LOUISIANA HOST TEXAS STATE ON HOMECOMING

After clinching bowl eligibility with a tightly-contested 28-27 victory on the road at Arkansas State, Louisiana returns to Cajun Field and seeks another Sun Belt Conference West Division victory when it welcomes Texas State for Homecoming. The Ragin' Cajuns are 3-0 on Homecoming under head coach Billy Napier and own a 42-27-2 record all-time.

A LOOK AT THE RAGIN' CAJUNS

- Louisiana is 27-5 since the start of the 2019 season.
- Louisiana owns a 23-7 record against Sun Belt opposition under Coach Napier, including a perfect 14-0 mark against Sun Belt West opposition.
- With its victory over Arkansas State, Louisiana clinched bowl eligibility for the fourth consecutive season.
- Louisiana is 34-5 under Coach Napier when scoring more than 20 points. After scoring 41 points against App State, the team is 13-0 when scoring more than 40 points under Napier.
- Since 2018, Louisiana is 18-4 when playing in games at 6 p.m. or later.
- The Ragin' Cajuns own a 13-3 record in one-possession games since the start of the 2018 season.
- Louisiana has eight "super seniors" on the roster this year in quarterback Levi Lewis, linebacker Ferrod Gardner, offensive lineman Ken Marks, wide receiver Jalen Williams, linebacker Chauncey Manac, nose tackle Tayland Humphrey, safety Cameron Solomon and kicker Nate Snyder. Of the eight, Ken Marks and Ferrod Gardner are in their seventh season of eligibility.
- Levi Lewis needs three passing touchdowns to set the program record for career passing scores. The current record of 64 is held by Ragin' Cajun legend Jake Delhomme.
- Chris Smith and Montrell Johnson stole the show on Oct. 21 at Arkansas State, combining for 388 yards on the ground. Smith's 238 yards rushing were the fifth most in a single game in program history and is one of nine players in country to rush for over 230 yards this season, while Johnson's 99-yard touchdown run was the longest in school history, Sun Belt Conference history, and tied the NCAA record.
- Louisiana is 9-for-12 on 4th Down this year, good for second in the Sun Belt and ninth nationally.

PLEASE CALL US "LOUISIANA"

Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns® is the nickname of the University's athletic teams. Teams also may be referred to using shorter versions of that nickname. In most cases, Ragin' Cajuns plural is proper, though Ragin' Cajun in the singular form can apply. UL Lafayette may be used as an abbreviation to refer to the academic institution when clarification is necessary.

- Do not refer to the University as ULL in any instance.
- Do not use the terms Lafayette or U of L, as they denote other institutions.

TEAM NOTES

- In Billy Napier's first four seasons, the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns have won three Sun Belt Conference West Division titles, were the 2020 Sun Belt Co-Champions and have won two bowl games (LendingTree Bowl (2020) and SERVPRO First Responder Bowl (2021)).
- Louisiana owns a perfect 14-0 record against Sun Belt West Division opponents and is 23-7 overall against Sun Belt opposition.
- After the tight win over Arkansas State, Louisiana is now 13-3 in one-possession games since 2018.
- Louisiana produced 546 yards of total offense against A-State, the 17th time the Cajuns have recorded 500+ yards in the Napier era and the second time this season, the first coming against Ohio (562). The team owns a 16-1 record in those contests.
- Of those 546 yards against the Red Wolves, 424 came on the ground. The Ragin' Cajuns have rushed for more than 400 yards three times in the Napier era and own a 3-0 record in those contests.
- Louisiana has won 12-straight regular-season road games against Sun Belt teams and is 15-1 in regular-season road games since the start of the 2019 season.
- The 41 points scored against App State marked the 13th time that Louisiana has produced more than 40 points in a single game under Napier. The team is 13-0 in those games.
- Louisiana is 34-5 when scoring 20 or more points in the Napier era.
- After defeating Georgia Southern, Louisiana moved to 3-1 in Sun Belt openers under Napier.
- Louisiana's defense held Ohio to just 14 points on Sept. 16, improving the Ragin' Cajuns to 8-0 over the last four seasons when an opponent scores 14 or fewer points.
- Louisiana has eight "super seniors" on the roster this year in quarterback Levi Lewis, linebacker Ferrod Gardner, offensive lineman Ken Marks, wide receiver Jalen Williams, linebacker Chauncey Manac, nose tackle Tayland Humphrey, safety Cameron Solomon and kicker Nate Snyder. Of the eight, Ken Marks and Ferrod Gardner are entering their seventh season of eligibility.
- Per ESPN's Bill Connelly, Louisiana returns 96 percent of its production entering the 2021 season. The team has 93 percent of its offense returning and 98 percent of the defense coming back.
- Louisiana placed nine on the Sun Belt's All-Conference teams after having 14 All-Conference selections at the end of the 2020 campaign.

