Since Doug Schreiber was named Purdue's head baseball coach on May 29, 1998, the Boilermakers have become a major force in the Big Ten Conference and have made big strides on a national level.

Currently in his 15th season as the leader of the program, Schreiber is the program's all-time leader in overall wins and Big Ten wins. In 2007, Schreiber became the third head coach in Purdue baseball history to surpass the 500-games mark as the Boilermakers' head man. Dave Alexander, whom Schreiber played for from 1983 to 1986, owned the record for most games coached at Purdue with 792 over 14 seasons. Schreiber eclipsed Alexander's record for games coached during the second weekend of the 2013 season.

During its historic 2012 season, Purdue won a program-record 45 games, captured a pair of Big Ten titles, earned the right to host an NCAA Regional and closed out Lambert Field in thrilling fashion. Schreiber was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year after leading the Boilers to the most wins by a Big Ten team since 2008. He won his 400th and program-record 408th career games at Lambert in the spring of 2012. His 408th victory as the leader of the program, April 15 in the finale of a series sweep of Illinois, made him Purdue's all-time wins leader.

The Boilermakers began the 2012 season 14-1, won 10 consecutive games twice, posted their 20th win before April 1 for the first time, reached the 30-win mark at the earliest date (April 20) in program history and won their first Big Ten title since 1909. In its 16 games during the final year at Lambert, the home of the program since 1965, Purdue won three times in walk-off fashion and locked up the Big Ten title May 12 in front of a large group of program alumni.

In the five seasons between 2008 and 2012, Purdue went 172-110 overall (.610) and 75-51 in Big Ten play (.595). Both records represented the best marks in the league. The Boilermakers were the only conference team to qualify for the Big Ten Tournament each of those five seasons, the longest such streak in program history. Purdue has won at least one game at the Big Ten Tournament in eight of its nines appearances under Schreiber.

Headlined by Plawecki's selection 35th overall by the New York Mets, Purdue had a program-record seven players picked in the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Juniors Plawecki, Cameron Perkins and Nick Wittgren were each selected in the first 10 rounds to give the Boilers three players drafted in the first 300 picks for the first time. A program-record seven players were drafted overall in 2012.

Purdue's 37 overall wins in 2011 tied the program's previous single-season record and were the most in the Big Ten. Despite being picked eighth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Boilers finished third in the league with a 14-10 conference record, just one game shy of first. Purdue finished second in the Big Ten standings under Schreiber in 2001, 2005 and 2008.

Schreiber has coached 62 All-Big Ten Conference selections, including 22 who were named to the conference's First Team, and has had players selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft on 30 occasions. One of Schreiber's Boilermakers has led the Big Ten in hitting in four out of the last eight years.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Purdue, Schreiber spent four seasons (1995-98) as the top assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under Pat Murphy at Arizona State University. Schreiber helped guide Arizona State to the College World Series and the national championship game in 1998. A year earlier, the Sun Devils finished as regional runners-up to Miami, and were two outs away from going to the College World Series. All four of Schreiber's recruiting classes at ASU were nationally ranked, including the 1995 class which was ranked No. 1 in the country and the 1996 class, which was tabbed the third best in the nation.

Before going to ASU, Schreiber served as an assistant coach for Murphy at the University of Notre Dame in 1994. That season, the Fighting Irish finished 46-16 and ended the season just two wins shy of Omaha, finishing as regional runners-up to Auburn.

Schreiber began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Pat Quinn at Ball State University for two seasons (1991-92) and spent one year (1993) as an assistant at Butler University.

A native of LaPorte, Ind., Schreiber was a four-year starter (1983-86) at second base for the Boilermakers. During his career, Purdue posted a 120-112-2 mark and established a school-record 37 victories his senior season when he was a Second Team All-Big Ten selection. Schreiber still ranks among Purdue's career leaders in a variety of categories, including top-six ranking in four categories. Schreiber ranks first all-time in walks (132), fourth in runs scored (159), tied for third in games played (220) and tied for sixth in triples (9). He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications and has completed some course work towards a master's in education.

Purdue makes the long trip east to Penn State for its first road series of Big Ten play, a three-game set that will feature a pair of teams looking to get on track after suffering sweeps during the conference-opening weekend.

