LOUISIANA OPENS SUN BELT PLAY AT GEORGIA SOUTHERN

Coming off a dominant 49-14 home victory over Ohio, Louisiana opens its Sun Belt Conference campaign on the road for the third-straight season when the Ragin' Cajuns take on the Georgia Southern Eagles in Statesboro. This is the second time in the Billy Napier era that the Ragin' Cajuns will open league play in Statesboro, the first coming on Sept. 28, 2019, when Louisiana defeated Georgia Southern, 37-24.

A LOOK AT THE RAGIN' CAJUNS

- Louisiana owns a 19-7 record against Sun Belt opposition under Coach Napier, including a perfect 12-0 mark against Sun Belt West opposition.
- Louisiana has won four-straight road games against Sun Belt teams and is 11-1 in regular-season road games over the last three seasons.
- The Ragin' Cajuns are 30-5 under Coach Napier when scoring more than 20 points.
- Louisiana has eight "super seniors" on the roster this year in quarterback Levi Lewis, linebacker Ferrod Gardner, offensive lineman Ken Marks, wide receiver Jalen Williams, linebacker Chauncey Manac, nose tackle Tayland Humphrey, safety Cameron Solomon and kicker Nate Snyder. Of the eight, Ken Marks and Ferrod Gardner are in their seventh season of eligibility.
- Levi Lewis needs seven passing touchdowns to set the program record for career passing scores. The current record of 64 is held by Ragin' Cajun legend Jake Delhomme.
- Lewis has thrown for at least 200 yards in every game this season and is now 11-3 in his career when eclipsing the 200-yard marking through the air.
- Four of Louisiana's offensive linemen have started in at least 27 games over the last two years. Ken Marks leads the way with 30 starts, while Shane Vallot has started in 28 games and Max Mitchell and O'Cyrus Torrence have each started in 27.
- Louisiana's defense held Ohio to just 14 points on Sept. 16. The team is now 8-0 over the last four seasons when holding opponents to 14 or fewer points in a game.

PLEASE CALL US "LOUISIANA"

Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns® is the nickname of the University's athletic teams. Teams also may be referred to using shorter versions of that nickname. In most cases, Ragin' Cajuns plural is proper, though Ragin' Cajun in the singular form can apply. UL Lafayette may be used as an abbreviation to refer to the academic institution when clarification is necessary.

- Do not refer to the University as ULL in any instance.
- Do not use the terms Lafayette or U of L, as they denote other institutions.

TEAM NOTES

- In Billy Napier's first three seasons, the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns have won three Sun Belt Conference West Division titles, were the 2020 Sun Belt Co-Champions and have won two bowl games (LendingTree Bowl (2020) and SERVPRO First Responder Bowl (2021)).
- The Ragin' Cajuns are 8-4 overall and 5-0 at home in non-conference games under Coach Napier.
- The team is 4-0 in home openers at Cajun Field under Coach Napier and is 28-22 in home openers in program history.
- Louisiana is 30-5 when scoring 20 or more points in the Napier era.
- The 49 points scored against Ohio marked the 12th time that Louisiana has produced more than 40 points in a single game under Napier. The team is 12-0 in those games.
- Louisiana produced 562 yards of total offense against Ohio, the 16th time the Cajuns have recorded 500+ yards in the Napier era. The team owns a 15-1 record in those contests.
- Louisiana's defense held Ohio to just 14 points on Sept. 16, improving the Ragin' Cajuns to 8-0 over the last four seasons when an opponent scores 14 or fewer points.
- The Ragin' Cajuns' passing game has been electric to start the season, averaging 293.0 yards through the air. That mark is good for 29th nationally.
- Louisiana has done a good job limiting penalties so far this season, ranking 14th in the nation and third in the Sun Belt with only eight flags thrown against.
- Louisiana has eight "super seniors" on the roster this year in quarterback Levi Lewis, linebacker Ferrod Gardner, offensive lineman Ken Marks, wide receiver Jalen Williams, linebacker Chauncey Manac, nose tackle Tayland Humphrey, safety Cameron Solomon and kicker Nate Snyder. Of the eight, Ken Marks and Ferrod Gardner are entering their seventh season of eligibility.
- The Ragin' Cajuns boasted a 6-1 record in one-score games last season.
- Per ESPN's Bill Connelly, Louisiana returns 96 percent of its production entering the 2021 season. The team has 93 percent of its offense returning and 98 percent of the defense coming back.
- Louisiana placed nine on the Sun Belt's All-Conference teams after having 14 All-Conference selections at the end of the 2020 campaign.