- Former Ragin' Cajun running back Elijah Mitchell was drafted in the 2021 NFL Draft back in April after he was selected with the 194th pick in the Sixth Round by the San Francisco 49ers.
- Mitchell was the fourth player drafted during the Napier era.
- Louisiana's play-by-play announcer Jay Walker is in his 30th year covering the Ragin' Cajuns.

QUARTERBACK NOTES

QB Levi Lewis

- Levi Lewis is 28-7 as the starting quarterback of the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns.
- Went 11-for-20 for 122 yards on the road against Arkansas State (Oct. 21). With his yardage total, Lewis moved into second place for career passing yards in Louisiana history.
- Led Louisiana to an impressive win over App State, going 15-for-25 for 209 yards and a touchdown through the air and adding a rushing touchdown, his first of the season.
- Lewis has thrown for at least 200 yards in five out of the team's seven games and is now 13-3 in his career when eclipsing the 200-yard marking through the air.
- Louisiana is 6-2 when Lewis records a rushing and passing score in the same game.
- Recorded a team-high 10 carries for 61 yards and his first rushing score of the year, while also completing nine passes for 49 yards at South Alabama (Oct. 2).
- Led Louisiana to its third consecutive victory in a Sun Belt Conference opener, going 17-for-28 for 249 yards and three passing touchdowns against Georgia Southern (Sept. 25).
- Accounted for 261 of Louisiana's 378 yards of total offense against the Eagles after adding 12 yards rushing in the game.
- Louisiana is 18-1 when Lewis throws two or more touchdowns in a game.
- Was efficient against Ohio, throwing for more than 200 yards for a third consecutive game after completing 21 of his 29 attempts for 212 yards and touchdown.
- Lewis had a strong showing against Nicholls (Sept. 11), going 19-for-33 for 304 yards and throwing

- two touchdown passes.
- Lewis' 304 passing yards were the third-most of his career and marked the third time he eclipsed the 300-yard passing threshold. It was also the 37th 300-yard passing performance in program history.
- Lewis went 28-for-40 for 282 yards and a touchdown in the team's Week 1 loss at No. 21/19 Texas.
- His 282 passing yards were the fifth most in his career and the most in a season opener by a Ragin' Cajun since Chris Masson threw for 283 yards against Southern on Sept. 5, 2009.
- The yardage total also marked the most by a Ragin' Cajun against a Power 5 opponent since Blaine Gautier threw 236 yards against Oklahoma State on Sept. 15, 2012.
- Lewis is second in program history for career passing touchdown and second in career passing yards.

BY THE NUMBERS

Levi Lewis needs three more touchdowns to set the program record for passing touchdowns in a career, surpassing Jake Delhomme.

13

The Ragin' Cajuns own a 13-3 record in the Billy Napier era in one-score games, including a 4-0 mark during the 2021 season.

14

Louisiana owns a perfect 14-0 record against Sun Belt West Division teams under head coach Billy Napier.

27

Louisiana is 27-5 overall since the start of the 2019 season under Coach Napier.

33

Seventh-year senior Ken Marks has started in 33 games in his Louisiana career.

- Gained 23 yards on a career-high 11 carries against Georgia Southern (Sept. 25).
- Scored his first touchdown of the season against Ohio (Sept. 16) and recorded 68 yards on 10 carries.
- Carried the ball 11 times for 46 yards against Nicholls (Sept. 11).
- Opened his 2021 campaign with 54 yards on 11 carries and a touchdown at Texas (Sept. 4).
- Joined Baylor's Tristan Ebner as the only two running backs in the country who produced two kickoff return touchdowns and at least one rushing touchdown last season.

