TRICIA FABBRI | HEAD COACH | 27TH SEASON | FAIRFIELD '91

The all-time winningest coach in Quinnipiac women's basketball history with 471 victories, Tricia Fabbri, recently completed her 26th season on the Bobcats' sideline in 2020-21.

The 2020-21 campaign saw Fabbri guide Quinnipiac to its 10th consecutive winning season, reaching 13 wins, including 11 in conference play. The Bobcats went on to earn the No. 2 seed in the MAAC Tournament behind All-MAAC selections Mackenzie DeWees, Mikala Morris and Rose Caverly.

Caverly earned All-MAAC third team honors, while Morris and DeWees both earned First Team honors. Morris was also named the MAAC Defensive Player of the Year, the first player to win the award under Fabbri and the third player to win Defensive Player of the Year accolades during her reign. In turn, DeWees earned MAAC Player of the Year honors, becoming the first player under Fabbri to win the award.

The 2019-20 season saw the Bobcats win 12 conference games in the MAAC, and earning the No. 5 seed in the MAAC Tournament. Under Fabbri, the Bobcats received three postseason conference awards, as senior guard Taylor Herd earned All-MAAC Third Team Honors, and first year's Mikala Morris and Cur'Tiera Haywood were named to MAAC All-Rookie Team.

That campaign resulted in yet another 20-win season (the program's eighth in a row), as the team went 26-7, and again posted an undefeated season in MAAC play (their fourth in seven years). The team won its fifth conference title in the last seven seasons with another MAAC Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament as an 11-seed before falling to sixth-seeded South Dakota State at the Carrier Dome in Syracuse, New York.

The 2017-18 season saw Fabbri lead the Bobcats to a 28-6 record, an 18-0 mark in the MAAC (their third undefeated conference season in the last six years), a MAAC Tournament championship (their fourth conference title in the last six years), and an appearance in the second round of the NCAA Tournament (their second in a row). Quinnipiac, which earned the East Region's No. 9 seed, advanced with an opening round win over Miami (Fla.) before falling to No. 1 Connecticut in the second round.

In 2016-17, Fabbri led the Bobcats on a thrilling ride to the Sweet 16, rewriting the record books at Quinnipiac and establishing what stands as one of the greatest single-seasons by any program in school history. Quinnipiac's run in the 2017 NCAA Tournament was truly remarkable as Quinnipiac became just the fourth No. 12 seed in NCAA Div. I Women's Basketball Tournament history to advance to the Sweet 16. In that run included two wins over nationally-ranked teams in No. 25 Marquette (W, 68-65) and at No. 16 Miami (W, 85-78), marking the first two wins over ranked opponents in program history. In that seven-point win over Miami, Quinnipiac went 15-for-26 from three (57.7 percent), hitting the third-most three-pointers in an NCAA Second Round game in Tournament history. The Cinderella story ended in the Sweet 16 as Quinnipiac fell to the eventual NCAA Champion South Carolina in Stockton, California.

The previous seven seasons had been filled with nothing but success for Quinnipiac as Fabbri has guided her team to a 186-52 (.782 win percentage) overall record from 2011-18. After going 12-1 at home for two years in a row, combined with the Bobcats' 14-0 home record in 2014-15 and 13-2 mark in 2015-16, Quinnipiac's 51-4 mark (.927) at the TD Bank Sports Center was tied for the 10th-best home win percentage in the nation over the span of four seasons.

The 2015-16 campaign was an incredibly successful one for the Bobcats as Fabbri was named the MAAC Coach of the Year for the second consecutive season. She managed to lead a young squad to a 25-9 season (17-3 MAAC) that featured a 19-game win streak and MAAC Regular Season title. Even though the Bobcats were denied in the MAAC Championship by Iona, the new-look Bobcats started MAAC play with a record of 0-3 but still managed to ride a 17-game unbeaten streak to the No. 1 seed in the MAAC Tournament for the second straight year.

Fabbri's transformative 2014-15 season redefined the record books at Quinnipiac as her squad went 31-4 (.886 win percentage) overall and 20-0 in conference play on their way to winning the 2015 MAAC Championship and earning a spot into the NCAA Tournament. Fabbri led the Bobcats to their most wins (31) in a single-season in program history as well as their second 30-win campaign in the last three seasons. Quinnipiac became the first MAAC school in conference history (est. 1980) to finish 20-0 in conference play and just the sixth squad to go undefeated in league play. As the No. 1 seed in the 2015 MAAC Tournament, Quinnipiac upended Monmouth, Siena and ultimately the nine-time defending MAAC Champ Marist to claim their first MAAC Championship.

As a player, Fabbri was named to the MAAC 25th Anniversary Team and was inducted into the Fairfield University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998. In 2002, she was also inducted into the Connecticut Women's Basketball Hall of Fame and the Delran (N.J.) High School Athletic Hall of Fame before being inducted into the Albert Carino Basketball Club of South Jersey Hall of Fame in 2006. That year, she also received the St. Clare Award at the 22nd Annual Franciscan Sports Banquet.

Fabbri lives in Stratford, Conn., with her husband, Paul, and their three children: Carly, A.J. and Paul Henry. Two of her brothers, Tony and John Sacca, starred at quarterback for Penn State University.
