HEAD COACH DOUG SCHREIBER

Since Doug Schreiber was named Purdue's head baseball coach on May 29, 1998, the Boilermakers have become a major force in the Big Ten Conference and have made big strides on a national level.

Currently in his 15th season as the leader of the program, Schreiber is the program's all-time leader in overall wins and Big Ten wins. In 2007, Schreiber became the third head coach in Purdue baseball history to surpass the 500-games mark as the Boilermakers' head man. Dave Alexander, whom Schreiber played for from 1983 to 1986, owns the record for most games coached at Purdue with 792 over 14 seasons. Schreiber has been in the third base coach's box for 787 games through 14 years. He eclipsed Alexander's record for games coached (792) during the second weekend of the 2013 season.

During its historic 2012 season, Purdue won a program-record 45 games, captured a pair of Big Ten titles, earned the right to host an NCAA Regional and closed out Lambert Field in thrilling fashion. Schreiber was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year after leading the Boilers to the most wins by a Big Ten team since 2008. He won his 400th and program-record 408th career games at Lambert in the spring of 2012. His 408th victory as the leader of the program, April 15 in the finale of a series sweep of Illinois, made him Purdue's all-time wins leader.

The Boilermakers began the 2012 season 14-1, won 10 consecutive games twice, posted their 20th win before April 1 for the first time, reached the 30-win mark at the earliest date (April 20) in program history and won their first Big Ten title since 1909. In its 16 games during the final year at Lambert, the home of the program since 1965, Purdue won three times in walk-off fashion and locked up the Big Ten title May 12 in front of a large group of program alumni.

In the five seasons between 2008 and 2012, Purdue went 172-110 overall (.610) and 75-51 in Big Ten play (.595). Both records represented the best marks in the league. The Boilermakers were the only conference team to qualify for the Big Ten Tournament each of those five seasons, the longest such streak in program history. Purdue has won at least one game at the Big Ten Tournament in eight of its nines appearances under Schreiber.

Headlined by Plawecki's selection 35th overall by the New York Mets, Purdue had a program-record seven players picked in the 2012 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft. Juniors Plawecki, Cameron Perkins and Nick Wittgren were each selected in the first 10 rounds to give the Boilers three players drafted in the first 300 picks for the first time. A program-record seven players were drafted overall in 2012.

Purdue's 37 overall wins in 2011 tied the program's previous single-season record and were the most in the Big Ten. Despite being picked eighth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Boilers finished third in the league with a 14-10 conference record, just one game shy of first. Purdue finished second in the Big Ten standings under Schreiber in 2001, 2005 and 2008.

Schreiber has coached 62 All-Big Ten Conference selections, including 22 who were named to the conference's First Team, and has had players selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft on 30 occasions. One of Schreiber's Boilermakers has led the Big Ten in hitting in four out of the last eight years.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Purdue, Schreiber spent four seasons (1995-98) as the top assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under Pat Murphy at Arizona State University. Schreiber helped guide Arizona State to the College World Series and the national championship game in 1998. A year earlier, the Sun Devils finished as regional runners-up to Miami, and were two outs away from going to the College World Series. All four of Schreiber's recruiting classes at ASU were nationally ranked, including the 1995 class which was ranked No. 1 in the country and the 1996 class, which was tabbed the third best in the nation.

Before going to ASU, Schreiber served as an assistant coach for Murphy at the University of Notre Dame in 1994. That season, the Fighting Irish finished 46-16 and ended the season just two wins shy of Omaha, finishing as regional runners-up to Auburn.

Schreiber began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Pat Quinn at Ball State University for two seasons (1991-92) and spent one year (1993) as an assistant at Butler University.

A native of LaPorte, Ind., Schreiber was a four-year starter (1983-86) at second base for the Boilermakers. During his career, Purdue posted a 120-112-2 mark and established a school-record 37 victories his senior season when he was a Second Team All-Big Ten selection. Schreiber still ranks among Purdue's career leaders in a variety of categories, including top-six ranking in four categories. Schreiber ranks first all-time in walks (132), fourth in runs scored (159), tied for third in games played (220) and tied for sixth in triples (9). He earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in communications and has completed some course work towards a master's in education.

Purdue baseball opens its annual spring break trip by traveling north this year, heading to the Windy City for a three-game series at Illinois-Chicago that should be playable thanks to the artificial field turf surface on the Flames' home field.