RB Montrell Johnson

- Ranks second on the team with 485 rushing yards on 76 attempts and is tied for the team lead with seven rushing touchdowns.
- Had a monster game against A-State, recording 150 rushing yards on 17 carries and scoring twice.
- His 150 rushing yards are the most by a true freshman since Tyrell Fenroy had 156 rushing yards on Oct. 29, 2005, against Troy.
- His first score of the game was a 99-yard house call, a rush that broke a program record, the Sun Belt Conference record and tied an NCAA record.
- One of two players in the country with a 99-yard rush this season, joining Ohio quarterback Armani Rogers, and is one of 13 players all-time with a 99-yard touchdown in NCAA history.

2021 LOUISIANA FOOTBALL CAJUN FIELD RECORDS

Cajun Field has served as the home of Ragin' Cajuns football since September 1971. Louisiana holds a 145-113-2 all-time record on its home field with winning records in 34 of the 50 seasons.

The Cajuns set the school single-season records for total attendance (145,854) and average attendance (29,171) in 2011. Included in those totals were five of the top 15 crowds all-time, including a Sun Belt Conference record 32,823 vs. North Texas on Oct. 15, 2011. Louisiana was the Sun Belt attendance champion in 2004, 2008, 2011, 2013 and 2014.

Cajun Field hosted the 1,000th Cajuns game in school history on Nov. 1, 2008 before a then-Sun Belt record crowd of 29,031.

Louisiana has enjoyed plenty of memorable moments since the venue opened in 1971. The greatest of those moments came during the 1996 season when the Ragin' Cajuns opened their 26th season in the facility with the biggest upset in school history, a 29-22 victory over No. 25 Texas A&M in front of a then-record crowd of 38,783 fans. That mark surpassed the previous record crowd of 36,133 that saw the Cajuns face the Alabama Crimson Tide on Oct. 6, 1990.

On Nov. 30, 2019, Louisiana earned a thrilling 31-30 victory over in-state rival ULM to eclipse the double-digit win mark for the first time ever with its 10th victory, while also setting the school record for the most SBC wins with seven.

Cajun Field has been the site of much success with four consecutive 4-1 records from 1993-96. The school record for wins at Cajun Field in a season is seven, set during the 1976 season, one of three undefeated seasons (1976, 1980 and 1987) at Cajun Field.

Cajun Field boasts 2,577 chairback seats and additional seating to the capacity of another 38,849 giving the facility a total seating capacity of 41,426. In 2014, the south endzone was closed in to create more seating, adding 5,000 seats to the stadium capacity. In the summer of 2008, Cajun Field removed its long-standing natural grass and entered a new era with a synthetic playing surface.

For the first 17 years, Louisiana's football stadium was simply known as Cajun Field. In the summer of 1988, then-Strength & Conditioning Coach Mickey Faulkinberry suggested referring to Cajun Field as "The Swamp". The name stuck for various reasons. To start, the field surface is set two feet below sea level in a natural bowl.

In addition to providing a picturesque surrounding, the sunken facility allows most fans to walk down to their stadium seats. The Cajuns and their opponents must enter Cajun Field through a long tunnel from the Cox Communications Athletic Center.

BILLY NAPIER

HEAD COACH
4th SEASON

Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns Director of Athletics Dr. Bryan Maggard welcomed Billy Napier as the 27th Head Coach in Louisiana Football history on Dec. 15, 2017, and the results from the previous three seasons for the Ragin' Cajuns have been a clear indicator of how far the program has come under Napier.

Under Napier's leadership, Louisiana was able to navigate a season heavily impacted by COVID-19 and claim a Sun Belt Conference Co-Championship, its third-straight Sun Belt West Division title and its second-straight bowl victory, a 31-24 win over UTSA in the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl.

Napier's team broke into the national rankings for the first time in the modern era following its Week 1 upset of No. 23 Iowa State and finished the campaign ranked No. 15 in the AP Top 25, No. 16 in the USA Today/Amway Coaches Poll and No. 19 in the College Football Playoff, the team's highest rankings in all three polls.