- Former Ragin' Cajun running back Elijah Mitchell was drafted in the 2021 NFL Draft back in April after he was selected with the 194th pick in the Sixth Round by the San Francisco 49ers.
- Mitchell was the fourth player drafted during the Napier era.
- Louisiana's play-by-play announcer Jay Walker is entering his 30th year covering the Ragin' Cajuns.

QUARTERBACK NOTES

QB Levi Lewis

- Levi Lewis is 24-7 as the starting quarterback of the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns.
- The senior currently leads the Sun Belt and ranks 30th nationally in total passing yards (798), while leading the league and checking in at 29th in the nation with his 266.0 passing yards per game. Additionally, he ranks 21st nationally and leads the league in completions per game (22.7).
- Was efficient against Ohio, throwing for more than 200 yards for a third consecutive game after completing 21 of his 29 attempts for 212 yards and touchdown.
- The quarterback has now thrown a touchdown pass in 21-straight games.
- Lewis has thrown for at least 200 yards in every game this season and is now 11-3 in his career when eclipsing the 200-yard marking through the air.
- Lewis had a strong showing against Nicholls (Sept. 11), going 19-for-33 for 304 yards and throwing two touchdown passes.
- Lewis' 304 passing yards were the third-most of his career and marked the third time he eclipsed the 300-yard passing threshold. It was also the 37th 300-yard passing performance in program history.
- Louisiana is now 17-1 when Lewis throws two or more touchdowns in a game.
- Lewis went 28-for-40 for 282 yards and a touchdown in the team's Week 1 loss at No. 21/19 Texas.
- His 282 passing yards were the fifth most in his career and the most in a season opener by a Ragin' Cajun since Chris Masson threw for 283 yards against Southern on Sept. 5, 2009.
- The yardage total also marked the most by a Ragin' Cajun against a Power 5 opponent since Blaine Gautier threw 236 yards against Oklahoma State on Sept. 15, 2012.

- Lewis is second in program history for career passing touchdown and third in career passing yards.

QB Chandler Fields

- Saw the first significant action of his career against Ohio (Sept. 16), going 4-for-5 for 40 yards and a touchdown pass.
- The 13-yard touchdown pass to John Stephens, Jr., was the first passing score of Fields' career.
- Took one snap in the season opener against No. 21/19 Texas.
- Made two appearances during the 2020 season, attempting six passes in those contests.
- Enters the season having appeared in five career games, going 3-for-9 for 16 yards through the air.

QB Ben Wooldridge

- Transferred to Louisiana from Fresno State.
- Appeared in five games for Fresno State, going 8-for-16 for 117 yards as a sophomore in 2020.
- Played in three games in 2019 for the Bulldogs, going 4-for-6 and throwing a 17-yard touchdown pass.

QB Lance LeGendre

- A four-star recruit who transferred in from Maryland, LeGendre enters his first season with the Ragin' Cajuns program.
- Appeared in six games for Maryland over the last two seasons, earning one start.
- In 2020, he completed 11 of his 14 pass attempts for 91 yards.
- Saw action in three games as a true freshman in 2019, went 1-for-3 for seven yards through the air while rushing for 104 yards on 13 carries.
- Appeared on Season 3 of the Netflix show, "QB1: Beyond the Lights".

QB Hunter Herring

- Tabbed as the No. 50 overall player in the state and the No. 47 dual quarterback in the country by 247Sports.com.
- Threw for 2,769 yards with 34 touchdowns during his career at Ouachita Christian High School.
- Also ran for 2,181 yards and 48 scores, highlighted by back-to-back 20+ rushing touchdown seasons to end high school career.

RUNNING BACK NOTES

RB Chris Smith

- Leads all Louisiana running backs with 32 carries for 168 yards through three games.
- Scored his first touchdown of the season against Ohio (Sept. 16) and recorded 68 yards on 10 carries.
- Carried the ball 11 times for 46 yards against Nicholls (Sept. 11).
- Opened his 2021 campaign with 54 yards on 11 carries and a touchdown at Texas (Sept. 4).
- The 54 yards were the fourth-most in his career, while the 11 carries mark a new career-high.
- One of only two running backs on the current squad who scored a rushing touchdown last season.
- Joins Baylor's Tristan Ebner as the only two running backs in the country who produced two kickoff return touchdowns and at least one rushing touchdown last season.