First pitch is slated for 5 p.m. Friday, 2 p.m. Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday (all ET). Fifteenth-year head coach Doug Schreiber will coach his 800th game as the leader of the program this weekend (most likely Saturday). The Boilermakers return home Sunday evening and begin the second half of their spring break trip Tuesday at Cincinnati.

While Chicago may have received even more snow than the Lafayette area earlier this week, the field turf at Les Miller Field makes the surface playable even if significant piles of snow remain outside the walls of the stadium. Purdue also played two games at UIC on the 2009 spring break trip.

Purdue (3-8) has won five straight games against the Flames (3-6) dating back to 2009, outscoring UIC 52-10 while sweeping both ends of a home-and-home series the last two years. However, all four of those games were part of the midweek schedule; both teams have not seen the other's weekend rotation.

As of March 6, Purdue ranks second in the Big Ten with a .974 fielding percentage thanks in large part to the consistency of Jake Hansen and Sean McHugh on the left side of the field. While being full-time starters at shortstop and third base, respectively, for the first time as Boilers, they have committed a combined one error in 85 defensive chances. Hansen, McHugh and their teammates also endured cold weather last weekend in Birmingham, faring better defensively than Samford did on its home field.

Entering the weekend Illinois-Chicago may have the same number of wins as Purdue, but the Flames' résumé looks better thanks to a season-opening victory at 24th-ranked Texas A&M and a series victory at Santa Clara. Last weekend in Nashville, UIC played No. 2 Vanderbilt tough twice, forcing extra innings in the series finale.

Friday starter Tomas Michelson, who was a high school teammate of Amaro's at Neuqua Valley in Naperville, worked 7 1/3 shutout innings of four-hit ball in the season-opening win at Texas A&M. He also earned the victory in the series opener at Santa Clara. He pitched two innings of one-hit relief against the Boilers last season at Lambert Field, keeping Purdue off the scoreboard despite issuing three walks. Stephen Talbott and McHugh faced the right-hander that day.

Sunday starter Joey Begel's performance highlighted the Flames' extra-inning loss at Vanderbilt. He struck out six and surrendered only three hits over 7 1/3 innings of one-run ball. Ian Lewandowski has been the key man out of the bullpen, giving up just two runs on six hits in 12 2/3 innings over five appearances.

Tyler Detmer (.400, 7 RBI) and Alex Grunewald (3 HR, 7 RBI) have led the way at the plate for UIC early this season. The Flames have been strikeout prone, averaging nine Ks per game. Purdue has also had issues with strikeouts, fanning just under seven times per game.

Robert Ramer has earned three wins against UIC as a midweek starter, giving up five runs over 13 innings while issuing only one walk. Talbott has gone 6-for-11 with four walks and 10 runs scored against the Flames' midweek pitching the last two years.

The Boilermakers are scheduled to play Illinois-Chicago five times this year. The Flames visit Alexander Field for midweek dates on March 19 and April 24. The March 19 date will be the first regular-season game in the history of Alexander Field.

BOILERMAKERS TRAVEL TO THE WINDY CITY FOR WEEKEND SERIES AT UIC

• Purdue begins its spring break trip with a visit to the Windy City for a three-game weekend series at Illinois-Chicago. After returning home Sunday night, the second half of the spring break trip begins Monday with a trip to Cincinnati. Purdue has a five-game week on tap next week featuring games at Cincinnati, Louisville and a series at Evansville.
• Much of the Midwest, including Chicago, was hit by a snowstorm this week but thanks to the artificial field turf surface at the Flames' Les Miller Field, the series should be able to be played even if there are still large piles of snow outside the stadium.
• The Boilermakers have won five straight against UIC dating back to 2009. The two teams have played a home-and-home midweek series each of the last two years, with Purdue winning the four games by a combined margin of 52-10. But the Flames' weekend rotation figures to present much more of a challenge, especially with the Purdue offense struggling during the current six-game losing streak.