Both the offense and defense continued to flourish in 2020 under Napier's watch. Offensively, the team ranked 29th nationally in scoring offense (33.6) and 43rd nationally in total offense (421.5), while the defense ranked 31st in scoring defense (22.0) and 33rd in total defense (355.4).

Louisiana boasted 14 selections on the Sun Belt All-Conference teams, led by First Team selections Elijah Mitchell and Chris Smith. Mitchell wrapped up his stellar career ranking fifth in career scoring (276), fifth in career rushing touchdowns (41) and sixth in career rushing yards (3,267) before being drafted with the 194th overall pick in the Sixth Round by the San Francisco 49ers.

Smith earned First Team All-America honors from CBSSports/247Sports and Pro Football Focus and Second Team All-America honors from the FWAA, marking the second consecutive season that a Ragin' Cajun earned All-America honors under Napier.

Quarterback Levi Lewis continued to thrive in Napier's system, throwing for 2,274 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2020. Entering his final season, Lewis ranks second in career passing touchdowns (54), third in career passing yards (6,286) and fourth in career completions (485).

Louisiana reached unprecedented heights during the 2019 season after securing a record-breaking 11-3 overall record and a second-straight trip to the Sun Belt Championship Game after clinching the league's West Division title with a resounding 53-3 victory over Troy on Nov. 23.

The team broke numerous school records on top of their win total, including the most points in a season (531) and the most total offense in a single season (6,918), while ranking in the top-20 nationally in total offense (494.1), rushing offense (257.4), scoring offense (37.9) and scoring defense (19.7). As a result of his program's success, Napier was voted the program's first Sun Belt Coach of the Year, becoming the third Louisiana coach to earn the distinction of top coach and the first since 1993 when Nelson Stokley was named the Big West Conference's top coach.

Powering the way for Louisiana's dynamic offense were three 2020 NFL Draft picks in Robert Hunt, Kevin Dotson and Raymond Calais. Hunt became the third-highest draft pick in team history when he was selected 39th overall by the Miami Dolphins, while Dotson, who was named a First Team All-American by the Associated Press, USA Today, Sports Illustrated and Pro Football Focus and a Second Team All-American by Sporting News, was taken by the Pittsburgh Steelers with the 135th pick. Calais was drafted in the Seventh Round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Lewis was equally as productive under Napier's tutelage, becoming first 3,000-yard passer in program history (3,050) and setting the single-season record for touchdown passes (26). His primary target was Ja'Marcus Bradley, who posted his second consecutive, 10-touchdown season after hauling in 60 passes for 906 yards before signing on with the Cleveland Browns.

Defensively, the team saw significant improvement in year two of Napier's reign, ranking 18th nationally in scoring defense (19.7) and 47th nationally in total defense (371.8), up from No. 97 in the nation in 2018.

In Napier's first season at the helm, the Ragin' Cajuns (7-7, 5-3), utilizing a powerful offensive and opportunistic defense, won the 2018 Sun Belt Conference West Division Championship to advance to the inaugural conference championship game. Louisiana booked its first bowl trip since 2016, heading to sunny Orlando, Florida, for the AutoNation Cure Bowl at Camping World Stadium. It marked the first-ever season that Louisiana played a 14-game schedule with two postseason opportunities earned by the Ragin' Cajuns.

Napier's program hallmarks – integrity, togetherness, discipline, effort and toughness – instilled a renewed sense of identity in the Ragin' Cajuns football program and that collectiveness helped Louisiana run off three consecutive wins to close the regular season. The streak of Sun Belt wins, first and secondly against Georgia State and South Alabama at home, followed by a regular season finale victory at ULM, secured the Ragin' Cajuns their West Division title, allowing Napier to deliver a trophy to Louisiana's fans in Year One.

Serving as offensive play-caller, Napier reengineered the Ragin' Cajuns quickly into a vaunted offensive attack. Louisiana ranked second in the Sun Belt in scoring offense (31.9 points per game), third in rushing offense (218.7 yards per game) and third in total offense (424.3 yards per game).