RB Emani Bailey

- Ranks second on the team with 130 rushing yards on 22 attempts.
- Had a big day against Ohio (Sept. 16), producing a career-high 89 yards rushing on 11 carries.
- Notched five carries for 27 yards against Nicholls (Sept. 11).

BY THE NUMBERS

Montrell Johnson, Jr., scored four rushing touchdowns against Ohio, the first Ragin' Cajun to do so in a game since the 2014 season.

Levi Lewis needs seven more touchdowns to set the program record for passing touchdowns in a career, surpassing Jake Delhomme.

30

Seventh-year senior Ken Marks has started in 30 games in his Louisiana career.

282.2

Levi Lewis is accounting for 282.3 yards per game this season, the best in the Sun Belt and 29th-best nationally

304

Levi Lewis threw for 304 yards against Nicholls, the 37th 300-yard passing performance in team history.

- Toted the ball six times for 14 yards at Texas (Sept. 4).
- Appeared in five games as a true freshman, carrying the ball 10 times for 60 yards in 2020.
- Took the majority of the No. 2 reps at running back.
- Was rated as the 61st-best running back in the country out of high school by 247Sports.com.

RB Montrell Johnson

- Had a monster game in Louisiana's dominant win over Ohio (Sept. 16), carrying the ball 13 times for 84 yards and scoring four touchdowns.
- Johnson was the first Ragin' Cajun to rush for four touchdowns in a single game since Alonzo Harris and Elijah McGuire each had four scores against Arkansas State on Oct. 21, 2014.
- Became the first true freshman in program history to accomplish the feat.
- One of six players in the nation and the only Sun Belt performer with four rushing scores in a single game this season.
- His 13 carries and 84 yards were also career highs.
- Recorded nine rushing attempts for 19 yards against Nicholls (Sept. 11)
- Saw his first career action at Texas (Sept. 4), carrying the ball six times for 27 yards.
- A highly-regarded recruit out of high school, Johnson will compete for playing time in 2021.
- Rated as the 48th-best running back in the country according to 247Sports.com.

RB TJ Wisham

- Played in four of the first five games of the 2020 season before missing the remainder of the year due to injury.
- A key special teams player, picking up a tackle against Georgia Southern.

RB Michael Orphey Jr.

- Appeared in four games in 2020 for the Ragin' Cajuns, carrying the ball four times for 61 yards and a touchdown.

2021 LOUISIANA FOOTBALL CAJUN FIELD RECORDS

Cajun Field has served as the home of Ragin' Cajuns football since September 1971. Louisiana holds a 145-113-2 all-time record on its home field with winning records in 34 of the 50 seasons.

The Cajuns set the school single-season records for total attendance (145,854) and average attendance (29,171) in 2011. Included in those totals were five of the top 15 crowds all-time, including a Sun Belt Conference record 32,823 vs. North Texas on Oct. 15, 2011. Louisiana was the Sun Belt attendance champion in 2004, 2008, 2011, 2013 and 2014.

Cajun Field hosted the 1,000th Cajuns game in school history on Nov. 1, 2008 before a then-Sun Belt record crowd of 29,031.

Louisiana has enjoyed plenty of memorable moments since the venue opened in 1971. The greatest of those moments came during the 1996 season when the Ragin' Cajuns opened their 26th season in the facility with the biggest upset in school history, a 29-22 victory over No. 25 Texas A&M in front of a then-record crowd of 38,783 fans. That mark surpassed the previous record crowd of 36,133 that saw the Cajuns face the Alabama Crimson Tide on Oct. 6, 1990.

On Nov. 30, 2019, Louisiana earned a thrilling 31-30 victory over in-state rival ULM to eclipse the double-digit win mark for the first time ever with its 10th victory, while also setting the school record for the most SBC wins with seven.

Cajun Field has been the site of much success with four consecutive 4-1 records from 1993-96. The school record for wins at Cajun Field in a season is seven, set during the 1976 season, one of three undefeated seasons (1976, 1980 and 1987) at Cajun Field.