WEEKEND SWEEP AT SAMFORD EXTENDS PURDUE'S LOSING SKID TO SIX

• The Boilermakers have lost six straight games, their longest losing streak since starting the 2008 season 0-9. Purdue was swept in a three-game series at Samford March 1-3, suffering its first series sweep since May 2011 at Michigan State and its first sweep against a nonconference opponent since March 2009 at Texas State.
• Samford also won the season series with the Boilers four games to one. The Bulldogs hit five home runs in the series, including a first-inning grand slam in the first game of the weekend and a big three-run shot that proved to be the difference in game two.
• Purdue has been outscored 41-18 during the six-game skid. The Boilermakers are batting only .211 as a team in the six straight losses, including a .159 clip (7-for-44) with runners in scoring position. The pitching staff has issued 34 walks and hit seven batters while recording only 25 strikeouts in 49 innings pitched.

SOLID DEFENSE ONE OF THE FEW HIGHLIGHTS DURING LOSING STREAK

• Purdue has committed only three errors while turning five double plays during the current six-game losing streak, providing one of the few highlights during the rough stretch. The Boilermakers have committed only 11 errors in their first 11 games, with seven of those miscues coming in the first two games. As of March 6, Purdue's .974 fielding percentage ranked second in the Big Ten. The Boilers have also turned a league-high 13 double plays. Purdue opponents have committed 18 errors this year.
• Jake Hansen and Sean McHugh have been particularly good on the left side of the infield. Hansen has not committed an error in 53 chances at shortstop, contributing to seven of the 13 double plays. McHugh has made only one error in 32 chances in his first season at third base. Conner Hudnall has a pair of outfield assists, both coming on runners he threw out at the plate.

PURDUE AMONG NATIONAL LEADERS IN NEW PLAYERS THAT HAVE SEEN ACTION

• With Cody Webster making his baseball debut in the eighth inning of the March 3 series finale at Samford, 15 new Boilermakers have now seen action this season. With 12 freshmen and 15 new players having taken the field for the first time this season, Purdue ranks fifth nationally in both categories.
• Webster made the team as a left-handed pitcher during preseason practice. He is also the punter on the Purdue football team. Travis Dorsch was the last student-athlete to play football (1998-01) and baseball (1999-00) at Purdue. He was a punter/kicker on the football team and pitcher for baseball. Dorsch later played in the NFL.
• Upperclassmen, specifically seniors, were a driving force behind Purdue's program-record 45-win season and Big Ten title in 2012. The Boilermakers graduated 15 seniors and also lost three juniors that were selected in the MLB First-Year Player from last season's team.

KRIEG GOES DEEP, McHUGH POSTS FIRST FOUR-HIT GAME IN SERIES FINALE AT SAMFORD

• Brandon Krieg connected for a two-run homer, his first collegiate long ball, in the fifth inning of the series finale at Samford, making it a one-run game at the time. Krieg joins Conner Hudnall and Kyle Wood as Boilers to go deep this season. All three players homered for the first times in their Purdue careers. Jake Hansen (3-for-9) and Krieg (4-for-13) hit safely in all three games of the Samford series.
• Sean McHugh posted his first collegiate four-hit game March 3 at Samford, finishing only a home run shy of the cycle. He tripled and doubled in his first two at-bats and was 4-for-4 after recording an RBI single in the seventh. He joined Hudnall and Krieg as Boilers to record four-hit games this year, all coming against Samford.

SCHREIBER MOVES ATOP PURDUE ALL-TIME LIST FOR GAMES AS HEAD COACH

• Doug Schreiber coached his 793rd game as the leader of the Boilermakers on Feb. 22 in the 3-2 loss to No. 5 Mississippi State, moving past Dave Alexander to the top spot on the Purdue all-time list. Schreiber played for Alexander at Purdue from 1983-86. The 15-year head coach surpassed Alexander's program wins record in April 2012.
• Schreiber is on pace to coach his 800th career at Purdue at Illinois-Chicago this weekend.

FIVE-RUN EIGHTH INNING RALLY LIFTS BOILERS TO WIN AGAINST SAMFORD
• The Boilermakers pounded out 16 hits in their 9-4 win against Samford Feb. 22, scoring eight of their nine runs from the seventh through ninth innings. Brandon Krieg and Conner Hudnall had four hits apiece in the win, marking the first time that two Boilers had four hits in the same game since Cameron Perkins and Stephen Talbott did it in March 2012 in the finale of a series at Murray State.
• Brad Schreiber limited Samford to only four hits over six innings. He was charged with three runs, two scoring after he gave way to Eddie De LaRiva out of the Purdue bullpen with the bases loaded and no outs in the seventh inning. The freshman minimized the damage in the seventh inning, keeping Purdue within a run at 3-2 after inducing a 6-4-3 double play. The freshman closed out the win with three innings of one-run relief, earning his second win of the year.

