MEN'S BASKETBALL

GAME NOTES

#QUvsCN: Queens will return home to Curry Arena on Saturday, January 28 where they will wrap their regular season series with the Eagles of Carson-Newman College. Queens won the first meeting by a score of 112-90. It's the most points in a single game that the Royals have scored this season. The Royals lead the all-time series, 6-3.

Last Time Out: The Royals picked up an 89-84 road win at Newberry on Wednesday night, completing the regular season series sweep of the Wolves. Five Royals reached double-digit scoring tonight with Newberry native Jalin Alexander's 18 points leading the way. Todd Withers recorded a double-double with 14 points and 12 rebounds, while Ike Agusi, Mike Davis and Daniel Camps each scored 15 points. Additionally, Darryl White and Camps both pulled down seven rebounds, and Agusi dished out six assists.

Double-Figures: Wednesday night was the first time since January 4 that each player in the starting five reached double-figure scoring. It has happened four times during the season. It was also the first time that Daniel Camps returned to the starting line-up since his injury during the Anderson game on December 3.

The Bad Guys: The Eagles were on a four-game win streak until they met Lincoln Memorial on Wednesday night, falling 108-76. Sawyer Williams led with 21 points, while Malik Abraham and Charles Clark chipped in with 16 and 15 points, respectively. Clark is leading the Eagles this season, averaging 20.8 points per game. Williams is averaging 19.1 points per game.

Up Next: Queens will be back on the road for their next game on Wednesday, February 1. They will travel to Hartsville, S.C., to face Coker College. Queens defeated the Cobras, 83-55, back in December with Jalin Alexander scoring 20 points to lead the Royals. Queens leads the all-time series, 37-8.

Nationally Ranked: Queens currently ranks No. 8 in NABC Poll. The Royals also rank No. 5 in the DII Media Poll and No. 1 in the D2SIDA Southeast Region. Additionally, Queens ranks No. 2 in the David Boyce NCAA.com Division II Men's Basketball Power Rankings.

Bevo Francis Award: Daniel Camps and Todd Withers have been named to Small College Basketball's first Watch List of 2017 for the Bevo Francis Award consisting of 100 of the finest men's basketball players in the country who compete in the affiliations of NCAA Division II, NCAA Division III, NAIA Division I, NAIA Division II, USCAA and NCCAA.

High Octane Offense: The Royals are known for their exciting fast-paced play on the floor. They have the 20th best scoring offense averaging 88.4 points per game. Queens is also beating teams by an average of 14.6 points, a scoring margin that ranks 17th in the nation. The Royals are able to do this shooting a 18th best 50.3-percent from the floor while holding teams to just 40.2-percent shooting. Queens is sharing the ball as well, ranking 41st in the nation in assists per game averaging 16.5 on each outing. Additionally, the Royals are flying high and delivering show stopping dunks each game. Daniel Camps was featured at No. 9 on ESPN's SportsCenter Top 10 on Friday, November 18 for a one-handed slam over his defender.

DEFENSE!: Queens' defense holds up its end of the bargain as the Royals are holding teams to a 16th best 40.2-percent shooting. The Royals rank 10th in total steals with 183, and 10th in steals per game (9.6). Additionally, the Royals rank 22nd in total blocks with 86. Jared Hendryx ranks 41st in blocks with 33 this season.

Slaying the Giant: Queens defeated NCAA Division I VCU, 75-73, in an exhibition game on November 4 in front of a sellout crowd. The Rams have made six straight NCAA appearances and 10 consecutive seasons of 24+ wins. Additionally, they were the A10 Regular Season Co-Champions last season. Jalin Alexander led with 19 points and Mike Davis added 17 points. Ike Agusi scored the game winner with 1.3 seconds on the clock.

