QUEENS BASEBALL HEADLINES

QUEENS VS. RADFORD

Queens and Radford will meet for the third straight year, and the second time in Charlotte. Tuesday night will be the first meeting this season as the two squads will face off a month from now in Radford, Virginia. The Highlanders hold a 2-1 series advantage as their offense has been the sparkplug, averaging 15.5 runs across the series while limiting the Royals to 4.5 runs per game.

OPENING WEEKEND

Queens welcomed Patriot League foe Navy to kick off the 2026 season this past weekend. The visiting Midshipmen took the series 2-1 behind an offensive onslaught, plating 12 runs in 2-of-3 games. After taking game two of the series, the Royals pitching staff couldn't overcome 14 walks and eight hit-by-pitches in the rubber match.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

The 56-game slate features five opponents coming off NCAA Tournament appearances, and two programs coming off Super Regionals.

"This is the type of schedule you should come to expect from us with such great opponents," said Hendrick. "Appalachian State, South Carolina, Duke, and North Carolina are some great repeat opponents, but I think the non-conference schedule is really highlighted by the last six games before conference play starts."

K-ZADA RETURNS

Right-handed pitcher Adrian Quezada returns to anchor the Royals pitching staff after a solid first season in the Queen City. The 2024 NCJAA Third Team All-American turned in a 5.40 ERA last season, the second-best on the team across 56.2 innings of work.

BIG LEAGUE ASPIRATIONS

Since the start of the program in 2019, Queens has seen three former players hear their name called in the Major League Baseball Draft. Most recently, Landry Jurecka (2025) was selected in the 18th round by the San Diego Padres, and joined Dillon Lewis and Tanner Jacobson as Royals in the pros. Prior to being traded to the Miami Marlins in January, Lewis was the 16th ranked prospect in the New York Yankees farm system.

NEW FACES

Queens restructured a significant portion of their roster adding 23 newcomers. The projected starting lineup features eight transfers, including key bats in Kendall McDowell, Thomas Mathay, Mitchell Basterrechea, Dylan Schaefer, and BJ Brown.

PRESEASON POLL

Queens was picked to finish sixth in the Graphite Division of the 2026 ASUN Preseason Coaches Poll. The ranking comes after a 9-44 campaign, and 7-23 mark in conference play a season ago.

SPEED, SPEED, SPEED

The 2026 squad features elite speed and athleticism with six starters who can run a sub 6.6 in the 60-yard dash. The style plays into Coach Hendrick's offensive philosophy of constantly applying pressure on the defense. While at the helm of the Northeastern State program, Hendrick led the RiverHawks to 120+ home runs, 120+ doubles, and 120+ stolen bases on the season, the only team in the country to do so.
