– BOILERS SET SAIL FOR OPENING WEEKEND OF BIG TEN PLAY IN COLUMBUS –

No. 24 Purdue baseball begins its quest for a Big Ten Conference title this weekend with a series that could have a bit of a nonconference feel to it. The Boilermakers open league play in Columbus against an Ohio State team they have not played since 2009.

Action at OSU's Bill Davis Stadium is set for 5:05 p.m. Friday, 3:05 p.m. Saturday and 1:05 p.m. Sunday. While Purdue may not have squared off against the Buckeyes since 2009, it did play four games at Bill Davis Stadium, which now features artificial turf, at the 2010 Big Ten Tournament.

The Boilermakers carry their conference-best 14-3 record into the opening weekend of conference play. Ohio State (11-8) was the non-play opponent for Purdue the last two years due to the conference having 10 baseball-playing universities (now 11) and only eight conference weekends. The two teams did not meet up in the 2010 or 2011 Big Ten Tournaments either. The Boilermakers will not play Indiana or Minnesota during their regular season this year.

Purdue has played 148 games against 46 different opponents since it last played Ohio State. During that time OSU had its first coaching change since 1987. Former Ball State coach Greg Beals replaced longtime Buckeyes skipper Bob Todd after the 2010 campaign. Additionally, only six active Purdue players have seen action against Ohio State during their careers.

While the Boilers' hot start has garnered them some national attention and setup the possibility of consideration for an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament if necessary, it undoubtedly also places a target on the program as conference play begins. With that dynamic already in the mix, Purdue will also be looking to reverse a pair of recent trends.

The 2008 series marked the last time the Boilers won their Big Ten-opening series, taking three-of-four against Northwestern at Lambert Field that season. Purdue has not opened Big Ten play with a series win on the road since 1995 when it won three-of-four at Illinois.

The Boilermakers have also had their fair share of struggles against Ohio State. During Doug Schreiber's 14-year tenure as head coach, Purdue's 10 wins and .256 winning percentage vs. OSU both represent the lowest totals against any Big Ten rival. The Boilers have won a weekend series vs. the Buckeyes just once (2008 in Columbus) since 1999.

Ohio State has not lost back-to-back games this season. Four of the Buckeyes' first 19 games have gone to extra innings, including the first two games of their home-opening series against Austin Peay last weekend.

Sophomore Josh Deze, a two-way player as a first baseman and relief pitcher, is regarded as one of the top prospects in the conference. The 2011 Big Ten Freshman of the Year connected for three of his five home runs in the opener of a February series at nationally-ranked Georgia Tech. Yet his five home runs are his only extra-base hits.

Second baseman Ryan Cypret is enjoying a productive season while batting in front of Deze in the lineup. He shares the team lead with 16 RBIs while also topping the stat sheet with seven doubles and 20 walks.

The Buckeyes have been very efficient stealing bases. Led by leadoff man Kirby Pellant (13-for-13), OSU leads the Big Ten with 34 steals in 38 attempts. Purdue has cut down seven of the 13 runners trying to steal this year.

Sophomore right-hander Jaron Long has taken over as Ohio State's Friday starter on the mound. He has issued only two walks while compiling a 2.15 ERA in his 29 1/3 innings pitched this year. However, he has not factored in a decision in his five appearances. He did record a save with four innings of two-run ball in the Feb. 25 win at Georgia Tech, accounting for one of just two saves for the Buckeyes' pitching staff in their 11 wins.

The OSU series marks the last of Purdue's 20 consecutive road games over six weeks to begin the season. Purdue has five home games at Lambert Field next week, including the March 27 home opener against nationally-ranked Louisville and a weekend series versus Penn State (March 30-April 1).

Since Doug Schreiber was named Purdue's head baseball coach on May 29, 1998, the Boilermakers have become a major force in the Big Ten Conference and have made big strides on a national level.

Entering his 14th year as the head coach at Purdue, Schreiber has posted a 380-348 overall record and a 190-178 Big Ten mark through his first 13 seasons. His overall win total ranks second in Purdue history, while his conference victories stand alone in first. In 2007, Schreiber became the third head coach in Purdue baseball history to surpass the 500-games mark as the Boilermakers' head man. Dave Alexander, whom Schreiber played for from 1983 to 1986, owns the record for most games coached at Purdue with 792 over 14 seasons. Schreiber will make a run at Alexander's all-time wins record (407) this season and is on pace to break the games coached benchmark in 2013.

