QUINNIPIAC GAME NOTES

After a month off from competition, the Quinnipiac men's ice hockey team is back in action for its final two games of the 2019 calendar year as the Bobcats take on ECAC Hockey travel partner Princeton in a home-and-home series beginning Saturday night at Princeton.

Last Time Out

The Bobcats ended the first half of the season on a high note as they split a home-and-home series with then-No. 10/10 UMass. Quinnipiac fell at home to the Minutemen, 3-0, before bouncing back with a 2-1 victory on the road in Amherst, Massachusetts, for the Bobcats first win over a ranked opponent this season.

Scouting Princeton

The Tigers have struggled for much of the 2019-20 season so far, skating to a record of 2-8-3 and are still in search of their first ECAC Hockey win at 0-4-2. Princeton did pick up a win in its final game before the holiday break, a 2-1 victory over AIC after Jackson Cressey's game-winning goal early in the third period. Prior to that win, Princeton had been winless in 11 straight games after winning the opening game of the season at St. Cloud State. The win also snapped a five-game losing streak for the Tigers, with the final two losses coming at home as they were swept by Colorado College to open December. Sophomore Corey Andonovski leads Princeton with six goals and is tied with Jackson Cressey with 11 points, while Cressey leads the team with seven assists. Andonovski also leads the team with three power-play goals. All three goaltenders for the Princeton have seen time this season with Ryan Ferland making the bulk of the starts. He is 1-5-2 with a 3.12 GAA and .889 save percentage but Jeremie Forget has made the past two starts, posting a 1.98 GAA and .931 save percentage as he earned his first win of the season.

All-Time vs. Princeton

Quinnipiac owns the all-time series with Princeton, posting a 17-12-1 record over 30 all-time meetings. The Bobcats have been particularly good in Princeton, New Jersey, owning a 10-4-1 record and are 7-8-0 back home in Hamden against the Tigers. Quinnipiac's series sweep last season brought the Bobcats to 3-3-0 in the last six matchups and are now 12-4-0 against the Tigers since the start of the 2011-12 season.

Rand's Winning Ways

Head coach Rand Pecknold continues to approach milestone wins in his career. In addition to having 518 wins to rank 13th all-time among Division I Men's Hockey coaches, he is just 9 wins from passing former men's and women's tennis head coach Mike Quitko for the most wins by a coach in Quinnipiac Athletics history. Pecknold and Quitko are the only two Quinnipiac coaches to record 500 wins with Quinnipiac programs.

A True Honour

Peter DiLiberatore became the first Bobcat to attend Hockey Canada's National Junior Team Selection camp with his invite to the camp from Dec. 9-12. He picked up an assist in one of the exhibition games for Canada and made it to the final round of cuts.

All Petro

Keith Petruzzelli has been playing some of the best hockey in his collegiate career over the past six games as he has posted a 1.52 GAA and .938 save percentage to go with three wins in that span. Petruzzelli's 1.52 GAA ranks third in ECAC Hockey in that span and his .938 save percentage is fifth. On the season, Petruzzelli is fourth in ECAC Hockey with a 2.30 GAA to go with a .910 save percentage. He also is tied for third with 325 saves, averaging 21.67 saves per game.

Goal Machine

Wyatt Bongiovanni is one of two Bobcats with double digit points this season as he has six goals and four assists for 10 points. Bongiovanni is tied for the team lead in goals, which is also tied for eighth in ECAC Hockey. He has scored two goals on the power-play this season and now has 20 career goals in 53 games for the Bobcats.

A Knack for Scoring

Nick Jermain found the back of the net last time out at UMass for his sixth goal of the season to tie Bongiovanni for the team lead, and move him into a tie for eighth in ECAC Hockey. Jermain's tally also set a career-high for the Bobcats' captain, who had recorded five goals in each of the past two seasons.

Keepin' It Karlis

Karlis Cukste has played well as the Bobcats leader on defense, tallying a goal and seven assists this season for eight point. He is one of five players in ECAC Hockey to record at least eight points and 20 blocks this season. His eight points has him ranked 10th among defenseman in points.

Tough as Nails

Odeen Tufto remains one of the top scorers in ECAC Hockey with his goals and 12 assists for 13 points. He ranks sixth in the league in points while his 12 assists and 148 faceoff wins are third.

On a Quest

Odeen Tufto remains on the quest to record his 100th career point as he comes into the weekend with 96 points in 89 games played, averaging over a point per game in his career. Tufto would become the 41st player in program history to record 100 points after Chase Priskie reached the mark last season. Tufto also comes into the weekend with 71 career assists, ranked 23rd in program history.