Cajun Field boasts 2,577 chairback seats and additional seating to the capacity of another 38,849 giving the facility a total seating capacity of 41,426. In 2014, the south endzone was closed in to create more seating, adding 5,000 seats to the stadium capacity. In the summer of 2008, Cajun Field removed its long-standing natural grass and entered a new era with a synthetic playing surface.

For the first 17 years, Louisiana's football stadium was simply known as Cajun Field. In the summer of 1988, then-Strength & Conditioning Coach Mickey Faulkinberry suggested referring to Cajun Field as "The Swamp". The name stuck for various reasons. To start, the field surface is set two feet below sea level in a natural bowl.

In addition to providing a picturesque surrounding, the sunken facility allows most fans to walk down to their stadium seats. The Cajuns and their opponents must enter Cajun Field through a long tunnel from the Cox Communications Athletic Center.

BILLY NAPIER

HEAD COACH
4th SEASON

Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns Director of Athletics Dr. Bryan Maggard welcomed Billy Napier as the 27th Head Coach in Louisiana Football history on Dec. 15, 2017, and the results from the previous three seasons for the Ragin' Cajuns have been a clear indicator of how far the program has come under Napier.

Under Napier's leadership, Louisiana was able to navigate a season heavily impacted by COVID-19 and claim a Sun Belt Conference Co-Championship, its third-straight Sun Belt West Division title and its second-straight bowl victory, a 31-24 win over UTSA in the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl.

Napier's team broke into the national rankings for the first time in the modern era following its Week 1 upset of No. 23 Iowa State and finished the campaign ranked No. 15 in the AP Top 25, No. 16 in the USA Today/Amway Coaches Poll and No. 19 in the College Football Playoff, the team's highest rankings in all three polls.

Both the offense and defense continued to flourish in 2020 under Napier's watch. Offensively, the team ranked 29th nationally in scoring offense (33.6) and 43rd nationally in total offense (421.5), while the defense ranked 31st in scoring defense (22.0) and 33rd in total defense (355.4).

Louisiana boasted 14 selections on the Sun Belt All-Conference teams, led by First Team selections Elijah Mitchell and Chris Smith. Mitchell wrapped up his stellar career ranking fifth in career scoring (276), fifth in career rushing touchdowns (41) and sixth in career rushing yards (3,267) before being drafted with the 194th overall pick in the Sixth Round by the San Francisco 49ers.

Smith earned First Team All-America honors from CBSSports/247Sports and Pro Football Focus and Second Team All-America honors from the FWAA, marking the second consecutive season that a Ragin' Cajun earned All-America honors under Napier.

Quarterback Levi Lewis continued to thrive in Napier's system, throwing for 2,274 yards and 19 touchdowns in 2020. Entering his final season, Lewis ranks second in career passing touchdowns (54), third in career passing yards (6,286) and fourth in career completions (485).

Louisiana reached unprecedented heights during the 2019 season after securing a record-breaking 11-3 overall record and a second-straight trip to the Sun Belt Championship Game after clinching the league's West Division title with a resounding 53-3 victory over Troy on Nov. 23.

The team broke numerous school records on top of their win total, including the most points in a season (531) and the most total offense in a single season (6,918), while ranking in the top-20 nationally in total offense (494.1), rushing offense (257.4), scoring offense (37.9) and scoring defense (19.7). As a result of his program's success, Napier was voted the program's first Sun Belt Coach of the Year, becoming the third Louisiana coach to earn the distinction of top coach and the first since 1993 when Nelson Stokley was named the Big West Conference's top coach.

Powering the way for Louisiana's dynamic offense were three 2020 NFL Draft picks in Robert Hunt, Kevin Dotson and Raymond Calais. Hunt became the third-highest draft pick in team history when he was selected 39th overall by the Miami Dolphins, while Dotson, who was named a First Team All-American by the Associated Press, USA Today, Sports Illustrated and Pro Football Focus and a Second Team All-American by Sporting News, was taken by the Pittsburgh Steelers with the 135th pick. Calais was drafted in the Seventh Round by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Lewis was equally as productive under Napier's tutelage, becoming first 3,000-yard passer in program history (3,050) and setting the single-season record for touchdown passes (26). His primary target was Ja'Marcus Bradley, who posted his second consecutive, 10-touchdown season after hauling in 60 passes for 906 yards before signing on with the Cleveland Browns.

Defensively, the team saw significant improvement in year two of Napier's reign, ranking 18th nationally in scoring defense (19.7) and 47th nationally in total defense (371.8), up from No. 97 in the nation in 2018.

