QUINNIPIAC QUICK NOTES

- Start It Off - After repeating as MAAC champions, the Quinnipiac golf team looks to keep the good times rolling as the Bobcats participate in the NCAA Regionals held at the Seminole Legacy Golf Club hosted by Florida State. The regionals will begin Monday at 9 a.m., with Tuesday and Wednesday's tee times starting at 9 a.m. as well. The teams will be playing 18 holes per day over the 54-hole event. The Bobcats will advance to the NCAA Championship in Scottsdale, Arizona if they finish as a top-four team in their region.
- Yardage Information - The Seminole Legacy golf course, located in Tallahassee, is a par-72 course that will play 6,292 yards.
- Deep sQUad - Regarded as one of head coach John O'Connor's deepest teams to date, this year's Bobcats boast four different golfers that have earned at least one individual first place finish this season in Aimee Uchida, Kaylee Sakoda, Leeyen Peralta and Elyse Kim. The Bobcats saw two golfers in Peralta and Sakoda both earn two victories this season. Peralta is the latest Bobcat to earn a win, as she took home first place at the MAAC Championship to earn MAAC Golfer of the Year honors.
