2026 FOOTBALL TEAM NOTES

"SHOW ME MY OPPONENT"

► Charlotte made the trip to Boone last weekend for a matchup at Appalachian State. Following a three-and-a-half-hour weather delay, the game finally kicked off under the lights, with the Mountaineers earning a 26-21 victory in the early hours of Sunday morning.
► Both of Charlotte's offensive touchdowns came on 1-yard touchdown runs by former Mountaineer Khamani Alexander, while Collin Gill added the Niners' final points with a 36-yard interception return for a touchdown.
► Quarterback Cole Gonzales entered the 2026 season with 6,800 career passing yards and has increased that total to 7,461 yards through the opening weeks of the season. His career total ranks 18th among all NCAA quarterbacks and 15th among Division I quarterbacks (FBS/FCS).
► Gonzales' three touchdown passes against The Citadel increased his career total to 55, which ranks tied for 31st among all NCAA quarterbacks and tied for 20th among Division I quarterbacks.
► Linebacker Gavin Willis has recorded 271 career tackles, tying him for 24th among all NCAA players and ranking 16th among Division I players.
► Henry Rutledge has accumulated 1,245 career kickoff return yards, ranking fourth among all active FBS players.

CUE UP THE OLYMPIC ANTHEM

► Louisiana's 2026 road schedule features an opening game at USC on Sept. 12 before the eventual road finale on Nov. 28 at Georgia State.
► What's so noteworthy about that?
► The games will be played at the last two U.S. venues to host the opening games of the Summer Olympics - Los Angeles (1984) and Atlanta (1996)
► With the two games, Louisiana will become the first NCAA football team to play in two Olympic stadiums in the same season and joins fellow SBC member Georgia Southern in playing in both venues.

FOUR CAJUNS NAB PRESEASON HONORS

► Four Louisiana players, including first-team selections Shelton Sampson Jr. (WR) and cornerback Brent Gordon Jr., were named to the Preseason All-Sun Belt Conference team that was released on Monday.
► Named to the second team were offensive linemen Kaden Moreau and defensive tackle Fitzgerald West Jr.

CAJUNS BORN IN "THE BOOT"

► Louisiana has always prided itself on taking an "inside-out" approach when it comes to recruiting in-state products.
► When the 2026 season officially kicks off against Lamar, the Ragin' Cajuns will have 68 of their 108 players (.630 percent) currently on the roster hail from the Bayou State.
► In 2025, Louisiana led all in-state FBS programs in the total number (59) and percentage (55.1) of in-state players on the roster.

THE UL-LATECH RIVALRY RESUMES IN 2026

► With Texas State officially moved on to the refurbished Pac-12 Conference, Louisiana will renew an in-state rivalry as Louisiana Tech officially joined the Sun Belt Conference on July 1
► The schools will meet for the 86th time on October 10 in Ruston - the first conference meeting on the gridiron since competing in the Big West Conference in 1995.

"TITO" GIVES BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

► Tito Chikere has only been on campus a short time, but the senior is already making an impact beyond the field and giving back to the Acadiana community.
► Ahead of the school year, Chikere donated school-supply boxes to students at Ossun Elementary School and Paul Breaux Middle School. He purchased the supplies with his own money as a way to show his appreciation for the community that has welcomed him to Lafayette.

THE MOST UNIQUE NICKNAME IN COLLEGIATE ATHLETICS

► Referred to as the Ragin' Cajuns, the University of Louisiana has perhaps the most unique and fitting nickname in all of collegiate athletics.
► In 1921, the University adopted the nickname and mascot Bulldogs.
► Beginning in 1963, Louisiana's (then Southwestern Louisiana) football team were dubbed the "Raging Cajuns" by then-Sports Information Director Bob Henderson and head football coach Russ Faulkinberry. In addition, the team switched from gold helmets to white helmets with an Acadian flag. At the time, more than 90 percent of Faulkinberry's teams were composed of Louisiana high school players, many with French-speaking Acadian backgrounds.
► The nickname stuck, and in 1967 the second 'g' was dropped to make Ragin'.
► In the early 70's other sports teams began to adopt the Ragin' Cajuns nickname.
► The University's full switch to Ragin' Cajuns was part of "Operation Turnaround" during the 1974-75 school year.
► In fact, the Ragin' Cajuns were voted as the best collegiate team nickname by Sporting News in 1998 and by an ESPN SportsNation survey in 2006.

ON THIS DAY (SEPTEMBER 26)

► Louisiana plays for the 12th time in program history on September 26 and has posted a 5-6 record overall.
► The Cajuns' last game on 9/26 was a 20-18 win over Georgia Southern on Nate Snyder's 53-yard field goal at the buzzer.

SUN BELT TO PROVIDE AVAILABILITY REPORTING FOR CONFERENCE GAMES

► Beginning with the 2025 season, the Sun Belt Conference began publishing availability reports for all conference football games and will adopt a review process for feigning injuries.

► These policies are intended to promote and preserve the integrity of competition, with availability reports also protecting student-athletes and institutional staff from outside entities seeking to obtain inside information about availability.

► Prior to each conference game, Sun Belt football programs will disclose to the public—via a standardized availability report—when a student-athlete's ability to participate in an upcoming game is uncertain for any reason.