In Napier's first season at the helm, the Ragin' Cajuns (7-7, 5-3), utilizing a powerful offensive and opportunistic defense, won the 2018 Sun Belt Conference West Division Championship to advance to the inaugural conference championship game. Louisiana booked its first bowl trip since 2016, heading to sunny Orlando, Florida, for the AutoNation Cure Bowl at Camping World Stadium. It marked the first-ever season that Louisiana played a 14-game schedule with two postseason opportunities earned by the Ragin' Cajuns.

Napier's program hallmarks – integrity, togetherness, discipline, effort and toughness – instilled a renewed sense of identity in the Ragin' Cajuns football program and that collectiveness helped Louisiana run off three consecutive wins to close the regular season. The streak of Sun Belt wins, first and secondly against Georgia State and South Alabama at home, followed by a regular season finale victory at ULM, secured the Ragin' Cajuns their West Division title, allowing Napier to deliver a trophy to Louisiana's fans in Year One.

Serving as offensive play-caller, Napier reengineered the Ragin' Cajuns quickly into a vaunted offensive attack. Louisiana ranked second in the Sun Belt in scoring offense (31.9 points per game), third in rushing offense (218.7 yards per game) and third in total offense (424.3 yards per game).

The Ragin' Cajuns were immediately able to pride themselves on precision and consistency, with the squad ranking 14th nationally in third-down conversion rate (49.6 percent) and 15th nationally in red zone touchdown scoring rate (72.9 percent). Ball security was not an issue, as the Napier-led offense lost three fumbles in the entire 14-game 2018 season, ranking tied for first in the nation with Michigan, Mississippi State and Northwestern.

Also serving as the program's quarterbacks coach, Napier offered his tutelage to senior quarterback Andre Nunez, who became just the third-ever Ragin' Cajun to throw for 20 touchdowns in a single season. Lewis and Nunez were effective passes all season long, ranking first and second in the Sun Belt Conference for passer rating, with Lewis leading the way at 185.2 and Nunez not far behind at 176.2.

Napier came to the Ragin' Cajuns from Arizona State where he served as Associate Head Coach, offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

As an assistant coach, Napier built a reputation around the coaching profession as one of the most talented recruiters in college football. He served as wide receivers coach at Alabama (2013-17), assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach at Colorado State (2012) and was offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Clemson (2009-10).

Napier was instrumental in two National Championships at Alabama in 2011 and 2015 and has now coached in 12 bowl games (11 as an assistant coach) after the 2018 Cure Bowl appearance.

Arizona State (2017)

In his first year with the program, Napier guided the Sun Devils' offense to the 14th highest-graded offense in the FBS according to Pro Football Focus - including the 10th highest-graded passing attack in the nation. ASU was graded 54th in the nation in total offense last season and 86th in the passing game on the year. The offensive turnaround (+40 positions) was the eighth-largest in the FBS and ASU was one of just three programs to move from outside the Top-50 to inside of it in just one season. The 76-spot swing in the passing game rankings was the third highest in all of the FBS (second among Power Five schools).

ASU developed one of the elite red zone scoring teams in the nation under Napier, tied for first nationally in converting on 95.83 percent of its red zone appearances (46-of-48) with the only two "blemishes" against the Sun Devils coming when the team took a knee late in the fourth quarter. ASU was 11th nationally in red zone touchdown scoring rate with 36 touchdowns on those 48 attempts (75.00).

Ball security was another notable facet of Napier's offense. The Sun Devils turned the ball over just 11 times in 2017, which ranks 12th nationally after finishing 82nd in the country a year ago with 21 turnovers. ASU is 17th nationally with just five fumbles lost in 2017, and none of those have been by a running back. ASU's six total interceptions this season are the 17th-fewest in the country with three of the six coming on tipped balls.

Alabama (2011, 2013-17)

Prior to Arizona State, Napier spent five seasons as the wide receivers coach at the University of Alabama. Napier served an integral role in achieving National Championships in 2011 and 2015 as part of the Alabama coaching staff and also coached in the 2016 National Championship game.

He was instrumental in helping Nick Saban and Alabama achieve a 63-7 record in five seasons (2011, 2013-2016) and was part of the great run of 26 consecutive wins from 2015-2016. In 70 games at Alabama, the Crimson Tide offense averaged 6.27 yards per play and 36.4 points per game.

