Game 10 • Texas State (3-5) vs. Prairie View A&M (4-5)

Friday, December 16, 2016 • 7 p.m.

Prairie View, Texas • W.J. Nicks Building

Video Stream: Panthervision

Series Record: Texas St. leads, 8-4 (Last Meeting 3/20/08, L, 84-83)

LAST TIME OUT... vs. DePaul

Despite Prairie View A&M women's basketball team having three players in double-digits it wasn't enough to overcome a 94-62 loss to nationally ranked #16 DePaul on Monday afternoon.

Alexus Parker led PV with 15 points and eight boards. Jeronia Allen and Kayla Bell each added 11 points, Allen also had five rebounds and one block. Bell added three rebounds, one block and three stills to her numbers.

The Series: Texas State leads the all team series over PVAMU 8-4. The last time these two teams meet was during the Postseason WNIT Tournament where the Bobcats edged over the Lady Panthers 84-83 with a three-pointer with 1.4 seconds left on the clock.

Something to Prove: Prairie View was picked to finish in the middle of the pack (5th) in the SWAC pre-season ballot.

PV Roster: The Lady Panthers return seven players from last year's team (Alexus Parker, Jeronia Allen, La'Sha Haynes, Bena McCoy, Tori Carter, Kayla Bell, and Eryanna Magee) and have nine newcomers joining the team (Kyler Wyatt, Jaye Cage, Darianne Williams, Dominique Newman, Talisha Presley, Kendra Hicks, Alexis Robinson, and Mariah Campbell).

Parker Paces Panthers: Parker has led the team in scoring in five out of the nine contest that PV has played. She has scored double digits in six games, and had a season high of 25 points in the win against Marshall. The fourth year senior has shown why she is one of the teams leaders as she has shown her leadership on and off the court. Parker is a player that has no problem going straight to the basketball and taking the foul. She is leading the team in points averaging 16.1 ppg. She is second in the SWAC in scoring and fourth in rebounding (6.8).

Ravon Justice was named Prairie View A&M head women's basketball coach on April 12, 2016.

The seventh head coach in program history since the start of the NCAA women's basketball era In 1981, Justice arrives at "The Hill" after seven seasons with the University of Houston women's basketball team. She served as recruiting coordinator for the Cougars for the previous five years.

An area in which Justice is expected to make an immediate impact is in the area of in-state recruiting. A native of Atlanta, Texas in the northeast corner of the state, Justice spent more than a decade as a top assistant collegiate coach in Houston, and played her sophomore basketball season in Clarendon College, located in the southern part of the Texas Panhandle.

In Justice's first year at Houston in 2010-11, the Cougars enjoyed one of their finest seasons in program history, posting a 26-6 overall record and returning to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2004-05 season.

With Justice's guidance, Houston point guard Porsche Landry earned Conference USA First Team honors and became only the fourth player in Cougars' women's basketball history to tally more than 1,000 points and 300 assists during her career.

Justice also made an immediate impact on the recruiting trail after taking over those duties following the 2010-11 season, as various recruiting services ranked the early six-player class that signed in November of 2011 among the nation's top-40 recruiting hauls, including Dan Olson's Collegiate Girls Basketball Report (No. 22) and ESPN HoopGurlz (No. 39).

Justice joined the University of Houston staff after five seasons as an assistant at Houston Baptist. Before helping the Huskies team transition from the NAIA to the NCAA's Division I classification, Justice was a part of the 2005-06 team that completed an undefeated run to the Red River Athletic Conference's regular season and tournament championships; HBU repeated as tournament champions the following season.

The Huskies would also make two trips to the NAIA Division I tournament during Justice's tenure with the team, including a trip to the quarterfinals in 2007. During her own collegiate playing career, Justice attended Nicholls State for one year before transferring to Clarendon College. As a Lady Bulldog, she was named a junior college All-American in addition to receiving Western Junior College Athletic Conference Player of the Year honors.

Following her time at Clarendon, Justice played one season at Washington State before finishing her college career at the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma in Chickasha.

As a senior at USAO, Justice averaged 19.3 points per game and captured All-Sooner Athletic Conference honors. She tallied the third-most points (521) in a single season in school history during the 2003-04 campaign, while setting school records in free throws (133) and free-throw attempts (214).

Justice earned her bachelor's degree in sociology from USAO in 2004 and received her master's degree in liberal arts from Houston Baptist in 2009.