BASES-LOADED WALKS BURN BOILERS IN SUNDAY LOSS TO SAMFORD IN STARKVILLE
• Purdue rallied for a three-run inning in the seventh to tie the game, but Samford capitalized on a pair of bases-loaded walks in the top of the eighth to answer back and defeat the Boilers, 6-3, on the final day of the Diamond Classic at Dudy Noble Field.
• Purdue starting pitcher Kyle Wood left the game due to arm soreness with one out in the second inning. Wood did not play in the series sweep at Samford. He's expected to be skipped in the rotation again this weekend at UIC but should be available to bat in the lineup as a designated hitter.
• The Boilermakers used eight pitchers in the game, including four in the eighth inning. Kyle Upp's three innings of one-hit relief highlighted the day on the mound. There were 14 walks issued in the game, none bigger than the three straight issued by Purdue pitchers in the eighth inning. The Bulldogs took the lead thanks to back-to-back bases-loaded free passes and a sacrifice fly. Consecutive one-out singles from the bottom of the order ignited the rally.
• Two of three runs that Purdue scored in the bottom of the seventh came across on wild pitches. After pounding out 16 hits in Friday's win versus Samford, the Boilers managed only five hits – all singles – Sunday against starting pitcher Alex Milazzo. The right-hander walked six and struck out seven over seven innings.

MINCH IMPRESSES AS PURDUE DROPS A PAIR OF ONE-RUN GAMES TO #5 MISSISSIPPI STATE
• Purdue played No. 5 Mississippi State tough twice at the Diamond Classic in Starkville but lost a pair of one-run games, 3-2 and 7-6. It was the Boilers' first visit to Dudy Noble Field since the 1987 NCAA Regional.
• Jordan Minch worked six innings of one-run ball against MSU Friday, keeping the home team off the scoreboard until giving up a leadoff home run in the sixth inning. He walked three and struck out five, recording a number of key outs to end innings and leave runners on base. The lefty bounced back nicely after a tough first weekend in which he didn't make it out of the first inning in his collegiate debut.
• Kyle Wood delivered a pair of big hits in the games against MSU. He connected for a two-out, game-tying double in the eighth inning Friday, plating Brandon Krieg from first base. Wood also hit his first collegiate home run Saturday against the Bulldogs. A walk to Wood followed by three straight singles set the stage for a four-run inning in the Saturday night game.
• Jack Picchiotti and Stephen Talbott singled in the ninth inning against MSU closer Jonathan Holder, who entered the night having struck out 11 of the 13 batters he had faced this season. Five of the six Boilers to come to the plate in the ninth inning put the ball in play and Purdue scored an unearned run while putting the potential tying run on third base.

HIGHS & LOWS OF THE SEASON-OPENING WEEKEND
• Thanks to victories against Connecticut to open and close the Big East/Big Ten Challenge, Purdue posted a 2-2 record in Florida and teamed with Indiana to help the Big Ten win the Challenge, 4-3. The first two days of the new season featured some highs and lows. Friday, the Boilers scored seven times in the fourth inning and used the big inning to beat UConn, 11-8. Brandon Krieg and Stephen Talbott delivered consecutive two-run doubles during the rally. The next day against South Florida, Purdue gave up nine runs in the first inning and got blown out 20-2. It marked the first time the Boilers had surrendered 20-plus runs since a March 2010 loss at Missouri. Notre Dame's 11-run rally at the 2011 Big East/Big Ten Challenge represented the last time Purdue gave up nine-plus runs in an inning.
• The Boilermakers were much more competitive on Sunday, splitting games with No. 4 Louisville and UConn. Thanks to a four-run third inning, Purdue was tied with the Cardinals, 4-4, until the eighth inning. Louisville scored five times off the Boilers' bullpen in the final two frames to win the game, 9-4. But thanks to a three-run first inning and Robert Ramer's complete-game effort, Purdue bounced back to beat UConn, 5-3, in the nightcap Sunday. The Boilermakers have won three straight season openers and are 4-0 versus Connecticut over the last three seasons.