Wheelin' Whelan

Alex Whelan recorded his second goal of the season with the game-winner at UMass on Nov. 30 to send the Bobcats into the break on a high note. Whelan now has 37 goals in his career, the most among active Bobcats and looks to heat up in the second half for his third straight 10-goal season.

Face/Off

Quinnipiac continues to be one of the top faceoff teams in the nation as the Bobcats are fifth with a .544 faceoff percentage, and first among ECAC Hockey teams. William Fällström is the Bobcats top faceoff man at .601, good for 19th in the nation and third in ECAC Hockey. Skyler Brind'Amour is second for the Bobcats at .566 and 12th in ECAC Hockey while Odeen Tufto's 148 faceoff wins are third.

Busy Burgart

Desi Burgart recorded his third helper of the season on Jermain's goal at UMass for his first point since Nov. 1 at Arizona State. Burgart now has four points on the season and is halfway to his first-year point total of eight.

Metsa Magic

Zach Metsa also recorded an assist on Jermain's goal to his sixth helper of the season, and is tied with Jermain and Skyler Brind'Amour with six points this season. Metsa has points in three of his last six games after recording assists in wins over Union and Rensselaer, and now has 10 career points.

Brind'Amour's Business

Skyler Brind'Amour recorded a beauty of an assist on Whelan's game-winning goal at UMass for his fourth helper of the season and sixth point. Brind'Amour's assist was his first since Nov. 1 at Arizona State and has now assisted two game-winning goals this season.

An Assist to Remember

Fellow freshman CJ McGee recorded his first career point with an assist at UMass on Whelan's game-winner as he started the rush from behind the Bobcats net. McGee is the 18th different skater for the Bobcats to record a point this season, and now 18 of the 22 skaters to play for the Bobcats this season have recorded a point.

Men's Ice Hockey Head Coach 26th Season | Connecticut College '90

Rand Pecknold completed his 25th season as Quinnipiac's men's ice hockey head coach in 2018-19, and earned an historic victory as he picked up the 500th win of his career midway through the season with a 6-0 shutout of Colgate. Pecknold is one of four active Division I men's ice hockey coaches with 500 career wins and is one of 14 all-time at the Division I level.

To date, Pecknold features a career record of 511-307-91 and currently ranks third among all active NCAA Division I coaches in career victories.

The 2018-19 season saw the Bobcats earn a share of their fourth Cleary Cup as ECAC Hockey Regular Season Champions with a league-best 14 victories against ECAC Hockey competition. Quinnipiac also returned to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history, earning a first round victory over Arizona State to reach the Midwest Regional final where the Bobcats faced the Minnesota Duluth Bulldogs.

Several Bobcats earned major individual honors as goaltender Andrew Shortridge was named the ECAC Hockey Goaltender of the Year, CCM/AHCA Second Team All-American, ECAC Hockey First Team and was a finalist for the Mike Richter Award. Chase Priskie was a Top 10 Finalist for the Hobey Baker Award, ECAC Hockey First Team and a finalist for the Senior CLASS Award. Quinnipiac also placed Odeen Tufto on the ECAC Hockey Second Team while all three were named to the New England Hockey Writers' All-New England Teams.

The 2017-18 season featured one of the toughest non-conference schedules in recent memory, as the Bobcats saw #13 Boston College, #2 Boston University, and Northeastern in four of the opening five games of the season. Quinnipiac tied BC on the road, while falling to BU in the home opener, before sweeping a Northeastern team in Boston, Mass, that ended up an NCAA Tournament team and nationally ranked in the top-ten.

Aside from Northeastern, the Bobcats earned victories over two other NCAA Tournament teams, Princeton and Clarkson, and won five of their last seven games in ECAC play, earning the #9 seed in the ECAC Tournament.

As the #9 seed, the Bobcats traveled to Ingalls Rink where they swept their in-state rival, Yale, in the ECAC Tournament Opening Round best-of-three series.

Following the 2017-18 season, Pecknold won a silver medal at the IIHF World Championship as an assistant coach with the 2018 U.S. Men's National Team.

In doing so, Quinnipiac has now won an ECAC Hockey playoff series in each of its 11 years in the league, dating back to 2005-06, and also ran its all-time streak to 18 years, giving them a series win in each year that they have been at the NCAA Division I level. Following the 2016-17 season, on Apr. 13, 2017, Pecknold selected by USA Hockey as an assistant coach for the 2017 U.S. Men's National Team that will compete in the IIHF World Championship in Germany and France.

