QUEENS BASKETBALL HEADLINES

QUEENS VS. EASTERN KENTUCKY

- Wednesday's game in Charlotte marks the third meeting between ECU and Queens since 2023. The Colonels lead the all-time series 2-0 and have won both meetings by 21 or more points, including a 33-point win last time playing inside Curry Arena.
- In the last meeting Jordyn Weaver finished with 12 points and a team high five rebounds. Tiziana Huici contributed 10 points in 22 minutes of action.
- The Royals currently rank as one of the ASUN's top defensive teams, ranking fifth in forced turnovers (17.7) and steals (189). The Royals are averaging 2.96 blocks a game and rank sixth in the ASUN.
- ECU and Queens were picked fourth and eleventh respectively in the 2024-25 ASUN Preseason Coaches Poll.

QUEENS BASKETBALL HEADLINES

LAST TIME OUT

- Queens University came out firing on all cylinders in the first half but was unable to hold off West Georgia, ultimately falling 56-49 at Curry Arena on last Saturday afternoon.
- Jordyn Weaver made a strong return to the lineup after missing the last two games, leading Queens with 17 points.
- Aylesha Wade had a well-rounded performance, finishing with 10 points, five rebounds, and a team-high five assists.
- Ana Barreto turned in 32 minutes of action, with 11 points, five rebounds, and two steals.

QUEENS RECORD BOOK

- Jordyn Weaver now sits in eighth place in the Queens record book with 592 career rebounds. Marissa Hudley is the program leader with 987 rebounds.
- Kemia Ward etched her name in the record books against FGCU, jumping to ninth place with 49 career block shots.

KEY TRANSFERS

- In the offseason the Royals added nine new players to the roster and four new staff members to the coaching staff.
- Aylesha Wade leads the way for the 2024-25 Royals transfer class. Wade joins the Royals after three seasons at UNC Charlotte. "Wade, is a phenomenal point guard, a phenomenal leader, and phenomenal human being," I can't wait for Royal nation to see her this year," said Brown.
- Ana Barreto is a big guard coming from Ball State. The Portuguese native will be a key addition that will make an impact on both sides of the ball. Barreto played two seasons with the Cardinals.
- UMass transfer Jeremy Mapp will be a veteran leader on the court for the Royals. Mapp will do all the intangibles for Coach Brown's squad, her ability to play four positions on offense and guard all five positions defensively has allowed Coach Brown to open up her playbook.

JUCO TO QUEENS

- At Butler CC, Dayuna Colvin played in 33 games last season, starting in all of them. Averaged 10.4 points, 3.5 rebounds, and 2.5 assists. Set her career-high for points with a 21 point performance against Dodge City on March 15, 2024... Named to KJCCC All-Conference Honorable Mention team.

FRESHMAN CLASS

- Magda Freire looks to make an immediate impact for the Royals her freshman season. The shooting guard won a national championship with Benfica and its senior league women's basketball team in 2024. Kamara Mills a standout guard from Indianapolis, Indiana is set to join the Royals from Lawrence North High School. While at Lawrence North HS, averaged 8.2 points and two steals and became a Sectional champion, Regional champion, and Conference champion.

GAME PREVIEW

SCOUTING THE COLONELS

- Eastern Kentucky is coming off a narrow 68-65 loss to the ASUN's No. 1-ranked FGCU last Saturday, nearly snapping the Eagles' 44-game win streak over conference opponents. Prior to last week's loss, the Colonels had won three straight games in league play.
- Fifth year forward Jasmine McGinnis-Taylor enters this week's slate of games on a hot streak, nearing a double double in both contests with 17 points, 11 rebounds in the win over Stetson and 15 points, eight rebounds in the loss to FGCU. The Omaha, Nebraska native is averaging a career-best 10.8 points and 7.7 rebounds per game this season.
- Senior guard Kaitlyn Costner continues to lead the club with 12.9 PPG and has ended in double figures in 17 of her last 20 games. Fifth year guard Alice Recanati is second on the team in scoring with 12.5 PPG while also leading the team with 4.4 assists per game, she is first in the league and top 100 nationally in passing categories.
- Freshman guard Liz Freihofer is fourth on the team with 11.0 PPG and had 16 points against FGCU, the Kentuckian is a 7-time ASUN weekly honor recipient this season.
- As of Tuesday, EKU is tied for sixth in the ASUN Conference women's basketball standings with six games left in the 2024-25 regular season.
- EKU boasts a solid offensive attack, averaging 73.1 points per game while holding opponents to 65.6 PPG. They shoot 42.2% from the field and 33.2% from three-point range, making an average of 6.7 threes per game.
- Defensively, they record 7.6 steals and 3.0 blocks per game, showing a capability for forcing mistakes, though they allow opponents to shoot 39.5% from the field.