Purdue's 37 overall wins in 2011 tied the program's single season record and were the most in the Big Ten. Despite being picked eighth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Boilers finished third in the league with a 14-10 conference record, just one game shy of first, and reached the Big Ten Tournament for the fourth consecutive year and seventh time in the last eight seasons. The four straight tourney appearances represent the longest active streak in the league as well as a program high. The program's 58 Big Ten wins over the last four years are also the most in the league.

Purdue led the Big Ten in numerous statistical categories in 2011, highlighted by runs scored, doubles, slugging percentage, on-base percentage, sacrifice flies, saves and strikeouts. The Boilermakers drew the most walks at the plate and issued the fewest number of free passes on the mound.

Six Boilers were recognized as all-conference performers, matching the second-highest total in program history. Kevin Plawecki and Barrett Serrato were named First Team, Tyler Spillner and Nick Wittgren Second Team and Cameron Perkins and Stephen Talbott Third Team. With Serrato, Spillner and Talbott all honored as outfielders, it marked the first time 1991 that three Purdue outfielders were named all-conference in the same season.

The 2010 season saw the Boilermakers post 33 victories, the program's most since 2000. Purdue navigated a hotly-contested Big Ten race that saw all six league tournament-qualifying teams finish within three games of first place. The Boilermakers reached the Big Ten Tourney for the eighth time under Schreiber, including six of the last seven seasons. Purdue eliminated Northwestern and Indiana from the 2010 tournament before bowing out. The Boilers have won at least one game at the Big Ten Tournament in seven of their eight appearances under Schreiber.

The 2010 Boilermakers posted new school records for hits (636) and runs per game (7.2) at the plate and led the Big Ten in strikeouts (435) and batting average against (.276) on the mound. Purdue went 15-6 at home and 9-2 in midweek action, compiling a 32-18 mark after opening the season 1-6.

Individually, Matt Bischoff was honored as a First Team All-Big Ten starting pitcher. He led the Big Ten with 10 wins and 95 strikeouts and in the process became the first player in program history to be a four-time All-Big Ten honoree. He established new single-season and career strikeout marks in his final season as a Boilermaker. Bischoff and fellow pitcher Kevin Cahill were both selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

Schreiber has coached 54 All-Big Ten Conference selections, including 18 who were named to the conference's First Team, and has had players selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft on 23 occasions. One of Schreiber's Boilermakers has led the Big Ten in hitting in four out of the last seven years.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Purdue, Schreiber spent four seasons (1995-98) as the top assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under Pat Murphy at Arizona State University. Schreiber helped guide Arizona State to the College World Series and the national championship game in 1998. A year earlier, the Sun Devils finished as regional runners-up to Miami, and were two outs away from going to the College World Series. All four of Schreiber's recruiting classes at ASU were nationally ranked, including the 1995 class which was ranked No. 1 in the country and the 1996 class, which was tabbed the third best in the nation.

Before going to ASU, Schreiber served as an assistant coach for Murphy at the University of Notre Dame in 1994. That season, the Fighting Irish finished 46-16 and ended the season just two wins shy of Omaha, finishing as regional runners-up to Auburn.

Schreiber began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Pat Quinn at Ball State University for two seasons (1991-92) and spent one year (1993) as an assistant at Butler University.

A native of LaPorte, Ind., Schreiber was a four-year starter (1983-86) at second base for the Boilermakers. During his career, Purdue posted a 120-112-2 mark and established a school-record 37 victories his senior season when he was a Second Team All-Big Ten selection. Schreiber still ranks among Purdue's career leaders in a variety of categories, including top-six ranking in four categories. Schreiber ranks first all-time in walks (132), fourth in runs scored (159), tied for third in games played (220) and tied for sixth in triples (9). He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications and has completed some course work towards a master's in education.