The 2016-17 senior class completed their careers with 102 career wins, good for second among all NCAA Division I programs behind North Dakota's 105. It also marked the first time in program history that consecutive senior classes posted 100-win careers. Quinnipiac is one of seven schools - including Denver, Minnesota, Minnesota State, UMass Lowell, Boston College and Providence - to currently feature a senior class that has won 20-or-more games in all four seasons that they have played. Off the ice, Quinnipiac senior Derek Smith became the first Quinnipiac player to win the prestigious ECAC Hockey Student-Athlete of the Year Award.

In 2015-16, Quinnipiac won a program record 32 games while winning the ECAC Hockey Regular-Season (Cleary Cup) and Tournament (Whitelaw Cup) Championships. The Bobcats' 32-4-7 record made them the first team since Michigan in 1997 to finish the season with only four losses for the year.

2015-16's success resulted in a fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, as well as the team's second appearance in the NCAA Frozen Four and National Championship Game since 2013-14. In addition, the Bobcats captured their second-consecutive Cleary Cup, for the ECAC Hockey Regular-Season Championship, which was also their third in four seasons. Quinnipiac also won its first-ever Whitelaw Cup after winning the league's tournament championship. For his efforts, Pecknold was honored with the Spencer Penrose National Coach of the Year Award, the College Hockey News National Coach of the Year as well as the ECAC Hockey Tim Taylor Coach of the Year Award. Quinnipiac then went on to win the NCAA East Regional with wins against RIT and UMass Lowell before advancing to its second NCAA Frozen Four. The Bobcats defeated perennial power Boston College before falling to North Dakota in the National Championship Game.

In 2014-15, Quinnipiac posted a 23-12-4 overall record including a 16-3-3 record and its second Cleary Cup ECAC Hockey Regular Season Championship in that last three years. With the top seed in the ECAC Hockey Championship, the Bobcats topped Union in a best-of-three quarterfinals series at High Point Solutions Arena.

In 2013-14, Pecknold's Bobcats posted their 13th 20-win season, out of the head coach's then 16-year NCAA Division I career, while also winning the fourth most game in the program's history as Quinnipiac went 24-10-6 for the year. The Bobcats winning percentage of .675 ranked seventh nationally, while Quinnipiac also finished the year ranked second on the penalty kill (89.8), sixth on the power play (24.3) and 10th in combined special teams (53.0). Additionally, Quinnipiac ranked third in scoring margin (1.50), as its 3.52 goals per game (fifth highest in program history) ranked fifth among all Division I programs. The Bobcats 2.02 goals-against average was ranked second overall. The Bobcats posted a 12-4-6 ECAC Hockey record, clinching the third seed in the league championship tournament and securing a first-round bye for the second

Individually, the 2013-14 team featured NCAA Division I men's ice hockey's top freshman in Sam Anas, who became the first Quinnipiac and ECAC Hockey player to win the National Rookie of the Year award. Anas and senior Kellen Jones were also named to the ECAC Hockey Second Team. Following the season, Pecknold saw the second player in Quinnipiac history play in an National Hockey League game in Bryce Van Brabant, who signed with the NHL's Calgary Flames. Zach Tolkinen also joined the Flames organization, while Connor and Kellen Jones signed with Edmonton and Jordan Samuels-Thomas signed with Buffalo.

In 2012-13, Rand Pecknold guided Quinnipiac to arguably its most successful season in program history. The Bobcats ascended to its first NCAA Frozen Four, and finished as the National Runner-up, after capturing the 2012-13 Cleary Cup for its first ECAC Hockey Regular-Season Championship. The Bobcats finished the season with an overall record of 30-8-5, good for a NCAA-leading .756 winning percentage, while also leading the country with the most wins (30) and fewest losses (8) in Division I ice hockey. Quinnipiac also posted a national-best 21-game unbeaten streak from Nov. 9, 2012 through Feb. 9, 2013.

In 2012-13, Pecknold was also named the ECAC Hockey Tim Taylor Coach of the Year and the New England Hockey Writers' Association Clark Hodder Coach of the Year while also recognized as a finalist for the prestigious Spencer Penrose National Coach of the Year award. Individually, Eric Hartzell was named a Hobey Baker Award "Hobey Hat Trick" Finalist and was honored as the ECAC Hockey Player of the Year, the ECAC Hockey Ken Dryden Goalie of the Year as well as earning AHCA/CCM Hockey All-American Honors as well as USCHO.com Player of the Year, while also earning ECAC Hockey First Team Honors. Zach Davies was named the ECAC Hockey Best Defensive Defenseman and also named to the First Team while Jeremy Langlois earned Third Team honors.

