QUINNIPIAC QUICK NOTES

- QU Women's Tennis is back on the courts on Saturday, Feb. 26, traveling to Army for a 3:00 PM match to continue non-conference play.
- The Bobcats have won each of their last two events. QU first defeated Rhode Island for the first time since 2017, winning 5-2 on Feb. 5. Quinnipiac then defeated Stony Brook for their first win vs. the Seawolves since 2005, winning 5-2 on Feb. 19.
- The Bobcats wrapped up the fall season back on Oct. 9 at Rhode Island. QU also competed in the QU Hidden Duals and the Yale Hidden Duals prior to the break in play.
- Quinnipiac women's tennis has captured five MAAC Tournament titles and five NCAA Tournament appearances (2013-14, 2014-15, 2015-16, 2016-17, 2017-18) under Head Coach Paula Miller.
- Miller has helped lead the Bobcats' women's program to 86 wins since 2013-14, as the program tallied 10+ wins each season from 2013-2019. Quinnipiac went 43-0 in regular season MAAC matches during that span.
- Most recently, the Bobcats went 9-5 (6-0 MAAC) during the 2020-21 campaign, falling vs. Siena in the MAAC championship match.
- The Bobcats have won 49 consecutive regular season conference matches. Quinnipiac is a perfect 49-0 in regular season league matches, dating back to 2013.