PURDUE OPENS BIG TEN PLAY AT OHIO STATE

- The Boilermakers carry their conference-best 14-3 record into the opening weekend of Big Ten play, traveling to Columbus for their first series with Ohio State since 2009. The Buckeyes were the non-play opponent for Purdue the last two years due to the conference having 10 baseball-playing universities (now 11) and only eight conference weekends. The two teams did not meet up in the 2010 or 2011 Big Ten Tournaments. The Boilermakers will not play Indiana or Minnesota during their regular season this year.
- Purdue has played 148 games against 46 different opponents since it last played Ohio State. But the Boilers have played at OSU's Bill Davis Stadium more recently. Even though the Buckeyes did not make the field, the 2010 Big Ten Tournament was held at Bill Davis Stadium, which now features artificial turf. Purdue played in four games at the 2010 Big Ten Tournament.
- The Boilermakers have had their fair share of struggles against Ohio State. During Doug Schreiber's 14-year tenure as head coach, Purdue's 10 wins and .256 winning percentage vs. OSU both represent the lowest totals against any Big Ten rival. The Boilers have won a weekend series vs. the Buckeyes just once (2008 in Columbus) since 1999.
- The 2008 series marked the last time Purdue won its Big Ten-opening series, taking three-of-four against Northwestern at Lambert Field that season. The Boilermakers have not opened Big Ten play with a series win on the road since 1995 (3-of-4 at Illinois).

BOILERS' BATS SECOND IN THE NATION IN TEAM BATTING AVERAGE ENTERING THE WEEK

- Fueled in part by the .437 average Purdue posted in the Murray State sweep (March 9-11), the Boilers entered the week ranked second in the nation with a .352 team batting average. Purdue was also ninth in scoring and slugging percentage. But the defense has been performing well, too. The Boilermakers were second in double plays turned per game and ranked fourth in total twin killings (22).

10-GAME WIN STREAK SNAPPED IN WICHITA; 14-1 START BEST IN SCHOOL HISTORY

- Purdue's 10-game win streak was snapped in a doubleheader sweep at the hands of Wichita State March 17 on the final day of the spring break trip. The Boilermakers lost more games on St. Patrick's Day than they had in the first month of the season (one). Purdue had not dropped both games of a doubleheader since May 2010 at Iowa. The 10-game win streak was the program's longest since the 2001 team won 13 in row.
- At 14-1 before the St. Patrick's Day sweep, the Boilers posted the best one-loss start in program history. Previously, the 1959 team had gone 13-1 before suffering its second loss of the year.
- Purdue has posted its 14 wins against 12 team different teams. The Boilermakers played each of their first 10 games of the season against 10 different opponents.
- While the offense grabbed headlines after scoring 40 runs while batting .437 in the series sweep of Murray State (March 9-11), the pitching and defense also performed well in Purdue's first road sweep since taking all three games of a series at Lipscomb the first weekend of March last season. The Boilermakers only surrendered five runs in the series, with Murray State scoring only one run after the first inning. Defensively, Purdue did not commit an error in the series while turning six double plays.
- The Boilermakers won a low-scoring game March 13 at Missouri State, with the combined six runs scored in Springfield representing the fewest in a Purdue game this season. The Boilers are 6-1 in games decided by three runs or less, their only loss coming in the finale of the Wichita State series.

BOILERS NOW OFFICIALLY RANKED IN ALL FOUR NATIONAL POLLS

- After debuting at No. 24 this week in the USA Today/ESPN Top 25 coaches' poll, Purdue is now nationally ranked in all four major national polls at the same time for the first time in program history.
- Among the Collegiate Baseball Top 30 for the third week in a row, the Boilers moved up to No. 24 this week. Purdue remained ranked in the Baseball America Top 25 and National Collegiate Baseball Writers of Association Top 30 polls for the second week in a row. The Boilermakers slipped one spot to No. 25 in Baseball America's poll and held steady at No. 28 in the NCBWA rankings.
- The program has earned its first in-season national ranking since February 2001 (Baseball America). The Boilermakers were also nationally ranked in the 2002 NCBWA preseason poll.
- Thanks to a 14-3 record after recently reeling off a 10-game win streak, Purdue entered the week No. 8 nationally in the Boyd's World daily RPI. Thanks to a strength of schedule that was 35th entering the week, the Boilers are as high as fourth nationally in Boyd's World's ISR (Iterative Strength Ratings). Among the top 20 in the ISR, Purdue's strength of schedule has been the ninth toughest.
- The Boilermakers has been ranked among the Top 30 of Perfect Game USA's national Top 50 all season, staying at No. 20 this week.