First pitch at Medlar Field is set for Friday at 4 p.m., Saturday at 2 p.m. and Sunday at 1 p.m. However, with the forecast calling for rain Sunday, a Saturday doubleheader is a possibility. If that scenario becomes a reality, it would be Purdue's third consecutive Saturday of doubleheader action.

Unlike much of the Midwest, Central Pennsylvania only received approximately four inches of snow from winter storm Virgil earlier this week. Penn State (5-15, 0-3 Big Ten) was able to play its home opener Wednesday against Pittsburgh, losing 10-8. The Nittany Lions enter the weekend having lost seven straight games dating back to a March 9 walk-off loss at Houston Baptist in game two of a doubleheader.

While Purdue (7-14, 0-3 Big Ten) was suffering a series sweep at the hands of Ohio State last weekend, PSU also played in the state of Indiana and dropped all three games. Nationally-ranked Indiana continued its hot stretch by sweeping the Nittany Lions in Bloomington. Purdue was out-scored 25-4 by OSU. Penn State was outscored 22-6 by IU.

Both teams maximized their upperclassman-laden rosters a year ago. Purdue took the first two games of the head-to-head series at Lambert Field in March of last last season, winning a pair of quickly-played games. The Nittany Lions scored 16 runs in the series finale to win the game and leave town on a high note. They went on to take each of their remaining Big Ten series to finish third in the final standings.

This year, the Boilers have had 15 different position players start games. The Nittany Lions have had 14 do so. As a result, PSU has scored 88 runs in its 20 games (4.4 average), Purdue 89 runs in its 21 games (4.24 average). Around the Big Ten, only Nebraska has scored fewer runs per game (4.04).

Head coach Doug Schreiber stressed this week that the Boilers' offense needed to find a way to generate more sustained scoring opportunities to take the pressure off the pitching and de-fense. Purdue batted only .144 as a team in the Ohio State series. Fly ball outs and strikeouts were an issue. The Boilermakers made 31 outs on fly balls and struck out 19 times over the course of the series. Timely hitting with runners on base was also a problem again. Purdue was 2-for-32 with runners on base and 1-for-18 with runners in scoring position, scoring its four runs on two fielder's choices and two sacrifice flies.

The Boilermakers will rearrange the starting rotation this weekend, moving Jordan Minch up to game one, Robert Ramer up to game two and Brad Schreiber back to game three. Doug Schreiber liked the way Minch and Ramer attacked hitters and peppered the strike zone Saturday against OSU after four Purdue pitchers combined to issue 14 walks in the series-opening loss.

Schreiber is the only active pitcher to start a game against Penn State. Unfortunately, Medlar Field was where he suffered a season-ending elbow injury in April 2011 that led to Tommy John surgery. Schreiber had surrendered only two hits through 5 1/3 innings when he had to leave the game in sixth inning with the score tied 1-1.

Penn State has two familiar faces in its rotation. Senior right-hander Steven Hill has started a game against Purdue each of the last three years and is known to pitch deep into games. He has just one win in his five starts this year despite compiling a 3.48 ERA. He pitched a no-hitter at Iowa in April of last season. Projected game three starter Greg Welsh started the rubber game win in the 2011 series in University Park won by Purdue and finished off PSU's victory in the series finale at Lambert Field a year ago.

BOILERMAKERS TRAVEL TO PENN STATE FOR FIRST BIG TEN ROAD SERIES

• After suffering a series sweep at the hands of Ohio State during the opening weekend of Big Ten play, Purdue makes the long trip east this weekend to Penn State for its first road series of conference play. The Nittany Lions were also swept in their conference-opening weekend, losing all three games at nationally-ranked Indiana.
• The Boilermakers have won five straight series against PSU dating back to 2008. During that stretch, Purdue has won 14 of the 19 games, taking two-of-three in University Park in 2009 and 2011. The 33 wins and .611 winning percentage against Penn State since 1999 are the Boilers' best against any Big Ten rival during Doug Schreiber's time as head coach. Purdue has lost the season series with PSU only twice (2003 and 2007) during that span.
• The Boilermakers are rearranging the starting rotation this weekend, moving Jordan Minch to Friday and Robert Ramer to Saturday. Brad Schreiber moves to the Sunday starter after struggling with his control again in the Big Ten opener against Ohio State. Penn State's Medlar Field was the site where Schreiber suffered his season-ending elbow injury in April 2011 that eventually led to the right-hander having Tommy John surgery. Schreiber is Purdue's only active pitcher that has started a game against the Nittany Lions.