The Ragin' Cajuns were immediately able to pride themselves on precision and consistency, with the squad ranking 14th nationally in third-down conversion rate (49.6 percent) and 15th nationally in red zone touchdown scoring rate (72.9 percent). Ball security was not an issue, as the Napier-led offense lost three fumbles in the entire 14-game 2018 season, ranking tied for first in the nation with Michigan, Mississippi State and Northwestern.

Also serving as the program's quarterbacks coach, Napier offered his tutelage to senior quarterback Andre Nunez, who became just the third-ever Ragin' Cajun to throw for 20 touchdowns in a single season. Lewis and Nunez were effective passes all season long, ranking first and second in the Sun Belt Conference for passer rating, with Lewis leading the way at 185.2 and Nunez not far behind at 176.2.

Napier came to the Ragin' Cajuns from Arizona State where he served as Associate Head Coach, offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

As an assistant coach, Napier built a reputation around the coaching profession as one of the most talented recruiters in college football. He served as wide receivers coach at Alabama (2013-17), assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach at Colorado State (2012) and was offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Clemson (2009-10).

Napier was instrumental in two National Championships at Alabama in 2011 and 2015 and has now coached in 12 bowl games (11 as an assistant coach) after the 2018 Cure Bowl appearance.

Arizona State (2017)

In his first year with the program, Napier guided the Sun Devils' offense to the 14th highest-graded offense in the FBS according to Pro Football Focus - including the 10th highest-graded passing attack in the nation. ASU was graded 54th in the nation in total offense last season and 86th in the passing game on the year. The offensive turnaround (+40 positions) was the eighth-largest in the FBS and ASU was one of just three programs to move from outside the Top-50 to inside of it in just one season. The 76-spot swing in the passing game rankings was the third highest in all of the FBS (second among Power Five schools).

ASU developed one of the elite red zone scoring teams in the nation under Napier, tied for first nationally in converting on 95.83 percent of its red zone appearances (46-of-48) with the only two "blemishes" against the Sun Devils coming when the team took a knee late in the fourth quarter. ASU was 11th nationally in red zone touchdown scoring rate with 36 touchdowns on those 48 attempts (75.00).

Ball security was another notable facet of Napier's offense. The Sun Devils turned the ball over just 11 times in 2017, which ranks 12th nationally after finishing 82nd in the country a year ago with 21 turnovers. ASU is 17th nationally with just five fumbles lost in 2017, and none of those have been by a running back. ASU's six total interceptions this season are the 17th-fewest in the country with three of the six coming on tipped balls.

Alabama (2011, 2013-17)

Prior to Arizona State, Napier spent five seasons as the wide receivers coach at the University of Alabama. Napier served an integral role in achieving National Championships in 2011 and 2015 as part of the Alabama coaching staff and also coached in the 2016 National Championship game.

He was instrumental in helping Nick Saban and Alabama achieve a 63-7 record in five seasons (2011, 2013-2016) and was part of the great run of 26 consecutive wins from 2015-2016. In 70 games at Alabama, the Crimson Tide offense averaged 6.27 yards per play and 36.4 points per game.

In 2016, Napier's wide receiver corps were led by junior ArDarius Stewart and sophomore Calvin Ridley. Ridley led the way with 72 receptions while Stewart had a team high 864 yards. Ridley added 769 yards and seven scores while Stewart caught 54 passes with eight scores. Graduate transfer Gehrig Dieter caught 15 passes for 214 yards and four scores while Cam Sims also hauled in 14 receptions for 152 yards.

Napier had to replace Amari Cooper in 2015 after the Tide's career receptions leader was taken No. 4 overall in the NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. Stewart, senior transfer Richard Mullaney and Ridley emerged as the Tide's go-to receivers after Robert Foster was lost in the third game to injury. Ridley led the team with a freshman-record 89 catches for 1,045 yards and seven touchdowns. Stewart added 63 catches for 700 yards and four touchdowns, while Mullaney had 38 catches for 390 yards and five scores.