QUEENS ATHLETICS UNVEILS NEW BRANDING

The Royals are in their third year in NCAA Division I and have built excitement around the transition season by launching a new branding initiative over the summer of 2023 that continues to elevate its reputation of excellence.

The first sign of the new branding, an updated graphic featuring Queens mascot Rex the Lion, appeared on the newly refinished courts of Curry Arena, home of Queens basketball, volleyball, and wrestling. The court was revealed to the public on June 5, 2023.

The new branding captured the program's legacy while still propelling its Athletics forward and reflecting the university's new status as a Division I competitor.

The new Athletics marks incorporated variations that will allow Queens Athletics to be distinctive across collegiate athletics, bringing new energy to its brand. The marks will be seen across a variety of Athletics-related items including uniforms, signage, graphics, and more.

The new marks also make use of the acronym "QUC," and uses a naming variation – "Queens University Charlotte" – to be used by the Athletics program. The branding also includes a unique new font to be featured on Athletics uniforms and bold elements such as eye-catching colors, including an Athletics-specific Royal Blue.

The Athletics rebrand coincided with a new institutional branding initiative for Queens University, which was rolled out in March. It also coincides with the 35th anniversary of intercollegiate, co-ed athletics and the 10th anniversary of the Levine Center for Wellness and Recreation, home of Curry Arena.

NOTES

TRANSITION TO D1

Queens University of Charlotte and Queens Athletics are in year three of their transition to NCAA Division 1. The Royals will be unable for NCAA sponsored postseason competition until 2026-27 due to reclassification protocols set forth by the NCAA. However, the Atlantic Sun Conference permits ASUN sponsored postseason competition immediately.

CLOSE THE GAP

Coach Jen Brown and the 24-25 Royals are looking to "close the gap" this season, both in the ASUN and Division I. This season's mantra focuses on improving overall as a team. In the first season as a Division I member the Royals finished 8-21 overall and 3-15 in the ASUN. Queens took on a more challenging schedule in 2023-24 finishing the year at 7-22 overall and 1-15 in league play.

BRIGHT LIGHTS

Queens will make their first ever trip to Wake Forest to open up the year. The Demon Deacons are the first ACC opponent the Royals have faced. The Royals also have the Kentucky Wildcats on the schedule on December 9. Last season, Queens got their first taste of power four competition facing #12 Ole Miss and #1 LSU.

SIGNED, SEALED, AND DELIVERED

Head Coach Jen Brown signed a four-year contract in the summer of 2023 keeping her at the helm through the 2026-27 season. Coach Brown led the team to a record breaking 101 points game, which became the most points the DI program has ever scored in the 2023-2024 home opener. Under Brown, forward Jordyn Weaver became the first Queens WBB player to receive ASUN Player of the Week honors after recording a career-high 33 points against ASUN competition in the 2023-2024 season. Weaver ended the season at the top of the ASUN, averaging the most rebounds in the entire conference with 8.4 rebounds per game. In Brown's first season as a head coach at the Division I level, she helped coach Weaver, who averaged 8.9 points and led the team in rebounds per game with 6.8, to the All-Freshman team as well as Adia Brisker to the ASUN All-Academic Team.

AROUND THE ASUN

The Atlantic Sun Conference announced its 2024-25 Women's Basketball preseason awards as the league's 12 head coaches voted on. FGCU is favored to capture this year's league crown after receiving 57 first-place votes across the preseason coaches and media polls.

The Eagles went 29-5 overall last season and hoisted the ASUN Championship trophy for the 11th time in program history. FGCU garnered every first-place vote in the coaches poll and topped the rankings with 144 points. Central Arkansas ranked second in both the coaches and media polls after reaching the ASUN Championship Final last season for the first time in program history under first-year Head Coach Tony Kemper.

