making him the first Boiler in program history to be honored this times in one season.

• Breedlove won Big Ten Pitcher of the Week in back-to-back wins, working complete-game victories against Ohio State and Penn State. He was the first Boiler to pitch consecutive complete games since Matt Bischoff in April 2009 (also against PSU and OSU).

• Matt Morgan (2007-11) and Bischoff (2007-10) were both three-time Big Ten Pitcher of the Week winners during their careers, but they accumulated those awards over two seasons. Breedlove joins former outfielder Daniel Underwood (2000-03) as the only Purdue players to be recognized by the conference office three times in the same season since the weekly awards program began in 1990. Underwood was a three-time Big Ten Player of the Week in 2003. At the time, Underwood was the first Big Ten baseball player to accomplish the feat

- Former Ohio State pitcher Alex Wimmers was the last pitcher to be the Big Ten Pitcher of the Week at least three times in the same season. He was honored four times in 2009.

• After debuting at No. 24 in the March 19 USA Today/ESPN Top 25 coaches' poll, Purdue is now nationally ranked in all four major national polls at the same time for the first time in program history.

• Among the Collegiate Baseball Top 30 for the eighth week in a row, the Boilers moved up to No. 17 this week. Purdue remained ranked in the Baseball America Top 25 and National Collegiate Baseball Writers of Association Top 30 polls for the seventh week in a row. The Boilermakers jumped up to No. 13 in the NCBWA & USA Today rankings and moved up to No. 15 in Baseball America's poll.

- The program has earned its first in-season national ranking since February 2001 (Baseball America). The Boilermakers were also nationally ranked in the 2002 NCBWA preseason poll.

- The Boilermakers have been ranked among the Top 30 of Perfect Game USA's national Top 50 all season, moving up to No. 8 this week.

• Barrett Serrato (30 RBIs, 19 with two outs), Sean McHugh (17, 12), David Miller (23, 14) and Andrew Dixon (10, 7) have supplied the majority of their run production in clutch situations this season. All four players enter the weekend having recorded more than half their RBIs with two outs in an inning. Serrato has led the way, collecting 19 of his 30 RBIs with two outs. On two occasions this year, the opposition (East Carolina and Wichita State) intentionally walked Kevin Plawecki with two outs and a runner in scoring position to setup a lefty-lefty matchup with Serrato. He delivered a run-scoring single each time.

• McHugh and Serrato have both connected for three-run homers with two outs in an inning this season. McHugh hit his three-run on the first pitch thrown by new WSU reliever Tobin Mateychick in the sixth inning of game two of the series. Serrato's three-run homer capped the seven-run rally in the comeback win against Southern Miss.

• In Big Ten play, Cameron Perkins had reached base safely in 46 consecutive contests dating back to 2010 until Penn State finally get him off the base paths in the March 31 pitcher's duel. Including the Big Ten Tournament, he had managed to find his way on base in 53 straight games against conference opponents. He compiled an on-base percentage of .419 during his Big Ten streak thanks to reaching base safely 101 times (76 hits, nine walks, 16 hit by pitch).

- After getting robbed of a potential base hit up the middle on a nice play by the Maryland pitcher on Feb. 25 in what proved to be Perkins' final at-bat of the game, the junior's remarkable streak of reaching base safely in 67 consecutive games was snapped. The streak dated back to 2010. Perkins reached base safely at least one in every game he played as a sophomore.

- Perkins reached base safely 133 times during his streak. He collected 98 hits, 12 walks and was hit by a pitch 23 times, good for an on-base percentage of .421.

Coming Soon: Alexander Field
at the Northwest Athletics Complex
Construction Began in Spring of 2011
Stadium to be located near the intersection of McCormick & Cherry on the northwest side of campus

Alexander Field will soon be the new home of the Boilermakers. The $21 million baseball stadium, to be financed with athletics department funds, could eventually seat up to 2,500 spectators in the first phase of improvements to the Northwest Athletics Complex that includes the adjacent soccer facility. The intercollegiate baseball stadium will replace the existing 1,100-seat Lambert Field, which has been the team's home since 1965. The new stadium will be named Alexander Field in honor of the late John and Anna Margaret Ross Alexander. The Alexanders were the parents of Dave Alexander, who is giving the lead gift for the project. David Alexander was Purdue baseball coach from 1978 to 1991 and then an athletics administrator through 1994. All three Alexanders graduated from Purdue, and Dave played on Purdue's baseball team. John Alexander earned a bachelor's degree in 1933, while Anna Margaret Ross Alexander earned a bachelor's degree in 1935. Both received honorary doctorates from Purdue in 1986.