PURDUE'S BATS QUIET IN FIRST SERIES AT ALEXANDER FIELD

• The Boilermakers only managed to score four runs in 27 innings while getting swept by Ohio State to open conference play. It was also Purdue's first action at the new Alexander Field stadium. Two home midweek games have already had to be canceled due to cold weather and the recent snow storm that led to unplayable field conditions this week.
• The Boilermakers batted only .144 as a team (13-for-90) in the Ohio State series. Fly ball outs and strikeouts were an issue. Purdue made 31 outs on fly balls and struck out 19 times. Timely hitting with runners on base was also a problem again. The Boilers were 2-for-32 with runners on base and 1-for-18 with runners in scoring position. Purdue scored its four runs on two fielder's choices and two sacrifice flies. During the seven-game losing streak from Feb. 22 through March 8, the Boilers batted only .167 with runners in scoring position.
• Ohio State played a very clean series and impressed with its base-hit approach throughout the weekend. The Buckeyes did not commit an error defensively to support their pitchers, who issued only eight free passes in 27 innings. By comparison, Purdue pitchers gave up 19 free passes, 16 of those coming in game one. With the Boilers throwing more strikes on Saturday, OSU pounded out 30 hits in the Saturday doubleheader and only one went for extra bases. By fouling off a number of pitches and recording five consecutive singles, the Buckeyes made game two starter Jordan Minch throw 47 pitches in the first inning. He went on strike out six over five-plus innings.
• Purdue suffered its first sweep at home since April 2009, also at the hands of Ohio State. The road team has won the last five Purdue-OSU series dating back to 2007.

REACHED BASE SAFELY STREAKS END FOR HANSEN & KRIEG

• Jake Hansen leads the team with a .365 batting average and a .477 on-base percentage thanks in part to a Purdue-high 11 walks. The senior reached base safely in 13 consecutive games from Feb. 24 through March 23, highlighted by a nine-game hitting streak that was snapped in the March 16 win at Evansville. Both streaks represent the longest by a Boiler this season, as well as the longest of Hansen's career. He batted .400 (12-for-30) with a .514 on-base during his nine-game hit streak. During the 13-game reached safely streak, he batted .390 (16-for-31) with a .500 on-base. Hansen has reached base safely in 18 of the first 21 games this season, all but the two match ups with Mississippi State and the finale of the Ohio State series.
• Brandon Krieg reached base safely in 10 straight games in which he has batted from Feb. 24 through March 16. He actually struggled at the plate during the stretch, batting just .158 (6-for-38) while cooling off after a hot start to the season. But the second baseman found a way to get on base via a walk, hit or HBP at least once in the 10 straight games despite his struggles.

PURDUE SOLID DEFENSIVELY EARLY THIS SEASON

• Purdue's consistency defensively has been one of the bright spots during the early-season struggles. The Boilermakers have committed 22 errors in their first 21 games, with seven of those miscues coming in the first two games. As of March 27, Purdue's .973 fielding percentage ranked tied for third in the Big Ten. The Boilers have also turned 21 double plays, the fourth most in the league. Purdue opponents have committed 26 errors this year.
• Jake Hansen and Sean McHugh have been particularly good on the left side of the infield. Hansen has committed four errors in 90 chances at shortstop and did not have his first miscue until game No. 12. He has contributed to 11 of the 19 double plays. McHugh made only one error in 42 chances at third base while starting 14 of the first 21 games at the hot corner. He moved back behind the plate in time for the March 9 game at UIC and started seven straight games at catcher. Conner Hudnall, who has a pair of outfield assists, started the other seven games at third base and made two errors in 21 chances.