Quinnipiac won the first NCAA Tournament game in school history when it knocked-off Canisius, 4-3, before topping Union, 5-1, in the NCAA East Regional Final to advance to the NCAA Frozen Four for the first time in program history. The Bobcats rolled over St. Cloud State, 4-1, before losing to Yale in the National Championship Game, 4-0.

Since taking over as head coach of the Quinnipiac University men's ice hockey team 24 years ago, Rand Pecknold has asserted himself as one of the nation's best. He has seen plenty of changes, but one constant is a proven track record filled with success and accomplishment, both on the team and individual fronts.

Off the ice, the Bobcats have ranked among the top half of Quinnipiac's Department of Athletics in Positive Play points, which encourages community involvement by Quinnipiac's student-athletes and coaches. Academically, Quinnipiac men's ice hockey featured the most student-athletes honored on the ECAC Hockey Academic Honor Roll in 2015 while also placing in the top three in the 12-team league for each of the past six seasons.

Prior to the start of the 2010-11 season, Pecknold was selected as ECAC Hockey's representative on the NCAA Division I Men's Ice Hockey committee. Pecknold served the second year of his two-year term in 2012-13 seasons.

In 2009-10, Quinnipiac's early-season success featured wins against nationally-ranked Ohio State on the Buckeyes home-ice to open the season before ultimately winning 12 of their first 13 games. Included in the run, that culminated with the No. 4 ranking, were wins against nationally-ranked UMass and Cornell, including Quinnipiac second win in their last three regular-season games at Lynah Rink. Pecknold's line-up featured a pair of early-season nationally-ranked scoring leaders in Brandon Wong and Eric Lampe, as well as the AHCA National Player of the Month in goalie Dan Clarke. Quinnipiac hit a lull over the middle part of the season, before clinching home-ice advantage for the ECAC Hockey First Round for the fifth consecutive year, while also extending their streak of Quarterfinal appearances to five. When the dust settled, Wong was signed by the Grand Rapids Griffins of the American Hockey League, while Lampe and Jean-Marc Beaudoin landed in the East Coast Hockey League, with Lampe lacing them up for the Florida Everglades while Beaudoin helped the Bakersfield Condors to their league championship for the first time in program history. In addition to his team's success, Pecknold won his 300th career game as the Bobcats clinched their ECAC Hockey First Round series.

In 2008-09, the Bobcats line-up included the nation's leading scorer in Bryan Leitch, who also led the nation in assists. It was a first for the Quinnipiac men's ice hockey program at the Division I level and was also the first time since All-American Reid Cashman wore the Bobcats' sweater that Pecknold coached a player that landed among the nation's leaders. In addition to Leitch, linemate David Marshall also ranked in the top ten in points scored as well as goals scored as the duo sat in the top two spots on the ECAC Hockey scoring list. Leitch was named to the ECAC Hockey Second Team, become Quinnipiac's first all-league player since 2006-07.

Prior to the Bobcats joining ECAC Hockey, Pecknold guided Quinnipiac to two MAAC regular-season titles, one Atlantic Hockey regular-season title, one MAAC tournament title and the first-ever NCAA berth in program history in 2002. In addition to individual success, the Bobcats won their second consecutive in-season tournament when they knocked off Merrimack and nationally-ranked Air Force to win the Toyota UConn Hockey Classic. The Bobcats went on to defeat Harvard and Dartmouth, also nationally ranked at the time, for an impressive four wins in six days. The feat pushed Quinnipiac into the national polls for the first time that year while they were also named the College Hockey News National Team of the Week.

The Quinnipiac men's ice hockey 2007-08 season started off on a high note when the team was ranked in the top 15 by both the USCHO.com/ CSTV Division I and USA

Today/USA Hockey Magazine College Hockey Preseason Polls. The Bobcats became mainstays in the national rankings for most of the season, rising to 10th in both polls while also being featured in College Hockey News' first NCAA Tournament prediction of the season. January 21, 2008 marked the date for Quinnipiac's highest ranking all-time in a national poll. The Bobcats locked down the 10th slot in the InsideCollegeHockey.com poll while also being ranked in the top 15 in the RPI and PairWise Standings.

In addition to their accomplishments in the Blue and Gold, 14 players were ECAC Hockey All-Academic selections, for the second straight season. Captain Jamie Bates was also signed by the Norfolk (Va.) Admirals, the top AHL affiliate of the Tampa Bay Lightning, before then signing with the Springfield (Mass.) Falcons, the top AHL affiliate of the Edmonton Oilers.