Napier's 2014 unit was led by Alabama's first Biletnikoff Award winner in Cooper, who caught a school- and SEC-record 124 passes for a UA-record 1,727 receiving yards and 16 touchdowns. Cooper led the country in receptions (124), was second nationally in receiving yards (1,727), receiving touchdowns (16) and catches per game (8.9) while ranking third in yards per game (123.4). A Heisman Trophy finalist and unanimous first team All-American, Cooper smashed all of the Tide's career receiving marks with 228 receptions, 3,463 yards and tied the SEC record with 31 receiving touchdowns. Senior DeAndrew White provided Alabama with a dangerous and reliable target opposite Cooper with 40 receptions for 504 yards and four scores.

In his first season as the Crimson Tide's receivers coach in 2013, Napier built a deep and talented group of wide outs. Alabama had four players with at least 32 receptions, led by Cooper's 45 catches for 736 yards. The wide receivers accounted for 72.1 percent of the passes caught in 2013 and 20 of the 30 passing touchdowns. Kevin Norwood produced a career year with seven touchdowns and 568 receiving yards on 38 grabs. Jones also caught 36 balls for 349 yards and White hauled in 32 catches for 534 yards and four scores.

Napier spent the 2011 season on the Alabama staff as an offensive analyst, helping the Crimson Tide win the 2011 BCS national championship. The Tide ranked 16th in scoring offense, 30th in total offense and 17th in rushing offense in 2011.

Colorado State (2012)

Prior to rejoining Alabama, Napier served as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at Colorado State in 2012 for former Tide offensive coordinator Jim McElwain.

Injuries forced Napier to go deep down the bench looking for quarterbacks during his one season in Fort Collins. The Rams saw three quarterbacks play significant snaps as the starter with Garrett Grayson going down early in the season and M.J. McPeck following two weeks later, forcing redshirt freshman Conner Smith into action. The trio combined to throw for 2,520 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2012 as Colorado State won three of its final five games.

Clemson (2003-04, 2006-10)

Prior to his first stretch at Alabama, Napier spent seven of the previous eight years in two different stints at Clemson. During Napier's final two seasons at Clemson he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. At the age of 29, he became the youngest coordinator in the nation and in Clemson history. In his first season as Clemson's coordinator, the 2009 Tigers scored a school-record 436 points and collected 54 touchdowns (third-most in school history), averaged 5.73 yards per play (fourth best) and finished as the ACC Atlantic Division champions. Quarterback Kyle Parker was named a Freshman All-American and nine players Napier coached from 2009-10 went on to have careers in the NFL.

Napier also served as Clemson's recruiting coordinator from 2006-08. In those three seasons, he compiled two top-25 recruiting classes, according to Rivals.com, and in 2008, his class was tabbed as the second-best in the nation by ESPN.com. Known to his peers as a top recruiter, Napier signed several players who went on to the NFL, including Kavell Conner, Crezdon Butler, Brandon Thompson and Marcus Gilchrist.

Napier was the 2007-08 tight ends coach at Clemson, helping lead the Tigers to two bowl games and a prolific offense. The 2007 season featured a 9-4 record and the ACC's highest-scoring offense. In his first year back with Clemson (2006), Napier worked primarily with the Tigers' tight ends but also was responsible for the punt team and assisted in several special-teams capacities. The 2006 Tigers led the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring offense, advancing to the Music City Bowl.

Clemson averaged 410.9 yards per game and 32.7 points, more than doubling its opponent's totals. Tight end Hunter Thomas started all 11 games for the Tigers, averaging 19.1 yards per reception. Michael Palmer, who Napier coached for three seasons, went on to the NFL. He also worked with the special teams units, helping develop one of the most talented players in Clemson history, C.J. Spiller.

Napier began his coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson in 2003-04. The Tigers won nine games, including the Peach Bowl against Tennessee. The following season, Napier was a graduate assistant on defense, and gained his first experience with recruiting off the field.

South Carolina State (2005)

In 2005, Napier spent one season as the quarterbacks coach and play caller at South Carolina State. The Bulldogs finished the year 9-2 and ranked among the nation's best in several offensive categories, including: rushing (12th), passing efficiency (15th) and scoring offense (17th). S.C. State also had the country's fourth-best turnover margin, committing only 11 turnovers, roughly one-third of the total from the previous season (32). Napier developed Cleve McCoy and molded him into the MEAC Player of the Year. He also recruited offensive tackle Johnny Culbreath, who became a unanimous All-America selection and was drafted by the Detroit Lions.