McHUGH & PICCHIOTTI BOTH BAT LEADOFF AS THE STARTING CATCHER

• A catcher batting leadoff in the lineup is typically a rare occurrence. But in an ongoing effort to find the right lineup combination, Doug Schreiber has already had two players bat leadoff as the starting catcher. Sean McHugh did it in both games of the Evansville doubleheader on March 16, finishing the day 1-for-7 with a walk and a run scored. Jack Picchiotti also got the opportunity in game one of the March 23 doubleheader against Ohio State, going 1-for-5 in the loss.
• Spencer Ingaldson (May 2007) was the last Boiler to bat leadoff as the starting catcher. But going back to the beginning of the 2005 season, Purdue has not had two different players do so in the same season before this year.

MINCH NAMED BIG TEN FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK FOR IMPRESSIVE START
• Jordan Minch did not surrender a hit that left the infield in his six shutout innings in the game two win at Evansville March 16, earning Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors for his strong outing. The lefty won his pitcher's duel with Evansville's Kyle Lloyd, retiring 12 consecutive batters at one point while not allowing a hit until the fifth inning. The game was scoreless until Kyle Wood delivered a two-out, two-run double in the sixth. Purdue went on to win, 4-1, after Conner Hundall hit a two-run homer in the ninth.
• In back-to-back starts, Minch put together a double-figure streak of consecutive batters retired. After setting down 10 in a row March 9 at Illinois-Chicago, the lefty was even more locked in against Evansville. The streak of 12 consecutive batters retired from the first through fifth innings was highlighted by a three-strikeout bottom of the second. He finished his day with a season-high seven strikeouts. The two hits he allowed were the infield single in the fifth and a bunt single in the sixth.
• Minch joined Josh Estill (Feb. 18) as Boilers to win Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors this season.

SCHREIBER ESCAPES NUMEROUS JAMS IN SERIES-OPENING WIN AT EVANSVILLE
• Brad Schreiber and Patrick Kenney made the big pitches when they needed to while starting and closing out the March 15 series-opening win at Evansville on the mound, leaving 11 runners on base.
• Schreiber earned his first victory of the year with his finest outing of 2013, striking out a season-high seven over six innings of one-run ball. The right-hander recorded just one 1-2-3 inning but consistently pitched out of tight spots while surrendering four hits and two walks. Evansville hitters were just 1-for-11 against him with runners on base.
• Kenney earned his third save of the season by getting the final seven outs. He surrendered only one hit, a leadoff single in the ninth by the UE leadoff man Kevin Kaczmarski, but that base runner was thrown out trying to steal second base. Kenney induced fly outs to end the seventh and ninth innings with the potential tying run in scoring position.

RAMER EARNS FIRST HIS FIRST SAVE SINCE 2010
• Having thrown over 100 pitches in his March 12 win at Cincinnati, Purdue head coach Doug Schreiber determined Robert Ramer would not start the finale of the Evansville series on three days rest after the game was moved up as part of a Saturday doubleheader. However, Ramer was available in relief in game one of the doubleheader. The senior recorded the final six outs of the Boilers' 4-1 win to earn his first save since 2010.
• Evansville nearly tied the game in the bottom of the eighth against Ramer. A runner tried to score from first base after an infield single to third base and a throwing error. The ball went to fence line behind the first base bag, where Angelo Cianfrocco retrieved it and threw the man out on a close play at the plate to end the inning.

BOILERS WIN DESPITE STRIKING OUT 12 TIMES
• Strikeouts have been an issue for Purdue this season, averaging 7.2 strikeouts per game at the plate. That's up from the team's average of 4.5 Ks per game a year ago. The Boilermakers have already struck out 10 or more times in a game four times this year. Purdue did not have a double-figure strikeout game during the 2012 Big Ten championship season.
• The Boilermakers managed to win their March 16 game at Evansville despite striking out 12 times against UE starting pitcher Kyle Lloyd, who went the distance. The last time Purdue won a game in which it struck at least 10 times was April 29, 2011, vs. Indiana (10 Ks). But that was a 12-inning game at Lambert Field decided on a walk-off single from Sean McHugh. The last nine-inning game the Boilers won with a double-figure strikeout total was March 23, 2011, vs. Wabash College (11 Ks).