Sporting News: Sporting News Basketball Yearbook published pre-season top-20 men's teams and all-Americans for NCAA Division II recently with the Queens University of Charlotte Royals earning a spot at No. 6. Additionally, junior transfer Jalin Alexander was recognized on the all-America honorable mention team. Alexander joins the Royals from Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute, where he averaged 27 points and six rebounds per game.

SAC Preseason Poll: Queens was picked to finish second in the 2016-17 South Atlantic Conference Men's Basketball Preseason Poll as voted by the League's head coaches. Queens, who ranked as high as fourth in the nation during the 2015-16 season, turned in an overall record of 25-7 a season ago to go along with a 17-5 record in SAC play.

SAC Preseason All-Conference: Queens' Daniel Camps and Todd Withers were both honored on the SAC Preseason All-Conference Second Team. Camps averaged 11.6 points and seven rebounds per game last season after making an appearance in 30 of the Royals' 32 games. Withers posted an average of 10.4 points and 6.1 rebounds per game after seeing time in all 32 of Queens' games.

Transfer Additions: The Royals added five transfers to the roster this season. Ike Agusi joins Queens from Jacksonville College, while Jon Curtis and Jalin Alexander both come from Caldwell Community College and Technical Institute. Josh Van Weezep hails from USU Eastern and Mike Davis, Jr., comes from FMU.

Freshmen Class: The Royals added five true freshman to the roster this season. The class includes all-state players from Florida (Trevor Recio) and South Carolina (Daniel Carr) as well as a hometown standout (Josh Brodowicz) who won a state championship.

The NCAA Tournament: The Royals have made nine NCAA DII Men's Basketball Tournament appearances with the first coming in the 1995-96 season. Queens has made it to the Elite 8 twice in program history, making it all the way to the semifinals during the 2002-03 season. Both Elite 8 appearances were under Coach Lundy's leadership.

Last Season: The Royals knocked off Columbus State in the first round of the 2016 NCAA Division II Basketball Championship to earn a trip to the round of 32.

Last year's Royals found their place as one of the top statistical teams of all time at Queens. The Royals averaged nearly 87 points per game, which is good for the second best average in school history just behind the 2002-03 team that averaged 88.5 points per game.

Bart Lundy returns to Queens as the most decorated coach in Queens history. During the 2015-16 season, Lundy became the winningest coach of all-time in men's basketball history with 171 wins. The Royals began the campaign with the best start in program history picking up 12 wins in a row, eventually ranking as high as No. 4 in the NABC Poll. Queens then capped the season advancing to the NCAA Championships for the first time since the 2010-11 season, and the ninth time in program history. Leading scorers Rob Lewis and Sean Morgan were recognized on the NABC All-District Team at the close of the season.

In his first stint (1998-2003) Coach Lundy took the Royals to it's first Elite Eight and regional title and followed up later with a trip to the NCAA Division II Final Four as well. Three times he set school records for wins in a season. Since his return to Queens he has had two consecutive winning seasons, with his second finishing in a second place finish in the South Atlantic Conference.

Lundy came to Queens from The University of North Texas (2012-13), where he helped first year coach Tony Benford whom he had worked with at Marquette and also helped to develop first round NBA draft pick Tony Mitchell.

Previous to North Texas, Lundy coached at Marquette University in Milwaukee, WI. Coach Lundy assisted Buzz Williams for three years (2009-2012). In that time, Marquette went to three consecutive NCAA tournaments and two straight NCAA Sweet Sixteen's. At Marquette, Coach Lundy worked with eight future NBA players including NBA All-Star Jimmy Butler of the Chicago Bulls and Jae Crowder of the Boston Celtics.

Marquette hired Lundy from High Point University, where his program was consistently one of the best in the Big South (2003-09). In his first year he was named the 2004 NCAA Division I National Rookie Coach of the Year. In his tenure at High Point they went to the conference semi-finals or championship game five of six years, had three Big South Player of the Year Awards and led the conference in scoring three of six years. Lundy has the most wins in High Point's Division I history and has the fifth most wins in Big South Conference history.