BIG SCORING EDGE LATE IN GAMES

- Purdue has feasted on relief pitching for much of the season, best demonstrated by a 91-30 scoring edge from sixth through ninth innings. The Boilermakers have scored 42 runs in the sixth inning, more than double the total they have posted in any other frame this year. Coincidentally, Purdue has only scored six runs in the fifth inning.
- The Boilermakers have scored four more runs in an inning 10 times this year. Nine of those 10 occurrences have come in the sixth inning or later. Purdue has registered extended sixth-inning rallies featuring run totals of nine (Feb. 19 vs. UND), eight (March 10 at Murray), seven (Feb. 26 vs. WCU and March 3 vs. USM) five (March 15 at WSU) and four (twice).
- On multiple occasions this season, Purdue has been able to score runs against an opposing reliever that entered the day having not surrendered an earned on the year. Wichita's Foster Vielock (3 H, 3 ER), Murray's Will Handlin (7 H, 5 ER), Southern Miss' Cameron Giannini (3 H, 4 ER), and Auburn's Dillon Ortman (H, ER) and Cory Luckie (2 H, 2 ER) all failed to hold down the Purdue offense in close games that the Boilers went on to win.

TWO-OUT RBI TITANS

• Barrett Serrato (13 RBIs, 11 with two outs), Sean McHugh (9, 7), David Miller (8, 5) and Stephen Talbott (10, 6) have supplied the majority of their run production in clutch situations this season. All four players enter the weekend having recorded more than half their RBIs with two outs in an inning. Serrato has led the way, collecting 11 of his 13 RBIs with two outs. On two occasions this year, the opposition (East Carolina and Wichita State) intentionally walked Kevin Plawecki with a runner in scoring position to setup a lefty-lefty matchup with Serrato. He delivered a run-scoring single in both instances.

• McHugh and Serrato have both connected for three-run homers with two outs in an inning this season. McHugh hit his three-run on the first pitch thrown by new WSU reliever Tobin Mateychick in the sixth inning of game two of the series. Serrato's three-run homer capped the seven-run rally in the comeback win against Southern Miss.

WITTGREN BREAKS SAVES RECORD AS PITCHING CARRIES THE LOAD IN MSU WIN

• Connor Podkul did not give up a hit until the fifth inning in his first collegiate start and Blake Mascarello and Nick Wittgren backed him up with 4 2/3 innings of one-run relief, as solid pitching led Purdue to a 4-2 win at Missouri State March 13.

• Wittgren recorded his 16th career save by retiring six of the eight batters he faced over two innings of hitless relief. The junior officially eclipsed the program's all-time saves record. He entered the night in a three-way tie with former closers Scott Dubach (1985-87) and Andy Helmer (1997-00).

• Wittgren recorded his 16 saves in his first 35 relief appearances. He has converted 16 of his 18 save opportunities since becoming the closer early in the 2011 season. Seven of his 16 career saves have come in appearances longer than one inning.

• Wittgren is the first Boiler to establish a new individual program record since Matt Bischoff recorded his 258th career strikeout to break the all-time record in an April 2010 home win against Northwestern.

DeANO EARNS THE WIN IN HIS COLLEGIATE DEBUT, STILL YET TO SURRENDER A RUN

• Jack DeAno worked three innings of hitless relief in his Purdue debut, earning the win in the comeback victory against Southern Miss March 3. He retired nine of the 11 batters he faced, highlighted by a 1-2-3 ninth inning. Southern Miss, which had scored 32 runs in its last two games entering the day, racked up nine runs on 13 hits through the first six innings.

• DeAno has now pitched in three games, working at least two scoreless innings in each of his relief appearances. He has yet to surrender a run. The right-hander worked 3 1/3 innings of scoreless relief, striking out four, to help lead the Boilers to a series-opening win at Wichita State March 15.

• DeAno sat out the 2011 season as a transfer from Vanderbilt. He had not pitched since high school and was listed as an outfielder on the roster his first year with the program. While he could still see action as a defensive replacement or pinch runner, he is now expected to remain a full-time member of the bullpen.

BOILERS POUND OUT PROGRAM-RECORD 30 HITS IN BLOWOUT OF MURRAY STATE

• Purdue pounded out a school-record 30 hits and scored eight runs in an inning twice, reaching the 20-run plateau for the first time since March 2008 in a 22-1 win at Murray State March 10. The Boilermakers sent 12 men to the plate in the eight-run sixth inning that blew the game open and later scored eight times with two outs in the top of the ninth.

• The previous program record for hits was 26, accomplished twice, most recently in a 2006 win at Indiana (25-8). That game also marked the last time Purdue scored 20-plus runs in a road game.

• The Boilers also turned four double plays in a game (March 10) for the third time this year, highlighted by a 2-5-4 twin killing on a MSU sac bunt attempt with two aboard and no outs in the second inning.