Background

As a player, Napier was a four-year letterwinner and two-time All-Southern Conference selection as the starting quarterback at Furman. The Paladins won two conference championships and in 2001, Napier's junior year, advanced to the Division I-AA national championship game, losing to Montana.

He completed 64.8-percent of his career passes, setting a school record. As the team captain during a record-setting senior season, Napier amassed 2,475 passing yards, also a Furman record, and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding FCS offensive player.

Napier grew up in Chatsworth, Georgia, and graduated from Murray County High School in 1998. He is married to the former Ali Gunn and the couple has a daughter, Annie, and sons, Sammy Nelson and Charlie. He earned his Bachelor's degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 2002.

LAFAYETTE – Leading by a touchdown late in the third quarter, junior linebacker Kris Moncrief intercepted a Lindsey Scott Jr. pass and took it the distance as Louisiana Football held on late to defeat Nicholls 27-24 in the 2021 home opener Saturday night at Cajun Field.

With the win, the Ragin' Cajuns improved to 28-22 all-time in home-opening contests, including a perfect 4-0 record in the Billy Napier era.

Louisiana's offense on the night was marked by aggressive down-field action through the air as quarterback Levi Lewis totaled 304 yards, just the third time in his career that the senior has thrown 300 or more yards.

Louisiana totaled 417 yards of total offense, complimenting the passing yardage with 113 yards on the ground.

Defensively, the Ragin' Cajuns recorded 69 tackles, five tackles-for-loss and three sacks. Safety Percy Butler paced Louisiana with 10 tackles, including two tackles in the backfield.

Sept. 16 • Cajun Field • Lafayette, La. • 7 p.m. CST

LAFAYETTE – Powered by a ruthless ground attack that accounted for 310 of Louisiana's 562 yards of total offense, the Ragin' Cajuns cruised past the Ohio Bobcats, 49-14, on Thursday night.

True freshman Montrell Johnson played a major role in the team's production, becoming the first Ragin' Cajun to rush for four touchdowns in a single game since Alonzo Harris and Elijah McGuire each had four scores against Arkansas State on Oct. 21, 2014. Johnson finished the night with 13 carries for 84 yards.

Fellow running backs Emani Bailey and Chris Smith were also strong on Saturday, with Bailey contributing a career-high 89 yards on 11 carries and Smith contributing 68 yards on 11 touches.

Senior quarterback Levi Lewis had another impressive outing, throwing for more than 200 yards for a third consecutive game after completing 21 of his 29 attempts for 212 yards and touchdown. Lewis has now thrown a touchdown pass in 21-straight games.

Five different receivers caught three passes in the game, with Kaleb Carter leading the way with a career-best 51 receiving yards. John Stephens, Jr., had a big night as well, adding 37 yards and hauling in two receiving scores from both Lewis and Chandler Fields.

Defensively, Louisiana held Ohio to just 14 points and only 104 yards on the ground. Lorenzo McCaskill led the charge with 11 tackles, the sixth double-digit tackle performance of the season. Sonny Hazard was credited with three tackles and recorded his first-career sack in the contest, while Bralen Trahan scooped up a fumble.

Sept. 25 • Allen E. Paulson • Statesboro, Ga. • 5 p.m. CST

LAFAYETTE – Two touchdown passes from quarterback Levi Lewis in the third quarter and timely stops on the defensive side of the ball proved to be the difference for Louisiana, which held off Georgia Southern for a 28-20 victory in Statesboro on Saturday night.

With the victory, the Ragin' Cajuns (3-1, 1-0 Sun Belt) improved to 3-1 in Sun Belt Conference openers under head coach Billy Napier, who also picked up his 20th league victory in the process.

Lewis finished the game 17-for-28 for 249 yards and three touchdowns, the sixth time in his career he has thrown for three or more touchdowns in a single game. Lewis accounted for 261 of Louisiana's 378 yards of total offense after adding 12 yards rushing in the game.

Three different receivers caught a touchdown in the game, with Dontae Fleming who led all pass catchers with four receptions for 70 yards and a 46-yard score. Michael Jefferson and Georgia-native Johnny Lumpkin each hauled in touchdown passes of 48 yards and 22 yards, respectively.

