In 2022, Robinson led the Bobcats to 14 wins, tying for the most wins in a single season during his tenure (2019). Quinnipiac won 10 MAAC regular season contests, powered by nine wins in its last 11 regular season games to earn the No. 6 seed entering the MAAC Volleyball Championship. As the No. 6 seed, Quinnipiac upset No. 3 Iona to advance to the MAAC Semifinals for the third time in four seasons under coach Robinson. The Bobcats went on to defeat No. 7 Rider in straight sets to earn its second berth in four seasons into the MAAC Championship game, where Quinnipiac would run into top-seeded Fairfield. Unwavered, the Bobcats went on to down No. 1 Fairfield in four sets to earn the program's first ever MAAC title and automatic berth into the NCAA Tournament. Senior Aryanah Diaz was named the 2022 MAAC Championship MVP, while first-years Damla Gunes and Ginevra Giovagnoni were named to the 2022 MAAC Championship All-Tournament Team.

Along with seeing six student-athletes earn All-MAAC Academic honors, Robinson saw a trio of Bobcats earn All-MAAC honors in 2022. Aryanah Diaz earned All-MAAC First team honors, while Nicole Legg was named to the All-MAAC Second Team. Damla Gunes rounded out the accolades for the trio with earning All-MAAC Rookie Team honors.

Robinson guided the Bobcats to 11 wins in 2021, an eight win increase from the prior season. Quinnipiac won nine MAAC regular season games and qualified for the 2021 MAAC Volleyball Championship as a No. 6 seed. As the No. 6 seed, Quinnipiac upset the No. 3 seeded Marist in the MAAC quarterfinals, marking the third upset victory Robinson led the Bobcats to in the MAAC Tournament during his tenure. Under coach Robinson, the Bobcats saw nine members named to the All-Academic Team, while Nicole Legg earned All-MAAC First Team honors and Faave Kimsel Moe garnered MAAC All-Rookie Team Honors.

In an abbreviated 2020-21 season due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Robinson led the Bobcats to three wins in eight contests with all three wins coming against MAAC opponents. Robinson led the program to their second consecutive MAAC Championship berth, entering the tournament as the No. 7 seed. That season under Robinson, the Bobcats saw Maggie Baker garner All-MAAC First Team honors.

In 2019, Robinson led the Bobcats to 14 wins in his first season in charge, a five win increase from the previous season. The Bobcats won eight MAAC regular season games and qualified for the 2019 MAAC Volleyball Championship as a six seed. Quinnipiac upset No. 3 Rider and No. 2 Canisius to make it to the MAAC Championship game against Fairfield. Under Robinson, the Bobcats also earned their first MAAC Libero of the Year award as senior Alejandra Rodriguez earned the honor. She was also named to the All-MAAC Second Team. Senior Kaleigh Oates joined Rodriguez on the All-MAAC Second Team.

"I am pleased to welcome Kyle and his family to Quinnipiac University," said Amodio. "During his time as both a player and coach, Kyle has demonstrated a commitment to excellence. I'm confident that his drive to succeed at the highest level will afford us the opportunity to establish a championship caliber program."

Robinson comes to Quinnipiac after serving as the assistant volleyball coach at the University of Oklahoma from 2015 to 2018.

"I am very excited to have the privilege of leading Quinnipiac volleyball into a new era," said Robinson. I will be proud to represent Quinnipiac in our community and on a national and global scale."

Before working at Oklahoma, Robinson served as the head coach at LIU Brooklyn from July 2008 to February 2015. He led the program to five NCAA tournament appearances and five Northeast Conference Championships through seven seasons. Robinson was named the Northeast Conference Coach of the Year in 2011, 2012, 2013, and 2014, becoming the only coach in NEC history to earn the award four times.

His final season at LIU Brooklyn included a perfect 14-0 mark in Northeast Conference play, 25-7 overall record, and a third-straight NCAA Tournament appearance.