MASCARELLO STELLAR IN LONG RELIEF ROLE

• Senior left-hander Blake Mascarello has been Purdue's most consistent pitcher over the first month of the season, earning the win in four of his nine relief appearances. He was the winning pitcher against Connecticut, Auburn, Murray State (game one) and Missouri State. Mascarello has surrendered a run in only three of his nine appearances and helped the Boilers maintain a lead all but one time (game four at Wichita State) he has taken the mound.

• While the lefty has been consistently excellent, his work in the Connecticut and Murray State wins stand out. He retired 12 of the 14 batters he faced over four scoreless innings in the season opener against UConn. In the series opener against Murray State, he retired 13 of the 14 batters he faced. In both instances he closed out the victory.

TALBOTT TABBED BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- Stephen Talbott recorded multiple hits and scored a run in all three games of the series sweep at Murray State (March 9-11), hitting for the cycle over the course of the weekend, and the No. 9 hitter was recognized as the Big Ten Conference Player of the Week for his efforts. Talbott finished the weekend 10-for-17 with four extra-base hits, five RBIs and five runs scored. The outfielder collected four hits in the wins Saturday and Sunday, his first collegiate four-hit efforts.
- Thanks to a two-run double and a home run, Talbott also matched his career high with four RBIs in the series finale. The two-run double came with two outs in the second inning and tied the game. He went deep to left field in the sixth inning to extend the Boilers' one-run lead entering the frame.
- Talbott also recorded two hits in Purdue eight-run sixth inning in the middle game of the series.
- For the second year in a row, the Boilers had at least one player honored as the Big Ten Player or Pitcher of the Week after each of the first four weekends of the season.
- Talbott finished the spring break trip a team-best 16-for-34 (.471) with six extra-base hits and eight RBIs. He remains a perfect 28-for-28 on stolen base attempts for his career.

PLawecki ON JOHNNY BENCH WATCH LIST AGAIN

- After being among the 13 semifinalists nationally a season ago for the Johnny Bench Award, Kevin Plawecki has once again been selected to the initial watch list for the award that recognizes the nation's top all-around catcher. The initial watch list featured 43 catchers. More could be added as the season progresses and a group of semifinalists will be announced May 16.
- Plawecki homered on consecutive days in the wins against Southern Miss and Charleston Southern. Both home runs were towering fly balls over the 35-foot-high wall in left field. He went deep in back-to-back games for the third time in his career. He also accomplished the feat in 2010 (at Illinois State and vs. Penn State) and 2011 (games two and three of Illinois series). Among active Boilers, Ryan Bridges, Cameron Perkins (twice) and Tyler Spillner have also homered in back-to-back games.
- Plawecki and Iowa's Dan Sheppard were the only Big Ten backstops named to the initial watch list. Plawecki has batted cleanup in each of the first 13 games this season, starting all but two behind the plate. Defensively, Plawecki has thrown out four of six would-be base stealers over the first 13 games. He recorded his 100th career RBI in the weekend-opening win against Auburn.

WITTGREN WINS BIG TEN PITCHER OF THE WEEK

- Closer Nick Wittgren finished off two of Purdue's three wins at Auburn's tournament (March 2-4), tying the program's all-time record with his 15th career save and earning Big Ten Pitcher of the Week honors for his efforts.
- Wittgren closed out the victories against Auburn and Charleston Southern, retiring eight of the 11 batters he faced over his three innings of scoreless relief. More importantly, the junior got some big outs when the Boilers need them most. He left the potential tying run at second base while finishing off the Auburn win and fanned the CSU leadoff hitter with the bases loaded to close out the eighth inning.
- Andy Helmer was the last Purdue pitcher to win Big Ten Pitcher of the Week honors as a reliever, accomplishing the feat in April 2000.

100 & 200 CAREER LANDMARKS

- The first four hitters in the Purdue lineup enjoyed a productive night in the March 2 win at Auburn. Tyler Spillner and Eric Charles both recorded four-hit efforts at the top of the order, setting the table for Cameron Perkins and Kevin Plawecki. Perkins and Plawecki both tallied their 100th career RBIs in the victory. Together the four hitters were a combined 11-for-20 with nine RBIs and five runs scored.
- Perkins' game-tying sacrifice fly in the sixth inning plated Stephen Talbott and accounted for his 100th career RBI. Plawecki's 100th RBI came on a two-run single in the eighth inning that drove in Spillner and Charles. To go-ahead run had scored on Charles' base hit earlier in the inning.
- In the Murray State series (March 9-11), Tyler Spillner posted his 200th career hit (a three-run homer in game two of the series) and Joe Haase registered is 100th career strikeout. Eric Charles had his 200th career hit & 100th career RBI at the East Carolina Tournament (Feb. 25-26).