TALBOTT COMES AROUND AS OF LATE, GOES DEEP AT UIC
• After a forgettable 1-for-9 series at Samford and 2-for-17 six-game stretch, senior Stephen Talbott broke out of the slump during the spring break trip. He batted .345 (10-for-29) and hit for the cycle over the course of the seven-game trip thanks to five extra-base hits. He led the team with 10 runs scored during spring break. In the series-opening win at Evansville, he had a hit, stole a base and scored a run in each of Purdue's two-run rallies.
• Talbott connected for a two-run homer in the series opener at UIC, his sixth career long ball to tie him with Angelo Cianfrocco for the lead among active Boilers.

PURDUE AMONG NATIONAL LEADERS IN NEW PLAYERS THAT HAVE SEEN ACTION

• With Cody Webster and Steve Maniago having made their regular-season debuts this month, 16 new Boilermakers have now seen action this season. With 12 freshmen and 16 new players having taken the field for the first time this season, Purdue ranks among the national leaders in both categories.
• Webster made the team as a left-handed pitcher during preseason practice. He is also the punter on the Purdue football team. Travis Dorsch was the last student-athlete to play football (1998-01) and baseball (1999-00) at Purdue. He was a punter/kicker on the football team and pitcher for baseball. Dorsch later played in the NFL.
• Upperclassmen, specifically seniors, were a driving force behind Purdue's program-record 45-win season and Big Ten title in 2012. The Boilermakers graduated 15 seniors and also lost three juniors that were selected in the MLB First-Year Player from last season's team.
• Gavin Downs is on the travel roster for the first time as Purdue heads to Penn State this weekend. If he gets a chance to pitch, the redshirt-freshman would be the 17th new Boiler to play this season.

RAMER FINISHES ONE OUT SHY OF ANOTHER COMPLETE-GAME VICTORY; MINCH EARNS FIRST WIN

• Robert Ramer finished just one out shy of his second complete-game victory of the season and his teammates staked him to an early lead with a four-run first inning as Purdue won 7-4 at Cincinnati March 12. Ramer struck out a season-high seven and retired the first 10 batters of the game in order, highlighted by striking out the side in the bottom of the third. He surrendered two runs in the fifth and ninth innings, but the senior also induced three ground ball double plays, including two of the inning-ending variety. The senior earned his 15th career win to move within one of joining the program's all-time leaderboard.
• In the March 9 win at Illinois-Chicago, Jordan Minch earned his first career win by getting off to a strong start. He recorded three 1-2-3 innings and retired 10 consecutive batters at one point. He gave up a pair of two-run homers to left field in the sixth inning to somewhat sully what was otherwise a strong outing. He did not issue a walk until the fifth inning and induced an inning-ending 6-4-3 double play with the bases loaded in the fifth.

20-HIT GAME HELPS PURDUE SNAP SEVEN-GAME SKID

• Four Boilers had at least three hits as Purdue recorded season-high totals in runs and hits (20), posting a pair of big innings to defeat Illinois-Chicago, 17-10, March 9 and snap a seven-game losing streak. The Boilermakers scored eight times in the second inning and six times in the eighth. The eight-run rally was the biggest of the young season and Purdue's biggest since the 10-run ninth inning in the 2012 comeback win at UCLA, which was the team's last 20-hit game. The 17 runs were the most since scoring 30 in a March 10 win at Murray State last season.
• Jack Picchiotti delivered a pair of RBI singles in the eight-run inning, finishing the day 4-for-6 to become the fourth Boiler this season to record a four-hit game. Sean McHugh and Jack Amaro had three hits apiece as well.
• The win snapped Purdue's losing streak since starting the 2008 season 0-9. The first weekend of March, the Boilers were swept in a three-game series at Samford, suffering their first series sweep since May 2011 at Michigan State and their first sweep against a nonconference opponent since March 2009 at Texas State.
• Purdue was outscored 50-20 during the seven-game skid. The Boilermakers batted only .210 as a team in the seven straight losses, including a .167 clip (9-for-54) with runners in scoring position. Meanwhile, the pitching staff issued 40 walks and hit nine batters while recording only 33 strikeouts in 57 innings pitched. During the streak-snapping win at UIC, Purdue hitters came through in 13 of their 23 opportunities with runners in scoring position.