The Bobcats took a strong step forward on the national stage in 2006-07. Quinnipiac was ranked in the top 20 for 18 weeks and reached the finals of the ECAC Hockey Tournament in just its second year in the league. During the league playoffs, the Bobcats recorded three victories against nationally ranked teams including a two-game series sweep at Cornell's hostile Lynah Rink. Ultimately, Quinnipiac fell one game shy of reaching the NCAA Tournament, as it was defeated by No. 5 nationally ranked Clarkson in the tournament final.

On the individual front, 14 players earned All-Academic honors from ECAC Hockey. In addition, senior defenseman Reid Cashman was selected as a First-Team All-American by the American Hockey Coaches Association and signed with the Toronto Maple Leafs following the season. Brandon Wong was tabbed as a Freshman All-American after earning league Co-Rookie of the Year honors.

Faced with one of the biggest challenges since taking over as head coach of the program, Pecknold made sure that things didn't skip a beat while joining ECAC Hockey in 2005-06. The Bobcats reached the 20-win plateau for the seventh time in eight seasons, finishing at 20-18-1. For his efforts, Pecknold was named ECAC Hockey Coach of the Year by InsideCollegeHockey.com.

Despite winning 15 of its final 18 games in 2004-05 to finish with a 21-13-1 mark and the Atlantic Hockey regular-season title, Quinnipiac finished one victory shy of earning an NCAA Tournament berth, falling in the conference tournament final.

Pecknold was selected as the 2005 Atlantic Hockey Coach of the Year and was tabbed as a finalist for the Spencer Penrose Award. Cashman was voted a finalist for the Hobey Baker Award, given annually to the top player in college hockey, and earned All-America accolades from two national media outlets. Off the ice, senior goaltender Jamie Holden was named a CoSIDA First-Team District I Academic All-America selection for his performance in the classroom.

In 2003-04, Pecknold coached a unit that was decimated by injuries but still managed to achieve a winning record for the eighth straight year at 15-14-6.

During the 2002-03 campaign, Quinnipiac reached the MAAC tournament final for the third consecutive season, but fell one goal short of its second straight NCAA Tournament berth. Nevertheless, the Bobcats did reach the 20-win plateau for the fifth straight year, closing with a 22-13-1 mark.

The 2001-02 campaign was arguably the most successful of Pecknold's tenure in Hamden. Despite being picked to finish fifth in the preseason coaches' poll, the Bobcats closed out the regular season with a second-place effort. Then, in the MAAC Tournament, Quinnipiac registered one-goal wins over Iona and Sacred Heart before taking a 6-4 win over Mercyhurst in the title game. As a result, Quinnipiac earned its first-ever trip to the NCAA Division I Tournament.

Pecknold became the winningest coach in program history with his 141st win on March 1, 2002, a 6-2 win over UConn.

In 2000-01, Quinnipiac registered a final mark of 22-11-4. After finishing with a 17-7-2 mark in the regular season, the Bobcats finished one game shy of their first ever NCAA berth, falling to Mercyhurst, 6-5, in the MAAC Hockey League championship game.

Quinnipiac finished the 1999-2000 season with a 27-6-3 final record. The 27 wins broke the school record of 26, which was set in 1998-99.

In its first season in Division I in 1998-99, Quinnipiac set a school record with 26 victories on its way to the inaugural MAAC Hockey League regular-season title.

In 1997-1998, its final Division II campaign, Pecknold guided the Bobcats to a 19-3-1 record. Quinnipiac also set a school record for winning percentage (.848).

BEFORE QUINNIPIAC:

Hired at Quinnipiac on May 5, 1994, Pecknold previously served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Connecticut College, for three seasons under head coach and former NHL player Doug Roberts. A standout for the Camels, Pecknold led Connecticut College to the 1990 ECAC South Championship. As a senior, Pecknold set school season records for goals (17) and points (47) by a defenseman. He earned First-Team All-ECAC South honors and a spot on the Division III All-New England Team. Playing as a forward for two seasons, he led the Camels in goals as a sophomore (19) and junior (23).

PERSONAL:

An economics major, Pecknold earned his bachelor's degree in 1990 and added a master's degree in education in 1993. A native of Bedford, N.H., Pecknold played scholastically at Lawrence Academy in Groton, Mass. Pecknold, his wife, Nikki, sons Tate and Rex, and daughters, Cecelia and Georgia currently live in Southport, Conn.