SERRATO'S THREE-RUN HOMER CAPS SEVEN-RUN TWO-OUT RALLY

- Punctuated by a go-ahead three-run homer from Barrett Serrato, Purdue scored seven times with two outs in the seventh inning to overcome a six-run deficit and stun Southern Miss, 10-9, March 3 at Auburn's four-team tournament.
- Seven consecutive Purdue hitters reached base safely during the quick-strike rally, which began innocently enough with a seeing-eye single up the middle from David Miller. The Boilermakers have scored seven or more runs in an inning three times this year, all three extended rallies giving Purdue the lead in the sixth inning or later.
- Stephen Talbott, Tyler Spillner, Cameron Perkins and Kevin Plawecki each delivered a run-scoring hit to set the stage for Serrato. The senior connected for a three-run homer to right center that capped the rally. Purdue hit for the cycle in the inning, Talbott tripling home Miller and Spillner doubling home Talbott.
- Miller was named to CollegeBaseball360.com's Primetime Performers national honor roll after finishing the weekend 5-for-12 and scoring a run in all three games of the Auburn tournament. He also played flawless defense at shortstop. The junior singled and scored the go-ahead run and later a key insurance run in each of the final two innings of the win against Auburn.

BREEDLOVE MAKING BATTERS EARN THEIR WAY ON BASE

- Lance Breedlove has issued just four walks in his first five starts while leading the team with 29 strikeouts. He issued only one free pass in his first four starts (March 3 vs. Southern Miss) but walked three batters in his start at Wichita State. The senior worked 14 1/3 innings before that first base on balls vs. USM.
- Blake Mascarello also issued his first walk of the season at the Auburn tournament (March 2-4). The senior had not issued a walk in his first 7 2/3 innings over three appearances. Coincidentally, he walked the first batter he faced in his relief outing against Auburn. The lefty still got the win though, stranding the bases loaded in the fifth inning and facing only 10 batters in the sixth through eight innings. He worked 1-2-3 frames in the sixth and eighth.

CHARLES CONSISTENCY EARNS SENIOR BIG TEN PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

- Eric Charles recorded multiple hits and scored a run in all three games of the Keith LeClair Classic earning the senior Big Ten co-Player of the Week honors.
- The second baseman finished the weekend 8-for-12 with two doubles, three RBIs and four runs scored. Charles got off to a hot start this season, leading the way a .560 batting average (14-for-25) over the first six games. He hit safely in each of first seven games (including six multi-hit efforts) and scored a run in the first eight. His career-best streak of reaching base safely in 27 consecutive games ended March 4 in the win against Charleston Southern.

BOILERS TURN EIGHT DOUBLE PLAYS IN GREENVILLE

- Purdue turned four double plays in each of its two victories at the Keith LeClair Classic. Of the eight twin killings, six were of the inning-ending variety and none bigger than the 1-2-3 game-ending double play in the East Carolina win. Nick Wittgren induced a comebacker off the bat of the ECU cleanup hitter with the bases loaded, one out and Purdue clinging to a 6-4 lead. Wittgren had already walked the previous two hitters to load the bases when the count went full against ECU's Chase McDonald. But moments later the game was over and Wittgren had earned his 13th career save, moving into third place on the Purdue all-time list.
- Joe Haase (two), Joe Eichmann, Calvin Gunter, Blake Mascarello and Connor Podkul also induced at least one ground ball double play ball. Mascarello started a 1-6-3 double play to eliminate a leadoff single in the eighth inning of the ECU win. Defensively, David Miller (six) and Eric Charles (five) were active in the twin killings at the second base bag.
- Purdue also turned four double plays in a game in a March 2011 home win against IPFW and three times during the 2009 campaign.