In 2016, Napier's wide receiver corps were led by junior ArDarius Stewart and sophomore Calvin Ridley. Ridley led the way with 72 receptions while Stewart had a team high 864 yards. Ridley added 769 yards and seven scores while Stewart caught 54 passes with eight scores. Graduate transfer Gehrig Dieter caught 15 passes for 214 yards and four scores while Cam Sims also hauled in 14 receptions for 152 yards.

Napier had to replace Amari Cooper in 2015 after the Tide's career receptions leader was taken No. 4 overall in the NFL Draft by the Oakland Raiders. Stewart, senior transfer Richard Mullaney and Ridley emerged as the Tide's go-to receivers after Robert Foster was lost in the third game to injury. Ridley led the team with a freshman-record 89 catches for 1,045 yards and seven touchdowns. Stewart added 63 catches for 700 yards and four touchdowns, while Mullaney had 38 catches for 390 yards and five scores.

Napier's 2014 unit was led by Alabama's first Biletnikoff Award winner in Cooper, who caught a school- and SEC-record 124 passes for a UA-record 1,727 receiving yards and 16 touchdowns. Cooper led the country in receptions (124), was second nationally in receiving yards (1,727), receiving touchdowns (16) and catches per game (8.9) while ranking third in yards per game (123.4). A Heisman Trophy finalist and unanimous first team All-American, Cooper smashed all of the Tide's career receiving marks with 228 receptions, 3,463 yards and tied the SEC record with 31 receiving touchdowns. Senior DeAndrew White provided Alabama with a dangerous and reliable target opposite Cooper with 40 receptions for 504 yards and four scores.

In his first season as the Crimson Tide's receivers coach in 2013, Napier built a deep and talented group of wide outs. Alabama had four players with at least 32 receptions, led by Cooper's 45 catches for 736 yards. The wide receivers accounted for 72.1 percent of the passes caught in 2013 and 20 of the 30 passing touchdowns. Kevin Norwood produced a career year with seven touchdowns and 568 receiving yards on 38 grabs. Jones also caught 36 balls for 349 yards and White hauled in 32 catches for 534 yards and four scores.

Napier spent the 2011 season on the Alabama staff as an offensive analyst, helping the Crimson Tide win the 2011 BCS national championship. The Tide ranked 16th in scoring offense, 30th in total offense and 17th in rushing offense in 2011.

Colorado State (2012)

Prior to rejoining Alabama, Napier served as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach at Colorado State in 2012 for former Tide offensive coordinator Jim McElwain.

Injuries forced Napier to go deep down the bench looking for quarterbacks during his one season in Fort Collins. The Rams saw three quarterbacks play significant snaps as the starter with Garrett Grayson going down early in the season and M.J. McPeck following two weeks later, forcing redshirt freshman Conner Smith into action. The trio combined to throw for 2,520 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2012 as Colorado State won three of its final five games.

Clemson (2003-04, 2006-10)

Prior to his first stretch at Alabama, Napier spent seven of the previous eight years in two different stints at Clemson. During Napier's final two seasons at Clemson he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. At the age of 29, he became the youngest coordinator in the nation and in Clemson history. In his first season as Clemson's coordinator, the 2009 Tigers scored a school-record 436 points and collected 54 touchdowns (third-most in school history), averaged 5.73 yards per play (fourth best) and finished as the ACC Atlantic Division champions. Quarterback Kyle Parker was named a Freshman All-American and nine players Napier coached from 2009-10 went on to have careers in the NFL.

Napier also served as Clemson's recruiting coordinator from 2006-08. In those three seasons, he compiled two top-25 recruiting classes, according to Rivals.com, and in 2008, his class was tabbed as the second-best in the nation by ESPN.com. Known to his peers as a top recruiter, Napier signed several players who went on to the NFL, including Kavell Conner, Crezdon Butler, Brandon Thompson and Marcus Gilchrist.

Napier was the 2007-08 tight ends coach at Clemson, helping lead the Tigers to two bowl games and a prolific offense. The 2007 season featured a 9-4 record and the ACC's highest-scoring offense. In his first year back with Clemson (2006), Napier worked primarily with the Tigers' tight ends but also was responsible for the punt team and assisted in several special-teams capacities. The 2006 Tigers led the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring offense, advancing to the Music City Bowl.