► An initial availability report will be published three days prior to each conference game (e.g. Wednesday before a Saturday game), with a gameday update to be provided by 10:30 a.m. ET/9:30 a.m. CT on gameday.

► Student-athletes must be designated as available, probable, questionable, doubtful or out on the initial availability report. Student-athletes must be designated as available, game time decision or out on the gameday update.

► All availability reports will be publicly available on SunBeltSports.org.

► Louisiana Athletics unveiled the transformational renovations on the west side of Our Lady of Lourdes Stadium prior to the 2025 season. The $65 million project is the most significant upgrade to the facility since it opened in 1971. The improvements are highlighted by new premium experiences, enhanced seating in the west bowl, and a modernized concession experience.

► The new facility creates an elite gameday atmosphere for Ragin' Cajuns fans. The new west side features 34 suites, 40 loge boxes, 524 club seats, an indoor club, five new chairback sections in the lower west bowl, and enhanced amenities for all fans with a total capacity of over 30,000. These premium spaces create a first-class gameday experience and provide opportunities for UL and its partners to host premium events throughout the year.

► With 70,000 square feet in a completely reimagined space, every fan at Our Lady of Lourdes Stadium will feel an enhanced gameday experience. The west bowl improvements also include a reinvigorated concourse that provides patrons with new restrooms, more concession offerings, and an overall heightened in-stadium experience.

► DLR Group and AQ Studios designed the renovations, while J.B. Mouton, LLC guided the 19-month project. In addition to the premium seating offerings and concourse enhancements, fans will experience improved sightlines, increased legroom, and new ADA seating locations and upgrades.

Our Lady of Lourdes Stadium, formerly known as Cajun Field has served as the home of Ragin' Cajuns football since September 1971. Louisiana holds a 175-123-2 all-time record on its home field with winning records in 42 of the 54 seasons.

The Cajuns set the school single-season records for total attendance (145,854) and average attendance (29,171) in 2011. Included in those totals were five of the top 15 crowds all-time, including a Sun Belt Conference record 32,823 vs. North Texas on Oct. 15, 2011. Louisiana was the Sun Belt attendance champion in 2004, 2008, 2011, 2013 and 2014.

Cajun Field hosted the 1,000th Cajuns game in school history on Nov. 1, 2008 before a then-Sun Belt record crowd of 29,031. The venue also hosted the 2021 Sun Belt Conference Championship Game as Louisiana earned a 24-16 win over App State before an SBC Championship Game record crowd of 31,014.

Louisiana has enjoyed plenty of memorable moments since the venue opened in 1971. The greatest of those moments came during the 1996 season when the Ragin' Cajuns opened their 26th season in the facility with the biggest upset in school history, a 29-22 victory over No. 25 Texas A&M in front of a then-record crowd of 38,783 fans. That mark surpassed the previous record crowd of 36,133 that saw the Cajuns face the Alabama Crimson Tide on Oct. 6, 1990.

On Nov. 30, 2019, Louisiana earned a thrilling 31-30 victory over in-state rival ULM to eclipse the double-digit win mark for the first time ever with its 10th victory, while also setting the school record for the most SBC wins with seven.

Cajun Field has been the site of much success with four consecutive 4-1 records from 1993-96. The school record for wins at Cajun Field in a season is seven, set during the 1976 season, one of three undefeated seasons (1976, 1980 and 1987) at Cajun Field.

Cajun Field boasts 2,577 chairback seats and additional seating to the capacity of another 38,849 giving the facility a total seating capacity of 41,426. In 2014, the south endzone was closed in to create more seating, adding 5,000 seats to the stadium capacity. In the summer of 2008, Cajun Field removed its long-standing natural grass and entered a new era with a synthetic playing surface.

For the first 17 years, Louisiana's football stadium was simply known as Cajun Field. In the summer of 1988, then-Strength & Conditioning Coach Mickey Faulkinberry suggested referring to Cajun Field as "The Swamp". The name stuck for various reasons. To start, the field surface is set two feet below sea level in a natural bowl.

In addition to providing a picturesque surrounding, the sunken facility allows most fans to walk down to their stadium seats. The Cajuns and their opponents must enter Cajun Field through a long tunnel from the Cox Communications Athletic Center.

LAFAYETTE – Louisiana opened the 2026 season in commanding fashion, using a dominant ground game and four forced turnovers to roll past Lamar, 38-7, Saturday night at Our Lady of Lourdes Stadium.

► Louisiana (1-0) piled up 474 yards of total offense, including 243 on the ground, and scored all five of their touchdowns by rush. Defensively, Louisiana held Lamar (1-1) to 205 total yards and only 56 rushing while collecting three interceptions, three sacks and a fumble recovery.

► Louisiana set the tone on its opening possession with a 10-play, 74-yard march capped by Darrell Smith's 2-yard touchdown run midway through the first quarter.

► The Cajuns broke the game open with three touchdowns in the second quarter, beginning with Smith's 25-yard scoring run at 13:23. Anthony Reagan Jr. followed with an 11-yard touchdown before quarterback Lunch Winfield raced 22 yards to the end zone with 31 seconds remaining, sending Louisiana into halftime with a 28-0 advantage.

► Louisiana's defense helped fuel the first-half surge, recovering a Lamar fumble to set up Reagan's score and intercepting Aiden McCown to halt another Cardinals drive.