SPILLNER & CHARLES IGNITE THE OFFENSE AT ECU TOURNEY

- While batting their customary first and second in the lineup at ECU's Keith LeClair Classic (Feb. 25-26), Tyler Spillner (7-for-12) and Eric Charles (8-for-12) were a combined 15-for-24 with three walks, five RBIs and 10 runs scored. Both players reached base safely in all three games and had multiple hits in Purdue's two wins.
- Spillner reached base safely in three of his six opportunities to leadoff an inning, including the first inning of both wins. He's been on safely to open an inning in nine of his 17 opportunities early this season. Sunday in the victory against Western Carolina, the senior posted his third career four-hit effort, scoring a run while recording a hit in each of his first four at-bats.
- Andrew Dixon, Spillner and Charles each reached base safely twice and scored a run during the seven-run rally against WCU that decided the game. All three players recorded a hit their first time up to ignite the rally. They each walked in their second plate appearances of the extended frame.

PERKINS' 67-GAME STREAK SNAPPED IN LOSS TO MARYLAND

- After getting robbed of a potential base hit up the middle on a nice play by the Maryland pitcher in what proved to be Cameron Perkins' final at-bat of the game, the junior's remarkable streak of reaching base safely in 67 consecutive games was snapped. The streak dated back to 2010. Perkins reached base safely at least one in every game he played as a sophomore.
- Perkins reached base safely 133 times during his streak. He collected 98 hits, 12 walks and was hit by a pitch 23 times, good for an on-base percentage of .421.
- In Big Ten play, Perkins has reached base safely in 42 consecutive contests dating back to 2010. Including the Big Ten Tournament, he has managed to find his way on base in 49 straight games against conference opponents. He has compiled an on-base percentage of .425 during his Big Ten streak thanks to reaching base safely 94 times (70 hits, eight walks, 16 hit by pitch).

BREEDLOVE BESTOWED WITH PITCHER OF THE WEEK HONORS

- Lance Breedlove's career-high 11 strikeouts over his seven innings of two-hit ball in Purdue's shutout win of Cincinnati (Feb. 18) earned the senior right-hander National Pitcher of the Week honors from College Sports Madness as well as Big Ten co-Pitcher of the Week honors.
- Breedlove was dominant in his fifth career start as a Boiler. He surrendered only a pair of two-out singles and did not allow a base runner to advance past first. His 11 strikeouts represented the most by a Purdue pitcher since Matt Morgan fanned 14 in a March 2010 win at Ohio.
- Breedlove would have retired the final 16 batters he faced if not for a two-out error in the fifth inning. The senior worked four 1-2-3 frames. He struck out the side in the first inning. Thanks in part to not issuing a walk, Breedlove only needed 89 pitches to complete his seven innings. Purdue's first shutout win since the 2011 Big Ten home opener against Michigan was played in two hours and two minutes.

PERKINS' GRAND SLAM HIGHLIGHTS NINE-RUN RALLY

- Highlighted by a nine-run sixth inning that featured a grand slam from Cameron Perkins, Purdue scored in each of the final five innings to overcome a four-run deficit and defeat Notre Dame, 15-8, on the final day (Feb. 19) of the Big Ten/Big East Challenge.
- Each of the nine players in the batting order reached base safely and scored a run before an out was recorded in the sixth inning, leading to the Boilers' biggest inning since also scoring nine times in a March 2010 home win against Chicago State. Perkins connected for the first grand slam by a Boiler since April 2010, giving Purdue a 9-4 lead with a blast to left field. He finished with five RBIs, one shy of his career high. The grand slam was his 17th career home run, tops among active Boilers.

Coming Soon: Alexander Field at the Northwest Athletics Complex Construction Began in Spring of 2011 Stadium to be located near the intersection of McCormick & Cherry on the northwest side of campus

Alexander Field will soon be the new home of the Boilermakers. The $21 million baseball stadium, to be financed with athletics department funds, could eventually seat up to 2,500 spectators in the first phase of improvements to the Northwest Athletics Complex that includes the adjacent soccer facility. The intercollegiate baseball stadium will replace the existing 1,100-seat Lambert Field, which has been the team's home since 1965. The new stadium will be named Alexander Field in honor of the late John and Anna Margaret Ross Alexander. The Alexanders were the parents of Dave Alexander, who is giving the lead gift for the project. David Alexander was Purdue baseball coach from 1978 to 1991 and then an athletics administrator through 1994. All three Alexanders graduated from Purdue, and Dave played on Purdue's baseball team. John Alexander earned a bachelor's degree in 1933, while Anna Margaret Ross Alexander earned a bachelor's degree in 1935. Both received honorary doctorates from Purdue in 1986.