SCHREIBER MOVES ATOP PURDUE ALL-TIME LIST FOR GAMES AS HEAD COACH

• Doug Schreiber coached his 793rd game as the leader of the Boilermakers on Feb. 22 in the 3-2 loss to No. 5 Mississippi State, moving past Dave Alexander to the top spot on the Purdue all-time list. Schreiber played for Alexander at Purdue from 1983-86. The 15-year head coach surpassed Alexander's program wins record in April 2012.
• Schreiber coached his 800th career at Purdue in the March 9 win at Illinois-Chicago.

KRIEG GOES DEEP, McHUGH POSTS FIRST FOUR-HIT GAME IN SERIES FINALE AT SAMFORD

• Brandon Krieg connected for a two-run homer, his first collegiate long ball, in the fifth inning of the series finale at Samford, making it a one-run game at the time. Krieg joins Conner Hudnall and Kyle Wood as Boilers to go deep this season. All three players homered for the first times in their Purdue careers. Jake Hansen (3-for-9) and Krieg (4-for-13) hit safely in all three games of the Samford series.
• Sean McHugh posted his first collegiate four-hit game March 3 at Samford, finishing only a home run shy of the cycle. He tripled and doubled in his first two at-bats and was 4-for-4 after recording an RBI single in the seventh. He joined Hudnall and Krieg as Boilers to record four-hit games this year, all coming against Samford.

FIVE-RUN EIGHTH INNING RALLY LIFTS BOILERS TO WIN AGAINST SAMFORD

• The Boilermakers pounded out 16 hits in their 9-4 win against Samford Feb. 22, scoring eight of their nine runs from the seventh through ninth innings. Brandon Krieg and Conner Hudnall had four hits apiece in the win, marking the first time that two Boilers had four hits in the same game since Cameron Perkins and Stephen Talbott did it in March 2012 in the finale of a series at Murray State.
• Brad Schreiber limited Samford to only four hits over six innings. He was charged with three runs, two scoring after he gave way to Eddie De LaRiva out of the Purdue bullpen with the bases loaded and no outs in the seventh inning. The freshman minimized the damage in the seventh inning, keeping Purdue within a run at 3-2 after inducing a 6-4-3 double play. The freshman closed out the win with three innings of one-run relief, earning his second win of the year.

THE OPENING WEEKEND OF BIG TEN PLAY: PURDUE BASEBALL HOSTS OHIO STATE

ALEXANDER FIELD

After closing out Lambert Field in thrilling fashion during the 2012 Big Ten Conference championship season, Purdue baseball moved into Alexander Field last August. Alexander Field holds just under 2,000 spectators and has a variety of seating available for Boilermaker baseball fans, including three private suites, box seats behind home plate, bleacher seating behind both dugouts and a grass berm down the left field line.

The inaugural season at the new home of the Boilermakers will feature a 23-game schedule. The first game was set for Tuesday, March 19, against Illinois-Chicago, but it was canceled due to a frigid wind chill and temps in the 30s. Ohio State will be the opponent for the first Big Ten series (March 22-24), and a formal dedication game is being planned for Saturday, April 20, vs. Nebraska

A Big Ten championship ring ceremony and dinner, during which the 2012 team was honored, was held at the new stadium in October after the completion of fall practice and the Gold and Black Series.

Purdue athletics gratefully acknowledge John Purdue Club members and former baseball student-athletes who have donated generously for the new stadium, particularly Dave Alexander, who provided the lead gift in honor of his parents, John and Anna Margaret Ross Alexander. John and Anna Margaret Ross Alexander believed in the value of intercollegiate athletic competition and saw it as a way of enhancing leadership. The two Purdue graduates also believed in service and supporting others. The Alexanders were members of the Purdue President's Council and inaugural members of the John Purdue Club in 1958-59.

Dave Alexander was Purdue baseball coach from 1978 to 1991 – winning 407 games and leading the Boilermakers to the 1987 NCAA Tournament – and an athletics department administrator through 1994. The personable "Alex" lettered for the Boilermakers from 1960 to 1962 and, like his parents, graduated from Purdue. He retired as head coach as the program's all-time wins leader.