Clemson averaged 410.9 yards per game and 32.7 points, more than doubling its opponent's totals. Tight end Hunter Thomas started all 11 games for the Tigers, averaging 19.1 yards per reception. Michael Palmer, who Napier coached for three seasons, went on to the NFL. He also worked with the special teams units, helping develop one of the most talented players in Clemson history, C.J. Spiller.

Napier began his coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant at Clemson in 2003-04. The Tigers won nine games, including the Peach Bowl against Tennessee. The following season, Napier was a graduate assistant on defense, and gained his first experience with recruiting off the field.

South Carolina State (2005)

In 2005, Napier spent one season as the quarterbacks coach and play caller at South Carolina State. The Bulldogs finished the year 9-2 and ranked among the nation's best in several offensive categories, including: rushing (12th), passing efficiency (15th) and scoring offense (17th). S.C. State also had the country's fourth-best turnover margin, committing only 11 turnovers, roughly one-third of the total from the previous season (32). Napier developed Cleve McCoy and molded him into the MEAC Player of the Year. He also recruited offensive tackle Johnny Culbreath, who became a unanimous All-America selection and was drafted by the Detroit Lions.

Background

As a player, Napier was a four-year letterwinner and two-time All-Southern Conference selection as the starting quarterback at Furman. The Paladins won two conference championships and in 2001, Napier's junior year, advanced to the Division I-AA national championship game, losing to Montana.

He completed 64.8-percent of his career passes, setting a school record. As the team captain during a record-setting senior season, Napier amassed 2,475 passing yards, also a Furman record, and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's most outstanding FCS offensive player.

Napier grew up in Chatsworth, Georgia, and graduated from Murray County High School in 1998. He is married to the former Ali Gunn and the couple has a daughter, Annie, and sons, Sammy Nelson and Charlie. He earned his Bachelor's degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 2002.

LAFAYETTE – Leading by a touchdown late in the third quarter, junior linebacker Kris Moncrief intercepted a Lindsey Scott Jr. pass and took it the distance as Louisiana Football held on late to defeat Nicholls 27-24 in the 2021 home opener Saturday night at Cajun Field.

With the win, the Ragin' Cajuns improved to 28-22 all-time in home-opening contests, including a perfect 4-0 record in the Billy Napier era.

Louisiana's offense on the night was marked by aggressive down-field action through the air as quarterback Levi Lewis totaled 304 yards, just the third time in his career that the senior has thrown 300 or more yards.

Louisiana totaled 417 yards of total offense, complimenting the passing yardage with 113 yards on the ground.

Defensively, the Ragin' Cajuns recorded 69 tackles, five tackles-for-loss and three sacks. Safety Percy Butler paced Louisiana with 10 tackles, including two tackles in the backfield.

Sept. 16 • Cajun Field • Lafayette, La. • 7 p.m. CST

LAFAYETTE – Powered by a ruthless ground attack that accounted for 310 of Louisiana's 562 yards of total offense, the Ragin' Cajuns cruised past the Ohio Bobcats, 49-14, on Thursday night.

True freshman Montrell Johnson played a major role in the team's production, becoming the first Ragin' Cajun to rush for four touchdowns in a single game since Alonzo Harris and Elijah McGuire each had four scores against Arkansas State on Oct. 21, 2014. Johnson finished the night with 13 carries for 84 yards.

Fellow running backs Emani Bailey and Chris Smith were also strong on Saturday, with Bailey contributing a career-high 89 yards on 11 carries and Smith contributing 68 yards on 11 touches.

Senior quarterback Levi Lewis had another impressive outing, throwing for more than 200 yards for a third consecutive game after completing 21 of his 29 attempts for 212 yards and touchdown. Lewis has now thrown a touchdown pass in 21-straight games.

Five different receivers caught three passes in the game, with Kaleb Carter leading the way with a career-best 51 receiving yards. John Stephens, Jr., had a big night as well, adding 37 yards and hauling in two receiving scores from both Lewis and Chandler Fields.

Defensively, Louisiana held Ohio to just 14 points and only 104 yards on the ground. Lorenzo McCaskill led the charge with 11 tackles, the sixth double-digit tackle performance of his career. Sonny Hazard was credited with three tackles and recorded his first-career sack in the contest, while Bralen Trahan scooped up a fumble.