Louisiana's defense had another strong showing, holding Georgia Southern to 1-of-5 on fourth-down conversions, forcing two fumbles and picking off one pass.

Linebacker Ferrod Gardner led the way with 11 tackles, the fifth double-digit tackle performance of his career, and added 2.0 tackles-for-loss and a 0.5 sack. Fellow linebacker Lorenzo McCaskill was credited with seven tackles, 1.5 tackles-for-loss and a 0.5 sack as well.

Oct. 2 • Hancock Whitney Stadium • Mobile, Ala. • 7 p.m. CST

MOBILE, Ala. – After recording a critical stop in its own territory, Louisiana watched a go-ahead 37-yard field goal off the foot of South Alabama's kicker sail wide right to give the Ragin' Cajuns a thrilling 20-18 road victory over the Jaguars on a rainy Saturday night.

In addition to the late miss, the visiting Ragin' Cajuns (4-1, 2-0 Sun Belt) were aided by a blocked PAT by Kendall Wilkerson and another missed PAT from Jags' kicker.

With the dreary conditions playing a huge factor in the game, Louisiana turned to the run game and picked up 225 yards on the ground, the team's second-highest rushing output of the season.

Running back Emani Bailey led the charge with seven carries for 81 yards and a touchdown, his second of the season, while fellow back Chris Smith carried the ball nine times for 42 yards and a score.

Levi Lewis got it done on the ground as well, recording a team-high 10 carries for 61 yards and his first rushing score of the year. Lewis also completed nine passes for 49 yards.

Defensively, Chauncey Manac led the way with seven tackles, 2.0 tackles-for-loss, and 1.0 sack, with Zi'Yon Hill also adding 2.0 tackles-for-loss and a sack of his own. Ferrod Gardner matched Manac's tackle total with seven.

Oct. 12 • Cajun Field • Lafayette, La. • 6:30 p.m. CST

LAFAYETTE – Louisiana Football submitted a dominant performance that featured four turnovers and four rushing scores as it downed Sun Belt East rival App State, 41-13, on Tuesday night at Cajun Field.

The victory marked the Ragin' Cajuns' first victory over the Mountaineers on home turf and improved the program to 15-3 in games played at Cajun Field under head coach Billy Napier.

Quarterback Levi Lewis completed 15-of-29 passes, totaling 209 yards through the air and added a three-yard rushing score to open the game. The Ragin' Cajuns are 16-3 when the quarterback exceeds 200 yards passing.

A balanced offensive attack kept App State's defense on its heels for the majority of the contest, with nine different Ragin' Cajuns catching passes on the night led by Kyren Lacy, who hauled in two receptions for a team-high 57 yards and a score.

Louisiana's (5-1, 3-0 Sun Belt) multifaceted run attack recorded 246 yards and was aided by a 103-yard performance by Montrell Johnson and an 82-yard display by Chris Smith. Johnson is the first Ragin' Cajun to cross the triple-digit mark this season.

On the opposite side of the ball, Louisiana's defense forced a season-high four turnovers and limited App State to just 211 yards of total offense.

Oct. 21 • Centennial Bank Stadium • Jonesboro, Ark. • 6:30 p.m. CST

JONESBORO, Ark. – Behind a pair of dazzling rushing displays from running backs Chris Smith and Montrell Johnson, Louisiana totaled 424 yards on the ground and powered past Arkansas State, 28-27, on Thursday night.

With the victory, the Ragin' Cajuns clinched bowl eligibility for the fourth consecutive season under head coach Billy Napier.

Smith rushed for 238 yards against the Red Wolves, the fifth-most rushing yards in a single game in program history, and added two touchdowns, marking the second consecutive game he has rushed for two scores in the same game.

Johnson was equally effective, carrying the ball 17 times for 150 yards and two touchdowns, one of which went for 99 yards. The 99-yard score was the longest in program history and Sun Belt Conference history, while matching an NCAA record.

Louisiana's 424 rushing yards marked the third time in the Napier era that the team has rushed for more than 400 yards in a single game. The Ragin' Cajuns racked up 546 total yards in the game, improving the program to 16-1 under Napier when producing more than 500 yards of offense.
