QUINNIPIAC QUICK NOTES

- Quinnipiac field hockey opens a three-game homestand on Friday afternoon as the Fairfield Stags visit Hamden for a 3 PM contest. The Stags enter with a 2-2 record on the young season, while the Bobcats are in search of their first victory.
- Lafayette is next on the schedule for the Bobcats in the home stretch, as the Leopards make the trip in on Sunday afternoon. The final game of the three-game run is also the Big East opener and features the Temple Owls in Connecticut.
- First year Emilia Massarelli scored her first collegiate goal in the loss to Columbia.
- Sophomore goalkeeper Nina Santore recorded seven saves in a stellar performance against #7 Boston College to open the season. It was the fifth game of her short career in which she recorded seven or more stops.
- The 2021 Bobcats return 20 players from last year's roster while adding a strong group of nine newcomers to the team.
- Seniors Jess Halley and Mikayla Dugan, and redshirt senior Brooke Whipkey, have all earned leadership roles for the second consecutive season. Fellow senior Isabella Sinibaldi joins the leadership group after being chosen by teammates and coaches.
