QUINNIPIAC QUICK NOTES

- The Quinnipiac softball team is 12-25 this season and will look to the final regular season games at Monmouth and Fairfield. The Bobcats are coming off a 2-3 week against Merrimack, Marist and Iona.
- The Bobcats have split five of the seven MAAC doubleheaders this season. Against Marist, the Bobcats won the first game off a thrilling walk-off in the bottom of the seventh inning, taking the game, 5-4. Going into the inning down 4-1, the Bobcats never gave up. Brooke Hilliard hit a massive triple to right field, and then Lala Pascual hit the game-winning walk-off single to send Alyssa Noce home to win the game, 5-4. The Red Foxes would have a solid start to game two, recording four runs in the first inning. Marist would add seven runs in the fourth inning to a 11-3 lead. In the fifth inning, the Red Foxes would hold a 13-5 lead and finish the game with an eight-run lead.
- Quinnipiac traveled to Iona on Sunday, May 1 and dropped both MAAC contests. The Gaels held strong against the Bobcats in the circle, allowing just seven hits and one run against.
- Gianna Palmisano leads the team with a .319 batting average with 12 RBIs, five double and 13 runs. In the circle, Jaclyn Gozalez leads the pitching staff with a 3.85 ERA. Sydney Horna has recorded 60 strikeouts this season.
- Monmouth holds a 9-38 record this season and is coming off a split with Rider. Fairfield sits in second place in the MAAC standings with an 11-5 conference record and 21-20 overall record.
- The Bobcats hold a 5-11 conference record, sitting in 10th place in the standings. Manhattan, Niagara, Marist and Saint Peter's hold the four spots above the Bobcats and are all fighting for the sixth spot.