ESTILL NAMED BIG TEN FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK
• Josh Estill hit safely in all four games while making starts at three different positions during the season-opening weekend, earning Big Ten co-Freshman of the Week honors for his impressive collegiate debut. He finished the weekend a team-best 7-for-15, reaching base safely in 10 of his 17 plate appearances. The San Diego area native started the first two games at designated hitter. In Sunday's doubleheader against Louisville and Connecticut, he was the starting catcher in game one and the first baseman in the nightcap.
• Estill had three hits in the season-opening win against Connecticut Friday. He reached base safely twice during the Boilers' seven-run fourth inning rally. Sunday versus No. 4 Louisville, he had two hits, including an RBI single with the bases loaded during Purdue's four-run third inning rally that tied the game.
• Sean McHugh (6-for-15) also hit safely and Jake Hansen (4-for-10, 3 walks) reached base safely in all four games of the season-opening weekend at the Big East/Big Ten Challenge.
• Estill was one of 14 new players to make their Purdue debuts over the weekend. Eleven of those 14 players were true freshmen. Estill's classmates Eddie De LaRiva and Patrick Kenney earned the win and the save in the season opener against Connecticut, respectively.

HUDNALL GOES DEEP IN PURDUE DEBUT
• Consecutive two-out singles from Brandon Krieg and Stephen Talbott set the stage for Conner Hudnall's three-run homer in the fifth inning of the season-opening win against Connecticut. The long ball put the Boilers in front 10-2 and they went on to win, 11-8. Hudnall, a junior college transfer from Glen Oaks in Michigan, became the first Purdue player to homer in a season opener since Cameron Perkins in 2010. Perkins was also the last Boiler to go deep in his debut with the team.
• Hudnall finished the weekend with a team-best five RBI, driving in a run in three of the four games. From right field, he also threw out a runner at home plate who was trying to tag up and score on a fly ball out in the first inning of the Connecticut win on Sunday. It was the first of three double plays turned by Purdue in support of Robert Ramer's complete-game effort on the mound.

WOOD BECOMES FIRST PURDUE STARTING PITCHER TO BAT SINCE 2003
• Redshirt-freshman Kyle Wood has started games at first base, pitcher, designated hitter and right field. He was also in the batting order in his two starts on the mound, becoming the first Purdue starting pitcher to bat in the lineup since Daniel Underwood did it five times over the final month of the 2003 campaign.
• In the Feb. 17 game against Louisville with Wood on the mound, the Boilers found themselves down 4-0 entering the bottom of the third. The Chicagoland native recorded an RBI during a four-run rally as Purdue tied the game. But more importantly he shut the Cardinals down after the third inning, working four scoreless frames before giving way to the bullpen after escaping a jam in the seventh. Having not recorded a strikeout yet, the lefty fanned the No. 3 and No. 5 hitters in the lineup for the final two outs of the seventh inning, leaving the potential tying run on third base.

McHUGH MAKES THE MOVE TO THIRD BASE
• Junior Sean McHugh was a part-time start on the 2012 Big Ten Championship, maximizing his opportunities by batting .317 with 10 extra-base hits, 24 RBI and a .549 slugging percentage. He was Purdue's regular catcher in midweek action and made five starts at designated hitter in the final three weeks of the season, including two of the NCAA Regional games. After playing for the Yarmouth-Dennis Red Sox in the Cape Cod League in the summer of 2012, he is projected to move to third base and bat third in the lineup for Purdue this season.
• McHugh played a starring role in two of the Boilers' most dramatic moments of 2012. In the 10-run ninth inning rally in the comeback win in the finale of the UCLA series, he ignited the rally with a leadoff walk and later knocked in the go-ahead run with the third of Purdue's seven consecutive two-out hits. He did all that despite having not played the entire weekend until the eighth inning of Sunday's game. Nine days later in the final game in the history of Lambert Field, McHugh connected for the game-tying, pinch-hit home run with two outs in the ninth inning. Purdue went on to defeat Indiana State in 10 innings.

RAMER BACK FOR FIFTH YEAR AFTER EARNING DEGREE
• Fifth-year senior Robert Ramer is a big reason why Purdue has won 17 straight midweek games dating back to March 2011, serving as the starting pitcher in 10 of those games. But the Northern California native was also there when the Boilers needed him during the 2012 postseason, taking the ball in the Big Ten Tournament championship game victory against Indiana and also starting the NCAA Regional game against Kentucky. Purdue went 9-1 in Ramer's 10 starts in 2012 and are 17-2 when he has started during his career. His 13-1 career record represents a program record for career winning percentage.
• Ramer issued only two walks in 50 1/3 innings last season, establishing a Purdue single-season records (minimum 30 innings) for fewest walks per nine innings (0.358) and strikeout-to-walk ratio (15.0). He came up just shy of enough innings to qualify for the national leaders in both categories. He earned his bachelor's degree in management last year and is currently pursuing an MBA at Purdue. He'll have a chance to be a four-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree this year.