After making league history last spring by becoming the first individual to be named ASUN Player, Defensive Player and Newcomer of the Year in the same season, FGCU's Emani Jefferson was tabbed the Preseason Player of the Year. She averaged 16.4 points, 5.8 rebounds and 3.8 assists per game for the Eagles last season and helped them earn another bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Central Arkansas' Bree Stephens and FGCU's Skylar Gill were voted the Preseason Defensive Players of the Year. Stephens helped the Sugar Bears advance to the program's first appearance in the championship final. The Australian was second in the league in blocks (46) while compiling 45 steals, only one of seven players in all of Division I to achieve that. Gill, a the 2022 and 2023 ASUN Defensive Player of the Year and 2022 Freshman of the Year, played in 31 games last season for Kansas. She finished last season with 66 points and 38 rebounds. In her previous stint in the ASUN as part of the North Alabama Lions, she averaged 10.3 points and 8.5 rebounds per game and totaled 161 blocks in 53 games.

Jen Brown is entering her fifth season as the head coach of the women's basketball program. Coach Brown led the team to a record breaking 101 points game, which became the most points the DI program has ever scored in the 2023-2024 home opener.

Under Brown, forward Jordyn Weaver became the first Queens WBB player to receive ASUN Player of the Week honors after recording a career-high 33 points against ASUN competition in the 2023-2024 season. Weaver ended the season at the top of the ASUN, averaging the most rebounds in the entire conference with 8.4 rebounds per game. In Brown's first season as a head coach at the Division I level, she helped coach Weaver, who averaged 8.9 points and led the team in rebounds per game with 6.8, to the All-Freshman team as well as Adia Brisker to the ASUN All-Academic Team. Forward Amari Davis was named to the South Atlantic Conference All-Freshman Team for the 2020-21 season. Guard Kalaya Hall was named to the South Atlantic Conference All-Conference Third-Team for the 2021-22 season. Hall averaged 19.9 points per game, which landed her second in the entire conference that season.

Before joining the Royals Brown spent the last four of her 12 seasons as a coach as the top assistant at Virginia Tech. Virginia Tech accumulated an 86-49 record and made three WNIT appearances after posting four-consecutive 20-plus win seasons with Brown on the coaching staff. As the recruiting coordinator, she helped rebuild the program which had only one winning season from 2008-2016 bringing in some of the top recruits in the nation. After bringing in two top-25 nationally ranked recruiting classes, the Hokies were able to post the most Atlantic Coast Conference wins in 12 seasons as they finished 2019-20 at 11-7 in league play. Additionally, Brown recruited and coached eight ACC All-Conference Team selections, one ACC Rookie of the Year and one Sixth Player of the Year.

Prior to joining the Hokies, Brown spent six seasons as an assistant coach at her alma mater, James Madison University. In that time, the Dukes had a .797 winning percentage (165-42) which included six-consecutive 25-plus win seasons. They also won four CAA Regular Season Championships and four CAA Tournament Championships while also making four NCAA Championship appearances. The 2013-14 season was their most successful as they recorded 29 wins to tie a school record, and defeated a sixth-ranked Gonzaga team for their first NCAA tournament win since 1991.

With the Dukes, Brown recruited and coached 28 CAA All-Conference Team selections, four Players of the Year, two Rookies of the Year, and two Defensive Players of the Year. Additionally, two of Brown's recruits went on to be WNBA draft picks.

Personal

Prior to joining the Colgate University coaching staff for two seasons straight out of college, Brown played for the Dukes from 2005-08 helping lead JMU to a 75-23 (.761) record. During Brown's junior season, JMU compiled a 27-6 record, was runner-up in the CAA Tournament, and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. That same season, the Dukes were ranked as high as No. 22 in the AP Poll and No. 25 in the USA Today Poll.

In her senior season, JMU put together a 24-10 record, advancing to the Round of 16 of the WNIT after receiving votes during the season in both major media polls.

Brown, a Brooklyn, New York native, holds a bachelor's degree in justice and a master's degree in Kinesiology, both from JMU.