SCHREIBER & WOOD RETURN FROM INJURY
• Had they been healthy in 2012, it's possible Brad Schreiber and Kyle Wood could have been part of Purdue's weekend rotation. Both players redshirted after having Tommy John surgery. While they were out, the Purdue pitching staff still managed to post new school records for ERA (3.16), WHIP (1.21) and fewest walks per nine innings (2.18). So while Purdue lost its four All-Big Ten pitchers from last season, getting Schreiber and Wood back from injury gives the rotation a nice boost.
• Schreiber was Purdue's most consistent pitcher for the first half of the 2011 season, helping the Boilers win six of his eight starts. He was leading the Big Ten in strikeouts (50) when he suffered an arm injury in the April series at Penn State. Wood is projected to be the Boilers' top two-way player this season. He's scheduled to play outfield and first base as well as pitch and remain in the lineup on the days he starts on the mound. Wood batted .444 (8-for-18) in Purdue's five-game Gold and Black Series this past fall.

ALEXANDER FIELD

After closing out Lambert Field in thrilling fashion during the 2012 Big Ten Conference championship season, Purdue baseball moved into Alexander Field last August. Alexander Field holds just under 2,000 spectators and has a variety of seating available for Boilermaker baseball fans, including three private suites, box seats behind home plate, bleacher seating behind both dugouts and a grass berm down the left field line.

The inaugural season at the new home of the Boilermakers will feature a 23-game schedule. The first game is set for Tuesday, March 19, against Illinois-Chicago. Ohio State will be the opponent for the first Big Ten series (March 22-24), and a formal dedication game is being planned for Saturday, April 20, vs. Nebraska

A Big Ten championship ring ceremony and dinner, during which the 2012 team was honored, was held at the new stadium in October after the completion of fall practice and the Gold and Black Series.
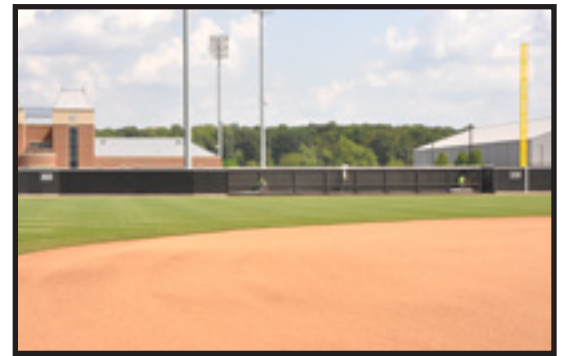

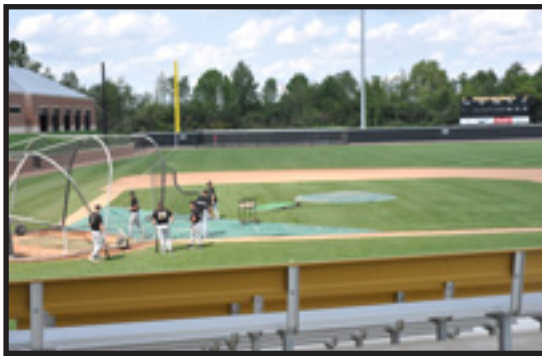

Purdue athletics gratefully acknowledge John Purdue Club members and former baseball student-athletes who have donated generously for the new stadium, particularly Dave Alexander, who provided the lead gift in honor of his parents, John and Anna Margaret Ross Alexander. John and Anna Margaret Ross Alexander believed in the value of intercollegiate athletic competition and saw it as a way of enhancing leadership. The two Purdue graduates also believed in service and supporting others. The Alexanders were members of the Purdue President's Council and inaugural members of the John Purdue Club in 1958-59.

Dave Alexander was Purdue baseball coach from 1978 to 1991 – winning 407 games and leading the Boilermakers to the 1987 NCAA Tournament – and an athletics department administrator through 1994. The personable "Alex" lettered for the Boilermakers from 1960 to 1962 and, like his parents, graduated from Purdue. He retired as head coach as the program's all-time wins leader.
